N. B.—It should be understood by the reader that the division of the different books of the New Testament into chapters and verses was the work of men; and it must be confessed, with deep regret, that the work, as a whole, was very poorly done; a chapter sometimes ending where perhaps only a semi-colon or even a comma should have been used; and a verse often ending where the slightest division was required. Such errors tend to obscure the sense.

Yet, because all Biblical literature is based upon the above unfortunate divisions, this present work follows the same order with a few exceptions. The purpose has been, however, to divide the translated matter into paragraphs, rather than to make each verse (as in King James’ version) appear as a paragraph.

APPENDICES.

Appendix (A) furnishes tables of weights, measures and values.
Appendix (B) gives some hints as to how to use the word in its application to others.
Appendix (C) supplies a brief outline of the faith and practice of an ideal assembly of God.
Appendix (D) furnishes an alphabetical list of subjects that may supply material for many readings and studies.
PREFACE.

This Book, in this particular form, is the outgrowth of a solemn conviction that such a work was required of the writer by Him Whose he is, and Whom he seeks to serve. No conviction less than this could have sustained the writer during the two years and a half he has, largely, devoted to this work. The work has been done with the view of pleasing the Supreme Critic, at Whose judgment bar he will have to account for the manner in which He has handled His word; hence, the all-controlling motive has been to please Him Who is to be his Final Critic and Judge.

The work has been begun and prosecuted under the distinct conviction that these New Testament Scriptures, with which the writer has been concerned, are the veritable word of God—His last revelation to this sin-cursed world. Had he believed that these Scriptures were inspired only in "spots," he never could have had the courage to undertake such a task. Or, had he believed that any of the New Testament teachings have become effete, or that they mean less than they did when first given, he would have no heart to embark upon such an enterprise, as their translation and publication. Believing, however, with all his heart, that these Scriptures contain nothing but "live matter;" that they are as true now, and as applicable to man's needs as a triplicate being, as they ever were; and that God stands ready to verify all the promises He has given the world and His people in this Book, when His conditions have been met; the writer, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit (as he believes), undertook the immensely responsible task of furnishing to the public, a correct and literal translation of these Scriptures, put up in good style, with brief notes designed to help the ordinary Christian, who has no knowledge of the original Greek.

Coupled very closely with a desire to please God by rendering whole-hearted obedience to Him in His requisition upon the writer to execute this work, has been the desire—amounting well-nigh to a passion—to glorify Him by this same work. A strong desire, therefore, to please and glorify the Triune God, has glowed in the writer's heart from the time the work began, two and a half years ago; and, with intense gratitude to the Author and Source of all good, he records the (to many) astonishing fact that, during all the labor of translation and preparation of the notes, he has never realized any fatigue, in body or mind, worth noticing. On the contrary, his very spirit, soul, and body, have glowed, much of the time, with an exhilaration that he could but credit to Him Whom he had undertaken to serve, please, and glorify, in the execution of this work.

Of course, absolute perfection is not claimed for this work; but we are confident that there are many improvements, which the intelligent reader will not fail to recognize, and especially in the following particulars: 1. In the capitalization of the initial letter of every pronoun referring to Deity; as, God Who, instead of God who or God which. 2. In restricting the solemn form of the pronouns and verbs to Diety alone; using the common uniformly in all other cases; as, The Father loveth the Son; The disciple loves his Savior. 3. In the use of quotation marks to enclose a direct quotation; as, The Pharisee prayed thus within himself, "Lord, I thank Thee that I am not as other men." 4. In the use of pronouns; as, "Happy are those who mourn," instead of the usual translation, "Blessed are they that mourn." 5. In the clipping of thousands of uns from the preposition unto; as, "He gave the book to me," instead of "He gave the book unto me," where the un is not only (in such cases) useless, but decidedly clumsy and inelegant. In these five particulars alone many thousands of improvements are made even over the late revision of the American Commission, and that also of the English.

Then, in the matter of translation, the present work claims far greater fidelity to the original Greek—especially in the use of two important words—than any revision except a few that, like this, have been by individuals; viz., baptidzo and ecclesia. Had King James, and all others since his day, dealt honestly with these two words, Christendom would not be torn up into shreds, and divided up into competing or hostile factions, as it now is. Had all these revisers correctly translated instead of transferred, the Greek word baptidzo, Christendom would not be compelled to blush at the immense absurdity of calling three entirely different acts baptism. Had they translated baptidzo immerse—which the scholarship of the world required—no one would have been so simple as to call either sprinkle or pour immersion; but as they failed to translate baptidzo, those who are ignorant of the Greek had no certain means of knowing that immersion, sprinkling, and pouring might not all find shelter under this untranslated word, baptize or baptism. Had they translated baptidzo immerse, then every one would have known that sprinkling and pouring were not immersion. Thus an immense wrong has been done in failing to translate baptidzo.

Then a failure properly to translate ecclesia has, likewise, wrought untold mischief. The word [compounded of ek out of, and kaleein to call—hence to call out, or those called out from the world to be disciples of Christ], rightly translated, would have afforded no shelter for the vast ecclesiasticisms that have overshadowed and well-nigh crowded out of being the simple, independent, local assemblies, that were established in the first centuries of Christianity. Ecclesia should have been translated assembly or congregation; and this would have been a rebuke to those who would swallow up all local assemblies in a consolidated denomination, or ecclesiasticism.

The word Sabbath [a rest day, or period of rest] has been fearfully juggled with. It never means week. And, through the false translation of the word, the Christian Sabbath has been greatly abused. The proper translation of Matt. 28:1, and kindred Scriptures, will leave us a Christian Sabbath, "the first, foremost, or queen of Sabbaths." "Now, in the end of Sabbaths [the whole tribe of weekly Sabbaths, special weekly Sabbaths, Fast Sabbaths, and yearly Sabbaths—all of which were types of the Anti-typical Sabbath] at the dawning toward the First day of Sabbaths [the resurrection day of our Savior], came Mary Magdelene and the other Mary to see the sepulcher." All types give way to their anti-types. The resurrection day of Jesus Christ is the most important day, thus far, in the history of our planet. Let it, therefore, have its proper place.

The Greek tenses. It is astonishing to note the little regard paid to the Greek tenses by the revisers under King James, and by the late English and even American Commission. Few, indeed, have "The courage of the Greek tenses," or courage to translate them as they are. Rotherham and Young nearly always translate the tenses correctly; the late lamented Broadus comes next (so far as the writer's information extends) in his fidelity to the tenses; and both the American and the English revisions have made great improvement over the revisions of King James in regard to their rendering of the tenses, though both of the former are singularly lax in their hand-iing of the aorist indicative. If these Scriptures are truly inspired, they must have been verbally inspired; and, if verbally inspired, the tense of every verb must have been inspired; and, being inspired, every tense ought to be duly translated. To handle the tenses carelessly, is to trifle with the word of God. The writer has dealt with the tenses as themselves inspired, and he has not dared to translate them otherwise than is required by the genius of the Greek language. He has translated the present tense to correspond to the "common," "progressive," or "emphatic" form of the English present, as the sense seemed to require; the Greek imperfect, which denotes incomplete or habitual action in past time, into the progressive, or frequentative imperfect tense in English; and the aorist indicative, as the imperfect indefinite in English, to denote completed action in indefinite past time. These are the three tenses that are most difficult to render; the present perfect, future, and future perfect in Greek, meaning about the same as the corresponding tenses in English. It is the business of the translator to translate with scrupulous exactness; and it is the business of the reader to understand and interpret the meaning; the former being concerned to express in English, (or any other language), just what the Greek (or the language to be translated) says; and the latter, to get the best possible meaning out of what is said. Many translators seem to have had in their minds just what ought to have been said, and they often disregard the Greek tenses to sustain their antecedent assumptions. In this work, the writer endeavored to lay aside, as far as possible, all pre-conceived and inherited notions of this inspired Book, and went to work to get at just what it teaches; and, as he has been enabled to grasp the meaning of the Greek, he has faithfully, and in the fear of God alone, endeavored to express it in pure, up-to-date English.

There is yet one other matter the writer has not felt free to copy from others; viz., the habit of transferring a participial modifier of the subject to the predicate, and make it a part of a compound predicate; as, "and having taken a towel, He girded Himself," instead of, as some revisions have it, "and took a towel and girded Himself." This may make the same general meaning, but it is not true to the Greek; and, besides, it assumes the right to put in an "and" that is not found in the Greek. This is a very common occurrence in most translations.

It is needless to say, after what has been said above, that this book appears in the interest of no denomination of Christians; nor does the writer expect any of them, as such, to adopt it; albeit, he does expect intelligent Christians, into whose hands it may fall, who are hungering and thirsting for the Gospel of Christ, to appreciate it; and to help in its distribution over the land, regardless of all petty sect opposition. The writer feels sure that those who read and study this version carefully and prayerfully, in connection with the notes, will be led to drop many of the traditions of men, and come into the possession of a much larger Gospel, than has been ordinarily dealt out to them. The Gospel of Christ, in its fullest meaning, and with all its provisions for the wants of our sinful race, is none too large; and it has been one aim with the writer, all the way through, to bring out, so far as he has been able, the whole truth, "as truth is in Jesus."

"But are you not fearful that your plain translation will injure the sale of the book?" No; not in the least; for money has nothing to do with it. A billion of dollars could not change the translation of either baptidzo or ecclesia. This work has been done as to the Lord; and it is His, and all the net proceeds will be His. We look to Him, therefore, to manage to give it a wide circulation for His own glory. Of course, the co-operation of the lovers of His truth will be gratefully acknowledged. It should be remarked that the Greek text of Westcott and Hort, as modified by that of Scrivener and others, has been used in the preparation of this work.

TO THE READER.

1. The italic words in the body of the Scripture have no word answering to them in the Greek text, but are often understood, or implied; as, "If the world hates you, ye know that it has hated Me, before it hated you."

2. The words of Scripture that are to be explained in the notes, appear in italics; as, He will give you another Advocate; the Father will give the obedient believer who loves Jesus another Advocate, meaning here the Holy Spirit. The explanation immediately follows the italic words.

3. The alternative renderings appear just below the body of the Scripture and just above the notes.

4. Whenever the word Heaven appears with an initial capital H, it refers to the abode of God, or the place where the Heavenly hosts abide. When it is written, heaven, with a small h, or in the plural, heavens, it means the regions above the earth, or the firmament.

Special to the Reader.—1. Understand, dear reader, that present and eternal interests will be subserved by a real understanding, involving an experimental knowledge, of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

2. If you really desire such an understanding of these Scriptures, you must be taught by the Holy Spirit, (John 14:26; 16:13, 14).

3. The Holy One will delight to teach you, if you will receive Him, and yield yourself to His teaching and guidance, (Luke 11:13; John 14:15–17, 26).

4. Understand, too, that a willingness to do the will of God is one of the best preparations for receiving a knowledge of His will, (John 7:17).

5. As Christ is the Essence of the Gospel, seek, with all your heart, to know Him. Open the door of your heart to Him, and let Him in, (Rev. 3:20); and then, as the Holy Spirit enables you to come into heart-union with your Savior (Eph. 3:16, 17; John 14:17–21), make it a matter of the very first concern to continuously abide in Him, and cherish His abiding in you, (John 15:4, 5).

6. By all means, find time to study the word—some portion of it—every day; invoking the Spirit to teach you its real meaning.

7. Study all the references carefully and prayerfully.

8. Study the word under the distinct conviction that it is the inspired word of God; and seek, in the study of it, to grasp all its teachings, clearly taking in every doctrine, promise, principle, and precept, as well as every provision of the Gospel for all the needs of mankind; devoutly praying that you may have grace to appropriate every provision for your spirit, soul, and body, and thus come to have, so far as possible, an experimental knowledge of it.

9. Finally, seek to convey to others, as far as you can, the knowledge thus acquired, to the praise and glory of God.

10. Study the contents, or outline, of each book, before entering upon its study.
THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW.

GENERAL REMARKS ON THE FOUR GOSPELS.

In the wisdom of God He has given four independent accounts of the life and ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ. In the first three there is much in common; both in the matter and the arrangement; each writer having his own peculiar style. John's Gospel speaks of the Divine Christ, and details some of His sublimest teachings, with but little in common with the other three. The main purpose for which John's Gospel was written is stated in John 20:31: "These are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that, believing, ye may have life in His name."

MATTHEW.

Matthew, called also Levi, was one of the twelve apostles. He was a tax-collector under the Roman government, (Matt. 9:9, 10:3; but when Jesus called him Into His service, he left all, and followed Him. Matthew, it appears, wrote his Gospel in Hebrew [or a later Hebrew called Aramaic]; and, later, it was translated into Greek. He seems to have written more particularly for the Jewish Christians. His Gospel was written, it is thought, as early as A.D. 38.

MATTHEW.

CHAPTER I.

1 A book of the lineage of Jesus Christ, Son of David, Son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judah and his brothers; and Judah begat Pharez and Zarah of Tamar; and Pharez begat Hezron; and Hezron begat Aram; and Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naassan; and Naassan begat Salmon; and Salmon begat Boaz of Rahab; and Boaz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; and Jesse begat David, the king; and David begat Solomon, the father of the wife of Uriah; and Solomon begat Rehoboam; and Rehoboam begat Abijah; and Abijah begat Asa; and Asa begat Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Uzziah; and Uzziah begat Jotham; and Jotham begat Ahaz; and Ahaz begat Hezekiah; and Hezekiah begat Manasseh; and Manasseh begat Amon; and Amon begat Josiah; and Josiah begat Jechoniah and his brothers upon the removal to Babylon; and, after the removal to Babylon, Jechoniah begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zerubbabel; and Zerubbabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; and Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; and Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, Who is called Christ.

17 All the generations, therefore, from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David to the removal to Babylon, fourteen; and from the removal to Babylon to the Christ, fourteen generations.

1 Gr. At the Babylonian removal.

11 Josiah begat Jechoniah: here Eliakim, son of Josiah, and father of Jechoniah, is omitted.

16 Who is called the Christ; the Christ means the Anointed. Jesus was anointed with the Holy Spirit, (Acts 10:38), to fit Him for His office work. In Hebrew [or Old Testament language] He was called the Messiah, which is the same as the Christ, or the anointed One.

17 All the generations... are fourteen: by certain omissions which the Jews probably understood; making, in all, forty-two generations, in round numbers, from Abraham to Christ.
18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was thus: His mother Mary having been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child of the Holy Spirit.

19 And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not wishing to make an example of her, purposed privately to divorce her. 20 And, while thinking of these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, fear not to take to yourself Mary your wife; for that which was begotten in her is of the Holy Spirit.

THE BIRTH OF JESUS.

18 Mary, having been espoused to Joseph; engaged to be married to him. Before; before they were married. Of the Holy Spirit; the Spirit was the Author of the humanity of Jesus, [Heb. 10:5; Luke 1:35].

19 Not wishing to make an example of her; not wishing to expose her to shame. Privately to divorce her; Deut. 24:1.

20 Son of David; descendant of David.

CHAPTER II.

THE VISIT OF THE WISE MEN.

1 And Jesus having been born in Bethlehem of Judaea, in the days of Herod the King, behold, wise men from the east came to Jerusalem, 2 saying, "Where is He that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the east, and we came to do Him homage."

2 And the king Herod, hearing it, was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him; 3 and having assembled all the high-priests and scribes of the people, he was inquiring of them, "Where is the Christ born?" 5 And they said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judaea;" for thus it has been written through the prophet: 6 "And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the governors of Judah; for out of you shall come forth a Governor, who shall be shepherd of My people Israel."

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

1 Of Judaea; to distinguish it from Bethlehem of Galilee, Herod the King; who was an Edomite, a Jewish proselyte, and a man of great wickedness and cruelty.

2 Born King of the Jews; tradition says that there was a very general belief that there would be born in Judah one who would hold universal dominion. We saw His star in the east; no doubt, this star was divinely appointed to guide these wise men to the place where the infant Redeemer was born.

3 Herod...was troubled; he feared a rival. And his trouble spread like a contagion among the people of his realm.

4 High-priests; the chief officers of the Jewish religion.

21 Call His name Jesus; same as Joshua. Jesus signifies the salvation of Jehovah. He shall save His people; from the pollution, power, guilt, and penalty, of sin.

22 That it might be fulfilled; which was written in Isa. 7:14: "A virgin shall conceive, and bear a Son." (spoken more than seven hundred years before).

23 Shall call His name Emmanuel; this was a proper title for Jesus Christ, because He was God manifested in flesh, and mingled among the people.

7 Then Herod, having privately called the wise men, ascertained from them exactly the time the star appeared; 8 and, sending them to Bethlehem, he said, "Having gone, inquire ye exactly concerning the Child; and, when ye find Him, bring me word, that I, too, having come, may worship Him." 9 And they, having heard the king, departed; and, behold, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till, having come, it stood over where the Child was. 10 And, seeing the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy. 11 And, coming into the house, they saw the Child with Mary, His mother; and, falling down, they paid Him homage; and, having opened their treasures, they presented to Him gifts—gold and frankincense and myrrh. 12 And, having been divinely warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed by another way into their own country.
13 And, they having departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appears to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Having risen, take the Child and His mother, and flee into Egypt, and be there till I speak to you; for Herod is about to seek the Child to destroy Him."

14 And, arising, he took the Child and His mother by night, and departed into Egypt, and was there till the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called My Son."

16 Then Herod, seeing that he was deceived by the wise men, was exceedingly enraged; and, having sent forth, he slew all the male children in Bethlehem, and in all its borders, from two years old and under, according to the time which he exactly learned from the wise men. 17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, 18 "A voice in Ramah was heard, weeping and great mourning; Rachel, weeping for her children; and she was not willing to be comforted, because they are not."

19 And, Herod having died, behold, an angel of the Lord appears to Joseph in a dream in Egypt, saying, 20 "Arising, take the Child and His mother, and go into the land of Israel; for those who sought the life of the Child are dead."

21 And he, having risen, took the Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel. 22 But, hearing that Archelaus was reigning over Judaea instead of his father Herod, he feared to go thither; and, having been divinely warned in a dream, he withdrew into the parts of Galilee; 23 and, coming, he dwelt in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, "A Nazarene shall He be called."

CHAPTER III.

JOHN THE IMMERSEER.

1 Now in those days comes John, the Immerser, preaching in the wilderness of Judaea, saying, "Repent ye for the Kingdom of Heaven has drawn near; for this is he that was spoken of by Isaiah, the prophet, saying, 'A voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord.'"

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

1 The Immerser, a title given to John, because he immersed people. In the wilderness of Judaea; bordering on the Jordan and the Dead Sea; a country used for pasturage.

2 Repent ye; repentance is a radical change of mind in regard to sin, accompanied by a purpose and a disposition never to commit it any more. Since the death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus Christ, repentance becomes man’s first duty, (see Acts 3:19; 17:30). The Kingdom of Heaven; the interests of Christ in the hearts and lives of men; God’s cause on earth. He rules in the hearts of men now, and is preparing material for His Millennial reign and visible Kingdom on earth.

3 Prepare ye the way of the Lord; in the original it is, make the matter sure, he included in his bloody orders all males under two years.

17 Fulfilled; the slaughter of the innocents in Judaea was like the scene depicted by Jeremiah in 31:15.

18 In Ramah; North of Jerusalem in the realm of the tribe of Benjamin, of whom Rachel was the mother. Rachel was buried near Bethlehem, where, poetically, she may be represented as weeping for her slain descendants.

22 Nazareth; a town very much despised. A Nazarene; one exceedingly odious, as it was foretold that Jesus would be, (see Isa. 53:2, 3).

4 And John himself had his raiment of camel’s hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then were going forth to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the country round about the Jordan, and they were being immersed by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

"Prepare ye the way of Jehovah." The Messiah is coming, prepare the way before Him. The Jehovah of the Old Testament is the Christ Jesus of the New.

4 John’s raiment and food indicated great simplicity of life and manners; but in Christ’s esteem John was the greatest of living men, regardless of his poverty and simplicity.

5, 6 There were going forth to him; crowds of people kept thronging to him, as indicated by the tense form of the verb. They were being immersed; not that the same people were being repeatedly immersed, but different companies, in almost a continuous stream at times, kept coming to him; and they were, one after another, immersed by him in the Jordan.
7 But, seeing many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his immersion, he said to them, “Broods of vipers! who warned you to flee from the coming wrath! 8 Produce, therefore, fruit worthy of repentance; and think not to say within yourselves, ‘Is a father we have Abraham;’ for I say to you, that God is able out of these stones to raise up children to Abraham. 10 And already the axe is lying at the root of the trees; every tree, therefore, not bearing good fruit, is cut down, and cast into the fire.

11 “I, indeed, immerse you in water unto repentance, but He Who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to bear, He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit and fire; 12 Whose fan is in His hand, and He will thoroughly cleanse His threshing-floor, and will gather into great inferiority to Jesus, and He shrank from the idea of immersing Him.

13 Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to the Jordan, to John, to be immersed by him; 14 but he was hindering Him, saying, “I have need to be immersed by Thee; and dost Thou come to me?” 15 But Jesus, answering, said to him, “Suffer it now; for thus it becomes us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he suffers Him.

16 And, having been immersed, Jesus went up straightway from the water; and, behold, the heavens were opened; and he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, coming upon Him; 17 and, behold, a voice out of the heavens, saying, “This is My Son, the beloved, in whom I delighted.”

CHAPTER IV.

1 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted by the Devil. 2 And, having fasted forty days and forty nights, He afterwards hungered.

3 And the Tempter, having come near, said to Him, “If Thou art God’s Son, speak, that these stones may become loaves of bread.” 4 But He, answering, said, “It has been written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.’”

NOTES ON CHAPTER IV.

1 Or, tested.

2, 3 He hungered: after His forty days’ fast. Make these stones breads: Satan would have led Jesus to work a miracle to satisfy His own hunger, but He refused.

3 It has been written; Deut. 8:3. By every word: obedience to God’s word in all things is the surest way of having all our needs supplied. (Phil. 4:19).
5 Then the Devil takes Him into the holy city, and placed Him on the pinnacle of the temple, 6 and says to Him, "If Thou art a Son of God, cast Thyself down; for it has been written, 'He shall give His angels charge concerning Thee; and on their hands they shall bear Thee up; lest at any time Thou shouldest dash Thy foot against a stone.'"

7 Jesus said to him, "Again it has been written, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.'"

8 Again the Devil takes Him into an exceedingly high mountain, and shows Him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; 9 and he said to Him, "All these things will I give Thee, if, falling down, Thou wilt worship me."

10 Then Jesus saith to him, "Depart, Satan; for it has been written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve.'"

11 Then the Devil leaves Him; and, behold, angels came and were ministering to Him.

12 And, hearing that John was delivered up, He withdrew into Galilee. 13 And, having left Nazareth, having come, He dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulon and Naphtali; 14 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, 15 "Land of Zebulon and land of Naphtali, by way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, 16 Galilee of the nations: 16 The people that were sitting in darkness saw a great Light; and to those sitting in a region and shadow of death Light arose."

17 From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, "Repent ye; for the Kingdom of Heaven has drawn near."

18 And, walking by the sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishers. 19 And He saith to them, "Come after Me, and I will make you fishers of men." 20 And, immediately leaving their nets, they followed Him.

21 And, having gone on thence, He saw other two brothers; James a son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and He called them; 22 and they, having immediately left the boat and their father, followed Him.

23 And Jesus was going about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. 24 And the report of Him went forth into all Syria; and they brought to Him all having ailments, afflicted with manifold diseases and torments, demoniacs, and lunatics, and paralytics; and He healed them. 25 And there followed him great multitudes from Galilee, and Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judaea, and beyond Jordan.

2 Or, upon.
CHAPTER V.

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT.

1 And, seeing the multitudes, He went up into the mountain; and, having sat down, His disciples came to Him: 2 and, opening His mouth, He taught them, saying,

3 “Happy are the poor in spirit; because theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

4 “Happy are those who mourn; because they shall be comforted.

5 “Happy are the meek; because they shall inherit the earth.

6 “Happy are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness; because they shall be filled.

7 “Happy are the merciful; because they shall receive mercy.

8 “Happy are the pure in heart; because they shall see God.

9 “Happy are the peacemakers; because they shall be called sons of God.

10 “Happy are those who have been persecuted for righteousness’ sake; because theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

11 “Happy are ye, when they shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for My sake. 12 Rejoice, and exult; because great is your reward in Heaven, for so persecuted they the prophets who were before you.

13 Ye are the salt of the earth; but, if the salt become tasteless, with what shall it be salted? It is henceforth good for nothing, except, when cast without, to be trodden under foot by men.

14 Ye are the light of the world: a city, set upon a hill, cannot be hid. 15 Nor do they light a lamp, and put it under the measure, but on the lamp-stand; and it gives light to all who are in the house. 16 So let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father Who is in Heaven.

17 “Think not that I came to destroy the law, or the prophets; I came not to destroy, but to fulfill.

NOTES ON CHAPTER V.

3 Happy; or blessed. The poor in spirit; those who feel their unworthiness, and take a lowly place at the feet of Jesus. The very opposite of the proud and self-sufficient. Theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven; such persons belong to the Kingdom of Heaven, having been born of the Spirit, (John 3:3).

4 They that mourn; first over their own sins; then over their shallowness; and later over the desolations of Zion. Comforted: by the Holy Comforter, Who comes in to abide in the heart that is truly dead to sin, and alive to God.

5 The meek; those who have lost the fiery nature of the self-life, and have become gentle, submissive, patient, kind, and non-rebellious. They shall inherit the earth; during the reign of Christ. (Rev. 20:4; Zech. 14:9).

6 Hunger and thirst for righteousness; for the living Christ. The soul that is truly hungering and thirsting for God (Psa. 42:1, 2; 63:1; 81:3), can be satisfied with nothing short of the living Christ enthroned within, (Eph. 3:17; John 14:13, 21). Shall be filled; shall receive what they desire, (see John 4:14; Eph. 5:16-19).

7 The merciful; those who are filled with tender compassion for the sufferings of others, and who show their sympathy in a substantial way. Shall receive mercy; ch. 25:42-45.

8 The pure in heart; those who have Christ enthroned in their hearts. (See God; have fellowship with the Father and the Son, (1 John 1:3; John 14:23).
but to fulfill. 18 For verily I say to you, till the heaven and the earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law, till all things be accomplished. 19 Whosoever, therefore, shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven; but whosoever shall do and teach them, shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. 20 For I say to you that, unless your righteousness shall exceed that of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. 21 "Ye heard that it was said to the ancients, 'You shall not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment.' 22 But I say to you that every one who is angry with his brother shall be in danger of the judgment; and whosoever says to his brother 'Raca!' shall be in danger of the high-council; and whosoever shall say 'O, foolish one! shall be in danger of the Hell of fire. 23 If, therefore, you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has ought against you, 24 leave there your gift before the altar, and go your way, first be reconciled to your brother, and then, coming, offer your gift. 25 Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are with him in the way; lest perhaps the adversary deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison. 26 Verily I say to you, in no wise shall you come out thence, till you pay the last farthing. 27 "Ye heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery;' 28 but I say to you, that every one who looks upon a woman, to lust after her, already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 "And, if your right eye is causing you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you; for it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not your whole body be cast into Hell. 30 "And, if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from you; for it is profitable for you that one of your members should perish, and not your whole body go away into Hell. 31 "And it was said, 'Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:' 32 but I say to you, that every one who puts away his wife, except on account of fornication, makes her commit adultery; and whosoever marries her when put away commits adultery. 33 "Again ye heard that it was said to the ancients, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform to the Lord your oaths:' 34 but I say to you, Swear not at all; neither by Heaven, because it is God's throne; 35 nor by the earth, because it is His footstool; nor by Jerusalem, because it is the Great King's city; 36 neither restrained anger. The high-council; that of the Sanhedrin. O foolish one! whoever advances in his wrath to such a point is in danger of losing his soul in Hell.

1 Gr. Gehenna of fire.
swear by your head, because you can not make one hair white or black. 37 But let your speech be, 'Yes, yes;' 'No, no;' and what is more than these is of the evil one.

38 'Ye heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth,' 39 but I say to you, Resist not the evil one; but whosoever smites you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also; 40 and to him who is desirous that you should be sued at the law, and to take your coat, grant your cloak also; 41 and whosoever shall impress you to go one mile, go with him two. 42 Give to him asking you; and from him who wishes to borrow of you, turn not away.

only profanity, but all kinds of legal oaths. It is enough to solemnly affirm.

37 Ye; yes; no; no; simple affirmation or denial without swearing of any kind.

39 Resist not the evil one; by rendering evil for evil.

40 Coat, cloak; the coat was an inner garment, answering to a dress coat among us. The cloak was worn over the other, and used much as an overcoat. Grant your cloak also; let him have your cloak, too, if he insists on it. "Love seeks not her own." (1 Cor. 13:5).

41 Shall impress you to go a mile; this seems to refer to governmental impressment; and in all such cases, one should be willing to do even more than is required.

42 Give to him asking you; this seems to be very plain. There was a missionary once who hesitated to explain this verse to his African audience; but receiving no rest till he did explain it, his heathen audience soon took nearly every thing he had in his home. The king, hearing of what his subjects had done, issued an order that all the goods should be returned; and so the goods were found in the missionary's yard not many days later. God will help those who obey Him, and supply all their need. (Phil. 4:19).

43 Love your enemies; this command can be fully obeyed only as we let Jesus live and rule in our hearts, and exercise His mighty love through us. (1 Cor. 13:4-7).

45 That ye may be sons of your Father; if we act toward our enemies as God does—bestowing blessings upon them—all undeserved on their part, we show our high origin, and prove ourselves to be real sons of God.

46 If ye love those; those only, who love you.

48 Perfect as your Father; we should imitate our Heavenly Father in all His merciful works to sinful men. Our Father wishes us to become like Him by letting His Son develop and live His perfect life in us.

5 "And, when ye pray, ye shall not be as the hypocrites; for they love to pray, standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men: verily I say to you, they have their reward. 5 But when you pray, enter into your closet; and, having closed your door, pray to your Father Who is in secret; and your Father Who seeth in secret will recompense you.

NOTES ON CHAPTER VI.

1 To be seen by them; to gain their favor or admiration. All such work is an abomination in the sight of God.

2 They receive their reward; in the applause of their fellowmen. That is what they aim at; and that is all they get. They have to meet God in the future judgment; and they will receive their final reward from Him.

3, 4 Let not your left hand know; let your deeds of charity be known only to the recipient and to God. He will, in due time, recompense you suitably.

43 "Ye heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor, and hate your enemy;' 44 but I say to you, Love your enemies; and pray for those who persecute you; 45 that ye may be sons of your Father Who is in Heaven; because He causeth His sun to rise on evil men and on good, and sendeth rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. 46 For, if ye love those who love you, what reward have ye? do not even the tax-collectors the same? 47 And, if ye salute your brethren only, what more than others do ye? Do not even the gentiles the same? 48 Ye, therefore, shall be perfect, as your Heavenly Father is perfect.'
have need before ye ask Him. 9 Thus, therefore, pray ye: 'Our Father, Who art in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. 10 Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done, as in Heaven, so on earth. 11 Give us this day our daily bread. 12 And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. 13 And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.'

14 'For, if ye forgive men their trespasses, your Heavenly Father will also forgive you; 15 but, if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 "And, when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance; for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear to men to fast. Verily, I say to you, they receive their reward. 17 But, when fasting, anoint your head, and wash your face, 18 that you appear not to men to be fasting, but to your Father Who is in secret; and your Father Who seeth in secret will recompense you.

19 "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves do break through, nor steal; 20 but lay up for yourselves treasures in Heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes, and where thieves do not break through, nor steal; 21 for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 "The lamp of the body is the eye. If, therefore, your eye be sound, your whole body will be full of light; 23 but, if your eye be evil, your whole body will be dark. If, therefore, the light that is in you be darkness, how great the darkness!

24 "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and Mammon. 25 Therefore, I say to you, be not anxious for your life, what ye may eat, or what ye may drink; nor for your body, what ye may put on. Is not the life of more value than the food, and the body than the raiment? 26 Behold the fowls of the heaven, that they sow not, nor reap, nor gather into barns; and your Heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye much more valuable than they? 27 And who of you, by being anxious, can add to his stature one cubit? 28 And why are ye anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin; 29 but I say to you that even Solomon in his glory was not arrayed so than these.

1 Or, disfigure. 2 Dig through.
3 Gr. Soul.

9 Thus pray ye: this, as a model, is at once concise, pointed, and comprehensive. It contains the invocation, and six comprehensive petitions; three of these petitions pertaining to God, and three to the petitioner. Our Father; the rightful Sovereign of all, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, and, hence, the Father of all who truly believe in Christ. True believers are children of God by faith in Jesus Christ. (Gal. 3:26). Hallowed be Thy name; Thy name be sanctified, made holy, revered, honored, adored.

10 Thy Kingdom come; into the hearts of Thy people, till all shall know Thee. It probably includes the Millennial reign also, when the meek shall inherit the earth. Thy will be done; everywhere in all the earth, as it is done in Heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread; or with Rotherham, our "needful bread." Bread is the gift of God, appointed to sustain life, and needful to this end.

12 Forgive us our debts; our sins. Debtors; those who have sinned against us.

13 Bring us not into temptation; keep us out of all perils, and from the way of the despoiler. Deliver us from the evil one; from Satan.

14, 15 If we expect God to forgive us, we must forgive others who have done us wrong. An unforgiving person is an unforgiven person.

16 Disfigure their faces; by failing to wash them, and by leaving their hair and beard untrimmed.

17 Anoint your head; with oil, and appear as usual. Let not your unusual manner draw attention to you.

18 Treasures upon the earth; earthly riches, which most men regard as their chief good.

20 Treasures in Heaven; loving deeds of obedience, feeding and clothing God's poor, carrying or sending the Gospel to others. These are the deeds that will bring reward and blessing in the life to come.

21 There will your heart be; our hearts cling to our treasures. If our treasures are laid up in Heaven, our hearts will be there also, and God's blessing will crown our lives.

22 If your eye be sound; sound and clear in vision.

23 If your eye be evil; diseased, unable to see clearly. Will be dark; be enveloped in darkness. The deeper teaching is, that, if one's spiritual vision is not clear, his spiritual being will be in darkness and walketh in darkness. How great is the darkness; if the powers which God gave us to discern the good are so distorted as to lead us to choose the evil, how intense must be our darkness!

24 Serve two masters; Yield obedience to two rival masters; such as God and Mammon, or riches.

25 Be not anxious for your life; anxiety is always sinful, because it implies that God is not made the supreme object of one's care. What one eats, drinks, and wears, embrace all the necessities of life. God has given us life; will He not provide all that is necessary to sustain it? Having given us bodies, will He not provide the clothing needful for their comfort?

26 Much more valuable than they; If God feeds the less valuable, will He not also feed the more valuable?

27 By being anxious; by concentrating all his care and interest on the point. Can add to his stature one cubit; or make himself any taller than nature made him. Some understand that the word stature here means age; but a cubit is not a measure of time, but of space; as length, breadth, or height.
all his glory was not arrayed as one of these. 30 And, if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, that to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? 31 Be not, therefore, anxious, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we put on?' 32 For after

CHAPTER VII.

1 "Judge not, that ye be not judged; 2 for with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged; and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you. 3 "And why do you behold the mote that is in your brother's eye, but consider not the beam in your own eye? 4 Or how will you say to your brother, 'Permit me to cast out the mote out of your eye;' and, behold, the beam is in your own eye? 5 Hypocrite! Cast out first the beam out of your own eye; and then you will see clearly to cast out the mote out of your brother's eye. 6 "Give not that which is holy to the dogs; neither cast your pearls before the swine, lest haply they trample them down with their feet; and, turning, rend you. 7 "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you; 8 for every one who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it shall be opened. 9 Or what man is there of you who, if his son shall ask him for bread, will give him a stone? 10 Or if he shall ask for a fish, will give him a serpent? 11 If, therefore, ye, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father Who is in Heaven give good things to those asking Him?

12 "All things, therefore, whatsoever ye wish that men should do to you, so do ye also to them; for this is the law and the prophets. 13 "Enter ye in through the narrow gate; because wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter through it; 14 we need; seek for the things we desire to find; and knock for admission into the presence of our God. These are so many ways of having our utmost needs supplied. 8 Every one who asks; asks truly, with an unquestioning faith, all the antecedent conditions of obedience being complied with; and so, also, in regard to the seeking and knocking. 11 Give good gifts to your children; all parents, even those who are evil, delight to bestow good gifts upon their children. How much more; our Heavenly Father is immeasurably more concerned to bestow good things—even the Holy Spirit (Luke 11:13) and all that is promised in the Gospel—upon those who truly ask Him. What an infinite mine of riches is here presented! 12 That one should do to you; the rule that is to govern our conduct towards others may be learned by what we wish them to do to us; not by what they do, but what we wish them to do.

13 Enter ye in through the narrow gate; this points to the difficulty of entering upon a truly religious life. Wide is the gate; hence easy to be entered; one having but to follow his own evil heart, and to walk in the ways of Satan, because narrow is the gate, and straitened is the way that leads to life, and few there are who find it!

15 "Beware of false prophets, who, indeed, come to you in sheep's clothing, but within are ravening wolves. 16 From their fruits ye shall recognize them. Do not men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? 17 So every good tree bears good fruit, but the worthless tree bears evil fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bear evil fruit, nor can a worthless tree bear good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. 20 So then, from their fruits ye shall know them.

21 "Not every one who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven, but he that does the will of My Father in Heaven. 22 Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy by Thy name? and by Thy name cast out devils, and by Thy name healed the sick?'

23 And then will I confess to them, I never knew you; depart from Me, ye who work iniquity.

24 "Every one, therefore, who hears these words of Mine, and does them, shall be likened to a prudent man, who, indeed, built his house upon the rock; and the rain descended, and the streams came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house; and it fell not, for it had been founded on the rock.

26 "And every one who hears these words of Mine, and does them not, shall be likened to a foolish man, who, indeed, built his house upon the sand: and the rain descended, and the streams came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house; and it fell; and great was its fall."

28 And it came to pass that, when Jesus ended these words, the multitudes were astonished at His teaching; 29 for He was teaching them as One having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER VIII.

A LEPER CLEANSED.

1 And, when He came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him. 2 And, behold, a leper, coming near, was worshiping Him, saying, "Lord, if Thou art willing, Thou art able to cleanse me." 3 And, stretching forth His hand, He touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be cleansed." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith to him, "See that you tell no one; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

A CENTURION'S SERVANT HEALED.

5 And, when He entered into Capernaum, there came to Him a centurion, whose servant was sick.

NOTES ON CHAPTER VIII.

2 A leper; leprosy is one of the foulest and most incurable diseases. Art willing; . . . able; Thou hast the power to heal, if only Thou art willing. Such is the belief of the great mass of Christians. They think that, if Jesus were willing, they could be healed. I am willing; the fault is not the unwillingness of Jesus, but in the unbelief of Christians.
beseeching Him, 6 and saying, "Lord, my boy hath been prostrated in my house, a paralytic, fearfully afflicted." 7 And He saith to him, "Having gone, I will heal him." 8 And the centurion, answering, said, "Lord, I am not worthy that Thou shouldest enter under my roof, but only speak in a word, and my boy shall be healed; 9 for I also am a man under authority, having under myself soldiers; and I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." 10 And Jesus, hearing it, wondered, and said to those following Him, "Verily I say to you, with no one in Israel did I find such faith. 11 And I say to you that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the Kingdom of Heaven; 12 but the sons of the Kingdom shall be cast out into the outer darkness, there will be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth." 13 And Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way; as you believed, be it done to you." And the boy was healed in that hour.

PETRER’S MOTHER-IN-LAW AND MANY OTHERS HEALED.

14 And Jesus, coming into the house of Peter, saw his mother-in-law prostrate, and sick with fever: 15 and He touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she arose, and was ministering to Him. 16 And, when it was evening, they brought to Him many demoniacs; and He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick, 17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "Himself took our infirmities, and bore our sicknesses."

A SCRIBE AND A DISCIPLE TESTED.

18 And Jesus, seeing a multitude about Him, gave orders to depart to the other side. 19 And a scribe, coming near, said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow Thee wheresoever Thou mayst go." 20 And Jesus saith to him, "The foxes have dens; and the birds of the heaven have lodging-places; but the Son of Man hath not where to lay His head." 21 And another of the disciples said to Him, "Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father." 22 But Jesus saith to him, "Follow Me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

A TEMPEST CALMED.

23 And His disciples followed Him, as He entered into a boat. 24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves; but He was sleeping. 25 And, coming to Him, they awoke Him, saying,

1 Or, young man. 2 Or, "say the word." 6 My boy; possibly a servant boy. 8 I am not worthy; a sense of unworthiness is sure to accompany great faith. 9 Under authority; under authority to his superiors, and hence familiar with prompt obedience. Having under myself soldiers; knowing how to render prompt obedience. As much as to say, "Master you need not trouble yourself to go to the place where my sick boy is, but simply order his healing, and it will be done." 10 Such faith; this gentle soldier displayed greater faith in the power of Jesus than any Israeliite He had met. 11 Many will come; many from the gentiles—a prophecy that many gentiles would accept the Gospel. 12 Sons of the Kingdom; the Jews, who were the people of God, rejected Jesus, and were cast out, or rejected. And there; in the outer darkness. This may refer to the condition of the Jews in their dreadful state of rejection during the centuries that have followed their rejection of Jesus Christ, or it may refer to the lost in Israel. 13 As you believed; in My ability to heal your boy. Be it done to you; your boy shall be healed. 15 The fever left her; and so it is now; those who receive the Saviour’s touch through faith are healed of whatever diseases they have. 16 He cast out the spirits; the demons that were in the demoniacs. Demons have much to do with many diseases. (see Luke 13:16; Acts 10:39).
"Lord, save; we are perishing!" 26 And He saith to them, "Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith?" Then, having arisen, He rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. 27 And the men wondered, saying, "What manner of Man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him!"

TWO Demoniacs RELIEVED.

28 And, when He came to the other side, into the country of the Gadarenes, there met Him two demoniacs, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no one could pass along that way; 29 and, behold, they cried out, saying, "What is there to us and to Thee, O Son of God? Didst Thou come here to torment us before the time?" 30 Now there was afar off from them a herd of many swine feeding. 31 And the demons were entreating Him, saying, "If Thou cast us out, send us away into the herd of swine." 32 And He said to them, "Go." And, having come out, they went away into the swine; and, behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep into the sea, and died in the waters! 33 And those feeding them fled; and, going away into the city, they reported all things, and the things relating to the demoniacs. 34 And, behold, all the city came forth to meet Jesus; and, seeing Him, they besought Him, that He would depart from their borders.

NOTES ON CHAPTER IX.

1 Into his own city; Capernaum, (ch. 4:13).
2 Seeing their faith; the faith of others often accomplishes much for their friends. "Your sins are forgiven," disease is often a fruit of sin. Jesus had power to forgive sins; and the pardon of the man's sins was the hope of healing to him.
3 This Man is blaspheming; by usurping, as they supposed, the prerogative of God.
4 Knowing their thoughts; Jesus, as a consequence of His omniscience, knew their thoughts. Think ye evil; as if I were a blasphemer.
5 Easter; both alternatives—the forgiving of sins, and the healing of diseases—are of God.
6 That ye may know; by the healing of the paralytic. Being God (1 John 1:1; Isa. 9:6), He was able to forgive sins and to heal the sick.
7 Such authority; the authority to heal the sick, and, in the present case, to forgive sins also.
8 Matthew; the writer of this Gospel. Sitting at the tax-office; receiving the taxes that were being paid.
9 And sinners; wicked persons. This does not imply that the tax-collectors were not sinners, but they were, perhaps, not as outbreaken in sin as the others.
11 And the Pharisees, seeing it, said to His disciples, "Why is your Teacher eating with the tax-collectors and sinners?"

12 And Jesus, hearing it, said, "Those who are well have need of a physician, but those who are ill. But, going, learn what this means: I desire mercy, and not sacrifice; for I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

14 Then came to Him the disciples of John, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Thy disciples fast not?" 15 Jesus said to them, "Can the sons of the bridechamber mourn while the Bridegroom is with them? But there will come days, when the Bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then will they fast.

16 "And no one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch tears away from the garment, and a worse rent is made.

17 "Neither do they put new wine into old wine-skins; otherwise, indeed, the skins burst, and the wine runs out, and the skins are destroyed; but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins, and both are preserved together."

18 While He is speaking these things to them, behold, a ruler, having come to Him, was worshiping Him, saying, "My daughter just now died; but, coming, lay Thy hand upon her, and she shall live."

19 And Jesus, having risen, was following him, also His disciples.

THE WOMAN WITH FLOW OF BLOOD CURED.

20 And, behold, a woman, having a flow of blood twelve years, having come up behind Him, touched the border of His garment; 21 for she was saying within herself, "If I only touch His garment, I shall be made well." 22 And Jesus, turning and seeing her, said, "Be of good courage, daughter, your faith has made you well." 23 And the woman was made well from that hour.

23 And Jesus, having come into the house of the ruler, and seeing the flute-players and the multitude making a tumult, 24 said, "Withdraw; for the damsel did not die, but is sleeping." And they were laughing at Him. 25 But, when the multitude was put forth, having gone in, He took hold of her hand, and the damsel arose. 26 And the report of this went forth into all that land.

TWO BLIND MEN RESTORED TO SIGHT.

27 And, as Jesus was passing on thence, two blind men followed Him, crying out, and saying, "Have mercy on us, O Son of David!" 28 And the blind men came to Him, when He entered into the house; and He saith to them, "Believe ye that I am able to do this?" They say to Him, that Christianity is not to be grafted on to Judaism, ritualism, or formalism, of any type. Both the unshrunk cloth and the wine, etc. teach that Pharisaism is not the soil in which Christianity can thrive.

18 A ruler; an elder, or keeper of the synagogue.

21 She was saying within herself; the thought kept revolving, as it were, in her mind. If I only touch His garment; a single touch of faith will bring healing now as then.

22 Your faith has made you well; her faith brought her into touch with Christ, and He did the healing.

23 Making a tumult; with their music and wailing.

24 Withdraw; retire; your services are not needed. The damsel did not die; to remain so permanently. Her death resembles a nap of sleep from which she will presently awake.

25 Having gone in; Mark says that five persons were with Jesus (5:37, 40). These were competent witnesses of the miracle.

27 Son of David; an expression among the Jews that was equal to the Messiah, as a Descendant from David.
“Yes, Lord.” 29 Then He touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith be it done to you.” 30 And their eyes were opened. And Jesus strictly charged them, saying, “See that no one know it.” 31 But they, having gone forth, spread abroad His fame in all that land.

DEMONIAC RELIEVED, AND OTHERS HEALED.

32 And, as they were going forth, behold, they have brought to Him a dumb man, a demoniac; 33 and, the demon having been cast out, the dumb spake. And the multitudes wondered, saying, “Never was it so seen in Israel!” 34 But the Pharisees said, “By the ruler of the demons He is casting out the demons.”

35 And Jesus was going about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every infirmity. 36 And, seeing the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed and scattered, as sheep having no shepherd. 37 Then He saith to His disciples, “The harvest, indeed, is abundant, but the laborers few; 38 pray ye, therefore, the Lord of the harvest, that He send forth laborers into His harvest.

CHAPTER X.

THE TWELVE APOSTLES SENT FORTH.

1 And, having called to Him His twelve disciples, He gave them authority over unclean spirits, so as to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; 3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax-collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus; 4 Simon the Cananae, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him. 5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, having charged them, saying, “Go not into any way of the gentiles, and enter not into a city of the Samaritans; 6 but go ye rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 And, while going, preach, saying, ‘The Kingdom of Heaven Jews. James, the son of Alphaeus; the writer of the epistle bearing his name.

36 As sheep having no shepherd; the multitudes were scattered and confused, reminding Matthew of a flock of sheep without a shepherd. The religious teachers of the Jews were not competent shepherds; and, therefore, the restless, confused condition of the people.

37 The harvest, indeed, is abundant; many hundreds of millions need the Gospel.

38 Send forth laborers into His harvest; it is the prerogative of God to call, equip, and send forth laborers into His harvest; and it is the privilege of all Christians to join in this prayer to the Lord of the harvest. It is a fearful thing for any one to attempt to enter this great harvest field as a laborer, unless he is endued with power for the work (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:8), and has Christ revealed in him (Gal. 1:16) as the supreme qualification for preaching.

39 Authority over unclean spirits; showing that all unclean spirits were under His control. To cast them out, and to heal; the casting out of demons was one thing, and the healing of the sick another; but as demons have an agency in fastening diseases upon people, they should be cast out as a preparation for healing—especially where they have brought the disease to the parts. Full equipment for service comes from Christ.

40 Apostles; persons sent. The apostles were the highest officials connected with the early propagation of Christianity. Simon; called Cephas, which is the Syro-Chaldaic for the Greek Petros—Peter. James; who was slain by Herod, (Acts 12:3).

41 Matthew; the tax-collector, acting in the interests of the Roman government, hence very much hated by the 8 Heal the sick; raise the dead; cleanse the lepers; cast out demons; freely ye received, freely give. 9 Procure neither gold, nor silver, nor brass, for your girdles; 10 nor wallet for your journey, nor two coats, nor sandals, nor a staff; for the labourer is worthy of his food.

11 "And into whatsoever city or village ye enter, inquire who in it is worthy, and there abide till ye go forth. 12 And, as ye are coming into the house, salute it: 13 and, if, indeed, the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it; but, if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14 And, whosoever does not receive you, nor hear your words, as ye are going forth out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. 15 Verily I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 "Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves; become ye, therefore, as wise as the serpents and as innocent as doves. 17 But beware of men; for they will deliver you up to high-councillors, and in their synagogues they will scourge you; and before the governors and the kings shall ye be brought for My sake, for a testimony to them and to the gentiles. 18 And, when they deliver you up, be not anxious how or what ye shall speak; for it shall be given you in that hour what to speak; 20 for it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father Who speaketh in you.

21 "And brother will deliver up brother to death; and father, his child; and children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. 22 And ye will be hated of all, for My name's sake; but he who endures to the end, the same shall be saved.

23 "And, when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next; 3 for verily I say to you, ye will in no wise finish the cities of Israel, till the Son of Man come. 24 "A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a servant above his lord. 25 It is enough for the disciple, that he become as his teacher, and the servant as his lord. If they called the Master of the house Beelzebub, how much more those of his household? 26 Fear them not, therefore; for nothing has been covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. 27 What I am saying to you in the darkness, speak ye in the light; and what ye hear in the ear, preach on the housetops.

28 And be not afraid of those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul; but rather fear Him Who is able to destroy both soul and body in Hell.

32 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? And delight to harm them. Become . . . wise as the serpents; some serpents are very shrewd in avoiding a dangerous foe. Innocent as doves; doves are a symbol of innocence.

17 High-councillors; the Sanhedrin, or high-court of the Jews.

18 A testimony; a testimony of the truth of the Gospel, which would turn against them, in case they reject it.

19 Be not anxious; God will supply you with just the defense He wishes you to make.

21 To death; the unbelieving members of the family will rise up against the believing portion, and cause them to be put to death.

22 Endure to the end; continue faithful to Christ to the close of life.

23 Till the Son of Man come; to deliver His people. Meaning, as is supposed, that He would come to them before they should get through with carrying the Gospel to the cities of Israel; hardly referring directly to the destruction of Jerusalem or to His coming for His bride (ch. 25:1-13), or His coming to close up this dispensation. (Zech. 14:1, 5, 9; Rev. 19:11-21).

24 Above the Teacher; Ye need not expect to fare better than I do.

27 What I am saying to you in the darkness; privately.

28 Fear Him; God. Destroy . . . in Hell; by consigning them to the fires of Hell.
not one of them shall fall on the ground without your Father. 30 But the very hairs of your head have all been numbered. 31 Fear not, therefore; ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 "Every one, therefore, who shall confess Me before men, him will I also confess before My Father Who is in Heaven; 33 But whosoever denies Me before men, him will I also deny before My Father Who is in Heaven.

34 "Think not that I came to send peace on the earth; I came not to send peace, but a sword; 35 for I came to set a man at variance with his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; 36 and the man's foes will be those of his own household.

CHAPTER XI.

1 And it came to pass that, when Jesus finished commanding His twelve disciples, He departed thence to teach and preach in their cities.

JOHN IN PRISON SENDS A QUESTION TO JESUS.

2 And John, having heard, in the prison, of the works of the Christ, sending by his disciples, 3 said to Him, "Art Thou the Coming One, or are we to look for another?"

4 And Jesus, answering, said to them,

NOTES ON CHAPTER XI.

2, 3 John . . . in the prison; Luke 3:19, 20. Art Thou the Coming One; the promised Messiah. Look for another. John was perhaps puzzled to know how the true Messiah could let His herald and messenger be in prison, and do nothing for his release. This seeming indifference of Jesus seems to have caused John to doubt whether, after all, Jesus was the true Messiah.

5 The blind . . . the lame; see Isa. 29:18; 35:4-6; 42:7.

6 Gr. In Me.

7 Gr. Soul.

8 A man in soft raiment; fine, costly, delicate clothing. Kings' houses; the place for persons who wear such raiment is in the palaces of kings, not in the wilderness.

37 "He that loves father or mother more than Me, is not worthy of Me; and he that loves son or daughter more than Me, is not worthy of Me. 38 And whosoever does not take up his cross, and follow Me, is not worthy of Me.

39 "He that finds his life shall lose it; and he that loses his life for My sake shall find it.

40 "He that receives you receives Me; and he that receives Me receives Him Who sent Me. 41 He that receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward. 42 And whosoever shall give to drink a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple, verily I say to you, he shall in no wise lose his reward."

"Having gone, report to John what ye are hearing and seeing: 5 the blind receive sight, and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised, and the poor have the Gospel proclaimed to them. 6 And happy is he, whosoever shall find no occasion of stumbling in Me."

7 And, as these were going, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John, "What went ye out into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken by the wind? 8 But what went ye out to see? a man in soft raiment; Behold, those wearing soft rayment are in kings' houses. 9 But why did ye go out to see a prophet? Yea, I say to you, and much more than a prophet. 10 This is he of whom it has been written, 'Behold, I send My messenger before Thy face, who shall prepare Thy way before Thee.'

11 'Verily I say to you, there has not arisen, among those born of women, a greater than John the Immerser; yet he that is least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he. 12 And from the time of John the Immerser until now, the Kingdom of Heaven is taken by storm, and violent men seize upon it; 13 for all the prophets and the law prophesied until John; 14 and, if ye are willing to receive it, he is Elijah who is about to come. 15 He that has ears let him hear.

16 'But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, who, calling to the others, 17 say, 'We piped to you, and ye did not dance; we wailed, and ye did not lament.' 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' 19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold, a man gluttonous and a wine-drinker, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners.' And wisdom was justified by her works.'

9 Much more than a prophet; more honorable than any of the prophets, because he was the forerunner of Christ, and stood nearer to Him than any of them.
10 Of whom it has been written; Mal. 3:1; Isa. 40:3; ch. 3:3; Mark 1:2.
11 He that is least (or less than any other as a preacher of the Gospel of Christ) in the Kingdom of Heaven; The least one of Christ's anointed ministers of the Gospel has a place more honorable than that which John had, because his relation to Christ is even more intimate.
12 From the time of John; when he first began to proclaim the Kingdom of Heaven as at hand (ch. 3:2), multitudes became excited about it; and they eagerly pressed to John to hear him.
13 The prophets and the law prophesied until John; they prophesied of the coming Messiah and the establishment of the Kingdom of Heaven. John was the last of the prophets who foretold the coming Messiah, and he had the joy of pointing to Him as 'the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world.' (John 1:29).
14 He is Elijah; Christ identifies John as the Elijah that was to come. (Mal. 4:5).
15 He that has ears let him hear; The Saviour was uttering important truth, which, if they would fully understand it, would require close attention.
16 Children sitting in the marketplaces; and, as it were, imitating in their plays the realities of life.
17 We piped...ye did not dance; we furnished the music, but ye stubbornly refused to dance. We waited; cities upbraided.

20 Then He began to upbraid the cities in which were done most of His mighty works, because they did not repent.
21 'Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! because, if the mighty works which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes; 22 nevertheless I say to you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the day of judgment than for you.
23 'And you, Capernaum, shall you be exalted to Heaven? You shall go down to Hades; because, if the mighty works which were done in you, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. 24 Nevertheless, I say to you, that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for you!'

Advantage accruing to babes.

25 At that season Jesus, answering, said, 'I thank Thee, O Father, Lord of the heaven and of the earth, because Thou didst hide these things from the wise and discerning, and didst reveal them to babes. 26 Yea, Father, because so it was well-pleasing before Thee.'
27 All things were delivered to Me by after the manner of a professional mourner. Ye did not lament; ye made no suitable response.
18 Neither eating nor drinking; living very frugally.
19 Son of Man came eating and drinking; as other people do. There was no consistency in their conduct; since they rejected John because he did not eat and drink as others, and repudiated Christ because he did so eat. Their conduct was like that of capricious children.
21 Chorazin, ... Bethsaida; cities in Galilee, in which Jesus performed many mighty works. Tyre and Sidon; commercial cities in the western part of Palestine, on the Mediterranean Sea. Sackcloth and ashes; signs of deep penitence and sorrow.
23 Exalted to Heaven; enjoy the greatest privileges. Ye shall go down to Hades; suffer the most horrible doom. Remained until this day; would not have been destroyed.
24 More tolerable; they will be punished less, because they rejected less light.
25 Hide these things from the wise and discerning; the learned and self-sufficient do not understand the mysteries of God's government and providence. Didst reveal them to babes; to the humble and lowly, who feel their dependence upon God.
26 It was well-pleasing before Thee; because it was best that it should be so. If proud and ambitious men could, by force of mere intellect, understand the mysteries of God, great evil would result.
27 All things were delivered to Me; the Father committed to Christ all things, as He is the Mediator, and Head over
My Father; and no one fully knows the Son except the Father; neither does any one fully know the Father except the Son, and he to whom the Son willeth to reveal Him.

28 "Come to me, all ye who are laboring and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me; because I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest for your souls; 30 for My yoke is easy, and My burden light."

CHAPTER XII.
THE DISCIPLES PLUCK HEADS OF GRAIN.
1 At that time Jesus went on the sabbath through the grain-fields; and His disciples were hungry, and began to pluck heads of grain, and to eat. 2 But the Pharisees, seeing it, said to Him, "Behold, Thy disciples are doing that which it is not lawful to do on a sabbath."

3 But He said to them, "Did ye not read what David did, when he was hungry, and those with him? 4 how he entered into the house of God, and ate the showbread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those with him, but only for the priests? 5 Or did ye not read in the law that, on the sabbath, the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are guiltless? 6 But I say to you, a greater than the temple is here. 7 And, if ye had known what this means, 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,' ye would not have condemned the guiltless; 8 for the Son of Man is Lord of the sabbath."

JESUS HEALED A WITHERED HAND.
9 And, having passed on thence, He came into their synagogue. 10 And, behold, a man having a withered hand; and they questioned Him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath?" that they might accuse Him. 11 And He said to them, "What man of you who shall have one sheep; and, if this should fall into a pit on the sabbath, will not lay hold of it, and raise it up? 12 How much better, therefore, is a man than a sheep! Therefore, it is lawful to do well on the sabbath." 13 Then saith He to the man, "Stretch forth your hand." And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole as the other.

THE PHARISEES PLOTTING. JESUS RETIRES. HEALS MANY.
14 But the Pharisees, having gone out, held a consultation against Him, that they might destroy Him. 15 But Jesus, knowing it, withdrew thence; and many followed Him, and He healed them all. 16 And He charged them, that they should not make Him known; 17 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, 18 "Behold, My servant Whom I chose, My Beloved, came into the world."

NOTES ON CHAPTER XII.
1 Grainfields; fields of barley or wheat. Indian corn was not known then. Pluck heads of grain; pick off the heads of grain, and rubbed them in their hands, to separate the grain from the chaff. (see Luke 6:1).
2 Not lawful; because, as the Pharisees assumed, it was a violation of the fourth commandment.
3 What David did; I Sam. 21:1-6. The urgency of the matter seemed to excuse the deed.
4 Read in the law; Num. 28:3, 10. Profane the sabbath; do what it would be wrong to do, except it had been required by the very duties of the office. Those examples of David and the priests show that the law was not inflexible; and, if such exceptions were admissible, how much more should the disciples be excused, when eating to satisfy their hunger, while they were attending the ministry of Him Who was "Lord of the sabbath." Circumcision was also another work that might be done on the sabbath. (John 7:23). Guiltless; because the circumstances justified it.
5 A greater than the temple; Jesus Himself. If, in the service of the temple, the priests might profane the sabbath according to the letter, much more might His disciples in His service; for He was Lord both of the temple and of the sabbath.
6 Mercy, and not sacrifice; see note on ch. 9:13.
7 Lord of the sabbath; He is its Author, and had the right to prescribe the manner of its observance.
8 How they might destroy Him; it mattered not how many or how great miracles He performed, these only made the Pharisees and Scribes more intent on putting Him to death.
9 He healed them all; Jesus never lost an opportunity—so far as we know—for healing people; nor is He less able, or less disposed, to heal His obedient, whole-hearted followers now.
10 Not make Him known; He sought no notoriety, but preferred to do His work in a quiet and unostentatious manner.
in Whom My soul delighted. I will put My Spirit upon Him, and He will declare judgment to the gentiles. 19 He will not strive, nor cry aloud; nor will any one hear His voice in the streets. 20 A bruised reed will He not break, and a smoking flax will He not quench, till He send forth judgment unto victory; 21 And in His name will the gentiles hope.”

DEMONIAC CURED. BLASPHEMING AGAINST THE SPIRIT.

22 Then there was brought to Him a demoniac, blind, and dumb; and He healed him, so that the dumb man spake and saw.
23 And all the multitudes were amazed, and said, “Can this be the Son of David?”
24 But the Pharisees, hearing it, said, “This Man doth not cast out the demons, except by Beelzebub, prince of the demons.” 25 And, knowing their thoughts, He said to them, “Every kingdom, divided against itself, is brought to naught; and every city or house, divided against itself, shall not stand. 26 And, if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how, then, shall his kingdom stand? 27 And, if I by Beelzebub cast out the demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore, they shall be your judges.

1 Cr. In.

18 Whom I chose; Isa. 42:1-3. The Father chose the Son to be the world’s Redeemer; and in the purpose of God He was as a “Lamb slain from the foundation of the world,” (Rev. 13:5).
19 Not strive, nor cry; not come with ambitious display, as the Jews expected.
20 A bruised reed; an emblem of feeble persons, burdened, with trouble or difficulties. Not break; not oppress or trample down. A smoking flax; an ancient lamp-wick. Will He not quench; our Saviour would not quench the smallest beginnings of grace in the heart. Unto victory; till truth and mercy should be in the ascendant.
21 Beelzebub; the name applied to the prince of unclean spirits—another name for Diabolos or Satan. By applying it to Christ, they heaped the utmost contempt upon Him.
22 Divided against itself; having opposing principles and working against itself.
23 Your sons; some Jews claimed the power to cast out demons. In cases of this sort, were they acting in harmony with Beelzebub? Shall be your judges; in ascribing to Satan in any case, what you would refer to God in the case of your children.
24 The Kingdom of God came upon you unexpectedly or sooner than you expected; or it has come into your midst, and you did not have spiritual discernment to perceive it.
25 Enter into the house of the strong man; Satan represents the strong man, and Christ is the stronger. Who binds Satan, and casts him out of individual hearts, and despoils him of his property that he has tyrannically usurped, and 28 But, if I by the Spirit of God cast out the demons, then the Kingdom of God came upon you unexpectedly. 29 Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man, and seize upon his goods, unless he first bind the strong man? And then he will plunder his house. 30 He that is not with Me is against Me; and he that gathernots with Me scatters. 31 Therefore, I say to you, every sin and blasphemy will be forgiven to men, but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven.

32 And whosoever speaks a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven, neither in this age nor in that which is to come. 33 Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree worthless and its fruit worthless; for from the fruit the tree is known.
34 “Broods of vipers! how can ye speak good things, being yourselves evil? For, out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks. 35 The good man, out of his good treasure, puts forth good things; and the evil man, out of his evil treasure, puts forth evil things.
36 “And I say to you, that every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account concerning it in the day of judg-will ultimately cast him into the lake that burns with fire and brimstone.” (Rev. 20:10; see also Luke 11:22-22).
30 He that is not with Me is against Me; there is no such thing as neutrality. Every one who does not belong to Christ belongs to Satan.
31, 32 Will be forgiven to him; if he repents and accepts cleansing through the blood of Christ. But the blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven; is unpardonable. It can never be effectually repented of, because this sin is against the very One Who works repentance in those who yield to Him. This sin, as here described, seems to have been a deliberate ascription of the works of the Spirit to Satan, (see Mark 3:30). There may be sins of a fatal character along other lines; as when the sinner persistently and purposely refuses to yield to conviction wrought in him by the Holy Spirit.
33 Make the tree good; make the heart pure. The fruit; the conduct and life. The tree is known; character is judged by the life, or by one’s works. These words have a double application; first, to Christ the Pharisees should prove that His works are evil, or else admit that He is good. Second, to His critics, they, being evil, can neither speak or do anything good, as He tells them in the next verse.
34 Broods of vipers; how can ye, being evil, speak good things.
36 Every idle word; a word spoken without any worthy intention, or a wantonly malignant word, as in the present case, spoken against Christ, or the Holy Spirit.
ment; 37 for by your words you shall be justified, and by your words you shall be condemned.”

THE SIGN OF JONAH. WISDOM OF SOLOMON.

38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered Him, saying, “Teacher, we wish to see a sign from Thee.” 39 And He, answering, said to them, “An evil and adulterous generation is seeking after a sign; and no sign shall be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet. 40 For, as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so shall the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 “The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it; because they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and, behold, a greater than Jonah is here.

42 “A queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it; because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

43 “But, when the unclean spirit goes out from the man, it passes through wast- less places, seeking rest, and finds it not. 44 Then it says, ‘I will return into my house whence I came out;’ and, having come, it finds it unoccupied, swept, and adorned. 45 Then it goes and takes along with itself seven other spirits more evil than itself, and, entering in, they dwell there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first. So shall it be also to this wicked generation.”

46 While He was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, His mother and His brothers were standing without, seeking to speak to Him. [47 And one said to Him, "Behold, Thy mother and Thy brothers are standing without, seeking to speak to Thee.”] 48 But He, answering, said to him that told Him, “Who is My mother, and who are My brothers?” 49 And stretching forth His hand toward His disciples, He said, “Behold, My mother and My brothers! 50 For whosoever does the will of My Father Who is in Heaven, he is My brother, and sister, and mother.”

CHAPTER XIII.

PARABLE OF THE SOWER.

1 On that day Jesus, having gone out of the house, was sitting by the seaside. 2 And there were gathered to Him great multitudes; so that He, having entered into a boat, sat down, and all the multitudes were standing on the beach. 3 And He spake to them many things in parables, saying, “Behold, the sower went... forth to sow. 4 And, in his sowing, some seeds fell by the wayside, and the birds, coming, devoured them. 5 And others fell on the rocky places, where they had not much earth; and straightway they sprang up, because they had no root, they withered away. 6 And, the sun having risen, they were scorched; and, because they had no root, they withered away. 7 And others fell upon the thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked them. 8 And others fell on the good ground, and were yielding fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty. 9 He that has ears let him hear.”

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER EXPLAINED.

10 And the disciples, having come near, said to Him, “Wherefore dost Thou speak to them in parables?” 11 And He, answering, said to them, “Because to you it has been given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but to them it has not been given. 12 For whosoever has, to him shall be given, and he shall be made to abound; but whosoever has not, even what he has shall be taken away from him. 13 On this account, I speak to them in parables; because, seeing, they see not; and, hearing, they hear not, nor understand.

4 Some seeds fell by the wayside; where the ground was not ploughed, and the seeds were left uncovered. 5 Rocky places; where there was but little earth. 6 Because they had no root; the roots were not able to penetrate the soil, and hence they could not grow. 7 Thorns; uncleared portions of the field. Choked them; the thorns, shading the grain and exhausting the strength of the soil, prevented the grain from yielding any perfect fruit. 8 Good ground; fertile soil, and well prepared. Note the different grades of soils. In the first, the seed does not come up; in the second, it comes up, but withers away; in the third, it comes up, but bears no perfect grain; in the fourth, it yields a fine quantity.

10 Wherefore . . . speak . . . parables?; probably this was the first time He used parables in His teaching. In the Sermon on the Mount He used similes, but not parables. 11 To you it has been given; the disciples who loved Him; and sought to understand His teachings, were especially favored. The mysteries; the deep truths of the Gospel. To them; to the outside world. It has not been given; to understand these mysteries.

12 Whosoever has; some knowledge of these mysteries. To him shall be given; more knowledge. Hath not; has no knowledge of these things, and no real desire to get it. Even that which he has; his present opportunities will be taken away. The principle here laid down is, that those who have a knowledge of divine things and appreciate it, can get more; while those who have no such knowledge, and care nothing for it, will not only not learn the truth, but will finally lose all opportunity for learning it.

13 Seeing, they see not; have ability and opportunities to learn the truth, but do not utilize them. Their want of appreciation, coupled with their self-complacency, justified the Saviour in speaking to them only in parables. 14 Fulfilled; Isa. 6:9, 10. With hearing, or by hearing; meaning that they had the physical sense of hearing. Not understand; wanting in power or will to appreciate what they heard.

15 Note. We are not to understand that these Jews were in this wretched state of blindness and dullness and hostility to the truth, because of any purpose or decree of God adverse to them; for God takes no pleasure in the death of the wicked, (Ezek. 18:32); but when men deliberately choose to resist the light, God suffers them to walk in darkness.

16 They see; . . . they hear; the disciples used their faculties aright in trying to get the truth; hence they were happy. 17 Desire to see what ye are seeing; many devout men had desired to see the works that Jesus was doing, and hear the truths He was teaching. 18 Hear . . . the parable; learn what it teaches. It represents the thoughtless, the fickle, the worldly-minded, and the truly pious.

19 The word of the Kingdom; the truths of the Gospel. Understands it not; because he is careless, and indifferent to the claims of the truth. Here we find the thoughtless, dull, and careless hearer.

20 Straightway; at once, indicating want of sober reflection and deep conviction, as also lack of preparation arising from counting the cost, (see Luke 11:25-33).

21 Has not root in himself; lacks true Christian principle, the root of the Christ-life. He stumbles; becomes disbecause of the word, straightway he stumbles. 22 And he that was sown among the thorns, this is he that hears the word; and the anxiety of the age and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 23 But he that was sown on the good ground, this is he that hears the word and understands it; who, indeed, bears fruit, and produces, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

PARABLE OF THE WHEAT AND TARES.

24 Another parable He set before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven was likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field; 25 and, while men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed tares in the midst of the wheat, and went away. 26 And, when the blade sprang up, and produced fruit, then appeared the tares also. 27 And the servants of the householder, coming near, said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? Whence, then, has it tares?' 28 And he said to them, 'An enemy did this.' The servants say to him, 'Do you wish, then, that we, going, should gather them up? 29 He says, 'No; lest, while ye gather up the tares, ye root up the wheat with them. 30 Suffer both to grow together until the harvest. And, in the season of harvest, I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the tares, and bind them into bundles, couraged, and, perhaps, gives up the whole thing, to avoid suffering for Jesus. Only those who will cling to Jesus, despite all oppositions and hardships will amount to much here or hereafter.

22 The anxiety of the age; the cares of life that press upon him. The deceitfulness of riches; nothing more effectively undermines religious conviction, and paralyzes spiritual energy, than riches and the train of evils they bring with them. Unfruitful; of course—how could it be otherwise! There may be a little dwarfed grain in the midst of thorn-bushes, but there will be too little to interest the harvesters.

23 Bears fruit; abundant fruitage characterizes the true believer, who accepts the truth in all its fulness, and permits the Gospel to produce its full effects in his heart and life. These are "the light of the world," and "the salt of the earth." 24 Likened to a man who sowed good seed; visible Christianity is here likened to a field in which a man sowed good seed, representing the pure doctrines of the Gospel; and the growing grain represents those who accept the truth, and live it. 25 Tares; a species of darnel, bearing poisonous seed, and much resembling the growing wheat. 26 Produced fruit; when the fruit, or grain, became visible. Then appeared the tares; though the stalks of wheat and tares were much alike, the fruit borne by each, was quite different. The fruit was so different, one could not fail to distinguish it. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

with the view of burning them; but gather the wheat into my barn."

PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED.

31 Another parable He set before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man, having taken, sowed in his field: 32 which, indeed, is less than all the seeds; but, when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the heaven come and roost in its branches."

THE PARABLE OF THE LEAVEN.

33 Another parable He spake to them: "The Kingdom of Heaven is like leaven, which a woman, taking, hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened." 34 All these things Jesus spake to the multitudes in parables; and, without a parable, He was wont to speak nothing to them; 35 that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, 'I will open My mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world."

THE PARABLE OF THE TARES EXPLAINED.

36 Then, leaving the multitudes, He went into the house; and His disciples came to Him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field.” 37 And, answering, He said, “He that sows the good seed is the Son of Man. 38 The field is the world: and the good seed, these are the sons of the Kingdom; but the tares are the sons of the evil one; 39 and the enemy that sowed them is the Devil; and the harvest is the end of the age: and the reapers are angels. 40 As, therefore, the tares are gathered up, and are burned with fire, so shall it be in the end of the age. 41 The Son of Man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of the Kingdom all the stumbling-blocks, and those who do iniquity; 42 and they will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth! 43 Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father. He that has ears let him hear.

A HIDDEN TREASURE.

44 “Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found and hid; and in his joy he goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field.

A VERY VALUABLE PEARL.

45 “Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls; 46 and, having found one pearl of great price, departing, he has sold all that he had, and bought it.

THE DRAG-NET.

47 “Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a net, cast into the sea, and gathering of every kind; 48 which, when it was filled having drawn it up again upon the beach, and sitting down, they gathered the good into vessels, but cast away the bad. 49 So will it be at the end of the age. The angels will go forth, and will separate the wicked from the midst of the righteous, 50 and will cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth.

THE WELL-TAUGHT Scribe.

51 “Did ye understand all these things?” They say to Him, “Yes;” 52 and He said to them, “Therefore, every scribe, having been made a disciple to the Kingdom of Heaven, is like a householder, who brings forth out of his treasure things new and old.”

53 And it came to pass, when Jesus finished these parables, He departed thence. 54 And, coming into His own country, He taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, “Whence hath this Man this wisdom, and the mighty works? 55 Is not This the carpenter’s Son? Is not His mother called Mary, and His brothers, James, and Joseph, and Simon, and Judas? 56 And His sisters, are they not all with us? Whence, then, hath this Man all these things?” 57 And they were finding in Him occasion to stumble. And Jesus said to them “a prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house.” 58 And He did not perform many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

57-58 The Son of Man; meaning Himself. All true workers in the Kingdom are agents, under Christ, for sowing the seed of the Gospel. The field is the world; the Gospel is to be preached in all the world, (Mark 16:15); to take out of the gentiles a people for His name, (Acts 15:10); and as a witness unto all nations, (ch. 21:10). The sons of the Kingdom: the real children of God. Tares are the sons of the evil one; of the Devil, or Satan, though many of them are enrolled on church records among the people of God. All the stumbling-blocks: during the Millennial reign, as also during the ages of ages that follow it, “the stumbling-blocks” are to be put out of the way. Let it not be inferred that the souls or spirits of the wicked will become extinct through the flames that will encounter them, (see Rev. 20:10). Then the righteous; “The sons of the Kingdom.” Sit forth as the sun; be unspeakably glorious in the Kingdom of Christ, (Rev. 3:21; 21:3).

Sells all . . . and buys; buys the field, that he may secure the treasure. Whoever sees and appreciates his possibilities in Christ, will gladly yield his all to God, that he may have his full portion in Christ.

Seeking beautiful pearls; Christ is the most beautiful Pearl. O ye pearl-hunters, seek Christ, “win Christ,” (Phil. 3:3).

47-50 A net . . . cast into the sea; here the sea represents the world; and the net, the Gospel of Christ and its workers. This parable, like that of the tares, shows the mixed condition of things in the visible Kingdom of God on earth, to the close of the dispensation.

52 Every scribe; referring to the Jewish scribes, whose work, in part, was to teach the law of Moses. Christ’s ministers are to teach the Gospel, the new thing, and they are to be able to expound the law, showing wherein the law is swallowed up in grace; expounding the word thus, they bring out things new and old.

54 Into His own country; Nazareth. (ch. 2:23).

55 Is not This the carpenter’s Son; Joseph, Christ’s reputed father, was a carpenter.

56 Whence . . . all these things; this wonderful wisdom, and mighty power. They recognized the facts in the case, but they seemed unable to understand how a man of so humble a position (as they saw it) could manifest such wisdom and power.

57 And they were finding in Him occasion; in His humble origin. Here was an instance in which ignorance was the real cause of stumbling.

58 Because of their unbelief; unbelief restrains the power of God. What a mighty evil it must be!
CHAPTER XIV.

1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning Jesus, and said to his servants, 2 "This is John the Immerser; He arose from the dead; and therefore do the powers work in Him."

3 For Herod, having laid hold of John, bound him, and put him in prison, because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife. 4 For John said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." 5 And, wishing to kill him, he feared the multitude, because they were holding him as a prophet.

6 But, on a birthday celebration of Herod, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, and pleased Herod. 7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she should ask. 8 And she, urged on by her mother, says, "Give me here upon a plate the head of John the Immerser." 9 And the king, though grieved, yet, because of the oaths and of those sitting at the table with them, ordered it to be given; 10 and, having sent, he beheaded John in the prison; 11 and his head was brought upon a plate, and given to the damsel; and she brought it to her mother. 12 And his disciples, coming, took up the corpse, and buried it; and, coming, they told Jesus; 13 And Jesus, having heard it, withdrew thence, in a boat, into a desert, apart. 1 And the multitudes, hearing of it, followed Him on foot from the cities.

HE FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND MIRACULOUSLY.

14 And Jesus, coming forth, saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion over them, and healed their sick. 15 And, evening coming on, the disciples came to Him, saying, "The place is desert, and the time already passed by: dismiss the multitudes, that having gone into the villages, they may buy food for themselves." 16 But Jesus said to them, "They have no need to go away. Give ye them to eat." 17 And they say to Him, "We have nothing here except five loaves and two fishes." 18 And He said, "Bring them here to Me." 19 And, having commanded the multitudes to recline on the grass—taking the five loaves and two fishes—looking up into the heaven, He blessed; and, having broken, He gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. 20 And they all ate, and were satisfied; and they took up that which remained over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. 21 And those eating were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

JESUS WALKS ON THE SEA.

22 And straightway He constrained the disciples to enter into a boat, and to go before Him to the other side, while He should 23. And straightway He constrained the disciples to enter into a boat, and to go before Him to the other side, while He should

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIV.

1 Herod: Herod Antipas, a son of Herod the Great, who slew the male children in Bethlehem, (ch. 2:16). The tetrarch: a ruler of the fourth part. He was called this, because he was a ruler of the fourth part of his father’s kingdom.

2 This is John the Immerser: this was probably the suggestion of a guilty conscience.

4 It is not lawful: Herod had taken Herodias, who was his brother Philip’s wife, and had forcibly made her his own. Herodias had a daughter by Philip, named Salome, whose dancing was the occasion of John’s losing his head.

5 He feared the multitude: because, if he had murdered John as he wished to do, he was apprehensive that the people who believed John to be a prophet, might revolt, and give him trouble.

7 Promised with an oath: what a wicked and foolish thing to do! Whatever she should ask: one act of folly leads to another; and the poor wretch is caught in his own wickedness.

8 Urged on by her mother; Salome, influenced by her mother, wavés her right, under the oath, to ask for wealth, but, at the urgent request of her adulterous mother, she asks for the head of John.

9 Grieved: not because he cared anything for John, but because this request of the damsel ran counter to his princi-

10 Or, privately.
23 And, having dismissed the multitudes, He went up into the mountain, apart, to pray; and, evening coming on, He was there alone. 24 But the boat was now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves; for the wind was contrary. 25 And, in the fourth watch of the night, He came to them, walking on the sea. 26 And the disciples, seeing Him walking on the sea, were troubled, saying, "It is a ghost!" 2 And they cried out for fear. 27 But Jesus straightway spake to them, saying, "Be of good cheer. It is I; be not afraid."

And Peter, answering Him, said, "Lord, if it be Thou, bid me come to Thee on the water." 29 And He said, "Come." And, going down from the boat, Peter walked upon the water, and came to Jesus.

28 And Peter, answering Him, said, "Lord, if it be Thou, bid me come to Thee on the water." 29 And He said, "Come." And, going down from the boat, Peter walked upon the water, and came to Jesus.

30 But, seeing the wind, he was frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!" 31 And immediately Jesus, stretching forth His hand, took hold of him, and saith to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" 32 And, when they went up into the boat, the wind ceased. 33 And those in the boat worshiped Him, saying, "Truly Thou art God's Son."

34 And, passing over, they came upon the land to Gennesaret. 35 And, recognizing Him, the men of that place sent into all that region round about, and brought to Him all who were sick; 36 and they were beseeching Him, that they might only touch the border of His garment; and as many as touched it were made thoroughly well.

It is I; be not afraid."

CHAPTER XV.

EATING WITH UNWASHED HANDS.

1 Then there come to Jesus, from Jerusalem, Pharisees and scribes, saying, 2 "Why do Thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they do not wash their hands, when they eat bread?" 3 And He, answering, said to them, "Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition? 4 For God said, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and 'He that speaks evil of father or mother, let him surely die,' 5 But ye say, 'Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, 'That by which you might be profited by me is an offering;' 6 shall in no wise honor his father; and ye made void the word of God because of your tradition. 7 Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying, 8 'This people honor Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me. 9 But in vain do they worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'"

10 And, having called the multitude... near, He said to them, "Hear, and understand: 11 Not that which enters into the mouth defiles the man; but that which proceeds out of the mouth—this defiles the man."

12 Then, His disciples, coming near, say to Him, "Knowest Thou that the Pharisees, having heard the saying, were made to stumble?"

13 But He, answering, said, "Every plant which My Heavenly Father did not plant shall be rooted up. 14 Let them alone; they are blind guides; and if a blind man be guiding a blind man, both will fall into a pit."

15 And Peter, answering, said to Him, "Explain to us the parable."

16 And He said, "Are ye also even yet without understanding? 17 Do ye not perceive that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the belly, and is cast forth into the draın? 18 But the things that proceed out of the mouth come forth out of the heart; and these defile the man. 19 For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false-witn essings, blasphemies: 20 these are the things which defile the man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile the man."

THE CANAANITISH WOMAN'S DAUGHTER HEALED.

21 And, going forth thence, Jesus withdrew into the parts of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And, behold, a Canaanitish woman, having come forth out of those borders, cried out, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a demon!" 23 But He answered her not a word. And His disciples, coming near, were beseeching Him, saying, "Send her away; for she is crying after us!"

24 But He, answering, said, "I was not sent, except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

25 But she, coming, was worshiping Him, saying, "Lord, help me!"

26 And He, answering, said, "It is not good to take the children's bread and cast it to the little dogs."

27 But she said, "Yes, Lord; for even the little dogs eat of the crumbs falling from the master's table."

28 Then Jesus, answering, said to her, "O woman, great is your faith! be it done to you as you wish." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

MANY PEOPLE HEALED.

29 And, departing thence, Jesus came near to the sea of Galilee; and, going up into the mountain, He was sitting there.

30 And there came to Him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, maimed, and many others; and they cast them at His feet, and He healed them; 31 so that the multitudes wondered, seeing the dumb speaking, maimed whole, and lame walking, and blind seeing; and they glorified the God of Israel.

FOUR THOUSAND PEOPLE MIRACULOUSLY FED.

32 And Jesus, having called His disciples near, said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with Me now

11 Not that; it is not found that what a man eats defiles him, but false doctrines and a corrupt life defile him.

13 Every plant; every false teacher, or false system, such as the Pharisees and scribes were. Rooted up; will be utterly overthrown. All false teachers and evil systems of doctrine will be destroyed.

14 Let them alone; have nothing to do with them.

15 Explain to us the parable; we often marvel at the dullness of the apostles; but we were no brighter than they were, until the Spirit gave us an understanding of the word. They were brighter and quicker after Pentecost.

21 The parts of Tyre and Sidon; Sidonia, or Phoenicia, north of Palestine, on the Mediterranean coast. Sidon was the earlier, and Tyre the later, emporium of this country.

22 A Canaanitish woman; the Zidonians having descended from Canaan, (Gen. 10:15). Mark calls her a Greek. (Mark 7:26). My daughter is grievously vexed with a demon; indicating how thoroughly she was controlled by a demon.

23 Send her away; whether with the granting of her request, or without it. They did not like her crying. They seem to have been more interested in their own comfort, than in her welfare.

24 I was not sent; referring to the fact that the Jews or Israelites were to have the Gospel before it was given to the gentiles, (see ch. 10:6).

26 Not good; not proper, or fitting. Children's bread; that which was designed first for the Jews. Dogs; gentiles, as the Jews called them. Jesus said this to draw out her true character.

27 Even the little dogs; classing herself with the "puppies." Eat of the crumbs; without robbing the children. As much as to say, "I do not wish at all to rob the children; but, as a little dog, I claim the right to eat of the crumbs that fall from my Master's table."

28 Be it done to you as you wish; your request is granted. The demon has gone out of your daughter.

30 Maimed; such as had lost a hand or foot. Cast them; indicating haste. They wished to make the most of their opportunity. He healed them: He never failed to heal, when the conditions were met.

31 I am not willing to send them away fasting; the tender compassion of Jesus, in this case, as when He fed the five thousand men, led Him to feed them with provisions miraculously supplied.
three days, and have nothing to eat; and I am not willing to send them away fasting, lest haply they faint in the way."

33 And His disciples say to Him, "Whence should we, in a wilderness, have so many loaves as to satisfy so great a multitude?"

34 And Jesus saith to them, "How many loaves have ye?" And they said, "Seven, and a few little fishes." 35 And, having commanded the multitude to recline on the ground, 36 He took the seven loaves and the fishes; giving thanks, He broke, and was giving to the disciples; and the disciples to the multitudes. 37 And they all ate, and were satisfied; and they took up what was over of the pieces seven baskets full; 38 and those eating were four thousand men, besides women and children. 39 And, dismissing the multitudes, He went up into the boat, and came into the borders of Magadan.

CHAPTER XVI.
A SIGN REFUSED.

1 And the Pharisees and Sadducees, coming near, tempting Him, asked Him to show them a sign from the heaven; 2 and He, answering, said to them, "When it is evening, ye say, 'It will be fair, for the heaven is red;' 3 and in the morning, 'To-day, a tempest; for red is the overcast heaven.' The face of the heaven, indeed, ye know how to discern, but the signs of the times ye can not discern. 4 An evil and adulterous generation is seeking after a sign; and no sign will be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet." And, leaving them, He departed.

BEWARE OF THE LEAVEN.

5 And the disciples, coming to the other side, forgot to take bread. 6 And Jesus said to them, "Take heed, and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." 7 And they were deliberating among themselves, saying, "We took no bread." 8 And Jesus, knowing it, said, "Why are ye deliberating among yourselves, O ye of little faith, because ye have no bread? 9 Do ye not yet perceive, nor remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? 10 Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? 11 How is it that ye do not perceive that I spake not to you concerning bread? but beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees? 12 Then they understood that He did not bid them beware of the leaven of the bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 And Jesus, having come into the parts of Cæsarea Philippi, was asking His disciples, saying, "Who do men say that the Son of Man is?" 14 And they said, "Some say John the Immerser; and others, Elijah; and others Jeremiah, or one of the prophets." 15 And He saith to them, "But who do ye say that I am?"

PETER'S CONFESSION.

16 And Simon Peter, answering, said, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." 17 And Jesus, answering, said to him, "Happy are you, Simon Bar-Jonah; because flesh and blood did not reveal it to you, but My Father Who is in Heaven. so Jesus would be in the earth. But this sign they were as unwilling to accept as any other; and so, failing to use their light, they seem had nothing but darkness. 6 The leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees; their poisonous teachings. (v. 12).

14-16 The different conjectures of the people, as to who Jesus was, prove that the belief was common among the Jews, that one person might live in different bodies. This is not different from the transmigration belief of the ancient Greeks and Romans; and is not unlike that of modern theosophy.

17 Bar-Jonah; son of Jonah. Bar is a Syriac word for son.
18 And I also say to you, that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My assembly, and the gates of Hades shall not prevail against it. 19 I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven; and whatsoever you shall bind on the earth shall have been bound in Heaven, and whatsoever you shall loose on the earth shall have been loosed in Heaven.”

20 Then He charged the disciples that they should tell no one that He was the Christ.

HIS DEATH FORETOLD.

21 From that time began Jesus to show to His disciples, that He must go to Jerusalem, and suffer many things from the elders and high-priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised up.

22 And Peter, taking Him aside, began to rebuke Him, saying, “God be merciful to Thee! this shall not be to Thee.” 23 But, turning, He said to Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! you are a stumbling-block to Me; because you are not thinking of the things of God, but the things of men.”

24 Then said Jesus to His disciples, “If any one wishes to come after Me, let him disown himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me; 25 for whosoever wishes to save his soul shall lose it, and whosoever shall lose his soul for My sake shall find it; 26 for what will a man be profited, if he gain the whole world, and suffer damage as to his soul? or what will a man give as an exchange for his soul? 27 For the Son of Man is about to come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and then will He render to each one according to his work.” 28 Verily I say to you, there are some of those standing here, who will not taste of death, till they see the Son of Man coming in His Kingdom.”

2 Or, utterly deny. 3 Gr. Petra, a fixed rock.

18 You are Peter; Petros is a detached stone, a small rock, which one might toss about with his hand. Upon this rock; Petra, a fixed, stable rock; and it was upon this, and not upon the Petro, or Peter, that Christ built His assembly. The petra probably refers to the great truth in Peter’s confession, “Thou art the Christ.” The confession of Christ, as the Messiah, superinduced in believers by the Holy Spirit, to whom also Christ has become a saving Reality, is that which binds one in the great assembly of God, and makes him a lively stone in this great building. (1 Pet. 2:5); and it is one of the chief things that entitles one to membership in a local assembly of Christ. Gates of Hades; possibly having reference to the resistance that the grave offers to the living again of those who have entered its realm. If so, this statement would refer to the resurrection of Christ’s body from the grave; for He is the essence of the petra. Shall not prevail against it; shall not keep His body from rising; or, if the pronoun it refers to ecclesia, then the meaning is altogether different, and the words are a prophecy relating to the indestructibility of the assembly. The word ecclesia, in this connection, evidently refers to the larger use of the word, to denote all the saved, rather than a local congregation of believers. The larger ecclesia will not be complete till all true believers are safe in Heaven.

19 The keys of the Kingdom of Heaven; symbols of power and authority. If this included the Gospel, then Peter used the keys very successfully on the day of Pentecost. (see Acts 2:41; 4:4). Shall have been bound; the things that God’s people bind on earth are first bound in Heaven. There are things that God chooseth to bind through His people, and whatever He binds through them on earth He first bindeth in Heaven. The same is true of loosening.

CHAPTER XVII.

THE TRANSFIGURATION.

1 And, after six days, Jesus taketh with Him Peter, and James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart; 2 and He was transfigured before them; and His face shone as the sun, and
His garments became white as the light.
3 And, behold, there appeared to them
Moses and Elijah talking with Him. 4
And Peter, answering, said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If Thou wilt,
I will make here three tents—one for Thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah."
5 While he was yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them. And, behind, a voice out of the cloud, saying,
"This is My beloved Son, in Whom I delighted; hear Him." 6 6 And the disciples, hearing it, fell on their face, and were exceedingly afraid.
7 And Jesus came near, and, touching them, said, "Arise, and be not afraid." 8
And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, extcept Jesus only. 9 And, as they were coming down out of the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one, until the Son of Man be raised from among the dead."
10 And His disciples asked Him, saying,
"Why, then, do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?" 11 And He, answering, said, "Elijah, indeed, comes, and will restore all things; 12 but I say to you that Elijah already came, and they recognized him not, but did with him whatsoever they wished: so also the Son of Man is about to suffer by them."
13 Then the disciples understood that garments were white as the light: resplendent with divine glory.

3 Moses and Elijah; the representatives of the law and the prophets. The law and the prophets pointed to Christ; and now their representatives have come to confer with Christ, who had come to fulfill both.

cloth or with boughs of trees. Dazed with the glory, Peter 5 In Whom I delighted; this is the true translation. It may not be easy to see, at all times, just the significance of the aorist tense. Here it may refer to the spontaneous del-ght of the Father at the ready obedience of His Son, and especially at His readiness to lay down His life, concerning which Moses and Elijah were sent to consult with Him.
6 Except Jesus only; Moses and Elijah must give place, as teachers, to Jesus Christ.

after His resurrection they would be permitted to speak of it, (II Peter 1:16, 17).

prophecy was fulfilled in John the Immerser. (See ch.

people to a state of preparation to receive the Messiah.
He spake to them concerning John the Im-merser.

JESUS HEALS ONE WHOM THE DISCIPLES
COULD NOT HEAL.
14 And, when they came to the multitude, there approached Him a man, kneeling to Him, and saying, 15 "Lord, have mercy on my son, because he is lunatic,1 and suffers grievously; for often he falls into the fire, and often into the water. 16
And I brought him to Thy disciples, and they could not heal him."
17 And Jesus, answering, said, "O faithless and perverted generation! How long shall I be with you? Bring him here to Me." 18 And Jesus rebuked it, and the demon went out of him, and the boy was healed from that hour.
19 Then the disciples, coming near, said to Jesus privately, "Why could not we cast it out?"
20 And He saith to them, "Because of your little faith. For verily I say to you, if ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say to this mountain, 'Remove hence yonder,' and it will be removed, and nothing shall be impossible to you." [21 "But this kind goes not out,

Some see universal salvation in this work of Elijah; but, rightly understood, this Scripture has no such meaning.
Possibly Elijah may be one of the two witnesses (Rev. 11); and, if so, he may strengthen the Jewish people with his testimony.
14 He is lunatic; afflicted, or insane, at certain stages of the moon. Here, as shown by the context, an epileptic is brought to view.
15 Falls into the fire... into the water; the demon sought thus to destroy the life of the boy.
16 They could not heal him; the disciples, who had healed many, failed in this case. Why did they fail, seeing that He had given them power and authority over all demons, (Luke 9:1)?
17 O faithless and perverted generation; this rebuke would seem unmerited, if the disciples had utilized all their power to cast out the demon—i.e., the power He had tested upon them.
18 Jesus rebuked it; rebuked the demon. Went forth from the man; no demon can withstand the power of Jesus.
20 Because of your little faith; here is the reason of their failure. And the same is true now.
21 [This kind goes not out, except by prayer and fasting];
this would, if it were genuine, help to solve the difficult gether in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men; 23 and they will kill Him, and on the third day He will be raised up." And they were grieved exceedingly.

CHAPTER XVIII.

LITTLE ONES NOT TO BE MADE TO STUMBLE.

1 At that time the disciples came near to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?"
2 And, having called a little child to Him, He placed it in the midst of them, 3 and said, "Verily I say to you, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. 4 Whosoever, therefore, shall humble himself as this little child, he is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. 5 And whosoever receives one such little child in My name, receives Me. 6 But whosoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it is profitable for him that a large millstone 3 be hanged about his neck, and he be sunk in the depth of the sea.

7 "Woe to the world because of stumbling-blocks! for there is a necessity that the stumbling-blocks come; but woe to the man through whom the stumbling-block comes!

8 "And, if your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off, and cast it from you; it is good for you to enter into life maimed or lame, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire.

9 "And, if your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you; it is good for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Hell of fire.

belong to a certain man, and one of them goes astray, will he not leave the ninety seek the straying one? 13 And, if it happen that he find it, verily I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety and nine that have not gone astray. 14

In like manner it is not the will of your Father Who is in Heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

HOW TO TREAT AN OFFENDING BROTHER.

15 "And, if your brother sin against you, go show him his fault between you and him alone. If he hear you, you have gained your brother; 16 but, if he hear you not, take with you yet one or two, that at the mouth of two or three, every word may be established.
17 And, if he disregard them, tell it to the assembly; and, if he disregard the assembly also, let him be to you as the gentile and the tax-collector. 18 Verily, I say to you, whatsoever ye bind upon the earth shall have been bound in Heaven, and whatsoever ye loose on the earth shall have been loosed in Heaven.
19 "Again, I say to you, that, if two of you shall agree on earth concerning any matter which ye ask, it shall be done for them by My Father Who is in Heaven; 20 for where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them."

21 Then Peter, coming near, said to Him, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times?"
22 Jesus saith to him, "I say not to you, 'till seven times,' but till seventy times seven. 23 Therefore, the Kingdom of Heaven was likened to a king who wished to make a reckoning with his servants. 24 And, when he began to reckon, there was brought to him one debtor of ten thousand talents; 25 but, as he had nothing to pay, his lord commanded that he be sold, and his wife, and his children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. 26 The servant, falling down, therefore, was bowing to him, saying,
'Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay you all.' 27 And, moved with compassion, the lord of that servant released him, and forgave him the debt. 28 But, going forth, that servant found one of his fellow-servants, who was owing him a hundred denaries; and, having laid hold of him, he was choking him, saying, 'Pay, if you are owing anything!' 29 His fellow-servant, falling down, therefore, was entreatling him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' 30 And he would not; but, going away, he cast him into prison, till he should pay what was due. 31 Therefore, his fellow-servants, seeing what was done, were exceedingly grieved; and, going, they made known to their lord all that was done.

pents, and comes into His fold. All true Christians rejoice, when sinners are born into the Kingdom of God, and backsiders come back to the fold.

fore him. You gained your brother; won him from a wrong course, and to the cause of righteousness.

him as a Christian, since he has refused to show the spirit of Christ; and the presumption is that "he is none of His;"
(Rom. 8:9). This does not mean that an offender is to be mistrusted, but simply not treated as a Christian. If all Christians would act, thus towards professed Christians who give offense, it would "nip many a quarrel in the bud."

CHAPTER XIX.
CONCERNING DIVORCE.

1 And it came to pass that, when Jesus finished these words, He departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judea, beyond the Jordan. 2 And large multitudes followed Him; and He healed them there.

3 And the Pharisees came to Him, tempting Him, and saying, “Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?” 4 And He, answering, said, “Did you not read that He Who made them from the beginning made them ‘male and female,’ 5 and said, ‘For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife, and the two shall be one flesh?’ 6 so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. What, therefore, God joined together, let not man put asunder.”

7 They say to Him, “Why, then, did Moses command to give a her a bill of divorcement, and to put her away?” 8 He saith to them, “Moses, in view of the hardness of your heart, permitted you to put away your wives; but from the beginning it has not been so. 9 And I say to you, that whosoever shall put away his wife, except for fornication, and shall marry another, commits adultery.”

5 A bill of divorcement; Deut. 24:1.
6 Permitted; did not order it, but, because of their perverseness, suffered it. God permitted the Israelites to have a king; but He did not approve it as the best thing for them.
7 Except for fornication; fornication is sexual connection out of wedlock; and, if this is discovered after marriage, it annuls the marriage contract. For adultery, or illicit connection after marriage, one may put away his wife, or cioè resa, but cannot marry again till the offending party is dead.
8 Not all can receive this saying; that it is not expedient to marry. Has been given; some can live comfortably and happily without marriage, others not.
9 Were so born; as to be unfit for marriage. Made eunuchs by men; for their own ungodly purposes. Made themselves eunuchs; voluntarily abstained from marriage, that they might the better serve God.
10 Were brought; parents or nurses brought the little children to Him. Jesus loved little children. Luke calls them infants, (Luke 18:15); He blessed them, (Mark 10:16).
11 Concerning the good; the good that you may do to obtain eternal life. One is the Good; or the Good One; meaning God. The young man had addressed Jesus as a human teacher.
said, “You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; 19 honor your father and your mother; and, you shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

20 The young man says to Him, “I observed all these things; what yet do I lack?” 21 Jesus said to him, “If you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in Heaven; and come, follow Me.”

22 But the young man, having heard this saying, went away grieved; for he was one who had large possessions.

23 And Jesus said to His disciples, “Verily I say to you, that with difficulty shall a rich man enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. 24 And again I say to you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God.”

25 And the disciples, having heard it, were amazed exceedingly, saying, “Who, then, can be saved?”

26 But Jesus, looking on them, said to them, “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

27 Then Peter, answering, said to Him, “Behold, we left all, and followed Thee; what, then, shall we have?”

28 And Jesus said to them, “Verily I say to you, that ye who followed Me, in the regeneration, when the Son of Man shall sit upon the throne of His glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29 And every one who left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or children, or lands, for My name’s sake, shall receive manifold more and shall inherit eternal life. 30 But many that are first shall be last, and last first.”

28 In the regeneration; referring to the time when God will make all things new, or bring in the glories of His Millennial reign. (Rev. 20:11-14). Judging the twelve tribes of Israel; during the Millennial reign, when the Jews will be in the front.

29 Shall receive manifold more; than he gave up for Christ, here in this world. How true this is to those who at God’s call, abandon all to Him. How He multiplies friends for them! opens homes to them! pours treasures into their hands, that they may scatter them among the needy! or, taking Paul’s view of it, those who for Christ’s sake give up all, and have nothing, are the ones who possess all things, (II Cor. 6:10). And inherit eternal life; the life they get in Christ. (see John 10:10; I John 5:11, 12).

30 First, last; first in point of privileges, and last to use them. Last, first; last to see the light, but first to embrace it. Illustrated in the history of the Jews and the gentiles.

31 “Again, going forth about the sixth and the ninth hour, he did likewise. 6 And about the eleventh hour, going forth, he found others standing, and he says to them, ‘Why stand ye here all the day idle?’ 7 They say to him, ‘Because no man hired us.’ He says to them, ‘Go ye also into the vineyard.’

8 “And, evening having come, the lord of the vineyard says to his steward, ‘Call the laborers, and pay them the wages, beginning from the last to the first.’

9 “And those who were hired about the eleventh hour, coming, received, each, a

REMARKS ON THE PARABLE OF THE VINEYARD.

This parable presents a number of difficulties, and has been variously interpreted. This much seems to be clearly
And the first, coming, supposed that they would receive more; and they also received, each, a denary. 11 And, having received it, they murmured against the householder, 12 saying, 'These last wrought but one hour, and you made them equal with us, who bore the burden of the day and the burning heat!'

13 "But he, answering, said to one of them, 'Friend, I do you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denary? 14 Take up your own, and go. But I will to give to the last even as to you: 15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with my own? Or is your eye evil, because I am good?' 16 So the last shall be first, and the first last.'

JESUS FORETELLS HIS SUFFERINGS.

17 And, when about to go up to Jerusalem, Jesus took with Him the twelve disciples privately, and on the way He said to them, 18 "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the high-priests and scribes; and they will condemn Him to death; 19 and will deliver Him up to the gentiles, to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify; and, on the third day, He will be raised up."

REQUEST FOR ZEBEDEE'S SONS.

20 Then came to Him the mother of the sons of Zebedee with her sons, worshiping on the surface: 1. The longer labor does not establish an unquestionable right to the higher reward: "They all received, each, a denary." 2. Neither does it teach that the aggregate reward of every believer will be the same as that of every other; for all are to be judged and rewarded according to their works. (1 Cor. 3:8; II John 8; ch. 23:21).

3. The parable teaches that God's sovereignty will be a mighty factor in determining what all but the first group of laborers received.

The immediate interpretation of the different parts of the parable seems to be thus: The householder represents the Father; the steward, Jesus Christ; the vineyard, Christianity as related to the Kingdom of God; the laborers, different classes of persons connected with the Kingdom of Heaven; the settlement with the laborers, the judgment of Christians; and the denary—what does it represent? Some think it represents salvation or eternal life; but this is a gift, rather than wages. Some think, too, that it represents the Jews as the first in point of opportunity, but the last to accept Christ; while the gentiles came in ahead of them.

It seems, however, that all the laborers were regarded as in the Kingdom to start with; and that the parable had to do with the different classes of laborers in the Vineyard of the Lord; some of them working for wages, and others leaving it to the Lord to reward them as He might see fit.

and asking something of Him. 21 And He said to her, "What do you wish?" She says to Him, "Command, that these two sons may sit, one on Thy right hand, and one on Thy left, in Thy Kingdom." 22 But Jesus, answering, said, "Ye know not what ye are asking. Are ye able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?" They say to Him, "We are able." 23 He saith to them, "My cup, indeed, ye shall drink; but to sit on My right hand, and on My left, is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father."

24 And the ten, hearing it, were much displeased with the two brothers. 25 But Jesus, calling them near, said, "Ye know that the rulers of the nations exercise lordship over them. 26 Not so shall it be among you; 27 but whosoever wishes to become great among you shall be your minister; and whosoever wishes to be first among you shall be your servant; 28 even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give His soul a ransom for many."

TWO BLIND MEN RECEIVE SIGHT.

29 And, as they were going forth from Jericho, a great multitude followed Him. 30 And, behold, two blind men, sitting by the road, hearing that Jesus was passing by, cried, saying, "Lord, have mercy on us, Thou Son of David!" 31 But the was not lawful for them to put any one to death, delivered Jesus to the Romans, who then held Judaea as a province.

22 Ye know not; they understood not the nature of His Kingdom, nor what was required to take part in it. Are ye able to drink the cup; endure the sufferings that He was about to suffer. We are able; they were utterly ignorant of His meaning.
23 Ye shall drink; ye shall have some share in My sufferings. They would lose their lives as martyrs.
24 The ten; the other apostles were indignant that two of their number should seek to be placed above them.
25 Not so shall it be; in the Kingdom of Christ one is not to exercise lordship over another.

multitude rebuked them, that they should be silent. But they cried the more, "Lord, have mercy on us, Thou Son of David!"
32 And, standing still, Jesus called them, and said, "What do you wish that I should do to you?" 33 They say to Him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened." 34 And, moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes, and straightway they received sight; and followed Him.

CHAPTER XXI.
THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY INTO JERUSALEM.

1 And, when they drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage, to the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, "Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye will find an ass tied, and a colt with her; having loosed them, lead them to Me. 3 And, if any one say anything to you, ye shall say, 'The Lord hath need of them;' and straightway he will send them." 4 Now this has come to pass, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying, 5 "Say to the daughter of Zion, 'Behold, your King is coming to you, meek and mounted upon an ass, and on a colt, a foal of a beast of burden.'"
6 And the disciples, going and doing as Jesus commanded them, 7 led the ass and the colt, and put upon them their garments; and He sat thereon. 8 And most of the multitude spread their own garments in the way, and others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them in the way. 9 And the multitudes, who were going before Him, and those who were following, were crying, saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He Who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!" 10 And, when He entered into Jerusalem, all the city was startled, saying, "Who is this?" 11 And the multitudes said, "This is the Prophet, Jesus, from Nazareth of Galilee."

CLEANSES THE TEMPLE.

12 And Jesus entered into the temple, and cast out all those selling and buying in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those selling the doves. 13 And He saith to them, "It has been written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer;' but ye are making it a den of robbers!"
14 And the blind and lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them. 15 And the high-priests and scribes, seeing the wonderful things which He did, and the boys who were crying in the temple, and saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" were much displeased, 16 and said to Him, "Dost Thou hear what these are saying?" And Jesus saith to them, "Yes; did ye never read, 'Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings Thou didst perfect praise!'" 17 And, leaving them, He went forth out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXI.

1 Bethphage: a village on the south side of the mount of Olives, a hill about two miles east of Jerusalem, beyond the valley of Jehoshaphat, through which valley ran the brook Kidron, or Kidron.
2 Loose her: the ass was bound.
3 If any say anything: against taking the ass and colt.
4 By the prophet: Zech. 9:9.
5 The daughter of Zion: a personification of Zion, which was the part of Jerusalem where David and the kings who succeeded him dwelt. It represents the inhabitants of Jerusalem. Behold your King cometh: a prophecy evidently referring to the Messiah. And Jesus here claimed to be the One predicted. Sitting upon an ass: the beast of burden among the Israelites (Judges 5:10; 10:4), also a beast of peace in contrast with the war-horse. An ass and a colt: according to Mark (11:7), and John (12:15). Jesus rode on the colt; the mother accompanying it.
6 Spread their own garments in the way: a royal honor according to the custom of the times.
7 Hosanna: literally "save us," or "save now." An expression of joy to their newly-found King. Hosanna in the highest: lit. the heavens above re-echo and ratify our Hosannas on earth.
8 Cast out: drove out the traders from the court of the temple. Money-changers: those who exchanged the Roman currency of that time for the Jewish half-shekel which was paid annually for the support of temple service. These money-changers received a premium for their services, and were often dishonest in their dealings. Sold doves: for offerings in the temple. (Lev. 14:22; Luke 2:24.) This was a wonderful miracle itself.
10 See the wonderful things: it seems strange that the miracles of Jesus had so little influence on the minds of the rulers. His mighty works only made them, it seems, the more determined to kill Him.
11 Did ye never read: Ps. 8:2. The quotation is from the Septuagint, or Greek translation of the Old Testament, where the words "ordained strength" are translated "perfected praise."
12 Bethany: a village on the east of the mount of Olives, near Bethphage. And lodged there: spent the night. Jesus, no doubt, greatly enjoyed the hospitality of Mary, Martha, and Lazarus.
THE BARREN FIG TREE WITHERED.

18 And in the morning, returning into the city, He hungered. 19 And, seeing one fig tree by the way, He came to it, and found nothing thereon except leaves only. And He saith to it, "No more may fruit come from you forever." And immediately the fig tree withered away! 20 And the disciples, seeing it, wondered, saying, "How quickly the fig tree withered away!" 21 And Jesus, answering, said to them, "Verily I say to you, if ye have faith, and do not doubt, not only the withering of the fig tree shall ye accomplish, but, even if ye say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up, and be cast into the sea,' it shall be done. 22 And all things whatsoever ye ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive."

BY WHAT AUTHORITY?

23 And, when He came into the temple, the high-priests and the elders of the people came to Him while He was teaching, saying, "By what authority art Thou doing these things? And who gave Thee this authority?"

24 And Jesus, answering, said, "I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell Me, I also will tell you by what authority I do these things: 25 The immersion of John—whence was it? from Heaven or from men?" And they were reasoning among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From Heaven,' He will say to us, 'Why, then, did ye not believe him?' 26 But, if we say, 'From men,' we fear the multitude; for all hold John as a prophet." 27 And, answering Jesus, they said, "We do not know." He also said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

28 "But what think ye? A man had two children; and to the first, he said, 'Child, go, work to-day in the vineyard.' 29 And he, answering, said, 'I go, sir,' and he went not. 30 And, coming to the second, he spake in like manner; and he, answering, said, 'I am not willing;' but later, repenting, he went. 31 Which of the two did the will of the father?" They say, "The last." Jesus saith to them, "Verily I say to you that the tax-collectors and the harlots are going into the Kingdom of God before you. 32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and ye did not believe him; but the tax-collectors and the harlots believed him; but ye, having seen him, did not even repent afterward, that ye might believe him."

FRUIT OF THE VINEYARD REQUIRED.

33 "Hear another parable. There was a man—a householder—who planted a vineyard, and placed a fence around it, and dug a wine-press, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went abroad. 34 And, when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen to receive his fruits. 35 And the husbandmen, taking his servants, one, indeed, they beat; and one they killed; and one they stoned. 36 Again he sent other servants more than the first; and they treated them likewise. 37 But afterward he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will reverence my son.' 38 But the husbandmen, seeing the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and have his inheritance!' 39 And they went and killed him. He also said to them, "Which of the servants will he send to the owner of the vineyard?"

2 Or, into another country.
39 And, taking him, they cast him forth out of the vineyard, and killed him. 40 When, therefore, the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those husbandmen? 41 They say to Him, 'He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will let out the vineyard to other husbandmen, who will render to him the fruits in their seasons.'

42 Jesus saith to them, 'Did ye never read in the Scriptures, 'The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made head of a corner; this was from the Lord, and it is marvellous in our eyes?'

CHAPTER XXII.

MARRIAGE FEAST AND WEDDING-GARMENT.

1 And Jesus answering, again spake to them in parables, saying,

2 'The Kingdom of Heaven was likened to a man—a king—who made a marriage feast for his son. 3 And he sent forth his servants to call those who had been invited to the marriage feast, and they were not willing to come.

4 'Again he sent forth other servants, saying, 'Say to those who have been invited, Behold, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and fatlings have been slain, and all things are ready: come to the marriage feast.'

5 'But they, neglecting it, went away; one, indeed, to his own farm, another to his merchandise; 6 and the rest, having laid hold on his servants, maltreated and slew them.

7 'And the king was enraged; and, sending his armies, he destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. 8 Then he says to his servants, 'The marriage feast, indeed is ready; but those who had been invited were not worthy; 9 go, therefore, to the outskirts of the highways; and as many as ye find, invite to the marriage feast.'

10 And the servants, going out into the highways, gathered together all whom they found, both bad and good; and the bridal-hall was filled with guests.

11 'And he saw there a man not having on a wedding-garment; 12 and he says to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here, not having on a wedding-garment?' And he was speechless. 13 Then said the king to the attendants, 'Having bound his feet and hands, cast him forth into the outer darkness; there will be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth! 14 For many are called, but few chosen.'

GOD AND CAESAR TO BE GIVEN THEIR DUES.

15 Then the Pharisees, going, took counsel how they might ensnare Him in speech. 16 And they send to Him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, 'Teacher, we know that Thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, and carest not for any one; for Thou dost not look into the 3 His servants; those first sent to invite the Jews to accept Jesus as the Messiah. They were not willing to come; would not accept Him.

4 Other servants; other ministers whom He afterwards sent.

5 Neglecting it; saying no attention to the invitation.

6 Maltreated and slew them; this represents the treatment which the apostles and other preachers would receive at the hands of the Jews.

7 Destroyed those murderers; referring to the destruction of Jerusalem, as foretold by Jesus. (Luke 21:6-24).

9 Outlets of the highways; referring to the offering of the Gospel to the gentile nations.

10 And the bridal-hall was filled; the servants of Christ are gathering in the guests now, and the marriage-Hall of the Lamb will be filled.

11 A wedding-garment; hosts on such occasions furnished wedding-garments for their guests. Robes of righteousness—even Christ's righteousness—will be supplied to all guests who enter the bridal-Hall of the Lamb. It was a great offense for a guest not to put on a wedding-garment, when it was supplied to all freely. Something more than physical presence among the people of God is needed, if one would not be cast out at last.

12 He was speechless; knowing that he had no excuse.

13 Into the outer darkness; outside the marriage-hall. This marriage-hall represents Heaven; and "the outer darkness." Hell with its anguish.

11 Many are called; called to believe and accept the Gospel. Few chosen; because few accept.

16 With the Herodians; those who advocated the paying of tribute to Caesar, or to the Roman government. The Pharisees held that it was not lawful.
concerning He question, Is should the ernment, to Scriptures "potic away. And they brought Him a denary. 20 And He saith to them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"

21 They say to Him, "Cesar's." Then saith He to them, "Render, therefore, the things of Cesar to Cesar, and the things of God to God." 22 And, hearing it, they wondered; and, leaving Him, they went away.

MARRIAGE AND THE RESURRECTION.

23 On that day there came to Him Sadducees, those saying there is no resurrection, and questioned Him, 24 saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If any one die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed to his brother.' 25 Now there were with us seven brothers; and the first, marrying, died; and, not having seed, he left his wife to his brother. 26 Likewise also the second, and the third, unto the seventh. 27 And after them all, the woman died. 28 In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 But Jesus, answering, said to them, "Ye deceive yourselves, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God; 30 for in the resurrection, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as angels in Heaven.

31 "But concerning the resurrection of the dead, did ye not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, 32 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?' He is not the God of the dead, but of the living." 33 And the multitudes, hearing Him, were astonished at His teaching.

THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT.

34 But the Pharisees, hearing that He silenced the Sadducees, were collected together; 35 and one of them, a lawyer, asked a question, tempting Him: 36 "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?"

37 And He said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. 38 This is the great and first commandment. 39 A second like it is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. 40 On these two commandments hangs the whole law, and the prophets."

DAVID'S SON AND LORD.

41 And, the Pharisees, having been gathered together, Jesus questioned them, 42 saying, "What think ye concerning the Christ? Whose Son is He?" They say to Him, "David's." 43 He saith to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call Him Lord, saying, 44 'The Lord said to my Lord, Sit on

3 Gr. Seven.

17 Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar or not?; if He should say "it is not lawful," then they could charge Him with disloyalty to the Roman government; but, if He should say "it is lawful," they purposed to accuse Him to the people as opposed to the law of God.

18 Knowing their wickedness; clearly understanding their purpose.

19 Tribute-coin; the Roman coin with which their taxes to Cesar were paid.

20 Whose image; likeness stamped upon the coin.

21 Cesar's; this proved that they were under his government, and that, therefore, they should support it for the protection it gave them.

22 They wondered; at the wisdom He displayed in escaping their snare. He proved to them that there was no necessary antagonism between the paying of tribute to a despotic power, and the service of God.

23 Noreurrection; of the body. They denied that the soul existed after death, and, if this were so, there could be no resurrection.

24 Raise up seed to his brother; that no Jewish family might become extinct.

25 Whose wife; believing that there was no resurrection, they felt sure that their supposition would expose its absurdity.

31 Concerning the resurrection: the Biblical proof of the doctrine. Did ye not read; Ex. 3:6, 15. The manner in which God spake of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, proved that they were still living. This proved that their belief that the soul had no existence after death was false; and, this being false, there was no valid plea against the resurrection.

33 Were astonished; more and more at the great wisdom He displayed, and at His familiarity with the Scriptures.

35 A lawyer; an expounder of the divine law.

36 In the law; the law of God.

37 He said; Deut. 6:5.

38 This is the first and great commandment; because it requires that one shall be right with God, which is the way to get right in every other relation.

39 A second; Lev. 19:18; requiring that one shall be right with his neighbor. “Love is the fulfilling of the law,” (Rom. 13:10).

40 On these two; they comprehend the substance of all that is required in the Old Testament Scriptures.

42 David in the Spirit; speaking by inspiration. (Ps. 110:1).
CHAPTER XXIII.

WOE PRONOUNCED UPON THESCRIBE AND PHARISEES.

1 Then Jesus spake to the multitude, and to His disciples, saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat. 2 All, therefore, whatsoever they bid you, do and observe; but do not according to their works; for they say and do not. 4 And they bind heavy burdens, and lay them upon the shoulders of men; but they themselves are not willing to move them with their finger. 5 But all their works they do with the view to be seen by men; for they make broad their phylacteries and enlarge their fringes; 6 and they love the first place in the feasts, and the front seats in the synagogues, 7 and the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called by men 'Rabbi.' 8 But be not ye called Rabbi; for One is your Teacher, and all ye are brethren. 9 And call no one your father on the earth; for One is your Father, the Heavenly. 10 Neither be ye called leaders; because One is your Leader, the Christ. 11 But the greater of you shall be your minister. 12 And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled; and whosoever shall humble himself shall be exalted.

1 Or, say. 2 Or, first couch. 3 Or, chief meals. 4 Or, guides.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXIII.

2 On Moses' seat; as expounders and teachers of the law.
3 Do and observe; so far as their teachings correspond with the law. Do not according to their works; do not follow their example.
4 Heavy burdens; burdensome ceremonies. They laid these heavy exactions upon the people, but did not observe them themselves.
5 Phylacteries; amulets, or slips of parchment worn about their persons, on which were written some Scripture verses, or divine motto. The scribes and Pharisees made theirs broader than others to indicate their superior piety! And for the same reason they wore broader fringes or borders on their garments.
6 The front seat; or the most conspicuous place at feasts or dinings; choosing the best for themselves. It was a custom of the Jews at that time to take their meals reclining, at the table, on couches. (Luke 14:7-11).

46 And no one was able to answer Him a word; nor did any one dare from that day to question Him any more.

13 "But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against men; for ye do not enter, neither do ye suffer those who are entering in to enter." 15 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and, when he is made such, ye make him a son of Hell twofold more than yourselves.

16 "Woe to you, blind guides, who say, 'Whosoever swears by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!' 17 Fools, and blind! for which is greater—the gold or the temple that sanctified the gold? 18 'And whosoever swears by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever swears by the gift that is upon it, is a debtor!' 19 Ye blind! for which is greater—the gift or the altar that sanctifies the gift? 20 He, therefore, who swears by the altar swears by it and by all things on it; 21 and he who swears by the temple swears by it and by Him dwelling therein; 22 and he who swears by Heaven swears by the throne of God and by Him sitting thereon.

*Some authorities insert verse 14 here, or after verse 12: "Woe to you scribes, and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, even while for a pretence ye make long prayers: therefore ye shall receive greater condemnation.

7 Rabbi; teacher, or master.
8 All ye are brethren; equally children of God, and all standing on the same plane.
10 Neither be called leaders; or masters with assumed authority to control the consciences and conduct of others.
11 Your minister; or one who ministers to your wants, especially in spiritual things.
13 Ye shut up; by your false teachings, or your rejection of Me. Ye do not enter; they neither entered the Kingdom of Heaven themselves, and did all they could to prevent others from entering.
15 Compass the sea and land; put forth all sorts of efforts. Proselyte; a convert to their religion. A son of Gehenna; a child of Hell; Gehenna being a place of torment and abode of the wicked after judgment. Twofold more; doubly as wicked; proselytes being proverbially zealous and extreme in their action.
16 Is debtor; under obligation to keep his oath.
23 "Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin; and have omitted the weightier things of the law—the judgment, and the mercy, and the faith; but these it was proper to have done, and those not to have omitted. 24 Blind guides! straining out the gnat, and swallowing the camel!

25 "Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye cleanse the outside of the cup and the dish; but within they are full from extortion and excess! 26 Blind Pharisees! cleanse first the inside of the cup and of the dish, that its outside also may become clean.

27 "Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye are like white-washed sepulchres, which outwardly, indeed, appear beautiful, but within are full of bones of the dead and of all uncleanness. 28 So ye also outwardly, indeed, appear righteous to men; but within ye are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

29 "Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and adorn the tombs of the righteous, and say, 30 'If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.' 31 So then ye testify to yourselves that ye are sons of those who killed the prophets; 32 and fill ye up the measure of your fathers. 33 Serpents! broods of vipers! How can ye escape the judgment of Hell! 34 Therefore, behold, I send to you prophets and wise men and scribes; some of them ye will kill and crucify, and some ye will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city; 35 that upon you may come all the righteous blood poured out upon the earth, from the blood of Abel, the righteous, unto the blood of Zachariah, son of Barachiah, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar. 36 Verily I say to you, all these things shall come upon this generation. 37 Jerusalem! Jerusalem! that kills the prophets, and stones those sent to her! how often did I wish to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! 38 Behold, your house is left to you desolate! 39 For I say to you, ye shall in no wise see Me henceforth, till ye shall say, 'Blessed is He That cometh in the name of the Lord!'

23 Pay tithes; give a tenth part to the service of the temple. Mint and anise and cummin; herbs of small value. The weightier things of the law: as justice to all meted out by righteous judgment. compassion to the ignorant and needy, and piety towards God.

24 Straining out the gnat; the gnat was an unclean thing (Lev. 11:29-32), and they were particular to strain it out of water before drinking, lest they should become unclean. Swallowing the camel; the camel was an unclean animal, and thousands of times larger than a gnat; yet they would, as it were, swallow a camel—commit very large and monstrous sins; while, as to small matters, they were very scrupulous!

25 Full of extortion and excess; spoken of the vessels as foul with the viands that were served in them, procured as a result of extortion and excess; but meaning thereby to describe the moral filth and corruption of the greedy scribes and Pharisees.

26 If one would be acceptable to God, he must be clean inwardly and outwardly.

27 White-washed sepulchres; sepulchres were white-washed at certain seasons.

29 Adorn the tombs of the righteous; beautify the tombs of the worthy dead, as if they set a great price upon righteousness.

31 Ye testify; by calling the murderers of the prophets "our fathers," they owned that they were their children.

32 Fill ye up the measure of your fathers; act worthy of them; fill up the measure of your iniquities, till the cup of iniquity is full!
CHAPTER XXIV.

PROPHECY ON MOUNT OLIVET.

1 And Jesus, going out, was departing from the temple; and His disciples came near to show Him the buildings of the temple. 2 But, He, answering, said to them, "See ye not all these things? verily I say to you, there shall in no wise be left here a stone upon a stone, that shall not be thrown down."

3 And, while He was sitting on the mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us when shall these things be, and what is the sign of Thy coming and of the end of the age."

4 And Jesus, answering, said to them, "Take heed that no one lead thee astray:
5 for many will come in My name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will lead many astray. 6 And ye will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that ye be not troubled, for these things must come to pass; but the end is not yet. 7 For nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. 8 But all these are a beginning of travail. 9 Then will they deliver you up to tribulation, and will slay you; and ye will be hated by all the nations for My name's sake. 10 And then will many be caused to stumble, and will deliver up one another, and hate one another; 11 and many false prophets will arise, and will lead many astray; 12 and, because lawlessness abounds, the love of many will grow cold. 13 But he that endures to the end, the same shall be saved. 14 And this Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the inhabited earth for a testimony to all the nations, and then shall the end come. 15 "When, therefore, ye see the abomination of the desolation which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place, (let him that reads understand), 16 then let those in Judea flee into the mountains; 17 let him who is on the house-top not go down to take away the things of his house; 18 and let him who is in the field not turn back to take his garment. 19 But woe to the women with child, and to those giving suck, in those days! 20 And pray, that your flight be not in winter, nor on a sabbath;

1 Or, dispensation.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXIV.

This prophecy has a double reference; first, to the destruction of the temple and Jerusalem; and, secondly, to the close of this age, or dispensation; the former being a local type of what is to be world-wide in the latter. (Luke 21:56; Rev. 3:10). The providential coming of the Son of Man to destroy the temple and city, which was to be done before that generation should pass away, shadows forth His majesty coming at the end of the age.

1 The temple: built after the return from the Babylonish captivity, and greatly enlarged by Herod, but finally destroyed in A. D. 70 under orders of the Roman general Titus.

2 Thrown down: indicating the violence with which the temple was destroyed about thirty-seven years later.

4:8 The events here prophesied of had their primary fulfillment between 33 and 70 A. D.; but they are to have a much wider fulfillment just preceding the visible second coming of Christ (Zech. 14:5-21; Rev. 19:11-21); the great tribulation period of (possibly) seven years, occurring between the pre-tribulation rapture (note on 1 Thess. 1:15-17), and His visible coming with His saints (Zech. 14:5; Jude 14), to restore order to this planet, and inaugurate His blissful reign. (Rev. 20:1; Zech. 11:19; Isa. 65:17-25). "I am the Christ;" history informs us that there were such claimants before the destruction of Jerusalem; and others are making the same impious claim now.

9 Ye will be hated by all the nations: this had a primary fulfillment in the persecutions that followed the Christian Jews and gentiles; but it will have a more intense fulfillment, when Satan with his organized earthly allies shall undertake to blot out Christianity from the earth, (see Rev. 12:13; 17: 13:7).

2 Gr. Birth-pangs.

10 Caused to stumble: will forsake Christ to save their lives.

13 He that endures to the end: one who continues to follow Christ regardless of all perils, is the one who is promised salvation.

14 Preached in all the inhabited earth: that portion of it known to the Roman world had the Gospel preached in it before the destruction of Jerusalem. (Col. 1:6. 23; Rom. 10:16): but it is to be "preached in all the world for a testimony to all the nations," and for gathering a people from among the gentiles for His name, before His visible second coming. (Acts 15:14). The Gospel of the Kingdom, or the good news of the coming Kingdom, has not been very generally preached.

15 The abomination of the desolation: possibly referring primarily to the caryats of the Roman standards that desecrated the temple and "the holy city" just before its destruction by the Romans, (Dan. 9:27; 12:11); but looking forward to "the abomination of the desolation" that will be realized during "the tribulation the great," after the setting up of the image of the beast, (see Rev. 13:18; 17: 16:2).

16 Flee into the mountains: to escape death at the hands of the Roman soldiers.

17 On the house-top: the tops of the houses were then flat, so that persons often prayed, slept, or worked on them. To take away the things: there would be no time to take anything with them.

19 War: because of the increased difficulty of fleeing.

20 Winter: because it would then be more perilous to escape. Sabbath day: it would make them violators of the sabbath after the letter at least. The austerities of sabbath observers would stand in the way of their escape, and they would appear as desecrators of the day.
21 Then shall be great tribulation; it is said that 1,100,000 Jews were slain or perished in Jerusalem; and, in other parts of the country adjacent, 250,000 more; while 27,000 were sold into bondage. This is a type of what is to take place on a world-wide scale in the reign of the Antichrist during the great tribulation; this latter being world-wide, (see again Rev. 3:10; 13:7).

22 Days shortened; days of distress and dire persecution; having, probably, a double reference as above. (see Jer. 30:7; Dan. 12:1; Zech. 12:10, etc.).

23-27 All false Christs who are confined merely to some given locality—as in the wilderness, secret chambers, etc.—are to be repudiated; because, at His second visible coming, His appearance will be as the lightning that shines from the east to the west.

28 Where the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together; where the Jews are, there will the destructive Romans be. Or, applied to the period just preceding our Lord's second visible coming, wherever Christians can be found, there the forces of the Anti-Christ will swoop down upon them, like savage birds of prey, (Rev. 9:6; 13:7; 13:17).

29 Sun darkened; applying to things yet future, (see Isa. 13:10; Ezek. 32:7; Joel 2:10, 31), and preceding the second coming of our Lord to the earth.

30 The sign of the son of Man; sign of His coming. Shall see the Son of Man; when He comes to take vengeance on His enemies, (H. Thess. 1:7-10; Jude 1).

31 Send forth His angels; after Christ has destroyed the armies of the beast. Or Anti-Christ (Zech. 14:12; Rev. 19:19-21). He will send forth His angels (possibly these may be His messengers of the overcoming type—see Rev. 19:11, 16:1), to gather up, and organize the world under His rule. (Zech. 14:9, 16:16).

32, 33 From the fig tree; as the budding of the fig tree proclaims the near approach of summer, so the events above enumerated declare that the coming of Christ is near. In the return of the Jews to Palestine, which is increasing more and more, the beginning of the "blighted fig tree" (ch. 21:19) to bud again?

34 This generation shall not pass away; referring, no doubt, to the destruction of Jerusalem, the portion of the prophecy in which His disciples were more immediately interested.

35 Of that day; the day of His coming to judge the world. No one knows; men may guess, and reason from uncertain premises, and fix a time for His coming, but it amounts to little more than a guess. Neither the Son; as a man; of course, as God (John 1:1; Isa. 9:6), Jesus knew all things.

36-39 Noe; the Greek for Noah. (Gen. 7:1). The world will be absorbed in secular and social matters, when Christ comes; and it will be very wicked, too; and the people will be found unprepared to meet Him.
behind; 41 two women will be grinding at the mill, one is carried off, and one is left behind. 42 Watch ye, therefore, because ye know not in what day your Lord is coming. 43 But know this, that, had the householder known at what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken through. 44 Therefore, be ye also ready; for, in an hour that ye think not, the Son of Man is coming.

45 "Who, then, is the faithful and wise servant whom his lord set over his house, and not to His visible coming with the saints. (see again Zech. 14:5; Jude 14; Rev. 19:19.) A Christian who is not ready will be left behind at the rapture, and remain on earth to go into the tribulation, and may share in martyr honors later. (Rev. 20:4).

42 Ye know not; it was true of the disciples, and it is true of Christians now, that they do not know the hour, or the day, or the year, of His coming.

44 Be ready; for His coming in whatever way, whether to take our spirits to Heaven (John 14:2, 3), or His coming as Bridegroom. (ch. 25:1-13).

45-51 To give them their food in season; ministers of the Gospel ought to explain the Scriptures to those under their care; giving them, among other things, the doctrine of Christ's second coming, with instructions as to how they may be ready to meet Him. Those who do this faithfully will have a glorious place in the blissful reign of Christ on the earth; while those who do not feed their flocks properly, and do not teach them the doctrine of Christ's second coming, will have a dreadful doom to meet.

It is not the outward signs of His coming, but the commands of Jesus to watch and be ready, that should inspire us to zeal and watchfulness. The prophetic order of events, bearing on the second coming of our Lord, seems to be thus: 1. His coming in the mid-heavens for His bride; 2. The great tribulation; 3. The visible coming of the Lord with His saints; 4. The destruction of the armies of the Anti-Christ, or beast, and the capture of the beast, false prophet, and Satan; and then the inauguration of the Millennial reign, etc.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 "Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be likened to ten virgins, who, taking their lamps, went forth to meet the bridegroom. 2 And five of them were foolish, and five wise; 3 for the foolish, taking their lamps, did not take oil with them; 4 but the wise took oil in the vessels with their lamps. 5 Now, the bridegroom tarrying, they all became drowsy, and were sleeping; 6 but at midnight a cry has been made, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come ye forth to meet him!'

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXV.

1 Then; at the time of the rapture, when "one will be taken, and one will be left." (ch. 24:40, 41). To meet the bridegroom; Christ is the Bridegroom; and He is coming for His bride. (1 Cor. 15:51; 2; I Thess. 4:15-17).

2-7 The foolish...the wise: they were all virgins differing in one important thing: viz., the foolish were not filled with the Spirit, (the oil being a symbol of the Spirit) but the wise were so filled. Both seemed to have been Christians; but the foolish, like the vast majority of Christians of the present day, were not fully consecrated; hence were not Spirit-filled, and therefore not ready to meet the Bridegroom; and hence they were left behind to go into the tribulation.

8 Give us your oil; the foolish virgins now saw that their defect was radical: but the wise could not supply hold, to give them their food in season.

9 For yourselves: each Christian must receive the Holy Spirit for himself; and this is a real transaction, in which one gives himself to God, and by faith receives the Holy Spirit. (Gal. 3:3, 14; Luke 11:13; Mark 11:24).

10 While they were going to buy; while they were seeking to get the Holy Spirit. The ready ones went in with him: the Spirit-filled are the ready ones; and these go to the marriage feast.

11 Afterward came also the others; they seem to have gotten the oil, but too late to enter.

12 I know you not: as the ready guests for this occasion. They were probably now prepared for martyrdom, and if so, would come up with martyr honors at the last. (Rev. 20:4). Christians who are not cut loose from the
I say to you, I know you not.' 13 Watch, therefore, because ye know not the day, nor the hour!

14 "For it is as when a man, going abroad, called his own servants, and delivered to them his goods: 15 and to one, indeed, he gave five talents; and to another, two; and to another, one—to each according to his own ability; and he went abroad.

16 "Straightway the one receiving the five talents, going, traded with them, and gained five others. 17 Likewise he also who received two gained other two. 18 And he who received one, going away, digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. 19 And, after a long time, the lord of those servants comes, and makes a reckoning with them. 20 And the one who received the five talents, coming near, brought other five talents, saying, 'Lord, you delivered to me five talents; behold, I gained other five talents.' 21 His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant: you were faithful over a few things, I will set you over many; enter into the joy of your lord.'

22 "He also, who received the two talents, coming near, said, 'You delivered to me two talents; behold, I gained other two talents.' 23 His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant: you were faithful over a few things, I will set you over many; enter into the joy of your lord.'

world, are not ready to meet Christ; though, after the rapture, and before "the great tribulation" actually begins, they may receive the Holy Spirit, and get ready for the martyrdom that awaits all who miss the rapture.

13 Watch: because you do not know when He is coming. This is the practical application of the parable.

14 Delivered to them his goods: this parable represents God as the Giver of all blessings, the recipients as accountable to Him; and this suggests the great importance of making the best possible use of the gifts bestowed.

15 To each according to his own ability: God distributes His gifts according to the ability of His people to use them.

16 Traded with them: making the best possible use of his opportunities.

17 Hid his lord's money: so that he might not bother about it. The sequel shows that a failure to improve one's opportunities will subject one to dreadful punishment.

18 The lord of those servants: referring to Jesus Christ, when He comes to judgment.

21 I will set you over many; I will promote you to a higher position in my service. The faithful ones will have much honor bestowed upon them hereafter.

22 Good and faithful servant: this servant receives the same commendation as the one who gained five talents; though, doubtless, his future promotion would be, all else equal, in the same ratio as the gifts bestowed and as their gains.

23 You are a hard man; idleness is often associated with insolence. Sinners who have wasted their opportunities often have hard thoughts of God.

done, good and faithful servant: you were faithful over a few things; I will set you over many things: enter into the joy of your lord.'

24 "And he who received the one talent, coming near said, 'Lord, I knew you, that you are a hard man; reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter; 25 and, being afraid, going away, hid your talent in the earth: behold, you have your own.' 26 But his lord, answering, said to him, 'Wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter. 27 It behooved you, therefore, to put my money to the bankers; and, at my coming, I would have received my own with interest. 28 Take from him, therefore, the talent, and give it to him who has the ten talents. 29 For, to every one that has, shall be given, and he shall be made to abound; but from him that has not shall be taken away even what he has; 30 and cast out the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness: there will be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth!

31 "And, when the Son of man cometh in His glory, and all the angels with Him, then will He sit on the throne of His glory; 32 and there will be gathered before Him all the nations; and He will separate those who have made their peace with the world, and who have sold their birthright for a morsel of food..."
CHAPTER XXVI.

CONSPIRACY TO BETRAY JESUS.

1 And it came to pass when Jesus finished all these words, He said to His disciples, 2 "Ye know that, after two days, the passover takes place, and the Son of Man is delivered up to be crucified."

3 Then the high priests and the elders of the people were gathered together into the court of the high priest who was called Caiaphas; 4 and they consulted together that they might take Jesus by guile and kill Him. 5 But they said, "Not during the feast, lest an uproar might arise among the people."

JESUS ANOINTED AT BETHANY.

6 Now, when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 there came to Him a woman having an alabaster cruse of very precious ointment, and arate them one from another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats; 33 and He will set the sheep, indeed, on His right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 "Then will the King say to those on His right hand, 'Come, ye blessed of My Father! inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the founding of the world: 32 for I hungered, and ye gave Me to eat; I thirsted, and ye gave Me drink; I was a stranger, and ye took Me in; 34 naked, and ye clothed Me; I was sick, and ye looked after Me; I was in prison, and ye came to Me.'

37 "Then will the righteous answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see Thee hungering, and fed Thee? or thirsting, and gave Thee drink? 38 And when did we see Thee a stranger, and took Thee in; or naked, and clothed Thee? 39 And, when did we see Thee sick, or in prison, and came to Thee?'

40 "And, answering, the King will say to them, 'Verily I say to you, inasmuch as ye did it to one of My brethren, even the least, ye did it to Me.' 41 Then will He say also to those on the left hand, 'Depart from Me, ye accursed! into the eternal fire which was prepared for the Devil and his angels: 42 for I hungered, and ye did not give Me to eat; I thirsted, and ye gave Me no drink; 43 I was a stranger, and ye took Me not in; naked, and ye did not clothe Me; sick, and in prison, and ye did not look after Me.'

44 "Then will they also answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see Thee hungering, or thirsting, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to Thee?'

45 "Then will He answer them, saying, 'Verily I say to you, inasmuch as ye did it not to one of these least, ye did it not to Me.'

46 "And these shall go away into age-lasting punishment, but the righteous into age-lasting life."
poured it down upon His head, while reclining at table. 8 And the disciples, seeing it, were much displeased, saying, "To what purpose is this waste? 9 For this might have been sold for much, and given to the poor!" 10 But Jesus, perceiving it, said to them, "Why do ye give trouble to the woman? for she wrought a good work for Me; 11 for the poor ye always have with you; but Me ye have not always. 12 For she, in pouring this ointment upon My body, did it with reference to My burial. 13 Verily I say to you, wheresoev er this Gospel shall be preached in all the world, that also which this woman did shall be spoken of for a memorial of her." 14 Then one of the twelve, the one called Judas Iscariot, going to the high priests, 15 said, "What are ye willing to give me, and I will deliver Him up to you?" And they paid him thirty pieces of silver. 16 And from that time he was seeking an opportunity to deliver Him up.

THE PASSOVER: THE OLD AND NEW FEAST.

17 And on the first day of the unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where dost Thou wish that we should prepare for Thee to eat the passover?" 18 And He said, "Go away into the city to such a one, and say to him, 'The Teacher saith, My time is at hand; with you I observe the passover together with My disciples.'" 19 And the disciples did as Jesus directed them, and prepared the passover.

1 Or, betray. 2 Or, testament.

20 And, evening coming on, He was reclining at table with the twelve; 21 and, as they were eating, He said, "Verily I say to you, one of you will betray Me." 22 And, being exceedingly grieved, they began to say to Him, each one, "Is it I, Lord?" 23 And He, answering, said, "He who dipped with Me his hand in the dish, the same will betray Me. 24 The Son of Man, indeed, goeth, as it has been written of Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It were good for him, if that man had never been born!"

25 And Judas, who betrayed Him, answering, said, "Is it I, Rabbi?" He says to him, "You said it." 26 And, as they were eating, Jesus, taking a loaf and blessing it, broke it, and giving to His disciples, said, "Take, eat, this is My body." 27 And, taking a cup, and offering thanks, He gave to the disciples, saying, "Drink of it, all ye; 28 for this is My blood of the covenant, which is shed in behalf of many for remission of sins. 29 And I say to you, I will not drink henceforth of this product of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in the Kingdom of My Father." 30 And, having sung praises, they went out into the mount of Olives.

PETER’S DENIAL FORETOLD.

31 Then Jesus saith to them, "All ye

24 As it has been written; Ps. 41:9; Isa. 53:1-10. Good for him; because of the suffering awaiting his great crime.

26 This is My body; the bread represents His body. Jesus here uses a metaphor, as He often did. "I am the Vine, ye are the branches" (John 15:5): "The seven good kine are seven years," (Gen. 41:20); "He is a Rock." (Deut. 32:1)—these are instances of the use of metaphors, which are easily understood. "This is My body," is easily understood. If one does not mean to pervert the truth.

28 This is My blood; represents My blood. The bread and wine, partaken of as a memorial of Christ’s death, declare His vicarious sufferings, in behalf of sinners.

30 When I drink it with you now; in the blissful reign of Christ on earth during the Millennium, as is likely. There is no proof that Jesus ever drank of the wine after the occasion on which the Supper was instituted. And it would hardly be proper to say that Jesus meant that He would partake of the Supper with His disciples, eating and drinking the emblems of His own body and blood, during His personal absence from His disciples. But, if we understand that He had reference to His reunion with His disciples in the Millennial reign, all seems simple. (see ch. 19:28; Acts 15:14-17; Rev. 20:1-4, etc.).

31 Stumble at Me; the disciples seemed unable to understand that Jesus was to be crucified; hence, when He Matthew

Will be made to stumble because of Me this night: for it has been written, 'I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered abroad.' 32 But, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee." 33 But Peter, answering, said to Him, "If all should be made to stumble because of Thee, I will never be made to stumble." 34 Jesus said to him, "Verily I say to you, that this night, before a cock crows, you will thrice deny Me." 35 Peter says to Him, "Even if I must die with Thee, I will not deny Thee." Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 Then cometh Jesus with them into a place called Gethsemane, and saith to the disciples, "Sit ye here, while I, going yonder, pray." 37 And, taking with Him Peter, and the two sons of Zebedee, He began to be grieved and to be in distress. 38 Then saith He to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful even unto death! Abide ye here, and watch with Me." 39 And, going forward a little, He fell on His face, praying, and saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from Me; nevertheless not as I will, but as Thou wilt." 40 And He cometh to the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, and saith to Peter, "Were ye thus unable to watch with Me one hour? 41 Watch, and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. The spirit, indeed, is willing, but the flesh is weak." 42 Again, a second time, going away, He prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is not possible that this cup should pass away except I drink it, Thy will be done." 43 And, coming again, He found them sleeping; for their eyes were heavy. 44 And, leaving them, going away again, He prayed a third time, saying again the same words. 45 Then He cometh to the disciples, and saith to them, "Sleep on the remaining time, and take your rest. Behold the hour has drawn near, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Arise, let us be going. Behold, he who is betraying Me is at hand." 47 And, while He is yet speaking, behold, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a large multitude, with swords and clubs, from the high priests and elders of the people. 48 And he who was betraying Him gave them a sign, saying, "Whomsoever I kiss, He it is; seize Him." 49 And immediately coming to Jesus, he said, "Hail, Rabbi!" and kissed Him. 50 But Jesus said to him, "Comrade, do that for which you are present!" Then, coming near, they laid hands on Jesus, and took Him. 51 And, behold, one of those with Jesus stretching forth his hand, grasped his sword; and, smiting the servant of the high priest, he struck off his ear.

52 Then saith Jesus to him, "Return your sword to its place; for all taking a sword will perish by a sword. 53 Or do you think that I cannot call upon My Father, and He will place beside Me, even now, more than twelve legions of angels? 54 How, then, could the Scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?"

3 Ready, or forward.

surrendered to His enemies, they were utterly dumdounded, and fled away from Him and His captors. Written: Zech. 13:7.

32 Go before you into Galilee; ch. 28:17.

34 You will thrice deny Me; vs. 70-74.

35 To die with Thee; Peter and all the other apostles though they would be willing to die with Jesus, rather than to deny Him, so were they after Pentecost. (Acts 9).

36 Gethsemane; a garden on the west side of the mount of Olives.

37 Two sons of Zebedee; James and John.

38 Even unto death; the pressure of the world's guilt upon Him well-nigh killed Him before He reached the cross.

39 This cup; the sufferings that came upon Him on account of His assuming the world's guilt. Nevertheless; thank God for this "nevertheless!"

41 Watch and pray; these are most effective agencies against temptation; and the disciples were soon to have their faith severely tested. The spirit; their spiritual being, or new man. The flesh; referring more particularly to their tired bodies; the expression is often used to denote the depravity of human nature, or the weaknesses which make one a prey to temptation.

45 Sleep on the remaining time; probably meaning that, as they were unable to watch with Him during the period of His deepest agony, they might continue to sleep until His enemies should come—which proved to be but a very brief period. (v. 47).

51 One of those; Peter.

52 Twelve legions; at this time a Roman legion consisted of six thousand men. The Saviour meant a large number—ample to protect Him against all the foes of earth and Hell.

54 How, then, could the Scriptures be fulfilled; the Scriptures that foretold His sufferings, (see, again, Isa. 53; Dan. 9:24-26, etc.). Hence, He waived His right to self-protection, that He might fulfill the Scriptures, and bring in everlasting righteousness.
55 Then the high priest rent his garments, saying, "He blasphemed! What further need have we of witnesses? Behold, ye now heard the blasphemy! 66 What think ye?" And they, answering, said, "He is worthy of death." 67 Then did they spit in His face, and buffet Him. And others smote Him, 68 saying, "Prophesy to us, O Christ, who is he that struck Thee?"

PETER'S DENIAL.

69 And Peter was sitting without, in the court; and a certain maid-servant approached him, saying, "And you were with Jesus the Galilaean!" 70 But he denied before them all, saying, "I know not what you are saying." 71 And another maid saw him, when he walked out into the porch, and said to those there, "This man was with Jesus the Nazarene." 72 And again he denied with an oath, "I do not know the Man." 73 And after a little while, those who stood by, having come, said to Peter, "Truly you also are one of them; for even your speech makes you manifest." 74 Then began he to curse and swear, "I do not know the Man." And straightforward a cock crowed. 75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, saying, "Before a cock crows, you will thrice deny Me." And, going forth without, he wept bitterly.

5 Guilty of death.

67 Prophecy to us: they had previously covered His face, (Mark 14:65); and, in cruel mockery of His claim to be the Son of God, they now ask Him to display His knowledge, by telling them who it was that smote Him.

70 I know not what you are saying: think of the bold Peter denying that he understood what the maid said to him! "Let him that thinks he stands take heed lest he fall." (1 Cor. 10:12).

73 Your speech makes you manifest: identifies you with the Galilaean.

74 Curse and swear: imprecating curses on his head, if he were not telling the truth. This was the hour of triumph for Satan!

75 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus: v. 31. Wept bitterly: on account of his great sin in denying Jesus.

While condemning Peter, let us not deny our Saviour in failing to follow His example of devotion to our Father, and in obeying all the word of God that was meant to control our lives.
CHAPTER XXVII.

JESUS TAKEN BEFORE THE GOVERNOR.

1 And, when morning came, all the high priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus, so as to put Him to death; 2 and, binding Him, they led Him away, and delivered Him up to Pilate, the governor.

JUDAS HANGS HIMSELF.

3 Then Judas, who betrayed Him, seeing that He was condemned, repenting, brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the high priests and the elders, 4 saying, “I sinned, having betrayed innocent blood.” But they said, “What is that to us? You may see to that.” 5 And, throwing the pieces of silver into the temple, he withdrew; and, going away, he hanged himself.

6 And the high priests, taking the pieces of silver, said, “It is not lawful to cast them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood.” 7 And, taking counsel, they bought with them the field of the potter, for a burial-place for the strangers. 8 Wherefore, that field was called “A field of blood” until this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying, “And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him Who was priced, Whom some of the sons of Israel priced, 10 and gave them for the potter’s field, as the Lord directed me.”

JESUS BEFORE PILATE.

11 And Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor questioned Him, saying, “Art Thou the King of the Jews?” And Jesus said to him, “You say it.” 12 And, while He was being accused by the high priests and elders, He answered nothing.

13 Then says Pilate to Him, “Hearest Thou not how many things they testify against Thee?” 14 And He did not answer him, not even to one word; so that the governor greatly wondered.

15 And at the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the multitude one prisoner, whom they desired: 16 and they then had a noted prisoner called Barabbas. 17 When, therefore, they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, “Whom do ye desire that I should release to you? Barabbas or Jesus Who is called Christ?” 18 For he knew that because of envy they delivered Him up.

19 And, while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, “Have nothing to do with that Righteous One; for I suffered many things today in a dream because of Him.”

20 But the high priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes, that they should ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. 21 And the governor, answering, said to them, “Which of the two do ye desire that I should release to you?” And they said, “Barabbas.”

22 Pilate says to them, “What, then, shall I do to Jesus Who is called Christ?” They all say, “Let Him be crucified.”

23 But he said, “Why, what evil did He perform?” And they were crying out the more, saying, “Let Him be crucified!”

24 And Pilate, seeing that it availed nothing, but rather a tumult was being made, taking water, washed his hands before the multitude, saying, “I am innocent of the blood of this Man. Ye shall see to

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXVII.

1 To put Him to death; this had been determined upon already; and His claim to be the Son of God served as the pretext for the execution of their purpose.

2 Delivered Him to Pilate; because the Jews had no authority to take life; that being reserved for the Roman government, whose principal representative at Jerusalem was Pilate.

3 Repenting; of his great crime in betraying Jesus. Whom he knew to be innocent. This was unavailing repentance. The crime was so great, that it admitted of no effective repentance, or real change of mind, (see ch. 36:23).

4 What is that to us?; the men that could have deliberately planned the death of Jesus, were not capable of real sympathy.

5 Hanged himself; committed suicide to get rid of his torment, but he did not succeed in this; (see Luke 16:23, 24).
It." 25 And all the people, answering, said, "His blood be upon us, and upon our children."

26 Then he released to them Barabbas; but, having scourged Jesus, he delivered Him up to be crucified.

JESUS MOCKED BY THE ROMAN SOLDIERS.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor, taking Jesus into the Praetorium, gathered to Him the whole band. 28 And, having stripped Him, they put on Him a scarlet robe; 29 and, having platted a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a reed in His right hand; and, kneeling before Him, they mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 30 And, having spit on Him, they took the reed, and smote Him on the head; 31 and, when they mocked Him, they took off the robe from Him, and put on His own garments, and led Him away to crucify Him.

THE CRUCIFIXION.

32 And, coming out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; him they impressed to bear the cross. 33 And, having come to a place called Golgotha, that is to say "Place of a skull," 34 they gave Him to drink wine mingled with gall; and, having tasted it, He would not drink.

35 And, having crucified Him, they divided His garments among them, casting lots; 36 and, sitting down, they watched Him there. 37 And they put over His head His accusation, "THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS." 38 Then are there crucified with Him two robbers, one on the right hand and one on the left.

39 And those passing by were reviling Him, wagging their heads, 40 and saying, "Thou Who destroyest the temple and buildest it in three days, save Thyself: if Thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross." 41 Likewise also the high priests, mocking, with the scribes and elders, were saying, 42 "Others He saved, Himself He cannot save! King of Israel is He! let Him now come down from the cross, and we will believe on Him! 43 He has trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now, if He desireth Him; because He said, 'I am God's Son.'"

44 And the robbers, who were crucified with Him, were reproaching Him with the same thing.

45 And from the sixth hour there came darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. 46 And, about the ninth hour, Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "El! El! LAMA SABACHTHANI?" that is, "My God! My God! Why didst Thou forsake Me?"

47 And some of those standing there, hearing it, said, "This One is calling for Elijah. 48 And straightway one of them, running and taking a sponge, and filling it with vinegar, and putting it on a reed, was giving Him to drink. 49 But the rest said, "Let alone! Let us see whether Elijah is coming to save Him!"

25 His blood be upon us and on our children: what a fearful imprecation, and how fearfully it has been realized for nearly nineteen centuries! Until the establishment of liberty in North America, the Jews, since A. D. 70, have suffered untold horrors!

26 Scourged Jesus; according to the inhuman custom of punishing a criminal before his execution!

27 Praetorium; the governor's palace.

28 A scarlet robe; in mockery of His claim to kingship; a purple or scarlet robe being a badge of royalty.

29 A crown of thorns . . . a reed: to complete their mockery, they put a crown of thorns on His head; and a reed, as a scepter, in His hand.

30 Cyrene; a city in northern Africa. Bear His cross: they put the cross on Jesus first (John 19:19), but afterwards laid it on Simon.

31 A place called Golgotha; outside the city, (see Heb. 13:12). Golgotha means a skull, or place of a skull.

32 Wine mingled with gall; some suppose that this was designed to soothe the pains of the sufferers; this, however, is improbable, as compassion seemed not to be an element in these cruel tormentors. Any how, Jesus did not drink it; for He did not desire to make His sufferings worse. He wished to drink the last drop of this bitter cup, (see Ps. 69:21).
50 And Jesus, crying again with a loud voice, yielded up His spirit. Then Pilate asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given up. 50 And, taking the body, Joseph wrapped it in clean linen, and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewed out in the rock; and, having rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, he went away. 61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in two, from top to bottom; and the earth was shaken; and the rocks were rent; 52 and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised; 53 and, coming forth out of the tombs after His resurrection, they entered into the holy city, and appeared to many. THE SEPUlCHRE SEALED AND GUARDED.

54 And the centurion, and those with him watching Jesus, seeing the earthquake, and the things that were taking place, were exceedingly frightened, saying, "Truly, This was a Son of God!"

55 And many women were there, beholding from afar, who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him; 56 among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

57 And, evening having come, there came a rich man from Arimathæa, whose name was Joseph, who also himself was a disciple of Jesus. 58 This man, going to Pilate, asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given up. 59 And, taking the body, Joseph wrapped it in clean linen, 60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewed out in the rock; and, having rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, he went away. 61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

THE RESURRECTION.

1 Now, in the end of sabbaths at the dawning toward the first day of sabbaths, came Mary Magdelene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 The end of sabbaths: meaning, either the end of the sabbaths of the week just preceding Christ's resurrection (including the passover and the Jewish sabbath, or saturday); or, more likely, the end of all Jewish sabbaths, (including the Saturday, or Jewish Sabbath, the special sabbaths, fast sabbaths, sabbath years, etc. All these typical sabbaths came to their end, when the God-Man arose from the grave; the types giving place to their anti-type. The first day of sabbath: the chief of sabbaths: the day that celebrates the redemption of man through the death and resurrection of Christ. This is, most likely, the Eleimic sabbath, which is the same as the creation sabbath. The right translation of Matt. 28:1, and of kindred Scriptures, gives us the Christian Sabbath, and leaves Saturday-worshippers without a foundation to stand upon.
5 And the angel, answering, said to the women, "Fear not; for I know that ye are seeking Jesus Who hath been crucified. 6 He is not here; for He arose, as He said. Come! see the place where the Lord was lying; 7 and, going quickly, say to His disciples, 'He arose from the dead;' and, behold, He is going before you into Galilee; there shall ye see Him; behold, I told you."

8 And, departing quickly from the sepulchre, with fear and great joy, they ran to announce it to His disciples.

9 And, behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Rejoice!" And they were coming to Him, held His feet, and worshiped Him. 10 Then Jesus saith to them, "Fear not, go your way, announce to My brethren that they go away into Galilee, and there shall they see Me."

THE STORY OF THE SOLDIERS.

11 And, as they were going, behold, some of the guard going into the city, reported to the high priests all that had happened. 12 And, having gathered together with 6 He is not here; for He arose; this is the testimony of the angel to the women, Mary Magdalen, and the other Mary, or Mary the wife of Cleophas and mother of James (the less) and Josas. The Lord; the Lord of angels and of men.

9 Held His feet; Jesus manifests Himself to them; and they embrace His feet, and worship Him.

10 My brethren; the disciples of Jesus. O isn’t it an infinite honor to have such a brother as Jesus?

11 The guard; those appointed to guard the tomb of Jesus, to prevent His being stolen away.

13 Having taken counsel; the murderers of Jesus are now planning to prevent His resurrection from becoming known.

13 His disciples stole Him while we were sleeping; if they were sleeping, how could they know what took place! Such testimony would be utterly worthless before any court of justice.

14 Persuade him; influence Pilate not to punish you. Make you devoid of care; relieve you of all anxiety in regard to the matter. "A large sum of silver" would likely have silenced Pilate, as it did the guard.

15 This account; that "the soldiers came by night and stole Him away while we slept." Until this day; the time when this Gospel of Matthew was written.

17 They worshiped Him; as their Divine Lord and Risen Saviour. Some doubted; whether the resurrection had really taken place.

18 All authority was given; probably when, after His resurrection, He ascended to His Father. Before His ascension to the Father, He would not suffer His disciples to touch Him. (see John 20:17; but in v. 3, they were not forbidden to touch Him. Hence, He must have ascended between these two accounts of meeting Him. Then it was, most likely, that the Father conferred upon Him all rightful authority in Heaven and on earth.

19 Therefore; because I have all authority. Disciple all the nations; preach the Gospel to them, and thus lead them to become disciples of Jesus, Immersing them; on a profession of their personal faith in the Personal Christ. Not once into the name of the Father, once into the name of the Son, and once into the name of the Holy Spirit; but once into the name of the Triune God. People are not buried three times, but once. (see Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12).

20 Teaching them to observe all things; the Gospel, after the resurrection, was not to be diminished in its scope, but enlarged rather. How important it is that God’s children should believe, practice, and propagate every item contained in the Gospel of Jesus Christ; omitting nothing, adding nothing.
GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MARK.

Mark, the author of the second Gospel, is believed to be the same as John Mark, referred to in Acts 12:12, 25:15-17; Col. 4:10, etc. He was the son of Mary, and cousin of Barnabas. He was probably converted through the instrumentality of Peter. (1 Peter 5:13). He was a companion of Paul in his first missionary journey as far as Paphlagonia, and then turned back, and went to Jerusalem; causing Barnabas and Paul to separate. (See Acts 13:13; 15:36-39).

Mark's Gospel seems to have been written more especially for the gentle Christians. He omits all genealogical tables; and begins with the ministry of John, which leads speedily to the immersion of Jesus, His active ministry, and into the midst of His mighty works. His Gospel seems peculiarly suited to the Romans, who were so familiar with power. Jesus is here presented as the Servant of God, and as One busy in executing His will.

CONTENTS.

V. B.—Mark's Gospel has much in common with that of Matthew, and also of Luke.

MARK.

CHAPTER I.

1 The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, God's Son. 2 As it has been written in Isaiah the prophet, "Behold, I send My messenger before Thy face, who shall prepare Thy way; 3 the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 'Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make His paths straight.'"

4 John came, who was immersing in the wilderness, and preaching the immersion of repentance unto remission of sins. 5 And there went out to him all the country of Judæa and all those of Jerusalem, and were being immersed by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. 6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and had a leathern girdle about his loins, and ate locusts and wild honey. 7 And he preached, saying, "There cometh after me He Who is mightier than I, the latchet of Whose shoes I am not worthy, stooping down, to loose. 8 I immersed you in water; but He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit."

9 And it came to pass in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was immersed by John into the Jordan. 10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens rent apart, and the Spirit as a dove descending upon Him. 11 And a voice came out of Heaven, saying, "Thou art My Son, the beloved, in Whom I was well pleased."

12 And straightway the Spirit driveth Him forth into the wilderness. 13 And He was in the wilderness forty days tempted by Satan; and He was with the wild beasts; and the angels were ministering to Him.

14 And, after John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospel of God, 15 and saying, "The time has been fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God has come near. Repent ye, and believe in the Gospel."

CALL OF SIMON, ANDREW, JAMES AND JOHN.

16 And, passing along by the sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew, Simon's brother, casting a net in the sea; for they were fishers. 17 And Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men." 18 And straightway, leaving the nets, they followed Him. 19 And going on a little further, He saw James, the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, and those in the ship mending the nets. 20 And straightway He called them; and leaving their father Zebedee in the boat, with the hired servants, they went away after Him.

HEALS ONE OF AN UNCLEAN SPIRIT.

21 And they go into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath, going into the synagogue, He was teaching. 22 And they were astonished at His teaching; for He was teaching them as having authority, and not as the scribes. 23 And straightway there was in the synagogue a man with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, 24 saying, "What is there to us and Thee, Jesus, Nazarene? didst Thou come to destroy us? I know Thee Who Thou art, the Holy One of God." 25 And Jesus rebuked it, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him." 26 And the unclean spirit, having convulsed him, and having cried with a loud voice, came out of him. 27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching! With authority

He commandeth even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him!" 28 And the report of Him went out straightway everywhere into the whole region of Galilee round about.

HE HEALS SIMON'S MOTHER-IN-LAW.

29 And, straightway coming out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.
30 And Simon's mother-in-law was lying sick with fever, and straightway they told Him of her; 31 and, coming to her, He raised her up, having taken her by the hand; and the fever left her, and she was ministering to them. 32 And at evening, when the sun did set, they were bringing to Him all who were sick, and those possessed with demons. 33 And the whole city was gathered together at the door. 34
And He healed many that were sick with many kinds of diseases, and cast out many demons; and He did not permit the demons

CHAPTER II.

1 And, having entered again into Capernau-num after some days, it was heard that He was in the house. 2 And many were gathered together, so that there was no to speak, because they knew Him [to be the Christ].

35 And, having risen very early, by night, He went out into a desert place, and was there praying. 36 And Simon and those with Him 3 followed after Him, 37 and found Him, and say to Him, "All are seeking Thee." 38 And He saith to them, "Let us go elsewhere into the neighboring towns, that I may preach there also; for to this end I came forth." 39 And He went into their synagogues, throughout all Galilee, preaching, and casting out the demons.

A LEPER CLEANSED.

40 And there comes to Him a leper, be-seeking Him, and kneeling down to Him, and saying to Him, "If Thou wilt, Thou canst cleanse me!" 41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, and stretching forth His hand, touched him, and saith to him, "I am willing; be cleansed." 42 And straightway the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed. 43 And having strictly charged him, He straightway sent him away, 44 and saith to him, "See that you say nothing to any one, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses directed, for a testimony to them." 45 But he, going forth, began to publish it much, and to spread abroad the matter; 4 so that He could no more openly enter into a city, but was without in desert places. And they were coming to Him from every quarter.

they uncovered the roof where He was; and, having broken it up, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying. 5 And Jesus, seeing their faith, saith to the paralytic, “Child, your sins are forgiven.” 6 But there were some of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, “Why doth this Man speak thus? He blasphemeth! Who can forgive sins but One, God?” 8 And straightway Jesus, perceiving in His spirit that they so reason within themselves, saith to them, “Why do ye reason these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?’” 10 But, that ye may know the Son of Man hath authority on earth to forgive sins (He saith to the paralytic). 11 I say to you, arise, take up your bed, and go to your house.” 12 And he arose, and, straightway taking up the bed, went forth before them all; so that all were amazed, and glorified God, saying, “We never saw it thus!” 13 And He went again by the sea; and all the multitude were coming to Him, and He was teaching them.

He Calls Levi or Matthew.

14 And passing by, He saw Levi, the son of Alpheus, sitting at the tax-office, and saith to him, “Follow Me.” And, rising up, he followed Him. 15 And it comes to pass that He reclines at table in his house, and many tax-collectors and sinners recline with Him and His disciples; for there were many, and they were following Him. 16 And the scribes of the Pharisees, seeing that He was eating with the sinners and tax-collectors, said to His disciples, “Why doth He eat with the tax-collectors and sinners?” 17 And Jesus, hearing it, says to them, “Those who are well need not a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.”

18 And John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting; and they come and say to Him, “Why do John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but Thy disciples fast not?” 19 And Jesus said to them, “Can the sons of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast; 20 but there will come days when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day. 21 No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; else the patch takes from it, the new from the old, and a worse rent is made. 22 And no one puts new wine into old wine-skins; else the wine will burst the skins, and the wine perishes, and the skins; but they put new wine into fresh wine-skins.” 23 And it came to pass that He was going on the sabbath through the grainfields; and His disciples began to make a way, plucking the heads of grain. 24 And the Pharisees said to them, “Behold, why are they doing on the sabbath which is not lawful?” 25 And He said to them, “Did ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he and those who were with him? 26 How he entered into the house of God, during the high priesthood of Abiathar, and ate the showbread, which it is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him?” 27 And He said to them, “The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath; 28 so that the Son of Man is Lord even of the sabbath.”

CHAPTER III.

A Withered Hand Healed.

1 And He entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there, having his hand withered. 2 And they were watching Him, whether He would heal him on the sabbath; that they might accuse Him. 3 And He saith to the man having the withered hand, “Arise in the...”
midst." 4 And He saith to them, "Is it lawful on the sabbath to do good, or to do harm, to save a life, or to kill?" But they were silent. 5 And having looked round about on them with anger, and being.grieved at the hardness of their heart, He saith to the man, "Stretch forth your hand." And he stretched it forth; and his hand was restored. 6 And the Pharisees, having gone out, were straightway taking counsel with the Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

7 And Jesus with His disciples withdrew to the sea; and a great multitude from Galilee followed Him; and from Judaea, 8 and from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and beyond the Jordan, and about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, hearing what things He was doing, came to Him. 9 And He spake to His disciples, that a little boat should wait on Him, lest they should throng Him; 10 for He had healed many, so that as many as had plagues pressed upon Him, that they might touch Him. 11 And the unclean spirits, whosoever they were beholding Him, were falling down before Him, and crying, "Thou art the Son of God." 12 And He was charging them much, that they should not make Him manifest.

HE APPOINTS THE TWELVE.

13 And He goeth up into the mountain, and called to Himself those whom He wished. 14 And He appointed twelve [whom He also named apostles], that they might be with Him, and that He might send them forth to preach, 15 and to have authority to cast out demons. 16 And to Simon He added the name Peter; 17 and James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, (and He added to these the name "Boanerges," that is, "sons of thunder"); 18 and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Cananaean, 19 and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

And He cometh into a house. 20 And the multitude comes together again, so that they could not even eat bread. 21 And, hearing of it, His kinsmen went out to lay hold on Him; for they said, "He became insane!" 22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He hath Beelzebub, and by the ruler of the demons casteth out the demons." 23 And, having called them to Him, He said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? 24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. 26 And, if Satan did arise against himself, and was divided, he cannot stand, but has an end. 27 But no one is able, after having entered into the house of the strong man, to plunder his goods, except he first bind the strong man; and then will he plunder his house. 28 Verily I say to you, all the sins will be forgiven the sons of men, and the blasphemies whatsoever they blaspheme; 29 but whosoever blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit has no forgiveness forever, but is guilty of an eternal sin; 30 because they said, "He hath an unclean spirit."

31 And His mother and His brothers come; and, standing without, they sent to Him, calling Him. 32 And a multitude was sitting about Him; and they say to Him, "Behold, Thy mother and Thy brothers without are seeking for Thee." 33 And, answering them, He saith, "Who is My mother, and My brothers?" 34 And looking around on those who sat about Him, He saith, "Behold, My mother, and My brothers! 35 For whosoever doeth the will of God, the same is My brother, and sister, and mother."

CHAPTER IV.

1 And again He began to teach by the seaside. And there is gathered to Him a very great multitude, so that He, having entered into a boat, was sitting in the sea; and all the multitude were by the sea on the land.

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER.

2 And He taught them many things in parables, and said to them in His teaching, 3 "Hearken! behold the sower went forth to sow. 4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside, and the birds came and devoured it. 5 And other fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and straightway it sprang up, because of not having depth of earth; 6 and, when the sun rose, it was scorched; and, because it had no root, it was dried up. 7 And other fell among the thorns; and the thorns sprang up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. 8 And others fell into the good ground, and were yielding fruit, springing up and growing; and bore, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold." 9 And He said, "He that has ears to hear, let him hear."

THE PARABLE EXPLAINED.

10 And, when He was alone, those who were about Him with the twelve asked Him as to the parables. 11 And He said to them, "To you has been given the mystery of the Kingdom of God, but to those without all things are done in parables; 12 that, seeing, they may see, and not perceive; and, hearing, they may hear, and not understand; lest haply they should turn, and be forgiven." 13 And He saith to them, "Know ye not this parable? And how will ye know all the parables? 14 The sower sows the word. 15 And these are those by the wayside, where the word is sown; and, when they hear, straightway Satan comes, and catches away the word which has been sown in them. 16 And these likewise are those sown upon the rocky places, who, when they hear the word, straightway with joy receive it; 17 and they have no root in themselves, but are only temporary; 18 then, when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, straightway they stumble. 19 And others are those sown among the thorns. These are those who heard the word, 19 and the anxieties of the age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires about other things entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 20 And these are the ones sown on the good ground: such as hear the word, and receive it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold."

21 And He said to them, "Is the lamp brought to be put under the measure, or under the bed? Is it not, that it may be put on the lamp-stand? 22 For there is nothing hid, except that it should be manifested; nor was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. 23 If any one has ears to hear, let him hear." 24 And He said to them, "Take heed what ye hear. With what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you; and more will be added. 25 For he that has, to him shall be given; and he that has not, from him shall be taken away even what he has."

FIRST THE BLADE

26 And He said, "So is the Kingdom of God, as if a man should cast the seed upon the earth; 27 and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he knows not how. 28 The earth of itself bears fruit; first the blade, then the head, then the full grain in the head. 29 But, when the fruit permits, straightway he puts forth the sickle, because the harvest has come."

THE MUSTARD SEED.

30 And He said, "How shall we liken the Kingdom of God, or in what parable shall we set it forth? 31 It is like to a grain of mustard, which when it is sown upon the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are upon the earth, 32 yet, when it is sown, grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches; so that the birds of the heaven can lodge under its shadow.”

33 And with many such parables He spake the word to them, as they were able to hear it. 34 And without a parable He spake not to them; but privately to His disciples He explained all things.

35 And on that day, when evening came, He saith to them, “Let us go across to the other side.” 36 And, leaving the multitude, they take Him with them, as He was.

CHAPTER V.

1 And they came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes. 2 And, when He came out of the boat, straightway there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, 3 who had his dwelling in the tombs; and no one could any longer bind him, not even with a chain; 4 because he had often been bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces, and no one had strength to tame him. 5 And always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying, and cutting himself with stones. 6 And, seeing Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped Him; 7 and, crying with a loud voice, he says, “What is there to me and Thee, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure Thee by God, that Thou torment me not!” 8 For He said to him, “Come forth, unclean spirit, out of the man!” 9 And He asked him, “What is your name?” And he says to Him, “My name is Legion, because we are many.” 10 And he was beseeching Him much, that He would not send them away out of the country. 11 Now there was there by the mountain a great herd of swine feeding. 12 And they besought Him, saying, “Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.” 13 And He permitted them. And, coming out, the unclean spirits entered into the swine; and the herd rushed down the steep into the sea, about two thousand, and were drowned in the sea. 14 And those feeding the swine fled, and reported it in the city and in the country. And they came to see what it was that had come to pass. 15 And they come to Jesus, and behold the demoniac sitting, clothed, and having his right mind—the one who had had the legion, and they were afraid. 16 And those who saw it declared to them how it befell the demoniac, and concerning the swine. 17 And they began to beseech Him to depart from their borders. 18 And, as He was entering into the boat, he that had been a demoniac was beseeching Him, that he might be with Him.

JAIRUS' DAUGHTER RAISED.

21 And, Jesus having crossed over in the boat again to the other side, a large multitude was gathered to Him; and He was by the sea. 22 And there comes one of the synagogue-rulers, Jairus by name; and, seeing Him, he falls at His feet. 23 And beseeches Him much, saying, "My little daughter is extremely ill; I pray that, coming, Thou wilt lay Thy hands upon her, that she may be healed\(^1\) and live." 24 And He went away with him; and a great multitude was following Him, and they were thronging Him.

And He was going round about the villages, teaching.

THE TWELVE SENT FORTH.

7 And He calleth to Him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two, and was giving them authority over the unclean spirits; 8 and He charged them that they should take nothing for the way, except a staff only; no bread, no wallet, no money in their girdle; 9 but to go shod with sandals; and He said, put not on two coats. 10 And He said to them, “Wheresoever ye enter into a house, there abide, till ye depart thence. 11 And whatsoever place does not receive you, and they hear you not, going forth thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony to them.” 12 And, going forth, they preached that men should repent. 13 And they were casting out many demons, and were anointing with oil many sick people, and were healing them.

JOHN THE IMMERSER BEHEADED.

14 And the king, Herod, heard of Him, (for His name became famous), and he said, “John the Immerser has risen from the dead; and, because of this, the powers are working in Him.” 15 But others said, “It is Elijah.” And others said, “It is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.” 16 But Herod, hearing of Him, said, “It is he whom I beheaded, John, the same was raised.” 17 For Herod himself, sending forth, laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison, for the sake of Herodias the wife of Philip, his brother, because he married her. 18 For John said to Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.” 19 And Herodias was holding it against him, and was wishing to kill him; and she could not; 20 for Herod was fearing John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he was preserving him. 21 And, an opportune day having come, when Herod, on his birthday, made a supper for his nobles and for the chief captains, and the chief men of Galilee; 22 and the daughter of Herodias herself coming in and dancing, it pleased Herod and those reclining at table with him; and the king said to the damsel, “Ask of me whatsoever you wish, and I will give it to you.” 23 And he swore to her, “Whatsoever you ask of me, I will give it to you, unto half of my kingdom.” 24 And, having gone out, she said to her mother, “What shall I ask?” And she said, “The head of John the Immerser.” 25 And, coming in straightway, in haste, to the king, she asked, saying, “I wish that you would, forthwith, give me on a dish, the head of John the Immerser.” 26 And, though becoming very sorrowful, the king, because of his oaths, and those reclining with him, would not thwart her. 27 And the king, straightway sending off one of his guard, gave orders to bring his head; and, departing, he beheaded him in the prison, 28 and brought his head on a dish, and gave it to the damsel, and the damsel gave it to her mother. 29 And, having heard of others, made it easy for his guilty conscience to ascribe Christ’s mighty works to John.

HE FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND.

30 And the apostles gather themselves together to Jesus; and they reported to Him all things, whatsoever they did, and whatsoever they taught. 31 And He saith to them, “Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest yourselves a little.” For there were many coming and going, and they were not finding opportunity even to eat. 32 And they went away in the boat to a desert place apart. 33 And the people saw them going on their way, and many knew them, and they ran together there on foot from all the cities, and outwent them. 34 And, coming forth, He saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd; and He began to teach them many things.

35 And, the hour being already late, His disciples, coming to Him, said, “The place is desert, and the hour is already late; 36 send them away, that, having gone into the surrounding fields and villages, they may buy themselves something to eat.” 37 But He saith to them, “Give ye them to eat.” And they said to Him, “Going, shall we buy two hundred dena- ries worth of loaves, and give them to eat?” 38 But He saith to them, “How many loaves have ye? go and see.” And, having ascertained, they say, “Five, and two fishes.” 39 And He commanded that all should recline by companies on the grass. 40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and fifties. 41 And, taking the five loaves and two fishes, looking up to Heaven, He blessed, and broke up the loaves, and kept giving to the disciples to set before them; and He divided the two fishes among them all. 42 And they all ate, and were satisfied. 43 And they took up broken pieces, twelve basketfuls, and from the fishes. 44 And those who ate the loaves were five thousand men.

45 And straightway He constrained His disciples to enter into the boat, and to go before to the other side, to Bethsaida, while He Himself sendeth the multitude away. 46 And, having taken leave of them, He went away into the mountain to pray. 47 And, when it was evening, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and He was alone on the land. 48 And, seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them, about the fourth watch of the night He cometh to them, walking on the sea; and He wished to pass by them; 49 but, seeing Him walking on the sea, they supposed that it was a ghost, and they cried out; 50 for they all saw Him; and were troubled. But he straight- way talked with them, and saith to them, “Be of good courage! it is I, be not afraid.” 51 And He went up to them into the boat; and the wind ceased; and they were exceedingly amazed in themselves; 52 for they did not understand concerning the loaves, but their heart was hardened. 53 And, crossing over, they came upon the land to Gennesaret, and anchored there. 54 And, when they came out of the boat, straightway recognizing Him, 55 they ran about that whole country, and began to carry about on beds those who were sick, where they were hearing that He was. 56 And wheresoever He was entering into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they placed the sick in the marketplaces, and were beseeching Him, that they might touch even the border of His garment; and as many as touched were healed.

CHAPTER VII.

1 And there gather together to Him the Pharisees, and some of the scribes, who came from Jerusalem, 2 and saw that some of His disciples ate bread with de- filed, that is, unwashed hands. 3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, unless they wash their hands thoroughly, cat not, holding the tradition of the elders; and, coming from the marketplace, unless they immerse themselves, they do not eat; and there are many other things which they received to hold; as, immersion of cups, and pots, and brazen vessels. *) 5 And the Pharisees and the scribes asked Him, "Why do not Thy disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?" 6 And He said to them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy concerning ye hypocrites, as it has been written, 'This people honor me with their lips; but their heart is far from Me. 7 But in vain do they worship Me, teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men.' 8 Having left the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men." 9 And He said to them, "Well do ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may hold your tradition! 10 For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and 'He that speaks evil of father or mother, let him surely die.' 11 But ye say, 'If a man say to his father or mother, That wherewith you might be profited by me is Corban,' that is, 'an offering to God,' 12 ye no longer suffer him to do anything for his father or his mother; 13 making void the word of God by your tradition, which ye handed down; and many such things ye do." 14 And, again calling the multitude, He said to them, "Hear Me, all of you, and understand: 15 there is nothing from without the man, that, entering into him, can defile him; but the things proceeding out of the man are those that defile the man."

17 And, when He entered into the house from the multitude, His disciples asked of Him the parable. 18 And He saith to them, "Are ye too thus without understanding? Do ye not perceive that nothing, entering into a man from without, can defile him; 19 because it goes not 24 And, rising up, He went thence into the borders of Tyre and Sidon; and, entering into a house, He wished no one to know it. And He could not be hid. 25 But straightway a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of Him, coming, fell down at His feet. 26 And the woman was a Greek, a Syrophoenician by race. And she kept asking Him to cast forth the demon out of her daughter. 27 And He said to her, "Suffer the children first to be satisfied; for it is not good to take the children's bread, and cast it to the little dogs." 28 But she answered, and says to Him, "Yes, Lord; even the little dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs." 29 And He said to her, "Because of this word go your way; the demon has gone out of your daughter." 30 And, going away into her own house, she found the child laid upon the bed, and the demon gone out.

touched his tongue; 34 and looking up to Heaven, He sighed, and saith to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened." 35 And his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he was speaking properly. 36 And He charged them

FOUR THOUSAND FED.

1 In those days, when there was again a great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, He called to Him His disciples and saith to them, 2 "I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with Me now three days, and have nothing to eat; 3 and, if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way; and some of them are from afar." 4 And His disciples answered Him, "Whence will any one be able to satisfy these men with bread, here in a desert place?" 5 And He asked them, "How many loaves have ye?" And they said, "Seven." 6 And He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; and, taking the seven loaves, having given thanks, He broke, and was giving to the disciples, to set before them; and they set them before the multitude. 7 And they had a few small fishes; and, having blessed them, He commanded to set these also before them. 8 And they ate, and were satisfied; and they took up, of the pieces that remained over, seven baskets. 9 And they were about four thousand; and He sent them away. 10 And straightway, entering into the boat with His disciples, He came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

CHRIST REFUSES TO GIVE THE PHARISEES A SIGN.

11 And the Pharisees came out, and began to discuss with Him, seeking from Him a sign from heaven, tempting Him. 12 And, sighing deeply in His spirit, He saith, "Why does this generation seek a sign? verily I say to you, there shall no sign be given to this generation." 13 And, leaving them, He again embarked, and departed to the other side.

WARNS THEM OF THE LEAVEN OF THE PHARISEES.

14 And they forgot to take bread; and, except one loaf, they had nothing in the boat with them. 15 And He was charging them, saying, "Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod." 16 And they were reasoning one with another, "It is because we have no bread!" 17 And perceiving it, He saith to them, "Why are ye reasoning because ye have no bread? Do ye not yet perceive, nor understand? Have ye your heart hardened? 18 Having eyes, do ye see not; and, having ears, do ye hear not? And, do ye not remember? 19 When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of pieces did ye take up?" They say to Him "Twelve." 20 "And, when the seven among the four thousand, how many basketsful of pieces did ye take up?" And, they said, "Seven." 21 And He said to them, "Do ye not yet understand?"

A BLIND MAN RESTORED TO SIGHT.

22 And they come to Bethsaida. And they bring to Him a blind man, and beseech Him to touch him. 23 And, taking hold of the blind man’s hand, He brought him out of the village; and, spitting in his eyes, and putting His hands upon him, He asked him, "Do you see anything?" 24 And, looking up, he said, "I behold men, because I see them as trees walking." 25 Then again He put His hands on his eyes, they might have seen them in numerous miracles, showing His perfect control of the laws of nature and of human life itself.

and he looked steadily, and was restored, and was seeing all things distinctly. 26 And He sent him away to his house, saying, "Do not even enter into the village." 27 And Jesus went forth, and His disciples, into the villages of Cæsarea Philippi. And, on the way, He asked His disciples, saying to them, "Who do men say that I am?" 28 And they told Him, saying, "'John the Immerser;' and others, 'Elijah;' but others, "One of the prophets." 29 And He asked them, "But Who do ye say that I am?" Peter, answering, says to Him, "Thou art the Christ." 30 And He charged them that they should tell no one concerning Him. 31 And He began to teach them, that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and the high priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. 32 And He spake the saying openly. And Peter took Him, and began to rebuke Him. 33 But

THE TRANSFIGURATION.

2 And after six days Jesus taketh with Him Peter, and James, and John, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves; and He was transfigured before them. 3 And His garments became shining, exceedingly white, such as no fuller on the earth can so whiten. 4 And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses; and they were talking with Jesus. 5 And Peter, answering, says to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good that we are here; and let us make three tents; one for Thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah;" 6 for he knew not what to answer, for they became much afraid. 7 And there came a cloud overshadowing them; and there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, the Beloved; hear ye Him." 8 And, suddenly looking around, they no longer saw with themselves any one, except Jesus only. 9 And, as they were coming down from the mountain, He charged them that they should tell no one what they saw, until the Son of Man should arise from the dead. 10 And they kept the saying to themselves, questioning what the rising from the dead could be.

HEALS A DEMONIAC.

14 And, coming to the disciples, they saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them. 15 And straightway all the multitude, seeing Him, were greatly amazed; and, running to Him, were saluting Him. 16 And He asked them, “What are ye discussing with them?” 17 And one of the multitude answered Him, “Teacher, I have brought to Thee my son, who has a dumb spirit; and wheresoever it seizes upon him, it tears him, and he foams, and gnashes his teeth, and pines away. And I spake to Thy disciples, that they should cast it out; and they were not able.” 19 And He, answering, saith to them, “O faithless generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? Bring him to Me.” 20 And they brought him to Him. And, seeing Him, the spirit straightway convulsed him; and, falling upon the ground, he was wallowing, foaming. 21 And He asked his father, “How long a time is it since this has befallen him?” And he said, “From a child. 22 And oft-times it cast him both into the fire and into the water, to destroy him; but, if Thou canst do anything, having compassion on us, help us!” 23 Jesus said to him, “If thou canst! All things are possible to him that believes.” 24 Straightway the father of the child, crying out, said, “I believe; help Thou my unbelief!” 25 And Jesus, seeing that a multitude was running together, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “Deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, come out of him, and enter no more into him.” 26 And, having cried out, and convulsed him much, it came out; and he became as one dead; so that many said, “He died!” 27 But Jesus, taking hold of his hand, raised him, and he stood up.

28 And, when He came into a house, His disciples asked Him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?” 29 And He said to them, “This kind can come out by nothing, except by prayer.”

JESUS FORETELLS HIS SUFFERINGS.

30 And, going forth thence, they were passing along through Galilee; and He did not wish that any one should know it. 31 For He was teaching His disciples, and said to them, “The Son of Man is delivered up into the hands of men, and they will kill Him; and, having been killed, after three days He will rise again.” 32 But they were not understanding the saying, and were afraid to ask Him.

33 And they came to Capernaum. And, when He was in the house, He asked them, “Concerning what were ye reasoning in the way?” 34 But they were silent; for they disputed with one another in the way, who was the greatest. 35 And, sitting down, He called the twelve, and saith to them, “If any one wishes to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all.” 36 And, taking a little child, He set it in the midst of them; and, folding it in His arms, He said to them, “Whosoever receives one of such little children in My name, receives Me; and whosoever receives Me, receives not Me, but Him Who sent Me.”

38 John said to Him, “Teacher, we saw one casting out demons in Thy name; and we forbade him, because he was not following us.” 39 But Jesus said, “Forbid him not; for there is no one who shall exercise power in My name, and be able quickly to speak evil of Me; 40 for he who is not against us is for us. 41 For whosoever gives you a cup of water to drink in My name, because ye are Christ’s, verily I say to you, he shall in no wise lose his reward. 42 And whosoever shall cause to stumble one of these little ones, who believe, it were better for him, if a great millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea. 43 And, if your hand

CHAPTER X.

1 And, rising up thence, He cometh into the borders of Judea, and beyond the Jordan. And multitudes come together to Him again; and, as He was wont, He was teaching them again.

2 And the Pharisees, coming to Him, were asking Him, "Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife?" tempting Him. 3 And He, answering, said to them, "What did Moses command you?" 4 And they said, "Moses permitted to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away." 5 But Jesus said to them, "Because of the hardness of your heart he wrote you this commandment. 6 But from the beginning of the creation, 'Male and female made He them.' 7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, [and shall cleave to his wife]' 8 and the two shall become one flesh; so that they are no more two, but one flesh. 9 What, therefore, God joined together, let not man put asunder. 10 And in the house the disciples asked Him again concerning this. 11 And He saith to them, 'Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marries another, commits adultery against her; 12 and, if she herself, having put away her husband, marries another, she commits adultery.'

HE BLESSES LITTLE CHILDREN.

13 And they were bringing little children to Him, that He might touch them; and the disciples rebuked them. 14 But Jesus, seeing it, was much displeased, and said to them, "Permit the little children to come to Me; forbid them not; for so it belongs the Kingdom of God. 15 Verily I say to you, whosoever does not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child, will in no wise enter therein." 16 And, taking them in His arms, He was blessing them, placing His hands upon them.

A RICH MAN INSTRUCTED.

17 And, as He was going forth into the way, one, running to Him, and kneeling, was asking Him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do, that I may inherit eternal life?" 18 And Jesus said to Him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good, but One—God. 19 You know the commandments, 'Do not kill,' 'Do not commit adultery; ' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' 'Do not defraud,' 'Honor your father and mother.' 20 And He said to Him, 'Teacher, all these things I observed from my youth.” 21 And Jesus, looking on him, loved him, and said to him, “One thing is wanting to you: go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in Heaven, and come, follow Me.” 22 But, becoming gloomy at this saying, he went away grieved; for he was one having great possessions.

23 And, looking around, Jesus saith to His disciples, “With what difficulty shall those who have riches enter into the Kingdom of God!” 24 And the disciples were astonished at His words. But Jesus, again answering, saith to them, “Children, how difficult it is [for those who trust in riches] to enter into the Kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God.” 26 And they were being exceedingly astonished, saying to Him, “And who can be saved?” 27 Jesus, looking upon them, saith, “With men it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God.”

THE REWARD OF THOSE WHO FORSAKE ALL FOR JESUS.

28 Peter began to say to Him, “Behold, we left all, and followed Thee.” 29 Jesus said, “Verily I say to you, there is no one who left house, or brothers, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or lands, for My sake and the Gospel’s sake, 30 but he shall receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the age to come, eternal life. 31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.”

32 And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going before them. And they were being amazed; and those following Him were being terrified. And, again taking with Him the twelve, He began to tell them the things about to happen to Him: 33 “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem; and the Son of Man will be delivered up to the high priests, and to the scribes, and they will condemn Him to death, and will deliver Him up to the gentiles; 34 and they will mock Him and will spit upon Him, and will scourge Him, and will kill Him; and after three days He will rise again.”

SENSELESS REQUEST OF JAMES AND JOHN.

35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come to Him, saying to Him, “Teacher, we wish that Thou wouldst do for us whatsoever we ask.” 36 And He said to them, “What do you wish that I should do for you?” 37 And they said to Him, “Grant to us that we may sit, one on Thy right hand, and one on Thy left, in Thy Kingdom.” 38 But Jesus said to them, “Ye know not what ye are asking. Are ye able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with?” 39 And they said to Him, “We are able.” And Jesus said to them, “The cup that I drink ye shall drink; and the immersion with which I am immersed shall ye be immersed; 40 but to sit on My right hand, or on My left, is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.” 41 And the ten, hearing it, began to be much displeased with James and John. 42 And Jesus, calling them to Him, saith to them, “Ye know that those thinking to rule over the gentiles lord it over them; and their great ones exercise authority over them; 43 but it is not so among you; but whosoever wishes to become great among you shall be your minister; 44 and whosoever Jesus! have mercy on me!" 48 And many were rebuking him, that he should be silent. But

CHAPTER XI.

1 And, when they drew nigh to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, He sendeth two of His disciples, 2 and saith to them, "Go into the village that is over against you; and straightway, as ye enter into it, ye will find a colt tied, on which no man ever yet sat: loose him, and bring him. 3 And, if any one say to you, 'Why do ye this?' say ye, 'The Lord hath need of him;' and straightway he will send him back hither."

4 And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door without on the street; and they loose him. 5 And some of those standing there said to them, "What do ye, loosing the colt?" 6 And they said to them even as Jesus said; and they let them go. 7 And they bring the colt to Jesus, and cast on him their garments; and He sat on him. 8 And many spread their garments in the way; and others spread branches, having cut them from the fields. 9 And those going before, and those following, were crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is He That cometh in the name of the Lord! 10 Blessed is the coming Kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the Highest!" 11 And He entered into Jerusalem, into the temple; and, having looked around on all things, the he kept crying much more, "Son of David! have mercy on me!" 49 And, standing still, Jesus said, "Call him." And they call the blind man, saying to him, "Be of good cheer; arise! He is calling you!" 50 And he, casting away his garment, springing up, came to Jesus. 51 And Jesus, answering him, said, "What do you wish that I should do for you?" And the blind man said to Him, "Rabboni, that I may receive my sight." 52 And Jesus said to him, "Go your way, your faith has healed you." And straightway he received sight, and was following Jesus in the way.

hour being late, He went out to Bethany with the twelve.

THE BARREN FIG TREE.

12 And on the morrow, when they had come out from Bethany, He was hungry. 13 And, seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, He came, if perhaps He might find something thereon. And, having come to it, He found nothing but leaves; for it was not the season of figs. 14 And, answering, He said to it, "May no one eat fruit from you any more forever!" And His disciples heard it.

15 And they come to Jerusalem. And, entering into the temple, He began to cast out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those who sold doves; 16 and He was not permitting that any one should carry a vessel through the temple. 17 And He was teaching, and said to them, "Has it not been written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations;' but ye have made it a den of robbers!"

18 And the high priests and scribes heard it, and were seeking how they might destroy Him; for they were fearing Him, for all the multitude was astonished at His teaching.

12-14 The fig tree cursed; Matt. 21:18-22.
13 And He found nothing but leaves; how many professed followers of Christ are correctly described by this barren fig tree! Nothing but leaves! A hollow profession, an aimless life, a life of empty show, worldly conformity, vain words, ineffectual resolves to do better!

15-19 Trafficers driven out of the temple; Matt. 21:12-17.
19 And, whenever it became late, they went forth out of the city.
20 And, passing by the next morning, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots. 21 And Peter, calling to remembrance, says to Him, "Rabbi, behold, the fig tree which Thou didst curse has withered away!" 22 And Jesus, answering, saith to them, "Have the faith of God. 23 Verily I say to you, whosoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and cast into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says comes to pass; he shall have it. 24 Therefore, I say to you, all things whatsoever ye pray and ask for, believe that ye received them, and ye shall have them. 25 And whenever ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any; that your Father also Who is in Heaven may forgive you your trespasses." *

*Many ancient authorities add v. 26: "But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father Who is in Heaven forgive your trespasses."

22 Have the faith of God; translators generally render this, "Have faith in God;" but, if this had been the thought, it would have been easy to have expressed it in the Greek. Faith originates with God; and those who have real faith have His faith: the same perhaps as "the faith which is of the Son of God." (Gal. 2:20).

23 This mountain; nothing short of the faith of God can remove mountains; but His faith, operating through His obedient children, can accomplish this. (Acts 3:6; 9:30).

CHAPTER XII.

1 And He began to speak to them in parables, "A man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and dug a wine-vat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into another country. 2 And, at the season, he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruits of the vineyard. 3 And, taking him, they beat him, and sent him away empty. 4 And again he sent them another servant; and him they wounded in the head, and dishonored. 5 And he sent another; and him they killed; and many others, beating some, and killing some. 6 He had yet one, a beloved son; he sent him to them last, saying, 'They will pay deference to my son.' 7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 8 And, taking him, they killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. 9 What, therefore, will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come, and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard to others. 10 Did ye never read the Scripture, 'The stone which the builders rejected, the same became the head of a corner; 11 this was from the Lord, and is marvelous in our eyes?'

12 And they were seeking to lay hold of Him; and they feared the multitude; for they knew that He spake the parable against them; and, leaving Him, they went away.

13 And they send to Him some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, that they may entrap Him in speech. 14 And, coming, they say to Him, "Teacher, we know that Thou art true, and carest not for any one; for Thou lookest not into the face of men, but in truth teachest the way of God. Is it lawful to give tribute to Cæsar, or not? 15 Shall we give, or shall we not give?” But He, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, “Why are ye tempting Me? Bring Me a denary, that I may see it.” 16 And they brought it. And He saith to them, “Whose is this image and inscription?” And they said to Him, “Cæsar’s.” 17 And Jesus said to them, “Render to Cæsar the things of Cæsar, and to God the things of God.” And they wondered exceedingly at Him.

THE SADDUCEES SILENCED.

18 And there come to Him the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection; and they were asking Him, saying, 19 “Teacher, Moses wrote to us, ‘If any man’s brother die, and leave a wife behind, and leave no child, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed to his brother.’ 20 There were seven brothers; and the first took a wife; and, dying, left no seed. 21 And the second took her, and died, leaving no seed; and the third likewise. 22 And the seven left no seed. Last of all the woman also died. 23 In the resurrection whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her as a wife.” 24 Jesus said to them, “Is it not on this account that ye err, because ye know not the Scriptures, nor the power of God? 25 For, when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels in Heaven. 26 But, concerning the dead, that they are raised, did ye not read in the book of Moses, at the ‘Bush,’ how God spake to him, saying, ‘I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?’ 27 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: ye do greatly err.”

THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT.

28 And one of the scribes, coming near, hearing them discussing together, knowing that He answered them well, asked Him, “What commandment is first of all?” 29 Jesus answered, “The first is, ‘Hear, O Israel; the Lord is our God, the Lord is One; 30 and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ 31 A second is this, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.” 32 The scribe said to Him, “Well, Teacher, Thou didst say truly that He is One, and there is not another beside Him; 33 and to love Him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength, and to love one’s neighbor as himself, is much more than all the whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices.” 34 And Jesus, seeing that he answered discreetly, said to him, “You are not far from the Kingdom of God.” And no one any more dared to question Him.

35 And Jesus, answering, said, while teaching in the temple, “How do the scribes say that the Christ is David’s Son? 36 David himself said in the Holy Spirit, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, Sit on My right hand, until I put Thy enemies underneath Thy feet.’ 37 David himself calls Him Lord; and whence is He his Son?” And the great multitude heard Him gladly. 38 And in His teaching He said, “Beware of the scribes, who wish to walk about in long robes and have salutations in the marketplaces, 39 and the first seats in the synagogues, and the first places at the feasts; 40 who devour widows’ houses, and for a pretense make long prayers; these shall receive greater condemnation.” 41 And, having taken a seat over against the treasury, He was beholding how the multitude cast money into the treasury; and many who were rich cast in much. 42 And one poor widow, coming, cast in two mites, which is a farthing. 43 And, calling to Him His disciples, He said to them, "Verily I say to you, this poor widow cast in more than all who are casting into the treasury; for they all did cast in out of their abundance; but she out of her want cast in all that she had—her whole living."

43 More than all; more in God's sight, because it showed complete victory over the world, and supreme confidence in God. In estimating the value of a gift, God looks not at the largeness or smallness of the gift, but at what is left after the gift is made. A perfect gift is all one has.

CHAPTER XIII.

CHRIST'S PROPHECY ON THE MOUNT OF OLIVES.

1 And, as He was going out of the temple, one of His disciples says to Him, "Teacher, behold, what manner of stones and what manner of buildings!" 2 And Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? There shall not be left here a stone upon a stone, which shall not be thrown down."

3 And, as He was sitting upon the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked Him privately, 4 "Tell us, when shall these things be? and what is the sign when all these things are about to be accomplished?" 5 And Jesus began to say to them, "Take heed, lest some one lead you astray. 6 Many will come in My name, saying, 'I am He,' and will lead many astray. 7 And, when ye hear of wars and rumors of wars, be not troubled; these things must come to pass; but the end is not yet. 8 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; and there will be famines; these are the beginning of anguish. 9 But take heed to yourselves; for they will deliver you up to the councils; and in synagogues ye will be beaten; and before governors and kings ye will stand for My sake, for a testimony to them. 10 And the Gospel must first be preached to all the nations. 11 And, when they lead you away, delivering you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak; but whatsoever is given you in that hour, this speak; for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Spirit. 12 And brother will deliver up brother to death; and the father, the child; and children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. 13 And ye will be hated by all for My name's sake; but he that endures to the end, the same shall be saved. 14 But when ye see the abomination of desolation standing where it ought not, (let him that reads understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains; 15 And let him who is on the house not come down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house; 16 and let him who is in the field not turn back to take his garment. 17 But woe to those with child and to those giving suck in those days! 18 And pray that it be not in winter; 19 for those days will be a time of tribulation, such as there has not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be.

20 And, unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would have been saved; but, for the elect's sake, whom He has chosen, He shortened the days. 21 And then, if any one shall say to you, 'Lo, here is the Christ!' or, 'Lo, there!' believe him not; 22 for there will arise false Christs and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, in order to lead astray, if possible, the elect. 23 But take heed; I have foretold you all things.

24 "But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, 25 and the stars will be falling out of the heavens, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken. 26 And then will they see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. 27 And then will

He send forth the angels, and gather together His elect from the four winds, from the extremity of earth to the extremity of the heaven. 28 "Now from the fig tree learn the parable: when its branch already becomes tender, and puts forth leaves, ye know that summer is near; 29 so also do ye, when ye see these things coming to pass, know that He is near, at the doors. 30 Verily I say to you, this generation will not pass away, until all these things be accomplished. 31 The heaven and the earth will pass away; but My words will not pass away. 32 But concerning that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in Heaven, nor the Son, but the Father. 33 Take heed, watch [and pray]; for ye know not when the time is. 34 It is as when a man away from home4, having left his house, and having given authority to his servants, to each his work, commanded also the porter to watch. 35 Watch, therefore, for ye know not when the master of the house is coming, at evening, or at mid-night, or at cock-crowing, or in the morning; 36 lest, coming suddenly, he find you sleeping. 37 And what I say to you, I say to all, 'Watch.'"

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Now after two days was the passover, and the feast of unleavened bread; and the high priests and the scribes were seeking how, taking Him by guile, they might kill Him; 2 for they said, "Not during the feast, lest there should be an uproar of the people." 3 And, while He was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as He was reclining at table, there came a woman having an alabaster cruse of ointment of pure spikenard, very costly; and, having broken the cruse, she was pouring it down on His head. 4 But there were some who were much displeased among themselves, saying, "To what purpose has this waste of the ointment been made? 5 For this ointment could have been sold for above three hundred denaries, and given to the poor!" And they were murmuring against her. 6 But Jesus said, "Let her alone; why do ye trouble her? She wrought a good work on Me; 7 for the poor ye always have with you; and whencesoever ye will, ye can do them good; but Me ye have not always. 8 She did what she could: literally, she did what she had; that is, she did the best she could with what she had; meaning to honor Jesus thereby. 3 Or, it.

5 Note the expression "The Son" (of God) in Matt. 10:33, 35; 26:53; 27:45, 54. The term is used in the same sense as in the Heb. scriptures, with a denoting of the fulness of the Messianic dispensation. Its import is best ascertained by a comparison with the Heb. scriptures. 17 And, evening coming on, He cometh with the twelve. 18 And as they were reclining at table and eating, Jesus said, "Verily I say to you, one of you will betray Me—one who is eating with Me." 19 They began to be sorrowful, and to say to Him, one by one, "Is it I?" 20 And He said to them, "It is one of the twelve—he that is dipping with Me in the dish. 21 Because the Son of Man is going as it has been written concerning Him; but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! 1 It were good for him, if that man had not been born."

THE LORD'S SUPPER INSTITUTED.

22 And, as they were eating, having taken bread and blessed it, He broke, and gave to them, and said, "Take ye; this is My body." 23 And taking a cup, and blessing it, He gave it to them; and they all drank of it. 24 And He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out in behalf of many. 25 Verily I say to you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new in the Kingdom of God."

26 And, having sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. 27 And Jesus saith to them, "All ye will be made to stumble; because it has been written, 'I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered abroad.' 28 But, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."

PETER'S DENIAL FORETOLD.

29 But Peter said to Him, "If even all should be made to stumble, yet will not I!" 30 And Jesus saith to him, "Verily I say to you, that ye to-day, in this night, before the cock crows twice, will thrice deny Me." 31 But he kept saying with great vehemence, "If I must die with Thee, I will not deny Thee!" And in like manner also said they all.

HE ENTERS GETHSEMANE.

32 And they come to a place the name of which is Gethsemane. And He saith to His disciples, "Sit ye here, while 2 I pray." 33 And He taketh with Him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly amazed, and to be in distress. 34 And He saith to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, unto death! Abide here, and watch." 35 And going forward a little, He fell on the ground, and was praying, that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from Him. 36 And He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible to Thee; take away this cup from Me; yet not what I will, but what Thou wilt." 37 And He cometh and findeth them sleeping, and saith to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? were you not able to wake one hour? 38 Watch, and pray, that ye enter not into temptation. The spirit, indeed, is willing, but the flesh is weak." 39 And, going away again, He prayed, saying the same thing. 40 And, returning, He found them again sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy; and they knew not what to answer Him. 41 And He cometh the third time, and saith to them, "Sleep on the remaining time, and take your rest. It is enough; the hour came; behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 Arise, let us be going. Behold, he that is betraying Me has come near."

43 And straightway, while He yet spake, comes Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a multitude with swords and clubs, from the high priests and the scribes and the elders. 44 Now he that was betraying Him gave them a signal, saying, "Whosoever I shall kiss, This is He, take Him, and lead Him away securely." 45 And, having come, going straightway to Him, he says, "Rabbi;" and kissed 3 Him. 46

47 And one of those standing by, having drawn his sword, smote the servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. 48 And Jesus answering, said to them, “Did ye come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs, to seize Me? 49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye did not take Me; but this is done that the Scriptures may be fulfilled.” 50 And, having left Him, they all fled.

51 And a certain young man was following with Him, having a linen cloth thrown around his naked body; and they lay hold on him; 52 but, leaving the linen cloth, he fled naked.

53 And they led Jesus away to the high priest; and there came together with him all the high priests and the elders and the scribes. 54 And Peter followed Him afar off, even within into the court of the high priest; and he was sitting with the attendants, and he was warming himself at the light of the fire. 55 And the high priests and all the Sanhedrin were seeking for testimony against Jesus, in order to put Him to death; and they were not finding it. 56 For many were bearing false testimony against Him, and their testimonies were not agreed. 57 And certain ones, standing up, were bearing false testimony against Him, saying, 58 “We heard Him say, ‘I will destroy this temple made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.’” 59 And not even so did their testimony agree. 60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, “Dost Thou answer nothing? What do these testify against Thee?” 61 But He was silent, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked Him, and says to Him, “Art Thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?” 62 And Jesus said, “I am; and ye shall see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven.” 63 And the high priest, rending his clothes, says, “What further need have we of witnesses? 64 Ye heard the blasphemy: what think ye?” And they all condemned Him to be worthy of death. 65 And some began to spit on Him, and to cover His face, and to buffet Him, and to say to Him, “Prophesy;” and the officers received Him with blows of their hands. 66 And, as Peter was beneath in the court, there comes one of the maids of the high priest; 67 and, seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and says, “You also were with the Nazarene, Jesus.” 68 But he denied, saying, “I neither know nor understand what you are saying.” And he went out into the porch [and the cock crowed]. 69 And the maid, seeing him, began again to say to those standing by, “This is one of them.” 70 But he again denied. And, after a little while, those who stood by said to Peter, “Of a truth you are one of them; for you are a Galilean.” 71 But he began to curse, and to swear, “I know not this Man of Whom ye speak.” 72 And straightway the second time the cock crowed. And Peter remembered the word, how Jesus said to him, “Before the cock crows twice, you will deny Me thrice.” And, having thought thereof, he kept weeping.

8 And, coming up, the multitude began to ask him to do as he was wont to do to them. 9 And Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you wish me to release to you the King of the Jews?" 10 (For he was coming to understand that because of envy the high priests had delivered Him up). 11 But the high priests stirred up the multitude, that he should rather release to them Barabbas. 12 And Pilate, again answering, said to them, "What, then, shall I do to Him Whom ye call the King of the Jews?" 13 And they cried out again, "Crucify Him!" 14 And Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil did He do?" But they cried out vehemently, "Crucify Him!" 15 And Pilate, wishing to satisfy the multitude, released to them Barabbas, and delivered up Jesus, after having scourged Him, to be crucified.

THE ROMAN SOLDIERS MOCK HIM.

16 And the soldiers led Him away within the court, which is the Pretorium, and they call together the whole band. 17 And they clothed Him with purple; and, having platted a crown of thorns, they put it on Him. 18 And they began to salute Him, "Hail King of the Jews!" 19 And they were smiting His head with a reed, and keeping sitting on Him; and, bowing their knees, they were worshiping Him! 20 And, when they mocked Him, they took from Him the purple, and put on Him His own garments. And they led Him out to crucify Him. 21 And they impress one Simon, a Cyrenian, who was passing by, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear His cross.

THEY CRUCIFY HIM.

22 And they bring Him to the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, "The place of a skull." 23 And they were offering Him wine mingled with myrrh; but He did not take it. 24 And they crucify Him, and divide His garments, casting lots upon them, what each should take.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XV.

19 Because of envy; because of His fearless teaching in exposing the rottenness of the religious magnates.
16 Pretorium: the hall where the governor or pretor held his court.
19 A reed; which, in mockery, they placed in His hand as a scepter. Worshiped Him; bowed before Him in devotion.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified Him. 26 And the inscription of His accusation was written above Him, "THE KING OF THE JEWS." 27 And with Him they crucify two robbers; one on His right hand, and one on His left. * 29 And those passing by railed on Him, wagging their heads, and saying, "Aha! Thou Who destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days! 30 save Thyself, coming down from the cross!" 31 In like manner the high priests, mocking Him among themselves with the scribes, said, "He saved others; Himself He cannot save! 32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel now come down from the cross, that we may see, and believe!" And those who were crucified with Him were reproaching Him.

33 And, the sixth hour having come, there was darkness upon the whole land until the ninth hour. 34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani!" which is, being interpreted, "My God! My God! why didst Thou forsake Me!" 35 And some of those standing by, hearing it, said, "Behold, He is calling Elijah!" 36 And one, running and filling a sponge full of vinegar, putting it on a reed, gave it to Him to drink, saying, "Let alone; let us see whether Elijah is coming to take Him down." 37 And Jesus, uttering a loud cry, expired. 38 And the veil of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom. 39 And the centurion, who stood by over against Him, seeing that He so expired, said, "Truly this Man was a Son of God!" 40 And there were also women, beholding from afar, among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and Joses, and Salome; 41 who, when He was in Galilee, were following Him, and ministering.

to Him; and many other women who came up with Him to Jerusalem.

HIS BURIAL.

42 And, evening having already come, since it was the Preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, 43 there came Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable councillor; who also himself was looking for the Kingdom of God; and boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate wondered, if He had already died; and, calling to him the centurion, he asked him, whether He were already dead. 45 And, having learned it from the centurion, he granted the corpse to Joseph. 46 And he, having brought linen cloth, and having taken Him down, wrapped Him in the linen cloth, and laid Him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock; and he rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. 47 And Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of Joses, beheld where He was laid.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 And, the sabbath having past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that, coming, they might anoint Him. 2 And, very early on the first day of the sabbaths, they come to the tomb, the sun having risen. 3 And they were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone for us out of the door of the tomb?" 4 And, looking up, they see that the stone has been rolled back; for it was exceedingly great. 5 And, entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a white robe; and they were amazed. 6 But he says to them; "Be not amazed. Ye are seeking Jesus the Nazarene, the crucified. He arose; He is not here; behold, the place where they laid Him! 7 But go, say to his disciples, and to Peter, that He is going before you into Galilee; there shall ye see Him, as He said to you." 8 And, going out, they fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment seized them. And they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

9 And, having risen early on the first day of a sabbath, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene from whom He had cast out seven demons. 10 She, going, told it to those who had been with Him, as they were mourning and weeping. 11 And they, having heard that he was alive, and was seen by her, disbeliefed. 12 And after these things He appeared in another form to two of them, as they were walking, going into the country; 13 and they, going away, told it to the rest; neither did they believe them.

14 And afterward He was manifested to the eleven themselves, as they were reclining at table, and upbraided them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not those who saw Him after He had risen.

15 And He said to them, "Going into all the world, preach the Gospel to the whole creation. 16 He that believes and is immersed shall be saved; but he that disbeliefes shall be condemned. 17 And these signs shall accompany those having believed: in My name will they cast out demons; they will speak with tongues; they will take up serpents; and, if they drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.

19 The Lord Jesus, therefore, after He spake to them, was caught up into Heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. 20 And they, going forth, preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word through the signs closely following.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XVI.

1-8 The resurrection; Matt. 28:1-6.
1 Anoint Him; to preserve His body from decay.
11 Disbelieved; this shows how little impression the numerous declarations of Jesus, regarding His resurrection, had made on their minds.
9-30 The two oldest Greek manuscripts, and some other documents, end this Gospel with v. 8. The doctrines taught in these verses are true, however, whether Mark wrote them or not. The casting out of demons is taught in Matt. 10:8, and in many other Scriptures; as also heal-Ing. Speaking with tongues is provided for in Acts 2:4: 1 Cor. 12, etc.; taking up serpents (accidentally, of course), Acts 28:3-5; and drinking poison (through mistake) is provided for in John 11:44-45.

The reason why this larger Gospel—or the Gospel for spirit, soul, and body—is known and practiced so little, is to be found in the fact that so few believers know anything, experimentally, of Christ enthroned in the heart. The days of miracles are, indeed, past, but only in the case of those who have not come into fellowship with the Holy Trinity.
GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE.

Luke, the author of this Gospel, was also the author, or amanuensis, of the Holy Spirit, in the production of the Acts of the Apostles. (Acts 1:1). Luke was the "beloved physician." (Col. 4:14), and the traveling companion of Paul in several of his missionary journeys; and it is possible, if not probable, that Luke had Paul's sanction and approval to both this Gospel and to the Acts as well.

Luke does not profess to write as an eye-witness, but as one who carefully collected his material from those who were such. (Acts 1:1-9).

Though he has much in common with Matthew and Mark, he has much that the others do not record.

If Matthew's Gospel was written for the Jews, and Mark's for the Romans, Luke's seems to have been written for the whole world, but more particularly for the gentiles, (see Luke 4:25-37; 9:51-50; 17:15-19; 10:29-37; 14:15-20).

CONTENTS.

Luke has considerable matter not found in any of the other Gospels; but as no one of the writers of these Gospels professes to give all that Jesus did and said during His earthly ministry, this does not militate against the credibility of Luke's Gospel or of any of the others.

CHAPTER I.

1 Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to arrange in order a narrative concerning the facts that have been fully confirmed among us, 2 even as those who from the beginning were eye-witnesses and ministers of the word delivered them to us; 3 it seemed good to me also, having traced all things accurately from the first, to write to you an orderly account, most noble Theophilus; 4 that you may fully know the certainty of the words wherein you were instructed.

ZACHARIAS AND ELIZABETH.

5 There was in the days of Herod, king of Judæa, a certain priest, Zacharias by name, of the course of Abijah; and he had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. 6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the law blameless. 7 And they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were far advanced in their days.

8 Now it came to pass, that, while he was doing priestly service in the order of his course before God, 9 it fell to his lot, according to the custom of the priest's office, having gone into the temple of the Lord, to offer incense; 10 and all the multitude of the people were praying without at the hour of the incense-offering. 11 And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 And Zacharias, seeing him, was troubled; and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said to him, "Fear not, Zacharias; because your supplication was heard; and your wife Elizabeth shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. 14 And you will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth; 15 for he will be great before the Lord; and he will drink no wine nor strong drink; and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. 16 And many of the sons of Is-

3 Having traced all things accurately; Luke no doubt used great precipitation in setting the different reports, so as to get the exact facts. Theophilus; friend of God—supposed to be a prominent man of Luke's acquaintance.

4 Course of Abijah; the priests were divided into twenty-four courses, or classes, (1 Chr. 24:1-18). Each officiated a week, from one sabbath to the next. The course of Abijah, or Abijah, was the eighth, (see 1 Chr. 24:10).

9 To offer incense; to burn it. This was accounted the most honorable service in the ordinary routine of priestly duty.

11 An angel of the Lord; it had been nearly four hundred years since the prophet Malachi had closed his prophecy; and, as the long-expected Messiah was about to come, God now opened communication with His people again; and, as John was to be the messenger "to precede the Messiah, the angel announces his early coming.

13 John; signifies, "The Lord graciously gave." John, therefore, was a special gift of God to his parents and to the Jewish race.

15 And drink no wine nor strong drink; John was to be under the law of the Nazarites. (see Judg. 13:17; Num. 6:1-10).
"Hail, highly favored one, the Lord is with you." 29 But she was troubled at the saying, and was deliberating as to what kind of salutation this might be.

30 And the angel said to her, "Fear not, Mary; for you found favor from God. 31 And, behold, you shall conceive in your womb, and shall bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name Jesus. 32 He shall be great, and shall be called Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give to Him the throne of His father David; 33 and He shall reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of His Kingdom there shall be no end." 34 And Mary said to the angel, "How shall this be, since I know not a man?"

35 And the angel, answering, said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; wherefore also the Holy Thing that is begotten shall be called the Son of God. 36 And, behold, Elizabeth, your kinswoman, she also has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren; 37 because no word from God shall be without power."

38 And Mary said, "Behold, the handmaid of the Lord; may it be to me according to your word." And the angel departed from her.

MARY VISITS ELIZABETH.

39 And Mary, arising in those days, went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah; 40 and entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elizabeth. 41 And it came to pass that, as Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit; 42 and she lifted up her voice, with a loud cry, and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! 43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44 For, behold, as the voice of your salvation came into my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy! 45 And happy is she who believed, because there shall be a fulfillment of the things spoken to her from the Lord!"

46 And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord; 47 and my spirit exulted in God my Saviour; 48 because He looked upon the lowliness of His handmaid; for, behold, from the present time all generations will call me happy; 49 because the Mighty One did great things for me; and Holy is His name! 50 And His mercy is unto generations and generations to those who fear Him. 51 He wrought might with His arm; He scattered proud in the imagination of their heart. 52 He deposed potentates from thrones, and exalted the lowly. 53 The hungry He filled with good things, and the rich He sent away empty. 54 He succored Israel His servant, to remember mercy, 55 (as He spake to our fathers), to Abraham and to his seed forever."

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her house.

57 Now the time was completed for Elizabeth, that she should give birth, and she brought forth a son. 58 And her neighbors and kindred heard that the Lord was magnifying His mercy together with her; and they rejoiced with her. 59 And it came to pass, on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they were calling him Zacharias, after the name of his father. 60 And his mother, answering, said; "No; but he shall be called John."

61 And they said to her, "There is no one of your kindred who is called by this name." 62 And they were making signs to his father, what he wished him to be called. 63 And, asking for a writing tablet, he wrote, saying, "John is his name." And they all marveled. 64 And his mouth was instantly opened, and his tongue loosed, and he was speaking, blessing God. 65 And fear came upon all those dwelling around them. And in all the hill country of Judæa all these sayings were being much talked of; 66 and all who heard laid them up in their heart, saying, "What, then, shall this child be?" For, indeed, the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And Zacharias, his father, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and he prophesied, saying, 68 "Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, because He visited, and wrought redemption for His people; 69 and raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of David His servant; 70 (as He spake through the mouth of His holy prophets from of old), 71 salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us; 72 to show mercy towards our fathers, and to remember His holy covenant; 73 the oath which He swore to Abraham, our father; 74 to grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve Him without fear, 75 in holiness and righteousness before Him all our days.

76 "And you also, child, shall be called Prophet of the Most High;" for you shall go before the face of the Lord, to prepare His ways; 77 to give knowledge of salvation to His people in remission of their sins, 78 because of the tender compassions 43 Whence is this to me; why should I be so honored?

44 Happy is she who believed; Mary believed a far more wonderful statement than the one over which Zacharias stumbled.
45 Will call me happy; because of the fact that she, alone of women, was chosen to be the mother of Jesus. This high honor did not make Mary other than mortal; and those who view her as a demi-goddess, and pay divine worship to her, are surely guilty of idolatry.

50 And they were making signs to his father; this seems to imply that Zachariah was deaf as well as dumb.
51 His mouth was instantly opened; the promise of Gabriel having now been accomplished. (v. 20). His tongue was loosed; the verb "was opened" is understood with tongue; but the verb contains the use of the figure known as scagnia, in which the verb must have different meanings to adapt it to its different subjects.
52 The hand of the Lord was with him; the power and favor of God rested upon him.

wrapped in swaddling clothes, and lying in a manger."

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the Heavenly host, praising God, and saying, 14 "Glory to God in the highest; and, on earth, peace among men of good will!" 15 And it came to pass, when the angels went away from them into Heaven, that the shepherds were saying one to another, "Let us go over at once to Bethlehem, and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord made known to us." 16 And, making haste, they went, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in the manger. 17 And, having seen Him, they made known concerning the saying spoken to them about this Child.

18 And all who heard wondered at the things spoken to them by the shepherds. 19 But Mary was closely keeping all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. 20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they heard and saw, as it was spoken to them.

THE CIRCUMCISION AND PRESENTATION OF JESUS IN THE TEMPLE.

21 And, when eight days were fulfilled for circumcising Him, His name was called Jesus—which was so called by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.

22 And, when the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were 19 Pondering them in her heart; thinking them over, and storing them up in her heart.

22 The days of their purification: after giving birth to a child, a Jewish mother was required to remain at home, and was unclean for forty days. These forty days were the days of her purification. But she was required, if able, to offer a lamb for a burnt-offering; and for a sin-offering, a dove, or a young pigeon. (Lev. 12:2-8.)

Notes on Chapter II.

1 All the inhabited earth: meaning the Roman empire, most likely. Should be enrolled: that their numbers might be known and that their taxes might be collected systematically.

2 First was made: Quirinius appears to have made two enrolments: the first just before the birth of Jesus, and a second one some years later.

fulfilled, they brought Him up to Jerusalem, to present Him to the Lord; 23 (as it has been written in the law of the Lord—“Every male opening the womb shall be called holy to the Lord”); 24 and to offer sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, “A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons.” 25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the Consolation of Israel; and the Holy Spirit was upon him. 26 And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death, before he should see the Christ of the Lord. 27 And he came in the Spirit into the temple; and, when the parents brought in the Child Jesus, that they might do concerning Him according to the custom of the law, 28 he received Him into his arms, and blessed God, and said, 29 “Now Thou dost release Thy servant, according to Thy word; 30 because my eyes have seen Thy Salvation, 31 Which Thou hast prepared before the face of all peoples; 32 a Light for a revelation to the nations, and for a glory of Thy people Israel.”

33 And His father and mother were wondering at the things spoken concerning Him. 34 And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, “Behold, This Child is set for the falling and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign spoken against, 35 and a sword shall pierce through your own soul; that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed.”

36 And there was Anna, a prophetess, daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher, (she was far advanced in days, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity; 37 and she had been a widow as much as eighty-four years), who departed not from the temple, serving with fastings and supplications night and day. 38 And, coming up at that very hour, she was making confession to God, and was speaking concerning Him to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem. 39 And, when they accomplished all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth. 40 And the Child was growing, and was becoming strong, being filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him.

JESUS AT TWELVE YEARS OF AGE IN THE TEMPLE.

41 And His parents used to go annually to Jerusalem at the feast of the passover. 42 And, when He became twelve years old, they, going up according to the custom of the feast, 43 and having completed the days, as they were returning, the Boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, and His parents knew it not; 44 but, supposing Him to be in the company, they went a day’s journey; and they were seeking Him among their kindred and acquaintances; 45 and, not finding Him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking Him. 46 And it came to pass that, after three days, they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions. 47 And all who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers. 48 And, seeing Him, they were amazed; and His mother said to Him, “Child, why didst Thou treat us thus? Behold, Thy father and I were seeking Thee, sorrowing!”

49 And He said to them, “Why were ye seeking Me? Did ye not know that I must be in My Father’s business?” 50 And they understood not the saying that...
He spake to them. 51 And He went down with them, and came into Nazareth, and was subject to them. And His mother kept all these sayings in her heart. 52 And Jesus kept advancing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

God, He knew all things, and could not increase in wisdom. It was as the God-man that Jesus dealt with sin, and brought in everlasting righteousness to our race.

CHAPTER III.

1 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar—Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the country of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2 in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness; 3 and he came into all the region of the Jordan, preaching the immersion of repentance unto remission of sins; 4 as it has been written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, “The voice of one crying in the wilderness, ‘Prepare ye the way of the Lord; make straight His paths.” 5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall become straight, and the rough ways smooth; 6 and all flesh shall see the salvation of God!’”

7 He was saying, therefore, to the multitudes coming forth to be immersed by him, “Broods of vipers! who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? 8 Produce, therefore, fruits worthy of repentance; and begin not to say within yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father;’ for I say to you, that God is able out of these stones to raise up children to Abraham. 9 And already the axe is lying at the root of the trees; every tree, therefore, not producing good fruit, is cut down, and cast into the fire.” 10 And the multitudes were asking him, saying, “What, then, shall we do?” 11 And he, answering, said to them, “Let him who has two coats share with him who has none; and let him who has food do likewise.”

12 And there came also tax-collectors to be immersed, and they said to him, “Teacher, what shall we do?” 13 And he said to them, “Exact no more than that which has been appointed you.” 14 And soldiers also were questioning him, saying, “And what shall we do?” And he said to them, “Do violence to no one, neither accuse any one falsely, and be content with your wages.”

15 And, as the people were in expectation, and all were reasoning in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he himself were the Christ, 16 John answered, saying to them all, “I, indeed, immerse you in water; but He is coming, Who is mightier than I—the latchet of Whose sandals I am not worthy to loose—He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit and in fire; 17 Whose fan is in His hand, thoroughly to cleanse His threshing-floor, and to gather the wheat into His granary; but the chaff He will burn up with unquenchable fire."

18 Therefore, indeed, exhorting them as to many and various things, he was proclaiming the good news to the people; 19 but Herod, the tetrarch, being reproved by him concerning Herodias, the wife of his brother, and concerning all the evils which Herod did, 20 added this also to them all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 Now it came to pass, when all the people were immersed, that as Jesus also was immersed, and was praying, Heaven was opened; 22 and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form, as a dove; and a voice came out of Heaven, "Thou art My Son, the Beloved, in Whom I delighted."

CHAPTER IV.

JESUS TEMPTED, OR TESTED.

1 And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was being led in the Spirit in the wilderness 2 forty days, being tempted by the Devil. And He ate nothing in those days; and, when they were completed, He hungered. 3 And the Devil said to Him, "If Thou art God's Son, command this stone, that it become bread." 4 And Jesus made answer to him, "It has been written, 'Not on bread alone shall man live.'" 5 And, leading Him up, he showed Him all the kingdoms of the inhabited earth in a moment of time. 6 And the Devil said to Him, "To Thee will I give all this authority, and the glory of them; because to me it has been delivered, and to whomsoever I will I give it. 7 If Thou, therefore, wilt worship before me, it shall all be Thine."

8 And Jesus, answering, said to him, "It has been written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve.'"

5 He showed Him all the kingdoms of the inhabited earth; Satan had the control, in large measure, of the nations of the earth; nor is his claim to them revoked yet. His title was that, however, of a warper; and, if Jesus had complied with Satan's offer, the latter, being a liar from the beginning, would not have relinquished his hold upon the nations. Satan will have his grip on the world broken, when Jesus, with His mighty warriors, captures his two great leaders, and shuts up Satan himself in the abyss for 1,000 years, (Rev. 20:1-3); and at the close of the Millennium, he will be loosed for a little season, and will precipitate another revolt, but it will soon be quelled, and Satan will be confined, forever and ever, in his place of torment. (Rev. 20:7-10).
9 And he led Him to Jerusalem, and set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, “If Thou art God’s Son, cast Thyself down hence; 10 for it has been written, ‘He will command His angels concerning you, to keep watch over you; 11 and on their hands they shall bear you up, lest haply you dash your foot against a stone.’”

12 And Jesus, answering, said to him, “It has been said, ‘You shall not tempt the Lord your God.’”

13 And, having completed every temptation, the Devil departed from Him until a fitting season. 14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee; and a report went out concerning Him through all the region round about. 15 And He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

JESUS REJECTED AT HOME.

16 And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up; and He went, according to His custom, into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read. 17 And there was given to Him a book of the prophet Isaiah; and, opening the book, He found the place where it had been written, 18 “The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me; because He anointed Me to publish good tidings to the poor; He hath sent Me to proclaim release to captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to send away the crushed in freedom, 19 to proclaim an acceptable year of the Lord.”

20 And, having closed the book, He gave it back to the attendant, and sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on Him. 21 And He began to say to them, “To-day has this Scripture been fulfilled in your ears.” 22 And all were bearing witness to Him, and were wondering at the words of grace which proceeded out of His mouth; and they said, “Is not this Joseph’s Son?”

23 And He said to them, “Ye will doubtless say to Me this parable, ‘Physician, heal Thyself: whatsoever we heard of as done in Capernaum, do also here in Thy own country.’” 24 And He said, “Verily I say to you, no prophet is acceptable in his own country. 25 But of a truth I say to you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there came a great famine upon all the land; 26 and to no one of them was Elijah sent, except to Zarephath in the land of Sidon, to a woman ἐγέρωντος οὗτος ἐν εὐαγγελίῳ ἡ γυνὴ. 27 And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and no one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian.”

28 And all in the synagogue were filled with wrath, on hearing these things; 29 and, rising up, they cast Him forth out of the city, and led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city had been built, to throw Him down headlong; 30 but He, passing through their midst, was going His way.

HE VISITS CAPERNAUM.

31 And He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee; and He was teaching them on the sabbath; 32 and they were 25-27 Many widows; but Elijah was sent to a widow of another nationality, rather than to any of the widows in Israel. (See I Kings 17:9-24). And Naaman was the only leper healed through the ministry of Elisha. (I Kings 5:14-19). These two examples seemed to justify Jesus in displaying more of His power among strangers, than among His own neighbors. Yet it was their ignorance and prejudice that shut out the mighty displays of His power from them.

28 Were filled with wrath; at His teachings, in which He justified His course in giving others greater displays of power than He had given them.

29 Cast Him forth out of the city; they did not consider that Jesus was fit to remain within their city limits. To throw Him down headlong; they purposed even to murder Him.

30 Passing through their midst; there was no power that could bind or hold Jesus, until the time appointed for His trial and crucifixion.
astonished at His teaching, because His word was with authority.

A DEMON CAST OUT.

33 And in the synagogue there was a man having a spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 "Ha! what is there to us and to Thee, Jesus, Nazarene! Didst Thou come to destroy us? I know Thee, Who Thou art, the Holy One of God!"

35 And Jesus rebuked it, saying, "Be silent, and come out from him." And the demon, hurling him into the midst, came out from him, having injured him naught. 36 And amazement came upon all; and they were talking together, one with another, saying, "What is this word, that with authority and power He commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out?" 37 And there was going forth a report concerning Him into every place of the region round about.

HE CURETH SIMON'S MOTHER-IN-LAW.

38 And, rising up, He went out of the synagogue into the house of Simon. And the mother-in-law of Simon was afflicted with a great fever; and they besought Him concerning her. 39 And, standing over her, He rebuked the fever, and it left her; and, immediately rising up, she was ministering to them. 40 And, as the sun was setting, all, as many as had any ailing with divers diseases, brought them to Him; and He, laying His hands on each one of them, was healing them. 41 And demons also came out from many, crying out, and saying, "Thou art the Son of God." And, rebuking them, He was not suffering them to speak, because they knew Him to be the Christ.

42 And, day coming on, going forth, He went into a desert place; and the multitudes were seeking after Him, and came to Him, and were trying to restrain Him from going away from them. 43 And He said to them, "It is needful that I proclaim the good news of the Kingdom of God to the other cities also; because for this I was sent forth." 44 And He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAPTER V.

A MIRACULOUS DRAUGHT OF FISHES.

1 Now it came to pass, as the multitude was pressing upon Him, and hearing the word of God, that He was standing by the lake Gennesaret; 2 and He saw two boats standing by the lake; but the fishermen, having gone out of them, were washing their nets. 3 And, entering into one of the boats, which was Simon's, He asked him to put out a little from the land; and, having taken a seat, He was teaching the multitudes out of the boat. 4 And, when He ceased speaking, He said to Simon, "Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught."

5 And Simon, answering, said, "Master, having toiled through the whole night, we took nothing; but at Thy word I will let down the nets." 6 And, doing this, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their nets were breaking. 7 And they beckoned to their partners in the other boat, to come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they were sinking. 8 And Simon Peter, seeing it, fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying, "Depart from me; because I am a sinful man, O Lord;" 9 for astonishment seized him, and all those with him, on account of the draught of the fishes which they took; 10 and likewise also James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Fear not; henceforth you will catch men." 11 And, hav-

5 At Thy word; we can always afford to obey Jesus, however dark the prospect to human sense.
6 Enclosed a great multitude of fishes; when His servants throw out the Gospel net at the bidding of Jesus, they may expect to catch a great many sinners.

39 He rebuked the fever; it seems likely that He rebuked the demon that brought the fever; and, driving it out, the fever was broken up.

8 Depart from me; a sense of His sins made Peter feel unpleasant in the presence of the great Messiah!
10 You will catch men; catching them alive, as the Greek suggests. You will still be a fisherman, but you will fish for men, rather than for fish. The disciples were never fully equipped as "fishers of men," until they were filled with the Holy Spirit. This is what all preachers of the Gospel need to fit them for their work. ing brought their boats to the land, leaving all, they followed Him.

A LEPROS Y CLEANSED.

12 And it came to pass, while He was in one of the cities, behold, a man full of leprosy; and, when he saw Jesus, falling on his face, he besought Him, saying, "Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean." 13 And, stretching forth His hand, He touched him, saying, "I am willing; be made clean." And straightway the leprosy departed from him. 14 And He charged him to tell no one; but, "Departing, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." 15 But the report concerning Him was going abroad the more; and many multitudes were coming together to hear, and to be healed of their infirmities. 16 And He was wont to retire into the deserts, and pray.

A PAR ALYTIC LET DOWN THROUGH THE ROOF AND HEALED.

17 And it came to pass, on one of the days, that He was teaching; and there were sitting by Pharisees and teachers of the law, who had come out of every village of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was present with Him to heal. 18 And, behold, men bearing on a couch a man who was a paralytic, and they were seeking to bring him in, and place him before Him. 19 And, not finding by what means they might bring him in because of the multitude, having gone up on the housetop, they let him down through the tiles with the couch, into the midst, before Jesus. 20 And, beholding their faith, He said, "Man, your sins are forgiven you." 21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this that speaking blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God only?" 22 But Jesus, perceiving their reasonings, answering, said to them, "Concerning what are ye reasoning in your hearts? 23 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise and walk?' 24 But, that ye may know that the Son of Man hath authority on the earth to forgive sins (He said to the paralyzed man), I say to you, arise; and, taking up your couch, go to your house." 25 And, immediately rising up before them, having taken up that on which he was lying, he departed to his house, glorifying God. 26 And astonishment seized them all, and they were glorifying God, and were filled with fear, saying, "We saw wonderful things to-day!"

HE CALLS LEVI.

27 And, after these things, He went forth, and beheld a tax-collector, Levi by name, sitting at the tax-office; and He said to him, "Follow Me." 28 And, having forsaken all, rising up, he followed Him.

29 And Levi made a great reception for Him in his house; and there was a great multitude of tax-collectors and of others who were reclining at table with them. 30 And the Pharisees and their scribes were murmuring against the disciples, saying, "Why are ye eating and drinking with the tax-collectors and sinners?" 31 And Jesus, answering, said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. 32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

WHEN THEY WILL FAST.

33 And they said to Him, "The disciples of John fast often, and make supplications; likewise also those of the Pharisees; but Thine are eating and drinking!" 34 And Jesus said to them, "Can ye make the sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? 35 But the days will come; and, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, then they will fast in those days." 36 And He spake also a parable to them: "No one, rending a piece from a new garment, puts it on an old garment; else both the new will cause a rent, and the piece from the new will not agree with the old.

37 “And no one puts new wine into old wine-skins; else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be poured out, and the skins will perish. 38 But new wine must be put into fresh skins. 39 And no one, having drunk old wine, wishes new; for he says, ‘The old is mellow.’”

CHAPTER VI.

THE DISCIPLES PLUCK GRAIN ON THE SABBATH.

1 And it came to pass on a sabbath, that He was going through grainfields; and His disciples were plucking and eating the heads of grain, rubbing them with their hands. 2 But some of the Pharisees said, “Why are ye doing that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath?”

3 And Jesus, answering, said to them, “Did ye never read this that David did, when he was hungry, and those with him; 4 how he entered into the house of God, and taking the showbread, ate, and gave to those with him; which it is not lawful to eat, except for the priests only?” 5 And He said to them, “The Son of Man is Lord of the sabbath.”

HE HEALETH A WITHERED HAND.

6 And it came to pass on another sabbath, that He entered into the synagogue, and taught. And there was a man there, and his right hand was withered. 7 And the scribes and Pharisees were watching Him, whether He would heal on the sabbath; that they might find how to accuse Him. 8 But He knew their thoughts; and He said to the man having the withered hand, “Arise, and stand forth in the midst.” And, rising up, he stood. 9 And Jesus said to them, “I ask you, is it lawful on the sabbath to do good, or to do evil—to save a soul, or to destroy it?” 10 And, looking round upon them all, He said to him, “Stretch forth your hand.” And he did so, and his hand was restored. 11 But they were filled with madness, and were conferring one with another as to what they should do to Jesus.

HE CALLS THE TWELVE.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that He went out into the mountain to pray; and He was spending the whole night in prayer to God. 13 And when it became day, He called His disciples; and, having selected twelve from them, (whom He also called apostles): 14 Simon whom He also called Peter, and Andrew his brother; and James, and John, and Philip, and Bartholomew, 15 and Matthew, and Thomas, and James son of Alpheaus, and Simon who is called Zelotes, 16 and Judas son of James, and Judas Iscariot who became a betrayer; 17 and, descending with them, He stood upon a level place; and a large multitude of His disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judaea and Jerusalem, and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, were present, who came to hear Him, and to be healed of their diseases; 18 and those troubled with unclean spirits were being healed; 19 and all the multitude were seeking to touch Him; because power was coming forth from Him, and was healing them all. 20 And He, lifting up His eyes on His disciples, said, “Happy, ye poor; because yours is the Kingdom of God. 21 “Happy, ye who are hungering now; because ye will be filled. 22 “Happy, ye who are weeping now; because ye shall laugh. 23 “Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy; for, behold, your reward is great in Heaven; for, after the same manner, were

cause ye shall hunger!

because ye shall mourn and weep!
26 "Woe to you when all men speak well of you; for in this same manner were their fathers wont to do to the false prophets.

your enemies; do good to those who hate you; 28 bless those who curse you; pray for those who revile you.

who takes away your cloak, withhold not your coat also.

what charm have you? for even the sin-ers love those who love them.

the sinners do the same.

ye hope to receive, what charm have you?
even the sinners lend to sinners, that they may receive back as much.

turn; and your reward will be great, and ye will be sons of the Most High; because He is kind to the unthankful and evil.

and depending upon them for happiness.

pleasures, and seeking nothing better. Who are laughing;

own, but hates Christ; and has nothing but malevolence to heap upon the heads of Christ's true disciples. "All who will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." (1 Ti Tim. 3:12).
32 What charm have you; what superiority above others have you?
35 Sons of the Most High; if we love our enemies, do good, and lend, hoping for no return, we thus prove our-ourselves to be sons of God, because we have the divine nature in us, enabling us to do the things that please Him.
36 "Be ye merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

judged; and condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned.

gether, running over, will they give into your bosom; for with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again."
39 And He spake also a parable to them: "Can the blind lead the blind?
Will they not both fall into a pit? 40 A disciple is not above the teacher; but every one, when perfected, shall be as his teacher.
41 "And why do you behold the mote that is in your brother's eye, but consider not the beam that is in your own eye? 42 Or how can you say to your brother, 'Brother, suffer me to cast out the mote that is in your eye;' when you yourself do not see the beam in your own eye? Hypocrite!
cast first the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to cast out the mote that is in your brother's eye.
43 "For there is no good tree that bears corrupt fruit; nor again a corrupt tree that bears good fruit; 44 for each tree is known by its own fruit; for they do not gather figs of thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush.

which is good; and the evil, out of the which we are to be treated.

pupil will be no better. If his teacher is wise, the pupil may become wise too. Those who take Christ as their Teacher, and learn of Him, will become wise and eternally happy.
41-42 People are much more disposed to see the little faults of others, than to note the big ones belonging to themselves; and, before we can help others we must our-ourselves receive help. If we will get right with God, He will enable us to be helpful to others.
43-44 If one's character is Christlike, his life and conduct will be Christlike; and, if one is unlike Christ in character, his conduct and principles will plainly declare the fact. Every one's life tells who he is, and what he is.
46 And do not the things that I say; obedience to Christ, and not one's profession, marks the true disciple.
47 "Every one who comes to Me, and hears My words, and does them, I will show you to whom he is like: 48 he is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock; and, a flood coming, the stream built upon Christ as a foundation, if built with indestructible material, will stand all the floods and earthquakes of time and eternity; but every character

CHAPTER VII.

1 After He finished all His sayings in the hearing of the people, He entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, being ill, was about to die. 3 And, having heard about Jesus, he sent to Him elders of the Jews, asking Him that, having come, He would thoroughly save1 his servant.

4 And they, coming to Jesus, were earnestly beseeching Him, saying, "He is worthy for whom Thou shalt do this; 5 for he loves our nation, and he built the synagogue for us."

6 And Jesus was going with them. And now, when He was not far distant from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to Him, "Lord, trouble not Thyself; for I am not worthy that Thou shouldest come under my roof. 7 Wherefore, neither thought I myself worthy to come to Thee, but speak with a word, and let my boy be healed; 8 for I also am a man set under authority, having soldiers under myself: and I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

9 And, hearing these things, Jesus marvelled at him; and, turning, He said to the multitude following Him, "I say to you, not even in Israel did I find such faith!"

10 And those who were sent, having returned to the house, found the servant well.

THE SON OF THE WIDOW OF NAIN RAISED FROM THE DEAD.

11 And it came to pass soon afterwards that He went to a city called Nain; and there were going with Him His disciples, and a large multitude. 12 And, as He came near to the gate of the city, behold, also there was being carried out one dead, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and a large crowd of the city was with her. 13 And, seeing her, the Lord was moved with compassion towards her, and said to her, "Weep not."

14 And, going forward, He touched the bier; and those bearing it stood still; and He said, "Young man, I say to you, Arise!" 15 And the dead sat up, and began to speak. And He gave him to his mother. 16 And fear seized on all; and they were glorifying God, saying, "A great prophet was raised up among us," and "God did visit His people." 17 And this report concerning Him went forth in all Judea, and in all the surrounding country.

JOHN SENDS DISCIPLES TO QUESTION JESUS.

18 And the disciples of John reported to him concerning all these things. 19 And, calling to him two of his disciples, John sent them to the Lord, saying, "Art Thou the Coming One, or are we to expect another?"

1 Implying healing.

NOTES ON CHAPTER VII.

2-10 The healing of the centurion's servant; Matt. 8:5-13.
2 Was door to him: was highly valued.
9 Jesus marvelled: at such remarkable faith, where it was so little expected. Not even among the Israelites, the descendants of Abraham, had Jesus found such faith. May not the Blessed Son of God have equal occasion, but in the opposite direction, to be surprised at the unbelief of many Christians at the present time? Satan has dropped the false assumption into the mind of most Christians of the present day, that the days of miracles are past; and, too, in the face of an unrepealed provision for the healing of the bodies of God's children—unrepealed except by the unbeliefs of His children. Jesus might well wonder at this!
11 Nain; a town in Galilee, south-west from Capernaum.
14 Touched the bier: He touched the coffin.
15 And the dead; the one who had been dead. A touch from Jesus brings the dead to life.
16 God did visit His people: in mercifully sending Who could heal all diseases, and even raise the dead.
19 Or are we to expect another: this alternative is suggestive of doubt in the mind of John. He could not easily understand why Jesus should be seemingly indifferent to the fact of his imprisonment.
20 And, coming near to Him, the men said, "John, the Immerser, sent us to Thee, saying, 'Art Thou the Coming One, or are we to expect another?" 21 In that hour He healed many of diseases, and plagues, and evil spirits; and to many blind He bestowed sight. 22 And, answering, He said to them, "Going your way, announce to John what ye saw and heard: the blind receive sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the Gospel proclaimed to them. 23 And happy is he, whosoever shall find no cause of stumbling in Me."

24 And, the messengers of John having gone away, He began to say to the multitudes concerning John, "What went ye forth into the wilderness to behold? a reed shaken by the wind? 25 But what went ye forth to see? a man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, those clothed in splendid apparel, and living in luxury, are in kingly courts! 26 But what went ye forth to see? a prophet? Yea, I say to you, and much more than a prophet. 27 This is he concerning whom it has been written, 'Behold, I send forth My messenger before Thy face, who will prepare Thy way before Thee.' 28 I say to you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John; but the least in the Kingdom of God is greater than he."

29 And all the people, having heard, and the tax-collectors, justified God, having been immersed with the immersion of John. 30 But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of God as to themselves, not having been immersed by him.

31 "To what, then, shall I liken the men of this generation? And to what are they like? 32 They are like children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, who say, 'We piped to you, and ye did not dance; we wept, and ye did not weep.' 33 For John, the Immerser, has come, neither eating bread, nor drinking wine; and ye say, 'He has a demon.' 34 The Son of Man has come, eating and drinking; and ye say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a wine-drinker, a Friend of tax-collectors and sinners!' 35 And Wisdom was justified by all her children."

A SINFUL WOMAN WASHES JESUS' FEET.

36 And one of the Pharisees was asking Him to eat with him; and, having entered into the Pharisee's house, He reclined at table. 37 And, behold, a woman who was in the city, a sinner; and, learning that He was reclining at table in the house of the Pharisee, having provided an alabaster caze of perfume; 38 and standing behind at His feet weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears, and wiped them off with the hair of her head; and she kept kissing His feet, and anointing them with the perfume.

39 But, seeing it, the Pharisee who invited Him, spake in himself, saying, "This Man, if He were a prophet, would know who and what sort of woman this is that is touching Him, because she is a sinner." 40 And Jesus, answering, said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he says, "Teacher, say it." 41 "There were two debtors to a certain money-lender. The one owed five hundred denarii; and the other, fifty. 42 And, they having nothing to pay, he forgave them both. Which of them, therefore, will love him the more?" 43 Simon, answering, said, "He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the more." And He said to him, "Rightly did you judge." 44 And, turning to the woman,"
He said to Simon, “Do you behold this woman? I entered into your house, you gave Me no water for My feet; but this woman wet My feet with her tears, and wiped them with her hair. 45 You gave Me no kiss; but she, from the time I entered, ceased not to kiss My feet. 46 My head with oil you did not anoint; but she anointed My feet with perfume. 47 Wherefore, I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven; because she loved much; but he, to whom little is forgiven, loves little.”

48 And He said to her, “Your sins have been forgiven.”

49 And those reclining with Him began to say in themselves, “Who is this That even forgiveth sins!”

50 And He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

4 Or, into.

50 Your faith has saved you; she had a “faith that worked by love,” and such faith is always sure to bring salvation. Go in peace; or, go into peace—into paths of peace, (Prov. 3:17).

N. B.—Jesus was not ashamed of the woman, after her sins had been pardoned; and He was willing to vindicate her in the presence of His host and others at the table. Jesus showed no great haste to get rid of her presence.

said, “To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of God; but to the rest in parables; that, seeing, they may not see, and, hearing, they may not understand. 11 Now this is the parable: The seed is the word of God. 12 And those by the wayside are those who heard; then the Devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart; lest, having believed, they should be saved.

13 “And those on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root; who, for a season, believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 “And that which fell among the thorns, these are those who heard; and, going forth, they are choked with anxieties, and riches, and pleasures of life, and bear no fruit to perfection.

15 “And that in the good ground, these are such as, in a good and honest heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bear fruit with patience.

HIS MOTHER AND BROTHERS CALL FOR HIM.

19 Now there came to Him His mother and brothers; and they could not get to Him because of the multitude. 20 And it was reported to Him, “Thy mother and Thy brothers have been standing without, wishing to see Thee.”

21 And He, answering, said to them, “My mother and My brothers are those who hear the word of God, and do it.”

A STORM QUIETED.

22 Now it came to pass on one of the days, that both He and His disciples entered into a boat; and He said to them, “Let us go over to the other side of the lake.” And they set forth. 23 But, as they were sailing, He fell asleep. And there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were being filled full of water, and were in peril. 24 And, coming near, they awoke Him, saying, “Master, Master, we perish!” And, having arisen, He rebuked the wind and the raging of the water; and they ceased, and it became calm. 25 And He said to them, “Where is your faith?” And, struck with fear, they marvelled, saying one to another, “Who, then, is This, that He commandeth even the winds and the water; and they obey Him!”

A DEMONIAC DELIVERED.

26 And they sailed down into the country of the Gerasenes, which is over against Galilee. 27 And, when He went forth on the land, there met Him a certain man out of the city, who had demons, and for a long time he had worn no clothing; and he abode not in a house, but in the tombs. 28 And, seeing Jesus, he, crying out, fell down before Him, and, with a loud voice, said, “What is there to me and to Thee, Jesus, Son of God Most High? I beg of Thee, do not torment me!” 29 For He was commanding the unclean spirit to come out from the man; for many times had it seized him, and he was bound with chains and fetters, kept under guard; and, bursting the bonds, he was driven by the demon into the deserts. 30 And Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” And he said, “Legion,” (because many demons entered into him). 31 And they were entreating Him, that He would not command them to go away into the abyss. 32 And there was there a herd of many swine in the mountains; and they besought Him that He would permit them to enter into them. And He permitted them. 33 And the demons, going out from the man, entered into the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep into the lake, and were drowned. 34 And those feeding them, seeing what had taken place, fled, and carried the tidings into the city and into the country. 35 And they went out to see what had taken place; and they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons went out, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and having his right mind; and they were afraid. 36 And those who saw it reported to them how the demon-possessed man was delivered. 37 And the whole multitude of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Him to depart from them; because they were being constrained by great fear. And He, entering into a boat, returned.

38 And the man, from whom the demons had gone forth, was begging Him that he might be with Him; but He sent him away, saying, 39 “Return to your house, and relate how great things God did for you.” And he departed, publishing through all the city how great things Jesus did for him.

DAUGHTER OF JAIRUS RAISED; AND WOMAN WITH FLOW OF BLOOD HEALED.

40 And, as Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed Him; for they were all expecting Him. 41 And, behold, there came a man whose name was Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue; and, falling down near Jesus’ feet, he was beseeching Him to come into his house; 42 because he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying! But, as He was going away, the multitudes were thronging Him.

43 And a woman, having a flow of blood for twelve years, who could not be cured, 44 coming up behind, touched the border of His garment, and immediately her flow

And, when all were denying, Peter said, "Master, the multitudes are thronging Thee, and hard pressing Thee!" 46 But Jesus said, "Some one touched Me; for I perceived that power had gone out from Me." 47 And the woman, seeing that she was not concealed, came trembling; and, falling down before Him, reported before all the people for what cause she touched Him, and how she was instantly healed. 48 And He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you; go in peace." 49 While He is yet speaking, there comes one from the ruler of the synagogue, saying, "Your daughter has died; trouble not the Teacher." 50 But Jesus, hearing it, answered him, "Fear not; only believe; and she shall be made whole!" 51 And, coming into the house, He permitted no one to enter with Him, except Peter, and James, and John, and the father of the maiden, and her mother. 52 And they were all weeping, and bewailing her; but He said, "Weep not; for she did not die, but is sleeping." 53 And they were deriding Him, knowing that she died. 54 But He, taking her by the hand, called, saying, "Maiden, arise." 55 And her spirit returned to her, and she rose up instantly; and He commanded that something should be given to her to eat. 56 And her parents were astonished. But He charged them to tell no one what had taken place.

concerning Whom I hear such things?" And he was seeking to see Him. 10 And the apostles, having returned, related to Him what they did. And, taking them with Him, He retired privately to a city called Bethsaida. 11 But the multitudes, perceiving it, followed Him; and, having welcomed them, He was speaking to them concerning the Kingdom of God, and those having need of cure He healed.

THE MIRACLE OF THE FIVE LOAVES.

12 And the day began to decline. And the twelve, coming near, said to Him, "Send away the multitudes; that, going into the villages and country round about, they may lodge and find food; because we are here in a desert place."

13 But He said to them, "Give ye them to eat." And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fishes; unless we, going, should buy food for all this people." (For they were about five thousand men). 14 And He said to His disciples, "Make them recline in companies of about fifty each." 15 And they did so, and made them all recline. 16 And, taking the five loaves and the two fishes, looking up into Heaven, He blessed them, and broke, and kept giving to the disciples to set before the multitude. 17 And they ate, and were all filled. And there was taken up that which remained to them of broken pieces, twelve baskets.

PETER’S CONFESSION.

18 And it came to pass, as He was praying alone, the disciples were with Him, and He asked them, saying, “Who do the multitudes say that I am?” 19 And they, answering, said, “‘John the Immerser;’ and others, ‘Elijah;’ and others, ‘that a certain prophet of the ancients arose.’”

20 And He said to them, “But who say ye that I am?” And Peter, answering, said, “The Christ of God.”

21 And He, having admonished them, commanded them to tell this to no one; 22 saying, “The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and high priests, and scribes; and be killed, and on the third day be raised up.”

TAKING UP THE CROSS.

23 And He said to all, “If any one wishes to come after Me, let him disown himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me. 24 For whosoever wishes to save his soul shall lose it; but whosoever will lose his soul for My sake, the same shall save it. 25 For what is a man profited, if having gained the whole world, but having lost or forfeited himself? 26 For whosoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when He cometh in His glory, and in that of the Father, and of the holy angels. 27 And I tell you truly, there are some of those standing here who will in no wise taste of death, till they see the Kingdom of God.”

THE TRANSFIGURATION OF JESUS.

28 And it came to pass, about eight days after these words, that, taking Peter, and John, and James, He went up into the mountain to pray. 29 And it came to pass, as He was praying, that the appearance of His countenance was altered, and His raiment became white and dazzling. 30 And, behold, two men were talking with Him, who, indeed, were Moses and Elijah; 31 who, appearing in glory, were speaking of His departure, which He was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 Now Peter and those with him had become heavy with sleep; but, having watched through it, they saw His glory, and the two men who were standing with Him. 33 And it came to pass, as they were parting from Him, that Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good that we are here; and let us make three tents; one for Thee, one for Moses, and one for Elijah;” not knowing what He was saying. 34 Now, while he was saying these things, there came a cloud, and it was overshadowing them; and they feared, as they entered into the cloud. 35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, “This is My Son, the Chosen; hear ye Him.” 36 And, when the voice came, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent, and told no one, in those days, of any of the things they had seen. 37 And it came to pass on the next day, when they came down from the mountain, that a great multitude met Him.

JESUS HEALS A DEMONIACT.

38 And, behold, a man from the multitude cried, saying, “Teacher, I pray Thee to look upon my son, because he is my only begotten. 39 And, behold, a spirit takes him, and suddenly he cries out, and it convulses him with foaming, and with difficulty it departs from him, bruising him; 40 and I besought Thy disciples to cast it out, but they were not able.” 41 And Jesus answering, said, “O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? Bring your son here.” 42 And, while he was yet coming, the demon thrust him down, and greatly convulsed him. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. 43 And they were all amazed at the Majesty of God!

Jesus Foretells His Own Rejection.

And while all were marvelling at all the things which He was doing, He said to His disciples, "Put ye these words into your ears; for the Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men." 45 But they did not understand this saying; and it was veiled from them, that they might not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask Him concerning this saying.

How to Become Great.

46 And there entered a reasoning among them, as to which of them should be greatest. 47 Now Jesus, knowing the reasoning of their heart, taking a child, placed it by Himself, 48 and said to them, "Whosoever shall receive this child in My name, receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me; for he that is least among you all, the same is great." 49 And John, answering, said, "Master, we saw one casting out demons in Thy name; and we forbade him, because he follows not with us." 50 And Jesus said to him, "Forbid him not; for he who is not against you is for you."

The Face of Jesus Is Set Towards Jerusalem.

51 And it came to pass, when the days for receiving Him up were being completed, that He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem; 52 and He sent forth messengers before His face; and, journeying onward, they entered into a village of Samaritans, so as to prepare for Him. 53 And they did not receive Him, because His face was as if He were going to Jerusalem.

54 And, seeing it, His disciples, James and John, said, "Lord, dost Thou wish that we bid fire come down from heaven, and consume them?" 55 But, turning, He rebuked them. 56 And they went on to another village.

57 And, as they were journeying in the way, a certain one said to Him, "I will follow Thee wheresoever Thou goest." 58 And Jesus said to him, "The foxes have dens; and the birds of the heaven lodging-places; but the Son of Man hath not where to recline His head."

59 And He said to another, "Follow Me." But he said, "Lord, permit me, going away, first to bury my father." 60 And He said, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead; but, going, publish abroad the Kingdom of God."

61 And another said, "I will follow Thee, Lord; but first permit me to bid adieu to those within my house." 62 And Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to a plow, and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of God."

CHAPTER X.

The Seventy Sent Forth.

1 Now after these things the Lord appointed seventy others; and sent them away, two and two, before His face, into every city and place, whither He Himself was about to come. 2 And He said to them, "The harvest, indeed, is great, but the laborers few. Pray ye, therefore, the Lord of the harvest, that He urge forth laborers into His harvest. 3 Go your ways; behold, I am sending you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves. 4 Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals; and salute no one by the way. 5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' 6 And, if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it; 1 but, if not, it will return to you. 7 And in the same house abide, eating and drinking the things supplied by them; for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house. 8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you; 9 and heal the sick therein, and say to them, 'The Kingdom of God has come near to you.' 10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, going forth into the streets thereof, say, 11 'Even the dust from your city, that cleaves to our feet, we wipe off against you; nevertheless, know this, that the Kingdom of God has come nigh.' 12 I say to you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city. 13 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! because, if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. 14 But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you. 15 And you, Capernaum, shall you be exalted to Heaven? You shall be thrust down to Hades! 16 "He who hears you hears Me; and he who rejects you rejects Me; and he who rejects Me rejects Him Who sent Me." 17 And the seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in Thy name!" 18 And He said to them, "I was beholding Satan fallen as lightning out of the heavens. 19 Behold, I have given you the authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing shall in any wise harm you. 20 Notwithstanding, rejoice not in this, that the spirits are subject to you; but rejoice, because your names have been written in Heaven." 21 In that same hour He exulted in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I thank Thee, O Father Lord of Heaven and earth, because Thou didst hide these things from the wise and discerning, and didst reveal them to babes: yea, Father, because it was well-pleasing in Thy sight. 22 "All things were delivered up to Me by My Father; and no one knows Who the Son is, but the Father; and Who the Father is, but the Son, and He to whomsoever the Son purposeth to reveal Him." 23 And, turning to the disciples, He 16 Rejects you rejects Me; it is a sad thought that sinners, in rejecting God's ministers, reject Christ! How circumspectly and prayerfully His ministers should walk before the world, lest they furnish an excuse to say for rejecting them and their message. 17 The demons are subject to us; it is a blessed ministry for God's servants to cast out demons from others; but there is something better than this: viz., the assurance that one's name is written in Heaven, (v. 20). 18 I was beholding Satan . . . fallen out of the heavens: possibly this was a prophetic vision of what is yet to be, when Satan shall be cast out of the heavens, (Rev. 12:9). In every conflict with Satan, the Lord Jesus was victor; and His chief victory was gained when He arose from the dead, having first put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself, (Heb. 9:20). His final triumph over him is seen in Rev. 20:10. 19 Authority to tread on serpents and scorpions: God's true people are to be victors over all the power of the enemy, whether seen in literal serpents and scorpions, or in wicked and poisonous men who are dominated by the spirit of the Devil. Nothing shall . . . harm you; perhaps the chief reference here is to spiritual victories over Satan and all evil, foreshadowed by physical deliverances occasionally vouchsafed to God's people. Peter, for example, was delivered from great peril, when the angel brought him out of the prison, (Acts 5:19-20); but he was martyred later. 31. 22 Things hid from the wise; Matt. 11:25-57.
A LAWYER ANSWERED. THE GOOD SAMARIAN.

25 And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, tempting Him, saying, "Teacher, by doing what shall I inherit eternal life?"

26 And He said to him, "What has been written in the law? How do you read?"

27 And he, answering, said, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."

28 And He said to him, "You answered right; do this, and you shall live."

29 But he, wishing to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

30 And Jesus, answering, said, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers; who, both stripping him and inflicting blows, went away, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance, a certain priest was going down that way; and, seeing him, he passed by on the opposite side. 32 And, in like manner, a Levite also, coming to the place, and seeing him, passed by on the opposite side. 33 But a certain Samaritan, going on his way, came down to him; and, seeing him, he was moved with compassion;

34 and, coming to him, he bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; and, setting him on his own beast, he brought him to an inn, and took care of him. 35 And, on the morrow, taking out two denaries, he gave them to the host, and said, 'Take care of him; and whatsoever you expend additional, I, when I return, will repay you.' 36 Which, therefore, of these three seems to you to have become neighbor of him who fell among the robbers?"

37 And he said, "He that dealt kindly with him." And Jesus said to him, "Go, and do likewise."

MARY AND MARTHA.

38 Now, as they were going on their way, He entered into a certain village; and a certain woman, Martha by name, received Him into her house. 39 And she had a sister called Mary, who, also seated at the Lord's feet, was hearing His word.

40 But Martha was being distracted about much serving; and, coming up suddenly, she said, "Lord, carest Thou not that my sister left me to serve alone? Speak to her, therefore, that she assist me!"

41 But the Lord, answering, said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things; but of one thing there is need; for Mary chose the good part, which, indeed, shall not be taken away from her."
CHAPTER XI.

TEACH US TO PRAY.

1 And it came to pass, as He was in a certain place praying, that, when He ceased, one of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught His disciples.” 2 And He said to them, “When ye pray, say, ‘Father, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. 3 Give us day by day our daily food; and forgive us our sins; for we also ourselves forgive every one indebted to us. And bring us not into temptation.’” 5 And He said to them, “Who of you shall have a friend, and shall go to him at midnight, and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves; 6 forasmuch as a friend of mine came to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him;’ 7 and he from within, answering, shall say, ‘Trouble me not; already the door has been shut, and my children are with me in the bed; I cannot rise and give you.’ 8 I say to you, even if he will not, rising up, give to him because of his being his friend; yet, because of his importunity, he, rousing himself, will give him as many as he needs. 9 And I say to you, ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you: 10 for every one who asks receives; and he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks it shall be opened. 11 And of which of you that is a father shall his son ask bread, and he give him a stone? or a fish, and he, instead of a fish, give him a serpent? 12 or if he shall ask an egg, will he give him a scorpion? 13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him?”

JESUS ACCUSED OF CASTING OUT DEMONS THROUGH BEELZEBUB.

14 And He was casting out a dumb demon. And it came to pass that, when the demon went out, the dumb spake, and the multitudes marvelled. 15 But some of them said, “By Beelzebub, the ruler of the demons, He is casting out the demons.” 16 And others, tempting, were seeking of Him a sign from heaven. 17 But He, knowing their thoughts, said to them, “Every kingdom, divided against itself, is made desolate; and a house divided against a house falls. 18 And, if Satan also were divided against himself, how would his kingdom stand? because ye say that by Beelzebub I am casting out the demons! 19 But, if I, by Beelzebub, cast out the demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore, they shall be your judges. 20 But, if I, by the finger of God, cast out the demons, then the Kingdom of God came upon you unexpectedly.

21 “When the strong man, fully armed, is guarding his own court, his goods are in peace; 22 but, when a stronger than he, coming upon him, overcomes him, he takes away his whole armor upon which he had relied, and distributes his spoils. 23 He who is not with Me is against Me; and he who is not gathering with Me is scattering.

ADemon Returns. Jonah as a Sign.

24 “When the unclean spirit goes out from the man, it passes through waterless places, seeking rest; and, not finding it, it says, ‘I will return into my house whence I came out.’ 25 And, coming, it finds it swept and decorated. 26 Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself; and, entering in, they make their abode there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first.”

27 And it came to pass, as He was saying these things, that a certain woman, out of the multitude, lifting up her voice, said to Him, "Happy the womb that carried Thee, and the breasts which Thou didst suck!" 28 But He said, "Yea, rather, happy are those who hear the word of God, and keep it!"

29 And as the multitudes were gathering together to Him, He began to say, "This generation is an evil generation: it is seeking a sign, and a sign shall not be given it, except the sign of Jonah. 30 For, as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the Son of Man be to this generation.

31 "The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them; because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, something more than Solomon is here.

32 "The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and condemn it; because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and, behold, something more than Jonah is here.

THE LIGHTED LAMP.

33 "No one, having lighted a lamp, puts it in a cellar, or under a measure, but on a lamp-stand, that those who enter may see the light. 34 The lamp of your body is your eye. When your eye is sound, your whole body also is full of light; but, when it is evil, your body also is dark. 35 Take heed, therefore, lest the light in you be darkness. 36 If, therefore, your whole body be full of light, not having any part dark, it shall be wholly light, as when the lamp, with its bright shining, illuminates you."

THE PHARISEES AND LAWYERS REPROVED.

37 Now, as He spake, a Pharisee asks Him to dine with him; 38 and, entering, He reclined at table. 39 And the Pharisee, seeing it, marvelled that He was not first immersed before breakfast. 39 But the Lord said to him, "Now ye, the Pharisees, cleanse the outside of the cup and the dish; but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. 40 Senseless ones! Did not He who made the outside make the inside also? 41 But give as alms the things within; 7 and, behold, all things are clean to you.

42 "But woe to you Pharisees! because ye tithe the mint, and the rue, and every herb; but ye pass by judgment and the love of God. Now these things it was needful to do, and not to leave those undone.

43 "Woe to you Pharisees! because ye love the first seats in the synagogues, and the salutations in the marketplaces! 44 Woe to you! because ye are as the unsaved tombs; and the men, walking over them, know it not."

45 And one of the lawyers, answering, says to Him, "Teacher, in saying these things, Thou insultest us also!"

46 And He said, "Woe to you lawyers, also! because ye burden men with burdens hard to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers!

47 "Woe to you! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 Consequently, ye are witnesses, and consent to the works of your fathers; because they, indeed, killed them, and ye build their tombs. 49 On VARIous INSTRUCTIONS TO THE DISCIPLES AND OTHERS.

1 In the meantime, the vast multitude having been gathered together, so as to tread one upon another, He began to say to His disciples, first, 'Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2 But nothing has been covered up, that shall not be revealed; and hid that shall not be known. 3 Wherefore, whatsoever ye said in the darkness shall be heard in the light; and what ye spake in the ear in the inner chambers shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

1 Vast multitude: literally, the myriads of the multitude, an indefinitely large number. The leaven of the Pharisees; the hypocrisy that permeated and vitiated all their religious works.
2 Nothing has been covered up; Jesus shows the utter folly of hypocrisy from the fact that everything in the end will be brought to light.
4-12 Be not frightened by those who kill the body; fear has kept many a one from accepting Christ. Jesus shows the groundlessness of the fear of man: 1. In the fact that, though he may kill the body, he can do nothing more, while God can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna, (vs. 4, 5); 2. God, who watches the sparrows, will not overlook His faithful servants, (vs. 6, 7); 3. If we deny Christ; here, he will deny us at the judgment, (vs. 8, 9). He then warns them against the sin against the Holy Spirit, (v. 10). And warns them to have no anxiety about their defense, when they should appear before magistrates, (vs. 11, 12).
13 Bid my brother divide the inheritance with me; this man wished to use the power and influence of Jesus to increase his estate. So many now make some sort of profession of religion, that they may be helped in business!
15 Guard yourselves from all covetousness; this is a fearful sin, and it is one common alike to rich and poor. Covetousness, as the Greek indicates, is a having more, or seeking to have more. The value of a man's life does not depend upon the amount of earthly goods he possesses. Some of God's poorest are happier far than the Christian millionaire; and, perhaps, more valuable to the cause of Christ.
one’s life consists not in the abundance of the things which he possesses.”

16 And He spake a parable to them, saying, “A certain rich man’s field yielded bountifully; 17 and he reasoned within himself, saying, ‘What shall I do, because I have not where to store my fruits?’ 18 And he said, ‘This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build larger ones; and there will I store all my grain and my goods. 19 And I will say to myself, ‘Soul, you have much goods laid up for many years; take your ease, eat, drink, be merry.’ 20 But God said to him, ‘Senseless one! this night they require your soul of you; and the things you prepared, whose shall they be?’ 21 So is he who is laying up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.”

22 And He said to His disciples, “Therefore, I say to you, be not anxious for your soul, what ye shall eat; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on; 23 for the soul is more than the food; and the body, than the clothing.

24 “Consider the ravens, that they neither sow nor reap; which have neither storehouse nor barn; and God feeds them! Of how much more value are ye than the birds!

25 “And who of you, by being anxious, can add a cubit to his stature? 26 If, therefore, ye cannot do the least thing, why are ye anxious about the rest? 27 Consider the lilies, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin; and I say to you, even Solomon, in all his glory, was not arrayed as one of these! 28 Now, if God so clotheth the grass in the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into an oven, how much more shall He clothe you, O ye of little faith! 29 And seek ye not what ye shall eat, and what ye shall drink; nor be troubled with anxiety; 30 for after all these things are the nations of the world seeking; and your Father knoweth that ye need these things. 31 But seek ye His Kingdom, and these things shall be added to you.

32 “Fear not, little flock; because your Father delighted to give you the Kingdom. 33 Sell what ye have, and give alms; make for yourselves purses that grow not old, a treasure unfailing in Heaven, where no thief approaches, nor moth corrupts; 34 for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 “Let your loins be girded about, and your lamps burning; 36 and yourselves like men waiting for their lord, when he shall return from the marriage feast; that, when he comes and knockes, they may straightway open to him. 37 Happy are those servants, whom their lord, when coming, shall find watching! Verily I say to you, that he will gird himself, and make them recline; and, coming near, he will serve them. 38 And, if he shall come in the second watch, and if in the third, and find them so, happy are they! 39 But know this, that, if the householder had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken in through. 40 Be ye also ready; because at an hour ye think not the Son of Man cometh.”

41 And Peter said, “Lord, speakest Thou this parable to us, or to all?”

Jesus as their Saviour received the Kingdom of God within them; and the outward Kingdom will be set up later.

33 Give alms; to the poor and needy. This is one of the indispensable fruits of a holy character and life. Purses that grow not old; heavenly purses to hold heavenly treasures.

35-46 The faithful servant; Matt. 24:42-51.

36 Shall return from the marriage feast; servants were accustomed, on such occasions, to remain up, to let their lord in without delay, (Matt. 25:1-13).

37 Shall find watching; this illustration from a familiar custom had an application to Himself and His faithful disciples. Will minister to them; will greatly honor them for their fidelity.

38 Second watch; from 9 to 12 o’clock at night; third watch; from 12 to 3 A. M.

40 The Son of Man cometh; this shows the immediate application of His teaching above.
And the Lord said, "Who, then, is the faithful steward, the wise one, whom his lord will appoint over his household to give the portion of food in due season? 43 Happy that servant, whom his lord, when he comes, shall find so doing. 44 Of a truth I say to you, that he will appoint him over all his goods. 45 But, if that servant should say in his heart, 'My lord is delaying to come,' and shall begin to beat the manservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; 46 the lord of that servant will come in a day when he is not expecting him, and in an hour which he knows not, and will cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the unfaithful. 47 And that servant who knew his lord's will, and made not ready, nor did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes; 48 but he who knew not, and did things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few. And to whomsoever much is given, of him will much be required; and to whomsoever they committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 "I came to cast fire on the earth; and what wish I, if it were already kindled?" 50 But I have an immersion to be immersed with; and how am I constrained until it be accomplished! 51 Think ye that I came to give peace in the earth? I tell you, nay, but rather division. 52 For from this time forth five in one house will be divided, three against two, and two against three; 53 they will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against the mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against the mother-in-law."

54 And He said to the multitudes also, "When ye see a cloud rising in the west, straightway ye say, 'A shower is coming;' and so it happens. 55 And, when ye see a south wind blowing, ye say, 'There will be scorching heat!' and it comes to pass. 56 Hypocrites! Ye know how to interpret the face of the earth and of the heavens; but how is it ye know not how to interpret this time? 57 And why even of yourselves do ye not judge what is right? 58 For, as you are going with your adversary before the ruler, on the way give diligence to be released from him; lest he draw you to the judge, and the judge shall deliver you to the exactor, and the exactor shall cast you into prison. 59 I tell you, you will in no wise come out thence, till ye shall pay even the last mite."

CHAPTER XIII.

ALL MUST REPENT, OR BE DESTROYED.

1 And there were some present, at that very season, who reported to Him concerning the Galileans, whose blood Pilate mingled with their sacrifices. 2 And, answering, He said to them, "Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they have suffered these things? 3 I tell you, nay; but, unless ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. 4 Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and slew them."

* Or, how I wish it were already kindled!

43 Faithful steward, the wise one; the Saviour shows, in His answer to Peter, that the parable refers especially to preachers and teachers of the Gospel, with whom fidelity in all things, including watchfulness for His coming, is especially emphasized. The portion of food; the measure of grain, as the Greek signifies.

N. B.—The parable teaches, besides, that one’s responsibilities will be measured, in part at least, by the knowledge he has; or, taking it all together, one’s responsibilities are measured by his opportunities and abilities.

43 I came to cast fire on the earth; in the same way as He sent a sword. (Matt. 10:34). Fire and sword are emblems of contention and destruction; and the Gospel of Christ, when accepted by a portion of the people, will place them where the fierce opposition of Satan, working through wicked men, will assail, and destroy some of them. What wish I; what wish I to do, if the fire of persecution and opposition to the truth were turned loose at once? Jesus did not mean by this that he was disposed to avoid the fire Himself.

45 Or, prove. 4 Or, punisher.

51 Division; on the same principle as He came to send fire and sword. (Matt. 10:34-39).

54 Rising in the west; from the Mediterranean Sea—the direction from which showers of rain came.

55 A south wind blowing; from the hot and sultry regions of Arabia.

56 How to interpret this time; the Pharisees, acute enough in the interpretation of physical phenomena, were intensely slow to interpret Messianic phenomena. Through their corrupt hearts, their intellects were clouded and even blinded, so that they could not see, what they did not wish to see.

58 By reference to an ordinary judicial case, the Saviour shows how important it is to be reconciled to God while on the way to His judgment bar; which reconciliation could be realized through no other agent than Jesus Christ. If men fail to be reconciled to God in this way, they will, after passing through the judgment, be cast into the prison of Gehenna, from which they will never escape, (Rev. 20: 10, 15).
suppose ye that they were offenders above all the men dwelling in Jerusalem? 5 I tell you, nay; but, unless ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish."

THE FRUITLESS FIG TREE.

6 And He spake this parable: "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit thereon, and found none. 7 And he said to the vinedresser, 'Behold, these three years I come, seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none; cut it down; why does it also make the land useless?' 8 But he, answering, says to him, 'Lord, leave it this year also, until I dig about it, and cast in fertilizers. 9 And if, indeed, it bear fruit for the future, well; but, if not, you shall cut it down.'"

THE WOMAN BOWED TOGETHER, HEALED ON THE SABBATH.

10 And He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. 11 And, behold, a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and wholly unable to raise herself up. 12 And Jesus, seeing her, called and said to her, "Woman, you have been loosed from your infirmity." 13 And He laid His hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and was glorifying God.

14 But the synagogue-ruler, answering, (being much displeased that Jesus healed her on the sabbath), said to the multitude, "There are six days in which it behooves us to work; in these, therefore, coming, be healed, and not on the sabbath day."

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIII.

6. Seeking fruit thereon; searching for fruit among its boughs.
7. Why does it also; it seemed bad enough, that there should be no fruit; but the fact that it was rendering the land useless was a strong reason why it should be cut down.
8. Cast in fertilizers; about its roots. Mercy spared, for a time, many a one whose life is devoid of all valuable fruitage. When one is past all hope, it would be a mercy to end his earthly career, and cut short a life of increasing sin and woe.
9. A spirit of infirmity; that kept her bowed together. To raise herself up; or assume an erect form.
10. Laid His hands on her; a touch from Jesus is enough to heal one of the worst ailments or infirmities.
11. Being much displeased that Jesus healed her on the sabbath; some people make an idol of the sabbath now as then.
12. Hypocrites; Jesus calls this synagogue-ruler, and 13. Of them that were of the scribes, and Pharisaic; a mixed multitude. 14. Of them that were of the scribes; two old corrupting sects.
15. Hypocrites; Jesus calls this synagogue-ruler, and 16. Hypocrites! does not each one of you, on the sabbath, loose his ox or his ass from the stall; and, leading it away, water it? 16 And was it not right that this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan bound, lo, eighteen years, should have been loosed from this bond on the day of the sabbath? 17 And, when He said these things, all those opposing Him were being put to shame, and all the multitude were rejoicing because of all the glorious things which were being done by Him.

THE MUSTARD SEED AND THE LEAVEN.

18 And He said, "To what is the Kingdom of God like? and to what shall I liken it? 19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man, taking, cast into his own garden; and it grew, and became a tree; and the birds of the heaven lodged in its branches."

20 And again He said, "To what shall I liken the Kingdom of God? 21 It is like leaven which a woman, taking, hid in three measures of meal until the whole was leavened.

THE NARROW DOOR. SHAMS EXPOSED AT THE JUDGMENT.

22 And He was journeying through the cities and villages, teaching, and making His way to Jerusalem. 23 And a certain one said, "Are there few who are saved?"

24 And He said to them, "Strive to enter in through the narrow door; because many, I say to you, will seek to enter in, and will 2 Gr. Came to a tree. 3 Or, roosted. 4 Gr. Agonize. those who sided with him against Himself, hypocrites; because they were more concerned for the relief of an ox or ass, than for the healing of this woman. It did not require as much time for Jesus to heal her, as it did for any one of them to loose an ox or ass, and lead it to water.

16 Whom Satan bound; this Scripture together with Acts 10:38 would indicate that Satan has far more to do with hardening alliments on people now than many suppose.

17. Were being put to shame; His plain exposure of their hypocrisy and folly brought shame and confusion upon them.

18-21 Parables of the mustard seed and leaven; Matt. 13:31, 32.

21 Strive; the Greek is agonize; make an earnest effort. Through the narrow door; the difficult entrance of the way of eternal life. (Matt. 7:13, 14). Will not be able; because they defer the matter too long, or try in a wrong way. Thus, but indirectly, the Saviour answers Peter's ques-

CHAPTER XIV.

JESUS EATS WITH A PHARISEE. HEALS ONE OF DROPSY.

1 And it came to pass, when He went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching Him. 2 And, behold, there was before Him a certain man who had the dropsy. 3 And, answering, Jesus spake to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful on the sabbath to heal or not?" 4 But they were silent. And, taking hold of him, He healed him.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIV.

1 To eat bread; Jesus ate with those who offered Him hospitality, on the sabbath day as well as at other times; but His eating was only incidental to His work, and to supply His bodily needs.

31 In that very hour, there came certain Pharisees, saying to Him, "Go out, and journey hence; because Herod is wishing to kill Thee."

32 And He said to them, "Going your way, tell this fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons, and perfect cures, to-day and to-morrow; and on the third day I am made perfect. 33 But yet I must go on My way to-day, and to-morrow, and the following day; because it is not possible that a prophet perish outside of Jerusalem!' 34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those sent to her; how often I wished to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her own brood under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is abandoned to you! 35 But I say to you, ye shall in no wise see Me, until ye shall say, 'Blessed is He Who is coming in the name of the Lord!'"

32 Tell this fox: Herod was a cunning, sly, and cruel man. To-day and to-morrow; a very brief time. On the third day I am made perfect; alluding, probably, to his resurrection from the dead on the third day, when the work of redemption would be complete.

34, 35 Lamentation over Jerusalem; Matt. 23:37-39. The day of opportunity passes; and, if one does not improve it, he is the worse for having had it. Light rejected brings intenser darkness. The rejection of Christ overshadows one's eternity with endless gloom:

and let him go; 5 and He said to them, "Who of you shall have an ass or an ox fall into a well, and he will not straightway draw him up on a sabbath day?" 6 And they were not able to return an answer to these things.

WHAT SEAT TO TAKE AT A FEAST.

7 And He spake a parable to those who were bidden, when He observed how they were choosing out the first seats; saying to them, 8 "When you are bidden by any one to a marriage feast, sit not on the first seat, lest possibly a more honorable man..."

than you may have been invited by him; 9 and he who bade you and him, coming, shall say to you, ‘Give place to this man;’ and then you shall, with shame, begin to occupy the lowest place. 10 But, when you are invited, going, sit in the lowest place; that, when he who invited you comes, he may say to you, ‘Friend, go up higher;’ then you will have glory in the presence of all who are reclining at table with you; 11 because every one who exalts himself shall be humbled, and he who humbles himself shall be exalted."

WHOM TO INVITE TO A FEAST.

12 And He said to him also who had invited him, “When you make a dinner or a supper, call not your friends, nor your brethren, nor your kindred, nor your rich neighbors; lest they also invite you in return, and a recompense be made you; 13 but, when you make a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind; 14 and happy shall you be; because they have not wherewith to recompense you; for recompense will be made to you in the resurrection of the righteous.” 15 And one of those reclining with Him, hearing these things, said to Him, “Happy is he who shall eat bread in the Kingdom of God!”

A GREAT SUPPER.

16 But He said to him, “A certain man was making a great supper, and invited many. 17 And he sent forth his servant, at the hour of the supper, to say to those invited, ‘Come; because all things are now ready.’

18 “And they all, with one consent, began to make excuse. The first said to him, ‘I bought a field, and I must go out to see it; I pray you, have me excused.’ 19 And another said, ‘I bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to prove them; I pray you, have me excused.’ 20 And another said, ‘I married a wife; and, therefore, I cannot come.

21 “And, coming near, the servant reported these things to his lord. Then the householder, being angry, said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city; and bring in here the poor, and maimed, and blind, and lame. 22 And the servant said, ‘Sir, what you ordered has been done, and still there is room.’ 23 And the lord said to the servant, ‘Go forth into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled; 24 for I say to you, that no one of those men who have been invited shall taste of my supper.’"

WHAT IT COSTS TO BE A DISCIPLE.

25 Now there were journeying with Him great multitudes; and, turning, He said to them, 26 “If any one comes to Me, and hates not his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, and, further, his own soul1 also, he

1 Or, life.

19 Prove them; try them, to see how they would work, or whether they would answer the description given by the one who sold them to him.
20 I cannot come; more honestly, I do not wish to come.
21 Angry; at the slight he had received in the rejection of his invitation. Streets and lanes; broadways and alleys; the latter being in the vicinity of the poor. These classes represent the gentiles.
23 The highways and hedges; lying outside of the city limits—where the gentiles live. Compel them; by earnest pleading and prayer.
24 None of those men... shall taste of my supper; a prophecy of the rejection of the Jews shortly to follow. No doubt, the words contain a solemn warning to many in Christian lands who are now rejecting the Gospel.
25 Were journeying with Him great multitudes; moved by various motives; some through real interest, others, perhaps, with the hope of receiving some profit, and many through curiosity.
26 And hates not his father... and himself; Christ requires our supreme love; and, if we are not willing, at His bidding to give up all earthly relations, and renounce our self-life also, we cannot be His true disciples. The Christ-nature in the true believer hates the self-nature in others, and in one’s self most of all.
27 And whosoever does not bear his own cross, and come after Me, cannot be My disciple. 28 For who of you, wishing to build a tower, does not first, sitting down, calculate the expense, whether he has enough for its completion? 29 lest, perhaps, having laid a foundation, and not being able to finish it, all who behold begin to mock him, saying, ‘This man began to build, and was not able to finish!’

31 ‘Or what king, going on to engage another king in war, does not, sitting down, first take counsel, whether he is able, with ten thousand, to meet him who is coming against him with twenty thousand? 32 And, if not by any means, while he is yet afar off, sending an embassy, he asks conditions of peace.

33 “So, therefore, every one of you who does not renounce all his own goods, cannot be My disciple. 34 Salt, therefore, is good; but if even the salt become tasteless, with what shall it be seasoned? 35 It is fit neither for the land nor for manure: they throw it without. He that has ears to hear, let him hear!”

CHAPTER XV.

LOST SHEEP. LOST SILVER. PRODIGAL SON.

1 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were drawing near to Him to hear Him. 2 And both the scribes and the Pharisees were murmuring, saying, “This Man receiveth sinners and eateth with them!”

3 And He spake to them this parable, saying, 4 “What man of you, having a hundred sheep, and losing one of them, does not leave behind the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after the lost one, until he finds it? 5 And, finding it, he places it upon his shoulders, rejoicing; 6 and, coming to his house, he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, because I found my sheep, which was lost.’”

NOTES ON CHAPTER XV.

2 Were murmuring; finding fault, because He permitted sinful people to approach Him. He uses three parables to show them that, however sinful one may have been, God welcomes him when he returns as a penitent. If the Father acts thus, surely the Son, who came to redeem sinners by His own death in their behalf, should mingle with those who believe in Him.

3 This parable; the parable of the lost sheep, besides showing the joy in Heaven over the finding and saving of the lost, serves also to justify the Saviour’s concern for that which is lost. The scribes and Pharisees thought they were safe; therefore, Jesus, on their own assumption, might leave them to themselves.

gether, the younger son went abroad into a far country, and there wasted his estate, living riotously. 14 And, when he spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that country; and he began to be in want. 15 And, going his way, he attached himself to one of the citizens of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. 16 And he was longing to be filled with the pods which the swine were eating; and no one was giving to him. 17 But, coming to himself, he said, 'How many hired servants of my father have a superabundance of bread, and I am perishing here with hunger! 18 Arising, I will go to my father, and will say to him, Father, I sinned against Heaven, and before you; 19 I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants.' 20 And, arising, he came to his father. 21 But, while he was yet afar off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion; and, running, fell on his neck, and kissed him much. 22 And the son said to the father, 'Father, I sinned against Heaven, and before you; no longer am I worthy to be called your son!' 23 'But the father said to his servants, Quickly bring forth a robe, the best, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and sandals on his feet; and bring ye the fatted calf, kill it: and, eating, let us be merry; 24 because this my son was dead, and came to life again; had been lost, and was found.' And they began to be merry.

25 "Now his elder son was in a field; and as, in coming, he drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. 26 And, calling to him one of the young men, he inquired of him, what these things might be. 27 And he said to him, 'Your brother has come; and your father killed the fatted calf, because he received him in sound health.' 28 But he was angry, and was not willing to go in; but his father, coming out, kept entreating him. 29 But he, answering, said to his father, 'Behold, so many years do I serve you; and, at no time, did I transgress a command of yours; and you never gave me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends. 30 But, when your son—this one who devoured your living with harlots—came, you killed for him the fatted calf!' 31 And he said to him, 'Child, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours! 32 But it was meet to make merry, and rejoice; because this your brother was dead, and came to life again; and had been lost, and was found.'"

CHAPTER XVI.
THE SAGACIOUS STEWARD.

1 And He said also to His disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and the same was accused to him as squandering his goods. 2 And, calling him, he said to him, 'What is this I hear of you? Render the account of your stewardship; for you can be no longer

NOTES ON CHAPTER XVI.

1 Who had a steward; a man to manage his business for him. As squandering his goods; using them for himself, or dealing loosely with them in connection with others.

2 Render the account of your stewardship; make an exhibit of what you received in charge, and what you now have on hand. Many professed Christians think that they are the real owners of the property in their hands.
steward." 3 And the steward said in himself, 'What shall I do? because my lord takes away the stewardship from me! To dig, I have not strength; to beg, I am ashamed! 4 I resolved what to do; that, when I am removed from the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. 5 And, calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe my lord?' 6 And he said, 'A hundred measures' of oil.' And he said to him, 'Take your accounts, and, sitting down, quickly write, Fifty.' 7 After that he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' And he said, A hundred measures' of wheat.' He says to him, 'Take your accounts, and write, Four score.' 8 And the lord praised the steward of unrighteousness, because he acted prudently; because the sons of this age are more prudent toward their own generation, than the sons of light. 9 And I say to you, make to yourselves friends out of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when it fails, they may receive you into everlasting tabernacles. 10 He that is faithful in the least is faithful also in much; he that is unrighteous in the least is unrighteous in much. 11 If, therefore, ye were not faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will entrust to you the true riches? 12 And, if ye were not faithful in that which is another's, who will give to you your own? 13 No domestic can serve two lords; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or he will hold to one, and despise the other: ye cannot serve God and mammon." 14 And the Pharisees, being lovers of money, were hearing all these things, and were openly mocking Him. 15 And He said to them, 'Ye are those who justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts; because that which is exalted among men is an abomination before God. 16 'The law and the prophets were until John; from that time the Gospel of the Kingdom of God is proclaimed, and every one presses into it by force! 17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tittle of the law to fall. 18 'Every one who puts away his wife, and marries another, commits adultery; and he who marries a woman divorced from her husband, commits adultery.'

3 Said in himself: thought to himself, said in his mind.

4 Resolved: after thinking the whole matter over, the thought occurred to him. Many render the aorist indicative here, as a present indicative, contrary to the law of tenses. The succession that came to the steward, he adopted as the course that he would pursue; and, after its adoption, it became his plan to be executed—hence, at the same time he is represented as speaking, it is his line of policy to be pursued; and, in this view of the case, it has a present meaning.

6 Measures: a bath is over five gallons. One hundred baths equal more than 500 gallons. Write fifty: the steward steals 250 gallons of oil, and gives it to his lord's debtor, with the hope that he himself might derive some benefit from the theft! A hundred measures of wheat: measures here is the eor, equal to eighty-six gallons dry measure. One hundred cors equals 8,000 gallons.

8 And the lord: the owner of the goods. Praised the steward of unrighteousness: commended his shrewdness. Of course, he did not indorse his theft.

9 Make to yourselves friends out of the mammon of unrighteousness: by using it so as to save men by leading them to Christ. Mammon is a Chaldee word signifying riches. When it fails: when your earthly stewardship closes in death. They may receive you into everlasting tabernacles: may welcome you into the "house not made with hands."

10 Faithful: as God's steward, faithful in all things, small and great. It is not the quantity committed to us that God will regard, but our fidelity in managing all He has committed to us. The idea of the stewardship seems to have entered the minds of but very few professed Christians, and yet the stewardship lies at the very foundation of a victorious and successful Christian life. So long as the human heart clings to any earthly good, and cherishes it as his own, self is not dethroned, and Christ cannot be King there.

11 Unrighteous mammon: worldly treasures, that are often sought in an unrighteous manner. True riches: heavenly treasures—eternal good.

12 If . . . not faithful with another's: if not honest in dealing with God in temporal matters, no one will give you the heavenly treasures.

14 Openly mocking Him: because of His teachings in regard to the stewardship. Men deride this doctrine now; and are worst, most of them, to regard themselves, as owning what is in their hands!

15 Justify yourselves; pretending to be honest before men; but God see your hearts, and abhors your hypocrisy.

16 Until John: Matt. 11:12, 13. Every one presses into it by force: every class of sinners—tax-collectors, and harlots—were pressing into the Kingdom, while the Pharisees and scribes were mocking Christ.

17 One tittle of the law: the smallest point in the requirements of the law. An instance is given in the next verse.

18 Every one who puts away his wife, and marries another: licentiousness was a characteristic of the Pharisees, and this with covetousness is impliedly charged against them; these being mighty factors in keeping them from seeing the truth.
THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS.

19 "Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, faring sumptuously every day. 20 And a certain poor man, Lazarus by name, had been laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 and desiring to be fed with the crumbs, falling from the rich man's table; yea, even the dogs, coming, were licking his sores. 22 And it came to pass that the poor man died, and that he was carried away by the angels into Abraham's bosom. And the rich man also died, and was buried; 23 and in Hades, lifting up his eyes, being in torments, he sees Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. 24 And, crying, he said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; because I am in anguish in this flame!' 25 But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that, in your lifetime, you received in full your good things, and Lazarus, likewise, evil things; but now here he is comforted, and you are in anguish. 26 And, in all these things, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed; so that those wishing to cross from hence to you cannot; nor do they pass from thence to us.' 27 And he said, 'I pray you, therefore, father, that you would send him to my father's house; 28 for I have five brothers; that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment.' 29 But Abraham says, 'They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.' 30 But he said, 'Nay, father Abraham; but, if one go to them from the dead, they will repent.' 31 But he said to him, 'If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, if one rose from the dead.'"

CHAPTER XVII.

FIDELITY, FORGIVENESS, FAITH, AND HUMILITY, ENJOINED.

1 And He said to His disciples, "It is impossible but that occasions of stumbling should come; but woe to him through whom they come! 2 It were profitable for him, if a millstone were placed about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. 3 Take heed to yourselves. If your brother sins, rebuke him; and, if he repents, forgive him. 4 And, if he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times turns to you, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him.'

5 And the apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." 6 And the Lord said, "If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye would say to this sycamine tree, 'Be rooted up, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you. 7 But who is there of you, having a servant plowing, or tending sheep, that will say to him, having come in from the field, 'Coming

TEN LEPERS CLEANSED.

11 And it came to pass, when He was journeying to Jerusalem, that He was passing through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. 12 And, as He was entering into a certain village, there met Him ten leprous men, who stood afar off; 13 and they lifted up their voice, saying, 'Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!' 14 And, when He saw them, He said to them, 'Going your way, show yourselves to the priests.' And it came to pass that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, seeing that he was cleansed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice, 16 and fell on his face at His feet, giving thanks to Him; and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus, answering, said, 'Were not the ten cleansed? Where are the nine? 18 Were none found, returning to give glory to God, except this stranger?' 19 And He said to him, 'Arising, go on your way; your faith has made you whole.'

TEN LEPERS CLEANSED.

10 And being asked by the Pharisees, when the Kingdom of God is coming, He answered them, and said, "The Kingdom of God comes not with observation; 21 nor will they say, 'Lo, here!' or, 'Lo, there!' for, behold, the Kingdom of God is within you." 22 And He said to the disciples, "There will come days, when ye will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and ye will not see it. 23 And they will say to you, 'Lo, there!' or 'Lo, here!' go not away, nor follow after them. 24 For, as the lightning, flashing out of one part under heaven, shines to the other part under heaven; so shall be the Son of Man. 25 But first He must suffer many things, and be rejected by this generation.

26 "And, as it happened in the days of Noah, so will it be also in the days of the Son of Man: 27 they were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were given in marriage, until the day on which Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. 28 Likewise, also, as it happened in the days of Lot: they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building; 29 but on the day on which Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all: 30 after the same manner shall it be in the day the Son of Man is revealed.

31 "In that day let him who shall be on the housetop and his goods in the house not come down to take them away; and let him who is in the field likewise not re-

21 One of the days of the Son of Man; this may have a double reference—first to the woes that would come upon the Jewish race in connection with the destruction of Jerusalem in A. D. 70; or, second, it may refer to the time of "Jacob's trouble," (Gen. 30:17; Zech. 12:10; 13:1-5).

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 And He spake a parable to them, to the end that they ought always to pray, and not to faint; 2 saying, “There was in a city a judge, who feared not God, nor regarded man. 3 And there was a widow in that city; and she kept coming to him, saying, ‘Avenge me of my adversary.’ 4 And he would not for a time; but afterward he said within himself, ‘Though I fear not God, nor regard man; 5 yet, because this widow occasions me trouble, I will avenge her, lest, by her persistent coming, she wear me out.’” 6 And the Lord said, “Hear what the judge of unrighteousness says. 7 And will not God avenge His elect, who are crying to Him day and night, and He is long suffering over them? 8 I say to you, that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, will the Son of Man, when He cometh, find the faith on the earth?”

NOTES ON CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Always to pray; habitually, earnestly and perseveringly.
3 Avenge me; by attending to my suit, and administering justice.
5 I will avenge her; lest; this miserable judge bases his decision, not upon the merits of the case (about which he was totally indifferent), but upon his own comfort, or to avoid discomfort.
6 Hear; learn a lesson from this remarkable decision.
7 Will not God avenge His elect; if an unrighteous judge, who cares not for God, and has no regard for man, can, through the importunity of a helpless widow, be influenced to do an act of justice, surely our God, the Righteous Judge, will attend promptly to the petitions of His own elect, whom He has purchased with His Son’s blood, and has quickened by His Spirit, and whom He loves with an everlasting love.
8 Will He find the faith on the earth; this question seems grinding together; the one will be taken, and the other will be left.”

37 And, answering, they say to Him, “Where, Lord?” and He said to them, “Where the body is, there will the eagles also be gathered together.”

*Some ancient authorities add v. 33: “There will be two men in the field; the one will be taken, and the other will be left.”

were devoted to destruction at the hands of their enemies; or, more remotely, to the tribulation period, when Christians will be slaughtered. (Rev. 13:7), and the Jewish people at Jerusalem suffer great horrors at the hand of the beast. (see again Jer. 50:7; Zech. 14:1-4; Rev. 19:19-21).

N. B.—We believe the watching, waiting, and ready ones, (vs. 34, 35; Luke 21:36; Rev. 3:10), will be caught away before the tribulation; and that, at the close of the tribulation, Jesus will come with His saints, to occupy the earth. (Zech. 14:9-11).

THE PHARISEES AND TAX-COLLECTORS.

9 And He spake also this parable to some who had trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised the rest: 10 “Two men went up into the temple to pray; one a Pharisee, and the other a tax-collector. 11 The Pharisee, having taken his stand, was praying these things with himself: ‘God, I thank Thee that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax-collector! 12 I fast twice on the Sabbath; I give a tenth of all that I acquire.’

13 “But the tax-collector, standing afar off, would not lift up even his eyes to heaven, but was smiting his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me, the sinner!’

14 I say to you, this man went down justified to his house, rather than the other; because every one who exalts himself shall be humbled, but he who humbles himself shall be exalted.”

very remotely connected with the line of thought set forth above; but, as Jesus was speaking of avenging the elect, and, as their vindication will be closely connected with the closing of the great tribulation—when the saints of God would be almost extinct—the question is not unnatural.

12 Twice on the Sabbath; not twice each Sabbath, but twice annually, on each of the two legal Fast-days.

13 The tax-collector standing afar off; far from “the holy of holies,” as not worthy to come nearer. Was smiting his breast; as a result of his deep anguish growing out of his conscious guilt. Pungent conviction for sin, and deep repentance, open the way for genuine faith in Christ, and this last is followed by the consciousness of sins forgiven.

14 Justified; approved, accepted. When the true penitent accepts Christ as his Saviour, he is justified by faith; this faith uniting him to the Christ Who died on the cross, and put away sin by the sacrifices of Himself. (Rom. 5:1; Heb. 9:28).
And Gr.' because Things' having that him, your are rich from No know said, ing, "Suffer the little children to come to Me, and forbid them not; for to such belongs the Kingdom of God. 17 Verily I say to you, whosoever does not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter therein."

THE RICH RULER. ONE THING NEEDFUL.

18 And a certain ruler asked Him, saying, "Good Teacher, by doing what shall I inherit eternal life?" 19 And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good, but One—God. 20 You know the commandments, 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not kill,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not bear false witness,' 'Honor your father and your mother.'"

21 And he said, "All these I observed from my youth."

22 And Jesus, hearing it said to him, "Yet one thing is lacking to you; sell all that you have, and distribute to the poor, and you shall have treasure in Heaven, and come, follow Me."

23 And, when he heard these things, he became very sorrowful; for he was exceedingly rich. 24 And Jesus, seeing him, said, "With what difficulty do those having riches enter into the Kingdom of God! 25 for it is easier for a camel to enter through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God." 26 And those hearing it said, "And who can be saved!" 27 But He said, "The things impossible with men are possible with God."

28 And Peter said, "Behold, having left our possessions, we followed Thee."

29 And He said to them, "Verily I say to you, there is no one who left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for the sake of the Kingdom of God, 30 who shall not receive manifold more in this time, and in the coming age eternal life."

FORETELLS HIS SUFFERINGS.

31 And, taking the twelve aside, He said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem; and all the things, written through the prophets respecting the Son of Man, will be accomplished; 32 for He will be delivered up to the gentiles, and will be mocked, and insulted, and spit upon, 33 and they will scourge Him, and kill Him; and, on the third day, He will rise again." 34 And they understood none of these things; and this saying was hidden from them, and they were not understanding the things being said.

BLIND MAN RECEIVES SIGHT.

35 And it came to pass, when He was drawing near to Jericho, that a certain blind man was sitting by the wayside, begging. 36 And, hearing a multitude passing along, he was inquiring what this might be. 37 And they told him, that Jesus the Nazarene was passing by. 38 And he cried, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

39 And those going before were rebuking him, that he should be silent; but he kept crying out much more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

40 And Jesus, standing still, commanded that he be brought to Him; and, when he drew near, He asked him. 41 "What do you wish that I should do for you?" And he said, "Lord, that I may receive sight." 42 And Jesus said to him, "Receive sight; your faith has made you whole." 43 And instantly he received sight, and was following Him, glorifying God. And all the people, seeing it, gave praise to God.

1 Gr. Saved.
And, running before, he climbed up into a sycamore tree, that he might see Him; because He was about to pass along that way. 5 And, when He came to the place, Jesus, looking up, said to him, "Zaccheus, hastening, come down; for today I must abide in your house." 6 And, hastening, he came down, and received Him joyfully. 7 And, seeing it, they were all murmuring, saying, "He went in to be guest with a sinful man!" 8 And, standing, Zaccheus said to the Lord, "Behold, the half of my goods, Lord, I give to the poor; and, if I wrongfully exacted anything from any one, I restore fourfold."

9 And Jesus said to him, "To-day salvation came to this house, inasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham; 10 for the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which is lost."

PARABLE OF THE NOBLEMAN'S JOURNEY TO A DISTANT LAND, AND HIS RETURN.

11 And, as they were hearing these things, adding, He spake a parable, because He was nigh to Jerusalem, and they supposed that the Kingdom of God was about immediately to appear. 12 He said, therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. 13 And, calling ten servants of his, he gave them ten pounds, and said to them, 'Do business, till I come.' 14 But his citizens were hating him, and sent an embassy after him, saying, 'We do not wish this man to be king over us.' 15 And it came to pass, when he came back, having received the kingdom, that he commanded the servants to whom he had given the money, 1 to be called to him, that he might know what they accomplished in business.

16 "And the first came before him, saying, 'Lord, your pound gained ten pounds.' 17 And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant; because you were faithful in a very little, have authority over ten cities.' 18 And the second came, saying, 'Lord, your pound gained five pounds.' 19 And he said also to this man, 'Be thou also over five cities.' 20 And the other came, saying, 'Lord, behold, your pound which I had lying away in a napkin; 21 for I feared you, because you are a harsh man; you take up what you did not lay down, and reap what you did not sow.' 22 He says to him, 'Out of your own mouth will I judge you, O evil servant! You knew that I am a harsh man, taking up what I did not lay down, and reaping where I did not sow; 23 and wherefore did you not put my money in bank; and I, at my coming, would have exacted it with interest.' 24 And he said to those standing by, 'Take away from him the pound, and give it to him who has the ten pounds.' 25 And they said, 'Lord, he has ten pounds.' 26 'I say to you that to every one who has shall be given; but from him who has not shall be taken away even that which he has. 27 But, these my enemies, who did not wish me to be king over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.'"

8 If I wrongfully exacted anything; collected more than the law required. I restore fourfold; restore to him four times as much as the overcharge. (Ex. 22:1; Num. 5:6, 7.)
9 A son of Abraham; being a Jew, and also having something of Abraham's faith.
10 The lost; Matt. 18:11.
11 Kingdom of God was about immediately to appear; His disciples thought that, when He entered into Jerusalem, He would at once set up His Kingdom. To correct this error, He spake the following parable.
12 A certain nobleman; this represents Jesus Christ, Who has gone to Heaven to set up His Kingdom; and, in due time, to return.
13 A pound; the value of the pound or mina (a Greek coin) was worth 100 drachmas; and the drachma is estimated at about 10 cts. (United States money). Hence the pound was about $10. The pound here represents one's abilities and opportunities to do good. No business till I come; God expects His people to be diligent in His business; and to keep busy till He comes.
14 His citizens; meaning the Jewish people. John 1:11.
20 A napkin; a towel or handkerchief.
21 A harsh man; hard in his dealings, tyrannical, and unjust. Such is the opinion that many people have of God.
22 Out of your own mouth; by your own admission. If you knew I was harsh, why did you not prepare to meet my requirements?
23 Put my money in bank; literally place my silver on a table—i.e., on a banker's table; so it could be loaned, and bring in something for its use.
24 Give it to him who has the ten pounds; because he showed greater capability for managing business than the one who had gained five pounds. The more one uses his opportunities for doing good, the more his opportunities will increase.
25 Lord, he has ten pounds; they were surprised that his lord should give the pound to him who had ten already.
27 Slay them before me; a picture of the dire destruction that will come upon the Lord's enemies at His coming.
HIS TRIUMPHAL ENTRY INTO JERUSALEM.

28 And, having said these things, He was journeying on before, going up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass that, as He drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples, 30 saying, “Go your way into the village over against you, in which as ye are entering, ye will find a colt tied, on which no man ever sat; and, having loosed him, bring him. 31 And, if any one ask you, ‘Why do ye loose him?’ thus shall ye say, ‘Because the Lord hath need of him.’” 32 And those sent, having gone away, found even as He said to them. 33 And, as they were loosing the colt, his owners said to them, “Why loose ye the colt?” 34 And they said, “The Lord hath need of him.” 35 And they led him to Jesus; and, having thrown their garments upon the colt, they sat Jesus thereon. 36 And, as He was going forward, they were spreading their garments in the way. 37 And, as He was already drawing nigh to the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples, rejoicing, began to praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they saw; 38 saying, “Blessed is the King Who is coming in the name of the Lord! Peace in Heaven, and glory in the highest!”

39 And some of the Pharisees from the multitude said to Him, “Teacher, rebuke Thy disciples!” 40 And, answering, He said, “I tell you that, if these shall be silent, the stones will cry out!”

41 And, when He came near, seeing the city, He wept over it, 42 saying, “If you knew, in this your day—even you—the things pertaining to peace! but just now were they hid from your eyes! 43 Because the days will come upon you, when your enemies will cast a rampart about you, and compass you round, and hem you in on all sides; 44 and they will dash you to the ground, and your children within you; and shall not leave in you a stone upon a stone; because you knew not the season of your visitation.”

HE CLEANSES THE TEMPLE.

45 And, having entered into the temple, He began to cast out those who sold; 46 saying to them, “It has been written, ‘And My house shall be a house of prayer;’ but ye made it a den of robbers.”

47 And He was teaching daily in the temple; but the high priests and the scribes and the chief men of the people were seeking to destroy Him; 48 and they were not finding anything they could do; for the people were all hanging upon Him, listening.

CHAPTER XX.

BY WHAT AUTHORITY.

1 And it came to pass, on one of the days, as He was teaching the people in the temple, and proclaiming the Gospel, that there came upon Him the high priests and the scribes with the elders, 2 and spake, saying to Him, “Tell us by what authority Thou art doing these things, or who gave Thee this authority?”

3 And, answering, He said to them, “I, to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I am doing these things."

THE VINEYARD AND HUSBANDMEN.

9 And He began to speak to the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen, and went abroad for a long time. 10 And, at the season, he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard; but the husbandmen, beating him, sent him away empty. 11 "And he sent still another servant; and him also, having beaten and dishonored, they sent away empty. 12 "And he sent still a third; and they, having wounded this one, cast him out. 13 "And the lord of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my son, the beloved; perhaps they will reverence him.' 14 "But, seeing him, the husbandmen were reasoning one with another, saying, 'This is the heir; let us kill him, that the inheritance may become ours.' 15 And, having thrust him forth out of the vineyard, they slew him. What, therefore, will the lord of the vineyard do to them? 16 He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and give the vineyard to others." And, having heard it, they said, "May it not be?" 17 And He, looking upon them, said, "What, then, is this that has been written? 'A stone which the builders rejected, the same became a head of the corner.'"

18 "Every one who falls on that stone shall be broken to pieces; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will scatter him as dust!"

19 And the scribes and the high priests sought to lay hands on Him in that very hour; and they feared the people; for they knew that He spake the parable against them.

REGARDING TRIBUTE TO CAESAR.

20 And, watching Him, they sent forth spies, feigning themselves to be righteous, that they might take hold of His speech, so as to deliver Him up to the rule and the authority of the governor. 21 And they asked Him, saying, "Teacher, we know that Thou sayest and teachest righteously, and regardest no person, but teachest the way of God in truth. 22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not?"

23 But, perceiving their craftiness, He said to them, 24 "Show Me a denary. Whose image and inscription has it?" And, answering; they said, "Caesar's." 25 And He said to them, "Then, render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." 26 And they were not able to lay hold of any saying of His before the people; and, marveling at His answer, they were silent.

WHOSE WIFE IN THE RESURRECTION?

27 And some of the Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection, coming near, asked Him, 28 saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, 'If any one's brother die, having a wife, and he be childless, that his brother should take the wife, and raise up seed to his brother.' 29 There were, therefore, seven brothers; and the first, taking a wife, died childless. 30 And the second, and the third, took her; 31 and, in like manner also, the seven left no children, and died. 32 At last the woman also died. 33 In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife of them does the woman become? for the seven had her as wife." 34 And Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage; 35 but those accounted worthy to obtain that age, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage; 36 for neither can they die any more; for they are equal to the angels, and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. 37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the 'Bush,' when he calls the Lord 'The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' 38 Now He is not a God of the dead, but of the living; for all live to Him."

NOTES ON CHAPTER XX.

31 The sons of this age; the men of the world.
35 Equal to the angels; in immortality and bliss. And 38 Not a God of the dead, but of the living; this sweeps away the doctrine of soul-sleepers. For all live to Him; they are dead to us, but alive to God; and He is still their God.
39 And some of the scribes, answering, said, “Teacher, Thou spakest well;” 40 for no longer were they daring to question Him.

DAVID’S SON, AND DAVID’S LORD.

41 And He said to them, “How say they that the Christ is David’s Son? 42 For David himself says in the book of Psalms, ‘The Lord said to my Lord, Sit Thou on My right hand, 43 until I make Thy enemies a footstool of Thy feet.’”

CHAPTER XXI.

THE WIDOW’S MITES.

1 And, looking up, He saw the rich casting their gifts into the treasury. 2 And He saw a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites. 3 And He said, “Truly I say to you, this poor widow cast in more than they all; 4 for all these, out of their superabundance, cast into the gifts; but she, out of her poverty, cast in all the living that she had.”

THE OVERTHROW OF JERUSALEM FORETOLD, AND HIS COMING.

5 And, as some were speaking about the temple, “With what beautiful stones and offerings it has been adorned,” He said, 6 “As to these things which ye are looking upon, the days will come, in which there will not be left here a stone upon a stone, which will not be thrown down.” 7 And they asked Him, saying, “Teacher, when, therefore, will these things be, and what is the sign, when all these things are about to come to pass?”

8 And He said, “Take heed that ye be not led astray; for many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and, ‘The season has drawn near!’” Go not after them. 9 And, when ye hear of wars and tumults, be not terrified; for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not straightway.” 10 Then He said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; 11 and there will be great earthquakes, and, in various places, famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven. 12 And, before all these things, they will lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up into the synagogues and prisons, being brought before kings and governors for My name’s sake. 13 It shall result to you for a testimony. 14 Settle it, therefore, in your hearts, not to meditate beforehand how to make a defense; 15 for I will give you a mouth, and wisdom which all your adversaries shall not be able to withstand or gainsay. 16 But ye will be delivered up even by parents, and brothers, and kindred, and friends; and they will put some of you to death. 17 And ye will be hated by all for My name’s sake. 18 And a hair of your head shall in no wise perish. 19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

5 Beautiful stones; large and beautiful stones. Offerings; donations that had been received and suspended; probably, in different parts of the temple.
11 Fearful sights and great signs; Josephus (Book VI) tells of such sights and signs that were witnessed during the siege of Jerusalem, A. D. 70; but, no doubt, much more fearful sights—because world-wide—will take place during the tribulation. (Rev. chs. 6-11 inclusive; executed from chs. 13-19). That Jerusalem will have a fearful time during the tribulation, (see Zech. 14:1-4).
20 "But when ye see Jerusalem encompassed by armies, then know that her desolation has drawn near. Then let those in Judea flee into the mountains; and let those in the midst of it depart; and let not those in the country enter therein; because these are days of vengeance, that all the things written may be fulfilled. Woe to the women with child, and to those nursing, in those days; for there will be great distress on the land, and wrath to this people. And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led away captive into all the nations; and Jerusalem will be trodden down by gentiles, until the times of the gentiles are fulfilled. And there will be signs in sun, and moon, and stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity for the roaring of the sea and billows; men fainting for fear and for expectation of the things coming upon the inhabited earth; for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. And then will they see the Son of Man coming in a cloud, with power and great glory. And, when these things begin to come to pass, look up, and lift up your heads; because your redemption is drawing near."

1 Gr. Month.

21 By the edge of the sword: it is said that one million and one hundred thousand Jews were killed; and ninety-seven thousand were carried into captivity. Trodden down by gentiles: this has been done by the Romans, Saracens, Mamelukes, Franks, and Turks; the latter having held possession of Palestine for about 1,200 years. The times of the gentiles be fulfilled: the times of gentile domination shall come to an end.

24 Roaring of sea and billows: referring, especially, to the great disturbance of the earth and the heavens during the latter part of the tribulation period.
23 The powers of the heavens: referring, probably, to the sun, moon, and stars.
31-36 Warning to be ready for Christ's coming; Matt. 24:36-51.
35 This verse with Rev. 3:10, suggests in what way one may escape all the tribulation—i.e., by being ready for the rapture.

CHAPTER XXII.
JUDAS AGREEING TO BETRAY JESUS.

1 Now the feast of unleavened bread, which is called the Passover, was drawing near; and the high priests and scribes were seeking how they might put Him to death; for they were fearing the people.
3 And Satan entered into Judas, the one called Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve; 4 and, departing, he con-

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXII.

1 The feast of unleavened bread; the Passover; so called, because, during this feast, they used nothing that had left in it. (Matt. 26:2, 17).
3 Satan entered into Judas; controlling him, and leading him to betray Jesus.

THE BUDGING OF THE FIG TREE.
29 And He spake a parable to them: Behold the fig tree and all the trees; 30 when they now shoot forth, beholding it, ye know of yourselves that already the summer is near. So also ye, when ye see these things coming to pass, know that the Kingdom of God is near. 32 Verily I say to you, this generation will in no wise pass away, till all come to pass. 33 The heaven and the earth will pass away; but My words shall in no wise pass away.

34 "But take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be weighed down with gluttony and drunkenness, and anxieties pertaining to life, and that day come upon you suddenly as a snare; 35 for so it will come upon all those dwelling upon the face of all the earth. But watch ye at every season, praying that ye may have full strength to escape all those things that are about to come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man."

37 And He was, during the days, in the temple, teaching; and, during the nights, going forth, He was wont to lodge in the mount which is called Olives. 38 And all the people were coming to Him early in the morning, in the temple, to hear Him. 4 And they, kept Him up to them. 5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give Him money. 6 And he agreed, and was seeking an opportunity to deliver Him up to them, in the absence of a multitude.

THE LAST SUPPER.
7 And the day of unleavened bread came, on which the passover must be sac-
8 And He sent Peter and John, saying, “Going forth, make ready for us the passover, that we may eat.” 9 And they said to Him, “Where dost Thou wish that we make ready?” 10 And He said to them, “Behold, when ye have entered into the city, there will meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house into which he enters. 11 And ye shall say to the master of the house, ‘The Teacher saith to you, Where is the guest-chamber, where I may eat the passover with My disciples?’ 12 And he will show you a large upper room furnished, there make ready.” 13 And, going away, they found as He had said to them; and they made ready the passover. 14 And, when the hour came, He reclined at table, and His apostles with Him. 15 And He said to them, “With desire I desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer; 16 for I say to you, I will in no wise eat it, until it be fulfilled in the Kingdom of God.”

17 And, having taken a cup, and giving thanks, He said, “Take this, and share it among yourselves; 18 for I say to you, that I will in no wise drink, henceforth, of the product of the vine, until the Kingdom of God shall come.” 19 And, taking bread, and giving thanks, He broke, and gave to them, saying, “This is My body, which is given for you; this do in remembrance of Me.” 20 And the cup, in like manner, after supper, saying “this cup is the new covenant in My blood, which, in your behalf, is being poured out. 21 But, behold, the hand of him who is betraying Me is with Me on the table; 22 because the Son of Man, indeed, is going according as it has been determined; but woe to that man through whom He is betrayed!” 23 And they began to inquire together among themselves, which of them it was, who was about to perpetrate this thing.

24 And there arose also a contention among them as to which of them seemed to be greatest. 25 But He said to them, “The kings of the gentiles exercise lordship over them; and those having authority over them are called ‘Benefactors.’ 26 But ye are not so; but let the greater among you become as the younger, and he who leads as he who serves. 27 For who is greater, he who reclines at table, or he who serves? Is not he who reclines? But I am in the midst of you as One Who serveth. 28 But ye are they who have remained with Me in my temptations; 29 and I appoint to you, as My Father appointed to Me, a Kingdom, 30 that ye may eat and drink at My table in My Kingdom; and ye shall sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 “Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked for you, to sift you as the wheat; 32 but I prayed for you, that your faith fail not; and, when once you have turned again, establish your brethren.”

33 And he said to Him, “Lord, I am ready to go with Thee, both to prison and to death.” 34 And He said, “I tell you, Peter, a cock will not crow to-day, until you thrice deny that you know Me.”

35 And He said to them, “When I sent you forth without purse, and wallet, and sandals, did ye lack anything?” And they 25 Benefactors; an honorary title applied to earthly rulers—especially to the kings of Egypt and Syria.

26-30 The reference here is to His Millennium reign, as, at the same time, they are to sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 Satan asked for you; or claimed you. That he might sift you, as wheat; that through fearful trials he would bring upon him and the other apostles, he might shake their faith in Christ, and lead them to abandon Him.

32 I prayed for you; for Peter especially, though He prayed for them all. Fail not; utterly give way. Having turned again; from his sin of denying his Lord—which Christ foresaw Peter would do.

35 When I sent you; Matt. 10:9, 10. Did ye lack anything? did ye suffer any need? Jesus will still supply the needs of those whom He sends out in His service, if they are faith-said, "Nothing." And He said to them, "But now let him who has a purse take it, and likewise a wallet; and let him who has not a sword sell his garment, and buy one. 37 For I say to you, that that which has been written must be accomplished in Me, 'And He was reckoned with lawless ones;' for that which relates to Me has an end." 38 And they said, "Lord, behold, here are two swords." And He said to them, "It is enough."

THE AGONY IN THE GARDEN.

39 And, going out, He went, according to His custom, to the mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed Him; 40 and, having come to the place, He said to them, "Pray, that ye enter not into temptation." 41 And He was parted from them about a stone's throw; and, kneeling down, He prayed, 42 saying, "Father, if Thou art willing, remove this cup from Me; nevertheless, not My will, but Thine, be done." 43 And there appeared to Him an angel from Heaven, strengthening Him. 44 And, being in an agony, He was praying more earnestly. And His sweat became, as it were, large drops of blood falling down upon the ground! 45 And, arising from prayer, and coming to the disciples, He found them sleeping for grief, 46 and said to them, "Why are ye sleeping? Rising up, pray, that ye enter not into temptation."

47 While He was yet speaking, behold, a multitude, and he who is called Judas, one of the twelve, was coming before them; and he drew near to Jesus to kiss Him. 48 And Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

49 And those about Him, seeing what was about to follow, said, "'Lord, shall we smite with the sword?' 50 And a certain one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and struck off his right ear.

51 But Jesus, answering, said, "Suffer ye thus far." And, touching the ear, He healed him.

52 And Jesus said to the high priests and captains of the temple and elders, who came up against Him, "Did ye come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? 53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched not forth your hands against Me; but this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

PETER'S DENIAL.

54 And, seizing Him, they led Him away, and brought Him into the house of the high priest. But Peter was following afar off.

55 And, they having kindled a fire in the midst of the court, and having sat down together, Peter was sitting in the midst of them. 56 And a certain maid, seeing him sitting by the light, and looking intently at him, said, "This man also was with Him." 57 But he denied, saying, "I do not know Him, woman." 58 And, after a little while, another, seeing him, said, "You also are one of them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not." 59 And, about one hour having intervened, a certain other was confidently insisting, saying, "Of a truth this one also was with Him; for he also is a Galilæan." 60 But Peter said, "Man, I know not what you are saying," And immediately, while he was yet speaking, a cock crowed. 61 And, turning, the Lord looked upon Peter; and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He said to him, "Before a cock shall crow today, you will thrice deny Me." 62 And, going forth without, he wept bitterly.

JESUS IS MOCKED, AND TAKEN BEFORE THE JEWISH COUNCIL.

63 And the men who were holding Jesus were mocking Him, beating Him; 64 and, blindfolding Him, they were ques-

66 And, when it was day, the eldership of the people was gathered together, both high priests and scribes; and they led Him away into their Sanhedrin, saying, 67 "If Thou art the Christ, tell us." But He said to them, "If I tell you, ye will not believe. 68 And, if I question you, ye will not answer. 69 But henceforth the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."

CHAPTER XXIII.

JESUS BEFORE PILATE AND HEROD.

1 And the whole multitude of them, rising up, led Him before Pilate. 2 And they began to accuse Him, saying, "We found This Man perverting our nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, and saying that He Himself is Christ a King!" 3 And Pilate asked Him, saying, "Art Thou the King of the Jews?" And He answered, said to him, "You say it." 4 And Pilate said to the high priests and to the multitudes, "I find no fault in This Man." 5 But they were the more urgent, saying, "He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout the whole of Judea, and beginning from Galilee even to this place." 6 But Pilate, hearing it, asked if the Man were a Galilean. 7 And, learning that He was of Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him up to Herod, who also was in Jerusalem in these days.

8 Now Herod, seeing Jesus, rejoiced exceedingly; for he was wishing for a long time to see Him, because he had heard concerning Him; and he was hoping to see some sign wrought by Him. 9 And he kept questioning Him in many words; but He answered him nothing.

10 And the high priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing Him. 11 And Herod with his soldiers, having set Him at naught, and having mocked Him, having thrown over Him a gorgeous robe, sent Him back to Pilate. 12 And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other on that day; for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate, calling together the high priests and the rulers and the people, 14 said to them, "Ye brought to me This Man as One perverting the people; and, behold, I, having examined Him before you, found no fault in This Man regarding those things of which ye accuse Him; 15 no, nor yet Herod; for he sent Him back to us; and, behold, nothing worthy of death has been done by Him. 16 Chastising Him, therefore, I will release Him." 17 But they cried out again with all the multitude, saying, "Away with Him! and release to us Barabbas."—19 one who, indeed, because of a certain insurrection made in the city, and of murder, was cast into prison.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXIII.

1-5 Christ brought before Pilate; Matt. 27:1. 2. 11-18.
2 Perverting our nation; note the artfulness of the expression our nation, as if they were very loyal to the Roman government! They charge that He was trying to subvert Roman authority, and to prevent the people paying tribute to Cæsar.
3 You say it; Jesus owned that He was King of the Jews, but He explained to Pilate that His Kingdom was not a visible, worldly institution; and Pilate saw nothing in the charges made against Jesus by the Jews. See John 18:36. 37.
5 He stirreth up the people; exciting them to tumults. This was probably said to establish the charge of perverting the nation. (v. 2).
7 He sent Him to Herod; Pilate sought to get rid of the responsibility, by turning over the case to Herod. This was the Herod that had John beheaded.
11 Set Him at naught; heaping contempt upon Him.
12 Herod and Pilate became friends; through the courtesy shown to each other in the trial of Jesus, they became friends. The Devil's people can unite against Christ and His people, when there is any prospect of doing them harm.
15 Pilate seems disposed to vindicate Jesus from all guilt, and uses the fact that Herod sent Jesus back to him, as a proof that Herod acquitted Him.
16 Chastising Him; scourging, or whipping Him. I will release Him; why should Pilate propose to whip Jesus, if he believed Him innocent? Possibly, he thought that whipping Jesus might appease the anger of the Jews.

*Some MSS. insert v. 17: Now he must needs release one person to them at the feast.
20 And again Pilate called to them, wishing to release Jesus. 21 But they kept calling out, saying, “Crucify, crucify Him!” 22 But he said to them the third time, “Why, what evil did This Man do? I found in Him nothing worthy of death. Chastising Him, therefore, I will release Him.”

23 But they were urgent, with loud voices, asking that He might be crucified. And their voices prevailed. 24 And Pilate gave judgment that their request should be executed; 25 and he released him who, because of insurrection and murder, had been cast into prison, for whom they were asking; but he delivered up Jesus to their will.

THE CRUCIFIXION.

26 And, when they led Him away, laying hold of one Simon a Cyrenian, coming from the country, they laid on him the cross, to bear it after Jesus.

27 And there was following Him a great multitude of people, and of women, who bewailed and lamented Him. 28 But, turning towards them, Jesus said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for Me; but weep for yourselves, and for your children; 29 for, behold, the days are coming in which they will say, ‘Happy the barren, and the wombs which bore not, and breasts that gave not suck.’ 30 Then will they begin to say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us;’ and to the hills, ‘Cover us;’ 31 for, if they do these things in the green tree, what shall be done in the dry?”

32 And there were being led two others also, malefactors, with Him to be put to death.

33 And, when they came to the place that is called “The Skull,” there they crucified Him, and the malefactors: one on the right hand, and the other on the left. 34 And Jesus said, “Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do!” And, dividing His garments among them, they cast lots. 35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also were scoffing at Him, saying, “He saved others; let Him save Himself if This is the Christ of God, the Chosen!” 36 And the soldiers also were mocking Him, coming near, and offering Him vinegar, 37 and saying, “If Thou art the King of the Jews, save Thyself!” 38 And there was also an inscription over Him, “THE KING OF THE JEWS, THIS!” 39 And one of the suspended malefactors kept reviling Him, saying, “Art not Thou the Christ? Save Thyself and us!” 40 But the other, answering and rebuking him, said, “Do you not fear God, seeing that you are in the same condemnation? 41 and we, indeed, righteously; for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but This Man did nothing amiss.” 42 And he said, “Jesus, remember me, when Thou comest in Thy Kingdom.” 43 And He said to him, “Verily I say to you, ‘To-day you shall be with Me in Paradise.’”

44 And it was already about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land till the ninth hour, 45 the sun’s light failing. And the veil of the temple was rent in the midst. 46 And, crying with a loud voice, Jesus said, “Father, into Thy hands I commit My spirit.” And, having said this, He expired. 47 And the centurion, beholding what took place, glorified God, saying, “Truly This was a righteous Man!”

48 And all the multitudes, coming together to this sight, viewing the things that took place, were returning, smiting their breasts. 49 And all those acquainted with Him stood afar off, and the women who followed with Him from Galilee, seeing these things.
HIS BURIAL.

50 And, behold, a man, Joseph by name, who was a councillor, a good and righteous man 51 (the same had not consented to their plan and deed), from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who was waiting for the Kingdom of God: 52 the same, going to Pilate, asked for the body of Jesus. 53 And, taking it down, he wrapped it in fine linen, and placed Him in a tomb, hewn in a stone, where no one was yet laid. 54 And it was a day of Preparation, and a sabbath was approaching. 55 And the women who had accompanied Him out of Galilee, following after, beheld the tomb, and how His body was laid. 56 And, returning, they prepared spices and perfumes; and, on the sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

50-56 Christ's burial; Matt. 27:57-60.
50, 51 A councillor; a member of the Jewish council. Had not consented to their plan and deed; in condemning Jesus to death, and killing Him. Who was waiting for the Kingdom of God; the reign of Christ Jesus as Messiah.

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE RESURRECTION.

1 But, on the first day of the sabbaths,¹ at early dawn, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they prepared. 2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb; 3 and, entering, they found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, while they were perplexed about this, behold, also two men stood near them in dazzling apparel. 5 And, as they became afraid, and were bowing their faces to the earth, they said to them, "Why are ye seeking the Living among the dead? 6 He is not here, but was raised. Remember how He spake to you, being yet in Galilee, 7 saying, 'The Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.'" 8 And they remembered His words; 9 and, returning from the tomb, they reported all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. 10 Now they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James; and the rest of the women with them were telling these things to the apostles. 11 And these words appeared in their view as idle talk; and they were disbelieving them. 12 But Peter, rising up, ran to the tomb; and, stooping down to look in, he sees the linen bandages alone, and he departed to his home, wondering at what had happened.

13 And, behold, two of them that very day were journeying to a village, the name of which was Emmaus, distant sixty furlongs from Jerusalem. 14 And they were conversing with each other concerning all these things that had happened. 15 And it came to pass, while they were conversing and reasoning together, that Jesus Himself, drawing near, was journeying with them; 16 but their eyes were holden that they should not recognize Him.

17 And He said to them, "What words are these which ye are exchanging one with another, as ye walk?" And they stood still, with sad faces. 18 And one of them, Cleopas by name, said to Him, "Art Thou only a Stranger in Jerusalem, and knowest not the things that came to pass there in these days?" 19 And He said to them, "What things?" And they said to Him, "The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene, who was a Prophet, mighty in deed and word, before God and all the people; 20 and how the high priests and our rulers delivered Him up to the sentence of death, and crucified Him. 21 But we were hoping that it was He Who was about to redeem Israel; yea, indeed, and besides all these things, it is now the third day since these things came to pass. 22 Moreover, also, certain women of our company astonished us, having been early.

at the tomb: 23 and, not finding His body, they came, saying that they had seen a vision of angels, who said that He was alive! 24 And some of those with us went away to the tomb, and found it even so as the women said; but Him they saw not.

25 And He said to them, "O inconsiderate and slow in heart to believe in all that the prophets spake! 26 Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things, and enter into His glory?"

27 And, beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, He thoroughly interpreted to them, in all the Scriptures, the things concerning Himself.

28 And they drew near to the village whither they were going; and He acted as if He would go further. 29 And they constrained Him, saying, "Abide with us; because it is toward evening, and the day has already declined." And He went in to abide with them. 30 And it came to pass, as He was reclining at table with them, that, taking the bread, He blessed it; and, breaking, He was giving to them; 31 and their eyes were opened, and they clearly recognized Him; and He vanished from them.

32 And they said one to another, "Was not our heart burning within us, as He was talking with us in the way, as He was opening the Scriptures to us?"

33 And, rising up that same hour, they returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven gathered together, and those 32 Inconsiderate and slow in heart; the disciples seem to have been culpably indisposed to believe that Christ was to die, and not, for the present, to build up a visible Kingdom. Preconceived notions, tenaciously held, are great barriers to the entrance of truth.

33 Was it not necessary; the plan of redemption contemplated nothing less than the vicarious sufferings of Jesus; hence, His death was necessary to the execution of this plan. See Dan. 9:26; Isai. 53:4-10.

34 Beginning from Moses; or with the books Moses wrote—meaning the Pentateuch, or first five books of the Old Testament. The things concerning Himself; See Gen. 3:15; 4:10; Num. 21:8, 9; Deut. 18:15, 18, 19; Isai. 9:6, 7; 33:1-13 etc.

35 He acted as if; seemed disposed to go on, till invited to stop with them.

36 Constrained Him; by their earnest entreaties. Jesus does not force Himself upon His disciples, compelling them to entertain Him, but He requires, as the condition of His entering, that we shall open the door. (Rev. 3:20).

37 Blessed it; asked the blessing of His Father upon it, and gave thanks for it.

38 Their eyes were opened; the difficulties in the way of their recognizing Him were removed.

39 saying, "Truly the Lord arose, and appeared to Simon." 35 And they were narrating the things that transpired in the way, and how He was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

36 Now, as they were telling these things, He Himself stood in the midst of them, and saith to them, "Peace be to you!" 37 But, being terrified and frightened, they were supposing that they were beholding a spirit. 38 And He said to them, "Why are ye troubled? and wherefore do questionings arise in your heart? 39 See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself; handle Me, and see; because a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as ye behold Me having." 40 And, saying this, He showed them His hands and His feet. 41 And, while they still disbelieved for joy, and marvelled, He said to them, "Have ye here anything to eat?" 42 And they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish; 43 and, taking it, He ate before them.

44 And He said to them, "These are My words which I spake to you, while being yet with you: that all things must be fulfilled, that have been written in the law of Moses, and the prophets, and the Psalms, concerning Me." 45 Then He opened their mind, that they might understand the Scriptures; 46 and He said to them, "Thus it has been written, that the Christ should suffer, and rise from the dead on the third day, 47 and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. 48 Ye are witnesses of these things. 49 And, behold, I send forth the promise of My Father upon you; but abide ye in the city, until ye be clothed with power from on high."

"From Jerusalem; the place where He was crucified, and the home of His worst enemies. They were to have another chance.

The promise of My Father: His promise to give them the Holy Spirit. Joel 2:28, 29; Acts 2:16,21. As the apostles and early preachers were not prepared to preach the Gospel effectively until they had received the Gift of the Holy Spirit; so is it now. No amount of learning is any substitute for the Holy Spirit. Hence, every preacher should tarry, until, through the infilling Spirit, he is clothed with power from on high, (Acts 1:8).

Continually in the temple; till the day of Pentecost, when the promise in verse 49 was fulfilled to the apostles and disciples. Every Christian should have his own Pentecost."

John's Gospel has much more to say about the divinity of Jesus than all the other three Gospels. John was one of the three apostles who made up the "cabinet" of Jesus; Peter and James being the other two. These three witnessed the raising of Jairus' daughter, (Mark 5:37); the transfiguration, (Matt. 17:1); and the agony in the garden, (Matt. 26:37). John is frequently called "the disciple whom Jesus loved." He occupied the place next to Jesus at the last passover. (John 13:23).

John's Gospel comes last in the list, and was probably written after the destruction of Jerusalem. His Gospel has comparatively little in common with the other Gospels. Matthew, Mark, and Luke, were more concerned about the ministry of Jesus in Galilee; while John had more to do with that in and near Jerusalem.

The chief characteristic of John's Gospel is seen in the fact that he gives a much fuller account of the discourses of Jesus in which He unfolds His Own divine person and office, together with the great possibility, on the part of the believer, of being indwelt by the Spirit, Son, and Father. (John 14:14; 15:20, 21; 12:16; 17:23, 26); in other words, John dwells more on the subjective knowledge of God, while the other evangelists deal with the objective knowledge of Him. This difference is radical, as it has to do with the highest development of Christian character. The others were concerned chiefly about salvation; but John, about the more abundant life.

CHAPTER I.

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made through Him, and apart from Him was not even one thing made that has been made. 4 In Him was Life; and the Life was the light of men. 5 And the light shines in the darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. 7 The same came for a testimony, that he might testify concerning the Light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the Light; but he came, that he might testify concerning the Light. 9 He was the true Light That lighteth every man coming into the world. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world knew Him not. 11 He came to His own possessions, and those who were His own received Him not. 12 But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those believing in His name; 13 who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh, and tabernacled among us, (and we beheld His glory—glory as of the Only Begotten from 1 Or came into being.

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 In the beginning: at the beginning of creation. The Word was God; this asserts essential deity of Jesus; Who, as to His divinity, existed from eternity. (John 17:5; 11 Cor. 8:9; Col. 1:17). The Word: an appellation of Jesus Christ. A word is the sign or representative of an idea, or of a fact; and so Christ the Word is an expression of the Father's thought of mercy to our sinful race, and, taken in connection with what Christ has done for us, 'He is the execution of the Father's mercy. All things were made through Him; all things were brought into being through Him. All things outside of God himself must trace their being, or existence, to Him. (Col. 1:16; Heb. 1:2).

4 In Him was Life: He is the Source of all natural and spiritual life. Angels, men, and all animate and inanimate existences sprang from Him. Christ is our spiritual Life. (John 11:6; Col. 3:4).

5 Light in darkness: the darkness and ignorance of the Jews prevented them from seeing the Light—Christ.

6 John; the Immerser; Matt. 3:1. 7 The Light: the Messiah. Through him: through the testimony of John.

8 Was not the Light; John was "a burning and a shining Light," (ch. 5:35), but his light was only a reflection of the Light—Jesus.

10 Knew Him not: the Jews, generally, had no real knowledge of Christ, or of His mission to earth.

12 The right: the privilege. Children of God; the reception of Christ as one's Saviour makes one a babe in Christ. (1 Cor. 3:1-3, 11); with the privilege of sonship. (Rom. 8:15); of full manhood, (Col. 4:13, 15); and of partaking of God's holiness and nature. (Heb. 12:10; 11 Peter 1:4).

14 Were born...of God; the Holy Spirit is the Agent of the new birth, in which He plants the life of Christ in the penitent believer.

11 Became flesh: put on a human body, and became a human being. (Isa. 9:6).
the Father), full of grace and truth. 15 John testifies concerning Him, and has cried, saying, “This was He of Whom I said, ‘He that cometh after me shall be greater than I, because He was before me; because I am of Him and not of myself;’ because out of His fulness we all received, and grace for grace: 17 because the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, * Who is in the bosom of the Father, He declared Him.

19 And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent forth priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him, “Who are you?” 20 And he confessed, and denied not; and he confessed, “I am not the Christ.” 21 And they asked him, “What then? Are you Elijah?” And he says, “I am not.” “Are you the prophet?” And he answered, “No.” 22 They said therefore, to him, “Who are you? that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say concerning yourself?” 23 He said, “I am a voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord,” as said Isaiah the prophet. 24 And they had been sent from among the Pharisees. 25 And they asked him, and said to him, “Why, then, do you immerse, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?” 26 John answered them, saying, “I immerse in water: in your midst standeth One Whom ye know not— 27 the One coming after me, the latchet of Whose sandal I am not worthy to unloose.” 28

These things were done in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was immersing.

29 On the morrow he sees Jesus coming to him, and he says, “Behold, the Lamb of God Who taketh away the sin of the world!” 30 This is He of Whom I said, “After me cometh a Man Who hath become before me, because He was before me.” 31 And I knew Him not; but, that He might be manifested to Israel, for this cause I came immersing in water.” 32 And John testified, saying, “I have beheld the Spirit descending as a dove out of Heaven, and He abode upon Him. 33 And I knew Him not; but He who sent me to immerse in water, He said to me, ‘Upon Whomsoever you shall see the Spirit descending and abiding on Him, the Same is He Who immerseth in the Holy Spirit.’ 34 And I have seen, and have testified, that This is the Son of God.”

THE FIRST Disciples of Jesus.

35 Again, on the morrow, John was standing, and two of his disciples; 36 and, looking upon Jesus as He was walking, says, “Behold, the Lamb of God!” 37 And the two disciples heard him speaking, and they followed Jesus. 38 And Jesus, turning and beholding them following, saith to them, “What are ye seeking?” They said to Him, “Rabbi,” (which, being translated, means Teacher), “where abidest Thou?” 39 He saith to them, “Come and ye shall see.” They came, therefore, and saw where He was abiding, and they abode with Him that day: it was about the tenth hour. 40 Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard it from his Antitype in Jesus Christ. Who taketh away the sin of the world: Isa. 53:4-7. 10. 12; II Cor. 5:11, 21; I Peter 2:23, 3:18; Gal. 3:13. Christ exalted human guilt by His Own vicarious, or substitutionary, death on the cross. The atonement is one of the results of His death; and propitiation is a consequence of it.

31 That He might be manifested to Israel: John's ministry had as its special end the manifestation of Jesus to the Jews, and to prepare a people to receive Him.

32 I knew Him not: as John was akinsman of Jesus, and they lived at no great distance apart, it is likely that they knew each other: but, if so, John here means that he did not know Jesus as the Messiah, until His immersion, and the descent of the Spirit upon Him. Immerseth in the Holy Spirit; Jesus Christ, by His death, put away sin, and made it possible for the Spirit to dwell with men. Those who repent and accept Christ as their Saviour and their Life, may come into the glorious experience of being immersed in the Holy Spirit.

39 The tenth hour: or four o'clock in the afternoon.

28 Gr. First in regard to me. 3 Came into being. * Many MSS. read, God only begotten.

15 He was before me: because He existed from all eternity.

16 Grace for grace: grace following grace; until, in the Gospel, we have abounding grace.

17 The law was given through Moses; Moses was God's scribe in giving the law. The law was given to convince of sin, (Rom. 3:20; Gal. 3:19). Grace and truth came through Jesus Christ; Christ is the essence of divine Truth and of the Gospel of salvation.

18 Declared Him; Jesus Christ hath declared the Father to the world, (see John 14:9. 10).

21 Elijah; Mal. 4:5; Matt. 11:14. Are you the prophet?: alluding, likely, to the prophet that Moses spake of, (Deut. 18:15. 18. 19).

23 A voice; Matt. 3:3.

26 I immerse in water; it was one part of John's business to immerse, or bury in water, those who gave proof of true repentance. (Matt. 3:9).

29 Beyond the Jordan; on the east side of it.

The Lamb of God; the sin-offering of the law found...
John, and followed Him. 41 He first finds his own brother Simon, and says to him, "We have found the Messiah." (which, being translated, is Christ). 42 He led him to Jesus. Jesus looking on him, said, "You are Simon, the son of John; you shall be called Cephas." (which is translated Peter).

43 On the morrow, He wished to go forth into Galilee; and He findeth Philip, and saith to him, "Follow Me." 44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip finds Nathanael, and says to him, "We have found Him of whom Moses in the law and the prophets wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of Joseph." 46 And Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip says to him, "Come and see." 47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him, and He saith to him, "Behold, an Israelite, indeed, in whom there is no guile!" 48 Nathanael says to Him, "Whence knowest Thou me?" Jesus answered, and said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you." 49 Nathaniel answered Him, "Rabbi, Thou art the Son of God; Thou art the King of Israel." 50 Jesus answered, and said to him, "Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You shall see greater things than these." 51 And He saith to him, "Verily, verily, I say to you, ye shall see Heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

CHAPTER II.

1 And, on the third day, there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there. 2 And Jesus also was invited, and His disciples, to the marriage. 3 And, wine having fallen short, the mother of Jesus says to Him, "They have no wine." 4 And He saith to her, "Woman, what is it to Me and to you? My hour has not yet come." 5 His mother says to the servants, "Whatsoever He saith to you, do." 6 Now there were set there six waterpots of stone, according to the Jews’ manner of purifying, containing, each, two or three firkins. 7 Jesus saith to them, "Fill the waterpots with water." And they filled them up to the brim. 8 And He saith to them, "Draw out now, and bear to the ruler of the feast." And they bore it. 9 When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast calls the bridegroom, 10 and says to him, "Every man sets on the good wine first; and, when they become drunken, the worse. You have kept the good wine until now!" 11 This beginning of His signs Jesus wrought in Cana of Galilee, and manifested His glory; and His disciples believed on Him.

12 After this He went down to Capernaum, Himself, and His mother, and brothers, and His disciples; and there they abode not many days.

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

1 On the third day; after the facts stated in the previous chapter. Cana; a town west of the sea of Galilee, and a few miles north of Nazareth.

3 They have no wine; the supply of wine was exhausted, and it seems that His mother had an impression that Jesus was to supply the deficiency.

4 What is it to Me and to you?; we are guests, and guests are not expected to supply the things needed at a feast.

6 Six waterpots; such vessels were needed in the matter of purifying themselves. A firkin; nearly nine gallons.

10 First sets on the good wine; this was a Jewish custom. When they become drunken; when they were measurably intoxicated, which the word "drunken" clearly signifies.

11 Manifested His glory; showed His divine power. Had Jesus been less than divine, He would have had no glory to display.
13 And the passover of the Jews was near; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 And He found in the temple those selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting. 15 And, having made a scourge of cords, He drove all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and He poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; 16 and to those selling doves, He said, "Take these things hence! make not My Father's house a house of merchandise!" 17 His disciples remembered that He had been written, "Zeal for Thy house will eat Me up."

18 The Jews, therefore, answered and said to Him, "What sign dost Thou show to us, seeing that Thou dost these things?" 19 Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." 20 The Jews, therefore, said, "In forty-six years this temple was built, and wilt Thou raise it up in three days?" 21 But He was speaking about the temple of His body. 22 When, therefore, He was raised from the dead, His disciples remembered that He said this; and they believed the Scripture, and the word that Jesus spake.

23 And, when He was in Jerusalem at the passover, during the feast, many believed on His name, beholding His signs which He was doing. 24 But Jesus did not trust Himself to them, because He knew all men, 25 and had no need that any one should testify concerning man; for He Himself knew what was in man.

15 Drove all out of the temple; this seems to apply to the sheep and oxen.
17 It had been written; Ps. 69:9.
18 What sign dost Thou show; what canst Thou produce, to justify such conduct?

CHAPTER III.

1 Now there was a man of the Pharisees, whose name was Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. 2 This man came to Jesus by night, and said to Him, "Rabbi, we know that Thou hast come, as a Teacher, from God; for no one can do the signs which Thou art doing, unless God be with Him." 3 Jesus answered, and said to him, "Verily, verily, I say to you, unless one be born anew, he cannot see the Kingdom of God." 4 Nicodemus says to Him,

1 Gr. From above.

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

1 A ruler; a member of the Sanhedrin.
2 Nicodemus was fully convinced that God was back of Jesus; but he had no such thought as that Jesus was essential deity.
3 Born anew; born from above. The new birth is supernatural, and involves one of the greatest mysteries viz., the impartation of a new nature.
4 How can a man be born when he is old; this question shows that Nicodemus wholly misunderstood the subject that Jesus had introduced.
5 Born of water and of the Spirit; the birth that Jesus introduced in v. 3 is the same as that which He now attempts to explain. Water; not referring to immersion, but "the fountain opened in the house of David," or God's system of cleansing as taught in His word, which is the instrument and the Holy Spirit is the Agent of the new birth. The Spirit, using the word, convicts of sin; and, as the student repents of his sins, and accepts Christ as His Savior, the Holy Spirit effects the new birth, or imparts the Christ-life to him.

6 The natural birth gives one a physical nature, and the new birth a spiritual nature. (Ezek. 36:26.) This new spirit, or new nature, is called "the new man," (Eph. 4:24), or "the spiritual man."

8 Both Rotherham and Young in their translations of this verse, render the Greek pneuma, Spirit, which seems to be proper, if not necessary, as referring to the Agent of the new birth in vs. 5 and 6. If the Holy Spirit had wished to introduce wind into the text, anemos was the word to use. Verse 8 is just the experience that every truly converted person presumably has. The Holy Spirit breathes upon the sinner, and awakens in him a sense of his sins. Then, as the penitent looks to Christ, the Spirit breathes into him a spiritual life; and he becomes a new creature in Christ Jesus.
Spirit." 9 Nicodemus answered, and said to Him, "How can these things be!" 10 Jesus answered, and said to him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and understand not these things? 11 Verily, verily, I say to you, We speak that which We know, and testify to that which We have seen; and ye receive not Our testimony. 12 If I told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how will ye believe, if I tell you Heavenly things? 13 And no one has ascended into Heaven, but He Who descended out of Heaven—the Son of Man [Who is in Heaven]." 14 And, as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up; 15 that every one who believes in Him may have eternal life. 16 For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that every one who believes on Him should not perish, but have eternal life; 17 for God sent not His Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world may be saved through Him. 18 He that believes on Him is not judged; he that believes not has been judged already, because he has not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the judgment, that the Light hath come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the Light; for their works were evil. 20 For every one that practices evil hates the Light, and comes not to the Light, lest his works should be reproved; 21 but he that does the truth comes to the Light, that his works may be made manifest, that they have been wrought in God."

JOHN'S FURTHER TESTIMONY TO JESUS.

22 After these things came Jesus and His disciples into the land of Judea; and there He was tarrying with them, and immersing. 23 And John also was immersing in Ænon near Salim, because there was much water there; and they were coming and being immersed. 24 For John had not yet been cast into prison. 25 There arose, therefore, a question, on the part of John's disciples with a Jew, about purification. 26 And they came to John, and said to him, "Rabbi, He Who was with you beyond the Jordan, to Whom you have borne testimony, behold, He is immersing, and all are coming to Him." 27 John answered and said, "A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given to him from Heaven. 28 Ye yourselves bear me testimony, that I said, 'I am not the Christ, but that I have been sent before Him.' 29 He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom who stands and hears him, greatly rejoices because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy, therefore, has been made full. 30 He must increase, but I must decrease. 31 He That cometh from above is above all; he that is of the earth is of the earth, and speaks of the earth; He that cometh from Heaven is above all. 32 What He hath seen, and what He heard of this He saw, he testifies; and his testimony is true, and he knows that he testifies to truth. 33 He that received His testimony hath believed in Him, who is true; and he that has not believed is convicted that he is a liar, because he has not believed in that which God has testified of His Son. 34 And the testimony is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. 35 And the true testimony is this, that God has enlightened us, that we may know the true God, and the true way."

bears testimony; and no man receives His testimony. 33 He that received His testimony did set his seal to it, that God is true. 34 For He Whom God sent speaketh the words of God; for He giveth not the Spirit by measure. 35 The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into His hand. 36 He that believes on the Son has eternal life; but he that disbelieves the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him."

CHAPTER IV.

1 When, therefore, the Lord knew that the Pharisees heard that Jesus was making and immersing more disciples than John 2 (although Jesus Himself did not immerse, but His disciples), 3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee. 4 And it was necessary that He should go through Samaria. 5 He cometh, therefore, to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near to the piece of land that Jacob gave to his son Joseph; 6 and Jacob's well was there. Jesus, therefore, being wearied with His journey, was sitting thus at the well. It was about the sixth hour. 7 There comes a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus saith to her, "Give Me to drink." 8 For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy bread. 9 The Samaritan woman, therefore, says to Him, "How is it that Thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans). 10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the Gift of God, and Who it is, Thatsaith to you 'Give Me to drink,' you would have asked of Him, and He would have given you living water." 11 She says to Him, "Sir, Thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Whence, therefore, hast Thou the living water? 12 Art Thou greater than our Father Jacob, who gave us the well, and himself drank of it, and his sons, and his cattle?" 13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Every one who drinks of this water will thirst again; 14 but whosoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up into eternal life." 15 The woman saith to Him, "Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, neither come all the way hither to draw." 16 He saith to her, "Go, call your husband, and come hither." 17 The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus saith to her, "Well did you say, 'I have no husband;' 18 for you have had five husbands, and he whom you now have is not your husband: this you have said truly." 19 The woman says to Him, "Sir, I perceive that Thou art a Prophet. 20 Our fathers worshiped in this mountain; and ye say that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship." 21 Jesus saith to her, "Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when ye will, neither in this

1 The Pharisees were growing more bitter against Jesus, and His growing popularity was likely to increase it; hence, for the present, Jesus left them. 4 Necessary; in the execution of His earthly program, He had laid out his program, and He must execute it. 5 Sychar; in the Old Testament it was Shechem, (Gen. 33:18). It is now called Naplous, and is situated a few miles south-east of the city of Samaria. Jacob gave his son Joseph; Gen. 48:22. 9 No dealings; no business or social intercourse. 10 The Gift of God; Jesus Christ. (ch. 3:10). He who receives this Gift in unbelief has the Source of countless blessings in himself. Living Water; the Holy Spirit Who brings Christ to dwell in the heart, and to overflow one's whole being. (ch. 7:38, 39). 14 Shall never thirst; shall thirst no more for the sinful pleasures of this world. Shall become in him a well of water springing up into eternal life; whosoever receives this living water, and cherishes the wonderful gift, will find that it will become as a mighty up-gushing well of water in him. Has this well been opened up in you? If not, let nothing cheat you out of it. (see John 7:38; 14:15, 17; Luke 11:13; 21:38; Acts 1:8; 2:4; Eph. 5:18, etc.). Those who wish to be what God wishes to make them must live the Spirit-filled life. 15 Call your husband; if the woman had drawn back here, she would never have had the honor of proclaiming the Messiah to her townsmen. When one begins to confess his sins, his prospects begin to brighten. 18, 19. The disclosure of His knowledge of her past and present life inspired in her the belief that He was a prophet. 23 This mountain; mount Gerizim, only a short distance from where they were standing. She sought to have Jesus settle the disputed question between the Jews and Samaritans, as to the proper place to worship. 21 Neither in this mountain; neither here, nor in Jerusalem. After Christ's suffering should be made, and sin should be put away, every true believer could worship God anywhere he might be.
mountain nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father. 22 Ye worship ye know not what; we know what we worship, because salvation is from the Jews. 23 But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for, indeed, the Father seeketh such to be His worshipers. 24 God is a spirit; and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.”

The woman says to Him, “I know that Messiah is coming, Who is called Christ; when He cometh, He will tell us all things.” 26 Jesus saith to her, “I who speak to you am He.”

27 And upon this came His disciples; and they were wondering that He was talking with a woman; yet no one said, “What seest Thou?” or, “Why talkest Thou with her?” 28 The woman, therefore, left her water-jar, and went away into the city, and saith to the men, “Come, see a Man Who told me all things that I ever did: can This be the Christ?” 29 They went forth out of the city, and were coming to Him. 30 In the meantime the disciples were entreating Him, saying, “Rabbi, eat.” 32 But He said to them, “I have food to eat that ye know not of.”

33 The disciples, therefore, said to one another, “Has any one brought Him anything to eat?” 34 Jesus saith to them, “My food is to do the will of Him Who sent Me, and to finish His work.” 35 Say not ye, “There are yet four months, and the harvest is coming?” Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes, and view the fields, because they are white for harvest. 36 He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit unto life eternal; that both he that sows and he that reaps may rejoice together. 37 For in this is the saying true, ‘One sows, and another reaps.’ 38 I sent you to reap that on which ye bestowed no labor; others have labored, and ye entered into their labor.”

39 And many of the Samaritans from that city believed on Him because of the word of the woman, who testified, “He told me all that ever I did.” 40 When, therefore, the Samaritans came to Him, they kept asking Him to abide with them; and He abode there two days. 41 And many more believed because of His word: 42 and they said to the woman, “Now we no longer believe because of your saying; for we ourselves have heard, and know that This is, in truth, the Savior of the world.”

43 And, after the two days, He went forth thence into Galilee; 44 for Jesus Himself testified, that a prophet has no honor in his own country. 45 When, therefore, He came into Galilee, the Galileans received Him, having seen all that He did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they also went to the feast.

46 He came, therefore, again into Cana of Galilee, where He made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum. 47 This man, having heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, went to Him, and was asking Him, that He would come down, and heal his son, for he was about to die. 48 Jesus, therefore, said to him, “Unless ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.”

49 The nobleman says to Him, “Sir, come unto me, and he that sows shall reap. 50 I sent you to reap that on which ye bestowed no labor; others have labored, and ye entered into their labor.”

We know what we worship; God had given the Jews a form of worship, and a revelation of His will; all of which, however, pointed to Christ as the sin-offering; and, until this sin-offering should be made, Jerusalem was still the place to worship. The Samaritans accepted nothing but the five books of Moses, and had no divine warrant to establish a rival worship on mount Gerizim. Having rejected the prophets, the Samaritans adopted many superstitions. Salvation is of the Jews; because the Messiah was to come from them.

Will worship the Father in spirit and truth; will drop all forms of superstition, and worship according to the simple principles laid down in the Gospel.

I am He; this is a plain declaration of His Messiahship—which He kept back from the Pharisees till His trial.

Left her water-jar; she had found a treasure of such great value, that she, for the time at least, forgot her regular work.

Say not ye; when ye sow seed in the ground. Four months; the usual period between sowing and reaping.

View the fields; see the vast crowds of Samaritans, coming to hear the Gospel; and consider the vast millions all over the earth—what a vast harvest field!

He who sows, and he who reaps; Jesus and the prophets before Him had sowed the seed; and now it remained for His disciples to gather the harvest. Lord, send more and better reapers!

They kept asking Him to abide with them; how sensible and wise a thing to do. Now Jesus wishes not only to abide with His people, but in them!

Many more believed; it is much more conducive to faith, to see and talk with Jesus, than it is to hear others tell about Him.

No honor in his own country; a proposition generally true, but especially true of Jesus, (see Matt. 13:51-58).

down, before my child die!" 50 Jesus saith to him, "Go your way; your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spake to him, and went his way. 51 And, as he was now going down, his servants met him, saying, that his son was living. 52 He inquired of them, therefore, the hour when he began to amend. They said, therefore, to him, "Yesterday, at the seventh hour, the fever left him." 53 The father, therefore, knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives;" and he himself believed, and his whole house. 54 This again is a second sign that Jesus did, after having come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAPTER V.

1 After these things there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now there is in Jerusalem, by the sheep-gate, a pool, which is called, in Hebrew, Bethesda, having five porches. 3 In these were lying a multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, withered, [waiting for the moving of the waters: 4 for an angel of the Lord went down at a certain period into the pool, and troubled the water: whoever, therefore, first, after the troubling of the water, stepped in, was healed of whatsoever disease he had].* 5 And a certain man was there, who had been for thirty-eight years in his infirmity. 6 Jesus, seeing this man lying, and knowing that already for a long time he had been thus, saith to him, "Do you wish to be made well?" 7 The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no one, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool; but while I am coming, another goes down before me!" 8 Jesus saith to him, "Rise, take up your bed, and walk." 9 And straightway the man became well, and took up his bed, and was walking. And it was the sabbath on that day. 10 The Jews, therefore, said to him who had been cured, "It is the sabbath; it is not lawful for you to carry your bed." 11

NOTES ON CHAPTER V.

6 Do you wish to be made well? the Savior, compassionating him, asks the question with the view, presumably, of preparing him to receive healing.
8 Arise, take up your bed, and walk: these words were immediately followed by the healing of the man, and, so far as we know, without faith on his part.
10 Not lawful; they supposed that the man was violating the law of God (see Neh. 13:15-20; Jer. 17:21); but these Scriptures had no reference to such burdens as the healed man was carrying.
14 A worse thing: worse than the physical disease of 53 Seventh hour: one o'clock P. M. But he answered them, "He Who made me well, the Same said to me, 'Take up your bed and walk.'" 12 They asked him, "Who is the Man That said to you, 'Take up your bed, and walk?'" 13 And he who was healed knew not Who it was; for Jesus withdrew, a multitude being in the place. 14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple. And He said to him, "Behold, you have been made well; sin no more, lest something worse befall you." 15 The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who made him well. 16 And, on this account, the Jews were persecuting Jesus, because He was doing these things on the sabbath. 17 But He answered them, "My Father worketh even until now, and I work." 18 For this cause, therefore, the Jews were seeking the more to kill Him, because He not only broke the sabbath, but also called God His Father, making Himself equal with God. 19 Jesus, therefore, answered and said to them, "Verily, verily, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, but what He seeth the Father doing; for whatsoever things He doeth, these also, in like manner, the Son doeth. 20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth Him all things which He Himself doeth; and greater works than these will He show Him, that ye may marvel. 21 For, as the Father raiseth the dead, and maketh them alive; so also the Son maketh alive whom He will. 22 which he had been healed; referring, likely, to the spiritual ailment which is a result of sin.

17 My Father worketh even until now; in vitalizing all the forces of nature, and in keeping the universe and all creatures in proper condition. I work; meaning that, as the Son of God, and as being One with His Father, He had an equal right to work—a specimen of Whose work was seen in the healing of the impotent man.
19 The Son can do nothing of Himself; apart from the Father; but there was a perfect union between the Father and the Son, as well in plan and will, as in execution.
20 Greater things than these; works referred to in the following verses.
21 The Son maketh alive whom He will; the Son gave For neither doth the Father judge any one, but all judgment He hath given to the Son; 23 that all may honor the Son even as they honor the Father. He that honors not the Son honors not the Father Who sent Him. 24 "Verily, verily, I say to you, He that hears My word, and believes Him Who sent Me, has eternal life, and comes not into judgment, but has passed out of death into life. 25 Verily, verily, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those having heard shall live. 26 For, as the Father hath life in Himself, so also He gave to the Son to have life in Himself; 27 and He gave Him authority to execute judgment, because He is the Son of Man. 28 Marvel not at this; because there is an hour coming, in which all who are in their tombs shall hear His voice, 29 and come forth; those who did good, to the resurrection of life; but those who did evil, to the resurrection of judgment. 30 I can of Myself do nothing: as I hear, I judge; and My judgment is righteous; because I seek not My Own will, but the will of Him Who sent Me. 31 If I testify concerning Myself, My testimony is not true. 32 There is Another Who testifieth concerning Me; and I know that the testimony which He testifieth concerning Me is true. 33 Ye have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. 34 But the testimony I receive is not from man; but these things I say, that ye may believe. 35 He was a lamp that was burning and shining; and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. 36 But I have a testimony greater than that of John; for the works which the Father hath given Me to accomplish, the very works that I am doing testify concerning Me, that the Father hath sent Me. 37 And the Father Who sent Me, He hath testified concerning Me. Ye have neither at any time heard His voice, nor seen His form. 38 And ye have not His word abiding in you; because Whom He sent, Him ye believe not. 39 Ye search the Scriptures; because in them ye think ye have eternal life; and these are they that testify concerning Me; 40 and ye are not willing to come to Me, that ye may have life. 41 I receive not glory from men. 42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in yourselves. 43 I have come in My Father's name, and ye receive Me not; if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. 44 How can ye believe, who receive glory from one another, and the glory which is from God only ye seek not? 45 Think not that I will accuse you to the Father; there is one who accuses you, Moses on whom ye have set your section with the Son in all the miracles which Jesus performed. 31 Not from man; not from one who was merely a man. John was a man who was filled with the Holy Spirit, and it was this fact that made John's testimony valuable. 32 The works which the Father gave Me; His teachings and miracles—in fact His whole human program was mapped out by the Father. 33 Ye have not His word; they did not receive the testimony of God, and they proved this by rejecting Him Whom He sent. 34 Ye search the Scriptures; or pretend to search them. And, though these Old Scriptures had much to say concerning Christ, the Jews would not accept their testimony respecting Him. 35 Ye are not willing to come to Me; the chief difficulty was their stubborn will, that would not yield to the force of testimony, nor relent at the display of His mighty power displayed in His miracles. 41 I receive not glory from men; He sought the approval of His Father alone, as do all the true servants of God. 42 Have not the love of God in you; the absence of love leaves room for hatred; and hatred rendered them unable to appreciate His arguments, works, or the testimony of Scripture, all of which proved His Messiahship. 43 If another comes in his own name; referring, probably, to the beast of Rev. 13 and 19; II Thess. 2:3-12. 44 Those who are seeking the applause and favor of men have scarcely any chance to believe. Until one lets to the world, it will be difficult to believe.
hope. 46 For, if ye were believing Moses, ye would believe Me; for he wrote concerning Me. 47 But, if ye believe not his writings, how will ye believe My words?"

would not accept His testimony respecting Christ. No amount of proof will convince those who will not believe.

CHAPTER VI.

FIVE THOUSAND FED.

1 After these things Jesus went away, beyond the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. 2 And a great multitude was following Him, because they were beholding the signs which He was doing on the sick. 3 And Jesus went up into the mountain, and was sitting there with His disciples. 4 Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was near. 5 Jesus, therefore, lifting up His eyes, and seeing that a great multitude is coming to Him, saith to Philip, “Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?” 6 And this He said, proving him; for He Himself knew what He was about to do. 7 Philip answered Him, “Two hundred denaries worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that each one may take a little.” 8 One of His disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, says to Him, 9 “There is a lad here, who has five barley loaves and two small fishes; but what are these among so many?” 10 Jesus said, “Make the men recline.” Now there was much grass in the place. The men, therefore, reclined, in number about five thousand. 11 Jesus, therefore, took the loaves; and, having given thanks, He distributed to those reclining; and likewise of the fishes as much as they wished. 12 And, when they were filled, He saith to His disciples, “Gather up the pieces that remain over, that nothing be lost.” 13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with pieces from the five barley loaves, which remained over to those who had eaten. 14 The men, therefore, seeing the sign that He did, said, “This, truly, is the Prophet Who cometh into the world.” 15 Jesus, therefore, per-

JESUS WALKS ON THE SEA.

16 And, when evening came, His disciples went down to the sea; 17 and, entering into a boat, they were going over the sea to Capernaum; and it had already become dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. 18 And, a strong wind blowing, the sea was being much raised. 19 Having rowed, therefore, about twenty-five or thirty furlongs, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid. 20 But He saith to them, “It is I; be not afraid.” 21 They were willing, therefore, to receive Him into the boat; and straightway the boat was at the land whither they were going.

HIS DISCOURSE IN THE SYNAGOGUE.

22 On the morrow the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except one, and that Jesus, entered not with His disciples into the boat, but His disciples went away alone (23 yet there came boats from Tiberias near to the place where they ate the bread, the Lord having given thanks): 24 when, therefore, the multitude saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they themselves entered into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. 25 And, having found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, “Rabbi, when comest Thou hither?” 26 Jesus answered them and said, “Verily, verily, I say to you, ye seek Me, not because ye saw signs, but because ye ate of

What doest Thou? 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it has been written, ‘He gave them bread out of Heaven to eat.’” 32 Jesus, therefore, said to them, “Verily, verily, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread out of Heaven; but My Father giveth you the true bread out of Heaven; 33 for the Bread of God is He Who cometh down out of Heaven, and giveth life to the world.” 34 They said, therefore, to Him, “Lord, evermore give us this bread.” 35 Jesus said to them, “I am the Bread of Life; he who comes to Me shall not hunger, and he who believes on Me shall never thirst. 36 But I said to you, that ye have even seen Me, and do not believe. 37 All that the Father giveth to Me shall come to Me; and him who comes to Me I will in no wise cast out; 38 because I have come down from Heaven, not to do My Own will, but the will of Him Who sent Me. 39 And this is the will of Him Who sent Me, that all of that He hath given Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up at the last day. 40 For this is the will of My Father, that every one who beholds the Son, and believes on Him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.” 41 The Jews, therefore, were murmuring concerning Him, because He said, “I am the Bread that came down out of Heaven.” 42 And they said, “Is not this Jesus, the Son of Joseph, Whose father and mother we know? How doth He now say, ‘I have come down out of Heaven?’” 43 Jesus answered, and said to them, “Murmur not among yourselves. 44 No one can come to Me, unless the Father Who sent Me draw him; and I will raise him up at the last day. 45 It has been written in the prophets, ‘And they shall all be taught of God.’ Every one who heard from the Father, and learned, comes to Me. 46 Not that any one has seen the Father, save Him Who is from God, He hath seen the Father. 47 Verily, verily, I say to you, he that believes has eternal life. 48 I am the Bread of Life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and died. 50 This is the Bread That cometh down out of Heaven, that one may eat thereof, and not die. 51 I am the Living Bread That came down out of Heaven: if any one eat of This Bread, he shall live forever; yea, and the Bread That I will give him is My flesh, for the life of the world.” 52 The Jews, therefore, were wrangling with one another, saying, “How can This Man give us His flesh to eat?” 53 Jesus, therefore, said to them, “Verily, verily, I say to you, unless ye eat the 27 Food that perishes; all temporal matters are of secondary concern. Abides; spiritual food, that subserves one’s eternal interests.

29 What sign; they seem to have forgotten the miracle of feeding the thousands on a few loaves and fishes. Like other doubters, they demanded different proof from that which they had.
32 The manna was a type of Christ. As the Israelites needed to eat manna every day; so Christians should daily feast on the Living Bread.
33 I am the Bread of Life; Christ is the Author, Giver, and Sustainer, of spiritual life.
40 Will raise him up; in the resurrection.
44 No one can come to Me; of himself. The Holy Spirit convicts of sin; and, through His mighty power working below the sinner’s consciousness, He leads him to Christ.
48 I am the Bread of Life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and died. 50 This is the Bread That cometh down out of Heaven, that one may eat thereof, and not die. 51 I am the Living Bread That came down out of Heaven: if any one eat of This Bread, he shall live forever; yea, and the Bread That I will give him is My flesh, for the life of the world.” 52 The Jews, therefore, were wrangling with one another, saying, “How can This Man give us His flesh to eat?” 53 Jesus, therefore, said to them, “Verily, verily, I say to you, unless ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man, and drink His blood, ye have no life in yourselves. 54 He that eats My flesh, and drinks My blood, has eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day; 55 for My flesh is true food, and My blood is true drink. 56 He that eats My flesh, and drinks My blood, abides in Me, and I in him. 57 As the Living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father; so he, also, who eats Me, shall live because of Me. 58 This is the Bread That came down out of Heaven. Not as the fathers ate, and died: he that eats this Bread shall live forever.” 59 These things He said in the synagogue, while teaching in Capernaum.

60 Many, therefore, of His disciples, having heard this, said, “This is a hard saying! Who can hear it?” 61 But Jesus, knowing in Himself that His disciples were murmuring about this, said to them, “Does this cause you to stumble? 62 What, then, if ye behold the Son of Man ascending where He was before? 63 It is the Spirit That be so related to Christ, as that His very nature shall be communicated to him. This necessitates an inner union, or mutual abiding, wherein the very life and nature of Jesus are imparted to the one in whom Christ is permitted to rule. This mutual abiding is indispensable, if the Christ-life is to be perfected in one. (Eph. 3:16-19; John 17:23). This is a gracious experience that comparatively few know.

60 A hard saying: the carnal multitude had no sympathy for these deep teachings of Jesus. So now the shallow theology of our times can not tolerate these same truths.

62 The Son of Man ascending: if you think strange of My being the Bread That came down from Heaven, what would you think, if ye were to see Me caught up to Heaven?—

CHAPTER VII.

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES.

1 And after these things Jesus was walking in Galilee; for He was not willing to walk in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill Him. 2 Now the feast of the Jews, the feast of tabernacles, was at hand. 3 His brethren, therefore, said to Him, “Depart hence, and go into Judea, that Thy disciples also may behold Thy works that Thou dost; 4 for no one does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be known openly. If Thou dost these things, manifest Thyself to the world.” 5 For even His brethren did not believe on Him. 6 Jesus, therefore, saith to them, “My time is not yet present; but your time is always ready. 7 The world cannot hate you; but Me it hates, because I testify concerning it, that its works are evil. 8 Go ye up to the feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, because My time has not yet been fulfilled.”

NOTES ON CHAPTER VII.

2 The feast of tabernacles: a feast of tents or booths. This was a feast of seven days, of special thanksgiving for the ingathering of the harvest, including the last days of September and the first days of October. There were three Jewish feasts; one of the passover, one of Pentecost, and one of tents, (Deut. 16:1-13). 3 Depart hence: from this obscure place, Go into Judæa, where, they thought, He would be appreciated. That Thy disciples; believers in Judea.

3 They charge Him with inconsistency, in that He performed miracles in obscure places, where there were only a few to appreciate them. But they did not understand, either His mission, or His motives.

6 My time: for displaying the crowning proofs of His Messiahship.

7 The world cannot hate you; because ye are of the world: and the world loves its own. The carnality in most prossed Christians protects them from the hatred and persecution of the world.
9 And, having said these things to them, He abode in Galilee.

10 But, when His brethren went up to the feast, then He also went up, not openly, but as it were in secret. 11 The Jews, therefore, were seeking Him at the feast, and said, "Where is He?" 12 And there was much murmuring about Him among the multitudes: some were saying, "He is a good Man;" others were saying, "Nay, but He is misleading the multitude." 13 No one, however, was speaking openly concerning Him, for fear of the Jews.

14 But, it being now the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and was teaching. 15 The Jews, therefore, were marveling, saying, "How knoweth This Man letters, having never learned?" 16 Jesus, therefore, answered them, and said, "My teaching is not Mine, but His Who sent Me. 17 If any one wills to do His will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak from Myself. 18 He that speaks from himself seeks his own glory; but He Whose teaching is received of Him Who sent Him, the Same is true, and there is no unrighteousness in Him. 19 Did not Moses give you the law? and not one of you does the law? Why are ye seeking to kill Me?" 20 The multitude answered, "Thou hast a demon: who is seeking to kill you!" 21 Jesus answered, and said to them, "I did one work, and ye all marvel because of this. 22 Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers); and on the sabbath ye circumcise a man. 23 If a man receives circumcision on a sabbath, that the law of Moses be not broken, are ye angry with Me, because I made a whole man well on the sabbath? 24 Judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment." 25 Some, therefore, of those of Jerusalem said, "Is not This Man Whom they are seeking to kill? 26 And, behold, He is speaking openly, and they say nothing to Him! Did the rulers ever truly know that This is the Christ? 27 But as to This Man we know whence He is; but, when the Christ cometh, no one knows whence He is." 28 Jesus, therefore, cried in the temple, teaching and saying, "Ye both know Me, and know whence I am; and I have not come of Myself; but He Who sent Me is true, Whom ye know not. 29 I know Him; because I am from Him, and He sent Me." 30 They were seeking, therefore, to seize Him; and no one laid his hand upon Him, because His hour had not yet come. 31 But of the multitude many believed on Him, and said, "When the Christ shall come, will He do more signs than those which This Man did?" 32 The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning Him; and the high priests and the Pharisees sent officers to seize Him. 33 Jesus, therefore, said, "Yet a little while am I with you, and I go to Him Who sent Me. 34 Ye will seek Me, and will not find Me; and, where I am, ye cannot come." 35 The Jews, therefore, said among themselves, "Where is This Man about to go, that we shall not find Him? Is He about to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? 36 What is this word that He said, 'Ye will seek Me, and will not find Me; and where I am, ye cannot come?'"

37 Now, on the last day, the great day

15 Letters; letters relating especially to the Scriptures. Having never learned; Jesus, it appears, never studied under any Jewish Rabbi.
16 My teaching is not Mine; did not originate with Me, apart from My Father.
17 If any one wills to do His will; here the Savior teaches the important principle, that a man who wills to obey God, occupies a position to be taught by the Holy Spirit; and this is the surest way to know the truth. From Myself; apart from the Father. He here teaches that His teachings would be valueless, unless they had the sanction of the Father.
21 I did one work; referring to the healing of the man in ch. 5:2-9.

of the feast, Jesus stood, and cried, saying, "If anyone thirst, let him come to Me and drink. 38 He that believes on Me, as the Scripture said, from within him shall flow rivers of living water." 39 But this He spake concerning the Spirit, Whom those who believed on Him were about to receive; for the Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified. 40 Some of the multitude, therefore, having heard these words, said, "Truly This is the Prophet;" 41 others said, "This is the Christ;" but some said, "What! doth the Christ come out of Nazareth?" 42 Did not the Scriptures say, that the Christ cometh of the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was? 43 A division, therefore, arose in the multitude because of Him. 44 And some of them were wishing to seize Him; but no one laid hands on Him.

45 The officers, therefore, came to the high priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why did ye not bring Him?" 46 The officers answered, "Never did man speak thus!" 47 The Pharisees, therefore, answered them, "Have ye also been led astray? 48 Did any one of the rulers believe on Him, or of the Pharisees? 49 But this multitude, who know not the law, are accursed." 50 Nicodemus says to them (he who came to Him before, being one of them), 51 "Does our law judge a man, unless it first hear from him, and know what he does?" 52 They answered, and said to him, "Are you also of Galilee? Search, and see that out of Galilee arises no prophet."

CHAPTER VIII.

[53 And each one went to his house; but Jesus went to the mount of Olives. 2 And early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him; and, having sat down, He was teaching them. 3 And the scribes and the Pharisees bring to Him a woman taken in adultery; and, having placed her in the midst, 4 they say to Him, "Teacher, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. 5 Now in the law Moses commanded us to stone such; what, therefore, dost Thou say?" 6 This they said, trying Him, that they might have whereof to accuse Him. But Jesus, having stooped down, was writing with His finger on the ground. 7 And, as they continued asking Him, He, having raised Himself up, said to them, "Let the sinless one among you first cast a stone at her." 8 And, again stooping down, He was writing with His finger on the ground. 9 And they, having heard it, were going out, one by one, from the eldest to the last; and Jesus was left alone, and the woman, where she was, in the midst. 10 And Jesus, having lifted Himself up, said to her, "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?" 11 She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said to her, "Neither do I condemn you; go your way; henceforth sin no more."] of life.” 13 The Pharisees, therefore, said to Him, “Thou testifiest concerning Thyself; Thy testimony is not true.” 14 Jesus answered and said to them, “Even if I do testify concerning Myself, My testimony is true; because I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye know not whence I came, or whither I go. 15 Ye judge according to the flesh; I judge not man. 16 But, even if I judge, My judgment is true; because I am not alone, but I and the Father Who sent Me. 17 And in your law also it has been written, ‘The testimony of two men is true.’ 18 I am One Who testify concerning Myself; and the Father, Who sent Me, testifieth concerning Me.” 19 They said, therefore, to Him, “Where is Thy Father?” Jesus answered, “Ye know neither Me, nor My Father. If ye knew Me, ye would know My Father also.” 20 These words He spake in the treasury, while teaching in the temple; and no one seized Him, because His hour had not yet come. 21 He said, therefore, again to them, “I go away, and ye will seek Me, and will die in your sins. Whither I go, ye cannot come.” 22 The Jews, therefore, said, “Will He kill Himself?” because He said, “Whither I go, ye cannot come.” 23 And He said to them, “Ye are from beneath; I am from above. Ye are of this world; I am not of this world. 24 I said, therefore, to you, that ye will die in your sins; for, unless ye believe that I am He, ye will die in your sins.” 25 They said, therefore, to Him, “Who art Thou?”

11 My testimony is true; the fact that Jesus was divine made it impossible for Him to lie. When He said, in ch. 5:31, “If I testify of Myself, My testimony is not true,” He was speaking of the value of human testimony according to human rules.

15 Ye judge according to the flesh; under the power of human weakness, ignorance, and prejudice. I judge no one; Jesus came, not to judge the world, but to save the world. (ch. 3:17; 12:47.) When He comes with His saints, He will judge the world. (Matt. 25:31-46.)

21 Unless ye believe that I am He; as Christ is the real Sin-offering, it is necessary to believe in Him as the Messiah, if one would get rid of his sins. To believe in a Messiah, will not answer.

25 Even that which I am saying from the beginning; He here reaffirms all that He had hitherto declared concerning Himself.

28 Lift up the Son of Man; on the cross. By divine appointment the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ Jesus said to them, “Even that which I am saying to you from the beginning. 26 I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. But He Who sent Me is true; and the things which I heard from Him, these I speak to the world.” 27 They perceived not that He was speaking to them of the Father. 28 Jesus, therefore, said, “When ye lift up the Son of Man, then will ye know that I am He; and, of Myself, I do nothing, but, as the Father taught Me, I speak these things. 29 And He Who sent Me is with Me. He hath not left Me alone; because I am always doing the things that please Him.” 30 As He spake these things, many believed on Him.

31 Jesus, therefore, said to those Jews who had believed on Him, “If ye abide in My word, ye are truly My disciples; 32 and ye will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.” 33 They answered Him, “We are Abraham’s seed, and to no one have we at any time been in bondage; how sayest Thou, ‘Ye shall be made free?’” 34 Jesus answered them, “Verily, verily, I say to you, every one who commits sin is a slave of sin. 35 And the slave abides not in the house forever; the son abides forever. 36 If, therefore, the Son shall make you free, ye will be free indeed. 37 I know that ye are Abraham’s seed; but ye are seeking to kill Me, because My word has no place in you. 38 I speak the things which I have seen with My Father; and ye, therefore, do the things which ye heard from your father. 39 They answered and lifted Him to the place of universal authority. (ch. 12:32; Matt. 25:18.)

32 The truth will make you free; Christ is the Truth that brings freedom from sin, Satan, and death. (ch. 14:6.)

33 To no one have we yet been in bondage; and yet they were political vassals of Rome, the degraded slaves of sin, and servants of the Devil.

35 The slave abides not in the house forever; the slave was subject to dismissal; and, in any event, his place was not permanent. The son; the rightful heir, (see Gal. 4:22-31.)

36 If the Son; the Son of God, and Ruler of His Father’s house. Shall make you free; free from sin and all its evil consequences; free from the bondage of the law; He will give you His own everlasting life; fill you with the Holy Spirit; fill you with all the fullness of God. Here is real freedom.

37 Abraham’s seed; literally, but not in the sense in which the promises were made to Abraham. (Gen. 12:3; 18:18; 22:18; Gal. 3:14, 18, 29.)

39 If ye are children of Abraham, ye are doing the works of Abraham; but ye are not doing his works; therefore, ye are not his true children.
John 141

said to Him, “Our father is Abraham.” Jesus saith to them, “If ye are children of Abraham, ye are doing the works of Abraham. 40 But now ye are seeking to kill Me, a Man Who hath told you the truth, which I heard from My Father: this Abraham did not. 41 Ye do the works of your father.” They say to Him, “We were not born of fornication; we have one Father—God.” 42 Jesus said to them, “If God were your Father, ye would love Me; for I came forth, and have come from, God; for neither have I come of Myself, but He sent Me. 43 Why do ye not understand My speech? it is because ye cannot hear My word. 44 Ye are of your father the Devil; and the desires of your father ye wish to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has not stood in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own; because he is a liar, and the father of it. 45 And, because I speak the truth, ye believe Me not. 46 Who of you convicts Me of sin? If I speak truth, why do ye not believe Me? 47 He that is of God hears the words of God; on this account, ye hear them not, because ye are not of God.”

48 The Jews answered and said to Him, “Say we not well that Thou art a Samaritan?”

44 Ye are of your father, the Devil: this seems thoroughly to refute the idea of the “universal fatherhood of God.” The new birth (ch. 3:3, 5) makes one a child of God. A murderer from the beginning: from the beginning of our race. Satan deceived Eve, and led her to sin; and sin, thus introduced into the world, has led to countless murderers. All the murders of earth trace back to Satan.

48 A Samaritan: a Samaritan was a most odious object to a Jew.

50 Who seeketh and judgeth: meaning the Father. Who would honor His Son, and condemn His enemies.

CHAPTER IX.

1 And, passing along, he saw a man blind from his birth. 2 And His disciples asked Him, saying, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?” 3 Jesus answered, “Neither did this man sin, nor his parents; but that the works of God should be manifested in him. 4 We must work the works of Him Who sent Me, while it is day. Night is coming, when no one can work. 5 When I am in the world, I am the Light of the world.” 6 Having thus spoken, He spitteth on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed his eyes with the clay,

3 Neither: neither the blind man nor his parents sinned, so as to cause him to be born blind; but he was born blind, that God might display His mighty power in giving him sight—a power that He has never seen fit to revoke.

5 I am the Light of the world; John 1:9; 8:12.
and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which is interpreted, Sent). He went, therefore, and washed, and came seeing. 8 The neighbors, therefore, and those formerly beholding him, that he was a beggar, said, "Is not this he that sits and begs?" 9 Some said, "This is he;" others said, "No, but he is like him," he said, "I am he." 10 They said, therefore, to him, "How then were your eyes opened?" 11 He answered, "The Man Who is called Jesus made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to Siloam, and wash;' having gone, therefore, and washed, I received sight." 12 And they said to him, "Where is He?" He says, "I know not." 13 They bring to the Pharisees him who was once blind. 14 And it was a sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and anointed his eyes. 15 Again, therefore, the Pharisees also asked him, how he received sight. And he said to them, "He put clay upon my eyes, and I washed, and I see." 16 Some of the Pharisees, therefore, said, "This Man is not from God, because He does not keep the sabbath." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" And there was a division among them. 17 They say, therefore, to the blind man again, "What do you say about Him, seeing that He opened your eyes?" And he said, "He is a Prophet." 18 The Jews, therefore, did not believe concerning him, that he was blind, and received sight, until they called the parents of him who received sight, 19 and asked them, "Is this your son, who ye say, was born blind? How, then, does he now see?" 20 His parents, therefore, answered and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; 21 but how he now sees, we do not know. Ask him; he is of age; he will speak for himself." 22 These things said his parents, because they were fearing the Jews; for the Jews had agreed already, that, if any one should confess Him to be Christ, 7 he should be put out of the synagogue. 23 On this account, his parents said, "He is of age; ask him." 24 Therefore, they called a second time the man who was blind, and said to him, "Give glory to God: we know that this Man is a sinner." 25 He, therefore, answered, "Whether He is a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, though I was blind, now I see." 26 They said, therefore, to him, "What did He do to you? how did He open your eyes?" 27 He answered them, "I told you already, and ye did not hear; why do ye wish to hear it again? Do ye also wish to become His disciples?" 28 And they reviled him, and said, "You are His disciple; but we are disciples of Moses. 29 We know that God hath spoken to Moses; but, as to this Man, we know not whence He is." 30 The man answered and said to them, "Why, in this is the wonder, that ye do not know whence He is, and He opened my eyes." 31 We know that God heareth not sinners; but, if any one is a worshiper of God, and does His will, Him He heareth. 32 From remotest antiquity, it was never heard that any one opened the eyes of one born blind! 33 If this Man were not from God, He could do nothing." 34 They answered and said to him, "You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us!" And they cast him out. 35 Jesus heard that they cast him out; and, finding him, He said, "Do you believe on the Son of God?" 36 And He answered, and said, "And Who is He, Lord, that I may believe on Him?" 37 Jesus said to him, "You have both seen Him, and it is He Who is talking with you." 38 And he said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshiped Him. 39 And Jesus said, "For judgment came I into the world; that those who see not may see, and that those who see may become blind." 40 Those of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these things, and said to Him,
"Are we also blind?" 41 Jesus said to them, "If ye were blind, ye would have no sin; but now ye say, 'We see,' your sin abides."

41 If ye were blind; had no capacity to receive light. Ye would have no sin; for, in the event they had been blind, they would have been no more responsible than an idiot. We see: their confession that they needed no more light, fixed their sin upon them. When one rejects Christ, his sins will never be forgiven.

CHAPTER X.

1 "Verily, verily, I say to you, he that enters not through the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbs up some other way, he is a thief and a robber. 2 But he that enters through the door is shepherd of the sheep. 3 To him the porter opens, and the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out. 4 When he drives out all his own, he goes on before them, and the sheep follow him; because they know his voice. 5 But a stranger they will in no wise follow, but will flee from him; because they know not the voice of strangers." 6 This parable spake Jesus to them; but they understood not what things they were which He spake to them.

7 Jesus, therefore, said to them again, "Verily, verily, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. 8 All who came before Me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not hear them. 9 I am the door; through Me if any one enter, he shall be saved, and shall go in and go out, and find pasture. 10 The thief comes not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came, that they may have life, and that they may have it abundantly. 11 I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his soul for the sheep. 12 The hireling, who also is not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholds the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep, and flees (and the wolf seizes them, and scatters them); 13 because he is a hireling, and cares not for the sheep. 14 I am the Good Shepherd; and I know My own, and My own know Me, 15 even as the Father knoweth Me, and I know the Father; and I lay down My soul for the sheep. 16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they will hear My voice; and they shall become one flock, one Shepherd. 17 On this account My Father loveth Me, because I lay down My soul, that I may take it again. 18 No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it again. This commandment I received from My Father.

19 There arose again a division among the Jews because of these words. 20 And

NOTES ON CHAPTER X.

1 Enters not through the door; the door, as used in this verse, seems to refer to the Father's appointed order. To enter the fold by the door is to come in under God's appointment; and in this way Jesus entered.

2 He who enters through the door; every true shepherd so enters; and Christ, the Chief Shepherd, came in the same way, (see ch. 8:42; 12:49).

3 The porter; the one who opened the gate, or door, to let the sheep in or out, according to the ancient custom. This teaches that God appoints His own ports, or pastors, evangelists, etc., to receive those who enter the Kingdom of God.

4 A stranger they will not follow; as a sheep trained by a true shepherd, will not follow a stranger; so God's trained people will not follow false teachers.

5 I am the door; Christ is the door into the spiritual Kingdom of God. All penitents, who truly believe on Him, pass out of the kingdom of darkness into the kingdom of light, through Christ. All true undershepherds receive their call from Christ, and are appointed by Him to their several stations.

6 Came before Me; claiming to be the Messiah. The sheep did not hear them; the truly pious did not accept their teaching.

7 Find pasture; spiritual food and divine consolation.

8 Or, have an abundance. 9 Or, Life.

10 The thief; teachers who are concerned about the fleece, but care nothing for the flock. (Jer. 22:1-6; Ezek. 34th ch.). There are many false shepherds now, who are serving for filthy lucre, and are lording it over God's people.

11 I am the good Shepherd; Christ is the door through which people enter the fold of God: and, when they enter, He supplies them pasture and protection.

12 A hireling; one whose chief object is pay and self-enrichment. There are many such now, who, besides dishonoring the ministry by their anworthy motives in doing their work, stand in the way of the progress of the truth.

13 I know My own; Christ knows all believers, and He knows them as His own followers, and as His possessions; and His sheep know Him. The little lambs may not know Him well, but the sheep know Him.

14 Not of this fold; referring to the gentiles, or different nations of the earth.

15 Lay down My soul; the physical life is included in the soul; but it appears that Jesus did more than give up His physical life, (see Isa. 53:10).

16 No one takes it from Me; Christ was commissioned to die in behalf of sinners; and no one could take His life from Him, till He got ready to lay it down.

17 Mad; crazy, as they supposed, through the influence of some demon.
many of them said, "He hath a demon, and is mad; why do ye hear Him?" 21 Others said, "These are not the sayings of a demoniac. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

THE FEAST OF DEDICATION.

22 Then occurred the feast of dedication in Jerusalem; and it was winter; 23 and Jesus was walking in the temple in Solomon's porch. 24 The Jews, therefore, came round about Him, and said to Him, "How long dost Thou hold us in suspense? If Thou art the Christ, tell us plainly." 25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and ye did not believe: the works that I do in My Father's name, these testify concerning Me. 26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of My sheep. 27 My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me; 28 and I give to them eternal life; and they shall never perish, nor shall any one snatch them out of My hand. 29 My Father, Who hath given them to Me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. 30 I and the Father are One." 31 The Jews took up stones again to stone Him. 32

4 Gr. Lift up our soul.

22 Feast of dedication: this was a feast (of eight days) appointed by Judas Maccabreus, about 165 before Christ, to commemorate the purification of the temple from desecration by Antiochus Epiphanes, in offering swine's flesh on the altar, (Josephus, Book XII. ch. 11).

23 Solomon's porch: on the east side of the temple.

27 My sheep hear My voice: the believer who has welcomed Christ into His heart, and has put the government of his being all on His shoulder, can hear His voice, and need not long be at a loss for guidance.

28 The Son and the Father are both pledged to protect and save the true believer.

30 The unity of the Son and Father are here plainly declared. They are one in Divine Essence, one in nature, will, and action.

31 Your law: the Old Testament Scriptures. Ye are gods: those whom God appointed to represent Him as judges, magistrates, governors, etc., were accounted as gods: as, Moses, Joshua, David, Daniel, etc.; but the term is always applied in a way to show that, in themselves, they were only men, (see Ps. 82:6; Ex. 22:29).

33 Whom the Father sanctified: set apart, devoted, and appointed, to be the sin-offering. Of course, the Son did not need to be made holy in character; because He was always "Holy, harmless, undefiled, and separate from sinners." (Heb. 7:28). Because I said I am the Son of God: if mere men, under divine appointment, may be called gods, how much more might He by Whom all worlds were made, (ch. 1:15; Col. 1:16), and Whom the Father had sent to redeem the world, be called the Son of God.

37, 38 The works of My Father: the works the Father had appointed Him to do. Believe Me not: do not believe Me to be the Messiah, unless My works correspond with the claim.

39 Were seeking again to seize Him: because He again claimed to be one with the Father.

CHAPTER XI.

LAZARUS RAISED FROM THE DEAD.

1 Now a certain one was sick, Lazarus from Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister Martha. 2 And it was the Mary who anointed the Lord with oint-

1 Bethany: a village a little less than two miles from the temple, (Matt. 21:17).

Jesus answered them, "Many good works did I show you from My Father; for which of those works do ye stone Me?" 33 The Jews answered Him, "For a good work we stone Thee not, but for blasphemy, and because, Thou, being a Man, makest Thyself God!" 34 Jesus answered them, "Has it not been written in your law, 'I said, ye are gods?' 35 If He called them gods to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), 36 say ye of Him Whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest, because I said, I am the Son of God? 37 If I do not the works of My Father, believe Me not; 38 but, if I do them, even though ye believe not Me, believe the works; that ye may know and understand that the Father is in Me, and I in the Father." 39 They were seeking, therefore, again to seize Him; and He went forth out of their hands.

40 And He went away again beyond the Jordan unto the place where John was at first immersing; and there He abode. 41 And many came to Him, and said, "John, indeed, did no sign, but all things, whatsoever John spake concerning this Man, were true." 42 And many believed on Him there.

4 This sickness is not unto death: not unto permanent death. Might be glorified: by the power displayed in raising him from temporary death.
the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it. 5 Now Jesus was loving Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. 6 When, therefore, He heard that he was sick, He then abode two days in the place where He was. 7 Then, after this, He saith to the disciples, "Let us go into Judea again." 8 The disciples say to Him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just now seeking to stone Thee; and art Thou going there again?" 9 Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any one walks in the day, he stumbles not, because he sees the light of this world; 10 but, if any one walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." 11 These things He spake; and after this He saith to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep; but I am going to awake him out of sleep." 12 The disciples, therefore, said to Him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover!" 13 Now Jesus had spoken concerning his death; but they thought He spake of taking rest in sleep. 14 Then, therefore, Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus died. 15 And I am glad, for your sakes, (in order that ye may believe), that I was not there. But let us go to him." 16 Thomas, who is called Dydimus, said, therefore, to His fellow-disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him." 17 Jesus, therefore, having come, found that he had already been four days in the tomb. 18 Now Bethany was near to Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs distant. 19 And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. 20 Martha, therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, met Him; but Mary was sitting in the house. 21 Martha, therefore, said to Jesus, "Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother would not have died; 22 and now I know that, whatsoever Thou shalt ask of God, God will give Thee." 23 Jesus saith to her, "Your brother shall rise again." 24 Martha says to Him, "I know that he will rise again, in the resurrection at the last day." 25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth on Me, though he die, yet shall he live; 26 and whosoever liveth and believeth on Me shall never die. Do you believe this?" 27 She says to Him, "Yea, Lord; I have believed that Thou art the Christ, the Son of God, He Who was to come into the world." 28 And, saying this, she went away, and called Mary her sister privately, saying, "The Teacher is present, and calleth for you." 29 And she, when she heard it, arose quickly, and went to Him. (30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha met Him.) 31 The Jews, therefore, who were with her in the house, and were comforting her, seeing Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb, to weep there. 32 Mary, therefore, when she came where Jesus was, seeing Him, fell at His feet, saying to Him, "Lord, if Thou hadst been here, my brother would not have died!" 33 Jesus, therefore, when He saw her weeping, and the Jews weeping who came with her, groaned in the spirit, and troubled Himself; 34 and He said, "Where have ye laid Him?" They say to Him, "Lord, come and see." 35 Jesus wept. 36 The 5 Jesus was loving: Jesus loved them permanently, and not merely with a fleeting affection.

6 Where He was: in Bethany, or Bethabara, on the east of the Jordan, and about thirty miles north-east of Jerusalem. (see ch. 1:28).
9 Twelve hours in the day: the appointed time for work. Stumbles not: the person who walks in the day stumbles not; meaning that so long as one keeps within God's allotted order for him, nothing can hurt him. So nothing could hurt Christ, until the time for Him to surrender Himself to death.
15 I am glad...I was not there: thus implying, it seems, that if He had been present with the family at Bethany, Lazarus would not have died; and, in this event, the disciples would not have witnessed this miracle.
16 Die with Him: this refers, likely, to Christ, whose life was imperiled while in the vicinity of Jerusalem. It seems that Thomas took it for granted, if Jesus went to Bethany, He would be killed; and he seemed to be willing to die with Him.
23 Your brother will rise again; this may have a double meaning: first, referring to his speedy resurrection to physical life; and, later, to his resurrection to eternal life.
25 I am the resurrection: the Author of the resurrection and of life. Though he die! physical death does not extinguish spiritual life. The circumstance of laying aside this clay tabernacle is a small thing to one who has been with Christ; for the Christ-life will continue to live right on, after the body crumbles to dust.
33 Growned in the spirit: He was deeply sympathetic with the bereaved and suffering. Troubled Himself: was greatly moved by the conditions then prevailing upon Him.
35 Jesus wept: His humanity tied Him on to our race, and His compassion often led Him to put forth His mighty power to relieve the suffering. Here His sympathy mightily moved Him.
Jews, therefore, said, "Behold, how He was loving him!" 37 And some of them said, "Could not This Man, Who opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not die?" 38 Jesus, therefore, again groaning in Himself, cometh to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone was lying on it. 39 Jesus saith, "Take ye away the stone." The sister of the deceased, Martha, says to Him, "Lord, already he is decaying; for he has been dead four days." 40 Jesus saith to her, "Did I not say to you that, if you would believe, you should see the glory of God?" 41 So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up His eyes, and said, "Father, I thank Thee, because Thou didst hear Me. 42 And I knew that Thou always hearest Me; but, because of the multitude standing around, I said it, that they may believe that Thou didst send Me." 43 And, having spoken these words, He cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!" 44 He that was dead came forth, bound feet and hands with grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith to them, "Loose him, and let him go.

45 Many, therefore, of the Jews who came to Mary and beheld what He did, believed on Him; 46 but some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them what Jesus did. 47 The high priests, therefore, and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, "What are we doing? because This Man is doing many signs.

48 If we let Him thus alone, all will believe on Him; and the Romans will come, and take away both our place and our nation. 49 But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said, "Ye know nothing at all; 50 nor do ye consider that it is expedient for you, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not." 51 And this he said not of himself; but, being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was about to die for that nation; 52 and not for that nation only, but that He might also gather together into one the children of God that are scattered abroad. 53 From that day, therefore, they took counsel, that they might put Him to death.

54 Jesus, therefore, was no longer openly walking about among the Jews; but He went away thence into the country near to the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim, and there He abode with the disciples. 55 Now the passover of the Jews was near; and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the passover, that they might purify themselves. 56 They were, therefore, seeking for Jesus, and were saying one with another, while standing in the temple, "What think ye? That He will not come to the feast?" 57 Now the high priests and the Pharisees had given orders, that, if any one knew where He was, he should show it, that they might seize Him.

CHAPTER XII.
THE ANOINTING AT BETHANY.

1. Jesus, therefore, six days before the passover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus raised from the dead.
2. They, therefore, made Him a supper there; and Martha was serving; but Lazarus was one of those reclining at table with Him. 3. Mary, therefore, having taken a pound of ointment of pure spikenard, very costly, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment. 4. But Judas Iscariot, one of His disciples, who was about to betray Him, says, 5. "Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred denaries, and given to the poor?" 6. And he said this, not because he cared about the poor; but because he was a thief; and, having the money-box, he was wont to carry what was put therein.
7. Jesus, therefore, said, "Suffer her to keep it for the day of My burial; 8 for the poor ye always have with you, but Me ye have not always."

9. The great multitude, therefore, of the Jews knew that He was there; and they came, not because of Jesus only, but that they might see Lazarus, whom He raised from the dead. 10. But the high priests consulted, that they might slay Lazarus also; 11 because, on his account, many of the Jews were going away, and were believing on Jesus.

THE TRIUMPHAL ENTRY.

12. On the morrow a great multitude that had come to the feast, having heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13. took the branches of the palm trees, and went forth to meet Him, and cried, "Hosanna! blessed is He Who is coming in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!" 14. And Jesus, having found a young ass, sat upon it; and it has been written, "Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your King is coming upon an ass' colt." 16. These things His disciples did not understand at the first; but, when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written about Him, and that they did these things to Him. 17. The multitude, therefore, that was with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, was bearing testimony. 18. On this account also, the multitude met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign. 19. The Pharisees, therefore, said among themselves, "Ye see that ye are effecting nothing! Behold, the world went away after Him!"

THE HOUR HAS COME. HIS FINAL APPEAL TO THE JEWS.

20. And there were some Greeks among those who came up to worship at the feast. 21. These, therefore, came to Philip—who was from Bethsaida of Galilee—and were asking Him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." 22. Philip comes and tells Andrew; Andrew and Philip come and tell Jesus. 23. And Jesus answered them, saying, "The hour has come, that the Son of Man should be glorified. 24. Verily, verily, I say to you, unless the grain of wheat, having fallen into the ground, dies, it abides alone; but, if it dies, it bears much fruit. 25. He who loves his soul"... loses it; and he who hates his soul in this world will keep it unto life eternal. 26 If any one serve Me, let him follow Me; and where I am there will also My servant be. If anyone serve Me, him will My Father honor. 27 Now My soul has become troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save Me from this hour. But for this cause came I to this hour. 28 Father, glorify Thy Name!” There came, therefore, a voice out of Heaven, “I both glorified it, and will glorify it again.” 29 The multitude, therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered; others said, “An angel has spoken to Him.” 30 Jesus answered and said, “This voice has not come for My sake, but for your sakes. 31 Now is the judgment of this world; now will the Prince of this world be cast out; 32 and I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to Myself.” 33 But this He said, signifying by what manner of death He was about to die. 34 The multitude, therefore, answered Him, “We have heard out of the law that the Christ abideth forever; and how sayest Thou that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?” 35 Jesus, therefore, said to them, “Yet a little while is the Light among you. Walk while ye have the Light, lest darkness overtake you; and he that walks in the darkness knows not where he is going. 36 While ye have the Light, believe on the Light, that ye may become sons of Light.”

These things spake Jesus, and, going away, He was hidden from them. 37 But, though He had done so many signs before them, they were not believing on Him; 38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which He spake, “Lord, who believed our report? and to whom was the arm of the Lord revealed?” 39 On this account they could not believe, because Isaiah said again, 40 “He hath blinded their eyes, and He hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, and under stand with their heart, and turn, and I should heal them.”

41 These things Isaiah said, because he saw His glory; and He spake of Him. 42 Yet, however, even from among the rulers, many believed on Him; but, because of the Pharisees, they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue; 43 for they loved the glory of men, rather than the glory of God. 44 And Jesus cried, and said, “He who believes on Me, believes not on Me, but on Him Who sent Me; 45 and he that believes Me, beholds Him Who sent Me. 46 I have come a light into the world, that every one who believes on Me may not abide in the darkness. 47 And, if any one hears My words, and keeps them not, I do not judge him; for I came, not to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 He who rejects Me, and receives not My words, has one that judges him: the word that I spoke, the same shall judge him in the last day. 49 For I spake not from Myself; but the Father, Who sent Me, Himself hath given Me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. 50 And I know that His commandment is life eternal. What things, therefore, I speak, even as My Father hath told Me, so I speak."

His commandment; the Gospel message which Christ came to proclaim. Life eternal; the Gospel brings life eternal to those who accept it.

CHAPTER XIII.
1 Now, before the feast of the passover, Jesus, knowing that His hour came that He should depart out of this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end. 2 And, supper being in progress, the Devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray Him, 3 knowing that the Father gave all things into His hands, and that He came forth from God, and was going to God, 4 He riseth from the supper, and layeth aside His garments; and, taking a towel, He girded Himself. 5 Then He poureth water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded. 6 He cometh, therefore, to Simon Peter. He says to Him, 'Lord, dost Thou wash my feet?' 7 Jesus answered, and said to him, 'What I am doing you know not now; but you shall know hereafter.' 8 Peter says to Him, 'Thou shalt never wash my feet!' Jesus answered him, 'If I wash you not, you have no part with Me.' 9 Simon Peter says to Him, 'Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.' 10 Jesus saith to him, 'He who has bathed has no need, except to wash his feet, but is wholly clean; and ye are clean, but not all;' 11 for He knew him who would betray Him; on this account, He said, 'Ye are not all clean.'

12 When, therefore, He washed their feet, and took His garments, and reclined again, He said to them, 'Do ye know what I have done to you? 13 Ye call Me 'The Teacher,' and 'The Lord;' and ye say well; for so I am. 14 If, therefore, I, 'The Lord,' and 'The Teacher,' washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet; 15 for I gave you an example, that, as I did to you, ye also should do. 16 Verily, verily, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his lord, nor one who is sent greater than he who sent him. 17 If ye know these things, happy are ye, if ye do them. 18 I speak not concerning all of you; I know whom I chose; but, that the Scripture may be fulfilled, 'He that eats My bread lifted up his heel against Me.' 19 From this time, I tell you before it comes to pass; that, when it comes to pass, ye may believe that I am He. 20 Verily, verily, I say to you, he who receives whomever I send receives Me; and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.'

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIII.
1 Before the feast of the passover; Matt. 26:17; Mark 14:12; Luke 22:7.
3 Knowing that the Father gave all things into His hands; with the consciousness that all power and authority were committed to Him, the Savior performs this kingly act.
4 His garment; His outer garment.
7 Ye know not now; neither Peter nor any of the other disciples fully understood the import of this lowly service. He rendered them.
8 If I wash you not; the Savior here alludes to the washing of regeneration—a washing indispensable to salvation; but, if one should refuse to obey the Savior in any plain command, as that which He was then executing of Peter, he could have no part with Christ. Obedience is the first law of the Kingdom of God.
9 Not my feet only; if this washing is necessary to my sharing with Thee in Thy Kingdom, wash my hands and my head also. Peter had much to learn yet.
10 He who has bathed; "with the washing of regeneration" (ch. 3:3, 5, 6, 8). This is a different word from that used in vs. 5-8; and applies to the whole body, rather than to the hands or feet. One's feet might be soiled while walking from the bath to one's house; and this is strongly suggestive of the necessity of cleansing in the blood from the defilements that come to the Christian by contact with the world. Not all; Judas was the exception.
14 If I . . . washed your feet, ye ought also; as much as to say, "If I have performed this lowly office of service for you—if I have taken the humblest position among you, imitate My example among yourselves. If a brother's feet need washing, wash them for him; if he needs spiritual cleansing, apply that, too, as a priest of God; bearing one another's burdens, and leading to the cleansing blood.
17 If ye know these things; the truths He had taught them in this lowly service. Happy are ye; if reference is had, as some suppose, to the mere matter of publicly washing feet, it would be an easy thing to be happy. There is something far deeper than literal feet-washing.
18 The Scripture; Ps. 41:3; fulfilled in Judas.
21 Having said these things, Jesus was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, "Verily, verily, I say to you, that one of you will betray Me." 22 The disciples were looking one on another, doubting about whom He was speaking. 23 There was at the table reclining in Jesus' bosom one of His disciples, whom Jesus loved. 24 Simon Peter, therefore, beckons to this one, and says to him, "Tell us who it is about whom He is speaking." 25 He, leaning back as he was on the breast of Jesus, says to Him, "Lord, who is it?" 26 Jesus, therefore, answereoth, "He it is for whom I shall dip the morsel, and give it to him. Having, therefore, dipped the morsel, He taketh and giveth it to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot. 27 And after the morsel, then Satan entered into him. Jesus, therefore, saith to him, "What you do, do quickly." 28 And no one of those reclining knew for what purpose He spake this to him; 29 for some thought, because Judas had the money-bag, that Jesus said to him, "Buy what we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor. 30 He, therefore, having received the morsel, went out straightway; and it was night.

31 When, therefore, he went out, Jesus saith, "Now was the Son of Man glorified, and God was glorified in Him. 32 And God will glorify Him in Himself, and will straightway glorify Him. 33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye will seek Me; and, as I said to the Jews, 'Whither I go ye cannot come;' so now I say to you. 34 A new commandment I give to you, that ye love one another; even as I loved you, that ye love one another. 35 By this shall all know that ye are My disciples, if ye have love one to another."

36 Simon Peter says to Him, "Lord, where art Thou going?" Jesus answered, "Where I go, you cannot follow Me now; but you will follow Me later." 37 Peter says to Him, "Why can I not follow Thee even now? I will lay down my soul for Thee." 38 Jesus answered, "Will you lay down your soul for Me? Verily, verily, I say to you, a cock shall not crow, till you thrice deny Me."

CHAPTER XIV.

1 "Let not your heart be troubled: believe in God, believe also in Me. 2 In My Father's house are many abiding-places; otherwise, I would have told you, because I am going to prepare a place for you. 3 And, if I go and prepare a place for you, I am coming again, and will receive you to Myself; that, where I am, ye may be also. 4 And, whither I am going, ye know the way." 5 Thomas saith to Him, "Lord, we know not whither Thou art going; how do we know the way?" 6 Jesus saith to him, "I am the way, and for you, I am coming again, and will receive you to Myself; that, where I am, ye may be also. 4 And, whither I am going, ye know the way." 5 Thomas saith to Him, "Lord, we know not whither Thou art going; how do we know the way?" 6 Jesus saith to him, "I am the way, and for you, I am coming again, and will receive you to Myself; that, where I am, ye may be also. 4 And, whither I am going, ye know the way."

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIV.

1 Let not your heart be troubled; a time of great trial was just before them; and it behooved them to stand firm in their confidence in God and in Christ. This chapter is a panacea for all heart trouble, if one will only come to experience all from vs. 17-23.

2 My Father's house; Heaven. See note on Rev. 21:16, for its dimensions; being 1,500 miles in every direction. There is room in this house for many abiding-places. It will be blessed to be there!

3 I will come again; this coming may be individual; as, when He comes for each overcomer yoursain at death; or it may refer to the rapture, when the living "ready ones" will be caught up, or raised from the grave to meet Him. At any rate, the true believer is to have a place in this wonderful house.

4 The way... the truth... the life; Jesus is the way the sinner must take to reach the Father in peace; as being the expression of the great fact of God's love to man. He is the truth; and He is the life of the true believer. Wonderful Savior!
the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, except through Me. 7 If ye knew Me, ye would know My Father also; from henceforth ye know Him, and have seen Him.”

8 Philip says to Him, “Lord, show us the Father, and it suffices us.” 9 Jesus saith to him, “So long a time am I with you, and you do not know Me, Philip! He who has seen Me has seen the Father; how say you, ‘Show us the Father?’ 10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me? The words that I say to you, I speak not from Myself; but the Father, abiding in Me, doeth His works. 11 Believe Me, that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me; or, else, believe Me because of the works themselves. 12 Verily, verily, I say to you, he that believes on Me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do, because I go to the Father. 13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in My name, this will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If ye shall ask anything in My name, I will do it.

1 Gr. Intro.

7 Ye would have known My Father also; to know the Son truly, we must know the Father also. Their Oneness is such, that a full knowledge of One of them, involves a knowledge of the Other.

8 Show us the Father; let us see His bodily presence. This was a request that was on a fleshly plane, and could not be granted, since God the Father is a spirit.

11 Not from Myself; not from Myself apart from the Father. The Father Himself speaks through Me to you; hence, when you hear Me, you hear the Father also; as, when you see Me, you see the Father.

12 The works that I do shall he do also; this does not seem as if the days of miracles were meant by the Lord to pass away till the close at least, of this dispensation. Greater works than these; those who really believe on [or into] Christ are to do the works that Jesus did when personally present on earth, and greater than these. These greater works, no doubt, referred to works that would be done after Pentecost. In the multitudes that were saved. There is a great need now of men through whom the mighty power of God can find an outlet to the people in our times.

13, 14 Ask in My name; to ask truly in the name of Jesus, is to have the Spirit and nature of Christ so controlling one’s petition, that Christ Himself will be back of the petition. The name of Christ stands for Christ Himself. All petitions of this nature will be answered. These two verses cover the whole field of prayer.

15-17 If ye love Me, ye will keep My commandments; if we are not keeping His commandments, we may know that we are not loving Him truly. True love will lead to true obedience. I will ask of the Father; on the implied condition of full obedience prompted by love. Another Advocate; Jesus was one Advocate, and the Holy Spirit, or “the Spirit of truth,” is the Other. This Gift was bestowed upon the disciples on the day of Pentecost. The Spirit, since the day of Pentecost, has been in the world; and is always ready to take possession of the fully surrendered believer. All Christians ought to receive this wonderful Gift. (see ch. 4:14; Eph. 5:18). Have you received Him? He is with you, and will be in you; and the Spirit is with all believers; but He is so grieved at their self-will and self-serving, that His presence is rarely recognized. Will be in you: in you in the sense of possessing and controlling you. All believers, who will fully yield themselves to God, may receive this wonderful Gift, by simply asking for Him, and receiving Him. (Luke 11:13). The reason why Christians generally are so powerless is found in the fact that they are not filled with the Spirit. It is their fault, not God’s. The provision is ample.

18 I am coming to you: in the Spirit. It is only as the Spirit fills the Christian, that Christ can come to him, and be a reality in him.

19 Ye behold Me; that is, ye will behold Me, when ye come to live in the power of the Holy Spirit.

20 In that day; when the Spirit has come in and taken possession of you. Ye will know; that I am in My Father, and essentially One with Him; and that ye are in Me, hidden away and protected from the curse of the law, and from all your enemies; and ye will know, too, that I am in you. This is wonderful knowledge! And all believers may have it; but it can come only as the Spirit is permitted to work in one, unhindered.

21 Manifest Myself to him; whole-hearted obedience will bring the wonderful blessing of the manifested Christ.

22 Continuous and unstinted obedience will bring one the gracious experience of the abiding of the Father and the Son with the believer! Royal Guests, indeed! The 24 He who loves Me not, keeps not My words; and the word which ye hear is not Mine, but the Father's Who sent Me.

25 "These things have I spoken to you, while abiding with you. 26 But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, Whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and remind you of all things that I told you.

27 "Peace I leave for you; My own peace I give to you; not as the world gives, give I to you. Let not your heart be troubled; neither let it be fearful. 28 Ye order is, the Spirit reveals the Son; and the Son and the Spirit make way for the incoming of the Father also. Hence, the believer may be indwelt and even filled with the Holy Trinity! And all this here on earth! This experience, made perpetual, leads to the development of the full overcoming. 29 He will teach you all things; all things needful for you to know—especially the doctrines of the Gospel, and all things relating to your duty and privileges as believers. Remind you of all things: the things that Jesus had told them, and taught them, while with them.

27 Peace I leave for you; people have peace with God.

CHAPTER XV.

1 "I am the true vine, and My Father is the husbandman. 2 Every branch in Me that bears not fruit, He taketh it away, and every one that bears fruit, He cleanseth it, that it may bear more fruit. 3 Already ye are clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. 4 Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abide in the vine; so neither can ye, unless ye abide in Me. 5 I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abides in Me, and I in him, the same bears much fruit; because, apart from Me, ye can do nothing. 6 Unless one abides in Me, he was cast forth as a branch, and withered; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If ye abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done to you. 8 In this was My Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit, and become My disciples. 9 Even as the Father loved Me, I also loved you; abide in My love. 10 If ye keep My commandments, ye shall abide in My love, even as I have kept My Father's commandments, and abide in His love. 11 These things have I spoken to you, that My joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full. 12 This is My commandment, that ye love one another, even as I loved you. 13..."
Greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his soul\textsuperscript{1} for his friends. 14 Ye are My friends, if ye do what I command you. 15 No longer do I call you slaves; because the slave knows not what his lord is doing; but I have called you friends, because all things which I heard from My Father I made known to you. 16 Ye did not choose Me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide; that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in My name, He may give it you. 17 These things I command you, that ye may love one another. 18 If the world hates you, ye know that it has hated Me before it hated you. 19 If ye were of the world, the world would love its own; but because ye are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, on this account the world hates you. 20 Remember the word which I spake to you, 'A servant is not greater than his lord.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they kept My word, they will keep yours also. 21 But all these things will they do to you for My name's sake; because they know not Him Who sent Me.

22 "Had I not come and spoken to them, they had not had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. 23 He who hates Me hates My Father also. 24 Had I not done among them the works which no other did, they would not have had sin; but now have they both seen and hated both Me and My Father; 25 but this they do, that the word may be fulfilled, which has been written in their law, 'They hated Me without a cause.'\textsuperscript{2}

26 "When the Advocate shall come, Whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, Who proceedeth from the Father, He will testify concerning Me; 27 and ye also testify, because ye are with Me from the beginning."

\textsuperscript{1} Or, life.

\textsuperscript{2} Or, gratis.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 "These things have I spoken to you, that ye be not made to stumble. 2 They will put you out of the synagogues; yea, an hour is coming, that every one who kills you will think that he is offering service to God. 3 And these things will they do, because they have not known the Father, nor Me. 4 But these things I have spoken to you, that, when their hour shall come, ye may remember them, that I told you. \textsuperscript{3} And these things I said not to you from the beginning, because I was with you. 5 And now I go to Him Who sent Me; and no one of you asks Me, 'Whither goest Thou?' 6 But, because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. 7 But I tell you the

3 Because they know not the Father, nor Me; all persecutors of Christians have no real knowledge of the Father or of the Son.

4 When their time; the time of the occurrence of the events themselves.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XVI.

1 These things have I spoken; forewarning you of the troubles ahead, and to prevent your being caused to stumble.
JOHN 19.
Of ye declare causing again now. because He will convict the world respecting sin, and righteousness, and judgment: 9 respecting sin, because they believe not on Me; 10 respecting righteousness, because I go to the Father, and ye no longer behold Me; 11 and respecting judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.
12 "I have yet many things to say to you; but ye are not able to bear them now. 13 But, when He, the Spirit of truth, shall come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak from Himself; but whatsoever He hears He will speak; and He will declare to you things to come. 14 He will glorify Me; because He will take of Mine, and will declare it to you. 15 All things whatsoever the Father hath are Mine; on this account, I said, that He taketh of Mine, and will declare it to you. 16 A little while, and ye no longer behold Me; and again a little while, and ye will see Me." 17 Some of His disciples, therefore, said to one another, "What is this that He saith to us, 'A little while, and ye behold Me not; and again a little while, and ye will see Me;' and, 'Because I go to the Father?'" 18 They said, therefore, "What is this that He saith, 'A little while?'-we know not what He saith!" 19 Jesus knew that they wished to ask Him, and He said to them, "Do ye inquire among yourselves about this that I said, 'A little while, and ye behold Me not, and again a little while, and ye will see Me?' 20 Verily, verily, I say to you, that ye will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice: ye will be made sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. 21 A woman, when she is in travail, has sorrow, because her hour came; but, when she bears the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, because of the joy that a man was born into the world. 22 And ye, therefore, now, indeed, have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and your joy no one takes away from you. 23 And in that day ye will ask nothing of Me: verily, verily, I say to you, if ye shall ask anything of the Father, He will give it you in My name.
24 Hitherto ye asked nothing in My name; ask, and ye will receive, that your joy may be made full.
25 "These things have I spoken to you in proverbs. An hour is coming, when I will no more speak to you in proverbs, but will tell you plainly of the Father. 26 In that day ye shall ask in My name: and I say not to you, that I will ask the Father. It is a part of the Spirit's work to reveal to the dutiful believer the things of the Father and Son.
11 Glorify Me; the Spirit magnifies and glorifies Christ's person and work. Take of Mine . . . declare it to you: the Spirit reveals to the Spirit-filled believer the things that pertain to the work, office, and person of Christ; teaching him what Christ has done for him, what He is now to him. and the extent of his rights and privileges in Christ. All these things are revelations of the Spirit to the fully surrendered believer. Human intellect may apprehend, but cannot, unaided by the Spirit, comprehend the true meaning of the Gospel.
13 A little while; during the period of His burial. Again a little while; after His resurrection they would see Him.
14 Weep and lament; at His crucifixion. The world; the wicked rulers and people. Turned into joy; because of His resurrection, and the things to follow it.
15 The time of the deepest anguish is closely connected with the highest and holiest joys. Penial precedes Pentecost.
16 II will see you again; not only after the resurrection, but, also, in the Spirit, after Pentecost. (ch. 11:29, 31).
17 II will ask nothing of Me; while Jesus was visibly present with the disciples, it was proper for them to ask anything of Him; but, after His ascension, it would be proper to ask of the Father, but in the name of Jesus.
Father for you; 27 for the Father Himself loveth you, because ye have loved Me, and have believed that I came forth from the Father. 28 I came forth from the Father, and have come into the world; again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.”

29 His disciples say, “Lo, now Thou talkest plainly, and speakest no proverb: 30 now we know that Thou knowest all things; and hast no need that any one should ask Thee: by this we believe that Thou didst come forth from God.” 31 Jesus answered them, “Do ye now believe? 32 Behold, an hour is coming, and has come, that ye should be scattered, each to his own, and leave Me alone; and I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. 33 These things have I spoken to you, that in Me ye may have peace. In the world ye have tribulation; but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.”

2 Gr. In.

This would be brought about by His arrest and crucifixion.

33 That in Me ye may have peace: in living union with Christ the believer gets peace; first, he gets peace with God, when he truly accepts Christ as his Savior; and he gets “the peace of God,” when he entrones Christ in his heart. (Phil. 4:7). I have overcome the world: Christ has overcome Satan and all foes without and within; but one can enjoy these great benefits only as he lets Christ abide in him.

which Thou gavest Me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew truly that I came forth from Thee, and believed that Thou didst send Me. 9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for those whom Thou hast given Me; because they are Thine. 10 And all Mine are Thine, and Thine are Mine; and I am glorified in them. 11 And I am no longer in the world; and these are in the world, and I come to Thee. Holy Father, keep, in Thine Own name, those whom Thou hast given Me, that they may be one, even as we are. 12 While I was with them, I was keeping, in Thy name, those Whom Thou hast given Me; and I guarded them, and no one of them perished, except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. 13 But now I come to Thee, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have My joy made full in themselves. 14 I have given them Thy word, and the world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I

NOTES ON CHAPTER XVII.

1 These words; probably including all from the beginning of ch. 14. The hour has come; the time for His sufferings and death. Glorify Thy Son; by keeping Him in the hour of suffering, and proving Him to be the true Messiah.

2 Authority over all flesh: for the salvation of all believers. (Matt. 28:18).

3 Life eternal; to know God and Christ fully and truly, brings life, and life more abundant.

4 Glorified Thee on the earth; by doing all that the Father commissioned Me to do.

5 Before the world was; Phil. 2:6; II Cor. 8:10.

6 I manifested Thy name; Thy character and attributes for which Thy name stands.

7 All things . . . from Thee; the disciples now understood, in a measure, the truth, that all the Savior’s mighty works were wrought in harmony with the will and appointment of the Father.

9 I pray for them; for the disciples.

10 I am glorified in them; by their reception of Him as their Redeemer and Savior, and the mighty work wrought in them, and to be wrought by the Holy Spirit.

am not of the world. 15 I pray not that Thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that Thou shouldst keep them from the evil one. 16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. 17 Sanctify them in the truth; Thy word is truth. 18 As Thou didst send Me into the world, I also sent them into the world; 19 and in their behalf I sanctify Myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth.

20 "And I do not pray for these only, but for those also who believe on Me through their word; 21 that they may all be one, even as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be in us; that the world may believe that Thou didst send Me. 22 And the glory which Thou hast given to Me I have given to them, that they may be one, even as we are one: 23 I in them, and Thou in Me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that Thou didst send Me, and lovedst them, even as Thou didst love Me. 24 Father, as to what Thou hast given Me, I desire that they also may be with Me, where I am; that they may behold My glory, which Thou hast given Me; because Thou didst love Me before the founding of a world. 25 O righteous Father! and the world knew Thee not; but I knew Thee, and these knew that Thou didst send Me; 26 and I made known to them Thy name, and will make it known; that the love with which Thou lovedst Me may be in them, and I in them."

20 Here the Savior prayed for all who believed, and all who ever would believe, on Him.
21-23 That they all may be one; Christ has provided that all true believers may, through a vital and unhindered union with Himself in this life, put on His own life, nature, and holiness; and so become one in Him. Christians who hold on to the self-life make it impossible for the Savior’s prayer to be answered, so far as they are concerned. The believer, who yields himself wholly to God, and comes to be filled with the Holy Trinity, is answering, so far as he is concerned, this wonderful prayer of the Savior. Beloved reader, will you hinder this prayer by keeping control of yourself, rather than giving all to God?

ye?" 5 They answered Him, "Jesus, the Nazarene." Jesus saith to them, "I am He." And Judas also, who betrayed Him, was standing with them. 6 When, therefore, He said to them, "I am He," they went backward, and fell to the ground. 7 Again, therefore, He asked them, "Whom seek ye?" And they said, "Jesus, the Nazarene." 8 Jesus answered, "I told you that I am He; if, therefore, ye are seeking Me, permit these to go their way;" 9 that the word might be fulfilled, which He spake, "Of those whom Thou hast given Me, I lost none." 10 Simon Peter, therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest’s servant, and cut off his right ear. Now the servant’s name was Malchus. 11 Jesus, therefore, said to Peter, "Put up the sword into the sheath. The cup which the Father hath given Me, shall I not drink it?"

12 So the band, and the chief captain, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus, and bound Him, 13 and led Him to Annas first; for he was father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. 14 And it was Caiaphas who counseled the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people. 15 And Simon Peter and another disciple were following Jesus. And that disciple was known to the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the court of the high priest; 16 But Peter was standing at the door without. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spake to her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

Peter's Denial.

17 The maiden door-keeper, therefore, says to Peter, "Are you also one of this Man's disciples?" He says, "I am not." 18 And the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals (because it was cold), and were warming themselves; and Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself. 19 The high priest, therefore, asked Jesus concerning His disciples, and concerning His teaching. 20 Jesus answered, "I have spoken openly to the world; I always taught in the synagogue and in the temple, where all the Jews assemble together; and in secret I spake nothing. 21 Why do you ask Me? Ask those who have heard, what I spake to them; behold, they know the things which I said." 22 And, when He had said this, one of the officers standing by gave Jesus a blow with a rod. 23 Saying, "Dost Thou answer the high priest thus?" 24 Jesus answered him, "If I spake evil, testify concerning the evil; but, if well, why do you beat Me?" 25 Annas, therefore, sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest. 26 And Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said, therefore, to him, "Are you also one of His disciples?" He denied, and said, "I am not." 27 One of the servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off, says, "Did not I see you in the garden with Him?" 28 Again, therefore, Peter denied; and straightway a cock crowed.

28 They led Jesus, therefore, from Caiaphas into the Praetorium; and it was early; and they themselves entered not into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover. 29 Pilate, therefore, went out to them, and says, "What accusation do ye bring against this Man?" 30 They answered and said to him, "If this Man were not an evil-doer, we would not have delivered Him up to you." 31 Pilate, therefore, said to them, "Take Him yourselves, and judge Him according to your law." The Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to kill anyone;" 32 that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which He spake, signifying by what manner of death He was about to die. 33 Pilate, therefore, entered again into the Praetorium, and called Jesus, and said to Him, "Art Thou the King of the Jews?" 34 Jesus answered, "Do you say this of yourself, or did others tell you concerning Me?" 35 Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? 21 Ask those who have heard; this was the proper and legal way of getting at the facts.

28 That they might not be defiled; the Jews would not enter this hall, or gentle court, lest they should be defiled; though they thirsted for the innocent blood of the Lamb of God.

31 Take Him yourselves, and judge Him; the Jews would not do this, because they wished Jesus to be put to death; and, as the Jews were subject to the government of Caesar, they had no right to take life.

32 That the saying of Jesus; crucifixion was a Roman method of executing prisoners who were condemned to death; while stoning was the Jewish method. (Lev. 24:16). By securing the conviction of Jesus before Pilate, they fulfilled His own prediction as to the manner of His death. (Matt. 20:19).

33 Art Thou the King of the Jews?; Pilate asked this question, because this was one of the charges the Jews made against Him, which they claimed to be treason against Caesar.

34 Of yourself; Jesus meant by this to ascertain whether Pilate himself knew of anything treasonable in Him.

35 Am I a Jew; this is equivalent to saying, "I am not a Jew, and how could I be expected to know about Thy troubles?"
CHAPTER XIX.

1 Then Pilate, therefore, took Jesus, and scourged Him. 2 And the soldiers, having platted a crown of thorns, placed it upon His head, and put on Him a purple robe; 3 and they kept coming to Him, and saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they were giving Him blows with a rod. 4 And Pilate went out again, and says to them, "Behold, I bring Him out to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in Him." 5 Jesus, therefore, came forth without, wearing the thorn-crown, and the purple robe. And he says to them, "Behold, the Man!" 6 When, therefore, the high priests and the officers saw Him, they cried out, "Crucify! crucify!" Pilate says to them, "Take ye to the truth. Every one who is of the truth hears My voice." 38 Pilate says to Him, "What is truth?" And, having said this, he went out again to the Jews, and says to them, "I find no crime in Him. 39 But ye have a custom, that I should release to you one at the passover. Do ye wish, therefore, that I release to you the King of the Jews?" 40 They cried out, therefore, again, saying, "Not this Man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIX.

1 Pilate scourged Him; possibly hoping that this might satisfy the Jews, (Luke 23:22). 6 Take ye Him, and crucify Him; probably said in irony, as the Roman law forbade the Jews to kill any one. 7 We have a law; Lev. 24:16; but this law did not apply to Jesus, because He did not blaspheme, but glorify the name of God. Pilate declared Him innocent of the charge of treason; and now the Jews fall back on the charge of blasphemy; and never was a verdict more foreign to the facts. 8 He was the more afraid; Pilate had not heard this charge before—that is, the charge of blasphemy, supported by the Saviour's claim to be God's Son; and now he was the more eager to release Him.
release this Man, you are not Cesar's friend; every one who makes himself a king speaks against Cesar." 13 Pilate, therefore, having heard these words, led Jesus without, and sat down on the judgment-seat at a place called the "Pavement," but, in Hebrew, "Gabbatha." 14 And it was the Preparation of the passover: it was about the sixth hour. And he says to the Jews, "Behold, your King!" 15 They, therefore, cried out, "Away with Him! away with Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate says to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The high priests answered, "We have no king but Cesar!" 16 Then, therefore, he delivered Him up to them to be crucified. 17 They took Jesus, therefore; and, bearing the cross for Himself, He went forth into the place called "Place of a Skull," which, in Hebrew, is called "Golgotha;" 18 where they crucified Him, and two others with Him, one on each side, and Jesus in the midst. 19 And Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, "JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS." 20 This title, therefore, many of the Jews read; because the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, in Greek. 21 The high priests of the Jews, therefore, said to Pilate, "Write not, 'The King of the Jews,' but that He said, I am King of the Jews." 22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written." 23 The soldiers, therefore, when they crucified Jesus, took His garments, and made four parts, to each soldier a part; and also the coat. And the coat was without a seam, woven from the top throughout. 24 They said, therefore, one to another, "Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be; that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says, 'They divided My garments among themselves, and upon My vesture did they cast lots.'" The soldiers, therefore, did these things. 25 But there were standing by the cross of Jesus His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. 26 Jesus, therefore, seeing His mother, and the disciple whom He loved standing by, saith to His mother, "Woman, behold your Son!" 27 Then saith He to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home. 28 After these things Jesus, knowing that all things have now been finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith, "I thirst." 29 There was set there a vessel full of vinegar; so, putting a sponge full of vinegar on hyssop, they bore it to His mouth. 30 When, therefore, Jesus received the vinegar, He said, "It has been finished;" and, bowing His head, He delivered up His spirit. 31 The Jews, therefore, (since it was the Preparation), that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the sabbath, (for the day of that sabbath was great), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and they be taken away. 32 The soldiers, therefore, came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with Him; 33 but, when they came to Jesus, and saw that He was already dead, they broke not His legs; 34 but one of the soldiers with a spear pierced His side, and straightway there came out blood and water. 35 And he who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true; and he knows that he says what is true, that ye also may believe. 36 For these things came to pass, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of Him shall not be broken." 37 And again another Scripture says, "They shall look on Him Whom they pierced." 38 And after these things Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly through fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave him permission. He came, therefore, and took away His body. 39 And there came also Nicodemus, he who at the first came to Him by night, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds. 40 So they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of Jews is to bury. 41 Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb, in which no one had yet been laid. 42 There, therefore, on account of the Preparation of the Jews (because the tomb was near), they laid Jesus.

CHAPTER XX.
THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS.

1 Now on the first day of the sabbaths Mary Magdalene comes early in the morning, while it was yet dark to the tomb, and sees the stone taken out of the tomb. 2 She runs, therefore, and comes to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and says to them, “They took away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they laid Him!” 3 Peter, therefore, went forth, and the other disciple, and they were going to the tomb. 4 And the two were running together; and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb; 5 and, having stooped to look within, he beholds the linen cloths lying; yet he went not within. 6 Simon Peter, therefore, also comes, following him, and he went into the tomb; and beholds the linen cloths lying, 7 and the napkin that was on His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. 8 Then went in, therefore, the other disciple also, who came first to the tomb; and he saw, and believed; 9 for as yet they knew not the Scripture, that He must rise from the dead. 10 The disciples, therefore, went away again to their own home.

11 But Mary was standing without by the tomb, weeping. So, as she was weeping, she stooped to look into the tomb; 12 and she beholds two angels in white, sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. 13 And they say to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She says to them, “Because they took away my Lord, and I know not where they laid Him!” 14 Having said these things, she turned back, and beholds Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. 15 Jesus saith to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?” She, supposing Him to be the gardener, says to Him, “Sir, if thou dost bear Him away, tell me where thou didst lay Him, and I will take Him away!” 16 Jesus saith to her, “Mary!” Turning, she says to Him, in Hebrew, “Rabboni!” (which is to say, Teacher). 17 Jesus saith to her, “Touch Me not; for I have not yet ascended to My Father; but go to My brethren, and say to them, “I ascend to My Father and your Father, and to My God and your God.”

18 Mary Magdalene comes, proclaiming to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord,” and that He spake these things to her. 19 When, therefore, it was evening, on that day, the first day of sabbaths; and, when, through fear of the Jews, the doors were shut, where the disciples were; Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith to them, "Peace be to you!" 20 And, having said this, He showed them both His hands and His side. The disciples, therefore, rejoiced, when they saw the Lord. 21 Jesus, therefore, said to them again, "Peace be to you! As the Father hath sent Me, I also send you." 22 And, having said this, He breathed upon them, and said to them, "Receive ye the Holy Spirit. 23 Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted; and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained."

24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 The other disciples, therefore, said to him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, 21 I send you; to proclaim the Gospel, and thus make known the way of salvation.

22 Receive ye the Holy Spirit; it is supposable that the disciples received something of the Holy Spirit on this occasion; but they still needed, each, a personal Pentecost, or infilling of the Spirit, and enduement with power for their work.

23 Remit . . . retain: the same power is here bestowed on all the apostles without distinction. In Matt. 16:19, this power seems to have been bestowed on Peter alone.

25 Thomas was mistaken in regard to the proof necessary to inspire his belief in the resurrection of Christ, as announced by the other disciples; for, a little later, the sight of Jesus and hearing His voice proved quite sufficient to awaken his belief. (vs. 27, 28.)

26 After eight days, on the next Lord's day, 27 Then He saith to Thomas, "Reach hither your finger, and see My hands; and reach hither your hand, and press it into My side; and be not faithless, but believing." 28 Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!" 29 Jesus saith to him, "Because you have seen Me, you believe: happy are those who did not see, and yet believed."

30 Many other signs, therefore, did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which have not been written in this book; 31 but these have been written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that, believing, ye may have life in His name.

CHAPTER XXI.

JESUS AT THE SEA OF TIBERIAS.

1 After these things Jesus manifested Himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and He manifested Himself in this manner. 2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathaniel of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples. 3 Simon Peter says to them, "I am going away to fish." They say to him, "We also are coming with you." They went forth, and entered into a boat; and in that night they caught nothing. 4 But, morning now coming on, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. 5 Jesus, therefore, saith to them, "Little children, have ye anything to eat?" They answered Him, "No." 6 And He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you shall find." They cast it, therefore; and no longer were they able to draw it, for the multitude of the fishes. 7 That disciple, therefore, whom Jesus loved, says to Peter, "It is the Lord!" Simon Peter, therefore, having heard that it was the Lord, girded his outer garment (for he was naked), and cast himself into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, and press my hand into His side, I will not believe."

26 And, after eight days, again His disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace be to you!" 27 Then He saith to Thomas, "Reach hither your finger, and see My hands; and reach hither your hand, and press it into My side; and be not faithless, but believing." 28 Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!" 29 Jesus saith to him, "Because you have seen Me, you believe: happy are those who did not see, and yet believed."

30 Many other signs, therefore, did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which have not been written in this book; 31 but these have been written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that, believing, ye may have life in His name.

30 Many other signs; miracles. John does not pretend to record all the miracles wrought by Jesus, but confesses that there were many of which he made no specific mention.

5 Anything to eat; the word in the Greek points to something to be eaten with bread; as, flesh, or fish.

7 Was naked; had put off his outer garment only; and now he puts it on.

8 About two hundred cubits; about one hundred yards.
but about two hundred cubits distant, dragging the net full of fishes.

9 When, therefore, they went out upon the land, they see a fire of coals there, and fish lying thereon, and bread. 10 Jesus saith to them, "Bring of the fishes which ye just now caught." 11 Simon Peter, therefore, went aboard, and drew the net to the land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three; and, though there were so many, the net was not rent. 12 Jesus saith to them, "Come, take breakfast." 13 And not one of the disciples was daring to inquire of Him, "Who art Thou?" knowing that it was the Lord. 13 Jesus cometh, and taketh the bread, and giveth to them, and the fish likewise. 14 This is now the third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after He was raised from the dead.

15 So, when they breakfasted, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, dost thou love me more than these?" He saith to Him, "Yea, Lord, Thou knowest that I fondly love Thee." He saith to him, "Feed My lambs." 16 He saith to him again a second time, "Simon, son of John, dost thou love Me?" He saith to Him, "Yea, Lord, Thou knowest that I fondly love Thee." He saith to him, "Feed My sheep." 17 He saith to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, dost thou fondly love Me?" Peter was grieved, because He said to him the third time, "Do you fondly love Me?" and he said to Him, "Lord, Thou knowest all things; Thou knowest that I do fondly love Thee." Jesus saith to him, "Feed My sheep. 18 Verily, verily, I say to you, when you were young, you were wont to gird yourself, and to walk wheresoever you wished; but, when you become old, you will stretch forth your hands, and another will gird you, and carry you whither you wish not." 19 Now this He spake, signifying by what manner of death he would glorify God. And, having spoken this, He saith to him, "Follow Me." 20 Peter, turning about, sees the disciple whom Jesus loved following; who also at the Supper leaned back on Jesus' breast, and said, "Lord, who is he that betrays Thee?" 21 Peter, therefore, seeing him, saith to Jesus, "Lord, and what will this man do?" 22 Jesus saith to him, "If I wish him to remain till I come, what is it to you? follow Me." 23 This saying, therefore, went forth among the brethren, that that disciple should not die; yet Jesus did not say to him, that he should not die, but, "If I wish him to remain till I come, what is it to you?"

24 This is the disciple who testifies concerning these things, and wrote these things; and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did; which, indeed, were they written one by one. I suppose that not even the world itself would contain the books that would be written.

1 Or, break your fast. 2 Gr. Joanes.
3 Or, esteem as a friend.—Rotherham.

A fire of coals: a fire made of charcoal. Fish: fish that Jesus provided—possibly in a miraculous way.

14 The third time: His third appearance to the apostles when together.

15-17 More than these: more than the other disciples. Note the fact that Peter, while he avers his fondness for Jesus, does not claim in his answer to love Jesus, or to be more loyal to Him, than any of the rest. He does not answer Jesus in the use of the same verb that Jesus used in His question (which is Agapao); but he uses altogether a different word (Phileo—which denotes friendship). Probably Peter meant to use a stronger word than the one Jesus used; using, as he did, phileo instead of agapao throughout. Let no one suppose, however, that agapao is a feeble word; for it was strong enough to induce the Father to give His Son for the redemption of mankind. (ch. 3:16). Peter had a wonderfully responsible ministry before him, in feeding the lambs, tending (or shepherding), and feeding the sheep. Besides this, he was to be a successful fisher of men.
Luke, the writer of the third Gospel, is the writer also of the Acts, (Acts 1:1). He appears as the travelling companion of Paul in ch. XVI:39-17, and from ch. XX:5 to the close of the book. He gives an outline of Peter's principal works, with incidents in the labors of others, from ch. II—XII. From ch. XIII—XXIII, Paul is the principal figure. The book appears to have been written about A. D. 64.

—THE—

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER I.

THE INTRODUCTION.

1 The first narrative I made, O Theophilus, concerning all things that Jesus began both to do and to teach, 2 until the day in which He was taken up, after having given commandment, through the Holy Spirit, to the apostles whom He chose; 3 to whom He also presented Himself alive, after He suffered, by many proofs; being seen by them during forty days, and speaking the things concerning the Kingdom of God. 4 And, being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which said He, "Ye heard from Me; 5 because John, indeed, immersed in water, but ye shall be immersed in the Holy Spirit, not many days hence."

6 They, therefore, having come together, were asking Him, saying, "Lord, dost Thou at this time restore the Kingdom to Israel?" 7 He said to them, "It is not yours to know times or seasons, which the Father placed in His own authority; 8 but ye shall receive power, the Holy Spirit having come upon you, and ye shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and Samaria, and to the utmost limit of the earth." 9 And, having said these things, while they were beholding, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him from their sight. 10 And, as they were gazing intently into the heaven, while He was ascending, behold, also two men stood by them in white apparel. 11 Who also said, "Men of Galilee, why do ye stand looking into the heaven? This Jesus, Who was taken up from you into Heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye beheld Him ascending into Heaven."

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 The first narrative: the Gospel of Luke, Theophilus, some friend of Luke; and the same to whom He addressed his Gospel, (Luke 1:3). Began both to do and to teach, meaning that He gave an account of both the miracles and the teachings of Jesus from the beginning of His public ministry.

2 The day on which He was taken up: ascended to Heaven, (Luke 24:51).

3 After He suffered: after His death on the cross.

4 The promise of the Father: the promise of the Holy Spirit, (see Joel 3:8, 28; John 3:14; 7:39; 11:16, 17). Heard of Me: Jesus had told the disciples about this great promise.

5 John, indeed, immersed in water: the proposition is not expressed in the Greek, but it is expressed in Matt. 3:11, and it was done in the river Jordan, (Matt. 3:6; Mark 1:5); and as baptism is a burial, (Rom. 6:4), the water was not applied to the subject, but the subject was immersed in water. Hence in ch. 1:5 the dative (hudat) is properly rendered "in water."

6 Dost Thou at this time restore the Kingdom to Israel? they still did not understand the nature of the Savior's mission to earth; nor did they till after Pentecost.

7 Times and seasons: the words contain a rebuke to their excessive curiosity about the government they supposed He had come to set up.

8 Ye shall receive power: the true dynamite: He again calls their attention to the great work of the Spirit, and seeks to interest them in Him. The Holy Spirit having come upon you: or when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. The Spirit brings the power.

10 So come in like manner: He will come personally and visibly. He will return to the mount of Olives, from which He ascended, (Zeck. 14:4); and will come with His saints, (Zeck. 14:5; Jude 14). This coming with His saints implies His pre-tribulation rapture, (see Rev. 3:10; Luke 21:36; Rev. 12:2, 14:4).
THE DISCIPLES RETURN TO JERUSALEM.

13 Then they returned to Jerusalem from a mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey. 13 And, when they entered, they went up into the upper-room, where they were abiding; both Peter and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James. 14 These all were continuing with one accord in prayer, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

THE APOSTLES CHOOSE MATTHIAS TO FILL THE PLACE OF JUDAS.

15 And, in these days, Peter, standing up in the midst of the brethren, said, (and there was a multitude of persons together, about a hundred and twenty), 16 "Brethren, it was necessary that the Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spake beforehand, through the mouth of David, concerning Judas, who became guide to those who arrested Jesus; 17 because he was numbered among us, and obtained the portion of this ministry. 18 This man, therefore, acquired a field with the reward of unrighteousness; and, falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out; 19 and it became known to all those dwelling at Jerusalem; so that place was called, in their own language, Akeldama, that is, 'Field of blood.' 20 For it has been written in a book of Psalms, "Let his habitation become desolate, and let no one dwell in it." And, 'His charge, let another take.'

21 "It is needful, therefore, that one of these men—who accompanied us all the time that the Lord went in and out among us, 22 beginning from the immersion of John, until the day on which He was taken up from us—should become a witness, with us, of His resurrection." 23 And they proposed two: Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. 24 And, praying, they said, "Thou, Lord, Who knowest the hearts of all men, show which of these two Thou didst choose, 25 to take the place of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place." 26 And they gave lots for them; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER II.

THE DAY OF PENTECOST.

1 And, when the day of Pentecost was being fulfilled they were all together in one place; 2 and suddenly there came out of Heaven a sound, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 And there appeared to them tongues, as of fire, distributed among them; and it sat upon each one of them. 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, even as the Spirit was giving them to declare.

5 Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation un-

2 Tongues, as of fire: in the form of tongues divided, and having the appearance of fire, and rested upon the apostles.
3 Filled with the Holy Spirit; they were also immersed, the Holy Spirit. (ch. 1:8; Matt. 3:11; Mark 1:8; Luke 3:16), and received the gift of the Holy Spirit. (v. 38; ch. 10:45). This gracious experience—whether considered as an immersion in the Holy Spirit, or a filling with, or the gift of, the Holy Spirit, is the privilege of every true believer, (v. 29), and his duty, (1Cor. 15:18).

der heaven; 6 and, when this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were greatly surprised, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. 7 And they were amazed, and wondered, saying, "Behold, are not all these who are speaking Galileans? 8 And how do we hear, each in our own language in which we were born; 9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, in Judaea, and also Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt, and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and sojourners from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretans, and Arabians—we hear them speaking in our own languages the wonderful works of God?" 12 And they were all amazed, and perplexed, saying one to another, "What does this mean?" 13 And others, mocking, said, "They have been filled with new wine!"

14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and declared to them, "Men of Judaea, and all those dwelling in Jerusalem, be this known to you, and give ear to my words: 15 for these are not drunken, as ye suppose, for it is the third hour of the day; 16 but this is that which was spoken through the prophet Joel: 17 'And it shall be in the last days,' saith God, 'I will pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams; 18 yea, and on My servants and on My handmaidens in those days will I pour out of My Spirit, and they shall prophesy.

6-10 Greatly surprised; at the many languages spoken by these uncultured Galillans; the people of each nationality hearing these Spirit-filled people speak the language of his own country. This was, indeed, wonderful. Proselytes; gentiles converted to the Jewish faith. The wonderful works of God; respecting His Son, and the redemption wrought through Him.

11 The eleven; the eleven apostles.

15 The third hour; nine o'clock in the morning.

16 This is that spoken through Joel; Joel 2:28-32. Peter does not quote the exact words of Joel, but gives the sense of the prophecy. In the last days; in the Gospel dispensation. See visions...dream dreams; these are some of the ways in which God reveals His will to His servants. (Matt. 2:19.) Shall prophesy; forcell future events through the inspiration of the Spirit. The word also has a secondary meaning, to teach, or to speak unto edification and comfort. (I Cor. 14:3.)

19 'And I will show wonders in the heaven above, and signs upon the earth beneath—blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke. 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and notable day of the Lord come. 21 And it shall be, that every one who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

22 "Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus, the Nazarene, a man accredited from God to you by miracles, and wonders, and signs, which God did through Him in the midst of you, even as ye yourselves know; 23 This Man, delivered up by the settled counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye, having fastened to the cross, through the hand of lawless ones, did slay: 24 Whom God raised up, having loosed the pangs of death; because it was not possible that He should be held by it. 25 For David says concerning Him, 'I beheld the Lord in my presence continually; because He is on my right hand, that I should not be moved. 26 Therefore, my heart was glad, and my tongue greatly rejoiced; moreover my flesh also shall abide in hope: 27 because Thou wilt not leave My soul behind unto Hades; neither wilt Thou give Thy Holy One to see corruption. 28 Thou didst make known to Me the ways of life; Thou wilt make Me full of gladness with Thy presence.'

29 "Brethren! It is permitted to speak to you freely concerning the patriarch David, that he both died, and was buried; and his tomb is among us till this day; 30 being, therefore, a prophet, and knowing that with an oath God swore to him, that out of the fruit of his loins One should sit on his throne; 31 he, foreseeing it, spake concerning the resurrection of Christ, that neither was He left behind unto Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption.

32 "This Jesus God raised up; of which fact we all are witnesses. 33 Being, therefore, exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He was pouring forth this which ye both see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend into Heaven; but he himself says, 'The Lord said to my Lord, sit at My right hand, 35 till I make Thy foes a footstool for Thy feet.'

36 "Therefore, let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God made Him both Lord and Christ—This Jesus Whom ye crucified."

37 And, hearing this, they were pricked in the heart, and said to Peter, and the rest of the apostles, "Brethren! what shall we do?" 38 And Peter said to them, "Repent; and be immersed each one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ, unto remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit; 39 for the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all those afar off—as many as the Lord our God shall call to Him."

40 Also with many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation!"

41 Those, therefore, who gladly received his word, were immersed; and there were added to them on that day about three thousand souls; 42 and they were constantly attending the teaching of the apostles and the fellowship, and the breaking of bread, and the prayers. 43 And fear was coming upon every soul; and many wonders and signs were coming to pass through the apostles. 44 And all who believed were together, and were holding all things common; 45 and they were selling their possessions and goods, and were distributing them to all, according as any one had need. 46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at their homes, were partaking of food in gladness and singleness of heart; 47 praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord was adding to them daily those who were being saved.

CHAPTER III.

THE LAME MAN HEALED.

1 Now Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer—the ninth hour. 2 And a certain man, lame from his mother’s womb, was being carried along, whom they were wont to lay daily at the gate of the temple—which was called this I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ, the Nazarene, walk." 7 And, seizing him by the right hand, he raised him up; and instantly his feet and ankles were strengthened; 8 and, leaping forth, he stood, and was walking about; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God. 9 And all the people saw him walking about, and praising God; 10 and they were recognizing him, that this was he who was wont to sit for alms, at the Beautiful gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him.

11 And, as he was holding Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch, which is called Solomon's, greatly astonished. 12 And Peter, seeing it, spake to the people, "Men of Israel, why do ye wonder at this? Or why look ye so intently on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him to walk? 13 The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified His Child 1 Jesus, Whom ye, indeed, delivered up, and denied before Pilate's face, when he gave judgment to release Him; 14 but ye denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked that a man—a murderer—be granted to you; 15 and the Prince of life ye killed; Whom God raised from the dead—of which fact we are witnesses. 16 And His name, by the faith of His name, gave strength to this man.

but do all through the power of Christ. Christ, however, healed in His own power, always acting in harmony with the Father. (John 5:36; 10:25.)

13 Glorified His Child: by raising Him from the dead, and thus showing Him to be the Messiah.

14 Denied the Holy and Righteous One; Ps. 16:10.

15 His Name; His power. Faith was the means. Peter the instrument, and Christ, the Agent of this miracle.

16 In ignorance: the Jews did not know that in crucifying Jesus they were slaying their own Messiah; but they ought to have known it; and would have done so, had they laid aside their prejudice, and used the means of knowledge which was in their reach. (John 15:24; 25; 3:20.)

17 That Christ should suffer: Ps. 22:15-18; Isa. 53:3-10; Dan. 9:26.

18 Repent, and turn; repentance and turning from sin are very closely related, even as antecedent and consequent. That seasons of refreshing may come; seasons of spiritual refreshing come to all who truly repent and turn from sin. Repentance is not sufficiently understood. In fact, there is a great tendency in our times to crowd it out, as something unnecessary; it being assumed that, if one simply believes, he is all right, regardless of repentance; whereas, saving faith is possible to none but the truly penitent.

whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is through Him gave him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. 17 "And now, brethren, I know that in ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers; 18 but God thus fulfilled what He before announced through the mouth of all His prophets, that His Christ should suffer. 19 Repent ye, therefore, and turn, that your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come seasons of refreshing from the presence of the Lord; 20 and that He may send forth Christ Jesus who had been before appointed for you; 21 Whom Heaven must retain, until the times of restoration of all things of which God spake through the mouth of all His holy prophets from the beginning. 22 Moses, indeed, said, 'A prophet will the Lord your God raise up for you from among your brethren, as He did me; to Him shall ye hearken in all things, whatsoever He shall say to you. 23 And it shall be, that every soul that will not hearken to that Prophet, shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.' 24 And also all the prophets from Samuel and those in succession, as many as spake, also foretold these days. 25 Ye are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your Seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.' 26 To you first, God, having raised up His Child, sent Him forth, blessing you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities."

20 That He may send forth Christ, Jesus: Christ will come for His saints; and with them, to establish universal peace and order on the earth. Beyond all this, the eternal cycles of glory and bliss will come, of which the Pentecostal blessings, which had just begun to be realized a little before Peter's address to the people, were foretastes.

21 Times of restoration of all things; when Christ first comes, and assumes personal control of the earth (Zech. 14:9), universal order will be restored; and, beyond that, when the last enemy shall be conquered, and Satan and all his hosts have been consigned to the lake of fire (Rev. 20:10), righteousness will be restored to God's dominions.

22 Moses, indeed, said; Deut. 18:15-19. As He did me; Christ, like Moses, was appointed by God to make His will known to the people; but Christ was immeasurably above Moses.

23 Will not hearken to That Prophet; will not obey Christ. How impious it is for a mere man to claim to be This Prophet!

CHAPTER IV.

THE ARREST OF PETER AND JOHN.

1 But, as they were speaking to the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them, being greatly troubled because of their teaching the people, and declaring in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. 2 And they laid hands on them, and put them in custody till the next day; for it was now evening. 3 And many of those who heard the word believed; and the number of the men became about five thousand.

4 And it came to pass, the next day, that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem, and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest. 5 And, having set them in the midst, they were inquiring, "In what power or in what name, did ye do this?" 6 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are this day examined in regard to a good deed done to an impotent man, by what means this person has been made whole; 7 be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the Name of Jesus Christ, the Nazarene, Whom ye crucified, Whom God raised from the dead, in Him does this man stand here before you well! 8 This is the Stone That was set at naught by you, the builders, Which was made into a head of a corner. 9 And in no one else is there salvation; for neither is there any other name under Heaven, that has been given among men, in Which we must be saved."

10 Now, beholding the boldness of Peter and John, and perceiving that they were unlettered and ignorant men, they were wondering; they also were recognizing them, that they had been with Jesus; 11 and, seeing the man who had been healed, standing with them, they had nothing to say against it. 12 But, having ordered them to go aside out of the Sanhedrin, they were conferring one with another, saying, "What shall we do to these men? for, indeed, that a notable sign has been done through them is manifest to all those dwelling in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it; 13 but, that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, that they speak no more to any man in This Name." 14 And, having called them they charged them not to speak at all, nor teach, in the name of Jesus. 15 But Peter and John, answering, said to them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to hearken to you, rather than to God, judge ye; 16 for we cannot but speak the things which we saw and heard." 17 And, when they had further threatened them, released them, finding no way to punish them, on account of the people; because all were glorifying God for what had taken place; 18 for the man, on whom this sign of healing had been done, was more than forty years old.

19 And, being released, they went to their own friends, and reported all that the high priests and the elders said to them. 20 And they, having heard it, 21 Because of the people; they were restrained from punishing Peter and John, lest the people should give them trouble.

NOTES ON CHAPTER IV.

4 About five thousand; it is probable that this was the entire number of believing men, including those who had believed before Pentecost, as also those who believed on this occasion.

5 Rulers; members of Jewish Sanhedrin, about seventy in all; having the general superintendence of public affairs.

6 Annas; who had been high priest, and was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest then in charge.

7 In what power; or by whose power.

8 Filled with the Holy Spirit; Peter had been filled with the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost; but he is filled again for the present crisis. He needed special wisdom, power, and courage, for the present crisis, and this came by a fresh filling.

9 In the name of Jesus Christ, the Nazarene; the power to heal was connected with Jesus, and issued from Him.

10 The stone; Ps. 118:22; Isa. 28:16; Matt. 21:42.

11 Or, In Whom. 2 Or, has been saved.

12 In no one else is salvation; there is no other person, and no other plan, that can bring salvation to man, than Christ and His Gospel. (Acts 10:43; I Tim. 2:5, 6.)

13 Unlettered and ignorant men; uneducated men in the common walks of life. Were recognizing them; as those who had been associated with Jesus.

14 Nothing against it; they could not deny the miracle of healing, or gainsay the greatness of the favor bestowed on the lame man.

15 It; the knowledge of the miracle and of its Author.

16 Judge ye; God required them to speak, and the Jews forbade their speaking—which should they obey?

17 We cannot but speak; God's authority over them was absolute, and they would have to obey Him, regardless of what men might say. Here we see that, when a conflict arises between God and man, we should obey God.

22 Because of the people; they were restrained from punishing Peter and John, lest the people should give them trouble.
lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, “Lord, Thou Who didst make the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all things in them; 25 Who, through the Holy Spirit by the mouth of our father David, Thy servant, didst say, ‘Why did the gentiles rage, and the peoples premeditate empty things? 26 The kings of the earth did set themselves in array; and the rulers assembled together, against the Lord, and against His Christ. 27 For, of a truth, there were gathered together in this city, against Thy Holy Child Jesus, Whom Thou didst anoint, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the gentiles and peoples of Israel—28 to do whatsoever Thy hand and Thy counsel predetermined to come to pass. 29 And now, Lord, look upon their threatenings; and grant to Thy servants to speak Thy word with all boldness, 30 by stretching forth Thy hand for healing; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of Thy Holy Child Jesus.” 31 And, when they had prayed, the place in which they had assembled was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and were speaking the word of God with boldness.

32 And the heart and soul of the multitude of those who believed were one; and not even one was saying that any of the things belonging to him was his own, but they had all things common. 33 And, with great power, were the apostles giving forth their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus; and great grace also was upon them all. 34 For neither was any one among them in want; for as many as were possessors of lands or houses, selling them, were bringing the prices of the things sold, 35 and were laying them at the feet of the apostles; and distribution was being made according as any one had need.

36 And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is interpreted, “Son of Consolation”), a Levite, a Cyprian by birth, owning a field, having sold it, brought the money, and laid it at the feet of the apostles.

CHAPTER V.

ANANIAS AND SAPPHIRA.

1 But a certain man, Ananias by name, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, 2 and kept back part of the price, his wife also knowing it; and, bringing a certain part, he laid it at the apostles’ feet. 3 But Peter said, “Ananias, why did Satan fill your heart, that you should lie to the Holy Spirit, and keep back part of the price of the land? 4 While remaining, did it not remain your own? and, when sold, did it not continue in your own authority? Why did you conceive in your heart this thing? You did not lie to men, but to God.” 5 And Ananias, hearing these words, falling down, expired; and great fear came upon all who heard it; 6 but the young men, rising up, wrapped him round; and, bearing him out, buried him.

7 Now it came to pass about three hours after, that his wife also, not knowing what had happened, came in; 8 and Peter made answer to her, “Tell me, if ye sold the place for so much?” And she said, “Yes, for so much.” 9 But Peter said to her, “Why is it that it was agreed by you to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.” 10 And she immediately fell at his feet, and expired; and, coming in, the young men found her dead; and, carrying her forth, they buried her by her husband. 11 And great fear came upon the whole assembly, and upon all who heard these things.

FURTHER TRIUMPHS.

12 And through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were wrought among the people; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. 13 But of the rest no one was daring to join himself to them; but the people were magnifying them; (14 and the more were believers being added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women); 15 so that they even carried forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, in order that, as Peter might pass by, his shadow at least might overshadow some one of them. 16 And the multitude of the cities round about were coming together to Jerusalem, bearing the sick, and those harassed by unclean spirits—who, indeed, were being healed, every one.

GAMALIEL GIVES ADVICE.

17 And the high priest, rising up, and all those with him, being the sect of the Sadducees, were filled with jealousy, 18 and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in a public prison. 19 But an angel of the Lord, by night, opened the prison doors, and, having led them out, said, 20 "Go, and, standing, speak in the temple, to the people, all the words of this life." 21 And, having heard this, they entered at dawn, into the temple, and were teaching. And the high priest, having come, and those with him, called together the Sanhedrin.

13 Of the rest; of those outside of the company of believers. No one was daring to join himself to them; that is, for a time, outsiders were checked, and hesitated to unite themselves to them, seeing the fate of Ananias and his wife. Magnified them; spake with great respect for the apostles.
14 And the more; believers greatly increased in number, as the Spirit wrought so mightily through the apostles.
15 Beds and couches; beds were for the rich, and couches for the poor.
17 The sect of the Sadducees; these denied the existence of spirits and angels, and were bitterly opposed to the doctrine of the resurrection; hence they were extremely hostile to the disciples.

and all the senate of the sons of Israel, and sent to the prison-house to have them brought. 22 But the officers, having come, did not find them in the prison, and, returning, they told, 23 saying, "The prison-house we found shut in all safety, and the prison-keepers standing at the doors; but, having opened, we found no one within." 24 Now, when both the captain of the temple and the high priests heard these words, they were thoroughly perplexed concerning them, what this might become. 25 But a certain one, coming near, told them, "Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people!" 26 Then the captain, having gone away with the officers, brought them, not with violence, for they were fearing the people, lest they should be stoned; 27 and, having brought them, they set them before the Sanhedrin. And the high priest asked them, 28 saying, "Westightly charged you not to teach in this Name; and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching! and intend to bring upon us the blood of this Man!" 29 But Peter and the apostles, answering, said, "It is proper to obey God rather than men. 30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, Whom ye slew, having suspended Him on a tree; 31 This One God exalted as a Prince and Saviour, with His right hand, to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. 32 And we are witnesses of these things; also the Holy Spirit, Whom God gave to those who obey Him." 33 And they, hearing it, were being convulsed with rage, and were taking counsel to slay them. 34 But a certain one, having risen up in the council—a Pharisee, by name Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, honored by all the people—ordered to put the men without a little while. 35 And he said to them, “Men of Israel, take heed to yourselves with regard to these men, what ye are about to do; 36 for before these days arose Thudas, alleging that he himself was somebody, to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves; who was slain, and all, as many as obeyed him, were disbanded, and came to nothing. 37 After this arose Judas, the Galilean, in the days of the enrollment, and drew away people after him; he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. 38 And now I say to you, refrain from these men, and let them alone; for, if this counsel or this work be of men, it will be overthrown; 39 but, if it be of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest perhaps ye be found even fighting against God.”

40 And to him they assented; and calling the apostles to them, beating them, they charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. 41 They, therefore, were going from the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing because they were accounted worthy to suffer dishonor in behalf of The Name. 42 And every day, in the temple, and at their homes, they ceased not teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

CHAPTER VI.
SEVEN DEACONS CHOSEN.
1 Now in these days, when the disciples were being multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecian Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily ministration. 2 And the twelve, having called the multitude of the disciples to them, said, “It is not proper that we, leaving the word of God, should serve tables; 3 but look ye out, brethren, from among yourselves, seven well-attested men, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint over this business; 4 but we will devote ourselves steadfastly to prayer and to the ministry of the word.” 5 And the saying was pleasing to the multitude; and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas, a proselyte of Antioch; 6 whom they set before the apostles; and, having prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God was increasing, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem was being multiplied exceedingly; a great multitude also of the priests were becoming obedient to the faith.

8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, was performing great wonders and signs among the people. 9 But there arose some of those who were of the synagogue called the synagogue of the Freedmen, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia and Asia, disputing with Stephen. 10 And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the spirit with which he was speaking. 11 Then they suborned men, who said, ‘We have heard him speaking blasphemous words against Moses and against God.’

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the Scribes; and, coming upon him, they seized him, and brought him to the Sanhedrin, 13 and set up false witnesses, who said, ‘This man does not cease speaking words against this holy place, and the law; 14 for we have heard him say, that This Jesus, the Nazarene, will overthrow this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us.’

15 And all those who were sitting in the Sanhedrin, gazing intently at him, saw his face as it were an angel’s face.

CHAPTER VII.

STEPHEN’S DEFENSE AND MARTYRDOM.

1 And the high priest said, ‘Are these things so?’ 2 But he said, ‘Brethren and fathers, the God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, while he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran, 3 and said to him, ’Go forth from your country, and from your kindred, and come into the land which I will show you.’ 4 Then, having come forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, he dwelt in Haran; and, from thence, after his father died, He removed him into this land, in which ye now dwell; 5 and He gave him no inheritance in it, not even a foot-breath; 6 and He promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when he had no child. 6 And God spake thus; that his seed would be a sojourner in a foreign land; and they would bring it into servitude, and ill-use it four hundred years. 7 ‘And the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge,’ said God; ‘and, after these things, shall they come forth, and they shall serve Me in this place.’ 8 And He gave him a covenant of circumcision; and so he begat Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac, Jacob;

5 An angel’s face; and yet these hardened people did not relent. Their prejudices and anger were such as to make them dead to all the claims of God; dead, too, to all displays of divine wisdom, courage, and glory, as witnessed in Stephen. The Devil hates holiness; and is ready, where he can do so, to kill holy people.
6 And Jacob, the twelve patriarchs. 9 And the patriarchs, moved with jealousy, sold Joseph into Egypt. And God was with him, 10 and delivered him out of all his tribulations, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt; and he appointed him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 “Now there came a famine upon the whole of Egypt and Canaan, and great tribulation; and our fathers were not findingsus- tenance. 12 But Jacob, having heard that there was grain in Egypt, sent out our fathers first; 13 and, at the second time, Joseph was made known to his brothers; and Joseph’s race became known to Pharaoh. 14 And Joseph, sending, called for Jacob his father, and all his kindred, seventy-five souls. 15 And Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he and our fathers; 16 and they were removed to Shechem, and were laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Emmor, in Shechem. 17 But, as the time of the promise which God promised to Abraham was drawing nigh, the people increased and were multiplied in Egypt, 18 until there arose another king in Egypt, who knew not Joseph. 19 The same, dealing craftily with our race, ill-treated

14 Seventy-five souls; meaning that his kindred were included in seventy-five souls. In Gen. 46:27, the num- ber is stated to be sixty-six; including Joseph’s family; it is stated that there were seventy. The five grandsons of Joseph, (I Chron. 7:1-23) are supposed to make the num- ber “seventy-five.”

our fathers, in causing their children to be cast out, that they might not be preserved alive. 20 In which season Moses was born, and was beautiful to God; who was nourished three months in the house of his father; 21 but, when he was cast out, the daughter of Pharaoh took him up, and nourished him as her own son. 22 And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in his words and works. 23 But, when his fortieth year was being completed, it came into his heart to visit his brethren, the sons of Israel. 24 And, seeing a certain one wrongly treated, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, having smitten the Egyptian. 25 And he was superseding that his brethren understood that God, through his hand, would give them deliverance; but they understood not. 26 On the following day, also, he appeared to them while they were fighting, and he was urging them to peace, saying, 'Men, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one another?' 27 But he who was wronging his neighbor thrust him away, saying, 'Who appointed you a ruler and a judge over us? Do you wish to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?' 29 And Moses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons. 30 And, forty years having been fulfilled, there appeared to him, in the wilderness of mount Sinai, an angel in a flame of fire in a bush. 31 And Moses, seeing it, wondered at the sight; and, as he drew near to observe it, there came a voice of the Lord, 32 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob.' And Moses, becoming terrified, was not daring to examine it. 33 And the Lord said to him, 'Loose the sandals from your feet; for the place on which you have been standing is holy ground. 34 Surely, I saw the affliction of My people in Egypt, and heard their groaning; and I came down to rescue them. And now come, I will send you into Egypt.' 35 This Moses whom they denied, saying, 'Who appointed you a ruler and a judge?' he hath God sent as both ruler and redeemer, with the hand of the angel that appeared to him in the bush. 36 This man led them out, having wrought wonders and signs in Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years. 37 This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, 'A Prophet will God raise up for you of your brethren, as He did me.' 38 This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel who spake to him on mount Sinai, and with our fathers; who received living oracles to give to us; 39 to whom our fathers wished not to become obedient, but thrust him away, and in their hearts turned back again to Egypt; 40 saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods who shall go before us; for as for this Moses who brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, we know not what happened to him.' 41 And they made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and were rejoicing in the works of their hands. 42 But God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it has been written in a book of the prophets, 'Did ye offer to Me slain beasts and sacrifices, forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? 43 And ye took up the tent of Moloch, and the star of the god Rephan—the figures which ye made to worship them; and I will remove you beyond Babylon.' 44 "Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as He directed, Who spake to Moses, that he should make it according to the model which he had seen; 45 which also our fathers, having received in succession, brought in with Joshua, in taking possession of the nations which God thrust out before the face of our fathers, until the days of David; 46 who found favor in the sight of God, and asked that he might find 'A habitation for the God of Jacob.' 47 But Solomon built a house for Him. 48 Yet the Most High dwelleth not in houses made with hands; as says the prophet, 49 'Heaven is My throne; and the earth is the footstool of My feet: what manner of house will ye build me? saith the Lord. 54 Or what is the place of My rest? 50 Did not My hand make all these things?’

51 ‘Ye stiffnecked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears! ye do always resist the Holy Spirit; as your fathers did, so do ye. 52 Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who declared beforehand concerning the coming of the Righteous One—of Whom just now ye became the betrayers and murderers; 53 who, indeed, received the law as the ministrations of angels, and did not keep it.’

54 Now, while hearing these things, they were being cut to their hearts, and were gnashing their teeth over him. 55 But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looking intently into Heaven, saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God; 56 and he said, “Behold I see Heaven opened, and the Son of Man standing on the right hand of God!” 57 But, crying out with a loud voice, they closed their ears, and rushed upon him with one accord; 58 and, having thrust him forth outside of the city, they kept stoning him! And the witnesses laid their garments at the feet of a young man called Saul. 59 And they were stoning Stephen, calling and saying, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!” 60 And, kneeling down, he cried with a loud voice, “Lord, lay not this sin to them!” And, having said this, he fell asleep.

Deut. 17:7, the witnesses were to cast the first stones. Hence, they took off their outer garments, and laid them at the feet of Saul, who afterwards suffered so much for his devotion to Christ.

50 Lord Jesus, receive my spirit: this prayer was addressed to Jesus. Who was near enough to address personally.

60 Lay not this sin to them; the dying martyr, like his Master, prays for his murderers, (Luke 23:34). Fell asleep: quickly expired; and his happy spirit was received by Jesus. The reference to sleep relates merely to the body, not to his spirit.

went about, proclaiming the good tidings of the word. 5 And Philip, having come down to the city of Samaria, preached to them the Christ. 6 And the multitudes, with one accord, were giving heed to the things spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the things which he was doing. 7 For unclean spirits came forth from many of those possessing them, crying with a loud voice; and many paralyzed and lame persons were healed; 8 and there was much joy in that city.

9 But a certain man, Simon by name, was in the city before, using sorcery, and astonishing the nation of Samaria, affirming himself to be some great one; 10 to whom all were giving heed, from small to great, saying, ‘This man is the power of God, which is called Great." 11 And they were giving heed to him, because of his having for a long time amazed them with his sorceries. 12 But, when they believed Philip proclaiming the glad tidings concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were being immersed, both men and women. 13 And Simon also himself believed; and, having been immersed, he was adhering closely to Philip; and, holding the signs and great miracles being done, he was amazed.

14 Now the apostles in Jerusalem, hearing that Samaria had received the word of God, sent to them Peter and John; 15 who, indeed, having come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit; 16 for as yet He had fallen upon no one of them, but they had only been immersed in the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. 18 Now Simon, seeing that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, offered them money, 19 saying, "Give me also this authority, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit." 20 But Peter said to him, "Your money perish with you, because you thought to acquire the gift of God with money! 21 You have no part nor lot in this matter; for your heart is not right before God. 22 Repent, therefore, of this your wickedness, and entreat the Lord, if, perhaps, the thought of your heart may be forgiven you; 23 for I see that you are in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity." 24 And Simon answered and said, "Pray ye to the Lord in my behalf, that none of the things which ye have spoken may come upon me." 25 They, therefore, having fully testified and spoken the word of the Lord, were returning to Jerusalem, and preaching the Gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

CONVERSION OF THE ETHIOPIAN EUNUCH.

26 But an angel of the Lord spake to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go toward the south, on the way that leads down from Jerusalem to Gaza:" this is a wilderness. 27 And, having arisen, he went on; and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch, a state-officer of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship; 28 he was also returning, and, sitting on his chariot, was reading the prophet Isaiah. 29 And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near, and join yourself to this chariot." 30 And Philip, having run near, heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you, then, understand what you are reading?" 31 But he said, "How, in fact, were I able, unless some one should guide me?" And he besought Philip, having the blessings of the Gospel, and in the disposal of the divine power.

23 The gall of bitterness, bond of iniquity: in a most bitter and servile bondage to sin.
24 Pray that none of the things; Simon feared the mighty power of God, which he had seen displayed through Philip, and John and Peter, and wished to avoid it; but there is no proof that he had any change of heart, or that he loved God. Peter is not reported to have even prayed for him.

25 Proclaiming the Gospel to many villages: they preached the Gospel to the people in these villages, and thus evangelized them. It does not imply that the apostles did any thing more than preach the Gospel to them. This gave them a chance for salvation.

come up, to sit with him. 32 Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this: "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and, as a lamb dumb before its shearer, so He openeth not His mouth. 33 In His humiliation, His judgment was taken away; His generation who shall declare? because His life is being taken away from the earth." 34 And the eunuch, answering Philip, said, "I pray you, to whom does the prophet say this, of himself, or of some one else?" 35 And Philip, opening his mouth, and, beginning from this Scripture, proclaimed to him the good news of Jesus. 36 And, as they were journeying along the way, they came to a certain water; and the eunuch says, "Behold, here is water; what hinders me from being immersed?" [37 And Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, you may." And he answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." ] 38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still; and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he immersed him. 39 And, when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, and the eunuch saw him no more; for he was going on his way rejoicing. 40 And Philip was found at Azotus; and, passing through, he was publishing the good news to all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

CHAPTER IX.

SAUL CONVERTED.

1 And Saul, yet breathing threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, going to the high priest, 2 asked from him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that, if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 And, as he was journeying, it came to pass, that he was drawing night to Damascus; and suddenly there flashed around him a light from Heaven; 4 and, having fallen upon the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?" 5 And he said, "Who art Thou, Lord?" And He said, "I am Jesus Whom you are persecuting. 6 But arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told you what you must do." 7 And the men who were journeying with him were standing speechless; hearing, indeed, the voice, but beholding no one. 8 And Saul arose from the earth; and, his eyes being opened, he beheld nothing; but, taking him by the hand, they led him into Damascus. 9 And he was three days without seeing; and he neither ate, nor drank.

10 And there was a certain disciple in Damascus, Ananias by name; and the Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias?" And he said, "Behold, I am here, Lord!" 11 And the Lord said to him, "Arise, go to the street that is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul of Tarsus; for, behold, he is praying; 12 and in a vision he saw a man, Ananias by name, coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive sight." 13 And Ananias answered, "Lord, I heard from comparing this with ch. 22:9, we learn that Paul's traveling companions saw a light and heard a voice; but they understood not what they heard, nor did they see Jesus Christ. 8 He beheld nothing; being blinded by the glory of the light.

many concerning this man, how many evils he did to Thy saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the high priests to bind all those calling on Thy name." 15 But the Lord said to him, "Go your way; because this man is to Me a chosen vessel to bear My name before nations, and kings, and the sons of Israel. 16 For I will show him how many things he must suffer for My name's sake." 17 And Ananias went away, and entered into the house; and, laying his hands on him, said, "Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me—even Jesus, Who appeared to you in the way in which you were coming, sent me, that you may receive sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit." 18 And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received sight; and, arising, he was immersed; and, having taken food, he was strengthened.

19 And he was with the disciples in Damascus some days; and straightway in the synagogues he was preaching Jesus that He is the Son of God. 20 And all who heard were astonished, and said, "Is not this he who destroyed, in Jerusalem, those calling upon this name, and had come here for this purpose, that he might bring them bound to the high priests?"

21 But Saul was being more empowered, and was confounding the Jews who were dwelling in Damascus; proving that this is the Christ.

22 And, when many days were completed, the Jews took counsel together to kill him; 23 but their plot became known to Saul. And they were watching the gates also, both day and night, that they might kill him; 24 but the disciples, taking him by night, let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.

26 Now, having come to Jerusalem, he was trying to join himself to the disciples; and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. 27 But Barnabas, taking him, brought him to the apostles, and narrated to them how he saw the Lord in the way, and that He spake to him; and, how, in Damascus, he spake boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them, going in and going out at Jerusalem, 29 preaching boldly in the name of the Lord; and he was speaking and disputing with the Helenists; but they were attempting to kill him; 30 but the brethren, learning it, brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 The assembly, therefore, throughout the whole of Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, was having peace, being built up; and, walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the consolation of the Holy Spirit, was being multiplied.

ÆNEAS HEALED AT LYDDA.

32 And it came to pass that Peter, going through all parts, came down also to the saints who were dwelling at Lydda. 33 And he found there a certain man, Æneas by name, for eight years lying prostrate on a couch, who was paralyzed.

34 And Peter said to him, "Æneas, Jesus Christ healeth you; arise, and make your bed." And straightway he arose. 35 And all who were dwelling in Lydda and in Sharon saw him; and they turned to the Lord.

34 Jesus Christ healeth you: here, as elsewhere, Peter was particular to let it be known that, not he, but Christ, was the Healer. There is no more Scripture to support the assumption that Healing was meant for the early age of Christianity than there is to support the view that salvation was to be restricted to the same period.

DORCAS RAISED FROM THE DEAD AT JOPPA.

36 Now there was in Joppa a certain disciple, Tabitha by name, (which being translated means Dorcas): this woman was full of good works and alms which she was accustomed to do. 37 And it came to pass in those days that she, having become sick, died; and, having washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber. 38 And, Lydda being near to Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent to him two men, entreating him, “Delay not to come to us!” 39 And Peter, having arisen, went with them; whom, having come, they led up into the upper chamber; and there stood by him all the widows, weeping and showing coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them. 40 But Peter, having put them all forth, and bowing his knees, prayed; and, turning to the body, he said, “Tabitha, arise!” And she opened her eyes; and, seeing Peter, she sat up. 41 And, having given her his hand, he raised her up; and, calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. 42 And it became known throughout all Joppa; and many believed on the Lord. 43 And it came to pass that he abode many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

CHAPTER X.

CORNELIUS AND HIS HOUSEHOLD.

1 Now a certain man in Cesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of a band, called the Italian band—2 devout, and fearing God with all his house, giving alms continually—3 saw in a vision manifestly, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying to him, “Cornelius!” 4 And he, looking intently on him, and becoming much afraid, said, “What is it, Lord?” And he said to him, “Your prayers and alms went up for a memorial before God. 5 And now send men to Joppa, and fetch one Simon, who is surnamed Peter; 6 the same is guest with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea.” 7 And

1 Centurion; a captain of a hundred men. A devout man; a sincere believer in the Jewish faith, and one who pleased God. He, probably, believed in the Jewish Messiah, and through Him found acceptance with the Father; but now, that the Messiah had already come in the person of Jesus, it was proper that he should know this fact, and accept Him as the Messiah already come. Italian band; a company of soldiers from Italy.

2 Sixth hour; three o’clock in the afternoon—one of the hours of prayer.

3 For a memorial before God; God recognized the alms and prayers of Cornelius, and these are made the occasion of the signal grace now to be bestowed. (1 John 3:22).

4 Joppa; a town on the Mediterranean about forty-five miles north-east of Jerusalem. Tabitha; a Syrian word meaning the same as the Greek name Dorcas; both words being originally applied to the gazelle, a very beautiful animal.

5 Having put all forth; it is generally best, when some great miracle of healing is expected to occur, to have none but real believers present. This miracle of raising the dead was wrought by Jesus Christ through the visible agency of Peter.

6 Believed on the Lord; on the Lord Jesus Christ, through whose power Doreas had been raised from the dead. The display of God’s power in the healing of people would be likely to be followed by many converts to the faith.

7 When the angel who was talking to him departed, having called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those attending him; 8 and, having recounted all things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

8 Now, on the morrow, as they were journeying, and coming near to the city, Peter went up on the house-top to pray, about the sixth hour. 10 And he became very hungry, and wished to eat; and, while they were making ready, there came upon him a trance; 11 and he beheld the heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, as a great sheet, let down by four corners upon the earth; 12 in which were all the four-footed beasts, and creeping things of the earth, and birds of the heaven. 13 And there came a voice to him, “Arising, Peter, kill and eat.” 14 But Peter said, “By no means, Lord! because never at any time did I eat anything... common or unclean." 15 And a voice came to him again, a second time, "What God cleansed, count not common." 16 Now this happened three times, and straightway the vessel was taken up into heaven.

17 Now, as Peter was much perplexed in himself as to what the vision which he saw might mean, behold, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood at the gate; 18 and, calling, were inquiring whether Simon who was surnamed Peter, was lodging there. 19 And, while Peter was earnestly considering the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are seeking you. 20 But, arising, go down, and journey with them, nothing doubting; because I have sent them." 21 And Peter, going down to the men, said, "Behold, I am he whom ye are seeking; what is the cause for which ye are present?" 22 And they said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man, and one fearing God, well reported of also by all the nation of the Jews, was divinely warned by a holy angel to send for you to his house, and to hear words from you." 23 Having called them in, therefore, he lodged them. And, on the morrow, arising, he went with them; and some of the brethren from Joppa went with him. 24 And on the following day they entered into Cesarea. And Cornelius was expecting them, having called together his kinsmen and near friends. 25 And when it came to pass that Peter entered, Cornelius, meeting him, and falling at his feet, worshipped him. 26 But Peter raised him up, saying, "Stand up! I myself also am a man." 27 And, while talking with him, he entered, and finds many who had come together; 28 and he says to them, "Ye know that it is unlawful for a Jew to join himself with, or come to, one of another race; and yet God showed me that I should call no man common or unclean. 29 Wherefore, also, having been sent for, I came without gainsaying. I ask, therefore, with what intent ye sent for me." 30 And Cornelius said, "Four days ago, until this hour, I was praying during the ninth hour in my house; and, behold, a man stood before me in bright apparel, 31 and says, 'Cornelius, your prayer was heard, and your alms were remembered before God. 32 Send, therefore, to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is surnamed Peter; the same is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.' 33 At once, therefore, I sent to you; and you did well, in coming. 3 Now, therefore, we are all present before God, to hear all the things that have been commanded you by the Lord."

Healing all that were oppressed by the Devil; It was the object of Christ's mission to destroy, annul, and set aside, the works of the Devil in men; and as sickness was one of the Devil's works, Jesus healed all who applied to Him, directly or indirectly, for healing. It is not supposable that Jesus actually healed all Devil-oppressed ones; but that He healed all of the different classes of diseased ones, that made application, directly, or through friends.
good, and healing all that were oppressed by the Devil; because God was with Him. 39 And we are witnesses of all things which He did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem; Whom they also slew, hanging Him on a tree. 40 Him God raised on the third day, and gave Him to become manifest; 41 not to all the people, but to witnesses before appointed by God—to us who ate and drank with Him after He rose from the dead. 42 And He commanded us to preach to the people, and to fully testify that it is He Who hath been ordained by God Judge of the living and dead. 43 To Him all the prophets testify, that through His Name every one who believes on Him receives remission of sins.” 44 While Peter was yet speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those hearing the word. 45 And those of the circumcision who believed, as many as came with Peter, were amazed, because that upon the gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit; 46 for they heard them speaking with tongues, and magnifying God. Then Peter answered, 47 “Can any one forbid the water, that these should not be immersed, who, indeed, received the Holy Spirit as well as we?” 48 And He commanded that they should be immersed in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain some days.

CHAPTER XI.

PETE R’S DEFENSE.

1 Now the apostles, and the brethren who were in Judæa, heard that the gentiles also received the word of God. 2 And, when Peter went up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision were contending with him, 3 saying, that he went in to men holding uncircumcision, and ate with them! 4 But Peter, beginning at the first, was explaining it to them in order, saying, 5 “I was in the city of Joppa, praying; and, in a trance, I saw a vision, a certain vessel descending, as a large sheet, let down out of the heaven by four corners; and it came close to me: 6 into which gazing intently, I was considering, and saw the four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and the birds of the heaven. 7 And I heard also a voice, saying to me, ‘Arising, Peter, kill and eat.’ 8 But I said, ‘By no means, Lord; because a common or an unclean thing never entered into my mouth!’ 9 But a voice answered a second time out of the heaven, ‘What God cleansed, make not common.’ 10 And this took place thrice; and all were drawn up again into the heaven. 11 And, behold, immediately there stood three men at the house in which we were, having been sent to me from Cæsarea. 12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. And these six brethren also went with me; and we entered into the man’s house. 13 And he told us how he saw the angel in his house, standing and saying, ‘Send to Joppa, and call for Simon who is surnamed Peter, 14 who will speak to you words, by which you shall be saved, and all your house.’ 15 And, as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as also on us at the beginning; 16 and I remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, ‘John, indeed, immersed in water, but ye shall be immersed in the 6 That these should not be immersed; they were more than ordinarily well qualified for the ordinance of immersion.

7 Inasmuch as they had not only been converted, but had received the gift of the Holy Spirit. This teaches that Spirit-filled people who have not been immersed should, in obedience to the word of God, submit to the ordinance.
N. B. See how God works at both ends of the line. When He has a work to be done, He provides the workman; and He has abundant work for every well-equipped workman.

14 Words by which you shall be saved; saved as a real believer in the personal Christ, and not saved, as the pious Jews were, by an indefinite faith in the coming Messiah. John the Immerser was a saved man; but he that is least in the Kingdom of God is greater than he. (Matt. 11:11). All your house; all his family who would believe.

Holy Spirit. 17 If, therefore, God gave them the like gift, as to us who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God? 18 And, having heard these things, they were silent, and glorified God, saying, “Then, to the gentiles also God gave repentance unto life."

THE FAITH SPREAD AS FAR AS ANTIOCH IN SYRIA.

19 Those, therefore, who were dispersed by reason of the tribulation that arose about Stephen, traveled as far as Phoenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to none but Jews only. 20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene; who, indeed, having come to Antioch, were speaking to the Greeks also, publishing the glad tidings of the Lord Jesus. 21 And the hand of the Lord was with them; and a great number who believed turned to the Lord. 22 And the report concerning them came to the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem; and they sent forth Barnabas as far as Antioch; 23 who, having come, and having seen the grace of God, rejoiced, and was exhorting all that, with purpose of heart, they should cleave to the Lord; 24 because he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit, and of faith; and a great multitude was added to the Lord. 25 And he departed to Tarsus to seek for Saul; 26 and, having found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass that, even for a whole year, they met together in the assembly, and taught a great multitude; and that the disciples got the name “Christian” first in Antioch.

27 And in those days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch; 28 and one of them—Agabus by name—standing up, signified through the Spirit that there was about to be a great famine over all the inhabited earth; which, indeed, happened under Claudius. 29 And the disciples, according as any one of them was being prospered, determined, each of them, to send relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea; 30 which also they did, sending it to the elders through the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

1 Or, hinder.

17 Withstand; or stand in the way of the clearly indicated order of God.

18 They were silent; quit disputing with him, being convinced that he did right. Repentance unto life; repentance that leads to eternal life, through faith in Christ.

19 Phœnicia; a Roman province on the coast north of Palestine. Cyprus; an island in the north-east part of the Mediterranean sea. Antioch; a city of Syria, about three hundred miles north of Jerusalem, on the river Orontes, not far from the Mediterranean sea.

20 Cyrene; a province and city in northern Africa. Greeks; it seems better to adopt this text, rather than “Hellenists;” because this latter term frequently signifies Greek Jews; and the record here seems to require somebody other than Jews.

21 The hand of the Lord was with them; their preaching was accompanied by the mighty displays of God’s power.

22 Sent forth Barnabas; to assist in preaching the Gospel.

23 Having seen the grace of God; the grace displayed in the salvation of so many sinners. With purpose of heart; with unwavering determination. Clave to the Lord; abide in and with Him. Hold to Him.

24 Full of the Holy Spirit and of faith; these are indispensable qualifications for an effective ministry of the Gospel. As the apostles were unfit to preach Christ, and represent His Gospel truly, until they had received the Holy Spirit, and had learned to live “The Spirit-filled life;” so now no man, however clear his conversion, brilliant his natural gifts, varied his learning, scholarly his attainments in the letter of the word, or unmistakable his call to the ministry, has any Scripture right to take upon himself the work of the Gospel ministry, until, through the infilling Spirit, he is “endued with power from on high” for the duties of this high calling. (Luke 24:49). The denomination of Christians that ignores the fact that there is no effective ministry without the infilling Spirit Who comes to give the supreme qualifications for this office, will be apt to be swept away by the strong tide of worldliness and error now dashing over the world, and leave the real work of the ministry to others, who, feeling that they can do nothing of themselves, yield all to God, and enter the Gospel ministry under the guidance, and in the power of, the Holy Spirit.

25 Tarsus; Paul’s (or Saul’s) natal city. (ch. 9:11).

26 In the assembly; the company of believers, erroneously called “the church.” Note the fact everywhere in Acts that each assembly was an independent congregation of believers meeting together for divine worship. Nor did these assemblies have any organic relation to other sister assemblies; but were all co-ordinate and independent companies, holding Christ as their living Head. The disciples were so busy about Christ, and were so intent on promoting His cause, that by their occupation, they got the name Christian.

27 Prophets; inspired teachers, who sometimes foretold future events. (I Cor. 12:28; 11:1, 3; ch. 21:9-11).

28 Signified through the Spirit; made known through the inspiration of the Spirit. Claudius; Claudius Caesar, the fifth Roman emperor, who ruled from A. D. 41 to 54. The famine here referred to took place as predicted, and is noticed by Josephus, the Jewish historian. (Ant." ch. II, sec. 3).

30 Elders; leading men in the assembly; also ordained preachers and pastors.
CHAPTER XII.

HEROD SLAYS JAMES. IMPRISONS PETER. PETER DELIVERED. HEROD SMITTEN.

1 Now about that time Herod the king put forth his hands to harm some of the assembly. 2 And he slew James, the brother of John, with the sword; 3 and, seeing that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. And there were the days of unleavened bread. 4 And, having seized him, he put him in prison, delivering him to four quaternions of soldiers to guard him; intending, after the passover, to bring him up to the people. 5 Peter, therefore, was kept in the prison, but prayer was being earnestly made by the assembly to God in his behalf. 6 And, when Herod was about to bring him forth, in that night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and guards before the door were keeping the prison. 7 And, behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shined in the cell; and, smiting the side of Peter, he raised him up, saying, "Rise up quickly!" And his chains fell off from his hands. 8 And the angel said to him, "Gird yourself, and bind on your sandals." And he did so. And he says to him, "Cast your garment around you, and follow me." 9 And, going forth, he was following him; and he knew not that it was true, which was being done by the angel, but was thinking that he saw a vision. 10 And, having passed the first and second watch; they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them of its own accord; and, going out, they passed on through one street, and straightway the angel departed from him.

11 And Peter, having come to himself, said, "Now I know truly that the Lord sent forth His angel, and delivered me out of Herod's hand, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. 12 And, having considered it, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John who is surnamed Mark; where many were gathered together and were praying. 13 And, when he knocked at the door of the gate, a maid came near to answer, 1 Rhoda by name. 14 And, recognizing the voice of Peter, she opened not the gate for joy; but, running in, she told them that Peter was standing before the gate. 15 And they said to her, "You are mad!" But she kept confidently affirming that it was so. And they said, "It is his angel." 16 But Peter continued knocking; and, opening, they saw him, and were amazed. 17 But, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, he declared to them how the Lord brought him forth out of the prison. And he said, "Declare these things to James, and to the brethren." And, going forth, he went to another place. 18 And, when it became day, there was no small commotion among the soldiers, as to what, consequently, became of Peter. 19 And Herod, having sought for him, and not finding him, having examined the guards, ordered that they be led away to death. And, going down from Judea to Cæsarea, he tarried there.

20 Now he was very angry with the

CHAPTER XIII.

BARNABAS AND SAUL, SENT AS MISSIONARIES BY THE ASSEMBLY AT ANTIOCH. THEY VISIT CYPRUS, PAMPHYLIA, PISIDIA, AND LYCAONIA. THEY RETURN TO ANTIOCH BY ATTALIA.

1 Now there were in Antioch, in the assembly which was there, prophets and teachers; both Barnabas and Symeon who is called Niger, and Lucius the Cyrenian, and Manaen, the foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. 2 And, while they were ministering to the Lord, and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate now to Me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." 3 Then, having fasted and prayed, and having laid hands on them, they sent them away. 4 They, therefore, having been sent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down into Seleucia; and thence they sailed away to Cyprus. 5 And, having arrived in

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIII.

2 The Holy Spirit said, separate to Me; the Holy Spirit, as Executive of God-head, calls men into the ministry; and, in the absence of His call, no one should ever enter the Gospel ministry. Here the assembly, or congregation of Christians, responds to the Spirit’s call, and sends out two missionaries, Barnabas and Saul. If the Holy Spirit had the right of way in the local assemblies now, He might send out tens of thousands of Spirit-called, Spirit-filled missionaries. It seems an infinite pity that the religious thought of our day is such as to have left the assemblies void of power to send out missionaries.
3 Fasted and prayed; how helpful this might be at the present day, both to the assemblies themselves and to the missionaries sent out! Laid hands on them; thus publicly setting them apart to their work.

And immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he did not give God the glory; and, having been eaten by worms, he expired. 24 But the word of God was growing, and multiplying. 25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, having fulfilled their ministry, taking with them John who was surnamed Mark.

Salamis, they declared the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews; and they had John also as an attendant. 6 And, having gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus, 7 who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man; the same having called for Barnabas and Saul, desired to hear the word of God; 8 but Elymas, the sorcerer (for so his name is interpreted) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. 9 But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looking intently upon him, 10 said, "O full of all guile, and all villainy, son of the Devil, enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease perverting the right ways of the Lord? 11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon you; and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a season." And immediately there fell on him a mist and a dark-

18 I returned to Jerusalem. 14 But they, passing through from Perga, came to Antioch in Pisidia; and, entering into the synagogue on the sabbath day, they sat down. 15 And, after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Brethren, if there is among you any word of exhortation for the people, speak." 16 And Paul, standing up, and beckoning with his hand, said, "Men of Israel, and ye who fear God, hearken! 17 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers; and He exalted the people in their sojourn in the land of Egypt; and, with a high arm, He led them forth out of it. 18 And for about the time of forty years He bore them* as a nursing father in the wilderness. 19 And, having destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He distributed by lot their land to them for about four hundred and fifty years. 20 And after these things He gave them judges, until Samuel the prophet. 21 And afterward they asked for a king; and God gave them Saul, a son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years; 22 and, having removed him, He raised up for them David to be their king; to whom bearing testimony, He said, 'I found David the son of Jesse, a man after My heart, who will do all My will.' 23 From the seed of this one, God, according to promise, brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus; 24 John having first preached, before His coming, the immersion of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And, as John was fulfilling His course, he said, 'What do ye suppose me to be? I am not He. But, behold, there cometh One after me, the sandals of Whose feet I am not worthy to unloose.' 26 Brethren, sons of Abraham's race, and those among you who fear God, to us the word of this salvation was sent forth. 27 For those dwelling in Jerusalem, and their rulers, not knowing Him, nor the voices of the prophets which are being read every sabbath, fulfilled them, in having condemned Him; 28 and, though finding not one cause of death, they asked of Pilate that He should be slain. 29 And, when they fulfilled all things that were written concerning Him, having taken Him down from the tree, they laid Him in a tomb. 30 But God raised Him from the dead; 31 Who was seen, during many days, by those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem; who, indeed, are now His witnesses to the people. 32 And we declare to you good tidings of the promise made to the fathers, 33 that God hath fulfilled this for our children, having raised up Jesus; as it hath been written in the second Psalm, 'Thou art My Son! To-day have I begotten Thee!' 34 And that He raised Him up from the dead no more to return to corruption, He hath thus spoken, 'I will give to you the holy and faithful promises of David.' 35 Wherefore, in another place, He saith, 'Thou wilt not give Thy Holy One to see corruption.' 36 For David, indeed, having served his own generation according to the will of God, fell asleep, and was added to his fathers, and saw corruption; 37 but...

He Whom God raised up did not see corruption. 38 Be it known to you, brethren, that through This One is proclaimed to you forgiveness of sins; 39 and in Him every one who believes is justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. 40 Beware, therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken in the prophets, 41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish;" because I do a work in your days—a work which ye will by no means believe, though one should fully declare it to you."

42 And, as they were going out, they kept beseeching him that these words might be spoken to them on the next sabbath. 43 And, the synagogue having been dismissed, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, indeed, speaking to them, were persuading them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And, on the next sabbath, most the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God. 45 But the Jews, seeing the multitudes, were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things spoken by Paul, blaspheming. 46 Speaking boldly, both Paul and Barnabas said, "It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you. Inasmuch as ye thrust it away from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles; 47 for so hath the Lord commanded us, "I have set Thee for a Light of the Gentiles, that Thou mayest be for salvation to the uttermost part of the earth."

48 And the Gentiles, having heard it, were rejoicing, and glorifying the Lord. 49 And the word of the Lord was being spread abroad through that whole country.

50 But the Jews urged on the devout and respectable women, and the principal men of the city, and stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and cast them out of their borders; 51 and they, having shaken off the dust of their feet against them, came to Iconium. 52 And the disciples were being filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

3:28-30: 1 Thess. 2:13; 1 Pet. 1:2. Yet we are not to understand that God's electing grace saves any one who does not repent and believe, or that it prevents any one from being saved, who does repent and believe. God's sovereignty and man's responsible moral agency must always be admitted, whether we can fully reconcile them to our methods of reasoning or not.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided; and some, indeed, held with the Jews, and some with the apostles. 5 But, when a hostile movement was made, both of the Gentiles and Jews with their rulers, is permitted to speak, unhindered, through God's people, the result is, "many believe."
to maltreat and stone them; 6 they, becoming aware of it, fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, and Derbe, and to the region round about; 7 and there they were proclaiming the Good News.

8 And at Lystra there was sitting a certain man, impotent in his feet; lame from his mother’s womb, who never walked. 9 The same was hearing Paul speaking, who, looking intently on him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, 10 said with a loud voice, “Stand up on your feet, erect!” And he leaped up, and was walking about. 11 And the multitudes, seeing what Paul did, lifted up their voice in the language of Lycaonia, saying, “The gods, made like to men, came down to us!” 12 And they were calling Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercury, since he was the chief speaker. 13 And the priest of Jupiter whose temple was before the city, having brought oxen and garlands to the gates, together with the multitudes, was wishing to offer sacrifice. 14 But the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, hearing of it, having rent their garments, leaped forth among the multitude, crying out, 15 and saying, “Men, why do ye these things? We also are men of like nature with you, proclaiming to you glad tidings, that ye should turn from these vanities to the living God, Who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all things that are in them; 16 Who, in the past generations, suffered all the nations to walk in their own ways; 17 and yet He left not Himself without witness, doing good, giving you rains from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and gladness.” 18 And, saying these things, they with difficulty restrained the multitude from offering sacrifice to them.

19 But there came thither Jews from Antioch and Iconium; and, having persuaded the multitudes, and having stoned Paul, they drew him outside the city, supposing him to have died. 20 But, the disciples having surrounded him, rising up, he entered into the city; and, on the following day, he departed with Barnabas to Derbe. 21 And, having proclaimed the glad tidings to that city, and having made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and Iconium, and Antioch; 22 confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to abide in the faith, and that through many tribulations we must enter into the Kingdom of God. 23 And, having appointed elders for them in every assembly; and, having prayed with fastings, they commended them to the Lord on Whom they had believed.

down to Attalia; 26 and thence they sailed to Antioch, whence they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they accomplished. 27 And, having arrived, and having gathered together the assembly, they were rehearsing as many things as God did with them, and that He opened to the gentiles a door of faith. 28 And they abode there not a little time with the disciples.

CHAPTER XV.

1 And some, coming down from Judea, were teaching the brethren, “Unless ye be circumcised after the custom of Moses, ye cannot be saved.” 2 And, when Paul and Barnabas had no little dissension and discussion with them, they arranged that Paul and Barnabas and some others of them should go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders, concerning this question.

3 They, therefore, having been sent forward by the assembly, went through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the gentiles; and they were causing great joy to all the brethren. 4 And, having come to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the assembly and apostles and elders; and they rehearsed as many things as God wrought with them. 5 But there rose up some from the sect of the Pharisees, who believed, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them, and to charge them to keep the law of Moses.” 6 And the apostles and the elders were assembled together to see about this matter. 7 And, much discussion having arisen, Peter, standing up, said to them, “Brethren, ye well know that, from early days, God made choice among you, that through my mouth the gentiles should hear the word of the Gospel, and believe. 8 And the heart-knowing God bore witness to them, giving them the Holy Spirit, even as to us; 9 and He made no distinction between us and them, having purified their hearts by faith. 10 Now, therefore, why do ye tempt God, that ye should put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were strong enough to bear? 11 But we believe that we shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same manner as also they.”

12 And all the multitude kept silence; and they were listening to Barnabas and Paul, recounting what signs and wonders God wrought among the gentiles through them. 13 And, after they were silent, James answered, saying, “Brethren, hear me. 14 Simeon declared how God first visited the gentiles, to take out of them a people for His name. 15 And with this agree the words of the prophets; as it has been written, 16 ‘After these things I will return; and I will build again the tabernacle of David, which has fallen down; and the ruins thereof will I build again; tested in His providence. Take; the burdensome rites and ceremonies of the law.

14 Simeon: the Hebrew mode of spelling Simon, referring to Simon Peter. (v. 7). Take out of them a people for His name: this is one of the objects had in view in the preaching of the Gospel: and the other is to preach it "for a witness to all nations." (Matt. 24:14). When these two purposes have been fully accomplished, this dispensation will speedily close, and the millennial reign of Christ will follow.

15 The prophets: Isa. 2:2-4; Amos 9:11, 12.

16 Will build again the tabernacle of David: this is probably the temple of which Ezekiel speaks, (chs. 40-44), which will, likely, be the place to which the nations will go to worship Christ during the millennial period. (Zech. 14:16; Isa. 6:6, 7, 9; 66:23).
and I will set it up; 17 that the residue of men may seek after the Lord, even all the gentiles upon whom My name has been called." 18 saith the Lord, Who maketh these things known from of old. 19 Wherefore, I judge that we should not trouble those who from among the gentiles are turning to God; 20 but that we write to them to abstain from the pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from anything strangled, and from blood; 21 for Moses, from ancient generations, has in every city those preaching him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath."

22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and elders, with the whole assembly, to send men, chosen from themselves, to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; Judas who is surnamed Barsabas, and Silas—leading men among the brethren; 23 having written through their hand thus: "The apostles, and the elders, brethren, to the brethren from the gentiles throughout Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greeting: 24 Forasmuch as we heard that some from among you troubled you with words, unsettling your souls—to whom we gave no directions; 25 it seemed good to us, having become of one mind, having chosen men, to send to you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 men who have given up their souls in behalf of the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent, therefore, Judas and Silas; themselves also reporting the same things to you by word of mouth. 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: 29 that ye abstain from idol-sacrifices, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which keeping yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well."

30 So they being dismissed came down to Antioch; and, having assembled the multitude, they delivered the letter. 31 And, having read it, they rejoiced at the consolation. 32 And Judas and Silas, themselves also being prophets, exhorted the brethren in many words, and confirmed them. 33 And, having spent a time there, they were sent away with peace from the brethren to those who had sent them.*

34 But Paul and Barnabas tarried in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming, with many others also, the good tidings of the word of the Lord.

PAUL AND BARNABAS SEPARATE ON ACCOUNT OF MARK.

36 And, after some days, Paul said to Barnabas, "Turning about, let us visit the brethren in every city, in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they are doing."

37 And Barnabas was desiring to take with him John also, who was called Mark. 38 But Paul was not thinking it proper to take him with them, who withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. 39 And there arose a sharp contention, so that they parted one from the other; and Barnabas, taking with him Mark, sailed away to Cyprus. 40 And Paul, having chosen Silas, went forth, being commended by the brethren to the grace of the Lord. 41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the assemblies.

1 Or, doing these things, known from eternity.

17 That the residue of men; the millennial reign, which is to succeed the present dispensation, will be a period of great blessing to man. The Lord hasten it!

18 Who maketh these things known from of old: the readings differ here. The Greek would justify this reading: Doing these things, known from eternity—that is, known to Him from eternity.

19 Trouble: by laying upon them Jewish ceremonies.

20 Pollutions of idols; from taking any part in idolatry. Things strangled: animals that were killed by strangling, without shedding their blood. The eating of blood was forbidden by the law. (Gen. 9:1-4; Lev. 17:10-11).

21 Unsettling your souls: by teaching error, and shaking their faith. (Gal. 2:3-1).

22 Seemed good to the Holy Spirit; actuating through the apostles and brethren, and impressing them what it was right to do.

23 Rejoiced; at the consolation contained in the letter.

32 Being prophets; ch. 11:27.

37 Barnabas was desiring to take John Mark with them; John Mark was a nephew of Barnabas; and this fact may have had something to do with his persistence in wishing to take him in opposition to Paul's wishes.

39 There arose a sharp contention: neither being willing to yield. How few there are who get absolute victory over self, so as to have no self-preferences! Barnabas sailed to Cyprus; his native place. (ch. 4:30).

41 Confirming the assemblies, strengthening them and establishing them in the doctrines and practice of the Gospel. There is great need now of Spirit-filled men to go over the world, and do the same sort of work that Paul and Silas did; preach the Gospel of Christ. Immerse believers, organize Gospel assemblies, aid in selecting elders to serve them, and to confirm them in the faith, once for all delivered to the saints.
CHAPTER XVI.

1 And he came down also to Derbe and to Lystra. And, behold, a certain disciple was there, Timothy by name, son of a believing Jewish woman, but of a Greek father; 2 who was well reported of by the brethren in Lystra and Iconium; 3 this one Paul wished to go forth with him; and, taking him, he circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places; for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 And, as they were journeying through the cities, they were delivering to them the decrees to keep, that had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were in Jerusalem. 5 So the assemblies were being strengthened in the faith, and were increasing in number daily.

6 And they passed through the Phrygian and Galatian country, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia; 7 and, having come over against Mysia, they were trying to go on into Bithynia, and the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them; 8 and, passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.

PAUL AND HIS COMPANIONS COME TO PHILIPPI. LYDIA, THE JAILER, AND OTHERS BELIEVE.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul by night: a certain man of Macedonia, standing, and beseeching him, saying, "Crossing over into Macedonia, help us!" 10 And, when he saw the vision, straightway we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to proclaim the Good News to them. 11 Having set sail, therefore, from Troas, we ran in a straight course to Samothrace, and on the following day to Neapolis; 12 and thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of the district of Macedonia, a colony. And we were tarrying in this city certain days.

13 And, on the sabbath day, we went forth without the gate by a river, where we were supposing there was a place of prayer; and, sitting down, we were speaking to the women who had assembled together. 14 And a certain woman, Lydia, by name, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, who worshipped God, was listening, whose heart the Lord opened to attend to the things spoken by Paul. 15 And, when she was immersed, and her household, she besought us, saying, "If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, having entered into my house, abide there." And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we were on our way to the place of prayer, that a certain damsel, having a spirit of divination, 1 met us; who, indeed, was bringing to her masters much gain by sooth-saying. 17 The same, following after Paul and us, kept crying, saying, "These men are servants of the Most High God; who, indeed, declare to you a way of salvation." 18 And this she was doing for many days. But Paul, having been troubled, and turning, said to the spirit, "I command you

12 Philippi . . . a colony: Inhabited by Roman citizens. This seems to have been the first introduction of the Gospel into Europe.

14 Thyatira: a city of Lydia, a province of Asia Minor. Whose heart the Lord opened: inclined her heart to understand and believe the word, which Paul preached.

15 Abide there: true Christianity leads to whole-hearted hospitality towards God’s servants.

16 Spirit of divination: the spirit that professed to foretell events. By sooth-saying: by practicing the art of divination, or telling fortunes, and other things pertaining to the future. This is very much the same as the spirit mediums of our times, who are the captives of evil spirits, and are used by them in the service of Satan.

18 Having been troubled: on account of her debased condition, and the vast evil she was accomplishing. In the name of Jesus Christ: all true servants of God accomplish their work for Him in the name, or by virtue of the power, of Jesus Christ. Fully equipped servants of God cast out demons now. in the name of Jesus Christ to come out from her.” And it came out that very hour.

19 But her masters, seeing that the hope of their gain was gone, laying hold on Paul and Silas, dragged them into the market-place before the rulers; 20 and, leading them forward to the magistrates, they said, “These men, being Jews, are greatly disturbing our city; 21 and are declaring customs, which it is not lawful for us to receive, or to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them; and the magistrates, having torn off their garments, were giving orders to beat them with rods; 23 and, having laid them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely; 24 who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks. 25 And about midnight Paul and Silas, while engaged in prayer, were singing praise to God; and the prisoners were listening to them. 26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and the bonds of all were loosed. 27 And the jailer, being aroused from sleep, and seeing the doors of the prison open, drawing a sword, was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had fled. 28 But Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Do yourself no harm, for we are all here." 29 And, calling for a light, he sprang into the prison, and, being in fear, he fell down before Paul and Silas; 30 and, having brought them out, he said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" 31 And they said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you shall be saved, and your house." 32 And they spake to him the word of the Lord with all that were in his house. 33 And, having taken them with him, at that hour of the night he washed their stripes; and was immersed, himself and all his, immediately; 34 and, bringing them up into his house, he placed a table near them; and he rejoiced greatly with all his house, having believed in God.

35 And, when it was day, the magistrates sent forth the serjeants, saying, "Release these men." 36 And the jailer reported these words to Paul, "The magistrates have sent that ye be released; now, therefore, going forth, go on your way in peace." 37 But Paul said to them, "Having beaten us in public, uncondemned, being Romans, they cast us into prison; and now are they casting us out secretly? Nay, verily; but, coming themselves, let them lead us out." 38 And the serjeants reported these words to the magistrates; and they were afraid, when they heard that they were Romans; 39 and, coming, they besought them; and, leading them forth, they kept asking them to go away from the city. 40 And, coming out from the prison, they entered into the house of Lydia; and, seeing the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

21 Customs ... not lawful; a new religion, contrary to the Roman law.

23 The bonds: chains, chords, or fetters, with which they were confined.

24 Was about to kill himself; to avoid the death to which he supposed he would be exposed, because of the escape of the prisoners. (compare ch. 12:10.)

3 What must I do; the jailer was deeply convicted of sin, and had a keen sense of his lost condition. He desired salvation from sin.

31 Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you shall be saved; a faith that unites the guilty sinner to the Lord Jesus, who put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself, is all that is needed to bring pardon and salvation to the real penitent.

32 With all who were in his house; all in the jailer’s house, who were able to understand and believe the word. Infants, as such, are under the blood; and not till they commit sin do they need anything more than has been done for them in the death and resurrection of Christ.

33 Serjeants; the lictors who accompanied the magistrates, and executed their orders.

37 Being Romans; Paul here claims to be a Roman in the sense that he was a Roman citizen, whom it was unlawful thus to scourge and imprison. Coming themselves, let them lead us out; this would be a public confession of wrong.

39 Besought them; to forgive the injustice. They kept asking; Gr. they were asking; i.e., they continued asking as they were walking together. The mighty earthquake, and the Spirit of God perhaps convicting them of sin, together with the possibility of having to account to Caesar for the maltreatment of two of his subjects, had wrought a great change in these magistrates.

40 They comforted them; by telling them of God’s wonderful protection, and unfolding His Gospel to them. It would seem that the brethren should have comforted Paul and Silas, in view of the great wrongs inflicted upon them; but God comforted these maltreated servants, and they were ready to comfort, encourage, and establish others.
CHAPTER XVII.

PAUL VISITS THESSALONICA.

1 And, having passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews; 2 and, according to Paul’s custom, he went in to them; and for three sabbaths reasoned with them from the Scriptures, 3 opening and setting forth that it was necessary that the Christ should suffer, and rise again from the dead; and that “This Jesus Whom I am proclaiming to you, is the Christ.” 4 And some of them were persuaded, and cast in their lot with Paul and Silas; also, of the devout Greeks, a great number; and, of the principal women, not a few. 5 But the Jews, moved with jealousy, and taking to themselves certain evil men of the rabble, and gathering a multitude, were setting the city in an uproar; and, assaulting the house of Jason, they were seeking them to lead them forth to the populace. 6 But, not finding them, they dragged Jason and certain brethren before the rulers of the city, shouting, “These who turned the inhabited earth upside down are present here also; 7 whom Jason has received; and these all are acting contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying that ‘There is Another King—Jesus!’” 8 And they troubled the multitude and the city-rulers, hearing these things; 9 and, having taken security from Jason and the rest, they released them.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XVII.

1 Or, letters in the market-place.

1 Amphipolis: the chief city of the eastern division of Macedonia. Thessalonica: the capital of the western division of Macedonia.

2 The Scriptures: the Old Testament.

3 It was necessary that the Christ should suffer: the Old Testament Scriptures foretold this. His death was necessary to their fulfillment, and to the salvation of men. There could be no salvation, unless He would lay down His life as a sin-offering.

4 Devout Greeks: Greeks who had become proselytes to the Jewish faith. Of principal women: these also probably were Greeks.

6 Contrary to the decrees of Cesar: this was the charge of treason, and the only proof to sustain it was the fact that they spoke of Jesus as King.

7 Having taken security from Jason: a bond that made Jason responsible for entertaining Paul and Silas again.

10 But the brethren straightway sent away both Paul and Silas by night to Berea; who, indeed, having arrived, went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11 And these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the Scriptures daily, whether these things were so. 12 Many, of them, therefore, believed; also, of the reputable Grecian women, and of men, not a few. 13 But, when the Jews from Thessalonica knew that also in Berea the word of God was proclaimed by Paul, they came there also, stirring up and troubling the multitudes. 14 And then straightway the brethren sent away Paul to journey as far as to the sea; but Silas and Timothy remained there still.

PAUL AT ATHENS.

15 But those conducting Paul brought him as far as Athens; and, having received a command to Silas and Timothy, that they should come to him as soon as possible, they departed.

16 And, while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was being provoked within him, observing that the city was full of idols. 17 So, he was reasoning in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him. 18 And some also of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were encountering him. And some said, “What would this babbler 2 wish to say?” And others said,
“He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign gods;” because he proclaimed the good tidings of Jesus and the resurrection. 19 And, laying hold of him, they led him upon Mars’ Hill, saying, “May we know what this new teaching is, that is being spoken by you? 20 for you bring to our ears certain strange things; we wish, therefore, to know what these things mean.” 21 Now all Athenians and the sojourning foreigners were wont to spend their leisure in nothing else, than either to tell or to hear something new. 22 And Paul, having taken his stand in the midst of Mars’ Hill, said, “Men of Athens, in all respects I observe that ye are more than usually regardful of the deities; 23 for, passing through, and considering your objects of worship, I found also an altar on which had been inscribed, ‘TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.’ What, therefore, in ignorance ye worship, this I declare to you. 24 The God Who made the world and all things therein, The Same being Lord of Heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands, 25 nor is ministered to by human hands, as if needing anything; Himself giving to all life, and breath, and all things; 26 and He made of one every nation of men to dwell upon all the face of the earth, having marked out their appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation; 27 that they should seek God, if, perhaps, they might feel after Him, and find Him, although, in truth, He is not far from each one of us; 28 for in Him we live, and move, and are; 29 as also some of your own poets have said, ‘For we also are His offspring.’

29 “Being, therefore, God’s offspring, we ought not to suppose that the Godhead is like gold, or silver, or stone, graven by man’s art and device! 30 God, therefore, having overlooked the time of ignorance, now commands all men everywhere to repent; 31 inasmuch as He appointed a day in which He intendeth to judge the inhabited earth in righteousness, by a Man Whom He appointed, having given assurance to all by raising Him from the dead.”

32 And, hearing of the resurrection of the dead, some, indeed, were mocking; but others said, “We will hear you concerning this yet again.”

33 Thus Paul went forth out of their midst. 34 But certain men, joining themselves to him, believed; among whom also were Dionysius—the Areopagite—and a woman, Damaris by name, and others with them.

PAUL IN CORINTH.

1 After these things, departing from Athens, he came to Corinth. 2 And, finding a certain Jew, Aquila by name, a native of Pontus, having recently come from Italy, and Priscilla his wife (because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart out of Rome, he came to them; and, because he was of the same trade, he abode with them, and they labored; for by occupation they were tent-makers. And he was reasoning in the synagogue every sabbath, and was persuading Jews and Greeks.

5 And, when both Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was being constrained by the word, fully testifying to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. But, when they resisted, and blasphemed, he, shaking out his garments, said to them, "Your blood be upon your own head! I am pure! Henceforth I will go to the Gentiles."

7 And, departing thence, he entered into the house of a certain man, Titus Justus by name, a worshipper of God, whose house was adjoining the synagogue. And Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians, having heard, were believing, and being immersed.

9 And the Lord said to Paul, through a vision by night, "Fear not, but speak, and be not silent; for I am with you, and no one shall set on you to harm you; because I have much people in this city." And he dwelt there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But, when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul, and brought him to the judgment-seat. Saying, "This man is persuading men to worship God contrary to the law." 14 And, when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If, indeed, it were some wrong or wicked villainy, O Jews, with reason had I borne with you; but, if they are questions about a word, and names, and your own law, ye yourselves shall see to it. I am not disposed to be a judge of such matters." 16 And he drove them from the judgment-seat. But they all, having laid hold upon Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, were beating him before the judgment-seat. And Gallio was caring for none of these things.

PAUL VISITS EPHESUS.

18 And Paul, abiding after this yet many days with the brethren, having taken leave of them, was sailing away to Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shaven his head in Cenchrea; for he had a vow. 19 And they came down to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself, entering into the synagogue, reasoned with the Jews. 20 And, though they asked him to remain a longer time with them, he consented not; 21 but, taking leave of them, and saying, "I will return to you again, God willing," he sailed from Ephesus; 22 and, landing at Cesarea, going up and saluting the assembly, he went down to Antioch. 23 And, having spent some time there, he departed, going through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples.

3 Trade; occupation. It was common with the Jews to give their sons a trade, that they might be independent.
4 Was persuading the Jews; that Jesus was the Messiah.
5 Was being constrained by the word; meaning, probably, that he was greatly interested in bringing out the word—especially that portion of the Scriptures that proved Jesus to be the Christ.
6 Shaking out his garments; in token of his great abhorrence of their sin in rejecting and opposing the Messiah. Your blood be upon your own head; the guilt of your own destruction rests upon your own heads. I am pure; free from all blame in the matter of your destruction.
7 A worshipper of God; a proselyte to the Jewish faith.
10 Much people in this city; many who would accept the Gospel, and become children of God by faith in Jesus Christ. (Gal. 3:29.)
12 Gallio; the Roman governor of the province of Achaia, and brother of Seneca—who wrote many beautiful moral sentiments, and is said to have violated them all. Rose up against Paul; assaulted and arrested him.
13 Contrary to the law; the law of Moses.
16 He drove them from the judgment-seat; that is, he drove the Jews, who had brought Paul before him, from the judgment-seat. This decision was, practically, in Paul's favor.
17 But they all; all the Greeks present, who sympathized with the decision of Gallio. Sosthenes; probably the main leader against Paul. Was caring for none of these things; Gallio did not concern himself about the treatment Sosthenes received, quite willing that he should be punished for his bigotry.
18 Having shaven his head; in fulfillment of a vow or promise to the Lord. Cenchrea; the sea-port of Corinth, about eight miles east of the city.
19 Ephesus; a city of Ionia in Asia Minor, about forty miles south of Smyrna.
22 Cesarea; a sea-port on the western coast of Palestine. Antioch; Antioch in Syria, the place from which he went out on his late tour.

CHAPTER XIX.

PAUL AT EPHESUS.

1. And it came to pass, while Apollos was in Corinth, that Paul, having passed through the upper districts, came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples; 2 and he said to them, "Did ye receive the Holy Spirit, after having believed?" And they said to him, "Nay, we did not even hear whether there is a Holy Spirit." 3 And he said, "Into what, then, were ye immersed?" And they said, "Into John's immersion." 4 And Paul said, "John immersed with an immersion of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe on Him coming after him; that is, on Jesus." 5 And, having heard this, they were immersed into the name of the Lord Jesus; 6 and, Paul having laid hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they were speaking with tongues, and prophesying. 7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And, entering into the synagogue, he was speaking boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading as to the things concerning the Kingdom of God. 9 But, when some were hardening themselves and were disbelieving, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he, withdrawing from them, separated the disciples; reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. 10 And this continued for two years; so that all those dwelling in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. 11 And God kept performing special miracles through the hands of Paul; 12 so that there were even carried from his body to the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out. 13 But some also of the wandering Jews, becoming one's duty to be re-immersed, on getting the proper light.

9 The school of Tyrannus: the room where Tyrannus taught.

10 In Asia: in Ionia, or proconsular Asia, of which Ephesus was the capital.

11, 12 Special miracles: healing the sick in connection with the sending of handkerchiefs or aprons from him to them. And the evil spirits went out: in connection with the healing; suggestive of the agency of demons in sickness.

13 Exorcists: those who claimed to drive out evil spirits from others by uttering certain ceremonies over them. Adjure you by the name of Jesus: charge you with an oath in the name of Jesus.
exorcists, attempted to name over those having evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, "I adjure you by the Jesus Whom Paul preaches." 14 Now there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish high priest, who did this. 15 And the evil spirit, answering, said to them, "Jesus I know, and Paul I understand; but who are ye?" 16 And the man in whom was the evil spirit, leaping upon them, and overcoming them both, prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who were dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was being magnified. 18 Many also of those who had believed were coming, confessing, and declaring their practices. 19 A considerable number, moreover, of those who had practiced the curious arts, having brought together the books, were burning them in the presence of all; and they counted the prices of them, and found them fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20 So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 Now, when these things were ended, Paul purposed in his spirit, after passing through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem; saying, "After I have been there, I must see Rome also." 22 And, having sent into Macedonia two of those ministering to him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself remained for a time in Asia. 23 And about that time there arose no small stir concerning the Way. 24 For a certain one, Demetrius by name, a silversmith, making silver shrines of Diana, was bringing to the artisans no small business; 25 gathering whom together, and the workmen of like occupation, he said, "Men, ye know that out of this business we have our wealth. 26 And ye perceive and hear that, not only at Ephesus, but almost in all Asia, this Paul, having persuaded, turned away a great multitude, saying, that they are not gods that are made with hands. 27 And not only is there danger to us that this branch of our business will come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana be reckoned of no account, and also her magnificence will be destroyed, whom all Asia and the inhabited earth worship."

28 And, hearing this, and becoming full of wrath, they were crying aloud, saying, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!" 29 And the city was filled with the confusion; and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus—Macedonians—fellow-travelers of Paul. 30 And, Paul purposing to enter in unto the people, the disciples were not permitting him. 31 And some also of the chief men of Asia, being his friends, sending to him, were beseeching him not to venture himself into the theater.

32 Some, therefore, were crying one thing, and some another; for the assembly had become confused, and the greater part knew not for what cause they had come together. 33 And they brought Alexander out of the crowd, the Jews thrusting him forward. And Alexander, waving his hand, wished to make defense to the people. 34 But, when they perceived that he was a Jew, one voice arose from 3 Or. temples.

15 Jesus I know, and Paul; the demons recognized the authority of Jesus and Paul to cast them out of human beings.

16 Demons have great power, as was manifested in overcoming these exorcists. This looked as if the Devil had turned against himself; but, doubtless, it was the mighty power of God, that caused the demon to attack these men.

17 Such power as that displayed through Paul would bring a great revenue of glory to God now, not only in heathen lands, but in all Christian communities.

19 The curious arts: arts of jugglery, witchcraft, hypnotism, etc. Modern Spiritism is much the same as that brought to view in this Scripture. Books: that taught how to practice these arts.

23 The Way; the way of salvation through Christ.

24 Silver shrines for Diana: Diana was a celebrated imaginary heathen goddess, for whom a fine temple had been built in Ephesus. The shrines were small silver temples made in imitation of that of Diana. These were made by the artisans, or workmen, and were sold in great numbers to the people, who prized them as precious memorials.

25-27 Paul’s successful ministry in turning many from idolatry to the living Christ, was greatly damaging the sale of silver shrines, and thereby was damaging this branch of business.

31 Theater: a place for the public assembling of the citizens—like a large city hall.

33 Thrusting him forward; for the purpose of giving him an opportunity to explain.

34 One voice arose from all; the object being to prevent Alexander from being heard. The one voice was the cry, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians."
all, crying aloud for about two hours, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians!" 33 But the town-clerk, having quieted the multitude, says, "Men of Ephesus, who, indeed, of men is there that does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great Diana, and of the image that fell down from Jupiter? 36 These things, therefore, being incontrovertible, it is needful that ye be quiet, and do nothing rash. 37 For ye brought hither these men, who are neither temple-robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess.

35 Town-clerk; a city officer who recorded the laws, who presided over certain public meetings, and read what was to be communicated to the public. Having quieted the people; so that he could be heard. The image; the image of Diana which was superstitiously believed to have been given by Jupiter, the imaginary chief of the gods.

37 These men; Gaius and Aristarchus (v. 29). Neither temple-robbers nor blasphemers of our goddess; the town-clerk, on his own authority, accuses these men of any grave charge, and releases them.

CHAPTER XX.

PAUL LEAVES EPHESUS—AND JOURNEYS THROUGH MACEDONIA AND GREECE BACK TO PHILIPPI, THENCE TO TROAS AND MILETUS.

1 And, after the tumult ceased, Paul, having sent for the disciples, and exhorted them, taking leave of them, departed to go into Macedonia. 2 And, having gone through those parts and exhorted them with many words, he came into Greece; 3 and, having spent three months there, a plot being laid for him by the Jews, as he was about to sail into Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia. 4 And there accompanied him Sopater, son of Pyrrhus, a Berean; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and, Timothy; and, of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus. 5 And these, having gone before, were waiting for us at Troas; 6 and we sailed away from Philippi, after the days of unleavened bread, and came to them to Troas in five days; where we tarried seven days.

7 And on the first day of the sabbaths, we

6 Unleavened bread; meaning here the Passover.

38 If, indeed, therefore, Demetrius and the artisans with him have a matter against any one, court-days are held, and there are proconsuls; let them accuse one another. 39 But, if ye seek anything about other matters, it shall be determined in the lawful assembly. 40 For, indeed, we are in danger of being accused of riot respecting this day, there existing no cause for it, and regarding which we will be unable to give an account of this concourse.” 41 And, having thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

having come together to break bread, Paul was discoursing to them (being about to depart on the morrow), and continued the discourse until midnight. 8 And there were many lamps in the upper room, where we were assembled. 9 And a certain young man, Eutychus by name, seated in a window, being borne down with deep sleep, as Paul was long discoursing, overpowered by the sleep, fell from the third story, and was taken up dead. 10 And Paul, going down, fell upon him; and, embracing him, said, "Make no tumult! for his soul is in him." 11 And, having gone up, and broken bread, and eaten, and for a long time having conversed with them, even till break of day, so he departed. 12 And they brought the boy alive, and were comforted in no ordinary measure. 13 And we, going before to the ship, set sail for Assos, there intending to take up Paul; for so he had arranged, intending himself to go on foot. 14 And, when he met us at Assos, taking him up, we came to Mytilene. 15 And sailing thence, we came the following day over against Chios; and the next day we touched at Samos; and, on the following day, we came to Miletus. 16 For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

PAUL’S FAREWELL ADDRESS TO THE ELDERS OF EPHESUS.

17 And, having sent from Miletus to Ephesus, he called for the elders of the assembly. 18 And, when they came to him, he said to them, “Ye yourselves know from the first day on which I came into Asia, after what manner I was with you all the time; 19 serving the Lord with all humility, and with tears, and with trials which befell me in the plottings of the Jews; 20 how I shrank not from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and from teaching you publicly, and from house to house, 21 fully testifying, both to Jews and Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus. 22 And, now, behold, I, bound by the Spirit, am going to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there; 23 except that the Holy Spirit testifieth to me in every city, saying that bonds and tribulations await me. 24 But I make not my soul3 of any value as dear to myself, so that I may accomplish my course, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully testify the Gospel of the grace of God. 25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I went about preaching the Kingdom, will see my face no more. 26 Wherefore, I testify to you this day, that I am clean from the blood of all men; 27 for I shrank not from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. 28 Take heed to yourselves, and to all the flock in which the Holy Spirit appointed you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of God, which he purchased with his own blood. 29 I know that, after my departure, grievous wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock; 30 and from among yourselves will men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. 31 Therefore, watch, remembering that for three years, night and day, I ceased not to admonish every one with tears.

32 “And now I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you the inheritance among all the sanctified. 33 I coveted no one’s silver, or gold, or apparel. 34 Ye yourselves know that these hands ministered to my necessities, and to those who were with me. 35 In all things I showed you that, thus laboring, ye ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

36 And, having said these things, bowing his knees, he prayed with them all. 37 And great weeping arose from all; and, falling upon Paul’s neck, they kept kissing him; 38 being distressed especially on account of the word which he had spoken, that they were to see his face no more. And they were escorting him to the ship.

20 Anything that was profitable; he preached the whole truth to them.

22 Bound by the Spirit; controlled by the Spirit, and made subject to His guidance.

26 Clean from the blood of all men; he had so preached the Gospel, that the responsibility of the salvation of these people was no longer his, but theirs.

28 Overseers; bishops, who were called in v. 17, elders. (see 1 Peter 5:2, 3). These were servants of a single flock—the assembly at Ephesus. Purchased with His own blood; the blood of Jesus Christ, or His life, was the price paid in human redemption. The Father gave His Son, and the Son gave His life, to save sinners. Many ancient MSS. read “the Lord;” as, to feed the assembly of the Lord, (meaning Jesus), Who purchased, etc.

29 Grevious wolves; false teachers. The flock; the assembly, or members composing it.

33 I coveted no one’s silver, or gold, or apparel; every true minister of the Gospel ought to be able to say the same.

35 Help the weak; supply the needs of the feeble and destitute. More blessed to give than to receive; these exact words do not appear in any one of the Gospels, though the truth they express is abundantly taught in His teachings.
CHAPTER XXI.

1 And, when it came to pass that we having been torn away from them, had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and thence to Patara; 2 and, having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, going aboard, we set sail. 3 And, having come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre; for there the ship was to unload her cargo. 4 And, having found the disciples, we tarried there seven days; who, indeed, said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. 5 And, when it came to pass that we completed the days, going forth, we were resuming our journey; they all, with wives and children, accompanying us out of the city; and, kneeling down on the beach, having prayed, we bade one another farewell; 6 and we embarked upon the ship, but they returned to their homes.

7 And, having finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and, having saluted the brethren, we abode with them one day. 8 And, on the morrow, going forth, we came to Caesarea; and, entering into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was of the seven, we abode with him. 9 And this man had four daughters, virgins, who prophesied. 10 And, as we tarried there several1 days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, Agabus by name. 11 And, coming to us, and taking Paul’s girdle, binding his own feet and hands, he said.

cumbice their children, nor to walk after the customs. 22 What is it, therefore? They will certainly hear that you have come. 23 Do this, therefore, which we say to you: we have four men who have a vow on them; 24 taking these to yourself, be purified with them, and incur expense for them, that they may shave their heads; and all will know that there is nothing in those things of which they have been instructed concerning you; but that you yourself also are walking orderly, keeping the law. 25 But concerning the gentiles who have believed, we sent to them, having given judgment, that they should keep themselves from idol-sacrifices, and from blood, and from anything strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul, taking the men, on the next day, having been purified with them, was entering into the temple, announcing the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering should be offered for each one of them.

27 And, when the seven days were about to be completed, the Jews from Asia, having beheld him in the temple, were stirring up all the multitude, and they laid their hands upon him, 28 crying out, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place! and, further, he brought Greeks also into the temple, and has defiled this holy place!” 29 For they had previously seen with him in the city Trophimus, the Ephesian, whom they were supposing that Paul brought into the temple. 30 And all the city was moved, and there was a running together of the people; and, laying hold of Paul, they were dragging him out of the temple; and straightway the doors were shut.

31 And, as they were seeking to kill him, a report came up to the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in confusion; 32 who, at once, taking with him soldiers and centurions, ran down upon them; and they, seeing the chief captain and the soldiers, ceased beating Paul. 33 Then the chief captain, coming near, laid hold of him, and ordered that he be bound with two chains; and he was inquiring who he was, and what he had done. 34 And some shouted one thing, some another, among the crowd; and, when he could not ascertain the certainty because of the tumult, he ordered that he be brought into the castle. 35 And, when he came upon the stairway, it happened that he was borne along by the soldiers on account of the violence of the multitude; 36 for the throng of the people was following after, crying out, “Away with him!”

37 And, when about to be led into the castle, Paul says to the chief captain, “May I say something to you?” And he said, “Do you know Greek? 38 Are you not, then, the Egyptian who, before these days, caused a revolt, and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?” 39 But Paul said, “I am a Jew, of Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city; and I beseech you, permit me to speak to the people.” 40 And, when he gave him permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the people; and, when there was great silence, he spake to them in the Hebrew language, saying:

"Brethren and fathers, hear my defense which I now make to you." 2 And, hearing that he was speaking to them in the Hebrew language, they kept more quiet; 3 and he says, "I am a Jew, born

CHAPTER XXII.

1 "Brethren and fathers, hear my defense which I now make to you." 2 And, in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, having been trained according to the exactness of the ancestral law, being zealous for God, even as ye all are to-day; 4 and I persecuted this Way unto death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women; 5 as also the high priest testi-ifies for me, and all the elders; from whom, having received letters, I was journ eying to Damascus, intending to bring those also who were there bound to Jerusalem, that they might be punished. 6

And it came to pass, that, as I was journ eying, and was drawing nigh to Damascus, about midday, there suddenly flashed around me a great light out of the heaven;
7 and I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? 8 And I answered, 'Who art Thou, Lord?' 9 And He said to me, 'I am Jesus, the Nazarene, Whom you are persecuting.' 10 And those who were with me beheld, indeed, the light, but they did not understand the voice of Him Who spake to me. 11 And I said,
'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Arising, go into Damascus, and there it shall be told you concerning all things which have been arranged for you to do.' 12 And, as I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand by those accompanying me, I came into Damascus. 13 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law,
well spoken of by all the resident Jews.
14 And, as I could not see, for the glory of that light, being led by the hand by those accompanying me, I came into Damascus. 15
And one An-
nias, a devout man according to the law,

16 And, as I could not see, for the glory of that light, being led by the hand by those accompanying me, I came into Damascus. 17
And it came to pass when I returned to Jerusalem, and while I was praying in the temple, that I came to be in a trance; 18 and saw Him, saying to me, 'Make haste, and go forth quickly out of Jerusalem; because they will not receive your testimony concerning Me.' 19 And I said,
'Lord, they themselves understand that I was imprisoning and beating, throughout the synagogues, those believing on Thee;
20 and, when the blood of Stephen, Thy witness, was poured forth, I myself also was standing by, and approving, and guarding the garments of those who slew him. 21 And He said to me, Depart, because I will send you far hence to the gentiles.'

22 Now they were listening to him up to this word, and they lifted up their voice, saying, 'Away with such a one from the earth; for it is not fit that he should live!' 23 And, as they were crying out, and throwing off their garments, and casting dust into the air, 24 the chief captain gave orders that he should be brought into the castle, 25 saying that he should be examined by scourges, that he might fully know for what cause they were thus lamenting against him. 25

And, as they stretched him out for the thongs, Paul said to the centurion stand-that Paul's companions saw the light, and heard the voice, but did not understand what was said.

bol, which has already taken place in fact.

19 They knew that I was imprisoning; Paul thought that their knowledge of his former bitterness towards believers would dispose them to listen to him now in his advocacy of the claims of Christ; but in this he was mistaken.

gentiles. The Jews were indignant at the thought that the gentiles should be admitted to equal privileges with sorrence and indignation.

24 He should be examined by scourges; a Roman method of torturing men to make them confess their crimes.
That he might know; had the chief captain understood the Hebrew language, he could have caught some idea of the Jewish hatred to Paul, and the cause of it.
25 Stretched him out for the thongs; getting him into a suitable position to be scourged with the thongs. A Roman; a Roman citizen. Paul did not claim to be a Roman, but a citizen of the Roman government.
ing by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man, who is a Roman, and uncondemned?"
26 And the centurion, hearing it, going to the chief captain, reported it, saying, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman!" 27 And the chief captain, going forward, said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" And he said, "Yes." 28 And the chief captain answered, "I, for a great sum, acquired this citizenship." And Paul said, "But I have been born a citizen."

28 For a great sum; Roman citizenship was purchasable with money, or was bestowed for distinguished services to the government, or it might, in certain cases, be inherited.
29 Was struck with fear; because, in binding Paul, a Roman citizen uncondemned, he had violated the Roman law, and was liable to severe punishment. There was nothing to fear from Paul; for he never sought personal redress.

CHAPTER XXIII.
PAUL REBUKES THE HIGH PRIEST, DIVIDES THE COUNCIL, AND IS SENT BACK TO THE CASTLE.
1 And Paul, looking intently on the Sanhedrin, said, "Brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day." 2 And the high priest, Ananias, commanded those who stood by, to smite him on the mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him, "God is about to smite you—you whited wall! And do you sit judging me according to the law, and, in violation of law, command me to be smitten?" 4 And those standing by said, "Do you revile God’s high priest?" 5 And Paul said, "I knew not, brethren, that he was high priest; for it has been written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'"
6 And Paul, perceiving that the one part was of the Sadducees, and the other of the Pharisees, was crying out in the Sanhedrin, "Brethren, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; concerning the hope and resurrection from the dead, I am being judged." 7 And, when he said this, there arose a dissension of the Pharisees and Sadducees; and the multitude was divided. 8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees acknowledge both. 9 And there arose a great clamor, and some of the scribes of the party of the Pharisees, rising up, were fiercely contending, saying, "We find no evil in this man; but, if a spirit spake to him, or an angel — ."
10 And, when a great dissension was arising, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul might be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers, going down, to take him by force out of their midst, and lead him into the castle.

PAUL’S LIFE BEING IMPERILED, HE IS SENT TO CAESAREA TO FELIX.
11 And, on the following night, the Lord, standing by him, said, "Be of good courage; for, as you fully testified as to the things concerning Me at Jerusalem, so you must testify at Rome also."
12 And, when it was day, the Jews, making a conspiracy, bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink, till they had killed Paul. 13 And there were more than forty, who made this conspiracy; 14 who, indeed, going to the high priests and elders, said, "We bound ourselves under a curse to taste of nothing until we kill Paul."

3 Smite him on the mouth: to indicate that Paul had spoken falsely.
4 You whited wall; you hypocrite.
5 I knew not: Paul was not aware that Ananias was at that time high priest. It has been written; Ex. 22:28.
6 I am a Pharisee; Paul agreed with the Pharisees in the belief that the soul lives after death, that there are spirits, and a resurrection; and thus far he was a Pharisee.
7 If a spirit spake to him, or an angel; here the thought is incomplete, requiring some such addition as appears in the common version. "Let us not fight against God."
8 Curses; a solemn oath imprecating the divine wrath upon them, if they should eat or drink before killing Paul.
fore, do ye with the Sanhedrin signify to the chief captain that he bring him down to you, as if ye would ascertain more exactly the things concerning him; and we, before he comes near, are ready to kill him.

16 And the son of Paul's sister, hearing of their lying in wait, going and entering into the castle, reported it to Paul. 17 And Paul, calling to himself one of the centurions, said, "Bring this young man to the chief captain; for he has something to tell him." 18 So he, taking him with him, conducted him to the chief captain, and said, "Paul, the prisoner, calling me to him, asked me to bring this young man to you, as he has something to say to you."

19 And the chief captain, taking hold of his hand, and going aside privately, was asking him, "What is it that you have to tell me?" 20 And he said, "The Jews agreed to ask you, that to-morrow you would bring Paul down into the Sanhedrin, as if they would inquire somewhat more exactly concerning him. 21 Be not, therefore, persuaded by them; for more than forty men of them are lying in wait for him; who, indeed, bound themselves under a curse, neither to eat nor drink, till they should kill him; and now they are ready, expecting the promise from you." 22 The chief captain, therefore, dismissed the young man, charging him, "Tell no one that you have shown these things to me."

23 And, calling to him two of the centurions, he said, "Make ready two hundred soldiers, that they may go as far as Cæsarea; and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, at the third hour of the night; 24 to provide beasts also, that, putting Paul thereon, they may bring him safely through to Felix the governor;" 25 writing a letter after this form: 26 "Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor, Felix, Greeting: 27 This man having been arrested by the Jews, and being about to be killed by them, 1, going down with the army, rescued; having heard that he was a Roman. 28 And, wishing to know clearly the cause for which they were accusing him, I led him down into their Sanhedrin; 29 whom I found to be accused, concerning their law, but having no accusation worthy of death or of bonds. 30 And, a plot that was about to be against the man having been discovered to me, I immediately sent him to you, charging the accusers to speak against him before you."

31 The soldiers, therefore, according to what had been commanded them, taking up Paul, brought him by night to Antipatris; 32 but, on the morrow, they returned to the castle, leaving the horsemen to go with him; 33 who, indeed, coming to Caesarea, and delivering the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him. 34 And, having read it, he asked of what province he was. And, learning that he was from Cilicia, 35 "I will hear you fully," he said, "when your accusers also arrive," giving orders, that he should be kept under guard in Herod's palace.

CHAPTER XXIV.

FELIX HEARS PAUL'S CASE; TALKS WITH HIM FREQUENTLY, BUT DOES NOT RELEASE HIM.

1 And, after five days, the high priest Ananias came down with certain elders, and a certain orator, Tertullus; who, indeed, informed the governor against Paul. 2 And, he having been called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that, through you, we enjoy great peace, and reforms accrue to this nation through your forethought, in every way and everywhere; we welcome it, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 "But, that I detain you no longer, I pray you to hear us briefly in your clemency. 5 For, finding this man a plague, the Nazarenes. There was a fourth subordinate charge that he desecrated the Jewish temple. The first three charges were meant to bring upon Paul the condemnation of the Roman government; and the fourth was calculated to prejudice the Jews against him. But none of these charges were proved.
and stirring up insurrections among the Jews throughout the inhabited earth, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes; 6 who also attempted to desecrate the temple; whom also we seized.—[7 But the chief captain Lysias came, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, commanding his accusers to come before you;]* 8 from whom you will be able, after having examined him yourself, to obtain full knowledge of all these things of which we accuse him.” 9 And the Jews also assented, affirming that these things were so.

10 And Paul answered, the governor having beckoned to him to speak: “Knowing that you, for many years, have been a judge to this nation, cheerfully do I make defense as to the things concerning myself; 11 since you are able clearly to know that there are not more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship; 12 and neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any one, or causing a stirring up of a multitude, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city; 13 nor are they able to prove to you the things of which they are now accusing me. 14 But I confess this to you, that, according to the Way which they call ‘heresy,’ so I worship the God of our fathers, believing all those things, which are according to the law, and which have been written in the prophets; 15 having hope toward God—which these themselves also are looking for—that there will be a resurrection, both of the righteous and unrighteous. 16 In this I myself also am striving always to have a conscience void of offense toward

God and men. 17 Now, after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings; 18 amidst which they found me purified in the temple, neither with a multitude, nor with a tumult; but there were certain Jews from Asia, 19 who ought to be present before you and accuse me, if they have anything against me. 20 Or let these themselves say what wrong they found in me when standing before the Sanhedrin, 21 except concerning this one voice with which I cried aloud, standing among them, ‘Concerning a resurrection of the dead I am being judged before you this day.’”

22 But Felix put them off, knowing more accurately the things concerning the Way, saying, “When Lysias the chief captain comes down, I will determine your matters;” 23 giving orders to the centurion that he should be held, and should have indulgence, and to prevent none of his friends from ministering to him.

24 And, after some days, Felix, having come with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. 25 And, as he was reasoning about righteousness, continence, and the judgment to come, Felix, becoming terrified, answered, “Go your way for the present; and, when I obtain a suitable opportunity, I will call for you;” 26 at the same time also hoping that money would be given to him by Paul; wherefore, also, sending for him more frequently, he conversed with him. 27 But, when two years were completed, Felix received a successor, Porcius Festus; and, wishing to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound.

Continenence: the proper regulation of the appetites and passions. Judgment to come: ch. 17:31; Rev. 20:11-15. Becoming terrified: at his sins in view of the coming judgment. When I obtain opportunity: an opportunity for further considering the point brought out in Paul’s defense. But it does not appear that another opportunity was ever given him.

28 Hoping that money would be given to him by Paul: no marvel that such a man was deemed unworthy of another opportunity!

27 Wishing to confer a favor upon the Jews; and thereby to win popularity for himself. Left Paul bound: bound as a prisoner, though justice required that he should have been released. Failing to make money out of his prisoner, he overrode all considerations of justice, that he might conciliate the favor of the Jews.
CHAPTER XXV.

FESTUS WISHING PAUL TO GO TO JERUSALEM, HE APPEALS TO CAESAR.

1 Festus, therefore, having come to the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Cæsarea; 2 and the high priests and chief men of the Jews informed him against Paul, and were beseeching him, 3 asking it as a favor against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, making an ambush, to kill him on the way. 4 Festus, therefore, answered, that Paul was held at Cæsarea, and that he himself was about shortly to go out thither. 5 "Let those, therefore, among you," said he, who are able, going down with me, accuse him, if there is anything amiss in him.

6 And, having spent among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Cæsarea; and, on the morrow, sitting on the judgment-seat, he ordered Paul to be brought. 7 And, when he presented himself, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many and grievous charges, which they were not able to prove; 8 Paul saying in his defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Cæsar, did I commit any sin." 9 But Festus, wishing to gain favor with the Jews, answering, said to Paul, "Are you willing, having gone up to Jerusalem, to be judged there concerning these things before me?" 10 And Paul said, "I am standing at Cæsar's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged. To the Jews I have done no wrong, as you also very well know. 11 If, therefore, I am a wrong-doer, and have perpetrated anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die; but, if there is nothing in the things of which these accuse me, no one can deliver me as a favor to them. I appeal to Cæsar." 12 Then Festus, having consulted with the council, answered, "To Cæsar you have appealed; to Cæsar you shall go."

KING AGRIPP A HEARS PAUL.

13 And, some days having elapsed, Agrippa the king, and Bernice, came to Cæsarea to salute Festus. 14 And, as they were spending several days there, Festus laid before the king the things relating to Paul, saying, "There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix; concerning whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the high priests and elders of the Jews gave information, asking for sentence against him: 16 to whom I made answer, 'It is not a custom with Romans to grant as a favor any man, before the accused has the accuser face to face, and has opportunity to answer for himself concerning the charge laid against him. 17 When, therefore, they came together here, I, making no delay, the next day, sitting on the judgment-seat, ordered the man to be brought; 18 concerning whom, the accusers, standing up, were bringing no accusation of evils such as I was supposing; 19 but certain questions concerning their peculiar religion they had against him, and concerning a certain Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. 20 And, being perplexed in regard to the inquiry concerning these things, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem, and there be judged concerning these things. 21 But, as Paul appealed to be held for the decision of Augustus, I ordered, that he be held, until I should send him up to Cæsar.'"

22 And Agrippa said to Festus, "I myself also was wishing to hear the man." "To-morrow," said he, "you shall hear him."

1 Gr. More.

13 Agrippa: Herod Agrippa, son of the Herod mentioned in ch. 12:1, and a great grand-son of Herod the Great in whose reign Christ was born. Bernice: Agrippa's sister. She first married her uncle, the king of Chaldea, and then Polemon, king of Cilicia, whom she deserted to live with her brother, Felix Agrippa. To salute Festus: to congratulate him on his promotion to the throne.

21 Augustus: the Greek Augustus, meaning revered, is equivalent to the Latin Augustus. Augustus and Cæsar were used as terms of office; each meaning the Roman emperor. At this time Nero was emperor of Rome.
PAUL BEFORE AGrippa.

23 On the morrow, therefore, Agrippa and Bernice having come with great display; and, having entered into the audience-chamber, with both the chief captains and the principal men of the city, Festus having ordered it, Paul was brought.

24 And Festus says, "King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, ye behold this man, concerning whom all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both in Jerusalem and here, crying out that it was not proper that he should live any longer. 25 But I found that he committed nothing worthy of death; and, as he himself appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him: 26 concerning whom I have nothing certain to write to my lord. Wherefore, I brought him forth before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, in order that, when the examination has taken place, I may have something to write; 27 for it seems to me unreasonable, it sending a prisoner, not to signify also the charges against him."

CHAPTER XXVI.

PAUL MAKES HIS DEFENSE.

1 And Agrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak in your own behalf." Then Paul, stretching forth his hand, was making his defense: 2 "I deem myself happy, King Agrippa, that I am about this day to make my defense before you, concerning all things of which I am being accused by Jews; 3 especially since you are an expert in all matters relating to Jews, both in customs and questions. Wherefore, I beseech you to hear me patiently. 4 My manner of life, therefore, from my youth, which from the first was among my own nation and at Jerusalem, know all the Jews; 5 having known me from the beginning, if they were willing to testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. 6 And now, for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, I have taken my stand to be judged; 7 unto which promise our twelve-tribed nation, earnestly serving day and night, is hoping to attain; concerning which hope, O King, I am being accused by Jews. 8 Why is it judged incredible with you, if God doth raise the dead? 9 I, verily, therefore, imagined to myself that it was proper that I should do many things contrary to the name of Jesus, the Nazarene; 10 which also I did in Jerusalem; and many of the saints also did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the high priests; and, when they were being put to death, I have given a vote against them; 11 and, punishing them often throughout all the synagogues, I was occasions them to blaspheme; and, being exceedingly enraged against them, I was persecuting them even unto foreign cities. 12 Meanwhile as I was journeying to Damascus, with authority and a commission from the high priests, 13 at midday, O King, I saw, in the way, a light from Heaven above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and those journeying with me. 14 And, we all having fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul! Saul! why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.' 15 And I said, 'Who art Thou, Lord?' And the Lord said, 'I am Jesus, Whom you are persecuting. 16 But arise, and stand upon your feet; for I appeared to you for this end, to appoint you a minister and a witness both of the things in which you saw Me, and of the things in which I will appear to you; 17 delivering you from the people and the gentiles,' to whom I send you, 18 to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light, and from the dominion of Satan to God, that they may receive remission of sins, and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified by faith in Me. 19 Wherefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision; 20 but I declared both to those in Damascus first, and in Jerusalem, and through all the region of Judæa, and to the gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. 21 On account of these things, Jews, seizing me in the temple, were attempting to kill me. 22 Having, therefore, obtained help from God, I have stood to this day, testifying both to small and great, saying nothing, except those things which both the prophets and Moses said would come to pass; 23 that the Christ was destined to suffer; that He, first out of a resurrection of the dead, is destined to declare light both to the people and to the gentiles.”

24 And, as he was saying these things in defense, Festus says with a loud voice,

“Paul, you are mad! your much learning is turning you mad!” 25 But Paul says, “I am not mad, most noble Festus; but I utter words of truth and soberness. 26 For the king knows well concerning these things, to whom also I speak boldly; for I am persuaded that no one of these things is hidden from him; for this has not been done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe.” 28 And Agrippa said to Paul, “In a small degree you are persuading me to make a Christian!” 29 And Paul said, “I could pray God, that, both in a small degree and in a great degree, not only you, but also all who hear me this day, may become such as I am, except these chains!”

30 And the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them; 31 and, having withdrawn, they were talking one to another, saying, “This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds.” 32 And Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been set at liberty, had he not appealed to Caesar.”

CHAPTER XXVII.

PAUL’S VOYAGE AND SHIPWRECK.

1 And, when it was decided that we should sail to Italy, they delivered Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion, Julius by name, of the Augustan band. 2 And, embarking upon a ship of Adramyttium, about to sail along the coasts of Asia, we put to sea, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. 3 And the next day we landed at Sidon. And Julius, treating Paul humanely, gave him permission to go to his friends to receive their attention. 4 And, thence putting out to sea, we sailed under 1 Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. 5 And, sailing out of the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, 3 Sidon: a city north of Cæsarea, from which Paul sailed.

4 Under Cyprus: along its northern coast, between the island and the mainland, to avoid the force of the winds, which were contrary.

5 Cilicia and Pamphylia: Roman provinces in Asia Minor: the former lying opposite Cyprus: and Pamphylia was the next province west.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXVII.

1 We; Paul, Luke, and others. Italy; a country in the south of Europe, between the Adriatic and Mediterranean seas; of which country Rome was the capital.

2 Adramyttium, or Adramyttium; a seaport of Mysia, in the northern part of Asia Minor. Aristarchus; chs. 19: 20; 20: 4.
we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6 And there the centurion, finding an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, put us on board of it.

7 And, sailing slowly many days, and with difficulty having come over against Cnidus, the wind not permitting us to approach, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone; 8 and, coasting along it with difficulty, we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near which was a city—Lasea. 9 And much time having been spent, and sailing being already dangerous, because also the fast had already gone by, Paul was admonishing them, 10 saying, "Men! I perceive that the voyage is likely to be with violence and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives. 11 But the centurion believed the pilot and the owner of the ship, more than the things spoken by Paul. 12 And, because the harbor was inaccommodious to winter in, the greater part advised to set sail thence, if by any means, having reached Phoenix, a harbor of Crete—looking toward the south-west and north-west—we might be able to winter there.

13 And, when the south wind was blowing gently, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, lifting anchor, they were coasting nearer to Crete. 14 But, not long after, there beat down upon it a tempestuous wind, which is called Euroclydon. 15 And, the ship being caught, and unable to face the wind, yielding to it, we were borne along. 16 And, running under a certain small island, called Caludia, we were with difficulty able to secure the boat; 17 which having taken up, they were using helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, lowering the sail, 18 so they were borne along.

18 And, we being violently tempest-tossed, the next day they were making an overthrow of the cargo; 19 and, on the third day, with their own hands, they cast out the rigging of the ship. 20 And, when neither sun nor stars appeared to us for many days, and no small tempest was pressing upon us, henceforth all hope that we should be saved was being utterly taken away.

21 And, after long abstinence from food, then Paul, standing up in the midst of them, said, "Ye ought, indeed, O men, hearkening to me, not to have set sail from Crete, and to have incurred this violence and loss. 22 And, as to the present things, I exhort you to be of good cheer; for there will be no loss of soul among you, but only of the ship. 23 For there stood by me this night an angel of the God Whose I am, and Whom I serve, 24 saying, 'Fear not, Paul; it is necessary that you should stand before Caesar, and, behold, God has granted to you as a favor all those sailing with you.' 25 Wherefore, men, be of good cheer; for I believe God, that it will be even so as it has been told me.

6 Alexandria: a city of Egypt.
7 Cnidus: a town in the province of Caria, the province of Lycia lying between Pamphylia and Caria, going west. Under Crete: near the island of Crete. Salmone: the eastern extremity of Crete.
8 Fair Havens: on the southern side of Crete, about midway between the eastern and western extremities of the island.
9 The fast: connected with the great day of atonement. (Lev. 16:29, 30), which occurred about the 20th of September.
10 I perceive; he did not allow this as a prophecy from God, but had the conviction that the voyage would not be without loss—possibly of their lives; though he was sure that his life would be spared till he should see Rome. (ch. 23:11).
11 Uncommodious to winter in; being exposed to the winds, and to the sea, on the south. Phoenix: a place in the southwest part of Crete.
12 South wind blew gently; this they supposed would favor their purpose of reaching Phoenix, where they hoped to winter; as the coast of Crete a few miles beyond Fair Havens turned to the north of west.

14 Euroclydon: these fierce winds blew from nearly east-north-east. They are now called Levanters.
15 Caught: suddenly met and arrested, as it were, by the wind.

18 Making an overthrow: to lighten the ship.

20 Neither sun nor stars: they had no mariner's compass; hence without the sun and stars they could not keep their course.
22 No loss of soul: no loss of life, as the soul includes the life.
24 Granted as a favor: the Lord spared the lives of all the crew and passengers to Paul's prayers and faithfulness.
26 But we must be cast out on a certain island."

27 And, when the fourteenth night came, as we were being driven along the Adria, about midnight the sailors were surmising that some country was approaching them; 28 and, sounding, they found twenty fathoms; and, going a little further, and again sounding, they found fifteen fathoms. 29 And, fearing lest perhaps we might wreck against rocky places, having cast four anchors out of the stern, they were praying that day would come. 30 And, when the sailors were seeking to escape out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, by pretext, as though they were about to cast anchors out of the prow, Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved." 32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and suffered it to fall off. 33 And, when the day was about to dawn, Paul was beseeching them all to take food, saying, "To-day is the fourteenth day ye, waiting, continue fasting, having taken nothing; 34 wherefore, I beseech you to partake of food; for this makes the beginning of your deliverance; for a hair from the head of no one of you shall perish."

35 And, having said these things, and taken bread, he gave thanks to God in presence of them all; and, breaking it, he began to eat. 36 And, all having become of good cheer, they themselves also partook of food. 37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred and seventy-six souls. 38 And, having been satisfied with food, they were lightening the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. 39 And, when it was day, they were not recognizing the land; but they were observing a certain bay, having a beach, into which they purposed, if they might be able, to thrust the ship. 40 And, casting off the anchors, they let them go into the sea; at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders, and hoisting the fore-sail to the breeze, they were holding their course towards the beach. 41 But, falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the prow, sticking fast, remained immovable, but the stern was being broken to pieces by the violence of the waves. 42 Now it was the plan of the soldiers to kill the prisoners, lest any one, swimming out, might escape. 43 But the centurion, wishing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and he commanded that those able to swim, throwing themselves first into the sea, should get out upon the land; 44 and the rest—some, indeed, on planks, and others on some of the things from the ship. And so it came to pass that all escaped safe to land.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

PAUL IN MELITA. REACHES ROME.

1 And, having safely escaped, we then ascertained that the island was called Melita.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Melita; an island about sixty miles south of Sicily, now called Malta. It is a little north of west of Claudia, and nearly five hundred miles from Claudia.

2 The barbarians; a term applied to the inhabitants of the island, and applied to nations generally, who did not speak the Greek language, (Rom. 1:11). And yet they were very kind to this ship-wrecked party.
3 And Paul, having gathered a certain lot of fuel, and put it on the fire, a viper, coming out from the heat, fastened upon his hand. 4 And when the barbarians saw the beast hanging on his hand, they said among themselves, “Assuredly this man is a murderer, whom, though safely escaping from the sea, justice permitted not to live.”

5 He, therefore, having shaken off the beast into the fire, suffered no harm; but they were expecting that he would surely become swollen or suddenly fall down dead; but, after looking a great while, and observing nothing unusual happening to him, changing their minds, they said that he was a god. 7 Now, in the districts round about that place, were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, by name Publius; who, receiving us, entertained us hospitably three days.

8 And it happened that the father of Publius was lying prostrate, afflicted with fever and dysentery; to whom Paul coming, and praying, laying his hands on him, healed him. 9 And, when this happened, the others also, who had diseases in the island, were coming to him, and being healed; 10 who also honored us with many honors; and, when we were setting sail, they placed on board the things suited to our needs.

11 And, after three months, we set sail in an Alexandrian ship, which had wintered in the island, marked CASTOR AND POLLUX. 12 And, landing at Syracuse, we remained three days; 13 whence, making a circuit, we came to Rhegium. And, after one day, a south wind springing up, we came on the second day to Puteoli; 14 where, finding brethren, we were entertained to remain with them seven days; and so we came towards Rome. 15 And from thence the brethren, having heard the tidings concerning us, came to meet us as far as APPI FORUM and the Three Taverns; seeing whom, Paul, giving thanks to God, took courage.

PAUL AT ROME.

16 And, when we came to Rome, it was permitted Paul to dwell by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

17 And it came to pass, after three days, that he called together those who were chief men of the Jews; and, when they came together, he said to them, “Brethren, having done nothing contrary to the people, or to our ancestral customs, I was delivered a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans; 18 who, indeed, having examined me, were disposed to release me, because there was in me no cause of death. 19 But, when the Jews spake against it, I was compelled to appeal to Cesar; not that I have anything of which to accuse my nation. 20 For this cause, therefore, I called for you, to see and to speak with you; for, on account of the hope of Israel, I am encompassed with this chain.”

21 But they said to him, “We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any one of the brethren, coming, report or speak any evil concerning you. 22 But we deem it proper to hear from you what you think; for, indeed, concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against.”

23 And, having arranged for him a day, there came to him to his lodging a greater number, to whom he was expounding, fully testifying as to the Kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning till evening. 24 And some were believing the things spoken, and some were disbelieving. 25 And, disagreeing among themselves, they were departing, when Paul uttered one declaration, "Well did the Holy Spirit speak through Isaiah, the prophet, to your fathers, 26 saying, 'Go your way to this people, and say, With hearing ye shall hear, but in no wise understand; and, looking, ye shall look, and in no wise see; 27 for the heart of this people was made gross; and with their ears they heard heavily; and their eyes closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should turn, and I should heal them." 28 Be it known, therefore, to you, that to the gentiles was this salvation of God sent: they also will hear." 29 And he remained two whole years in his own hired dwelling, and was wont to welcome all who came to him; 30 preaching the Kingdom of God, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ, with all freedom of speech, without hindrance.

25 Well spake the Holy Spirit; because He spake the truth, (Isa. 6:9; Matt. 13:14; John 12:39, 40).
28 This salvation of God; the Gospel of Christ that brings salvation. God, foreseeing that the Jews would, as a nation, reject Christ, sent the Gospel to the gentiles.
29 Some Mss. insert v. 30: And, when he said these words, the Jews departed, having much disputing among themselves.
30 Two whole years; though kept as a prisoner, he was busy preaching Christ, and expounding the Gospel to all he could reach; while he also wrote many of the epistles during his imprisonment at Rome. He was a deeply-taught, untiring, dauntless worker for Jesus!
— THE —

EPISTLE TO THE ROMANS.

The epistle to the Romans was written by Paul (about the year 58, or 60, A. D.), while on his way to Jerusalem, bearing with him the contributions of the assemblies in Macedonia and Achaia to the poor saints in Jerusalem. (Rom. 15:25-26; Acts 21:17.) It was probably written at Corinth, (see ch. 16:23; (Gaius being a resident of Corinth); and it was borne to Rome by Phoebe, a resident of Cenchrea, the eastern port of Corinth. Paul had never visited Rome at the time this letter was written, (ch. 1:10-12); nor do we know who planted the assembly there. There is no Scriptural proof, nor any reliable historical, that Peter ever saw Rome.

CONTENTS.

ROMANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, a slave of Jesus Christ, a called apostle, separated unto the Gospel of God, 2 which He promised before through His prophets in the holy Scriptures, 3 concerning His Son, Who was born of the seed of David, according to His flesh, 4 Who was declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the Spirit of holiness by the resurrection from the dead— even Jesus Christ our Lord, 5 through Whom we received grace and apostleship, for obedience of faith among all the nations for His name’s sake; 6 among whom also are ye the called of Jesus Christ: 7 to all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called saints: Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because your faith is proclaimed in the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, Whom I serve in my spirit in the Gospel of His Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers, 10 making request, if by any means now at length, I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you. 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end that ye may be established; 12 that is, to be comforted together among you through our mutual faith, both yours and mine. 13 And I do not wish you to be ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come to you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some fruit in you also, even as in the rest of the gentiles. 14 I am debtor both to the Greeks and to the Barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish; 15 so, as much as in me is, I am ready to proclaim the Gospel to you also who are in Rome. 16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one who believes, and to the Jew first and also to the Gentile.

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 A slave: a bond-slave, whose personal liberty was forfeited. Paul, however, was not an involuntary slave; but he answered to the “ear-bored” slave, (Ex. 21:5, 6; Deut. 15:15-17). A called apostle: called by Christ.

2 Promised before: Paul wished the brethren at Rome to know that the Gospel had come in fulfillment of promises made in the Old Testament.

3 The seed of David: Christ was a descendant of David, according to His humanity.

4 Declared to be: the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead was the crowning proof of His divinity, which body could not be confined in the tomb.

5 By Whom: Jesus Christ. Grace and apostleship: the bestowed of the apostolic office, with grace to perform its high functions, was meant to lead people of all nationalities to obey Christ.
one that believes; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek; 17 for in it is revealed God’s righteousness, from faith to faith; as it has been written, “But the righteous shall live by faith.”

18 For God’s wrath is revealed from Heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hinder the truth in unrighteousness; 19 because that which is known of God is manifest in them; for God manifested it to them. 20 For His invisible things, since the creation of the world, are clearly seen, being perceived by the things that are made, even His everlasting power and divinity; that they may be without excuse: 21 because, having known God, they did not glorify Him as God, nor did they give thanks; but they became vain in their reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened. 22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, 23 and changed the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and quadrupeds, and reptiles. 24 Wherefore, God gave them up in the desires of their hearts unto the uncleanness of dishonoring their bodies among themselves; 25 who, indeed, change the truth of God into false-reverence for the Creator; but the peoples of earth had not appreciated such light or knowledge, but had readily given up all knowledge of God, or sense of obligation to Him.

22 Professing themselves to be wise: as the Greek, Roman, and other philosophers did. Became fools: manifested the greatest folly. A fool is not an idiot; but one who has intellect, and abuses it.

23 Changed: gave up the worship of God for the worship of senseless images.

24 God also: as they had given up God, He also gave them up to their vile passions.

25 Changed the truth of God: into mere idol-worship.

26-32 This is, indeed, a horrible picture; but it is not overworked, nor is it an exhaustive statement of the facts. (see also Gal. 5:19-21; Ps. 51:3.)

N.B. The natural condition of man is such as to make his salvation impossible, apart from the redemption that is in Christ Jesus.

is according to truth against those practicing such things. 3 And do you reckon this, O man, who judge those who practice such things, and do the same yourself, that you will escape the judgment of God? 4 Or, do you despise the riches of His kind-the full penalty of sin upon the sinner, some disregard His authority, and throw contempt on His law. Not knowing: not heeding the fact that the goodness of God should lead them to repentance.

3 Gr. Passions of dishonor.
ness and forbearance and longsuffering, not knowing that the goodness of God is leading you to repentance? 5 but, after your hardness and impenitent heart, you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and of the revelation of the righteous judgment of God, 6 Who will render to every man according to his works; 7 to those who, by patience in well-doing, are seeking for glory and honor and incorruption, eternal life; 8 but to those who are contentious, and obey not the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there shall be wrath and indignation, 9 tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that works evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Greek; 10 but glory and honor and peace to every one who works good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek: 11 for there is no respect of persons with God; 12 for as many as sinned without law shall also perish without law; and as many as sinned under 1 law shall be judged by law; 13 for not the hearers of law are righteous before God, but the doers shall be justified; (14 for, when gentiles who have no law do by nature the things of the law, these, having no law, are a law to themselves; 15 who, indeed, show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying with it, and between one another their thoughts accusing or even excusing them;) 16 in the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my Gospel, through Jesus Christ.

17 But, if you are called a Jew, and are resting upon the law, and are boasting in God, 18 and understand His will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, 19 and have become confident that you are a guide of the blind, a light to those in darkness, 20 an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth; 21 you, therefore, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach that men should not steal, do you steal? 22 You who say that one should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? 23 You who boast in law, do you dishonor God through your transgression of the law? 24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the gentiles, because of you, as it has been written. 25 For circumcision, indeed, profits, if you do the law; but, if you are transgressors of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. 26 If, therefore, the uncircumcision keep the ordinances of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision? 27 And shall not the uncircumcision that is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, with the letter and circumcision, to be a transgressor of the law? 28 For he is not a Jew, who is one outwardly; nor is that circumcision, which is outward in flesh; 29 but he is a Jew, who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in spirit, not in letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

1 Gr. In.

6 Who will render to every man; God will judge every man according to his works. The believer is judged in Christ as to his salvation, but the judgment of rewards awaits him later. Sinners will have no right to complain, if their punishment is no greater than their guilt; but who can estimate the extent of the guilt of him who refuses to believe on Jesus Christ?

7 Eternal life; life in Christ, or the Christ-life. The sinner has endless being, but it corresponds to endless death!

8 The Jew first; because the Jew had greater light.

9 The Jew first; on account of his fidelity to God in all things, and wise use of his opportunities; referring to the ideal Jew, who accords and obeys the whole truth, (Matt. 22:21).

11 No respect of persons; God does not treat men according to their wealth, intelligence, color, or position, but according to their characters and works.

12-16 Sinned without law; without a written law. Perish without law; this does not mean that those who die without law, or without having the law in their lifetime, will become extinct. Nor does the statement signify that they will be saved, or have a second probation. Written in their hearts; if those who have the written law do not so obey it as to be saved, what chance is there for the salvation of one who has nothing but the law of nature? God will not do the least injustice to any man, either in this life, or in the life to come; and yet, apart from Christ, there is no hope of salvation. If the heathen could live so as not to violate the law of nature, written in their hearts, that does not prove that they would be saved; for conscience, unless it is enlightened by the word of God, and quickened by the Holy Spirit, is no sufficient guide.

17-23 Knowledge without obedience amounts to nothing; except that, without obedience, it greatly enhances one's guilt. We should preach the truth, and practice what we preach.

28 Mere outward obedience amounts to little. To worship God acceptably, we must worship Him in spirit and in truth.
CHAPTER III.

1 What, then, is the advantage of the Jew? Or what is the profit of circumcision? 2 Much every way: first, that they were entrusted with the oracles of God. 3 For what, if some did disbelieve? Shall their disbelief make void the faithfulness of God? 4 May it not be! But let God be true, and every man a liar, as it has been written, "That Thou mayest be justified in Thy words; and mayest overcome, when Thou judgest." 5 But, if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous, Who visits with wrath? (I speak after the manner of a man.) 6 It could not be! for then, how shall God judge the world? 7 But, if the truth of God, through my lie, abounded unto His glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8 And why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), "Let us do evil that good may come?" whose condemnation is just.

9 What, then? Are we better than they? Not at all; for we before charged that both Jews and Greeks are all under sin; 10 as it has been written, "There is none righteous, no not one; 11 there is none that understands; there is none that seeks after God; 12 they have all turned aside, they together became unprofitable; there is none that does good, there is not so much as one; 13 their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips; 14 whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness; 15 their feet are swift to shed blood; 16 destruction and misery are in their ways; 17 and the ways of peace have they not known; 18 there is no fear of God before their eyes."

19 Now we know that whatsoever the law says, it speaks to those under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and that the whole world may be under the sentence of God; 20 because, by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in His sight; for through the law is the knowledge of sin. 21 But now, apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets; 22 even a righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ, to all who believe; for there is no distinction; 23 for all sinned, and are coming short of the glory of God; 24 being justified freely by His grace, through the redemption which is in Christ Jesus; 25 Whom God set forth as a propitiation, through faith in His blood, for the manifestation of His righteousness, because of of the Old Testament, prove the universal corruption of the human race, (see Ps. 14:1-3; 53:1-3; 140:3, etc.).

20 By works of the law no flesh will be justified; the observance of neither the ten commandments, nor ceremonial law, can justify a guilty soul before God: (1) because present obedience cannot atone for past sins; and (2) because the blood of bulls and of goats cannot wash away sin. (Heb. 9:13). Nothing but the blood of Jesus can cleanse from sin. (1 John 1:9). Through the law; the moral law, or decalogue. Man is corrupt without the law, but the law serves to reveal his sins to him. (Rom. 7:7).

21 A righteousness of God; provided in His Son. "Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one who believes." (Rom. 10:4). Christ's righteousness is imparted to all true believers.

22 No distinction; between Jew and gentile; for all have sinned, and rest under condemnation, until they believe on Christ.

24 Being justified freely by His grace; Grace gave us a Savior; and, if we truly accept Him as our Sin-bearer, we are justified, or accounted just, on the ground of His righteousness; Christ having redeemed us, with His own precious blood, from the curse of the law. (I Peter 1:18; 19; Gal. 3:13).

25 As a propitiation; a propitiatory sacrifice, whereby He put away sin (Heb. 9:26), averted the wrath of the Father, and gained His favor. The believer in Christ is sheltered, covered, and protected in Christ.
the passing over of the formerly-committed sins in the forbearance of God: 26 for the manifestation of His righteousness in the present time, to the end that He may be righteous, even when declaring righteous him who has faith in 2 Jesus.

Where, then, is the boasting? It was excluded. By what manner of law? Of works? Nay; but by a law of faith. 28

CHAPTER IV.

1 What, then, shall we say that Abraham, our forefather, has found according to the flesh? 2 For, if Abraham was justified by works, he has ground of boasting, but not toward God. 3 For what does the Scripture say? “And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness.” 4 Now to him that works the reward is not reckoned as of grace, but as of debt; 5 but to him that works not, but believes on Him Who justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness.

6 Even as David also speaks of the blessedness of the man to whom God reckoned righteousness apart from works, 7 “Happy are those whose iniquities were forgiven, and whose sins were covered. 8 Happy is the man to whom the Lord will not reckon sin.”

9 Does this happiness, therefore, come upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say, “Faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.”

10 How, then, was it reckoned? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while in uncircumcision; that he might be father of all who believe while in uncircumcision, that the righteousness might be reckoned to them; 12 and father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision. 13 For, not through law, was the promise to Abraham, or to his seed, that he should be heir of the world, but it was through the righteousness of faith.

14 For, if those who are of the law did not believe, the righteousness according to faith came, 15 proving to be the power of God, according to the Scripture: “I will declare, and hearken; I will seek to know of God.” 16 Therefore the faith of Abraham was reckoned to him as righteousness.

17 And being without law, he is a father of all them that believe, being our father as one.

18 For if the inheritance according to the law, and the promise, were promised by the law, it was not through faith: for if the inheritance had been by the law, it was not promised by the promise; but God gave them for an inheritance, to whom had been promised, who was the Father of faith in 2 Jesus. 19 He is the one who declareth the truth for circumcision, but not for uncircumcision. For it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God; but the children of the promise are reckoned for righteousness. 20 For the law was given through Moses, but grace and truth were given by Jesus Christ. 21 No more may the law be reckoned to that which is not of the law, because the giving of the law was in the passing over of the sins according to the law, that through the passing over of the sins the righteousness according to grace might be reckoned to them who believe in Jesus Christ.

22 For we have an old covenant: and a new covenant. 23 For, if the old sacrifice was rich, much more will the new sacrifice be rich. 24 For if the law had been able to give life, then death was not reckoned to sin; for if it had been able to give life, sin would not have power to reign. 25 But where sin increased, grace increased all the more. 26 For where sin abounded, grace abounded all the more, that, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, so through one, the grace of God and the gift by grace might abound more than sin.

27 For as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, so through one the grace of God and the gift by grace might abound more than sin.

28 Yet not as though the law had been unable to bring life: for if the law had been able to give life, then righteousness would have been by the law. 29 But the law was given, that thesin might be reckoned to those who were not of the law; and their sin was reckoned to them who were of the law. 30 Therefore it was reckoned to them who were of the law, but not to those who were without the law; for it is given in the two, to them that believe. 31 Therefore they who are of the law, being under the law, are under the curse; for it is written, “A curse upon the circumcised.” 32 But not only those who are of the law are under the curse; but also those who are without the law, because that which is not of the law is judged by the law, even though it is not written.

33 For he that is not circumcised, according to the flesh; and the uncircumcised by nature, when he has observed the law, will be a law to himself. 34 Therefore those who are of the law, being under the law, are under the curse; for it is written, “A curse upon the circumcised.”

35 But what of the uncircumcised? They, being without the law, when they have observed the law, will be a law to himself. 36 Therefore those who are of the law, being under the law, are under the curse; for it is written, “A curse upon the circumcised.”

37 But what of the uncircumcised? They, being without the law, when they have observed the law, will be a law to himself. 38 Therefore those who are of the law, being under the law, are under the curse; for it is written, “A curse upon the circumcised.”

For we reckon that a man is justified by faith, apart from works of law. 29 Or is He the God of Jews only? Is He not of gentiles also? Yes, of gentiles also; 30 if, indeed, God is One Who will justify the circumcision by faith, and the uncircumcision through faith. 31 Do we, then, make void the law through faith? It could not be! Yea, we establish the law.
are heirs, faith has been made void, and the promise has been brought to nought; 15 for the law works wrath; but where there is no law, there is no transgression. 16 For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace; to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all (17 as it has been written, "A father of many nations have I made you"), before God Whom he believed. Who maketh alive the dead, and calleth the things that are not, as though they were; 18 who, past hope, believed against hope, to the end that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, “So shall your seed be.” 19 And, being not weakened in faith, he attentively considered his own body already dead (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah’s womb; 20 but, in view of the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but was made strong in faith, giving glory to God, 21 and being fully assured that what He had promised, He was able also to perform. 22 Wherefore also it was reckoned to him for righteousness. 23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned to him; 24 but for ours also, to whom it will be reckoned, if we believe on Him Who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead; 25 Who was delivered up for our trespasses, and raised for our justification.

CHAPTER V.

1 Having been justified, therefore, by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 through Whom also we have had access by faith into this grace in which we have been standing; and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. 3 And not only so, but we also rejoice in our tribulations; knowing that tribulation works out patience; 4 and patience, approval; and approval, hope; and hope makes not ashamed; because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the holy Spirit, Who was given to us. 6 For, while we were yet weak, Christ, in due season, died for the ungodly. 7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; for, peradventure, in behalf of a good man, some one even dares to die. 8 But God commendeth His own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Much more, therefore, being now but causes one to rise above all trials; for already “the love of God has been poured out in one’s heart by the holy Spirit.”

13 Wavered not: his faith did not falter, even when he closely considered his own condition and that of his wife. To him the promise of God was more than all opposing obstacles.

15 The law works wrath; that is, wrath is the heritage of those who seek God’s favor through deeds of law.

16 For this cause it is of faith; God’s promise to Abraham and to his seed was not meant to be realized on the ground of personal righteousness, but on the righteousness that comes to him who believes in Christ. Good works characterize him who truly believes in Christ, but it is Christ’s righteousness alone that gives one standing before God.

18 Past hope; beyond all rational hope in the natural. Believed against hope; his faith had to struggle against a discouraged hope (viewed from a natural standpoint). All hope that he would have the promised heir, had long since expired; and now his God-given faith had to overcome his naturally-collapsed hope.

NOTES ON CHAPTER V.

1 Justified by faith: the faith that identifies the penitent with the Christ who died to put away sin, brings His righteousness; and, when this takes place, the Father imputes the righteousness of Christ to the believer; and he is now accounted righteous, or is now justified; his past sins being put away, and “the life of Christ,” being now imparted to him; while he has his standing in Christ, (ch. 10:4). Now the soul is at peace with God.

3, 4 Rejoice in our tribulations; because of their great utility. Tribulations, rightfully endured, work out patience, endurance, or steadfastness; and patience, in turn, works out approval, or approved integrity, both in the view of good men and of God; and approval leads on to hope (that sure anchor of the soul); and hope makes not ashamed.

2 Or, let us rejoice, or exult. 2 Or, endurance.
justified by His blood, shall we be saved from the wrath of God through Him. 10 For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son; much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved by His life; 11 and not only so, but we are rejoicing in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through Whom we now received the reconciliation.

12 Therefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death passed unto all men, for that all sinned; 13 for until the law sin was in the world, but sin is not reckoned, when there is no law: 14 but yet death reigned from Adam until Moses even over those who sinned not after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a type of Him Who was to come. 15 But not as the trespass, so also is the free gift; for, if by the trespass of the one, the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the One Man, Christ Jesus, abound to the many. 16 And not as through one that sinned, so is the gift; for, indeed, the judgment came of one trespass unto condemnation; but the free gift came of many trespasses unto justification. 17 For, if, by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; much more shall those who receive the abundance of the grace, and of the gift of righteousness, reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ. 18 So, then, as through one trespass, the judgment came to all men unto condemnation; so also, through one righteous act, the free gift came to all men unto justification of life. 19 For as, through the disobedience of the one man, the many were constituted sinners; so also through the obedience of the One, shall the many be constituted righteous. 20 And the law entered, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace did super-abound; 21 that, as sin reigned in death, so also might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER VI.

1 What, then, shall we say? Shall we persist in sin, that grace may abound? 2

NOTES ON CHAPTER VI.

1 What, then, shall we say? If sin furnishes occasion for the display of God's mercy, shall we keep on sinning?

2 It could not be! How shall we, who died to sin, live any longer therein? 3 Or are ye ignorant, that all we who were im-

5 Or, came in beside.

14 Death reigned; death prevailed from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not, personally, violate God's statutes.

15 Not as the trespass, so is the free gift; in several respects there is a dissimilarity between the results of Adam's sin and the results that followed the death of Christ. Abound to many; giving them much more in Christ, than they lost in Adam.

16 One trespass brought judgment, condemnation, and death; one act of Christ, in dying for the race, brought righteousness and eternal life to those who had committed many sins.

21 Another dissimilarity is seen in the fact that the reasons why the believer should reign in life with Christ, are stronger than the reasons that hold the sinner in condemnation and death as a result of Adam's sin.

18 Unto justification of life; the work of Christ for man is ample for all who accept Him; and all who truly believe on Him have eternal life. His own precious gift to them. (John 10:30).

20 The law entered: the written law, or ten commandments. That the trespass might abound; that man might see what a many-sided sinner he is. 21 Jesus Christ, having died for all, gives His own eternal life to all who truly accept Him; and His righteousness becomes the inheritance of every true believer.
mersed into Christ Jesus were immersed into His death? 4 We were buried, therefore, with Him through the immersion into death; that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. 5 For, if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, we shall also in the likeness of His resurrection; 6 knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be brought to nought, that we should no more be in bondage to sin; 7 for he that died has been justified from sin. 8 But, if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him; 9 knowing that Christ, having been raised from the dead, dieth no more; death no more has dominion over Him. 10 For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life that He liveth He liveth to God. 11 Even so reckon ye also yourselves dead, indeed, to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus. 12 Let not sin, therefore, reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey its desires; 13 neither present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members to God as instruments of righteousness. 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you; for ye are not under law, but under grace.

15 What, then? May we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? It could not be! 16 Know ye not that to whom ye present yourselves as slaves for obedience, his slaves ye are whom ye obey, whether of sin unto death, or obedience unto righteousness? 17 But thanks be to God that, though ye were slaves of sin, ye did, however, obey from the heart that form of teaching unto which ye were delivered: 18 and, having been made free from sin, ye were made slaves of righteousness. 19 I speak after human fashion because of the weakness of your flesh; for, as ye presented your members subservient to uncleanness, and to iniquity unto iniquity; so now present your members subservient to righteousness unto holiness. 20 For, when ye were slaves of sin, ye were free as to righteousness. 21 What fruit, therefore, had ye then in the things of which ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. 22 But now, having been made free from sin, and having been made slaves still accessible, and should be used in the crucifixion of self.

12 Let not sin, therefore, reign; here sin is referred to as a principle or law; and the believer is utterly to deny it any right in his being. Its desires: the desires, appetites, and passions, of the body. Unless these are controlled, and the body kept under (I Cor. 6:17), sin will be re-instated in the life.

13 Neither present your members as instruments; we are not to permit any of our faculties or powers of spirit, soul, or body, to become subservient to sin in any way. Alive from the dead: having new life in Christ, we should devote all our powers to His service.

15, 16 May we sin, because we are not under law; surely not. The person who imagines that he is saved, and uses this assumption as an excuse to sin, is not dead to the love of sin: and, therefore, he has no part in the salvation of Christ. We cannot serve two masters.

17 But thanks be to God; that those who were once abject slaves of sin, have now become subservient to the truth.

18, 19 Free from sin: free from its guilt and domination. Slaves of righteousness: living now in complete obedience to the God of righteousness, and living thus through the power of the new life received by faith in Christ.

20 Free from righteousness: destitute of all righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then; in that sinful life?

22 Fruit unto holiness: works of righteousness, holy living, and showing the fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22, 23).

1 Or. released. 2 Or. weapons.

3, 4 Immersed into His death; immersion is at once a picture of the death, burial, and resurrection, of Christ, and of our identification with Him in all these particulars. Those who have been buried with Him in this symbolic ordinance, should never tolerate sin in themselves any more; for the old life is put behind, and they are committed to live, henceforth, in newness of life—or the Christ-life.

5. Our real union with Christ in His death will insure our participation in His resurrection.

6-10 Knowing this: that our old man—or self-life that is dominated by sin—was, judicially, crucified in the Person of Christ, our Substitute, when He died on the cross for us. That the body of sin; another expression for "the old man," or "the flesh." (Gal. 5:21). Might be brought to nought: made null and void, as so no longer to control our real being—"the new man." This is brought about through Christ enthroned in the heart by the infilling Spirit, and kept on the throne, (ch. 8:2-4; II Cor. 4:10, 11; Gal. 2:20). If we died with Christ; there is a sense in which all died with Christ. (II Cor. 5:14); but this avails us little, unless we ourselves die to sin, experimentally, and become alive to God through faith in Christ. Our crucifixion becomes complete, when we become, subjectively, conformed to His death. (Phil. 3:10).

11 Reckon yourselves dead to sin; give it no place, utterly refuse to have anything to do with it. The position of the believer in Christ is one of death to sin; now he must see that his life corresponds to his position. If the facts do not always correspond with his position, he has access to the blood for cleansing. (I John 1:9), and the cross is to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end eternal life; 23 for the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Or, are ye ignorant, brethren, (for I am speaking to those who know law,) that the law has dominion over the man as long as he lives? 2 For the married woman has been bound by law to the living husband; but, if the husband dies, she is loosed from the law of the husband. 3 So, then, if, while the husband is living, she is married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but, if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to another man. 4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, that ye might be joined to another—to Him Who was raised from the dead—that we might bear fruit to God. 5 For, when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins, which were through the law, were working in our members to bring forth fruit to death. 6 But now we have been fully discharged from the law, having died to that in which we were held; so that we serve in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

7 What, then, shall we say? Is the law sin? It could not be! But I had not known sin, except through law; for I would not know even coveting, if the law did not say,

1 Or, sinful passions.

NOTES ON CHAPTER VII.

1 The law: the ten commandments.

2, 3 The wife is bound to her husband as long as they both live; but, if either dies, the other is free; and either may marry again without the charge of adultery.

4 Ye also became dead to the law; the truly penitent believer can point to the Christ Who died to put away his sins, and silence the accusations of Satan, when he brings up our past sins against us; and he may say, "The Law killed my Savior Who died for me; and it can have no further claim upon me." Having died in the person of our Substitute, the law cannot exact of us another death. The law is no more a condition of life to the believer, but the commandments are simple rules of conduct, which are to be kept in the power of the new life.

5 In the flesh: in the natural state, or under the dominion of the sinful nature.

6 Having died to that in which we were held; when we believed in Christ (Who died to put away our sins), and took our place in Him, we died to the law; Christ having fulfilled the law for us. Serve in newness of life; serve Him in the power of the new life given us in regeneration.

7 Is the law sin: nay, but it is the revealer of sin to him who disobeys it.

23 The wages of sin is death; eternal separation from God, with all the horrors of a miserable existence in Hell.

"You shall not covet;" 8 but sin, taking occasion through the commandment, wrought in me all manner of coveting; for apart from law sin is dead. 9 And I was alive apart from the law once; but, when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. 10 And the commandment which was unto life was itself found by me to be unto death; 11 for sin, taking occasion through the commandment, thoroughly deceived me, and through it slew me. 12 So that the law is holy, and the command is holy and righteous and good. 13 Did, then, that which is good become death to me? It could not be! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; that sin, through the commandment, might become exceedingly sinful. 14 For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin. 15 For what I accomplish, I know not; for not what I wish, this do I practice; but what I hate, this do I. 16 But, if what I wish not, this I do, I consent to the law that it is good. 17 And now no longer do I accomplish it, but the sin which dwells in me. 18 For I know that there dwells not in me, that is, in my flesh, any good; for to wish is present with me; but to do that which is good is not. 19 For the good that I wish, I do not; but the evil which I wish not, this I practice.

8 But sin: the sin-principle. Sin was dead; in the absence of the sin law was unrecognized.

9 I was alive without the law: felt secure and all right in the absence of the law. When the commandment came; came to be recognized in its true spiritual import Sin revived; appeared in great power. I died; felt the death-sentence pronounced against me.

10 Unto life: had I fully obeyed it.

11 Taking occasion: as Satan took occasion to deceive Eve, and got her to violate the command, not to eat the fruit of a certain tree; so Sin, the controlling element in the natural man, used the commandments to deceive, and slay us.

12 The law is holy; as coming from a holy God, the law is perfectly holy, and demands holiness in man.

13 It was not the good law of God that caused my death, but sin that dwells in me, leading on to the violation of the law.

14 The law is spiritual; requiring perfect holiness in man. I am carnal; the natural man is carnal, or lives under the domination of depraved appetites and passions. Sold under sin; sold as a captive to sin.

15-24 These verses show the sharp conflict between the self-life, "the old man," or "the carnal mind," on the one practice. But, if what I wish not, this I do, it is no more I that perform it, but the sin that is dwelling in me. 21 Consequently, I find the law, that, when I wish to do good, evil is present. 22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man; 23 but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. 24 Wretched man that I am! who will deliver me out of the body of this death? 25 Thanks be to God, through Jesus Christ our Lord! Accordingly, therefore, I myself with the mind, indeed, serve the law of God; but, with the flesh, the law of sin.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Consequently, there is now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and death. 3 For, what was impossible under law, wherein it was weak through the flesh, God, sending His Own Son in likeness of sinful flesh, and respecting sin, condemned sin in the flesh; 4 that the requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. 5 For those who are according to the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but those who are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. 6 For the mind of the flesh is death; but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace; 7 because the mind of the flesh is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, neither, indeed, can it be; 8 and those who are in the flesh cannot please God. 9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if, indeed, the Spirit of God is dwelling in you. And, if any one has not the spirit of Christ, he is not His. 10 And, if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 And, if the Spirit of Him Who raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, He Who raised up Christ Jesus from death to glory has delivered us, and has glorified us in Him. 12 Therefore, as by the offense of death, much rather by the grace of life will we reign in life through the One who has died, and who has been raised for us, and that we should reign in life together with Him.

NOTES ON CHAPTER VIII.

1 Consequently: as a result of the foregoing discussion. 2 No condemnation: those who are in Christ have their standing in Him; and, as He has put away sin, there can be no condemnation to those who have their standing in Him. 2 The law of the Spirit of life: Christ is our life; and the Spirit applies this life to the believer. Hence the law of the Spirit of life is the law that operates to free the believer from sin and death. 3 The law brings condemnation, but Christ bringseth deliverance and freedom. 4 Through the power of the Christ-life in him, the believer does just what the law requires; but it is the believer that lives in Romans 8, and not in Romans 7. Who walk not: the flesh must be crucified; and this begins when Christ is enthroned in the heart. (v. 10). 5 The mind of the flesh: the natural disposition, or depravity that controls the mind of the natural man. Is death: leads to eternal death hereafter, is, in a real sense, death now; because it is separation from God. The mind of the Spirit: the new mind, or new spirit given in regeneration. (Ezek. 36:26). 7. 8 The mind of the flesh is enmity against God; is directly opposed to God, fights God, and will not submit to His rule. 9 Ye are not in the flesh: not under the control of the carnal mind. If any man have not the spirit of Christ: the new spirit given in regeneration. (Ezek. 36:26; John 3:3, 5, 6, 8). 10 If Christ be in you: not His "new spirit" only, which all believers have, but Christ Himself. (Eph. 3:17; Col. 1:27). The body is dead: the body of sin (Rom. 6:23) is on the cross. (Gal. 2:20; 5:24; II Cor. 4:10, 11). Death is its place, and death is its doom; but the death is not all over in an instant; but one "dies daily," (I Cor. 15:53).
the dead will make alive your mortal bodies through His Spirit dwelling in you.

12 Accordingly, then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh; 13 for, if ye live according to the flesh, ye are going to die; but, if by the Spirit ye put to death the deeds of the body, ye shall live. 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. 15 For ye did not receive a spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye received a spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, “Abba, Father.” 16 The Spirit Himself testifieth with our spirit, that we are children of God; 17 and, if children, heirs also; heirs, indeed, of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if, indeed, we suffer with Him, that we may be also glorified with Him.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of the present time are of no account in comparison with the glory about to be revealed for us. 19 For the earnest longing of the creation is waiting for the revelation of the sons of God. 20 For the creation was made subject to vanity, not of choice, but by reason of Him Who subjected it, in hope 21 that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation is groaning and travailing in pain together until now; 23 and, not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruit of the Spirit, even we ourselves are groaning within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body. 24 For by hope we were saved; but hope that is seen is not hope; for who hopes for that which he sees? 25 But, if we hope for that which we see not, we wait for it with patience.

26 And, in like manner, the Spirit also helpeth our weakness; for we know not what to pray for as we ought; but the Spirit Himself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. 27 And He Who searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because He maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. 28 And we know that all things are working together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose;

2 Gr. Into. 3 Or, expectation.

11 Will make alive your mortal body: the Holy Spirit, if admitted to the full control of our bodies (His temples—1 Cor. 6:19), will make them alive with the life of Christ, and will heal, strengthen, and impart health—even the health and strength of Christ. (Ps. 103:3-5; Isa 40:31; 58:11; III John 2).

12, 13 If ye put to death the deeds of the body; if ye resist and overcome all the evil desires and capabilities of the flesh, the self-life, or the body of sin. Shall live: live a holy and victorious life here, and enjoy eternal life in the world to come.

14 Led by the Spirit . . . sons of God: the true sons of God are those who live the Spirit-filled life, and have Christ enthroned in their hearts. They have given the old man to death, and Jesus now controls their being. There is a great difference between these sons and the "babes" of I Cor. 3:1-3.

15 Spirit of bondage again to fear: a fearful, servile spirit, such as all unconverted believers have in a greater or less degree. Abba: A Chaldee word meaning Father.

16 The Spirit Himself; the Holy Spirit. Testifieth with our spirit; communicates to our spirit the knowledge that we are children of God; thus imparting assurance of salvation.

17 Heirs also; heirship follows the fact of membership in a family. Joint-heirship with Christ; co-ordinate heirship with Christ. If, indeed, we suffer with Him; suffer the crucifixion, (Gal. 2:20; II Cor. 4:10, 11; Gal. 5:24, etc.), and bear reproach for Him. (Heb. 11:26). All children of God will, as heirs, have eternal life; but only those who suffer with Him (as above), and overcome in His power, will be joint-heirs with Him, (Rev 3:21; 21:7).

18 Of no account; not deserving to be thought of, as compared to, or contrasted with, the glory that is to come to the overcomers.

19-21 The earnest longing of the creation; the lower orders of beings, with the earth itself, seem to be longing for deliverance from the curse. (Gen. 3:19-19). The revelation of the sons of God; when the overcomers shall be manifested along with their Elder Brother, as the powers that are to rule the earth. (Matt. 5:5; Rom. 4:13; Ps. 37:11).

22 The whole creation; every part of creation, without its own choice, has been made to feel the curse of sin; relating, likely, to every part of our own planet.

23 We ourselves; true believers. Are groaning in ourselves; under the multiplied curses and woes that sin has brought into our world. The redemption of our bodies; their resurrection in Christ's likeness.

24 Saved by hope; hope of future good—the eternal bliss of Heaven—sustains us in our trials, and thus saves us from discouragement and defeat.

25 The Spirit helps our weakness; the Spirit, giving us what is ours in Christ, makes our weakness the occasion of imparting Christ's strength to us. (II Cor. 12:9, 10). The Spirit Himself makes intercession for us; inbreaths prayers into the hearts of God's children, intense longings that can find no utterance in human words.

26 He Who searcheth the hearts; God the Father. Knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit; the Father understands the nature of the petitions inspired by the Spirit.

27 All things are working together for good to those who love God; yes, everything is working with all other things bearing upon our lives, for our good. To believe this, is to occupy the place of victory.
CHAPTER IX.

1 I am speaking a truth in Christ—I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit—that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart (for I was wishing myself to be a curse from Christ) for my brethren, my kinsmen according to flesh; 2 who, indeed, are Israelites, whose is the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service, and the promises; 3 whose are the fathers; and of whom, according to flesh, is the Christ, Who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

NOTES ON CHAPTER IX.

1 A truth; viz., that which he records in vs. 2 and 3.

2 I was wishing: this is the plain translation, whatever it may mean; and it is the work of a translator to translate faithfully and truly, whether he understands the real meaning, or not. May this not refer to some period in Paul's former life, when he had a dreadful struggle to part with his brethren, and the Jewish worship which had been his idol, and take up with a religion that his people so generally rejected? Or, possibly, it may refer to some former desire the apostle had to be made an apostle to the Jews, rather than to the gentiles; and, if so, the word anathema should be translated, not "a curse," but a "votive offering."

6-8 God always makes His word good to those who love and obey Him; but the fleshly seed of Abraham, or his natural descendants, have never realized the promises made to true believers. God does not consider as real Israelites, those who would not accept His Son.

9 The word of promise: Gen. 18:10-14; 25:1-23.

10-13 Not only so; not only did God reject a portion of Abraham's natural descendants, but He chose between Esau and Jacob, who were sons of Isaac, and without any regard to their works.
thing good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of Him Who calleth, 12 it was said to her, "The elder shall serve the younger." 13 Even as it has been written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."

14 What, then, shall we say? Is there unrighteousness with God? It could not be! 15 For He saith to Moses, "I will have mercy on whomsoever I have mercy; and I will have compassion on whomsoever I have compassion." 16 So, then, it is not of him that wills, nor of him that runs, but of God Who hath mercy. 17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose did I raise you up, that I might show forth My power in you, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth." 18 So, then, He hath mercy on whom He wills, and whom He wills He hardeneth.

19 You will say to me, then, "Why doth He still find fault? for who has withstood His will?" 20 Nay but, O man, who are you that reply against God? Shall the thing formed say to Him Who formed it, "Why didst Thou make me thus?" 21 Or has not the potter a right over the clay, out of the same lump to make one part a vessel unto honor, and another unto dishonor? 22 And what if God, willing to show forth His wrath, and to make known His power, endured with much long-suffering vessels of wrath fitted for destruction; 23 and that He might make known the riches of His glory upon vessels of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory, even us, 24 whom He also called, not from Jews only, but also from gentiles? 25 As He saith in Hosea, "I will call that My people, which was not My people; and her, 'Beloved,' who was not beloved. 26 "And it shall be that in the place where it was said, 'Ye are not My people,' there shall they be called sons of the living God." 27 And Isaiah cries concerning Israel, "If the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, it is the remnant that shall be saved;" 28 for the Lord will do a work on the earth, finishing it, and cutting it short.

29 And, as Isaiah has said before; "Unless the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we would have become as Sodom, and been made like to Gomorrah."

30 What, then, shall we say? that gentiles who were not following after righteousness obtained righteousness, but a righteousness which is of faith; 31 but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, did not attain to such a law. 32 Wherefore? because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works. They stumbled at the Stone of stumbling; 33 as it has been written, "Behold, I lay in Zion a Stone of stumbling, and a Rock of offense; and he that believes on Him shall not be put to shame."
CHAPTER X.

1 Brethren, the desire, indeed, of my heart, and my supplication to God in their behalf, is that they may be saved. 2 For I testify for them, that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge; 3 for, being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God: 4 for Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one who believes. 5 For Moses writes that the man who did the righteousness of the law shall live thereby; 6 but the righteousness which is of faith speaks thus: "Say not in your heart, who shall ascend up into Heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down); 7 or, who shall descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead)." 8 But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart; that is, the word of faith, which we preach; 9 that if you shall confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and shall believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved; 10 for with the heart man believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 11 For the Scripture says, "Whosoever believes on Him shall not be put to shame." 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the Same One is Lord of all, being rich toward all who call upon Him; 13 for, "Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." 14 How, then, shall they call on Him in whom they believed not? and how shall they believe on Him of Whom they heard not? and how shall they hear without a preacher? 15 and how shall they preach, unless they are sent forth? As it has been written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring glad tidings of good things!"

16 But they did not all obey the glad tidings. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who believed our report?" Consequently, faith comes of hearing; and hearing, through the word of Christ. 18 But I say, did they not hear? Yes, verily, "Their sound went out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the inhabited earth."

19 But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses says, "I will provoke you to rivalry by that which is no nation; by a nation void of understanding will I provoke you to anger."

20 But Israel is very bold, and says, "I was found by those who sought Me not; I became manifest to those who sought not after Me." 21 But in respect to Israel He saith, "All the day long did I spread out My hand to a disobedient and gain-saying people."

1 Gr. Is for their salvation. 2 Or, unto. 3 Gr. Imit.

NOTES ON CHAPTER X.

2 Zeal for God without knowledge is, in general, worthless.
3 The righteousness of God; Christ. In rejecting Christ, the Jews rejected the righteousness of God.
4 Christ, the end of the law for righteousness; as the law had all its requirements met in the person of Christ, who believe on Christ have His righteousness— which is the righteousness of God.
5 Moses writes; Lev. 18:5.
6-9 The righteousness which is of faith; the righteousness which comes to him who truly believes on Christ. A present faith in the living Christ, who put away our sins by His own death on the cross, brings us His righteousness along with peace and joy. A real faith brings Christ to the heart, and makes Him a glorious present reality.
10 With the heart one believes unto righteousness; saving faith is a matter of the heart, rather than of the head. It is a "heart-grip" on the crucified and risen Christ, that brings conscious deliverance from the guilt and condemnation of sin. An intellectual belief, that does not involve the action of the heart, leaves one with his sins still on him. After one has savvily believed on Christ, he should confess Christ as his Savior; otherwise, his confession is false and ruinous.
11 The Scripture says; Isa. 28:16. Shall not be put to shame; shall not be disappointed, or confused, by any failure.

4 Gr. One preaching.
12 No distinction; between Jew and Greek, or Jew and gentile; for all alike have access to Christ through repentance and faith.
13 Whosoever shall call; Joel 2:32. This prophecy relates especially to the Gospel dispensation. (Acts 2:16-21).
14 How can they call on Him: the apostle magnifies, but not too highly, the office and work of the true Gospel preacher, who has been called, qualified, and sent forth by God, to preach. Hundreds of millions of people have never yet heard the Gospel!
15 As it has been written; Isa. 52:7.
17 Faith comes of hearing; of hearing the Gospel. One cannot believe the Gospel, until he knows something of it. In our times, one may read the word, and get the facts of the Gospel; but he still needs to be quickened by the Spirit, in order really to hear it.
18 Did they not hear; Many have heard, who have not obeyed. Their sound went out into all the earth; Ps. 19:1-4. This language of the Psalmist relative to the instruction given by the heavens, the apostle applies to the Gospel. During the first two or three centuries of Christianity it was disseminated very widely.
19 I will provoke you to rivalry by that which is no nation; Deut. 32:21. God has exalted the gentle nations that have accepted His Son; while the Jews, very generally, till recent years, were "a blessing and a by-word."
20 Isaiah is very bold; Isa. 65:1.
21 Spread out my hands; ready to bless and succor.
CHAPTER XI.

1 I say, then, did God cast off His people? It could not be! For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God did not cast off His people whom He foreknew. Or know ye not what the Scripture says of 1 Elijah, how he pleaded with God against Israel: 3 “Lord, they have killed Thy prophets, they have digged down Thy altars; and I am left alone, and they are seeking my soul.” 4 But what says the answer of God to him? “I left for Myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal.” 5 Even so, then, at this present time also, a remnant, according to an election of grace, has been reserved. 6 But, if by grace, it is no longer of works; otherwise the grace becomes no longer grace. [But, if of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise, the work is no longer work.] 7 What, then? What Israel is seeking for, this he did not obtain; but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened; 8 as it has been written, “God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, unto this day.” 9 And David says, “Let their table be a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompense to them: 10 let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back always.”

11 I say, then, did they stumble, that they might fall? It could not be! But by their trespass salvation has come to the gentiles to provoke them to rivalry. 12 Now, if their trespass is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the gentiles, how much more their fullness? 13 But I am speaking to you gentiles. Inasmuch, indeed, then, as I am an apostle of the gentiles, I glorify my ministry; 14 if by any means I may excite to rivalry my flesh, and save some of them. 15 For, if the casting away of them is the reconciling of the world, what will the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? 16 And, if the first-fruit is holy, so also is the lump; and, if the root is holy, so also are the branches. 17 And, if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them, and became a joint-partaker of the root and of the fatness of the Olive tree; 18 boast not against the branches. But, if you boast, it is not you that bear the root; but the root, you. 19 You will say, then, “The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.” 20 Well; by their unbelief they were broken off, but you have been standing by faith. Do not cherish lofty thoughts; but fear. 21 For, if God spared not the natural branches, neither will He spare you. 22 Behold, then, God’s kindness and severity; toward

NOTES ON CHAPTER XI.

1 Cast off His people: not His obedient people, but only the rebellious ones.
2-5 The apostle shows that God, all along, has had a remnant of obedient people. A true Israelite is of the Abrahamic type.
6 No longer of works: had Adam never sinned, he would have lived by his works; but, as all have fallen in Adam, it is impossible to heal this breach in the law by any sort of works.
7 What, then; what follows from this? The great mass of the Jews failed, because they would not have God’s righteousness, or Christ. The election: referring to those whom the Father gave to the Son. (John 6:37; 10:29-33). The rest were blinded: left in their own willful disobedience.
8 As it has been written: Deut. 29:4; Isa. 6:9, 10; 63:17; Matt. 13:13-15, etc.
9 David says; Ps. 69:22, 23. David was a type of Christ; and the destruction of his enemies typified the destruction of Christ’s enemies, or all unbelievers.
11 Have they stumbled, that they might fall; fall as an entire race, or so as never to rise any more? It could not be: impossible! The Jews will come into prominence again. (Ezek. 36, with references).
12 Through their trespass: in rejecting and crucifying Christ; but through His crucifixion salvation comes to all who accept it.
13 I glorify my ministry: he executed his apostolic office, under a sense of utter self-abasement, that he might glorify God, and bless his fellowmen.
14 Provoké to rivalry: that he might lead the Jews to see their great mistake, and become competitors, in the noblest sense, of their gentle neighbors who had been wiser than themselves.
15 But life from the dead: if casting away the Jews (for their rejection and crucifixion of Christ) brought reconciliation to the gentile world (through the death of Christ), what will the receiving back of the Jews be (when they accept Christ), but life from the dead?
16 The first-fruit be holy: the cake made from the first dough of the crop of grain was offered to the Lord, and hence was holy. The lump: the whole lump of dough. Christ is the First-fruit of the resurrection; and He is holy; and so the whole lump, or mass of believers, when assembled under His rule in Heaven, will be holy also.
17-24 The Jews, as a nation, forfeited their place with God, because they rejected His Son; and these are the branches that were broken off. The gentiles who accepted Christ came into the place of favor with God. Humility should characterize those who were of the wild olive tribe, but who have been grafted into Christ, the real Tree, or Vine. That supporteth all the true branches.
those who fell, severity; but toward you, God's kindness, if you continue in His kindness; otherwise, you also shall be cut off. 23 And they also, if they continue not in unbelief, shall be grafted in; for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For, if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted, contrary to nature, into a good olive tree; how much more shall these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I do not wish you, brethren, to be ignorant of this mystery (lest ye be wise in your own conceits), 2 that a hardening, in part, has befallen Israel, until the fulness of the gentiles come in; 26 and so all Israel shall be saved: even as it has been written, "There will come out of Zion the Deliverer; He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob; 27 and this is the covenant from Me to them, when I shall take away their sins." 28 As touching the Gospel, they are enemies for your sake; but as touching the election, they are beloved for the Father's sake; 29 for the gifts and calling of God are not repented of. 30 For as ye in times past, disobeyed God, but just now obtained mercy by their disobedience; 31 even so did these now disobey, that by the mercy shown to you they also may obtain mercy. 32 For God shut up all unto disobedience, that He might have mercy on all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways past tracing out! 34 For who knew the mind of the Lord? Or who became His counsellor? 35 Or who first gave to Him, and it shall be given back to him again? 36 Because, of Him, and through Him, and for Him, are all things. To Him be the glory forever. Amen.

CHAPTER XII.

I beseech you, therefore, brethren, through the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, well pleasing to God, which is your rational service; 2 and be not conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing

NOTES ON CHAPTER XII.

1 The mercies of God; as revealed in the foregoing chapters. Present your bodies; our bodies should be recognized as temples of the Holy Spirit. (I Cor. 6:19; and made holy by the indwelling Spirit, we should present them to our Father; not as a dead, but as a living sacrifice. This is a rational service, and brings with it great profit.

2 Be not conformed to this age; to its fashions, customs, maxims, and sinful practices. Transformed; changed or transfigured, in spirit, soul, body, life, etc. By the renewing, recasting, and utter changing, of the mind, through the power of the Holy Spirit. Prove; discern, know, realize. Perfect will of God; God has a best thought for His people, and the thorough renewing of our minds is indispensable to finding this.

4 Or, unto.

3 After receiving exalted blessings from the Lord, there is still a tendency, very generally, to think of one's self too highly. This tendency should be closely watched.
soberly, according as God divided to each one a measure of faith. 4 For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members have not the same office; 5 so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and severally members one of another. 6 And, having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us; whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; 7 or ministry, let us labor in the ministry; or he that teaches, in teaching; 8 or he that exhorts, in his exhortation; he that imparts, let him do it with liberality; 9 he that presides, with diligence; he that shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without hypocrisy; abhorring that which is evil; cleaving to that which is good; 10 in brotherly love being tenderly affectionate one to another; in honor, preferring one another; 11 in diligence, not slothful; in spirit, fervent, serving the Lord; 12 rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; persevering in prayer; 13 communicating to the necessities of the saints; cultivating hospitality.

14 Bless those who persecute you; bless, and curse not. 15 Be ready to rejoice with those who rejoice; to weep with those who weep; 16 thinking the same thing one toward another; minded not lofty things, but being carried along with the lowly. Be ye not wise in your own conceits; 17 recompensing to no one evil for evil; providing things honorable in the sight of all men; 18 if it be possible, so far as it depends on you, being at peace with all men; 19 not avenging yourselves, beloved, but give place to the wrath of God; for it has been written, "Vengeance is Mine; I will recompense," saith the Lord. 20 But, if your enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirsts, give him drink; for, in doing this, you will heap coals of fire upon his head. 21 Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

2 Or, in simplicity. 3 Or, superintendent.

4, 5 As the human body is composed of many members; so "the body of Christ." in its largest sense, is composed of all Spirit-born people. Each should find, by letting God teach him, his proper place and office, and then fill that place faithfully, as unto the Lord.

6, 8 Gifts differing; each Christian has his own particular gift, and his own Heaven-appointed work; and it should be the solemn purpose of his life, to make the best possible use of both his gifts and his opportunities, to the praise and glory of God. He that presides; or superintendent; having charge of some responsible work of the Lord: as, the pastorate, the deaconate, etc.

9 Without hypocrisy; there should be no deceit or pretense in our lives; but love should be the great controlling principle. (1 Cor. 13:4-8).

10 In honor preferring one another; always yielding the best and most honorable place to others, and content with the worst and the lowest for ourselves. (Matt. 16:24, 23).

11 In diligence, not slothful; the true Christian does all his work as unto the Lord; and hence there is no place for laziness, indifference, or waste of time.

12 Patient in tribulation; never grumbling or becoming discouraged amid trials.

13 Communicating to the necessities of the saints; helping to supply their needs. Cultivating hospitality; by entertaining strangers and others.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Let every soul be in subjection to the authorities that are over him; for there is no authority, except from God; and the nations may be divided, or one nation may be subjected to another, 2 as the apostle says, "We have had a sufficient reproof through him." (2 Cor. 12:21). And this is the case with nations, as well as with individuals. 3 So that he who resists the authority withstands the ordinance of God.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIII.

1 To the authorities that are over him; referring to civil government. An exception would arise (as often in the past), where government undertakes to control the conscience, by forbidding the worship of Jesus Christ, or seeking to impose worship contrary to one's conscience. (Acts 4:19, 20; 5:29).

2 Withstands the ordinance of God; here the apostle assumes that civil government, in general, is an ordinance of God; and whoever resists the authority, or the executive of civil government, resists God's ordinance.
God; and those having resisted shall receive to themselves condemnation; 3 for rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. And do you wish not to fear the authority? Do that which is good, and you shall have praise from the same; 4 for he 2 is God's minister to you for good. But, if you do that which is evil, be afraid; for he bears not the sword in vain; for he is God's minister, an avenger for 3 wrath to him that does evil. 5 Wherefore, there is necessity that ye submit yourselves, not only because of the wrath, but also because of conscience. 6 For, on this account, ye pay tribute also; for they are God's ministers, attending continually to this very thing. 7 Render to all 4 their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; 4 fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor. 8 Owe no one anything, but to love one another; for he

2 Or, it. 3 Or, unto. 4 Or, tax.

4 The civil magistrate in the rightful exercise of his authority, is a minister of God. Bears not the sword in vain; the sword is an instrument of punishment, and a symbol of power; and it will be used upon those who provoke the wrath of the law, (Num. 35:16-31, 30, 31). 5 Because of conscience also; men ought to obey civil government, not merely to escape punishment, but to keep from violating their consciences. 6 On this account; because government is God's ordinance. Pay tribute; taxes to support government. 7 Custom; tax on merchandise. Fear . . . honor; pay to officers the respect due them. 8-10 Owe no one anything; pay as you go. This is the rule; there may be some exceptions, where there are no risks in the matter to either party. But to love one another; this we should pay promptly in kind words and loving acts; but it is a debt that we can never cancel. We must keep on paying it. He that loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law; Lev. 19:18; Matt. 22:39-40. He who truly that loves another has fulfilled the law. 9 For this, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not kill," "You shall not steal," "You shall not covet;" and, if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." 10 Love works no ill to one's neighbor; therefore, love is a fulfillment of the law. 11 And this, knowing the season, that it is time already for you to be aroused out of sleep; for now is our salvation nearer than when ye believed. 12 The night was far spent, and the day has drawn near; let us, therefore, put off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. 13 As in the day, let us walk becomingly; not in revelings and drunkenness, not in lewdness and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy; 14 but put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfill its desires.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 But him that is weak in the faith receiveth ye, yet not for decisions of scruples. 2 One believes that he may eat all things; but he that is weak eats herbs. 3 Let not

1 Or, disputes.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIV.

Mutual forbearance and self-abnegation in non-essentials are enjoined in this chapter. 1 Weak in the faith; not well established in the doctrines and principles of the Gospel. Receive ye; to your fellowship. Not for decisions of scruples; you are not to assume the task of settling his conscientious scruples for him; but let time, and extended knowledge, and the Holy Spirit, settle these. 2 One believes that he may eat all things; all wholesome food. Who is weak; uninformed, ignorant of the whole him that eats despise him that eats not; and let not him that does not eat despise him that eats; for God received him. 4 Who are you that judge another's servant? To his own lord he stands or falls. But he shall be made to stand; for the Lord is able to make him stand.

truth bearing on the subject. Eats herbs; lives on vegetable food, lest he should be defiled. 3 The person who can eat all sorts of wholesome food, should not despise a brother who has narrower views of this subject; and, vice versa.

4 Who are you that judge; narrow-minded and ignorant people condemn others for things altogether innocent in themselves. To his own lord; meaning, in its application, Christ. He shall be made to stand; God will support even his feeblest children, when their hearts are loyal to His Son.
5 One man, indeed, esteems one day above another; another esteems every day alike. Let each one be fully convinced in his own mind. 6 He that regards the day regards it to the Lord; and he that eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and he that eats not, to the Lord he eats not, and gives thanks to God. 7 For no one of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself. 8 For, if we live, we live to the Lord; and, if we die, to die to the Lord: whether we live, therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end Christ died, and lived, that He might be Lord of both dead and living. 10 But you— why do you judge your brother? or you also— why do you despise your brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of God. 11 For it has been written, “As I live, saith the Lord, To Me every knee shall bow, and every tongue shall confess to God.” 12 So, then, each one of us shall give account concerning himself to God.

13 Let us not, therefore, judge one another any more; but judge ye this rather, not to put a stumbling-block, or an occasion of falling, in a brother's way. 14 I know, and have been persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself: except that to him who accounts anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15 For, if because of your food your brother is aggrieved, you are no longer walking in accordance with love. Destroy not with your food him for whom Christ died. 16 Let not, therefore, your good be evil spoken of; 17 for the Kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. 18 For he that in these things serves Christ, is well-pleasing to God, and approved by men. 19 So, then, let us follow after the things productive of peace, and the things that tend to mutual edification. 20 Do not, for the sake of food, overthrow the work of God. All things, indeed, are clean; but it is evil to him who eats with offense. 21 It is good, neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby your brother stumbles. 22 The faith which you have, have to yourself before God. Happy is he that judges not himself in that which he approves. 23 And he who doubts is condemned, if he eat, because he eats not of faith; and all that is not of faith is sin.

2 Or, In this.

5 One esteems one day above another; because the ceremonial law made such distinctions; but the Gospel knows no such distinction, except as to the first day of the sabbaths. Another (the gentle believer) esteems every day alike, makes no such distinction. Hence, they should bear with one another. Fully convinced in his own mind; let every one get the best light he can on the subject, and then, in the spirit of true toleration, let upon his convictions.

6 These different views about food and days should not disturb the fellowship of those who are sincerely trying to serve the Lord.

7 No one lives to himself; every true Christian lives for Christ, and not for himself.

8 We are the Lord's: whether we live or die, we belong to God, and we should seek to glorify Him in all things.

9 For to this end; namely, that He might be Lord of both living and dead.

10 Stand before the judgment seat of God: as God is to be our final Judge, we should get ready to meet our own judgment, and not waste time in judging one another.

11 Has been written; Isa. 45:21-25.

14 Nothing is unclean of itself; the distinctions between different kinds of food and different days, in which no real distinction existed, were to be disregarded after they were fulfilled by the sacrifice of Christ. It is supposable, however, that the prohibition of certain animal food under the ceremonial law, and settled and established in Christ, Bear the infirmities of the weak; the strong should be patient, kind, and helpful in every way to the weak.
please his neighbor in that which is good for his edification; 3 for even Christ pleased not Himself; but, as it has been written, “The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on Me.” 4 For whatsoever things were written in former times were written for our instruction, that we through patience and through consolation of the Scriptures may have hope. 5 Now the God of patience and of consolation grant you to be of the same mind one with another, according to Christ Jesus; 6 that with one accord ye may, with one mouth, glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. 7 Wherefore, receive one another, as Christ also received you, to the glory of God. 8 For I say that Christ hath become a minister of the circumcision, in behalf of God’s truth, that He might confirm the promises made to the fathers; 9 and that the Gentiles might glorify God for His mercy; as it has been written, “For this cause, I will confess to Thee among the Gentiles; and to Thy name will I sing praise.” 10 And again He saith, “Rejoice, ye Gentiles with His people.” 11 And again, “Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles, and let all the people extol Him.” 12 And again Isaiah says, “There shall be the Root of Jesse, and He Who riseth up to rule over the Gentiles, on Him will the Gentiles hope.”

2 Please his neighbor; by seeking, in the spirit of kindness, to promote his good.

3 Had Christ pleased Himself, He would never have consented to lay aside His glory which He had with His Father from the first, and take on a human body. The reproaches . . . fell on Me; Ps. 69:2. Christ took upon Him all our condition, including our sins, sufferings, reproaches, etc.

4 These Scriptures contain just such teachings as serve to make the true believer patient and full of consolation.

5 With one accord and one mouth; in perfect unity of feeling and expression. Glorify God; by manifesting the fruit of righteousness in their lives.

6 Receive one another; to loving fellowship in Christ.

7 A minister of the circumcision; Christ was a Jew, and came as the Messiah of the Jews; dying to make good the promises to them first.

8 That the Gentiles might glorify God; because of His giving them the same Gospel, as that which was preached first to the Jews. As . . . written; Ps. 18:49.

9 Again He saith; Deut. 32:13. The fact that Moses, one of God’s prophets, commands the Gentiles to rejoice with God’s people, proves that they were included in the plan of redemption.

10 And again; Ps. 117:1. This proves the same as above.

11 Root of Jesse; Christ (Isa. 11:10).

12 The God of hope; The Author of the Gospel, which gives hope in Christ.

13 Full of goodness; full of love, kindness, patience, and sympathy. Full of all knowledge; knowledge of the Scriptures, and of Christ—the Essence of the Scriptures; and hence able to admonish one another.

14 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit.

15 But I wrote to you the more boldly in part, as reminding you again, because of the grace which was given to me from God, 16 that I should be a minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the Gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles may become acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17 I have, therefore, my glorying in Christ Jesus as to the things pertaining to God. 18 For I will venture to speak only of the things which God wrought through me for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, 19 in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Holy Spirit; so that from Jerusalem and around as far as Illyricum, I have fully dispensed1 the Gospel of Christ; 20 and, making it my aim so to proclaim the Gospel—not where Christ was already named—that I might not build upon another’s foundation; 21 but, as it has been written, “Those shall see, to whom nothing was announced concerning Him; and those who have not heard shall understand.”

22 Wherefore, also, I was being hindered many times from coming to you; 23 but now, having no longer any place in these regions; and, having a desire for many years to come to you, 24 whenever I go to Spain (for I am hoping, in passing through, to see you, and to be sent on my way thither by you, if first I have been satisfied, in a measure, with your company); 25 but now I am going to Jerusalem, ministering to the saints. 26 For Macedonia and Achaia were well pleased to make a certain contribution to the poor of the saints who are in Jerusalem. 27 Indeed, they were well pleased.

29 In the fullness of the blessing of Christ; in the power of the Holy Spirit. Who enthrones Christ in the heart by His mighty power. (John 14:17–20; Eph. 3:16, 17).

30 And I beseech you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God for me; 31 that I may be delivered from the unbelieving in Judea, and that my ministry to Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints; 32 that, coming to you in joy through the will of God, I may with you be refreshed. 33 And the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant1 of the assembly which is in Cenchrea; 2 that ye receive her in the Lord, worthily of the saints, and assist her in whatever matter she may have need of you; for she herself became a helper of many, and of myself. 3 Salute Prisca and Aquila, my fellow-workers in Christ Jesus; 4 who, for my soul, laid down their own necks; to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the gentiles; 5 and salute the assembly that is in her house. Salute Epenetus my beloved, who is the first-fruit of Asia unto Christ. 6 Salute Mary, who bestowed much labor on you. 7 Salute Andronicus and Junias, my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who, indeed, are of note among the apostles, who have been in Christ longer than I. 8 Salute Ampliatus, my beloved in the Lord. 9 Salute Urbanus, our fellow-worker in Christ, and Stachys my beloved. 10 Salute Apelles, the approved in Christ. Salute those who are of the household of Aristobulus. 11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Salute

1 Or, deaconess. 2 Or, life.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XVI.

The apostle, in the first sixteen verses of this chapter, shows his knowledge of many of the members of the assembly in Rome, and his deep interest in them.

1 I commend to you Phoebe; a member and a servant—deaconess, it appears from the word used. She was a member of the assembly at Cenchrea, and was well acquainted with Paul. Cenchrea was only about eight miles from Corinth.

2 Receive her; give her a cordial welcome, and assist her in whatever she may need your help.

3 Prisca and Aquila, my fellow-workers; Acts 18:2, 3. 18, 26.

4 Who laid down their own necks; exposed themselves to great peril to save him. Noble tribute!

5 The assembly in their house; a true Gospel assembly may hold its meetings in a private house; thus showing the great simplicity of primitive Christianity.

7 My kinsmen; blood relations. Fellow-prisoners; imprisoned because of their faith in Christ.
those of the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord. 12 Salute Triphaena and Triphosa, who labor in the Lord. Salute Persis the beloved, who labored much in the Lord. 13 Salute Rufus, the elect in the Lord, and his mother and mine. 14 Salute Asynclitus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brethren who are with them. 15 Salute Philologus and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them. 16 Salute one another with a holy kiss. All the assemblies of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, to mark those who are causing the divisions and occasions of stumbling, contrary to the teaching which ye learned; and turn away from them. 18 For those who are such are not serving our Lord Christ, but their own belly; and, through their kind words and flattering speeches, they beguile the hearts of the simple. 19 For your obedience reached unto all. I rejoice, therefore, over you; but I wish you to be wise as to that which is good, but simple as to evil. 20 And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet speedily. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

21 Timothy my fellow-worker salutes you; and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you. 22 I, Tertius, who write the epistle, salute you in the Lord. 23 Gaius my host, and of the whole assembly, salutes you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, salutes you, and Quartus the brother. 24 Now to Him Who is able to establish you, according to my Gospel and the proclamation of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery kept in silence during eternal ages, 26 but now made manifest, and through the prophetic Scriptures, according to the commandment of the eternal God, made known to all nations for obedience to the faith: 27 to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, be the glory forever. Amen.

*Some MSS. insert v. 21: "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen." and omit the same words from v. 20.

13 His mother; literally; and mine: figuratively. She had, probably, been as kind to the apostle as his own mother could have been.
16 With a holy kiss; a token of love and Christian fellowship.
17 Mark; take note of. Causing the divisions, and occasions of stumbling; party factions with wrangling and strife. Turn away from them; avoid, have no fellowship with them.
19 Your obedience reached unto all; the report of their obedience was very generally known.
20 Bruise Satan under your feet; give you complete victory over him in all things.
22 Tertius; Paul's amanuensis on this occasion.
25 Able to establish you; make you stand firm in the truth, and give you victory over Satan.
26 For obedience to the faith; that all might believe and be saved.
I. CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, a called apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes the brother, to the assembly of God which is at Corinth, sanctified in Christ Jesus, and called saints, with all, in every place, who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ—their Lord and ours; 2 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus; 5 that in everything ye were enriched in Him, in all speech and all knowledge; 6 even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you; 7 so that ye fall short in no gift, waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ; 8 Who will also confirm you unto the end, unaccusable in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, through Whom ye were called into the fellowship of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfected in the same mind, and in the same judgment. 11 For it was signified to me concerning you, my brethren, by those of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now I mean this: that each one of you is saying, "I am of Paul;" and "I of Apollos;" and "I of Cephas;" and "I of Christ!" 13 Hath Christ

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 A called apostle; called by Christ. Most translators insert "to be," called to be an apostle; but Christ called Paul to the office of an apostle, and he was an apostle in virtue of that call with its accompaniments. Sosthenes: Acts 18:17.

2 Sanctified in Christ; denoting their judicial standing before the law. The word sanctified in this connection has no direct reference to the state, or character of these believers, but to their standing in Christ. (see also ch. 6:11; Heb. 10:10). All true believers are sanctified in this sense. For the use of the word that relates to spiritual character, or Christlikeness, see Heb. 12:10, 11; II Cor. 7:1; I Thess. 3:13; 5:28; Eph. 1:4; 4:24; I Pet. 1:16; etc.). One does not begin to live successfully along the line of these Scriptures, until He has, through the inflaming Spirit, enthroned Christ in his heart, and has put the government of his being all on His shoulder.

4-7 Paul first names their good qualities, and thanks God for them, and brings in their bad points later. He refers to the testimony of Christ being confirmed in them; that is, they had enjoyed an experience that had confirmed the apostle's testimony of Christ. And they fell short in no gift; in no gift of the Spirit.

5 Unaccusable in the day of Jesus Christ; without blame at His coming.

6 God is faithful; faithful to all His promises, as we obey and trust Him.

10 All speak the same thing; being united in faith and utterance.

11 Household of Chloe; some member or members of her family.

12 I am of Paul; they were divided into several factions, each having a different leader. All such parties are wrong. I am of Christ; people may be very orthodox, and yet manifest pride.
be divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were ye immersed into the name of Paul? I am thankful that I immersed no one of you, except Crispus and Gaius; 15 lest some one should say that ye were immersed into my name. And I immersed also the household of Stephanas; besides, I know not whether I immersed any other. 17 For Christ sent me not to immerse, but to proclaim the Gospel; not in wisdom of speech, lest the cross of Christ should be made void. 18 For the word of the cross is to those who are perishing, foolishness; but to those who are being saved, it is the power of God. 19 For it has been written, “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning will I set aside.”

20 Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this age? Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? 21 For, since in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom knew not God, God was pleased through the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe; 22 seeing that both Jews ask for signs, and Greeks seek after wisdom; 23 but we preach Christ crucified; to the Jews, a stumbling-block, and to the Gentiles foolishness; 24 but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye behold your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are chosen; 27 but God chose the foolish things of the world, that He might put to shame the wise; and God chose the weak things of the world, that He might put to shame the things that are strong; 28 and the base things of the world, and things despised, did God choose, and the things that are not, that He might bring to nought the things that are; 29 that no flesh should glory before God. 30 But of Him are ye in Christ Jesus, Who was made to us wisdom from God, also righteousness, and holiness, and redemption; 31 that, even as it has been written, “He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.”

CHAPTER II.

1 And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God; 2 for I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, the death and resurrection of One, pardon and eternal life should come to millions of others.

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

1 Not with excellency of speech; ornate diction, or rhetorical excellence. The mystery of God; as revealed in the Gospel of Christ. It was a great mystery, that, through and Him crucified. 3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling. 4 And my speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power; 5 that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 But we speak wisdom among the perfect; yet a wisdom not of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nought; 7 but we speak God’s wisdom in a mystery—the hidden wisdom—which God predestined before the ages for our glory; 8 which no one of the rulers of this age¹ has known; for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory; 9 but, as it has been written, “Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not, and that entered not into the heart of man—whatsoever things God prepared for those who love Him”.;

CHAPTER III.

1 And I, brethren, could not speak to you, as to spiritual, but as to carnal—as to babes¹ in Christ. 2 I fed you with

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

1 Spiritual: developed in spiritual matters, able to understand the Gospel. Carnal: largely under the influence of the self-life, or undeveloped in spiritual things.

2 Or, world.

3 In weakness, in fear, in much trembling; he felt his own insufficiency for so great a task: he was in peril much of the time from enemies of the Gospel.

4 Persuasive words of wisdom: such as the Greek and Roman orators used. In demonstration of the Spirit, and of power: the power of God was displayed through his preaching, and many were saved and healed; the Holy Spirit being the Agent through Whom this power was dispensed. (Acts 1:8).

5 Not be in men’s wisdom; but in Divine power.

6 We speak wisdom; Divine wisdom. Among the perfect; those of mature understanding, resulting from the Spirit’s teachings—or those taught of God. That come to nought; all worldly wisdom must perish.

7 God’s wisdom in a mystery; the Gospel is a glorious mystery, embodying the wonderful wisdom of God. For our glory; that we may share in the glory of Christ now and forever. (John 17:22).

8 Would not have crucified the Lord of glory; had the Jews understood that Christ was appointed by the Father to redeem men, they would not have crucified Him. (Acts 2:23).

9 As ... written: Isa. 64:4.

10 To us; to all who are truly taught by the Spirit. Searcheth all things; carefully examineth and thoroughly understandeth all things.

2 Or, comparing. 3 Or, soulish. 4 Or, examined.

11 The things of a man: his secret thoughts, and hidden motives, principles, and desires. The spirit of a man knows something of these hidden actions and impulses, which are hidden from others.

12 The true believer drops the spirit of the world, and accepts the Spirit of God; and through This Spirit he learns many of the deep things of God.

13 In the words which the Holy Spirit teacheth: the Holy Spirit taught the apostles, not only what to communicate, but supplied the words to be used. So now those who are fully yielded to the Lord will have His teaching and guidance, so far as these are needed in God’s service.

14 The natural man: the soulish man, that minds the things of the flesh. (Rom. 8:5). Receiveth not the things of the Spirit; does not understand or appreciate them. Cannot know them; because he is wanting the very nature (the spiritual) that is essential to knowing them. A blind man cannot see.

15 He that is spiritual; he that is born of the spirit, and taught by the Spirit. Judges all things; rightly discerns spiritual things, loves them, and judges wisely concerning them. He himself is judged by no one; the unconverted do not understand, and their judgment is worthless as against the truly spiritual. Only those who are taught by the same Spirit, and along the same lines, can understand one another.

milk, and not solid food; for not yet were ye able to bear it; nay, nor even now are ye able; 3 for ye are yet carnal; for whereas there is among you jealousy and strife, are ye not carnal, and do ye not walk as men? 4 For, when one says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos;" are ye not carnal? 5 What, then, is Apollos? and what is Paul? Ministers through whom ye believed; and as the Lord gave to each. 6 I planted, Apollos watered; but God causeth it to grow. 7 So that neither is he that plants anything, nor he that waters; but God Who causeth it to grow. 8 And he that plants and he that waters are one; but each shall receive his own reward, according to his own labor. 9 For we are God's fellow-workers; ye are God's husbandry, God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master-builder, I laid a foundation; and another builds thereon. But let each one take heed how he builds thereon; 11 for other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. 12 And, if any one builds on the foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; 13 the work of each one shall be made manifest; for the day shall declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will prove each one's work, of what sort it is. 14 If any one's work which he built thereon shall remain, he shall receive a reward. 15 If any one's work shall be burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself shall be saved; yet so as through fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are a temple of God, and that the Spirit of God is dwelling in you? 17 If any one destroys the temple of God, him will God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, and such are ye.

18 Let no one deceive himself. If any one among you thinks that he is wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God; for it has been written, "He Who taketh the wise in their craftiness." 20 And again, "The Lord knoweth the reasonings of the wise, that they are vain."

21 Therefore, let no one glory in men; for all things are yours; 22 whether

Holy Spirit; or, if we keep up the figure of a house, it is adding to its real converts, whose lives are to the praise of God. Wood, hay, stubble; combustible elements; or error, evil works, etc.; or it may refer to the addition of unconverted people to the local assembly.

13 Made manifest: have its real character revealed. The day: the day of judgment. As fire shows the difference between gold and wood, silver and hay, precious stones and stubble; so the judgment will reveal the difference between the works of men.

14 If any one's work shall remain; after the fires of the judgment have tested them. A reward: suitable to his works.

15 If one's work shall be burned up; condemned, because it was out of harmony with God's word. He shall suffer loss: will lose his labor, and have no reward. He himself; as being a "babe in Christ," having the foundation of the Christ-life laid in him. Shall be saved: shall not be cast into Hell, but saved so as by fire; as one escaping from a burning house, empty-handed—barely saved.

16 Ye are a temple of God; an assembly of true believers is spoken of as a temple of God; and each believer's body is declared to be "a temple of the Holy Spirit." (ch. 6:19).

In Eph. 2:20; 1 Peter 3:5; Heb. 12:22, 23, all the saved, referred to as a whole, are spoken of as a building, house, and habitation of God in the Spirit. If any one destroys the temple of God; if any one corrupts with false doctrine, and thus destroys a local assembly of God, he will reap dire retribution.

17 Deceive himself; by thinking too highly of himself. May become wise: get the true wisdom of God.

19 Written; Job 5:12, 13.

20 Again; Ps. 94:11.
Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come, all are yours; 23 and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's. 8:23. Though all things (in a sense) are ours, yet we actually have only so much as we really take.

become rich? Did ye reign without us? I wish, at least, that ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. 9 For, I think, God did set forth us the apostles last, as doomed to death; because we became a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men. 10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are highly esteemed; but we are without honor. 11 Even until this present hour, we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling place; 12 and we toil, laboring with our own hands; being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; 13 being defamed, we entreat; we were made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things, until now. 14 Not as shaming you, do I write these things, but as my beloved children, admonishing you. 15 For, though ye have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet ye have not many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I begat you through the Gospel. 16 I beseech you, therefore, become imitators of me. 17 For this cause, I sent to you Timothy, who is my child, beloved and faithful in the Lord, who will bring to your remembrance my ways which are in Christ, even

CHAPTER IV.

1 Let a man so consider us, as servants of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God. 2 Here, moreover, it is required in stewards, that one be found faithful. 3 But, with me, it is a very small thing, that I should be judged by you, or by man's day: yea, I do not even judge myself. 4 For I am conscious to myself of nothing; yet have I not thereby been justified; but He Who judges me is the Lord. 5 Wherefore, judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, Who will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then will each one have his praise from God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I have, in a figure, transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes; that in us ye may learn not to go beyond the things which have been written; that no one be puffed up for the one against the other. 7 For who makes you to differ? And what do you have, that you did not receive? But, if you did receive it, why are you boasting, as if you did not receive it? 8 Have ye already become satisfied? Did ye already

NOTES ON CHAPTER IV.

1 Ministers of Christ; not of men; no partisan. Stewards of the mysteries of God: a steward is a manager of another's business. Ministers, under God, are dispensers of the mysteries of His grace, as revealed in Christ.

2 Faithful: in dealing out the provisions of the Gospel to believers: giving to each his portion of food in due season. (Luke 12:42); keeping back nothing that is profitable. (Acts 20:20).

3 Judged by you: as to my faithfulness as God's steward. Or by a human: a day of human judgment, or human judgment.

4 Conscious to myself of nothing: nothing against me. Thereby been justified: not our judgment, but God's, will settle our real standing.

5 Christ, at His coming, will pass final judgment upon all our works, bringing out all the secrets of our hearts. If we stand His judgment, we will receive praise from Him.

6 In a figure, transferred to myself and Apollos: though what he had said would apply equally to others, he did not wish to give needless offense to the ambitious teachers in their midst. Beyond what is written: beyond the written word. They should judge of the merits of men by the standard of God's word.

7 God is the Author and Giver of all good gifts; and, if any glory is to be given to any one, it is due to God.

8 It seems better to translate these as questions. Have ye already become satisfied? with your spiritual gifts and attainments—are you satisfied with your riches? Did you reign without us? if they were real kings, in the spiritual sense, he was ready to come and enjoy a co-ordinate place with them, rather than to blush for their many failures and weaknesses.

9 Last, as doomed to death; lowest among those consigned to death.

10 Fools: regarded as such by the self-styled wise. For Christ's sake: because of their ardent attachment to Him. Ye are wise: in your own conceits.

11-13 In these verses the apostle summarizes the hardships and reproaches that had fallen to his lot, and of his patient spirit in them all.

14 Not as shaming you: not to shame you, but to correct your follies, as my children.

15 I begot you: Paul was God's instrument in their regeneration, in the use of the Gospel.

16 Become imitators of me: imitate my example as a follower of Jesus. "Follow me as I follow Christ."

as I teach everywhere in every assembly. 18 Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you; 19 but I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will; and I will know, not the word of those who

CHAPTER V.

1 Actually there is reported among you fornication, and such fornication as exists not even among the gentiles, that one of you should have his father's wife! 2 And ye have become puffed up, and did not rather mourn, that he who did this deed might be taken away from you. 3 For I, verily, being absent in the body, but present in the Spirit, have already, as if present, judged him who so wrought this; 4 in the name of our Lord Jesus, ye being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus, to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. 6 Your boasting is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? 7 Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our passover was sacrificed, even Christ; 8 therefore, let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote to you, in my letter, not to keep company with fornicators; 10 not at all meaning, with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or idolaters; since ye ought, in that event, to go out of the world; 11 but, as it is, I wrote not to keep company, if anyone, called a brother, be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolator, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner—with such a one, not even to eat. 12 For what have I to do with judging those who are without? Do not ye judge those who are within? 13 But those who are without God judgeth. Put away the wicked man from among yourselves.

filed. As the Jews, before eating the passover, were to put all leaven out of their houses, (Ex. 12:15; 13:6-7); so an assembly of Christ should put away all known and public scandals from their body.
8 Keep the feast; the spiritual feast set before them in Jesus Christ. To enjoy the feast fully, all the leaven should be put away from each individual heart, as well as any notorious sinner from the assembly.
9 In an epistle; one that, most likely, was lost.
10 In giving instruction not to associate with adulterous members, the apostle did not mean that the members should have no sort of association with adulterers that were not members; for, in that event, they could scarcely be able to attend to any business at all.
11 This verse teaches that we are not to recognize, as real Christians, adulterers, covetous persons, idolaters, revilers, drunkards, or extortioners—any such, this verse would exclude from the Lord's Supper.
12 A true assembly should look after the moral standing of their members, and withdraw from the unworthy.

righteous, and not before the saints? 2 Or know ye not that the saints will judge the world? And, if the world is judged by you, are ye unworthy of the smallest tribunals? 1 Or, know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more, then, things pertaining to this life? 4 If, then, ye have tribunals pertaining to this life, do ye set those to judge who are set at nought in the assembly? 5 I speak to your shame! Is it so, that there is not among you even one wise man, who will be able to judge between his brethren? 6 But brother goes to law with brother, and that before unbelievers! 7 Already, therefore, it is wholly a loss to you, that ye have law-suits one with another! Why not rather suffer wrong? Why not rather be defrauded? 8 But ye yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren! 9 Or know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the Kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with men, 10 nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the Kingdom of God. 11 And such were some of you; but ye were washed, but ye were sanctified, but ye were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful for me; but all are not profitable. All things are lawful for me; but I will not be brought under the control of any. 13 Foods are for the stomach, and the stomach for foods; but God will bring to nought both this and these. But the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body; 14 and God both raised the Lord, and will raise up us through His power. 15 Know ye not that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I, then, taking away the members of Christ, make them members of a harlot? It could not be! 16 Or know ye not that he who is united to the harlot is one body? For, the two”. He saith, “shall be one flesh”, 17 but he who is united to the Lord is one spirit. 18 Flee fornication. Every sin which a man commits is without the body; but he that commits adultery sins against his own body. 19 Or know ye not that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, Who is in you, Whom ye have from God, and that ye are not your own? 20 For ye were bought with a price; glorify God, therefore, in your body.

1 Or, to judge the smallest matters. 2 Or, Sodomites. 3 Gr, These things.

3 Shall judge angels; the full overcomers, it appears, will with Jesus have dominion over the heavenly hosts. 4 Tribunals; courts of justice, where law-suits are decided. Would you place one to judge in whom the members have no confidence? This seems to imply a negative answer. Then do ye have more confidence in a heathen judge than you do in the lowest order of Christians? Yet, do you call heathen judges to decide your suits! What a shame!

7, 8. Wholly a loss; you really lose your case. In the judgment of the Highest Tribunal, in the very fact that you go to law among yourselves. You had better suffer wrong, or be defrauded, than to attempt to get justice at the expense of brotherly love and fellowship, or than to expose the assembly of God to such indignity!

10 Persons who are habitually guilty of any of the things mentioned in this verse ought not to suppose that they will have any inheritance or even a place in Heaven.

11 Such were some of you; some of the Corinthians before their conversion. Ye were washed; received a holy standing in Christ. (see ch. 1:2).

12 All things are lawful; all things which are not forbidden. All things are not profitable; some do not edify; and these should be dropped. Will not be brought under the control of any; would not yield to any outward temptation, but resist it firmly.

13 God will bring to nought; both the stomach and food are temporary expedients. Body for the Lord; He made it and redeemed it, and it should be used for His glory. The Lord is for the body; for its cleansing, healing, life, health, and final redemption. (see John 15:2; Ps. 103:3-5; Rom. 8:11; III John 2; ch. 15).

15 Our bodies are members of Christ; our bodies, as parts of ourselves, have been redeemed; and He has made each one of His true followers a member of His own body, (Rom. 12:5).

16 This verse teaches that the man who is united to a harlot identifies himself with corruption and sin.

17 United to the Lord is one spirit; one spirit with Christ. (see Ezek. 36:26; John 3:5,6).

18 Flee; do not stop to think of the awful sin, but flee at once. Every sin . . . is without the body; every sin originates in the sin-principle, and not in the body; but the body is often made the instrument of sin. (Rom. 6:13, 19). Sins against his body; by prostituting it to base ends, as in vs. 15, 16.

19 Your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit; the body of every truly converted person belongs to the Holy Spirit to use as His temple. What a crime it must be to pollute the body, and rob Him of His rightful abode! What unspeakable wrong is such a course upon the believer himself!

20 Bought with a price; I Pet. 1:18, 19. Glorify God in your body; by yielding it to the Spirit as His temple, and thus bid Him work in you all the good pleasure of His will. (see Eph. 3:16-19; II Cor. 8:15; Gal. 5:22, 23). Note—The price paid for the ransom of man was the highest ever paid for anything. It involved the incarnation of the Second Person in the God-head, His temporary loss of the glories of Heaven, His assumption of the sins of the world, and His crucifixion as a public felon! What a price!
CHAPTER VII.

1 Now concerning the things of which ye wrote: It is good for a man not to touch a woman; 2 but, because of fornications, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. 3 Let the husband render to the wife her dues; and, in like manner, the wife to the husband. 4 The wife has no authority over her own body, but the husband; and, in like manner also, the husband has not authority over his own body, but the wife. 5 Defraud not one the other, except by consent for a season, that ye may have leisure for prayer, and may be together again, that Satan tempt you not because of your incontinency. 6 But this I say by way of permission, not of command. 7 And I wish all men to be even as myself. Each one, however, has his own gift from God; one, indeed, after this manner, and another, after that.

8 Now I say to the unmarried and to the widows, it is good for them, if they remain even as I am. 9 But, if they have not continency, let them marry; for it is better to marry than to burn. 10 And to the married I give command—not I, but the Lord—that the wife depart not from her husband; 11 but if she even depart, let her remain unmarried, or let her be reconciled to her husband; and that the husband leave not his wife. 12 But to the rest say I, not the Lord: If any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is pleased to dwell with him, let him not leave her. 13 And, if any wife has an unbelieving husband, and he is pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave her husband. 14 For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified in the brother; else your children are unclean; but as it is they are holy. 15 But, if the unbelieving departs, let him depart. The brother or the sister has not come into bondage in such cases; but God hath called us in peace. 16 For what do you know, O wife, whether you will save your husband? Or what do you know, O husband, whether you will save your wife? 17 Only, as the Lord hath distributed to each one, as God hath called each one, so let him walk. And so I ordain in all the assemblies. 18 Was any one called, having been circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Has any one been called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised. Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but the keeping of the commandments of God. 20 Let each one abide in that calling in which he was called. 21 Were you called, being a slave? care not for it; but, even if you can become free, use it rather. 22 For he that was called in the Lord, being a slave, is the Lord’s freedman: likewise, he that was called, be-

NOTES ON CHAPTER VII

1 Good for a man; under the peculiar trials of that time. Not to touch a woman; not to marry.
2 On account of fornication; to avoid it.
3 Her due; the consideration due her in the conjugal relation. (Eph. 5:25, 32, 33.) The wife; the wife should give the husband his dues also.
4 Has not authority; to live apart without mutual consent.
5 Defraud not; by separation. Except by consent; mutual agreement. Every safeguard against impurity should be observed.
6 Even as myself; contentedly unmarried. His own gifts; relating here to control over one’s animal passions.
7 Good for them; to remain unmarried as Paul was.
8 To burn; to be inflamed with ungratified passion.
9 But the Lord; Matt. 5:32; 19:3-10.
10 If she depart; she has no Scripture authority to marry again, until her husband is dead. (Matt. 5:32; 19:9; Luke 16:18; Rom. 7:3.)
11 Unbelief on the part of either husband or wife is not, in itself, a ground for severing the conjugal relation; but, if the unbelieving one will not remain in that relation because the other is a Christian, there is no remedy but to let the discontented go; but neither is at liberty, under the Gospel, to marry again, until the other is dead.

14 The unbelieving husband or wife is sanctified, in a ceremonial sense, in conjugal relationship with the other, who is a believer. The fact that one parent has become a Christian does not alter the relation of their children to the law under which they were born. If they were legitimate before, they continue such.
16 The pious Christian wife may win her husband to Christ; and, vice versa.
17 As God has distributed to each one; assigned him his lot and place in life. So let him walk; let him, as a rule, continue in the business he was engaged in before he became a Christian. Of course, if the business itself was wrong, he would be required to quit it. God, too, has a right to change the work of His people, as He may see fit.
18, 19 Paul here clearly teaches that the right of circumcision has no spiritual significance—in fact, effete, worthless.
21 If one is a slave, the mere fact of his conversion does not annul his relation to his master. If you can become free; by proper means. Use it rather; be free, and enjoy your liberty. So the apostle taught; but yet the apostle should not be understood to sanction the underlying principles of slavery.
22 The Lord’s freedman; the political slave, if a Christian, is the Lord’s freedman. (Gal. 3:10.) And the freedman, who becomes a Christian, becomes the slave [ear bored] of Christ.
ing free, is Christ's slave. 23 Ye were bought with a price; become not slaves of men. 24 Brethren, let each one abide with God in the same condition in which he was called.

25 Now, concerning the virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord; but I give my judgment, as having received mercy from the Lord to be faithful. 26 I think, therefore, that this is good on account of the impending distress; namely, that it is good for a man to be thus. 27 Have you become bound to a wife? Seek not a release. 28 Have you been loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. 29 But, even if you marry, you did not sin; and, if a virgin marry, she did not sin. Yet such will have tribulation in the flesh; and I am sparing you. 30 But this I say, brethren, the time has been shortened; that henceforth both those who have wives may be as though they had none; 31 and those who weep, as though they wept not; and those who rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those who buy, as though they possessed not; 32 and those who use the world, as not using it to the full; for the fashion of this world is passing away.

33 But I wish you to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord; 34 but he that is married is anxious for the things of the world, how he may please his wife. 34 and has become divided. And the unmarried woman and the virgin is anxious for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and spirit; but she that is married is anxious for the things of the world, that she may please her husband.

35 And this I say for your own profit; not that I may cast restraint upon you, but for that which is seemly, and compatible with constant devotion to the Lord without distraction. 36 But, if any one thinks that he behaves himself unseemly toward his virgin daughter, if she be beyond the prime of life, and thus it ought to be brought about, let him do what he wishes, he sins not; let them marry. 37 But he who has been standing steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has authority respecting his own will, and has determined this in his own heart, that he will keep his own virgin daughter, will do well. 38 So that both he that gives his own virgin daughter in marriage does well; and he that gives her not in marriage will do better.

39 A wife is bound as long as her husband lives; but, if her husband fall asleep, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. 40 But she is happier, if she abides as she is, according to my judgment; and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

1 Or, as he is. 2 Or, divorce.

33 Bought with a price; redeemed from sin and eternal death by the precious blood of Christ. (I Peter 1:18, 19). Be not slaves of men; do everything as unto the Lord, Who is your real Master. (Eph. 6:5-9).

35 I have no command of the Lord; respecting virgins. Yet I give my judgment; in the absence of specific directions from the Lord.

36 On account of the impending distress; the perilous condition of things under the cruel Roman government. To be thus; to remain single, as he was.

38 I am sparing you; the apostle's advice. If followed, would be likely, under the condition of things then existing, to make their troubles less, than if they should marry.

39 Be as though they had not; become so absorbed in the service of Christ, and live so high above the world, that these temporary things, which will soon pass away, will scarcely attract their attention at all; and so of all the similar injunctions following this.

31 Not using it to the full; not using it wastefully, or excessively.

32 The unmarried, if they will, can give all their time to the Lord, and have more leisure for service, than the married.

33 He has become divided; the married man, or woman, is divided between the Lord and the other party to the conjugal relation.

35 Not that I may cast restraint upon you; Paul did not wish to bind them by his suggestions, but to enable them to have as little anxiety, and as much time to serve the Lord, as possible.

36 Acts unbecomingly; in withholding one's own daughter, or female under his care, from marriage. If she is resolved to marry, and is of proper age, he should withdraw his objections.

37 Having no necessity; if circumstances do not call for her marriage, the father does well to let her remain unmarried.

38 He that gives in marriage; when the conditions require it. Does well. Gives not in marriage; when circumstances do not require it. Will do better; better for all concerned, or for his daughter, especially.

39 Only in the Lord; only within the limits of true Christianity. The Scriptures oppose the marriage of believers to unbelievers; and there is much unhappiness, because the Scripture teaching on this subject is not needed. If Christians would trust the Lord to direct them in the matter of marriage, there would be many happy families, where now there is much strife.
CHAPTER VIII.

1. Now, concerning the things sacrificed to idols, we know because we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. 2 If anyone thinks that he has known anything, not yet did he know it as he ought to know it; 3 but, if anyone loves God, the same has been known by Him: 4 concerning, therefore, the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no God but One. 5 For, even if there are things called gods, whether in heaven, or on earth (as there are gods many, and lords many); 6 yet to us there is One God, the Father, of Whom are all things, and we for' Him; and One Lord Jesus Christ, through Whom are all things, and we through Him. 7 But this knowledge is not in all; but some, by familiarity with the idol even until now, eat it as an idol-sacrifice; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8 But food will not commend us to God; neither, if we eat not, are we lacking; nor, if we eat, do we abound. 9 But take heed, lest this liberty of yours become a stumbling-block to the weak. 10 For, if anyone sees you, who have knowledge, reclining at table in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat the idol-sacrifices? 11 For he that is weak—the brother for whom Christ died—perishes by reason of your knowledge. 12 And thus, sinning against the brethren, and smiting their conscience which is weak, ye sin against Christ. 13 Wherefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will in no wise eat flesh for evermore; that I cause not my brother to stumble.

CHAPTER IX.

1. Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Am I not my work in the Lord? 2 If to others I am not an apostle, yet to you at least am I; for the seal of my apostleship are ye in the Lord. 3 My defense to those examining me is this. 4 Have we no right to eat, and to drink? 5 Have we no right to lead about a sister1 as our wife, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? 6 Or have only I and Barnabas no right to give up working? 7 Who ever serves as a soldier at his own charges? Who plants a vineyard, and eats not of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and eats not of the milk of the flock? 8 Do I speak these things after the manner of man? Or does not the law also say the same? 9 For in the law of

1. Meaning a believer.

2. Or, brethren. 3. Gr. Not to work.

5. He claimed as much right as the other apostles to have a wife and family, and have them supported by the assembly.

6. Have only I and Barnabas; the right not to work—are we exceptions to a law otherwise universal in its operations?

8. The law; Deut. 25:4.
Moses it has been written, "You shall not muzzle an ox while treading out the grain." Doth God care for the oxen? 10 Or doth He say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, for our sake it was written; because he that plows ought to plow in hope; and he that threshes ought to thresh in hope of partaking. 11 If we sowed for you spiritual things, is it a great matter, if we shall reap your carnal things? 12 If others partake of this authority over you, do not we still more? But we used not this right; but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the Gospel of Christ.

13 Know ye not that those who are occupied upon sacred things eat of the things of the temple? and that those who wait at the altar partake with the altar? 14 Even so did the Lord ordain, that those who proclaim the Gospel should live by the Gospel. 15 But I have used none of these things; and I wrote not these things, that it may be so done in my case; for it were good for me rather to die, than that any one should make my blessing void. 16 For, if I proclaim the Gospel, it is not to me a matter of boasting; for necessity is laid upon me; for woe is to me, if I proclaim not the Gospel. 17 For, if I do this willingly, I have a reward; but, if unwillingly, I have been entrusted with a stewardship. 18 What, then, is my reward? That, when proclaiming the Gospel, I may make the Gospel without charge, to the end that I may not fully use my right in the Gospel. 19 For, being free from all men, I made myself servant to all, that I might gain the more. 20 And, to the Jews, I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those under law, as under law (not being myself under law), that I might gain those under law; 21 to those without law, as without law (not being without law to God, but under law to Christ), that I might gain those without law. 22 To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I may, by all means, save some. 23 And I am doing all things for the Gospel's sake, that I may become a partaker thereof with others.

24 Know ye not that those running a race, all, indeed, run; but one receiveth the prize? So run; that ye may obtain. 25 And every one who strives in the games exercises self-restraint in all things; they, indeed, therefore, to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. 26 I, therefore, so run, as not uncertainly; I so fight, as not beating the air. 27 But I...

vented himself from being crippled in his usefulness by giving loose rein to his body. Rejected; set aside as useless. There are many preachers—so called—who are thus

CHAPTER X.

1 For I do not wish you to be ignorant, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; 2 and were all immersed unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; 3 and all ate the same spiritual food; 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink; for they were drinking of the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was the Christ. 5 But in the most of them God took no pleasure; for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things became types for us, that we might not covet evil things, as they also coveted. 7 Neither become ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it has been written, “The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.” 8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. 9 Nor let us tempt the Lord, as some of them tempted Him, and were perished by the serpents. 10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them murmured, and perished by the destroyer. 11 Now these things were happening to them by

1 Our fathers; the Jewish men who went out of Egypt and through the Red sea, (Ex. 14).

2 Were all immersed; they walked down into the sea, where, on either side, were the walls of water, and then the overrunning cloud, with the watery banks, concealed them from the view of the Egyptians. Unto Moses; as their leader.

3 Spiritual food; manna; typical of Christ the living Bread, (John 6:32-35, 48-51).

4 Spiritual drink; the water that flowed from the rock, (Ex. 17:6; Numb. 20:11)—which rock was a type of Christ.

5 In most of them God took no pleasure; their unbelief and rebellion caused them (except two) to lose their lives in the wilderness.

6 Became types for us; to warn of the dangers, connected with unbelief.

way of example; and they were written for our admonition, unto whom the ends of the ages have come. 12 Wherefore, let him who thinks he is standing take heed, lest he fall. 13 A temptation has not taken you, except such as is common to man; but God is faithful, Who will not suffer you to be tempted above what ye are able, but will with the temptation make also the way of escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. 15 I am speaking as to wise men; judge ye what I say. 16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a partaking of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a partaking of the body of Christ? 17 Because we, the many, are one bread, one body; for we all partake of the one bread. 18 Behold Israel according to the flesh: are not those who eat the sacrifices partakers of the altar? 19 What, then, do I say? that an idol-sacrifice is anything? or that an idol is anything? 20 Nay, but I say that the things which the gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God; and I do not wish you to become partakers with

NOTES.

3 Or. as types. 4 Or. loaf.

13 God tempers every temptation, and brings it within the limit of the endurance of the obedient child of God; never letting any temptation overpower one, who truly trusts and obeys Him. (Rom. 8:28; 5:3, 4; Jas. 1:2,3).

14 Flee from idolatry; take no part in idol-worship.

15 I speak as to wise men; men capable of judging, and acting properly.

16 The cup; containing the wine, the symbol of the Lord’s shed blood. The bread; the broken loaf, a symbol of the broken body of Christ. In using these elements, they professed, spiritually, to partake of Christ’s blood and body.

17 One bread; one loaf, as joint-partakers of Christ, the One Bread. One body; all true believers are members of one body. (Rom. 13:9); and Christ Himself is the Head, (Eph. 4:15; Col. 1:18).

18 Partakers of the altar; and hence, connected with the god who is worshiped at the altar. Hence, also, if they should feast in heathen temples, they would be regarded as worshipers of heathen idols.

19 Though the apostle did not consider the idol-sacrifice or the idol itself anything; yet he did not wish his brethren to be mixed up with idolatry in any way.

20 Sacrifice to demons; Idolatry is a system of demon-worship.
the demons. 21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; ye cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. 22 Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than He?

23 All things are lawful, but not all things are profitable; all things are lawful, but not all things build up. 24 Let no one seek his own, but each other’s good. 25 Whatsoever is sold in the market, eat, asking no question because of conscience; for the earth is the Lord’s, and the fulness thereof.

27 If one of the unbelieving invites you to a feast, and ye wish to go, whatsoever is set before you eat, asking no question because of conscience. 28 But, if anyone says to you, “This is the remains of an idol-sacrifice,” eat it not, for his sake that showed it, and because of conscience: 29 conscience, I say, not your own, but the other’s; for why is my liberty judged by another conscience? 30 If I partake with thankfulness, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks? 31 Whether, therefore, ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 32 Give no occasion of stumbling, either to Jews or Greeks, or to the assembly of God; 33 even as I also, in all things, please all men: not seeking my own profit, but that of the many, that they may be saved.

CHAPTER XI.

1. I Corinthians 3. 1. Become imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2. Now I praise you, that you remember me in all things, and hold fast the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. 3. But I wish you to know that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the wife is the husband, and the head of Christ is God.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XI.

1. We are not to understand that Paul meant to put himself between his brethren and Christ, or that anyone was a faultless model, but Christ Himself; but, as Christ was not visibly present with them, they might, in the earlier stages of their discipleship, follow the apostle, as he followed Christ.

2. Traditions; the doctrines and facts of Christianity, which he had taught them.

3. Head of the wife; the husband is the God-appointed head of the wife, but not her master.

4. Dishonors his head; by adopting the style of the women. 5. Dishonors her head; by adopting a masculine style. Or it may mean that she dishonors her husband, who is her head (v. 3), by removing from her own head a token of her subjection to her husband.

6. Let her be shaven; let her have her hair cut off. 7. God’s image and glory; Gen. 1:26. The woman is man’s glory; she was made for him as the crowning joy and glory of his life, (Gen. 2:18, 22, 29).
woman is man’s glory; 8 for man is not from woman, but woman from man; 9 for man was also not created on account of the woman, but woman on account of the man; 10 for this cause ought the woman to have a sign of authority on her head because of the angels. 11 Nevertheless, neither is woman apart from man, nor man apart from woman, in the Lord. 12 For, as the woman is of the man, so also is the man through the woman; but all things are of God. Judge ye in yourselves; is it becoming that a woman, unveiled, should pray to God? 14 Does not even nature herself teach, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonor to him? 15 But, if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given to her for a covering. 16 But, if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the assemblies of God.

17 But, in giving this charge, I praise you not; because, not for the better, but for the worse, do ye come together. 18 For, first, when ye come together in an assembly, I hear that divisions exist among you; and I partly believe it; 19 and there must also be factions among you, which the approved may be made manifest among you. 20 When, therefore, ye assemble yourselves together, it is not to eat a Supper of the Lord; 21 for, in your eating, each one takes his own supper before others; and one is hungry, and another is drunken! 22 What! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? Or despise ye the assembly of God, and put to shame those who have them not? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you? In this I praise you not. 23 For I received from the Lord that which also I delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus, in the same night in which He was being betrayed, took bread; 24 and, having given thanks, He broke it, and said, “This is My body which is for you; this do in remembrance of Me.” 25 In like manner also the cup, after supper, saying “This cup is the New Covenant in My blood; this do, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me;” 26 for, as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord’s death, till He come. 27 Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body, and blood of the Lord. 28 But let a man prove1 himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup; 29 for he that eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the body. 30 For this cause,

1 Or, examine.

10 For this cause; for the reason that she was made on account of man. A sign of authority; meaning her husband’s authority over her. Because of the angels; the angels are ministering spirits. (Heb. 1:14;) and, as being present in their ministry in the family, they would be shocked, if woman should get out of her place, and attempt to assume lordship over the man.

11 In the Lord; according to His appointment. God has made both man and woman; and they should each find and keep their Heaven-appointed place.

14 It is a dishonor to him; because he assumes a womanly habit; it being proper for the woman alone to wear long hair.

15 For a covering; a covering for her head.

16 Contentious; disputing about woman’s rights, etc.

We have no such custom; as the ones he was contending above.

17 In this; the point he was about to speak of.

18 Come together; as an assembly, to celebrate the Lord’s Supper. Not for the better, but for the worse; they were injured, rather than benefited, by the manner in which they abused the ordinance of the Supper.

19 Divisions; factions, parties. These served the purpose of making manifest the wise, and distinguishing them from the foolish.

20 It is not to eat the Lord’s Supper; such a manner of observing it was rather a burlesque than a real celebration of the ordinance.

21 Each one takes his own supper before others. It appears that they brought food for a meal, before they pretended to celebrate the Supper of the Lord; and they displayed, it appears, an inhospitable spirit in not inviting the poor members to partake of this food.

22 Paul declares that the Lord gave him the ordinance as he here states it, and as he had given it to the Corinthian assembly.

23 This is My body; this represents My body. Of course, the bread was not the real body of Christ.

26 The Supper is a memorial ordinance, to be observed till Jesus returns, to introduce the next dispensation.

27 Unworthy; in an irregular or disorderly manner. Shall be guilty; of casting contempt upon His body and blood.

28 Prove himself; examine himself in the light of the word, and eat only after he is convinced that he can partake of it in a worthy manner.

29 Judgment to himself; condemnation that merits punishment. Not discerning the Lord’s body; not discerning in the bread and wine the emblems of the Lord’s body and blood.

30 For this cause; because they do not discern the Lord’s body, etc. Many are weak and sick; a failure to appreciate the full meaning of the ordinance, and to appropriate its meaning as symbolized in the bread and wine, left many of the Corinthian brethren out of vital touch with God for their bodies; hence their weakness and sickness. And not a few sleep; sleep the sleep of death. This seems to be the meaning of this Scripture; and there are few who really understand this phase of the teaching of the ordinance. (see Rom. 8:11; Ps. 10:3-5; Isa. 40:31; 58:11; 111 John 2).
many among you are weak and sick, and not a few sleep. 31 But, if we discerned ourselves, we would not be judged; 32 but, being judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we may not be condemned.

2 Or. rightly understood.

31 Discerned; properly understood ourselves and the ordinance. Not be judged; condemned, chastened.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Now concerning the spiritual gifts, brethren, I do not wish you to be ignorant. 2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away to the dumb idols, as ye were led. 3 Wherefore, I make known to you that no one speaking in the Spirit of God, says, “Jesus is accursed”; and no one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except in the Holy Spirit. 4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 And there are diversities of ministries, and the same Lord. 6 And there are diversities of workings, but the same God, Who worketh all things in all. 7 And to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for profiting. 8 For to one, indeed, is given through the Spirit a word of wisdom; and to another, a word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit: 9 to another, faith, in the same Spirit; and to another, gifts of healings, in the one Spirit; 10 and to another, workings of mighty deeds; 11 and to another, prophecy; and to another, discerning of spirits; to another, various kinds of tongues; and to another, interpretation of tongues. 11 But all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, distributing to each one, severally, even as He willeth.

12 For, as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is the Christ; 13 for, indeed, in one Spirit were we all immersed into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to drink of one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body”; it is not, therefore, not of the body. 16 And, if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body”; it is not, therefore, not of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole body were hearing, where were the smelling? 18 But, as it is, God did set the members, each one with the world. 33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for another. 34 If any one is hungry, let him eat at home, that ye come not together unto judgment. And the rest I will set in order, when I come.

33 Wait one for another; all should be prepared to partake at the same time.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XII.

2 Carried away to the dumb idols; by Satan to worship dumb idols. They now need instruction in spiritual things.

3 Speaking in the Spirit; as a true prophet or teacher of God. Jesus is accused; as an impostor, or as one despised by God. Can say Jesus is the Lord; in the true sense. Without the Spirit, no one can understand Christ or His mission to earth, (Matt. 11:25-37; 16:16, 17).

4 Diversities of gifts; the Holy Spirit is the bestower of all spiritual gifts (ch. 8-11), and graces (Gal. 5:22, 23).

5 Diversities of ministry; of apostles, prophets, teachers, etc.

6 Diversities of workings; leading to different results; as, salvation in one, healing in another, etc.

7 For profit; not for curiosity, but for the good of God's people.

8-10 A word of wisdom: a word fitly spoken. (Prov. 25:11); just the word needed to help some needy soul; wisely apportioning to each the needed instruction. (Matt. 4:44). Word of knowledge: experimental knowledge, testimony. Faith: "the faith of the Son of God." (Gal. 2:20). Gifts of healings; power, under God, to heal diseases. Workings of mighty deeds; miracles apart from healing. Prophecy; inspired utterances from God bearing on salvation, as also the knowledge of future events. Discerning of spirits; the ability to determine the spirit by which one is governed, whether good or bad. (I John 4:1). Various kinds of tongues; the power to speak different languages, without having studied them. Interpretation of tongues; power to discern and interpret the meaning of what is spoken in an unknown tongue.

11 Distributing to each one; the Spirit bestows gifts as He seeth fit.

N. B.—If the assemblies were made up of Spirit-filled members, no doubt, many, or all the above gifts. If needed, would still be bestowed, for the edification of the members, for the advancement of the cause of Christ in the world, and for the glory of God.

12 So also is Christ; Christ and His members constitute one body; Christ being the Head, (Eph. 4:15; Col. 1:18).

13 In one Spirit; the Holy Spirit. We were all immersed into one body; being, individually, buried with Christ by immersion into death (ch. 6:4; Col. 2:12)—which is but the outward symbol of the Spirit's work in bringing us into real union with Christ, making us members of His body, and adjusting each in his proper place.

14-24 The most feeble are necessary; the eye, the tenderest of all, is necessary to the well-being of the body. Every part of the body is, in fact, indispensable, else it would not have been given.
I. CORINTHIANS

of them in the body, even as He willed. 19 And, if they were all one member, where were the body? 20 But now they are many members, but one body. 21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." 22 But much more the members of the body which seem to be more feeble, are necessary; 23 and those members which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness; 24 but our comely parts have no need. But God tempered the body, giving the more abundant honor to that which lacked; 25 that there might be no schism in the body.

25 No schism; no division among themselves.
26 All the members suffer with it; when, for example, the foot is injured, the whole body suffers with it; and every member renders all the aid possible, that this wounded member may become well, and able to perform its part in the body. So it should be with Christians.

28-30 Apostles: men whom Christ appointed to testify of His resurrection, reveal His will, unfold His Gospel, and complete the canon of New Testament Scriptures. In this last sense, the apostolic office closed with the death of the apostle John: but God, in all ages since, has called His own servants, and sent them forth to propagate His Gospel. Prophets: this office, as the name indicates, had to do with the foretelling of future events through inspiration of the Spirit; and it also had a secondary application, to teach expound the word, etc. (see ch. 14-23. Teachers; those gifted with "aptness to teach," being qualified for this work by the Holy Spirit, having the gifts of wisdom and knowledge (v. 8). Governments; or governers; those gifted in the discipline and proper training of the members; and the helps, also, were aids to the pastors.

31 Desire earnestly the larger gifts; it is proper for the fully surrendered believer to desire, and seek for, the best of the Spirit's gifts, for the glory of God alone. A still more excellent way: thus the apostle gives in the next chapter; love, when developed as an all-controlling principle, being superior to any or all of the Spirit's gifts, being, in fact, the reproduction of the perfect love of Christ, that love, that love expressed in the life of Christ in the believer, (see II Cor. 5:18; Eph. 4:15; Phil. 3:10. Such a person might be safely entrusted with all the nine gifts above noted.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 If I speak with tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. 2 And, if I have the gift of prophecy, and know all the mysteries and all knowledge; and, if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. 3 And, if I bestow in morsels all my goods; and, if I give my body to be burned, but have not love, I am profited nothing.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIII.

1 Tongues: the gift of tongues. If one could speak all the languages on earth and in Heaven, but had not love, his talk would be mere jargon.
2 I am nothing: without love all other gifts are valueless.
3 All my goods: should one give all his goods in morsels to supply the hungry, it would profit him nothing, though it would benefit the poor. Millions bestowed without the promptings of divine love can do the contributor no real good. If we have no love—whatever else we may have—we count for nothing in God's view.
4 Suffers long: patient under trials. Is kind: to every one, gentle, benevolent. Enrages not: is not distracted at the prosperity of others. Vaunts not herself: does not teach expound the word, etc. (see ch. 14-23. Teachers; those gifted with "aptness to teach," being qualified for this work by the Holy Spirit, having the gifts of wisdom and knowledge (v. 8). Governments; or governers; those gifted in the discipline and proper training of the members; and the helps, also, were aids to the pastors.

5 Seeks not her own: she is not only not grasping for more, but she does not hold, with a tight grip, that which is really hers. Not provoked; never irritated, or thrown off her balance. Takes no account: makes no note of evil done her.
6 Rejoices not at iniquity: she takes no part in anything wrong. Rejoices with the truth: truth and love are inseparable companions.
7 Bears all things: all trials of every kind. Believes all things: all God's words, and promises, and never doubts His providence.
8 Never fails: while the gifts of the Spirit may become unnecessary, and so pass away, love will never fail, or cease to be.

4 Love suffers long, is kind; love envies not; love vaunts not herself, is not puffed up, 5 behaves not unseemly, seeks not her own, is not provoked, takes no account of evil, 6 rejoices not at unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8 Love never fails; but whether there be prophecies, they will be done away; whether there be tongues, they will cease; whether there be knowledge, it will be done away. 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; 10 but, when the complete comes, the partial will be done away.

11 When I was a child, I was wont to talk as a child, to think as a child, to reason as a child; since I have become a man, I have done away with the things of the child;

9 Know in part; have but a partial view of things, owing to the fact that we are, for the present, shut up in a clay tenement, with very restricted powers. In the next state of being, we may hope for a great increase of knowledge.

10 When the complete comes; the full knowledge of the Heavenly state, The partial will be done away; as the lamp becomes useless when the sun is shining in noon-day splendor.

11 A child...a man: as the child falls far below the man, in knowledge, wisdom, etc.; so the most advanced

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Pursue love; and earnestly desire the spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy. 2 For he that speaks in a tongue speaks not to men, but to God; for no one understands; but in the spirit he speaks mysteries. 3 But he that prophesies speaks to men to edification and exhortation and comfort. 4 He that speaks in a tongue edifies himself; but he that prophesies edifies the assembly. 5 Now I wish you all to speak with tongues, but rather that ye should prophesy; and greater is he that prophesies than he that speaks with tongues, unless he interpret, that the assembly may receive edifying. 6 And now, brethren, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you, either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophesying, or in teaching? 7 Even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, if they give no distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? 8 For even if a trumpet give an uncertain sound, who will prepare for war? 9 So also ye, unless through the tongue ye give intelligible speech, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye will be speaking into the air! 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and no one of them is without signification. 11 If, then, I know not the meaning of the voice, I will be to him who is speaking a barbarian; and he that is speaking, a barbarian to me. 12 So also ye, since ye are eager for spiritual gifts, seek that ye may abound in them with a view to the edification of the assembly. 13 Wherefore, let him that speaks in a tongue, pray that he may interpret. 14 For, if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful. 15 What is it, then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also; I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIV.

1 The Corinthian brethren were exalting the gift of tongues above the other gifts: when the former tended rather, as they used them, to excite curiosity, than to edification. The apostle proceeds to correct this error.

2 Speaks not to men: because men did not understand what they said. But to God; God did not need to be edified. N. B.—It should be noted that Christianity comprises two essential things: to make believers, and then to edify them, or build them up in the faith of the Gospel.

3 He that prophesies: foretells events, or expounds the word.

4 Greater is he that prophesies: because he is more useful to the assembly—along the important line of edification.

5 The gift of tongues, unless some one could interpret the meaning, would be valueless.

6 The gift of tongues, unless some one could interpret the meaning, would be valueless.

7 A distinction in the sounds: so as to be understood by the hearers.

8 Uncertain sound: not understood.

9 Many kinds of voices: or languages. And they all have a meaning to those who understand them.

10 A barbarian to him: he will not understand me; a foreigner, whose language one does not understand.

11 Barbarian to him: he will not understand me; a foreigner, whose language one does not understand.

12 That ye may abound in them: in spiritual gifts, with the single limitation, that they be used to edify the assembly.

13 Pray that ye may interpret: because his strange utterances, otherwise, would be profitless.

14 Understanding is unfruitful: unprofitable, because not understood.

15 With the understanding: in the right use of it, so as to be understood.
Else, if you are blessing with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, since he knows not what you say? 17 For you, verily, give thanks well, but the other is not edified. 18 I thank God, I speak with tongues more than you all; 19 but in an assembly I prefer to speak five words with my understanding, that I may instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

20 Brethren, do not be children in mind; yet in evil be babes, but in mind be full-grown. 21 In the law it has been written, "With other tongues, and with lips of others, I will speak to this people; and not even thus will they listen to Me," saith the Lord. 22 Therefore, the tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophecy is a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe. 23 If, therefore, the whole assembly comes together, and all are speaking with tongues, and there come in those who are unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say that ye are mad? 24 But, if all prophesy, and there come in one who is unbelieving or unlearned, he is convicted by all, he is judged by all: 25 the secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so, falling on his face, he will worship God, reporting that, in reality, God is among you.

26 What is it, then, brethren? When ye come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has a tongue, has an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edification. 27 If any one speaks in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and in turn; and let one interpret; 28 but, if there is no interpreter, let him keep silence in the assembly, and let him speak to himself and to God. 29 And let the prophets, two or three, speak, and the others judge. 30 But, if a revelation be made to another sitting by, let the first keep silence; 31 for ye all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all be exhorted. 32 And spirits of prophets are subject to prophets; 33 for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace, as in all the assemblies of the saints. 34 Let the wives keep silence in the assemblies; for it is not permitted them to speak, but let them be in subjection, as also says the law. 35 And, if they wish to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is a shame for a wife to speak in an assembly. 36 Or from you did the word of God go forth? Or did it come to you alone?

37 If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge the things that I write to you, that they Spirit to another sitting by. Let the first keep silence; to give opportunity for all to hear the new revelation. 31 Ye all: every one, in due course of time, should be permitted to tell what the Spirit had taught him, for the edification of the assembly. 32 Spirits of prophets are subject to prophets; they are able to control themselves. There was no need for them all to speak at one.

34 Let the wives; married women, (see v. 33). Keep silence in the assemblies; when convened in session, and for public service or worship. The word ecclesia [assembly] seems to imply this. Women were not to supercede men in the public service; but they have ample scope for all the service they can possibly render, both in the matter of soul-winning and soul-training; for they have the widest opportunity for addressing audiences of their own sex (if they have a real message to tell), and in the exercise of gifts privately, or in the home circle.

35 Let them ask their own husbands at home; this implies, in the case supposed, that the husband knows more than the wife; but it is often otherwise; and, when the wife knows more than the husband, he will do well to learn from her.

36 The apostle reminds the brethren at Corinth that the Gospel did not start with them, and that they are not the standard of orthodoxy.

37 Let him acknowledge; let him confess that my teachings are from God.
are the Lord's commandment; 38 but, if any is ignorant, let him be ignorant. 39 So then, my brethren, desire earnestly to

CHAPTER XV.
1 Now I make known to you, brethren, the Gospel which I proclaimed to you, which also ye received, in which also ye have been standing; through which also ye are saved, if ye hold fast the word of which I proclaimed to you, unless ye believed in vain. 3 For I delivered to you, among the first things, that which also I received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures; 4 and that He was buried, and that He hath been raised on the third day according to the Scriptures; 5 and that He appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve, 6 after that He appeared to above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some fell asleep. 7 After that He appeared to James, then to all the apostles; 8 and, last of all, as to one born out of time, He appeared to me also. 9 For I am the least of the apostles, who am not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the assembly of God. 10 But by God's grace I am what I am; and His grace which was bestowed upon me did not prove vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Whether, therefore, it be I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached, that He hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead. 13 But, if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised; 14 and, if Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching vain, and vain is your faith; 15 and we are found also false witnesses of God, because we testified in respect to God that He raised up the Christ, Whom He raised not, if so be that the dead are not raised. 16 For, if the dead are not raised, neither hath Christ been raised; 17 and, if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins! 18 Hence, also, those who fell asleep in Christ perished! 19 If in this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all men most pitiable!

20 But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the First-fruit of those who have fallen asleep. 21 For since through man came death, through Man came also the resurrection of the dead. 22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive; 23 but each in his own rank; Christ, the First-fruit; then those who are Christ's at His coming. 24 Then comes

NOTES ON CHAPTER XV.
1 I make known to you the Gospel; laying special emphasis in this chapter on the resurrection. In which ye have been standing: and continue to stand. They had planted their personal hopes on this Gospel, and had built their assembly on it.
2 Believed in vain: there is a false faith. Involving only the head; but such a faith does not save.
3 Christ died for our sins: this is the fundamental fact of the Gospel, and lies at the foundation of the whole scheme. (see Isa. 53:4-10; Dan. 9:24-26; Zech. 12:10; 13:7; II Cor. 5:14, 21; I Peter 3:21; 5:18).
4 Cephas: Peter. The twelve: the twelve apostles.
5 Brethren: disciples of Christ; Ped asleep: died in the Lord.
6 James; probably the brother of John, and one of the apostles.
7 One born out of time: an abortion; an expression denoting great unworthiness.
8 Least of the apostles: least in point of worthiness as viewed by himself. He never forgot his great sin in persecuting God's children. (Eph. 3:8; Acts 9:1; 26:9-11). Grace . . . not in vain: it led him to more abundant service than any other apostle.

prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. 40 But let all things be done decently and in order.

12 No resurrection; some false teachers in the early years of Christianity denied the doctrine of the resurrection. The apostle shows that, if there is no resurrection there is no salvation, (vs. 13-19, 29-32).
14-17 Preaching vain; because false, if Christ was not raised from the dead. Faith vain; because, if Christ did not rise, it was all futile.
18 Fell asleep; died. Perished; were lost.
19 Most pitiable: because, if Christ did not rise, they had given up all the pleasures of this life, and exposed themselves to all kinds of sufferings and losses without the least profit.
20 Now: as the matter stands. A First-fruit: the resurrection of Christ is a pledge that all who believe in Him will be raised up also.
21 Through a man; Adam. Through a Man; Jesus Christ.
22 In Adam all die: all have become sinners through Adam. Having inherited depravity from him. (Rom. 5:12. 17-19). All shall be made alive; all shall share in the resurrection, (John 5:28, 29; Dan. 12:2). His argument applies here especially to believers.
23 Christ, the First-fruit; the first Who was raised to die no more. Christ's at His coming; at His coming for His bride, (v. 52; I Thess. 4:16).
the end, when He delivereth up the Kingdom to God, even His Father; when He shall abolish all rule and all authority and power; 25 for He must reign, till He hath put all the enemies under His feet. 26 As the last enemy, death is abolished; 27 for He put all things in subjection under His feet. But, when He saith, "All things have been put in subjection," it is evident that He is excepted, Who subjected all things to Him. 28 And, when all things shall be subjected to Him, then will the Son also Himself be subjected to Him Who subjected all things to Him, that God may be all in all. 29 Else what will those do who are immersed for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are they even immersed for them? 30 Why, too, are we in peril every hour? 31 Daily am I dying, I swear by the glorying in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord! 32 If in human fashion I fought with wild beasts at Ephesus, what is the profit to me? If the dead rise not: "Let us eat and drink; for tomorrow we die." 33 Be not deceived: evil companionships corrupt good morals. 34 Awake to soberness righteously, and sin not; for some have not a knowledge of God: I say it to your shame! 35 But some one will say, "How are the dead raised? and with what kind of body do they come? 36 Foolish one! that which you sow is not made alive, except it die; 37 and that which you sow, you sow not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may be of wheat, or of some other kind; 38 but God giveth it a body, even as He willed, and to each of the seeds a body of its own. 39 All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is, indeed, one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fishes. 40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial; but the glory of the celestial is one, and that of the terrestrial another. 41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory. 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption; 43 it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; 44 it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. 45 So also it has been a flight with wild beasts at Ephesus. This was a favorite amusement with wicked rulers. Some suppose that he here alludes to some of his contests with cruel men. Let us eat and drink, etc.; if there is nothing in Christianity, we might adopt the motto of the Epicureans, and get what pleasure we can out of the present life. 33 Evil companionships: familiar associations with false teachers corrupt, etc. 34 Awake to soberness: implying that they had been intoxicated by evil teachings, and now it is time to be aroused. Righteously: implying that their conduct to their fellowmen had not been right in all ways. To your shame: had you heeded the instructions given you, you would have escaped all these excesses into which you have fallen. 35 Some will say: by way of objection, because he cannot understand the resurrection. 36 Foolish one: assuming to believe only what you understand. The resurrection is no more mysterious than the raising of grain. 37 A bare grain: a single kernel. 38 God gives it a body: God gives the seed that is sown a body; so that every grain preserves its own identity, and propagates its own kind. 39-42 Varieties of flesh: the heavenly and earthly bodies: the sun, moon, and stars—all these are illustrations of the mighty power of God, Who can raise the dead. The God Who has made all things is back of the resurrection, and He will bring it about according to His word. 41 A natural body: a soulish body, or one animated once by a soul. (Gen. 2:7.) It is raised a spiritual body; a body adapted to a glorified spirit.
written, “The first man Adam was a living soul; the last Adam, a life-giving Spirit. 46 And the spiritual is not first, but the natural;” then the spiritual. 47 The first man is of the earth earthy; the second Man is from Heaven. 48 As was the earthly, such also are the earthy; and as is the Heavenly, such also are the heavenly. 49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the Heavenly.

50 And this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption. 51 Behold, I tell you a mystery: we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. 53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 54 And, when this corruptible shall put on incorruption, and this mortal shall put on immortality, then will come to pass the saying that has been written, “Death was swallowed up in victory.” 55 Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting? 56 The sting of death is sin; and the power of sin is the law: 57 but thanks be to God, Who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ! 58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, become steadfast, immovable, abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I directed the assemblies of Galatia, so also do ye. 2 On the first day of the sabbaths, let each one of you lay by him, treasuring it up, as he may prosper, that no collections be made, when I come. 3 And, when I arrive, whomsoever ye may approve, the same will I send with letters to carry your bounty to Macedonia; 4 and, if it be meet for me also to go, they shall go with me. 5 And I will come to you, when I shall have passed through Macedonia; for I pass through Macedonia:

NOTES ON CHAPTER XVI.

1 Collection: a voluntary contribution for the benefit of the poor saints in Jerusalem.
2 On the first day: the day on which Jesus arose, the day on which the Holy Spirit descended, and the day set apart by the apostles and early Christians for public religious worship.
3 With letters: of introduction, or commendation.
4 When I pass through: Paul seems to have changed his plan of visiting them, and hence the criticisms referred to in II Cor. 1:15-17.
with the brethren. 12 But concerning Apollos, the brother, I besought him much to come to you with the brethren; and it was not at all his will to come now; but he will come, when he shall have opportunity.

13 Watch, stand fast in the faith; be men; be strong. 14 Let all your affairs be carried on in love.

15 Now I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruit of Achaia, and that they appointed themselves for ministry to the saints), 16 that ye also submit yourselves to such, and to every one who is laboring with us and toiling.

17 And I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus; because these supplied your deficiency.

18 For they refreshed my spirit and yours; therefore, recognize those who are such.

19 The assemblies of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the assembly meeting at their house. 20 All the brethren salute you. Salute one another with a holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me, Paul, with my own hand. 22 If anyone loves not the Lord, let him be accursed, when the Lord cometh! 23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. 24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus.

13 Watch; to avoid falling into the snares of men and demons. (I Pet. 5:8). Be men; act worthily of true men. Be strong; by getting the strength of the Lord. (II Cor. 12:10).

15 The house; the family. First-fruit of Achaia; the first whom the apostle led to Christ by his labors in Achaia. For ministry to the saints; they helped the saints in any way they could.

16 Submit yourselves to such; pay them due respect by recognizing their kind offices.

17 At the coming of Stephanas; who had come to Paul at Ephesus. Supplied your deficiency; what the church at Corinth had failed to supply Paul, Stephanas and others with him supplied. We are not to understand that the apostle is here making complaint, but he merely states that what the Corinthian brethren, because of their absence, did not supply, these others did.

18 Recognize those who are such; pay due regard to these and all who refresh the saints.

19 With the assembly meeting at their house; a true assembly of God may habitually meet in the home of one of its members, (see also Rom. 16:5; Col. 4:15). Such Scriptures simplify matters very much.

21 The salutation of me, Paul; the preceding part of this epistle was written, most likely, by some one or more of the apostle's friends; but he writes the salutation himself.

22 Accursed; a curse, or something devoted to ruin at the hands of the Almighty. When the Lord cometh; at His coming He will destroy multitudes of His enemies.
II. CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the assembly of God which is in Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia: 2 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all consolation; 4 Who consoled us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to console those who are in any tribulation, through the consolation with which we ourselves are consoled by God. 5 Because, as the sufferings of Christ abound toward us, so through Christ our consolation also abounds. 6 But, whether we be in tribulation, it is for your consolation and salvation; or, whether we are consoled, it is for your consolation, which is effective in the endurance of the same sufferings which we also suffer; 7 and our hope in your behalf is steadfast, knowing that, as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so are ye of the consolation also. 8 For we do not wish you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning our tribulation which befell us in Asia; that we were exceedingly weighed down beyond our power, inso much that we despaired even of life; 9 yea, we ourselves had in ourselves the sentence of death, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God, Who raiseth the dead; 10 Who delivered us out of so great a death, and will still deliver: on Whom we have set our hope, that He will also still deliver; 11 ye also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the mercy bestowed upon us by means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf. 12 For our glorying is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

4 That ye may be able to console; God comforts or consols His children in their trials, that they may help others when under trial.

5 The sufferings of Christ; Jesus suffered bitter persecutions; and, if we ever become much like Him, we will suffer, too.

6 It is for your consolation; the apostle endured all sorts of hardships and sufferings of various kinds, that he might be the means of saving, consoling, edifying, and otherwise enriching, as many as possible. Which is effective; which salvation, with its consolations, is effective in developing a spirit of endurance which will give one victory over all his trials.

7 As ye are partakers of the sufferings; only those who partake of the sufferings of Christ can enjoy the consolation here referred to.

8 Exceedingly weighed down; under some great peril.

9 The sentence of death; he could see nothing but death as the probable result.

10 So great a death; we have no certain means of knowing to what particular peril he here alludes. Possibly, it might have been his stoning at Lystra. (Acts 14:19, 20).

11 The gift bestowed upon us; his wonderful escape from death, referred to above. By means of many persons; by means of their prayers in his behalf. Thanks may be given by many; by those who prayed for his deliverance.

12 In holiness and sincerity of God; in the holiness and sincerity that come from God. Not in fleshly wisdom; such as worldly people have. More abundantly toward you; his conduct toward the Corinthians, when he labored among them, was specially guarded, because of the peculiar make-up of that people.
of God, not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. For we write no other things to you, than what ye read or even acknowledge, and I hope ye will acknowledge to the end; as also ye did acknowledge in part, that we are your theme of boasting, as ye also will be ours in the day of our Lord Jesus.

And in this confidence I was purposing before to come to you, that ye might have a second favor; and through you to go into Macedonia, and from Macedonia to come again to you, and by you to be sent forward to Judaea. When, therefore, I was purposing this, did I manifest fickleness? or the things which I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the "Yea, yea," and the "Nay, nay"? But, as God is faithful, our word to you is not "Yea" and "Nay." For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, Who was preached among you through me—through me and Sylvanus and Timothy—was not "Yea" and "Nay," but in Him is "Yea." For however many are the promises of God, in Him is the "Yea"; wherefore, also, through Him is the "Amen," to the glory of God through us. Now He Who confirmeth us with you in Christ, and anointed us, is God; Who also sealed us, and gave us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

But I invoke God as a witness upon my soul, that, as sparing you, I came not yet to Corinth. Not that we have lordship over your faith, but are helpers of your joy; for by faith ye have been standing.

CHAPTER II.

1 But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. For, if I make you sorry, who, indeed, is he that makes me glad, but he that is made sorry by me? And I wrote this very thing, that I might not, when I came, have sorrow from those of whom I ought to have joy; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. For out of much tribulation and anguish of heart I wrote to you, through many tears:

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

1 In sorrow: if he first letter, they would all have had sorrow.

If I make you sorry: he had every reason not to wish to make them sorry; and among other reasons this, that he was largely dependent upon them, (Ch. 1:10).

And I wrote this same: referring to the matter of his former letter.

The apostle seems to excuse the severity of his first letter by ascribing it to his intense love for them.

5 He: the incestuous man, (1 Cor. 5:1). But in part; the conduct of the incestuous man had grieved others—the best portion of the assembly—as well as the apostle. That I may not press you all; he wished them to know that he did not charge them all with complacency in the sin of the incestuous man.

6 Such a one: the incestuous man, The punishment; the excommunication of the offender, who had retracted.

7 On the contrary: they ought now to forgive him, and restore him to fellowship in the assembly.
him. 9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye are obedient in all things. 10 And to whom ye forgive anything, I forgive also; for what I also have forgiven—if I have forgiven anything—for your sakes have I forgiven it in the person\(^1\) of Christ; 11 that we might not be over-reached by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his devices.

13 Now, having come to Troas for the Gospel of Christ, and a door having been opened to me in the Lord, 13 I have had no relief in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother; but, bidding them adieu, I went forth into Macedonia. 14 But thanks be to God, Who always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us the savor of His knowledge in every place; 15 because we are to God a sweet savor of Christ, in those who are being saved, and in those who are perishing; 16 to the one class a savor of death unto death, and to the other a savor of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not as the many, making merchandise\(^2\) of the word of God; but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.

1 Or, presence.

9 To this end also did I write; the one object of his first letter was, to induce them to discipline him, and prove their loyalty to the truth.

10 For your sakes; he had in view their good as an assembly of God, and not his own personal ends. In the person of Christ; as an inspired representative of Christ, and as acting for Him.

11 Overreached by Satan; through excessive severity in their dealings with the reformed offender. His device; in leading people to hurtful extremes.

13 Troas; a city between Ephesus and Macedonia. Paul expected to meet Titus at Troas, and to learn from him the effect of his first letter to the assembly at Corinth. Going into Macedonia, he met Titus later, and learned what he had hoped to learn at Troas.

14 But thanks be to God; for the happy issue of things in Corinth among the brethren. Who...causeth us to triumph in Christ; Who always gives us victory in Christ, over all our enemies. The savor; the fragrance, or odor. used metaphorically here to indicate the gracious influence of the Gospel.

15 We are to God a sweet savor of Christ; the faithful advocates and dispensers of the Gospel of Christ are pleasing to God the Father.

16 Savor of death unto death; God is pleased with those who preach the Gospel, even if men reject it, and seal their endless ruin thereby. (Rev. 20:10). Those who reject the Gospel turn that which was meant to give them eternal life and blessedness in Heaven to their eternal loss.

17 Making merchandise of the word of God; peddling it out in an adulterated condition, for the profit there is in it. (see I Pet. 5:2).

CHAPTER III.

1 Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or need we, as do some, commendatory letters to you, or from you? 2 Ye are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men; 3 being made manifest that ye are Christ's epistle ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh. 4 And such confidence have we through Christ toward God: 5 not that we are sufficient of ourselves to reckon anything as from ourselves, but our sufficiency is of God; 6 Who also qualified us as ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit makes alive. 7 But, if the ministration of death, engraven in letters on stones, came with\(^1\) glory, so that the sons of Israel could not look steadily upon the face of Moses on account of the glory of his face, which glory was passing away; 8 how shall not rather the ministration of the Spirit be with glory? 9

2 Gr. Peddling out the word of.

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

1 Again; possibly alluding to some charge of self-commendation.

2 Ye are our letter; open to all to read. Written in our hearts; so said to show his great love for them. Our; to include others with himself.

3 Ministered by us; through the preaching of the Gospel. Not in tables of stone; alluding to the stone tablets on which the ten commandments were written. Fleshly tablets which are hearts; or fleshly heart-tablets; meaning the hearts of the Corinthian brethren.

4 And such confidence have we; as to the effectiveness of the work done in them. Through Christ; not through himself, but by the power of Christ.

5 Our sufficiency is of God; God must supply the wisdom, power and knowledge, to carry on His work.

6 Who has qualified us; given us power to preach and administer the Gospel. If God does not qualify one to preach the Gospel, he had better never attempt to preach.

7 Ministration of death; the Mosaic law, which works wrath, and brings death instead of life. (Rom. 4:15; 7:10, 11). Engraved on stones; meaning the ten commandments. Came with glory; introduced in a way to show God's majesty and glory. The splendor of Moses' countenance was a visible symbol of the Divine Presence and glory. (Ex. 34:29-33).

8 Ministration of the Spirit; the Gospel dispensation, under the Spirit's direction; giving life instead of death, as under the law.
II. CORINTHIANS

For, if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more does the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory. 10 For even that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, on account of the surpassing glory; 11 for, if that which is passing away comes through glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

12 Having, therefore, such hope, we use great boldness of speech; 13 and not as Moses, who put a veil over his face, that the sons of Israel might not look steadfastly to the end of that which was passing away.

9 Ministration of righteousness; the righteousness which comes through faith in Christ.
10 The glory of the Gospel dispensation immeasurably surpasses that of the law.
11 That which is done away; the Mosaic dispensation, which was typical of the Gospel, disappeared to make room for its Anti-type, the Gospel.

N. B.—We are not to understand that the nine moral elements in the decalogue (all except the fourth—which was a positive law) were done away as rules of conduct, but only as conditions of life; for Christ’s death put away sin (Heb. 9:28) in such a way as to make it possible for man to get rid of his sins through faith in Christ; and at the same time receive a new life in Christ, that would enable him under proper conditions, to keep the law. (Rom. 8:3, 9).
The fourth commandment, having answered its dispensational purpose, gave way to make room for the first day of the week, which is the proper day for Christians to observe.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Therefore, having this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we faint not; 2 but we renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, not handling the word of God deceitfully; but, by the manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man’s conscience in the sight of God. 3 And, even if our Gospel has been veiled, it has been veiled in those who perish; 4 in whom the god of this world blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the Gospel of the glory of Christ, Who is the image of God, should not shine upon them. 5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord; and ourselves as your servants for Jesus’ sake; 6 because it is the God Who said, “Light shall shine out of darkness,” Who shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness may be of God, and not from ourselves; 8 being pressed on every side, yet not cooped up; perplexed, yet not despairing; 9 under his control. That the light...should not shine; so as to make them true believers, that they might see his glory.

6 Commanded the light; Gen. 1:3. In the face of Jesus Christ; as revealed in the Gospel.
7 This treasure; this new life and knowledge of Christ received in the heart. In earthen vessels; in human bodies.
8 Pressed on every side; assailed by enemies, on all sides. Not cooped up; shut in, or straitened, so as to be unable to work for God. Perplexed; as to the best course to pursue. Not despairing; not giving up hope.
sued, yet not abandoned; smitten down, yet not destroyed; 10 always bearing about in the body the dying of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our body. 11 For we who live are always delivered up to death for Jesus’ sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. 12 So that death is working in us, but life in you. 13 But, having the same spirit of faith, according to what has been written, “I believed, therefore did I speak”; we believe, therefore also we speak; 14 knowing that He Who raised up the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will present us with you. 15 For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, abounding through the many, may make the thanksgiving abound, to the glory of God. 16 Wherefore, we faint not; but even if our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is being renewed day by day. 17 For our momentary light tribulation is working out for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; 18 while we look not at the things that are seen, but at the things that are not seen; for the things that are seen are temporal, but the things that are unseen are eternal.

CHAPTER V.

1 For we know that, if the earthly house of our tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 For verily, in this we groan, longing to be clothed upon with our habitation which is from Heaven; 3 if, indeed, being also clothed, we will not be found naked. 4 For, indeed, we who are in the tabernacle groan, being weighed down; not that we wish to be unclothed, but be clothed upon, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. 5 Now He Who wrought us for this very thing is God, Who gave to us the earnest of the Spirit. 6 Being, therefore, always of good courage, and knowing that, while dwelling in the body, we are absent from the Lord (7 for we walk by faith and not by sight); 8 we are of good courage, I say, and are well pleased to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord. 9 Wherefore, we also grow. And, as this double process goes on, life is ministered to others. If we would become agents for communicating life to others, we must first die ourselves. 13 Has been written: Ps. 116:10. 14 Present us with you; Jesus will present all His true followers to His Father, as trophies of His redemption. 15 All things; literally, all the things; including the doctrines of the Gospel, and the providences of God. (Rom. 8:28). 16 Wherefore: because of the glories of Christ, and the results of their labors. Our outward man; the mortal body. The inward man; ”the new man.” or the Christ-life. 17 Our momentary light tribulation; literally, the momentary lightness of our tribulation. All tribulations in this life are brief and trivial compared with the unending glories of Heaven. Is working out for us; all our trials—of whatever kind—if faithfully endured for Christ’s sake, will greatly enhance the weight of glory and crown us in Heaven. This fact should greatly encourage all believers to be true and faithful to God in all things.

NOTES ON CHAPTER V.

1 Tabernacle: meaning the body, considered as a temporary abiding place for the new man. (see II Pet. 1:13, 14). A building from God, a house not made with hands; the resurrection body.
2 In this; the earthly body. Longing to be clothed upon; with the new body.
3 Naked; without a glorified body.
4 The apostle did not wish to be unclothed, or without a body, but he longed for his new body. That what is mortal may be swallowed up by life; that is, that he might get his heavenly body without dying. (I Cor. 15:52; I Thess. 4:17).
make it our aim—whether being at home or being from home—to be well-pleasing to Him. 10 For we must all be manifested before the judgment-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things done through the body, according to the things which he practiced, whether good or evil.

11 Knowing, therefore, the fear of the Lord, we persuade men; but to God we have been made manifest, and I hope that we have been made manifest also in your consciences. 12 We are not again commending ourselves to you, but giving you occasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have something suited to those who glory in appearance, and not in heart. 13 For whether we were beside ourselves, it was to God; or whether we are of sober mind, it is for you. 14 For the love of Christ is constraining us; having judged this, that One died for all; consequently, they all died: 15 and He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to Him Who died for them, and rose again. 16 Wherefore, we henceforth know no one according to the flesh; even if we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now no longer do we know Him thus. 17 Wherefore, if any one is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, they have become new. 18 But all things are of God, Who reconciled us to Himself through Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; 19 how that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having put in us the word of reconciliation.

20 On behalf of Christ, therefore, we are ambassadors, as though God were be-seeking through us, we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be ye reconciled to God. 21 Him Who knew no sin He made to be sin on our behalf, that we may become God’s righteousness in Him.

10 Judgment-seat of Christ; to receive the rewards according to works.
11 The fear of the Lord: the fear which will fill the ungodly, when they appear in His presence. We persuade men; to repent, and accept Christ.
12 Not again commending: he was not seeking to please them, but to set forth the principles that controlled him, and upon which his ministry proceeded; to the end that he might stop the mouths of the proud boosters in their midst.
13 Beside ourselves: in efforts to preach the Gospel free of charge, and in enduring all sorts of perils to get the Gospel of Christ proclaimed abroad. To God; it was to meet the claims of God upon him. Sober mind, it is for; it is meant to subserve your real interests.
14 Constraining us; His mighty love has so possessed our hearts with His own passion for souls, that we are impelled to labor, and do all we can, to have men accept Him. One died for all; Christ died for all the race, (Heb. 2:9).
Consequently; as a necessary inference from the fact that Christ died for all. He died to represent all; and, hence, all died in Him; not really, but judicially.
15 No longer live to themselves; those who have life in Christ should live wholly for Him.
16 We know no one according to the flesh; we no longer regard men’s personality, or consider them in their natural relations, We no longer know Him thus; Christ, who bestowed many blessings upon men when personally present, saith, “At an acceptable time I heard Thee, and in a day of salvation did I succor Thee;” behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation);
CHAPTER VII.

1 Having, therefore, these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Make room for us; we wronged no one, we corrupted no one, we defrauded no one. 3 I say it not with the view to your condemnation; for I have said before that ye are in our hearts to die together and to live together. 4 Great is my boldness toward you; great is my glorying on your behalf; because of their ready obedience.

3 Giving no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our ministry be not blamed; but in everything commending ourselves as God's ministers, in much patience, in tribulations, in necessities, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in toilings, in watchings, in fastings; in pureness, in knowledge, in long-suffering, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in love unfeigned, in the word of truth, in the power of God; through the weapons of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, through glory and dishonor, through evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and possessing all things.

11 Our mouth has been open to you, O Corinthians! our heart has been enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own affections. 13 Now, for a recompense in like kind (I am speaking as to my children), be ye also enlarged.

14 Become not unequally yoked with unbelievers; for what fellowship have righteousness and lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness? 15 And what concord of Christ is there with Belial? or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever? 16 And what agreement has a temple of God with idols? for we are a temple of the living God, as God said, "I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be My people." 17 Wherefore, "Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate," saith the Lord; "and touch no unclean thing, and I will receive you; 18 and I will be to you a Father, and ye shall be My sons and daughters," saith the Lord Almighty.

11 Our mouth has been open; to speak the wonderful things of God, as revealed in the Gospel. Our heart . . . enlarged; so as to take in Jew and gentile, even all the people of God.

12 Ye are not straitened in us; you can all find room in my heart. In your own affections; your hearts are contracted, so that ye cannot receive us.

13 For a recompense of the same kind; that is, you should recompense my large-heartedness toward you with a like disposition toward me.

14 Unequally yoked; Christians ought not to mix up with unbelievers, either in business or in marriage.

15 Belial; Satan.

16 Ye; an assembly of believers. Are a temple of the living God; in which He dwells. (2 Cor. 6:14-18).

17 Ye are an assembly of believers. Are a temple of the living God, in which He dwells. (2 Cor. 6:14-18).

3 I say it not with the view to your condemnation; alluding to what he had just said in v. 2. He wishes them to know that love is at the bottom of all he is saying to them.

4 My glorying on your behalf; because of their ready obedience.
II. CORINTHIANS

11 For, behold this very thing—that ye were made sorry after a godly manner—what diligence it wrought in you; yea, what defense of yourselves; yea, what indignation; yea, what fear; yea, what earnest desire; yea, what zeal; yea, what avenging! In everything ye proved yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 So, although I wrote to you, it was not on account of him who did the wrong, nor of him who suffered wrong, but that your earnest care on our behalf might be manifested to you in the sight of God. 13 For this cause, we have been consoled; but, in our consolation, we rejoice the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. 14 For, if in anything I have gloried to him on your behalf, I was not made ashamed; but, as we spake all things to you in truth, so also our glorying before Titus was found to be truth. 15 And his tender affections are more abundantly toward you, while he remembers the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. 16 I rejoice, that in everything I have good courage concerning you.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 And we make known to you, brethren, the grace of God which has been bestowed in the assemblies of Macedonia; 2 that, in much trial of tribulation, the abundance of their joy and their deep pov-

NOTES ON CHAPTER VIII.

1 The grace of God; as manifested in the liberality of the assemblies in Macedonia.

2 The abundance of their joy; their joy in Christ; prompting them to liberal giving. Deep poverty; their poverty made their contributions appear as a richer expression of their love. It is what is left after giving, that determines the quality of the gift, and the character of the giver. (Mark 12:43; 11; Luke 21:3; 4).

3 Of their own accord; without solicitation or appeal.

4 With much entreaty; that they might be permitted to give, and take part in this ministry.
II. CORINTHIANS 263

not as we hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God; 6 so that we exhorted Titus that, as he began before, so also he would finish in you this same grace also. 7 But, as ye abound in everything—in faith, and speech, and knowledge, and all diligence, and in your love to us—see that ye abound in this grace also. 8 I am not speaking by way of command; but as proving, through the diligence of others, the sincerity of your love. 9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though He was rich, for your sakes He became poor, that ye through His poverty might become rich. 10 And I give my judgment in this; for this is profitable for you, who, indeed, began before others, a year ago, not only to do, but also to will. 11 And now complete the doing also; that, as there was a readiness to will, so also there may be the completion of what ye have; 12 for, if the readiness is present, it is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what he has not. 13 For it is not that there may be relief to others, but distress to you; 14 but, by the rule of equality, your abundance being a supply, at the present time, for their deficiency; that also their abundance may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality; 15 as it has been written, "He who gathered much had nothing over; and he that gathered little had no lack."

16 But thanks be to God Who putteth the same diligence for you into the heart of Titus. 17 For he accepted, indeed, our exhortation; but, being very earnest, he went forth to you of his own accord. 18 And we sent with him the brother whose praise in the Gospel is in all the assemblies; 19 and not that only, but who was also appointed by the assemblies, as our fellow-traveler with this gift which is ministered by us to the glory of the Lord, and our zeal; 20 avoiding this, that no one should blame us in the matter of this bounty which is ministered by us; 21 for we provide things honorable, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. 22 And we sent with them our brother, whom we often in many things proved to be diligent, but now much more diligent by reason of his great confidence in you.

23 Whether any one inquires about Titus, he is my partner, and my fellow-worker in your behalf; 3 or our brethren, they are the messengers of the assemblies, the glory of Christ. 24 Show ye, therefore, toward them, before the assemblies, the proof of your love, and of our glorying on your behalf.

1 Or, according to your means.

5 Not as we hoped; but giving far more than was expected. They first gave themselves to the Lord; this was the wisest thing they could have done; thus giving God a chance to enrich them. (Gal. 5:21, 22.)

6 As he began; gathering collections for the poor saints at Jerusalem.

7 In this grace also; the grace of liberal giving.

8 Not by way of command; he would not prescribe the amounts they should give; but he urges them by the example of others, and by their love for the saints.

9 He was rich; before His incarnation; possessing all material values (John 1:3; Col. 1:16, 17); and glory with the Father (John 17:5). He became poor; Phil. 2:7; Matt. 8:9; John 17:5. That ye might become rich; rich in divine fellowship, (John 14:17-21, 23; Eph. 3:16-19; I John 1:3; rich in the fruitage or the Spirit. (Gal. 5:22, 23; II Cor. 3:18); rich in power for service. (Acts 1:8; I Cor. 9:8; Heb. 13:20, 21); and rich in eternal wealth and honor. (Rev. 21:7, 3:21.)

10 In this; in the matter of making their contributions, Who began before others; before the assemblies in Macedonia.

11 Now complete the doing also; ye began well; now complete it.

12 The readiness; to give. According to what one has; one's ability to give measures one's responsibility to give.

13 Your contributions at this time will, in part at least, relieve their present needs. For your want; if you should become needy.

2 Or, strive to exhibit.

3 Gr. Into, or unto.

15 It has been written; (Ex. 16:18). There is a plenty for all. If it can be distributed. What vast stores of "stale manna" many rich Christians have on hand!

16 The same diligence; in completing the contribution.

17 The exhortation; to visit Corinth.

19 With this gift; the contribution that the apostle was to carry to Jerusalem.

20 No one should blame us; blame us for the improper use of the money. This bounty; the sum of the contributions to be forwarded to Jerusalem.

21 Things honorable; that both God and good men approve.

22 The brother; Titus.

23 Paul owns his high regard for Titus, calling him his partner and fellow-worker. Our brethren; the messengers of the assemblies, chosen to accompany Paul to Jerusalem with the contributions for the poor saints. The glory of Christ; persons who live for Christ, and reflect His glories in their lives, are "the glory of Christ."

24 The proof of your love; in the magnificence of your contribution.

N. B.—V. 9 furnishes the best argument for exhaustive giving to the cause of Christ, of any that one can imagine: Christ giving up His boundless riches and glory, and becoming poor, with the view of making vast numbers of bankrupt sinners eternally rich!
II., All. As Your. superfluous. prepared; 3 But I say this: He that sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly; and he that sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully.

Let each one do as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver. 8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in every thing, may abound to every good work:

9 as it has been written, “He scattered abroad, he gave to the poor; his righteousness abides forever.” 10 And He Who supplieth seed to the sower, and bread for food, will supply and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; 11 ye being enriched in everything to all liberality, which works through us thanksgiving to God. 12 Because the ministry of this service not only fully supplies the deficiencies of the saints, but abounds also through many thanksgivings to God; 13 through the proof of this ministry, glorifying God for the subjection of your confession to the Gospel of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all; 14 they also, with supplication for you, longing after you on account of the exceeding grace of God upon you. 15 Thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift!

CHAPTER IX.

1 For, respecting the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you; 2 for I know your readiness, of which I glory on your behalf to the Macedonians, that Achaias hath been prepared for a year past; and your zeal stirred up the majority of them. 3 But I sent the brethren, that our glorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect; that even as I said, ye may be prepared; 4 lest by any means, if the Macedonians should come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not ye) should be put to shame in this confidence. 5 I thought it necessary, therefore, to exhort the brethren, that they should go before you to make up, and make up beforehand your previously promised bounty, that this may be ready as a matter of bounty and not as of covetousness. 6 But I say this: He that sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly; and he that sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully.

Let each one do as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver. 8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in every thing, may abound to every good work:

9 as it has been written, “He scattered abroad, he gave to the poor; his righteousness abides forever.” 10 And He Who supplieth seed to the sower, and bread for food, will supply and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; 11 ye being enriched in everything to all liberality, which works through us thanksgiving to God. 12 Because the ministry of this service not only fully supplies the deficiencies of the saints, but abounds also through many thanksgivings to God; 13 through the proof of this ministry, glorifying God for the subjection of your confession to the Gospel of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all; 14 they also, with supplication for you, longing after you on account of the exceeding grace of God upon you. 15 Thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift!

NOTES ON CHAPTER IX.

1 Ministering to the saints; the collection for the saints in Judea.

2 Your readiness; to distribute to the necessities of the saints. Achaias; that part of Greece of which Corinth was the capital. Has been ready; ready for the collection.

3 Our glorying on your behalf; in regard to their willingness to contribute.

4 Unprepared; not ready to put in their gifts along with others. Put to shame; if they should fail.

5 Go before; in advance of Paul and other traveling companions.

6 Sparingly . . . bountifully; he who gives grudgingly can scarcely be said to give at all, whatever be the size of his gift; while the loving, whole-hearted giver is measured, not by the size of his gift, but by the motive back of it. A penny given for Jesus’ sake is more than a million dollars given for show.

7 All grace; every good gift.

CHAPTER X.

1 Now I, Paul, myself entreat you, through the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in your presence, indeed, am lowly among you; but, being absent, am bold toward you; 2 but I pray that, when present, I may not show courage with the confidence with which I purpose to be bold against some who reckon us as walking according to the flesh. 3 For, though, walking in flesh, we are not warring ac-

NOTES ON CHAPTER X.

1 Through the meekness and gentleness of Christ; which the apostle wished them to imitate. In your presence; the apostle here alludes, probably, to his own small stature, and to the fact, that, in their presence, he would appear small.

2 May not show courage; or have any occasion to use his apostolic office to humble them. Against some; his proud and boastful opposers. These he would not spare.

3 Though walking in flesh; in a human body. Though living in a human body, he was not governed by carnal principles.
consider this: that such as we are in word through letters, when absent; such also are we in deed, when present. 12 For we are not bold to judge ourselves among, or to compare ourselves with, some of those who commend themselves; but they measuring themselves among themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. 13 But we will not glory beyond our measure, but according to the measure of the limit which God apportioned to us as a measure, to reach even to you. 14 For we stretch not ourselves overmuch, as if not reaching to you; for we came even as far as to you in the Gospel of Christ; 15 not glorying beyond our measure in other men's labors; but, having hope that, as your faith increases, we shall be enlarged among you according to our limit to further abundance, 16 so as to proclaim the Gospel in the regions beyond you, not to glory in another's limit in the things made ready to our hand. 17 But he that glories let him glory in the Lord; 18 for not he that commends himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Would that ye could bear with me in some little foolishness! Yea, indeed, ye do bear with me. 2 For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy; 3 for I espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a pure virgin to Christ; 4 but I fear lest, by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve in her craftiness, your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity and purity which is toward Christ. 4 For, if he that comes preaches another Jesus, Whom we did not preach; or, if ye receive a different spirit, which ye did not receive, or a different Gospel, which ye did not accept; well do ye bear with him. 5 For I reckon that I am in no respect behind the most eminent apostles. 6 And,

NOTES ON CHAPTER XI.

1 Some Little Foolishness; the recital of so many personal experiences, which had come to him in the service of Christ, might have been unwise under other conditions. 2 Espoused you to one husband; the apostle had been the means of uniting them by faith to Christ, and he is greatly concerned that they should, at the appearing of the Bridegroom, be ready to meet Him.
though I be rude in speech, yet am I not rude in knowledge; but in every way having manifested it toward you in all things. 7 Or did I commit a sin in abasing myself, that ye might be exalted, because I proclaimed to you the Gospel of God without cost? 8 I robbed other assemblies, taking wages of them, that I might minister to you; 9 and, being present with you, and being in want, I was a burden to no one; for the brethren, coming from Macedonia, supplied my lack; and in everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so will keep myself. 10 As the truth of Christ is in me, this glorying shall not be stopped in regard to me in the regions of Achaia. 11 Wherefore? because I do not love you? God knoweth! 12 But what I am doing, I also will do, that I may cut off the occasion from those desiring occasion, that wherein they glory they may be found even as we. 13 For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ; 14 and no wonder, for even Satan transforms himself into an angel of light! 15 It is no great thing, therefore, if his ministers also transform themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end will be according to their works. 16 I say again, let no one think me foolish; but, if ye do, yet as foolish receive me, that I too may glory a little. 17 What I am speaking I speak not according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. 18 Since many glory according to the flesh, I also will glory; 19 for ye gladly bear with the foolish, being yourselves wise. 20 For ye bear with it, if one brings you into bondage, if one devours you, if one takes you captive, if one exalts himself, if one smites you on the face. 21 I speak by way of dishonor, as though we were weak; but in whatever anyone is bold (I speak in foolishness), I also am bold. 22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they Abraham's seed? so am I. 23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as beside myself) I am more; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths often; 24 from the Jews five times I received forty stripes save one; 25 thrice I was beaten with rods; once I was stoned; thrice I suffered shipwreck; a night and a day I have spent in the deep; 26 in journeyings often, in perils of rivers, in perils of robbers, in perils from my countrymen, in perils from the gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; 27 in toil and hardship, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. 28 Apart from these things without, that which is a pressure upon me daily, anxiety for all the assemblies. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who

6 Rude in speech; as charged by his enemies, (ch. 10:10). 痘
7 In abusing myself; by working with my own hands. (Acts 18:3).
8 Taking wages of them; receiving supplies from them.
9 Burdensome to you; he supported himself with his own hands, and hence was no burden to them.
10 This glorying; that he preached without compensation from the Corinthians.
11, 12 It was not because the apostle did not love them, that he supported himself; but that he might afford no occasion to his enemies to say that he was moved by the spirit of gain.
13 Transferring themselves into apostles; boldly claiming to be apostles, when they were only Satan's servants.
14, 15 Satan is still trying to assume the guise of an angel of light; willing to lend his power, wisdom, and wealth, to any one who can mislead many of God's people.
16 Let no one think me foolish; in speaking so much of myself. Receive me as foolish; that I may have an opportunity to convince you to the contrary.
17 Not according to the Lord; he did not claim to be inspired in his present utterances, yet his sanctified common sense, he felt, justified his course.
18 Gladly do ye bear with the foolish; you have borne God's children.
CHAPTER XII.

1 It is needful for me to glory, though indeed, not profitable; but I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2 I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body I know not, or whether out of the body I know not, God knoweth), such a one caught up even to the Third Heaven. 3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart from the body, I know not, God knoweth), 4 that he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unutterable sayings, which it is not lawful for a man to speak. 5 On behalf of such a one I will glory; but on my own behalf I will not glory, except in my weaknesses. 6 For, if I should desire to glory, I would not be foolish, for I shall be speaking truth; but I forbear, lest some one should think, in regard to me, above what he sees me to be, or hears from me. 7 And, that I might not be exalted overmuch by the exceeding greatness of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I might not be exalted overmuch. 8 Concerning this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. 9 And He hath said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you; for My power is made perfect in weakness." Most gladly, therefore, will I rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 10 Wherefore, I take pleasure in weaknesses, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake; for when I am weak, then am I powerful.

11 I have become foolish; ye compelled me; for I ought to be commended by you; for in nothing was I inferior to the most eminent apostles, even if I am nothing. 12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought out among you in all patience, by signs and wonders and mighty works. 13 For what is there in which ye were made inferior to the rest of the assemblies, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong!

NOTES ON CHAPTER XII.

1 Needful for me to glory; to mention more of the Lord's dealings with me. Though not profitable; to you but justified by the circumstances.

2 I know a man; meaning himself. The Third Heaven, the place where God's Presence is peculiarly manifested.

3 Whether in...or apart from the body; the apostle did not know whether he was caught up with or without his body.

4 Caught up into Paradise; transported into Paradise, or the Third Heaven. Unutterable sayings; sayings which he had no language to utter. Not lawful for man to speak; because he had no language adequate to express the wondrous vision.

5 Of such a one will I glory; he glories in the fact that he was honored with such a vision. Except in my weaknesses; he seems to recognize Paul caught up to the Third Heaven as one person, and Paul tied on to a human body with human frailties, as another, whose weaknesses alone are to be gloried in.

6 I would not be foolish; the great glory of the vision should excuse his apparent immodesty in speaking of it. The apostle, however, preferred to be judged of by his life and teachings, rather than his visions.

7 A thorn in the flesh; probably some physical infirmity. The messenger of Satan; the thorn in the flesh was something that Satan used to buffet the apostle. God permitted this thorn to be sent, that Paul might not be exalted by reason of the excellent vision given him.

8 I besought the Lord thrice; to remove the thorn.

9 My grace is sufficient; to sustain you in your present emergency. The language would seem to imply that the thorn remained, but that the grace of God was so abundantly bestowed, that, upon the whole, he came off gainer. Yet it is not usual for any evil to be permitted to remain longer than is necessary to teach one the lesson meant to be taught.

10 Take pleasure in weaknesses; whatever served to show him his utter inability to meet issues in his own strength and wisdom. The natural man rebels at such exposures; but one who is living the crucified life understands the apostle's meaning.

11 Ye compelled me; your treatment of me made it necessary for me to appear foolish, in speaking so much of myself.

12 His works in their midst showed him to be an apostle.

13 The apostle seems to be using pleasantries, bordering closely on irony. In this verse.
14 Behold, this third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be burdensome to you; for I seek not yours, but yours; for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15 And I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I to be loved the less?

16 But be it so, I did not burden you; but, being crafty, I caught you with guile. 17

Did I gain advantage over you through any one of those whom I have sent to you?

18 I entreated Titus, and sent with him the brother. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit?

did we not walk in the same steps?

19 Think ye all this time that we are ex-cusing ourselves to you? Before God in Christ we are speaking; and all, beloved, for your edification. 20 For I fear, lest by any means, when I come, I should find you not such as I desire, and that I, too, should be found by you such as ye do not desire; lest, by any means, there should be strife, jealousy, wraths, factions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults; 21 lest, when I come again, my God should humble me before you, and I should mourn for many of those who have heretofore sinned, and repented not of the uncleanness, and fornication and lasciviousness which they practiced.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 This is the third time I am coming to you. At the mouth of two witnesses, and of three, shall every word be established.

2 I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as if present at the second time, and, being now absent, I write* to those who heretofore have sinned, and to all the rest; that, if I come again, I will not spare;

3 since ye seek a proof of Christ's speaking in me, Who toward ye is not weak, but is powerful in you; 4 for, indeed, He was crucified through weakness, but He liveth through the power of God. For we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him through the power of God toward you. 5 Try1 yourselves, whether ye are in the faith; prove yourselves. Or know ye not as to yourselves, that Jesus

Christ is in you, unless ye be rejected? 6

But I hope that ye shall know, that we are not rejected. 7 Now we pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do what is honorable, though we be rejected. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. 9 For we rejoice, when we are weak, and ye are strong; this also we pray for—your perfection. 10 For this cause, I write these things while absent; that I be rejected; true Christianity necessitates the presence of Jesus in the believer. (John 6:56; 14:20; 15:4, 5; 17:23, 26; Eph. 3:17; Col. 1:27, etc.). The Father approves those believers who are fully yielded to Him, and in whom His Son is permitted to rule. No doubt, there are many saved, who know little or nothing of Christ enthroned in their hearts, (see 1 Cor. 3:15); but these are not approved and honored as those will be, who let Jesus rule in them, and make them overcomers. (Rev. 3:20, 21; 21:7).

7 Paul loved the Corinthians so well, that he was willing to appear as condemned, if they would be true to God in all things.

9 And so he was willing to appear weak, if only they might be strong in the true sense.

*Many Mss. omit, I write.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIII.

1 This third time; see note on ch. 12:14. At the mouth two witnesses; on the testimony of, (Deut. 17:6; 19:15).

2 I will not spare; I will exercise strict discipline, as an apostle of Christ.

3 Since ye seek a proof; some denied that Christ spake in him; and he refers them to the mighty power that had worked in them through his ministry.

4 Crucified through weakness; after the reception of human guilt in the garden of Gethsemane, Jesus became very weak physically, (see John 19:17 with Matt. 27:34, 35).

We are weak in Him; true Christians have fellowship with Christ in His weakness and sufferings.

5 Try yourselves; examine, whether ye be in the faith—the faith that unites to Christ. Christ is in you, unless ye may not, when present, deal sharply according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not casting down.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfected, be comforted, think the same thing; be at peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. 12 Salute one another with a holy kiss. 13 All the saints salute you.

14 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

4 Or, rejoice.

10 I may not deal... sharply; he hoped his second letter might correct all their remaining errors, that he might be spared the necessity of using severe means. The apostle had a great dislike to wrangling, and sought to avoid it.

11 Be perfected; in your faith and practice. Be comforted; with the consolation offered them in this letter.

12 With a holy kiss; an early method of Christian salutation.
EPistle to the Galatians.

The Greek Galatia, answering to the Latin Galilia (Gaul), was one of the central provinces of Asia Minor; and the people who inhabited it had immigrated thither about 280 B.C.; having crossed over from Thrace, and bestriding to the race known as Gauls. The different assemblies or congregations of believers in Galatia were probably founded by Paul and his fellow-laborers. Paul made two missionary visits to Galatia, (Acts 16 6; 18:23). This epistle was meant to apply to all the assemblies which Paul had planted in Galatia. These assemblies began well, (ch. 5, 7), but Judaizing teachers came in, insisting that unless Gentile believers were circumcised, they could not be saved. (Acts 15:1); and it appears that they had great success in leading them from the simplicity of the Gospel. To correct this great error, this epistle was written. It was probably written from Ephesus or Corinth, about A.D. 53.

GALATIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, an apostle (not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead), 2 and all the brethren with me, to the assemblies of Galatia: 3 Grace to you, and peace from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 Who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us out of the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father; 5 to Whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so quickly removing from Him Who called you in the grace of Christ, to a different Gospel, 7 which is not another; only there are some who are troubling you, and wishing to pervert the Gospel of Christ. 8 But even if we or an angel out of Heaven should proclaim a Gospel to you other than that which we delivered to you, let him be accursed!

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 Not from men, nor through man; being about to combat a great error, the apostle asserts in the most positive manner, that man had nothing to do with his apostleship, but that it came wholly from God.

4 Who gave Himself for our sins; gave up His life, that He might put away sin—a doctrine quite antagonistic to the teachings of the Judaizing teachers. That He might deliver us out of the present wicked age; it was the purpose of Christ in giving Himself to die, to deliver all who would truly accept Him from their present trials by lifting them above them, and giving them true citizenship in Heaven.

9 As we have said before, even now also I say again, if any one is delivering a Gospel to you, contrary to that which ye received, let him be accursed. 10 For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I seeking to please men? If still I were pleasing men, I should not be Christ's servant.

11 For I make known to you, brethren, that the Gospel which was proclaimed by me is not according to man; 12 for neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through revelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For ye heard of my conduct formerly in Judaism; that, beyond measure, I was persecuting the assembly of God, and laying it waste; 14 and was making progress in Judaism above many companions of the same age in my own nation, being more exceedingly a zealot for my ancestral instructions.

15 But, when it pleased God, who set me apart from my mother's womb, and called me through His grace, 16 to re-reveal His Son in me, that I might proclaim the good news of Him among the Gentiles; straightforwardly I conferred not with flesh and blood, 17 neither went I up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia, and again returned to Damascus. 18 Then, after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to become acquainted with Cephas, and continued with him fifteen days. 19 But other of the apostles I saw not, except James.

16 To reveal His Son in me; that I might proclaim Him. The revelation of Christ in the believer is the supreme qualification for preaching Him. This experience brings one into sympathy with Christ in His great mission of salvation, and puts the "go" in him. Conferred not with flesh and blood; had nothing to do with men in the way of getting counsel from them; but received his message and commission directly from God.

CHAPTER II.

1 Then, fourteen years later, I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking with me Titus also. 2 And I went up according to revelation, and laid before them the Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles; but privately to those of repute, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. 3 But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised; 4 and that was because of the false brethren secretly introduced, who, indeed, crept in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage; 5 to whom not even for an hour did we yield in subjection, that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you. 6 But from those reputed to be something (whatever they were, it matters not to me: God does not accept man's person); to me, in fact, 17 Arabia; a country south of Damascus. Here Paul seems to have taken his theological course under Christ Himself.

21 Syria; a country north of Palestine. Cilicia; a province of Asia Minor, north-west of Syria.
24 They were glorifying God in me; praised God for the mighty work He had wrought in me.

those of repute added nothing; 7 but, on the contrary, seeing that I had been entrusted with the Gospel of the uncircumcision, as Peter was with that of the circumcision; (8 for He Who wrought for Peter with regard to an apostleship of the circumcision, wrought for me also with regard to the Gentiles). 9 And, perceiving the grace which was given to me, James and Cephas and John, who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas right-hands of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision; 10 only they desired that we should remember the poor, which very thing I was also eager to do. 11 But, when Cephas came to Antioch, I withheld him to the face, because he was blameworthy; 12 for, before certain ones came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles; but, when they came, he was withdrawing and sepa-

2 By revelation; by direct order from God. Privately to those of repute; He reported his teaching and work among the Gentiles privately to those of repute, to avoid the opposition that might arise from the whole mass of Christians, who might not so readily understand his work.
3 Not even Titus ... was compelled to be circumcised; Titus was present at the council of the apostles and elders in Jerusalem, and that council did not require him to be circumcised, though he was a preacher. This fact was pointedly against the position of those Judaizing teachers.
4 And that was because of; that is, this decision regarding Titus was rendered in condemnation of the false brethren, etc.

rationalizing himself, fearing those of the circumcision. 13 And the rest of the Jews also dissembled with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisies. 14 But, when I saw that they were not walking uprightly according to the truth of the Gospel, I said to Cephas in presence of them all, "If you, being a Jew, live as do the gentiles, and not as the Jews, how do you compel the gentiles to live as do the Jews?" 15 We who are by nature Jews, and not sinners from among the gentiles, 16 yet knowing that a man is not justified by works of law, but through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by works of law; because by works of law no flesh shall be justified. 17 But, if while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is then, Christ a minister of sin? It could not be! 18 For, if I am building up again, what I pulled down, I show myself to be a transgressor. 19 For I through law died to law, that I might live to God. 20 I have been crucified with Christ; and no longer am I living, but Christ is living in me; and, in so far as I am now living in flesh, I live in the faith of the Son of God, Who loved me, and gave Himself for me. 21 I do not set aside the grace of God; for, if righteousness is through law, then Christ died needlessly!

CHAPTER III.

1 O foolish Galatians! Who bewitch you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set forth crucified? 2 This only do I wish to learn of you: Did ye receive the Spirit by works of law, or by the hearing of faith? 3 Are ye so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are ye now being made perfect in the flesh? 4 Did ye suffer so many things in vain? if, indeed, it be even in vain. 5 Does He, therefore, Who was supplying to you the Spirit, and was working miracles among you, doing it by works of law, or by the hearing of faith? 6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness. 7 Know, then, that those who are of faith, the same

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

1 Set forth crucified: Paul had preached Christ crucified as the only ground of salvation, without any admixture of legalism. 2 Did ye receive the Spirit; "the promise of the Father." (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4). By works of law; by observing the law of Moses. Or by the hearing of faith; by hearing and accepting the Gospel.

3 Having begun in the Spirit; having begun your Chris-are sons of Abraham. 8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the gentiles through faith, proclaimed beforehand the Gospel to Abraham, saying, “In you shall all the nations be blessed.” 9 So that those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of works of law are under a curse; for it has been written, “Cursed is every one who continues not in all the things written in the book of the law, to do them.” 11 Now that by law no one is justified with God, is evident; because “The righteous one shall live by faith.”

12 Now the law is not of faith; but “He who did them shall live in them.” 13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us; because it has been written, “Cursed is every one who is hung upon a tree”; 14 that to the gentiles the blessing of Abraham might come in Jesus Christ, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I am speaking after the manner of man: even a man’s confirmed covenant no one sets aside, or adds thereto. 16 Now to Abraham were the promises spoken, and to his Seed. He saith not, “And to seeds,” as of many; but as of One, “and to your Seed”; which is Christ. 17 But this I say: A covenant previously confirmed by God, the law, which came into existence four and hundred and thirty years later, does not invalidate, that it should make the promise of no effect. 18 For, if the inheritance is of the law, it is no longer of promise; but God has freely given it to Abraham through promise.

19 What, then, is the law? It was added because of the transgressions, until the Seed should come to Whom it had been promised; having been arranged through angels in the hand of a mediator. 20 Now a mediator is not of one, but God is one. 21 Is the law, then, against the promises of God? It could not be! For, if a law had been given, which was able to make alive, truly righteousness would have been by law; 22 but the Scripture shuts up all things under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. 23 But, before the faith came, we were kept guarded under law, being shut up to the faith about to be revealed. 24 So that the law has become our tutor to lead us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But the faith having come, we are no... longer under a tutor; 26 for ye are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus; 27 for as many of you as were immersed into Christ, did put on Christ. 28 There exists neither Jew nor Greek, there exists neither bond nor free, there exists neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 And, if ye are Christ’s, ye are, consequently, Abraham’s seed, and heirs according to promise.

CHAPTER IV.

1 But I say that, so long as the heir is a child, he differs in nothing from a slave, though he is lord of all; 2 but is under guardians and stewards, until the time appointed by the father. 3 So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elements of the world. 4 But, when the fulness of the time came, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under law, that He might redeem those under law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. 6 And, because ye are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, “Abba,” Father. 7 So that you are no longer a slave, but a son; and, if a son, also an heir through God.

8 But then, indeed, when ye knew not God, ye served those which by nature are no gods; 9 but, after having known God, neither bond nor free, there exists neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. 28 One in Christ; all national and social distinctions, as also that of sex, are obliterated, as marks of superiority, when people accept Christ, and take their places in Him. He becomes their standing before the law, and is, in fact, their life.

29 If ye are Christ’s; belong to Him, and are united to Him by a living faith. Abraham’s seed; all true believers, by virtue of the fact that they believe in Christ, are Abraham’s seed, and heirs of the promise.

or rather having been known by God, how are ye turning back again to the weak and beggarly elements, to which ye desire to be in bondage again? 10 Ye are scrupulously observing days, and months, and seasons, and years! 11 I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have toiled for you in vain. 12 Brethren, I beseech you, become as I am: because I also was as ye are. Ye wronged me in nothing; 13 but ye know that through weakness of the flesh I proclaimed the Gospel to you formerly; 14 and my trial in my flesh ye despised not, nor spurned: but ye received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus.

15 Where, then, is your benediction for me? For I bear you witness that, if possible, plucking out your eyes, ye would have given them to me! 16 So, then, have I become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

1 Or, rudiments.

2 Or, blessing; or, felicitation.

10 Ye observe days, and months, and seasons, and years; such as the ceremonial law required, proving that they had gone under the law.

11 I am afraid of you; he feared for them, that they were depending on the works of the law for salvation, rather than upon Christ alone; in which event, his past labor bestowed upon them would be lost.

12 Become as I am; free in Christ, and no longer in bondage to the law. I was as ye are; I was once enslaved to the law as you now are. This seems to be the meaning, though it is something of a strain on the Greek, to supply "was" in the expression. "I was." Yet, if, in the translation, we supply "am," the face value of the words seem to teach a manifest absurdity. Ye wronged me in nothing; I have no personal grievance to complain of: it is your departure from the Gospel that calls forth my rebuke.

13 Infirmity of the flesh; Paul had a bodily infirmity when he was in Galatia, that might have caused offense to the Galatians, (I Cor. 2:2; II Cor. 11:10; 12:7).

14 Received me. . . as Christ Jesus; with great affection, regard, and confidence.

15 Plucking out your eyes; they were ready to endure any sacrifice to promote his comfort and welfare.
17 They are zealously seeking you, not nobly; they are wishing to shut you out, that ye may zealously seek them. 18 But it is good to be zealously sought in a good thing at all times, and not only when I am present with you, 19 my little children, for whom I am in travail again, until Christ be formed in you! 20 And I was wishing to be present with you now, and to change my voice; because I am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, ye who are wishing to be under law, do ye not hear the law? 22 For it has been written that Abraham had two sons, one by the bond-woman, and one by the free-woman. 23 But the one by the bond-woman has been born after the flesh; and the one by the free-woman, through promise. 24 Which things are an allegory; for these women are two covenants; one, indeed, from mount Sinai, bringing forth into servitude, which is Hagar (for the word Hagar is mount Sinai in Arabia), and corresponds to the present Jerusalem; for she is in bondage with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem which is above is free, which, indeed, is our mother; 27 for it has been written, "Rejoice, O barren, that bear not! Break forth and cry, you that travail not! because many are the children of the desolate, rather than of her who has the husband."

28 But ye, brethren, after the manner of Isaac, are children of promise. 29 But, just as then, the one born after the flesh kept persecuting him born after the Spirit, so also is it now. 30 But what says the Scripture? "Cast out the bond-woman and her son; for the son of the bond-woman shall in nowise inherit with the son of the free-woman." 31 Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a bond-woman, but of the free-woman.

and the one which He made and confirmed with Abraham regarding the promised Seed. Bringing forth into servitude: Hagar was in bondage, and her offspring are in bondage with her. The children of the Mosaic covenant, represented by Hagar, are in bondage under the law.

26 The Jerusalem above: the true spiritual Jerusalem whose center is in Heaven, and whose Head is Christ. True Christians are fitly represented by Sarah and her free offspring. Our mother: all who are in Christ by faith have this Jerusalem as their mother.

27 Written: Isa. 51:1: a prophecy referring to the Christian dispensation, when the gentiles would accept the Gospel. O barren... desolate: the gentiles were barren and desolate, till Christ came. The Jews had God as their husband.

28 We: true believers in Christ.

29 So also is it now; as Ishmael was hostile to Isaac, so the Jews were opposed to Christians; and so, too, sinners and carnal Christians are opposed to Spirit-filled Christians to the present time.

30 The Scripture; Gen. 21:10-12. As the bond-woman and her son were cast out, so all ritualistic or ceremonial observances should be excluded from Christianity; and all who seek justification and salvation through works of law will utterly fail.

ye be circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 And I testify again to every man who is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. 4 Ye were separated from Christ, whoever of you are being justified by law; ye fell out of grace; 5

3 A debtor to do the whole law: receiving circumcision is placing one's self under the law, where the curse will surely overtake him. (ch. 3:10).

4 Ye were separated from Christ; have no part in His redemption; the fact of going back under law puts one out of grace.

CHAPTER V.

1 For freedom did Christ make us free; stand fast, therefore, and be not entangled again in a yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I, Paul, say to you, that, if for we, in the Spirit, wait, by faith, for the hope of righteousness. 6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love.

7 Ye were running well; who hindered you, that ye should not obey the truth? 8 The persuasion is not from Him Who calleth you. 9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump. 10 I have confidence toward you in the Lord, that ye will regard nothing else; but he who is troubling you shall bear his sentence, whosoever he may be. 11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? then the stumbling-block of the cross has been done away! 12 O that those who are unsettling you would even cut themselves off!

13 For ye were called to freedom, brethren; only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, but through love serve one another; 14 for the whole law has been fulfilled in one word, in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." 15 But, if ye bite and devour one another, beware, lest ye be consumed by one another. 16 But I say, walk by the Spirit, and ye will not fulfill the desire of the flesh. 17 For the flesh covets against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary one to the other, that ye may not do the things which ye wish. 18 But, if ye are being led by the Spirit, ye are not under law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, 20 idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, dissensions, factions, 21 envyings, drunkenness, revelings, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, as I also said before, that those practicing such things shall not inherit the Kingdom of God. 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faith, meekness, continence; against such there is no law. 23 And those who are of Christ Jesus crucified the flesh with the passions and desires. 24 If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also walk. 25 Let us not become vain-glorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

NOTES ON CHAPTER VI.

1 Spiritual: advanced in Christian knowledge, experience, and wisdom.
fulfill the law of Christ. 3 For, if any one thinks himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. 4 But let each one prove his own work, and then will he have ground of glorying in respect to himself alone, and not to another. 5 For each one shall bear his own load. 6 But let him who is being taught in the word share with him who is teaching, in all good things. 7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man sows, the same shall he also reap; 8 be cause he that sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that sows to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal. 9 And, in doing what is noble, let us not grow weary; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. 10 So, then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all men, but especially to those of the household of the faith.
11 See with what large letters I wrote to you with my own hand.

1 Gr. The other.

3. Thinks himself to be something; has an exalted opinion of his knowledge or attainments as a Christian. Spiritual pride is a very subtle foe, and should be carefully guarded against.

4 Prove his own work; by comparing it with the word of God. Then; if it answers to the demands of the word, he will have cause of gratitude. In himself alone; in the assurance that his life and work are in harmony with God, and this will humble, instead of exalt him. And not to another; and not in his fancied superiority to any other.

5 Bear his own load; his own responsibility, or his own sin. We may share our brother’s burden of sorrow (v. 2), but we may not share his responsibilities.

6 Those who are taught spiritual things should contribution to the support of those who teach them.

7 God is not mocked; does not allow people to trifle with Him or His requirements.

8 Sows to his flesh; indulges his passions and appetites, (ch. 5:19-21). Of the flesh; as a consequence of sowing to
it. Reap corruption; the ruin of body and soul in hell, as the final outcome. Sows to the Spirit; by yielding his life to His guidance and control, and letting the Spirit develop His fruit in him, (ch. 5:22, 23).

9 In due season; the time for bestowing rewards. (Rev.
22:12).

12 As many as wish to make a fair show in the flesh, these constrain you to be circumcised, only that they may not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. 13 For neither do those themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but they wish you to be circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. 14 But it could not be that I should glory, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which world has become crucified to me, and I to the world. 15 For neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. 16 And as many as shall walk by this rule, peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 Henceforth let no one occasion trouble to me; for I am bearing in my body the brand-marks of Jesus.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

2 Or, whom. 3 Or, creature.

12 A fair show in flesh; in outward forms and ceremonies, and thus to be esteemed by carnal people. That they may not suffer persecution; from the Jews, if they neglect circumcision.

13 Glory in your flesh; in the fact that they had led you under the law, and to join their party.

14 Except in the cross; we may well glory in the cross of Christ, whether it be the cross on which He died, or the one He gives us, and on which He wishes us to die. By which; by which cross, as that which makes the world dead to us, and to the world. Of course, the cross apart from Christ Himself could work no death in us. It is Christ Who superintends the death of those who yield themselves wholly to Him, (II Cor. 4:10, 11).

15 A new creation; that which is wrought in the penit-tent believer by the Holy Spirit. (John 1:13, 3:3, 5; II Cor.
5:17).

16 This rule; the truth he had taught in this epistle.
The Israel of God; all true believers.

17 Let no one occasion trouble to me; such as these false teachers had done. Brand-marks of the Lord Jesus; scars of the wounds he had received in his body because of his attachment to Jesus, and for his zeal in propagating His Gospel. What splendid ornaments are such scars!

EPISTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

It appears that Paul was a prisoner, when he wrote this epistle. (Ch. 3:1; 4:11) either at Rome, or at Csesarea, probably the former. Paul's first visit to Ephesus is recorded in Acts 18:19-21. His stay was brief; and he left Apollo in charge. (vs. 21-26). After visiting Jerusalem and Asia Minor, he returned to Ephesus (Acts 18:1), where he remained three years. (Acts 20:31). On his last visit to Jerusalem, he sailed by Ephesus. (Acts 20:17). It was written probably about A.D. 62 or 63. The object of the epistle is general; the apostle having no error to refute as in his letter to the Galatians and the epistles to the Corinthians. This is one of the profoundest and richest of all his epistles.

EPHESIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints who are in Ephesus, and the faithful in Christ Jesus: 2 Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places 1 in Christ; 4 according as He chose us in Him before the founding of a world, that we should be holy and without blemish before Him in love; 5 having predestinated 2 us to the adoption of sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, 6 to the praise of the glory of His grace, which He graciously bestowed on us in the Beloved; 7 in Whom we have our redemption through His blood,

1 Or, in the heavens. 2 Or, marked out beforehand.

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 And the faithful; these are the believing and obedient ones.

3 In the Heavenly places; the places does not occur in the Greek; and if we translate it Heaven, meaning the place where the whole redemptive scheme originated, we will not miss it far.

4 That we should be holy; not holy in ourselves, but holy in Christ; and made holy as we become partakers of the Divine Nature, (II Peter 1:4).

5 Having predestinated us; having marked us out as objects of His mercy. To Himself; this phrase, should be connected with "adoption of sons."

6 Accepted in the Beloved; in Christ. All believers have their standing before the law in Christ.

7 Through His blood; which made atonement for sin.

8 In all wisdom and understanding; in bestowing all the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace, 8 which He made to superabound toward us in all wisdom and understanding; 9 making known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Him, 10 for a dispensation of the fulness of the seasons, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in 3 the heavens and the things on the earth; in Him, 11 in Whom we also were made a heritage, having been predestinated according to the purpose of Him Who worketh all things after the counsel of His own will; 12 that we might be to the praise of His glory, we who had before hoped in Christ; 13 in Whom ye also—after having heard the word of the truth, the Gospel of your salvation, in Whom having also believed—were sealed with the Holy Spirit wisdom and understanding upon us through the Holy Spirit, as the life of Jesus is reproduced in us.

3 Gr. On.

9 The mystery; explained in v. 10.

10 For a dispensation of the fulness of the seasons; the Christian dispensation introduced when the full time had come. To sum up all things in Christ; to gather together or unite in one Kingdom all beings and worlds in Christ, by putting them under His dominion.

11 Ye were made a heritage; true believers are God's inheritance or heritage in Christ. What infinite love the Father had for us, since it led Him to give His only Son to die for us and redeem us! Having been predestinated according to the purpose; these words indicate a divine purpose based upon God's foreknowledge or omniscience.

12 Wv; referring to the Jews, to whom the Gospel was first preached, and from whom the first fruits were gathered.

13 Ye also; Gentiles. Were sealed; branded or marked for Christ, by receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit.
of promise, 14 which is an earnest of our inheritance until \( \text{the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory.} \)

15 On this account I also, having heard of the faith, on your part, in the Lord Jesus, and the love which ye show towards all the saints, 16 cease not to give thanks on your behalf, making mention \( \text{of you in my prayers;} \) 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of Glory, would give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the full knowledge of Him; 18 the eyes of your heart having been enlightened, that ye may know what is the hope of His calling, what the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, 19 and what the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of the strength of His might, 20 which He wrought in Christ, when He raised Him from the dead, and seated Him at His right hand in the Heavenly places, 21 far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that to come; 22 and He put all things in subjection under His feet, and gave Him as Head over all things to the assembly, 23 which, indeed, is His body, the fulness of Him Who is filling all in all.

CHAPTER II.

1 You also \( \text{did He make alive, when ye were dead in your trespasses and sins,} \) in which ye once walked according to the course \( \text{of this world, according to the prince of the authority of the air, the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience;} \) 3 among whom we also all once lived in the desires of our flesh, doing the will of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest; 4 but God, being rich in mercy, on account of His great love where- with He loved us, 5 even when we were dead in our offenses, made us alive with Christ (by grace ye have been saved), 6 and raised us up with Him, and made us sit with Him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus; 7 that in the ages to come He might show the surpassing riches of His grace in His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. 8 For by grace ye have been saved through faith; and this, not of yourselves, \( \text{it is the gift of God;} \) 9 not of works, lest any one should boast; 10 for we are His workmanship, having been created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God before prepared, that we should walk in them. 11 Wherefore, remember that ye, the gentiles in flesh, who are called uncircumcision by that \( \text{which is called circumcision in flesh made by hand,} \) at that time ye were apart from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and raised Jesus Christ from the dead is at work in every true believer, to make him fit for union in the body of Christ. 21 \( \text{All rule, and authority, and power, and dominion;} \) these words include every order of intelligences in Heaven and on earth. Jesus is above them all.

22 \( \text{Head over all things;} \) all things in the universe. \( \text{To the assembly;} \) to the elect, or ransomed, including all the saved. Here the word assembly is used in its widest sense. Christ, as Head over all things, makes all things subservient to the good of His people.

23 \( \text{His body;} \) the whole assembly is His people. \( \text{The fulness;} \) His body is called His fulness, because He fills all with Himself.

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

1 \( \text{Did He make alive; this verb in the Greek does not appear till we reach v. 5, but it helps the English reader to supply it in v. 1. One is made alive, when he is regenerated, or receives the Christ-life in the new birth.} \)
2 \( \text{Prince of the authority of the air; referring to Satan who has headquarters in the air. He will be cast down after the Rapture. (Rev. 12:9).} \)
3 \( \text{We all; Jews and gentiles.} \)
5 \( \text{Quickened together with Christ; As Christ died for us, so He was raised from the dead in our behalf, and His resurrection life is the life of His people.} \)
6 \( \text{Sit with Him; Christ is seated at the right hand of the Father in our behalf; and we are seated with Him, judicially; having our standing in Him.} \)
8 \( \text{And this; salvation by grace is brought about through faith. Gift of God; salvation with all its accompaniments and blessed consequences is the gift of God.} \)
10 \( \text{His workmanship; God is the Author of our spiritual life, and the Builder of our spiritual character.} \)
11-13 \( \text{Remember; the apostle reminds the brethren at Ephesus of their former wretched and hopeless state, and would have them consider the unspeakable blessedness that had come to them through Christ.} \) strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. 13 But now, in Christ Jesus, ye who were once afar off were made nigh in the blood of Christ. 14 For He is our peace, Who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of the partition, 15 having abolished in His flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments expressed in decrees, that He might make the two one new man in Himself, making peace, and might reconcile both in one body to God through the cross, having slain the enmity thereby; 17 and, coming, He proclaimed the Gospel of peace to you who were afar off, and peace to those who were near; 18 because through Him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. 19 Accordingly, therefore, ye are no longer strangers and sojourners; but ye are fellow-citizens of the saints and of the household of God; 20 having been built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus Himself being the chief cornerstone; 21 in Whom all the building, fitly framed together, is growing up into a holy temple in the Lord; 22 in Whom ye also are being built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

CHAPTER III.

1 For this cause I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus in behalf of you gentiles, 2 if, at least, ye heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which was given to me for you, 3 that by revelation was made known to me the mystery, as I wrote before in brief; 4 respecting which ye can, by reading, perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ; 5 which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it was now revealed to His holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit; 6 that the gentiles are fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partners with us of the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel; 7 of which I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God which was given to me according to the working of His power. 8 To me, who am less than the least of all saints, was this grace given, to proclaim, to the gentiles, the glad tidings of the unsearchable riches of Christ; 9 and to plainly show what is the dispensation of the mystery which from the ages has been hidden away in God, Who made all things; 10 in order that now might be made known to the principalities and authorities in the heavenly places, through the assembly, the manifold wisdom of God, 11 according to a purpose of the ages which He made equal in every way with the believing Jews, (see v. 6). 12 Dispensation of the mystery; perhaps the word administration is better suited to express the idea here than dispensation. The mystery is the same as that referred to above (v. 9), and the unfolding and carrying out of this mystery was a work largely, for the time, assigned to Paul. 13 The principalities and authorities; the different orders or ranks of heavenly beings. (I Peter 1:21). Through the assembly; by God's mighty workings in and through the assembly, or the saints.
made in Christ Jesus our Lord, 12 in Whom we have boldness and access with confidence through the faith of Him. 13 Wherefore, I ask that ye faint not at my tribulations in your behalf, which, indeed, is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees to the Father, 15 from Whom every family in Heaven and on earth is named, 16 that He may grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power through His Spirit as to the inward man; 17 that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that ye, having been rooted and grounded in love, 18 may be strong to apprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth, and length, and height, and depth, 19 and to know the knowledge-surpassing love of Christ, that ye may be filled unto all the fulness of God.

20 Now to Him Who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that is working in us, 21 to Him be the glory in the assembly, and in Christ Jesus, unto all generations of the age of the ages. Amen.

13 My tribulations: the tribulations that came to him on account of preaching the Gospel to the Gentiles. Your: I have no special prominence. Your: I have no special prominence. 14 For this cause: here the apostle resumes the thought he started out with in v. 1. 15 Every family: comprising every different order and rank of holy beings in Heaven and on earth. Is named: bears His name, as belonging to Him. All holy beings, therefore, belong to one great family, being brought into union with God in Christ.

16 Strengthened with power through His Spirit: It is a blessed work of the Spirit to strengthen the believer in whom He is permitted to dwell, unhindered; implying a personal Pentecost. The inward man: "the new man," the Christ-life bestowed in the new birth.

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith: this is not "the new man," or the new nature given in regeneration: but it is Christ Himself, through the mighty work of the Spirit, dwelling and ruling in one's heart. Few seem to have this gracious experience.

18 Rooted and grounded: stable as a tree in a deep, fruitful soil, planted by the river of waters, or solid as a building founded on a rock. Strong to apprehend: to take in the mysteries of redeeming love as seen in Christ.

19 Unto all the fulness of God: having the Holy Trinity—Spirit, Son, and Father—filling one's whole being, and as an ultimate consequence, having the perfect life of Christ developed in the one so filled. (John 14:17-23)

20 Exceeding abundantly above all we ask, or think: our finite minds cannot even imagine the wonderful power of God that is working in him who is filled unto all the fulness of God! This furnishes hope that, in the last years, months, and days, of a fully surrendered believer, God will work mightily to bring such a one up to His standard. This, however, should furnish no reason for loitering in the way, or relaxing one's energies in his onward pressure towards the goal. (Phil. 3:14).
And He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; with a view to the perfecting of the saints for the work of ministry, for the building up of the body of Christ; until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the full knowledge of the Son of God, to a full-grown man—to the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ; that we may no longer be babes, billowy-tossed, and carried about with every wind of teaching, in the sleight of men, in the craftiness suited to the artifice of error; but, speaking the truth in love, may grow up in all things into Him, Who is the Head, Christ; in Whom all the body, fitly framed and knit together through every joint of supply, according to the working in due measure of each single part, secures the growth of the body to the upbuilding of itself in love.

17 This, therefore, I say, and testify in the Lord, that ye no longer walk as the gentiles also walk, in the vanity of their mind, being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their hearts; who, indeed, having become without feeling, put off any characteristic of the self-life by disowning it and giving it over to Christ for Him to cancel it from our being.

20 But ye did not so learn Christ; if, indeed, ye heard Him, and were taught in Him, as truth is in Jesus; that ye put off, as to your former manner of life, the old man, which is corrupt according to the desires of deceit; and that ye be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new man, who after God was created in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

25 Wherefore, having put away falsehood, speak ye truth each one with his neighbor, because we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath; neither give place to the Devil. Let him who stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands that which is good, that he may have to impart to him that has need. Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but whatever is good for the supplying of the need, that it may give grace to those who hear. And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, in Whom ye were sealed unto the day of redemption.

1 Gr. Upbuilding.
31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and reviling, be put away from you, with all wickedness; 32 and become kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God also in Christ forgave you.

CHAPTER V.

1 Become ye, therefore, imitators of God, as beloved children; 2 and walk in love, as Christ also loved you, and delivered Himself up for you, an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odor of sweet smell.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becomes saints; 4 nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not becoming, but rather thanksgiving. 5 For this ye know, assuredly, that no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man (who is an idolater), has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ and God. 6 Let no one deceive you with empty words; for, because of these things, comes the wrath of God upon the sons of disobedience. 7 Do not, therefore, become partakers with them; 8 for ye were once darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord; walk as children of light (9 for the fruit of the light is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), 10 proving what is well-pleasing to the Lord; 11 and have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them; 12 for it is a shame even to speak of the things done by them in secret. 13 But all things, when reproved, are made manifest by the light; for all that makes manifest is light. 14 Wherefore, He saith: "Awake, you who are sleeping; and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine upon you!"

15 Look, therefore, carefully, how ye walk, not as unwise, but as wise, 16 buying up the opportunity, because the days are evil. 17 For this reason, be not foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. 18 And be not drunk with wine, in which is riot, but be filled with the Spirit; 19 speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; 20 giving thanks always for all things, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to God the Father through Him.

NOTES ON CHAPTER V.

1 Imitators of God: In His love to men. It is as we let His love possess us, that we may, in a measure, imitate Him.
2 An odor of sweet smell; pleasing and acceptable to God.
3 Covetousness; a desire for more—usually applied to money or worldly possessions. Craving more is sinful in a pauper or millionaire.
4 Filthiness; obscenity in words or actions. Foolish talking; speaking idle words. How many Christians drive the Spirit from them because of their idle, empty words and silly jestings!
5 Who is an idolater; the covetous man is an idolater. He worships Mammon, and can have no inheritance in the Kingdom of God.
6 Let no man deceive you; by leading you to think that the persons described in v. 5 can enter Heaven.
7 Once darkness; before they accepted Christ they were living in ignorance and sin. Light in the Lord; believing on Christ, they were enlightened, purified, and became reflectors of the light of Christ to the world.
8 Proving; or testing in an experimental way, by yielding the life wholly to God.
9 It is a shame to speak of these things; they are too vile to mention, or even to think of without abhorrence.
10 Are made manifest by the light; by the light that re-proof throws upon them their vileness is exposed. All that makes manifest is light; two readings are possible here: "All that is made manifest is light." The former seems preferable, as it is difficult to see how exposed vileness can itself become light.
11 He saith; God says in the teachings of his word. Awake, you who are sleeping; awake from your death-like slumber in sin and pollution. Arise from the dead; from your position of death in sin, and trust in Jesus who will pardon you, and live His life in you, if you will let Him.
12 Buying up the opportunity; making the most of every opportunity; and even sacrificing all minor interests, that you may make most of your spiritual opportunities. The days are evil; evil surrounds us every day; and, unless we keep our wills centered in Jesus, and firmly set against all evil, we will not make the most of our opportunities.
13 Be not drunk with wine; drunkenness, whether on wine, strong drink, or opiates, is a great sin. In which is riot; the elements of riot are in the wine, and it shows itself in the conduct of the drunken one. Be filled with the Spirit; this is a command, and ought to be obeyed. The Christian should be habitually and freshly filled with the Holy Spirit; and he who fails to live the Spirit-filled life impoverishes himself immeasurably, and curtails his possibilities of greatest usefulness and happiness.
14 Psalms; these were songs accompanying a musical instrument. Hymns and spiritual songs; these were songs that had no relation to musical instruments.
Christ, to God, even the Father; 21 submitting yourselves one to another; yielding cheerful obedience to rightful authority, because God requires it.

22 The wives, to their own husbands, as to the Lord: God has appointed the husband as head of the family, but not as a tyrant. When the husband requires anything of the wife that is contrary to God’s expressed will, she should obey God rather than her husband.

23 Himself the Savior of the body: Christ is the Savior of the assembly—which is His body. He is also the Savior of our individual bodies.

24 In everything; see note on v. 22.

25 Husbands, love your wives, as Christ also loved the assembly; this is a very high standard for husbands, implying great self-sacrifice in the interest of their wives.

26 He who loves his own wife loves himself; referring to the declaration, “They shall be one flesh.” (Gen. 2:24).

CHAPTER VI.

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right. 2 “Honor your father and mother” (which, indeed, is the first commandment with a promise), 3 “that it may be well with you, and that you may live long on the earth.”

4 And, fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, obey your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling.

NOTES ON CHAPTER VI.

1 Obey your parents; here the same limitation exists as in the case of the wife; if the father commands his children to violate the law of God, or to do things manifestly contrary to the will of God, the child should obey God rather than its father. Neither parents nor one’s government itself should be permitted to come in between one and his God.

2 A promise; of long life. (Ex. 29:12).

3 Provocation; not your children; give them no just occasion to be angry, or to feel that they are wronged.

4 Masters according to the flesh; those to whom you owe service, or who, according to human laws, have the legal right to demand your service.

5 Not with eye-service; not merely while they are looking at you, but in their absence as well; not a constrained outward service, but a service proceeding from the heart, out of regard to God.

6 Masters do the same thing to them; adopt the same principles as those enjoined on servants; be honest, kind-hearted, just, and loving. In your dealings with them. Master and servant have a common Savior and a common Judge, Who has no respect to the person of one more than to the other.
Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of His might. 11 Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the Devil; 12 because to us the struggle is not against blood and flesh, but against the principalities, against the authorities, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. 13 On this account, take up the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day; and, having fully accomplished all, to stand. 14 Stand, therefore, having girded your loins about with truth, and having put on the breast-plate of righteousness, 15 and having shod your feet with the preparation of the Gospel of peace; 16 withal having taken up the shield of faith, with which ye will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. 17 And receive the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: 18 with all prayer and supplication praying at every opportunity in the Spirit, and watching thereunto in all perseverance and supplication for all the saints; and on my behalf that utterance may be given to me, in opening my mouth to make known with boldness the mystery of the Gospel, 20 for which I am an ambassador in chains, that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But, that ye also may know my affairs, what I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will make all things known to you; 22 whom I sent to you for this very purpose, that ye may know our affairs, and that he may encourage your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ in incorruption.

10 Be strong in the Lord; strong to resist evil, and to overcome every foe within and without. This strength comes from God. And, if one is vitally united to Christ by a living faith, he will be strong to do all that Christ requires at his hands.

11 Put on the whole armor of God; put on the panoply of God. Wiles; methods, strategies, snares, etc.

12 The struggle; conflict, contest, or wrestling. Not with blood and flesh; weak mortals like ourselves. The principalities . . . authorities . . . world-rulers of this darkness; the various orders of evil spirits that rule the world. Spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places; meaning Satan and his wicked armies that inhabit the air. (see note on ch. 2:20).

13 The whole armor; the panoply; viz., the full armor provided for the believer in the Gospel of Christ. In the evil day; when Satan brings on the battle, and one is tempted to sin, or assaulted in spirit, soul, or body.

14 Having girded your loins about with truth; alluding to the girdle of the soldier, which he wore about his loins for strength. The Christian soldier has truth—divine truth—as his girdle. The breast-plate of righteousness; the righteousness of Christ inwrought in the believer in whose heart Christ rules.

15 Having shod your feet; after the fashion of a soldier who has put on his military shoes. The preparation of the Gospel of peace; the inward preparation, or readiness of mind and heart which the Gospel of peace bestows. (Phil. 4:7).
EPISTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

Philippi was a city of Macedonia, situated on a plain ten miles north-west of Neapolis, its port. The account of the planting of the Gospel in Philippi is recorded in Acts 16:12-40, during which visit Paul and Silas were so cruelly treated, and so miraculously delivered from the custody of the infuriated populace. In going and returning from Corinth, Paul visited the Philippian brethren again. (Acts 20:1-6). The occasion of the present epistle was the contribution sent by the Philippian brethren for Paul’s relief while a prisoner at Rome. (Phil. 4:18). It was probably written from 61 to 62 A. D., and, as some think, during his first imprisonment; though others claim that it was written during his second imprisonment.

PHILIPPIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons: Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you—always, in every supplication of mine on behalf of you all, making supplication with joy—on account of your fellowship for the Gospel, from the first day until now; having become persuaded of this very thing, that He Who began in you a good work will perfect it until the day of Jesus Christ; even as it is right for me to think this in behalf of you all; because ye have me in your heart, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Gospel, all of you being partakers with me of the grace. 8 For God is my witness, how I long for you all in the tender affections of Christ Jesus.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in full knowledge and all discernment; so that ye may approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be pure and without offense to the day of Christ; 11 being filled with the fruit of righteousness, which is through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I wish you to know, brethren, that the things relating to me have resulted rather in the furtherance of the Gospel; 13 that my bonds became manifest in Christ in the whole pretorium, and to all the rest; 14 and that the greater part of the brethren, having become confident in the Lord by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word of God without fear. 15 Some, indeed, preach Christ even because of envy and strife; and some also of good-will; 16 the one, from love, knowing that I am set for the defense of the Gospel; 17 but the other proclaim Christ of contention, not sincerely, thinking to add tribulation to be, that they were to test or prove the things that differ, so as to approve the good, and reject the evil.

12 The things relating to me; my imprisonment and all the circumstances attending it.

13 My bonds became manifest in Christ; not merely his bonds, but his bonds in Christ, became manifest. In the whole pretorium; meaning, likely, the pretorian camp, or the camp of the emperor’s body-guard.

14 Having become confident by my bonds; by seeing how God protected and supported Paul, and gave efficacy to his preaching, even as a prisoner.

15 Envy and strife: envy towards Paul for his influence, and a desire to build up a party against him. No doubt, these were the Judaizing teachers who opposed Paul in Corinth, and did such fearful work among the assemblies in Galatia.

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

5 Your fellowship for the Gospel; their interest in the Gospel, and in its proclamation in the world.

6 Will perfect it; that is, will perfect the good work He began in you. Until the day of Jesus Christ; the day of His coming for His people.

7 Because ye have me in your heart; the Greek would justify this rendering, “Because I have you in my heart”; but the other accords better with the context.

9 That your love may abound . . . in full knowledge and all discernment; love, thus accompanied by a full knowledge of the truth and a spirit of correct discernment, is one of the highest spiritual attainments. Love, without these two accompaniments, is blind, and may lead to many excesses.

10 Approve things that are excellent; the idea seems to be, that they were to test or prove the things that differ, so as to approve the good, and reject the evil.

12 The things relating to me; my imprisonment and all the circumstances attending it.

13 My bonds became manifest in Christ; not merely his bonds, but his bonds in Christ, became manifest. In the whole pretorium; meaning, likely, the pretorian camp, or the camp of the emperor’s body-guard.

14 Having become confident by my bonds; by seeing how God protected and supported Paul, and gave efficacy to his preaching, even as a prisoner.

15 Envy and strife: envy towards Paul for his influence, and a desire to build up a party against him. No doubt, these were the Judaizing teachers who opposed Paul in Corinth, and did such fearful work among the assemblies in Galatia.

2 Or, prove. 3 Or, to stir up.
my bonds. 18 What then? save that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is being proclaimed; and in this I rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. 19 For I know that this will turn out for my salvation, through your supplication and a supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ; 20 according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I shall in nothing be put to shame, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether through life, or through death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22 But if it be to live in flesh, this is to me a fruit of labor; and what I shall choose I know not; 23 but I am constrained by the two; having the desire to depart and be with Christ, for it is far better; 24 but to abide in flesh is more needful for you. 25 And, having become assured of this, I know that I shall abide, and continue with you all for your progress and joy in the faith, 26 that your glorying may abound in Jesus Christ in me through my presence with you again.

27 Only demean yourselves in a manner worthy of the Gospel of Christ; that, whether coming and seeing you, or being absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye are standing fast in one spirit, with one soul striving together for the faith of the Gospel; 28 and in nothing terrified by the adversaries; which, indeed, to them is a token of destruction, but of your salvation, and this from God; 29 but to you it was granted as a favor in behalf of Christ, not only to believe on Him, but in His behalf to suffer also; 30 having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear of in me.

18 In pretense; such as the false teachers used, covering up their real designs.
19 For my salvation; in the widest sense; vindicating his apostleship as genuine, and his teachings as approved of God. Through your supplication; Paul hoped to be helped mightily through their prayers for him.
20 Christ shall be magnified in my body; in what shall befall me.
21 For me to live is Christ; Christ had come into Paul to live, (Gal. 2:20); and now the apostle's living was Christ manifested in him. To die is gain; it would have contributed to the apostle's happiness to die, and go to live with Christ.
22 This is the fruit of my labor; this is the way in which my labor can be fruitful to others.
23 Constrained by the two; strongly drawn both ways. Having the desire to depart and be with Christ; Paul saw that death would be followed by an immediate departure in Christ Jesus; 6 Who, existing originally in the form of God, accounted it not a prize to be equal with God, 7 but emptied Himself, taking a slave's form, coming to be in the likeness of men; 8 and, being found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself, becoming obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. 9 Wherefore also God highly exalted Him, and bestowed upon Him the name which is above every name; 10 that, in the name of Jesus, every knee should bow, of beings in Christ Jesus; 6 Accustomed it not a prize; or something to be eagerly grasped, because, in fact, He was equal with the Father. (Isa. 5:6; John 1:1-4; Hebr. 1:8). Emptyed Himself; for the time He relinquished the glory which He had with the Father before the world was (John 17:5), and His vast riches. (II Cor. 8:9).
9 Highly exalted Him; as Mediator, and Head of all things to the universal assembly. (Matt. 28:18; Heb. 1:3). 10 All beings in heaven and on earth will worship Jesus. (Rom. 14:11).
in Heaven, and on earth, and under the earth, 11 and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father.

12 So then, my beloved, as ye always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; 13 for it is God Who is working in you both to will and to work for His good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings; 15 that ye may become blameless and harmless, children of God, irreproachable in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye appear as luminaries in the world, 16 holding forth the word of life, for an occasion of glorying to me at the day of Christ, that I ran not in vain, neither labored in vain. 17 But even if I am offered as a libation upon the sacrifice and ministry of your faith, I rejoice, and I rejoice with you all; 18 and in the same thing do ye also rejoice, and rejoice with me.

19 But I am hoping in the Lord Jesus shortly to send Timothy to you, that I also may be cheerful, when having known the things concerning you. 20 For I have no one like-minded, who, indeed, will sincerely care for your interests; 21 for all are seeking their own, not the things of Jesus Christ. 22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a child with a father, he served with me in furtherance of the Gospel. 23 Him, indeed, therefore, I hope to send immediately, as soon as I may look away from the things which concern me; 24 but I trust in the Lord that I myself also shall come shortly. 25 Yet I deemed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and fellow-worker, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger and minister to my need; 26 since he was longing after you all, and was in great distress, because ye heard that he was sick. 27 For, in fact, he was sick, near to death; but God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 I sent him, therefore, the more urgently, that, seeing him again, ye may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful. 29 Receive him, therefore, in the Lord with all joy, and hold such in honor; 30 because, for the work of Christ, he came near to death; impelling his soul, that he might fill up your lack of ministry toward me.

CHAPTER III.

1 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you to me, indeed, is not irksome, while for you it is safe.

2 Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil-workers, beware of the mutilation.
3 For we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God, and glory in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in flesh: 4 though I might have confidence even in flesh; if any other man supposes that he has occasion for confidence in flesh, I more: 5 circumcised the eighth day, of the race of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; 6 as to zeal, persecuting the assembly; as to the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.
7 But what things were gain to me, these I accounted loss for Christ. 8 Nay, more, I even account all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I suffered the loss of all things, and account them refuse, that I may gain Christ, 9 and be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is of law, but that which is through faith in Christ—the righteousness which is of God by faith; 10 that I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death; 11 if by any means I may attain to the out-resurrection from the dead. 12 Not that I already obtained, or have already been made perfect; but I am pressing on, if I may lay hold of that for which I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus. 13 Brethren, I do not account myself to have laid hold of it; but one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and reaching forth to the things before, 14 I am pressing on toward the mark, for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. 15 Let us, therefore, as many as are perfect, think so; and, if in anything ye think differently, even this God will reveal to you; 16 nevertheless, whereunto we advanced, by the same rule let us walk. 17 Brethren, become imitators together of me, and mark those who so walk, as ye have us as an example. 18 For many are walking, of whom I often told you, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ, 19 whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their one's attachment to Christ and His cause. Being conformed to His death; Christ's death in our behalf was perfect; and He wishes us to be conformed to His death, to the end that His perfect resurrection life may be imparted to us. (I Cor. 4:10, 11). The extent of one's death (to self and to all out of harmony with God) measures the extent of the Christ-life in one.
11 May attain to the out-resurrection from the dead: the apostle wished to be a full overcomer; and this would give him a special resurrection, which would insure him a place in the throne of Jesus. (Rev. 3:21).
12 Not that I already obtained; the full resurrection life of Jesus. There were heights in the divine life that he had not yet scaled. Lay hold of: seize upon, possess, and realize.
13 I account not myself to have laid hold of; the fulness that was possible to him, he had not yet realized.
14 I am pressing toward the mark; the goal at the end of the course. For the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus; this prize is perfect likeness to Jesus Christ, (Eph. 4:13). God's high calling holds out this high Ideal to the believer.
15 As many as are perfect; if any have already reached perfection, it is still safe for him to keep pressing forward. Think this; let him cherish the thought just expressed above. Think differently; if any did not see just as the apostle did on this subject, God was ready to give him light.
16 Let us walk by the same rule; Christians of the same grade of advancement should be able to walk together in perfect harmony.
19 Who are thinking of earthly things; have their minds fixed upon temporal matters.

3 Dogs; false, fighting teachers. The mutilation; the advocates of circumcision, who believed in cutting or mutilating the bodies of people as a condition of salvation; meaning the Judaizing teachers.
3 We; true believers in Christ. Are the circumcision; have the true circumcision which is of the heart; being cut off from the guilt of sin through faith in Christ. No confidence in flesh; in any natural goodness, or works of law, as a ground of salvation.
5 As to the law; as he viewed it before his conversion.
6 As to the righteousness which is in the law; the righteousness which, as a Pharisee, he supposed his legal observances brought him.
7 What things were gain to me; the things that, he supposed, made him righteous, and gave him importance before God and men. Loss; as of no importance, utterly worthless as helps to salvation.
8 I account all things to be loss; all ritual observances, and all works of law are utterly worthless as aids to salvation. The excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus; to know Christ is most excellent knowledge; and, when one comes to know Christ truly all other knowledge dwindles into insignificance. That I may gain Christ; gain His presence and rule in heaven, and become a partaker of the Divine Nature (II Pet. 1:4), and of God's holiness. (Heb. 12:10), and reach His full stature (Eph. 4:13).
10 Know Him; Christ in all His full provisions for spirit, soul, and body. The power of His resurrection; by partaking, more and more, of His resurrection life. The fellowship of His sufferings; the patient endurance of persecutions, tribulations, and every sort of ill, because of transform the body of our humiliation into conformity to the body of His glory, according to the working whereby He is able also to subject all things to Himself.

21 Transform the body of our humiliation; at His coming for the ready ones, (1 Thess. 4:15-17; 1 Cor. 15:51, 52), The body of His glory; the glorious body of Christ. What infinite grace to give us bodies like His own! It will be blessed to exchange our mortal body for one like His.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Therefore, my brethren, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, beloved.

2 I entreat Euodia, and I entreat Syntyche, to think the same thing in the Lord.

3 Yea, I request you also, true yoke-fellow, help these women, who, indeed, labored with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and my remaining fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. 5 Let your forbearance be known to all men: the Lord is near!

6 Be anxious for nothing; but, in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; 7 and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honorable, whatsoever things are rightous, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. 9 The things also, which ye learned, and received, and heard, and saw in me, these practice; and the God of peace will be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at length ye revived your thought in my behalf, for whom ye were taking thought, but ye lacked opportunity. 11 Not that I am speaking in respect of want; for I learned in whatsoever circumstances I am, to be content. 12 I both know how to be humbled, and I know how to abound: in everything, and in all things, I have learned both to be well fed, and to be hungry, both to abound, and to be in want. 13 I am strong enough for all things in Him Who strengtheneth me. 14 Notwithstanding, ye did well, in sharing with me in my tribulation. 15 And know ye also, Philippians, that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I went forth from Macedonia, no assembly had fellowship with me in the

NOTES ON CHAPTER IV.

1 So stand fast in the Lord; as those whose citizenship is in Heaven, and who have such a glorious destiny awaiting them.

2 Euodia . . . Syntyche; two Christian women, who lived at Philippi, who seem to have been at variance.

3 True yoke-fellow; these words may be addressed to Epaphroditus; but this is not certain. Help these women; the two women named in v. 2. Who, indeed, labored with me in the Gospel; the Greek indicates that these women waged a combat conjointly with the apostle, in furtherance of the Gospel. Many women have been skillful soul-winners, and some have been successful in piloting weary pilgrims into Beulah Land.

5 Forbearance; your moderation in your dealings with others; gentle, kind, easy to be entreated.

6 Be anxious for nothing; anxiety is a sin, being a product of unbelief, or of distrust in the providence of God.

7 The peace of God; God's peace He bestows upon those who yield their being all to Him. Will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus; guard them from all outward temptations and surprises, and keep them securely shut up in Christ.

8 Think on these things; that is, the things that are true, honorable, rightous, pure, and of good report. If there be any virtue; the apostle does not mean to suggest a doubt as to whether there is such a thing as virtue; but he meant to emphasize the fact, and upon this, to urge the Philippians to think of what he was saying.

10 Revived your thought in my behalf; in sending him aid by Epaphroditus. Ye lacked opportunity; Paul was far separated from them, and they had few opportunities for helping him.

11 In respect of want; it was not because of any want that the apostle wrote thus to the Philippians.

12 To be humbled; to be brought low by reason of having but little. To abound; to have more than enough to supply his wants. I have learned; literally, have been initiated, as into a great secret, of which the world knows nothing, viz., how to bear prosperity with meekness, and adversity with contentment.

13 I am strong enough for all things; to which God hath called me.

15 In the beginning of the Gospel; when he first preached to them. Had fellowship with me; by sending him needed help.
matter of giving and receiving, but ye only; 16 because even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again to my need. 17 Not that I am seeking for the gift; but I seek for the fruit that abounds to your account. 18 But I have all, and abound; I have been filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things sent from you, an odor of sweet smell, an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God. 19 But my God will liberally supply all your need according to the riches of His glory in Christ Jesus.

20 Now to our God and Father be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren who are with me salute you.

22 All the saints salute you, but especially those who are of Caesar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

17 Not that I am seeking for the gift: he was not writing thus, that they might bestow gifts upon him; but he saw in such gifts a fruit that was set to the account of the donors.

19 All your need: all our needs, so to speak, are stored up in Christ; and, if our lives are wholly subordinated to Him, and we have permitted Him to place us in His program for our lives; and, if we are absolutely obedient to Him, and pliable in His hands, our utmost need for spirit, soul, and body, will be supplied.

22 Caesar's household: members of the household of the Roman emperor, who had espoused the Christian faith.
COLOSSIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy, the brother, 2 to the saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are in Colosse: Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father.

We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4 having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have toward all the saints, 5 because of the hope laid up for you in Heaven, of which ye heard before in the word of the truth of the Gospel, 6 which is present among you, even as it is in all the world bearing fruit and increasing, as it does in you also, since the day ye heard and knew the grace of God in truth; 7 even as ye learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant, who is for us a faithful minister of Christ, 8 who also made known to us your love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, cease not praying for you, and asking that ye may be filled with the full knowledge of His will, in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, 10 to walk worthily of the Lord to all pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work, and growing in the knowledge of God; 11 strengthened with all power, according to the might of His glory, unto all patience and long-suffering with joy; 12 giving thanks to the Father, Who made us meet for the portion of the inheritance of the saints in light; 13 Who delivered us out of the dominion of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of His love; 14 in Whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins; 15 Who is the image of the invisible God, Primal Source of all

1 First-born Creator.

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

5 Because of the hope: their faith and love, spoken of in v. 4, had a favorable position for growth and vigorous exercise in the hope of the glorious inheritance awaiting them.

6 Bearing fruit: wherever the Gospel is faithfully preached and accepted, fruitage will appear.

7 Epaphras: the teacher and minister of the Colossian brethren, but with Paul at the time this letter was written.

8 Love in the Spirit: the Spirit is the dispenser of love to believers, (Rom. 5:5).

9 Spiritual understanding: power to understand spiritual things.

10 Unto all pleasing: pleasing to God in every way.

11 Patience: endurance of trials without complaint.

12 Make us meet for the portion: prepared us to receive this portion of the glorious inheritance awaiting the saints.

13 The dominion of darkness: Satan's domain.

15 Image of the invisible God: Jesus Christ is the Image of His Father. Primal Source, or Primal Creator. That the word Prototokos should have some such meaning as Primal Source, or Primal Creator, seems apparent from the verse that follows it; for to translate it "First-born," and then add the words, "Because in Him we were created all things," etc., can scarcely be conceived of as making any sense; whereas, if it is translated as above suggested, it not only makes sense, but it is in perfect harmony with John 1:3; Heb. 1:2, and Rev. 3:14.

The difficulty has grown out of the accent of the adjective Prototokos; the Lexicographers and editors of the creation; 16; because in Him were all things created, in the heavens, and upon the earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers—all things have been created through Him, and for Him: 17 and He is before all things, and in Him all things have held together. 18 And He is the Head of the body, the assembly; Who is the Beginning, the First-born from the dead, that in all things He may be preeminent; 19 because it was pleasing that in Him all the fulness should dwell; 20 and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, having made peace through the blood of His cross; through Him, whether the things on the earth, or the things in the heavens. 21 And you, being in time past alienated and enemies in your mind in evil works, 22 yet now did He reconcile in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and without blemish, and irreproachable, before Him; 23 if, at least, ye continue in the faith, founded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the Gospel, which ye heard, which was preached in all creation under the heaven, of which I, Paul, was made a minister.

24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings in your behalf, and fill up in turn the deficiencies of the tribulations of Christ in my flesh for the sake of His body, which is the assembly; 25 of which I was made a minister, according to the dispensation of God, which was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, 26 the mystery which has been hidden from the ages and from the generations, but was now made manifest to His saints; 27 to whom God willed to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory; 28 Whom we proclaim, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ; 29 to which end I am toiling also, striving according to His working, which is working in me with power.

CHAPTER II.

1 For I wish you to know how great a conflict I am having for you, and those in Laodicea, and as many as have not seen

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

1 Conflict: alluding to what was said in v. 29 of the first chapter.

2 Knit together in love: bound together, as it were, in a bundle with divine love-cords. This would bring them comfort. Unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding: these words show the end to which such a union in love tends. The apostle means that understanding of knowledge of the mystery of God, even Christ, in Whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden away. This I say, that no one may delude you with persuasive speech; for even if I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the Spirit, rejoicing, and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As, therefore, ye received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in Him; having been rooted and being built up in Him, and being established in the faith as ye were taught, abounding with thanksgiving.

8 Beware, lest there should be any one who makes a spoil of you through his philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not according to Christ; because in Him dwells all the fulness of the God-head bodily; and ye have been made complete in Him, Who is the Head of all principality and power; in Whom ye were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hand, in the putting off of the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ; having been buried with Him in your immersion, in which ye were also raised with Him through faith in the working of God, Who raised Him from the dead; and you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, did He make alive with Him; having freely forgiven us all our trespasses; having blotted out the hand-writing in decrees against us, which was contrary to us, and He has taken it out of the midst, nailing it to the cross; having despoiled the principalities and the powers, He made an example of them, celebrating a triumph over them in it.

16 Let no one, therefore, judge you in food, or in drink, or in respect of a feast, or a new moon, or sabbaths, which are a shadow of things to come, but the body is Christ’s. Let no one rob you of your prize, wishing to do it in humility and in a worshipping of angels, speculating about the things which He has seen, being vainly puffed up by the mind of His flesh, and not holding fast the Head from Whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and bands, increases with the increase of God.

1 Or, stored up. 2 Or, elements.

3 Or, by. 4 Or, decide against.

13 Dead; the sinner in the natural state is represented as dead. In trespasses; or by trespasses. Rather, it appears that in trespasses corresponds better with the facts; for every one is dead spiritually, even before he commits any overt act of disobedience.

14 The hand-writing in decrees; the ceremonial law, which most Jews interpreted according to the letter, and not in their true spiritual import. Contrary to us; burdensome, and against true Christian liberty. Nailing it to the cross; thus abrogating, or annulling it by His death on the cross.

15 Having despoiled the principalities and powers; Christ, by His death and resurrection, despoiled the rulers—the under-magnates of Satan—of their power to lord it over true believers; having conquered all these for His true followers, (John 12:31; 16:11). Made an example of them; led them as captives, after the manner of ancient conquerors. (Eph. 4:8). In it; in His death on the cross.

16 Judge you; pronounce you good or bad, according to the standard of the ceremonial law. Do not enter trial under that law, because it has no bearing on you at all.

17 A shadow; of the Messiah; pointing to Him as the only and all-sufficient Redeemer and Savior. The body is Christ’s; Christ is the substance, of which the law was a shadow.

18 Let no one rob you of your prize; your liberty and all-sufficiency in Christ. A worshipping of angels; probably meaning those who seek to worship God through the medium of angels, or any agency other than Christ.

19 Head; Christ. The body; all true believers. The increase of God; the increase which God bestows, (Gal. 5:22, 23).
20 If ye died with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as if living in the world, do ye subject yourselves to decrees. 21 "Handle not, taste not, touch not," (22 which are all for destruction in the using), according to the commandments

20 If ye died with Christ; compare Rom. 6:3-11. The rudiments of the world: Mosaic law. Why, therefore, as if living in the world; and not dead with Christ, should they subject themselves to decrees.

21 "Handle not, touch not;" these were specimens of Jewish commands which tended to enslave them in regard to meats.

CHAPTER III.

1 If, therefore, ye were raised up with Christ, seek the things above, where Christ is, seated on the right hand of God. 2 Keep thinking of the things above, not of the things on the earth. 3 for ye died, and your life has been hid with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, our Life, shall be manifested, then shall ye also with Him be manifested in glory.

5 Make dead, therefore, your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which, indeed, is idolatry; 6 on account of which things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience; 7 in which things ye also formerly walked, when ye were living in these things. 8 But now do ye also put away all these:

1 Some MSS. omit, upon the sons of disobedience.

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

1 Raised up with Christ: a) your representative. Christ died for us; and, judicially, we died in Him; He was raised for us, and, judicially, we were raised in Him. (see Eph. 2:5; 6; Rom. 6:3-11).

3 Ye died; in the sense above explained; or it may also refer to their actual death to the love of sin, when they accepted Christ as their Savior. Your life; your new life. which was given in the second birth. Coloss. 3:3, 5, 36; 5:24; 6:40; I John 5:11, 12. Hid with Christ in God: the new life is in Christ, and Christ is God.

4 Christ, our life: Christ is the Christian's life; and one is a Christian only as Christ's life exists in him. Shall be manifested: shall come for His saints. Ye also; all the members of Christ's body will ultimately appear with him in glory.

5 Make dead; since ye died with Christ, now put to death all the members of your body that lead to excess and sin. The death here spoken of, however, is not a blotting out of these members, but subjecting all wrong action in them to death. Every excessive or wrong indulgence of any member is here forbidden; and the principle of sin that leads to wrong indulgence should be stricken from our being, and all our members should be dead to all such indulgence. It is not the blotting out of the members themselves, but the cancellation, rather, of the sin-principle and teachings of men? 23 Which things, having, indeed, a show of wisdom, in will-worship, humility, and severe treatment of the body, are not of any value, against the indulgence of the flesh.

5 Or, honor.

22 All for destruction in the using; these meats, when eaten, would pass away, having no vital relation to their spiritual being.

23 A show of wisdom; an empty pretense of wisdom; in three things: viz., will-worship; something of man's invention, not required by God; humility; a vain show of it; and severe treatment of the body; all this to please the flesh.

anger, wrath, malice, reviling, shameful talk out of your mouth. 9 Lie not one to another, having put off the old man with his practices, and having put on the new man who is being renewed unto full knowledge, according to the image of Him Who created him; 11 where there is no Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondman, freeman; but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on, therefore, as God's elect, holy and beloved, tender affections of compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, long-suffering; (13 bearing with one another, and freely forgiving one another, if any one have a complaint against any; even as the Lord freely forgave you, so also do ye): 14 and over all these put on love, which is the uniting-bond of perfect-from any participation in the government of the body, (see Rom. 6:13, 19).

2 Or, doings. 3 Or, a heart.

Having put off; in purpose and in attitude. The old man; the principles, habits, and evil tendencies, that control the unregenerate. Perhaps the whole idea would be expressed in the word, depravity. Of course, if the "old man" in the case of these Colossian brethren, had been absolutely and perfectly put off, all these inhumanities would have been unnecessary.

19 Having put on the new man; in accepting Christ as their Savior, they received the new life, or Christ-life; and the position of every one who has this Christ-life in him is, that he has put on Christ—he has taken Him as his ideal, and his life; and now it is the business of his life to let this new life grow, until it reaches the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.

11 Greek . . . Jew; all grades and orders of men, when born of the Spirit, have equal privileges and rights in Christ, all being members of the one body.

12 Put on. . . tender affections of compassion, kindness, humility, long-suffering; the believer, yielding up to death, all sinful elements in his being, should depend upon the Holy Spirit to work in him all these noble elements, thus becoming more like Christ.

14 Love. . . the uniting-bond of perfectness; that is, love binds together all the other graces, into one whole, thus making the Christian character complete.
15 And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, unto which also ye were called in one body; and become thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts, to God. 17 And whatsoever ye do in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves to your husbands, as it was fitting in the Lord. 19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter toward them. 20 Children, obey your parents in all things; for this is well pleasing in the Lord. 21 Fathers, provoke not your children, lest they be disheartened. 22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing the Lord. 23 Whatever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to men; 24 knowing that from the Lord ye shall receive the recompense of the inheritance: ye are doing service to the Lord, Christ. 25 For he that does wrong shall receive back the wrong which he did; and there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Masters, render justice and equity to your servants, knowing that ye also have a Master in Heaven.
2 Persevere in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; 3 at the same time praying for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ (because of which I have also become bound), 4 that I may make it manifest as I ought to speak.
5 Walk in wisdom toward those without, buying up the opportunity. 6 Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer each one.
7 All the things relating to me Tychicus will make known to you, the beloved brother, and faithful minister, and fellow-servant in the Lord; 8 whom I sent to you for this very purpose, that ye may know the things that concern us, and that he may comfort your hearts; 9 together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is from among you; they will make known to you all things here. 10 Aristarchus, my fellow-captive, salutes you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas, concerning whom ye received commandments (if he come to you, receive him), 11 and Jesus, who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision: these only are my fellow-workers in the interests of the Kingdom of God, who, indeed, became a comfort to me.
12 Epaphras, who is from among you, salutes you, a servant of Christ Jesus, always striving in your behalf in his prayers, that ye may stand perfect and fully assured in all the will of God. 13 For I bear him heart would supply. Seasoned with salt; not silly and profane, but helpful and edifying.
7 Things relating to me; as a prisoner.
8 Whom I sent; Tychicus was the bearer of this epistle to the Colossians, as also that of the Ephesians. (Eph. 6:21).
9 Onesimus; see Phil. 16. 17. 21.
10 Mark; the author of the second Gospel. Ye received commandments; possibly in connection with the contention that arose between Paul and Barnabas in regard to him. (Acts 15:37. 39).
11 Of the circumcision; Jews.
12 Laodicea . . . Hierapolis; cities of Phrygia, in the vicinity of Colosse.
witness, that he has much concern in behalf of you, and those in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis. 14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, salute you. 15 Salute the brethren in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the assembly in her house. 16 And, when the letter may be read among you, cause that it be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans, and that ye also read the one from Laodicea. 17 And say to Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you received in the Lord, that you fulfill it."

18 The salutation, with my hand, of Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you.

1 Some Mss. have his.

14 Luke; the author of the third Gospel. The beloved physician; there is no proof that he ever practiced medicine after he became a disciple of Jesus. Demas; Phile. 24; II Tim. 4:10.

15 The assembly in her house; a true Gospel assembly, or ecclesia, may be held in a private house. The text of Westcott & Hort, which, upon the whole, we deem the best, treats Nymphas as a woman, in whose house an assembly met for worship.

16 That ye also read the one from Laodicea; this epistle to the Laodiceans failed to be preserved with the other epistles of Paul.

17 Archippus; Phile. 2. The ministry which you received in the Lord; the true ministry is something that God bestows on those whom He wishes to preach His Gospel; and those who have received this ministry should make it the chief object of their lives to fulfill it with the utmost fidelity.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, and Sylas, and Timotheus, to the assembly of Thessalonians in God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you, and peace.

2 We give thanks to God at all times for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; remembering, without ceasing, your hope of faith, and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father; knowing, brethren, beloved of God, your election; because our Gospel came not to you in word only, but in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance; even as ye know what manner of men we became toward you, for your sake. And ye became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much tribulation with joy of the Holy Spirit; so that ye became a model to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you has sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith toward God has gone forth; so that we have no need to speak anything; for they themselves report, concerning us, what manner of entrance we had to you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve a living and true God, and to wait for His Son from Heaven, Whom He raised from the dead, Jesus, Who delivers us from the coming wrath.

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 The assembly of Thessalonians in God: not only must the individual Christian derive his life from God, but every assembly has its life in Him.
2 Work of faith: work growing out of faith, or resulting from it. Labor of love: labor prompted by love. Patience of hope: patience sustained by hope.
3 Knowing your election: knowing that God had chosen them, of which their acceptance and treatment of the Gospel were proof.
4 In power and in the Holy Spirit: when one preaches in the power of the Holy Spirit, he has much boldness and assurance as to the truth of the Gospel.
5 In much tribulation: owing to the fierce opposition and persecutions they endured. With joy of the Holy Spirit: the joy which the Spirit imparts.

CHAPTER II.

1 For ye yourselves, brethren, know our entrance to you, that it has not become vain; but, having suffered bereavement, even as ye know what manner of men we became toward you, for your sake. And ye became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much tribulation with joy of the Holy Spirit; so that ye became a model to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you has sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith toward God has gone forth; so that we have no need to speak anything; for they themselves report, concerning us, what manner of entrance we had to you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve a living and true God, and to wait for His Son from Heaven, Whom He raised from the dead, Jesus, Who delivers us from the coming wrath.

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

nor in guile; 4 but even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Gospel, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, Who proveth our hearts. 5 For neither, at any time, did we use a word of flattery, as ye know, nor a semblance of covetousness, God is witness: 6 nor seeking glory of men, neither from you, nor from others; though able to be in authority, as apostles of Christ. 7 But we became gentle in the midst of you, as when a nurse cherishes her own children: 8 so, being affectionately desirous of you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not only the Gospel of God, but also our own souls, because ye became dear to us. 9 For ye remember, brethren, our labor and toil; working night and day, that we might not be burdensome to any of you, we preached to you the Gospel of God. 10 Ye are witnesses, and God, how piously and righteously and unblamably we behaved toward you who believe; 11 as ye know how we dealt with each one of you, as a father with his own children, exhorting you, and encouraging you, and testifying, 12 that ye should walk worthy of God, Who is calling you into His own Kingdom and glory.

2 Or, burdensome.

5 A semblance of covetousness; not the least tinge of personal greed.

6 Able to be in authority; to exercise authority over you, especially in requiring a support at your hands.

8 Our own souls; our lives. He was so concerned for their welfare, that he was willing, if need be, to lay down his life for them. (I John 3:10).

9 Our labor and toil; referring to his labor for his own support.

15 Contrary to all men; scorning the gentiles, and hating the Jews who believed in Christ.

CHAPTER III.

1 Wherefore, when no longer able to endure, we were well pleased to be left behind at Athens alone; 2 and sent Timothy, our brother and minister of God in the Gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to exhort you concerning your faith; 3 that no one should be shaken in these tribulations; for ye yourselves know that for this we are appointed. 4 For even

1 Or, concealing.

3 Shaken in these tribulations; shaken from their faith by the pressure of the trials that had come upon them.

13 And, for this reason, we also give thanks to God without ceasing, that, having received the word of God which ye heard from us, ye received it, not as the word of men, but, as it truly is, the word of God, which also is working in you who believe. 14 For ye, brethren, became imitators of the assemblies of God, that are in Judaea in Christ Jesus; because ye suffered the same things from your own countrymen, as they also did from the Jews; 15 who both killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out, and pleased not God, and are contrary to all men; 16 forbidding us to speak to the gentiles, that they might be saved, for the filling up of their sins always; and the wrath came upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, having been benefit of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, endeavored the more exceedingly to see your face, with great desire. 18 Because we wished to come to you, even I, Paul, both once and again; and Satan hindered us. 19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of glorying? Are not even ye, in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His coming? 20 For ye are our glory and joy.

3 Or, of hearing.

16 To speak to the gentiles; to preach the Gospel to the gentiles. For the filling up of their sins; in their opposition to the Gospel, the Jews were filling the measure of their iniquity, and were calling upon themselves the vengeance of the Almighty—which culminated a few years later in the utter destruction of Jerusalem, and the loss of many Jewish lives, under the Roman general, Titus.

18 Satan hindered us; using the agency of wicked men. Satan has far more power than is usually supposed.

20 Those whom the faithful servants of God win to Christ will contribute to their joy at the coming of Christ.

when we were with you, we told you beforehand, “We are about to suffer tribulation”; even as also it came to pass, and ye know. 5 For this reason, I also, no longer enduring it, sent, that I might know your faith, lest by some means the tempter tempted you, and our labor should be in vain.

6 But, Timothy having just now come to us from you, and having brought us good tidings of your faith and love, and that ye have good remembrance of us at

For this we are appointed; that is, they were appointed to endure trials, persecutions, tribulations, etc., as a part of their mission.

5 The tempter; Satan. Tempted you; to reject Christ.
all times, longing to see us, as we also to see you—7 for this reason, brethren, we were comforted over you, in all our tribulation and distress, through your faith; 8 because now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. 9 For what thanksgiving can we render again to God concerning you for all the joy wherewith we rejoice on your account before our God; 10 night and day praying exceedingly that we may

8 We live, if ye stand fast in the Lord; our life is tied up, as it were, in your spiritual welfare. (see ch. 2:19, 20.) If pastors generally felt such interest, as Paul did, in the spiritual welfare of the people of their charges, we would see a much higher type of Christianity, than is presented at the present day. (see Col. 1:28, 29)

10 Perfect the deficiencies in your faith; whatever they may be. This may mean, either what was lacking in their knowledge of the doctrines of Christ, and the provisions of His grace; or it may have reference to their capability of believing the word and promises of God. Probably, he had reference to the former; or he may have had reference to both.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Finally, then, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as ye received from us how ye ought to walk, and to please God—even as ye also are walking—that ye abound more and more; 2 for ye know what charges we gave through the Lord Jesus. 3 For this is the will of God—even your sanctification, that ye abstain from fornication; 4 that each one of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor; 5 not in passion of desire, even as the gentiles, who know not God; 6 that he go not beyond and gain an advantage over his brother in the matter; because the Lord is an avenger of all these things, as we also told you before, and solemnly testified. 7 For God did not call us unto uncleanliness, but in sanctification. 8 Therefore, indeed, he that rejects, rejects not man, but God, Who giveth His Holy Spirit to you.

NOTES ON CHAPTER IV.

3 This is the will of God, your sanctification: it is God's will that our bodies, as well as our souls and spirits, should be holy. Our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit; and, if we would have holy bodies, we should let the Holy Spirit have them to occupy as His temple.

4 Possess his own vessel: regard and treat his body as the work and property of God, and as a habitation of God in the Spirit. (Eph. 2:22.)

12 That ye walk becomingly: in an honorable and reputable manner. Those without: unbelievers. Need of nothing: see your face, and perfect the deficiencies in your faith?

11 Now may our God and Father Himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you; 12 and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love toward one another, and toward all, as we also do toward you, 13 to the end that He may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints.

12 Increase and abound in love; this is the supreme need to-day. O that the professed people of God, and those who are His children, might have an increase and an overflowing of love toward one another, and toward all men!

13 Unblamable in holiness; so that no fault could be found in them, even before God. This blessed state can be reached by no experience less than a personal Pentecost that is sustained from moment to moment, whereby Christ is made real and unspeakably blessed to the believer. At the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His saints; this is not His coming into the air for His saints, but His subsequent coming to the earth with them.

9 But concerning brotherly love, ye have no need that one write to you; for ye yourselves are taught by God to love one another; 10 and, in fact, ye do it to all the brethren who are in all Macedonia; but we exhort you, brethren, to abound yet more; 11 and to make it your aim to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we charged you; 12 that ye walk becomingly towards those without, and that ye may have need of nothing.

13 But we do not wish you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those falling asleep, that ye sorrow not even as the rest who have no hope; 14 for, if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so also those who fell asleep in 1 Jesus will God bring with Him. 15 For this we say to you, in a word of the Lord, that we, the living who remain over to the coming of the Lord, shall in nowise precede those ina: nothing that is needful for support, comfort, or usefulness.

13 Asleep; those dying in union with Christ. This is called sleep, not death.

15-17 We believe there will be a pre-tribulation rapture of those who are watching, waiting, and otherwise ready for it. (see Matt. 24:40, 41; 25:10; Luke 21:36; Rev. 3:10; 12:5; 14:0.) In other words, the full overcomers, who give themselves and their all to Christ; live a Trinity-filled life. (Eph. 3:16-19); pass through the circumcision (Gal. 2:20), and become conformed to Christ's death (Phil. 3:10); and put on the full life of Christ (Eph. 4:13); being partakers of the Divine Nature and holiness of God. (2 Pet. 1:4; Heb. 12:10)—all such will, we believe, be caught up to God before who fell asleep; 16 because the Lord Himself will descend from Heaven, with a shout, with a voice of an archangel, and with a trumpet of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first; 17 after that we, the great tribulation begins, and will be identified with the ruling force of Christ, (Rev. 3:21). But, if these overcomers die before the rapture of the pre-tribulation saints, they will be raised from the dead in time to be caught up with their class, (see Phil. 3:10, 11). These we understand to be the first fruit to God and to the Lamb. (Rev. 14:4). The harvest rapture, as we see it, will take place at the close of the great tribulation, when Christ shall descend toward the earth with His saints previously raptured and His holy angels; and those, sharing in this harvest rapture (Rev. 14:15-16. 10 will comprise all the tribulation saints who escape death at the hands of the beast, or anti-Christ, and remain till Christ starts to descend to the earth; and then they will be caught up to meet the Lord in the air; the great mass of real Christians who had died without being full overcomers, being raised from the dead before this harvest rapture, and carried up with them to meet the Lord in the air. We believe that 1 Cor. 15:24, 28 and 1 Thess. 4:15-17 teach the harvest rapture, rather than the first-fruit rapture.

CHAPTER V.

1 But, concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that ought be written to you; 2 for ye yourselves know accurately that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief at night. 3 When they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction comes upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall in nowise escape. 4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that the day should overtake you as a thief; 5 for ye are all sons of light, and sons of day; we are not of night, nor of darkness. 6 So, then, let us not sleep as do the rest, but let us watch and be sober. 7 For those who sleep at night, and those who are drunken are drunken at night. 8 But let us, being of the day, be sober, having put on a breast-plate of faith and love; and, as a helmet, a hope of salvation; 9 because God did not appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, 10 Who died for us, that, whether we watch or sleep, we may live together with Him. 11 Wherefore, exhort one another, and build up one another, as also ye do. 12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; 13 and to esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves. 14 And we exhort you, brethren, admonish the disorderly, encourage the faint-hearted, support the weak, be long-suffering toward all. 15 See that no one render to any one evil for evil; but always pursue that which is good, toward one another, and toward all. 16 Rejoice always; pray without ceasing. 17 In everything give thanks; for this is God's will in Christ Jesus concerning you. 18 Quench not the Spirit. 19 Despise not prophesying; 20 but prove

NOTES ON CHAPTER V.

1 The times and the seasons; pertaining to the Lord's second coming, of which he had been speaking above. No need that ought be written to you; because they already knew.
2 The day of the Lord: the day of His coming. As a thief at night; suddenly and unexpectedly. The time of Christ's return is left indefinite, that men may be watching for it, and be ready at any time to meet Him.
3 They: the wicked, who are living in false security. (Matt. 24:37-38.)
4 Ye are not in darkness; ye believers are not in sin and ignorance. Should overtake you; take you by surprise, as a thief does.
5 Let us not sleep; live in carnal security, unmindful of their peril, and blinded by sin.
6 Those who sleep at night, . . . drunken at night; as the night is the time when people sleep, and as the drunken choose the night as the period best suited to their debaucheries; so those who are living in sin, and in the night of spiritual darkness, abandon themselves to spiritual sleep and pollution.
7 Of the obtaining of salvation; as evinced in the fact that they had believed in Christ.
8 Whether we watch or sleep; whether we be living or dead.
9 Know those who labor among you; as ministers of the Gospel. Love and respect them highly.
10 Because of their work; as preachers of the Gospel, and promoters of your good.
11 Disorderly; those who disobey God's word. Faint-hearted; those easily discouraged. The weak; those weak in faith.
12 Rejoice always; in the Lord and His great salvation. The Lord is the Source of joy to His people. The joy comes from Him, and finds an outlet through the hearts of obedient, faithful disciples.
13 Quench not the Spirit; by failing to do what He bids you. The unconverted resist the Spirit; the unconsecrated Christian grieves the Spirit, and the consecrated Christian may quench the Spirit.
14 Prove all things; by comparing them with the Bible, the only standard of truth.
all things, hold fast that which is good. 22 Abstain from every form of evil. 23 And the God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Or, in the presence.

23 Sanctify you wholly; make you perfectly holy. May your spirit, soul, and body; man is composed of spirit, soul, and body. The spirit represents the God-sense or the Christ-life, which was given in regeneration. The soul represents the intellect, the affections, the natural life, or the natural self. The body is our physical being, with its natural appetites and passions. The body allies one to the animal creation; the soul, to the rational; and the spirit, to the moral. Preserved entire; kept sound, or complete in every part. Without blame at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; this is a very high standard, but the person who lives the Spirit-filled life, and has Christ enthroned in his heart as the Ruler of his whole being, can be so kept. At the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; when He comes for His bride.

24 Faithful is He Who calleth you, Who also will do it.

25 Brethren, pray for us.

26 Salute all the brethren with a holy kiss. 27 I adjure you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the brethren.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

27 Be read to all the brethren; to all the members.
— THE SECOND —

EPISTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

The second epistle to the Thessalonians seems to have been written shortly after the first, and from the same place—Corinth. The main design of the epistle was to correct some misapprehensions they had received in regard to the second coming of the Lord; and, in doing this, the apostle gives a very graphic view of "the man of sin," and exhorts them to fidelity and steadfastness amid all their trials.

CONTENTS.

I. Opening salutation. (I:1, 2). II. Correction of the error regarding the second advent. (I:3—II:1:10): (1) Thanksgiving, (I:3, 4); (2) Encouragement to endure their trials in view of the coming judgment (I:5-10, and prayer. (I:11, 12); (3) The advent must be preceded by the appearance of the man of sin. (II:1-3), the restraining power must be removed. (II:6, 7), the lawless one and his followers destroyed. (II:8-12; Rev. 19:19-21; Zeah. 14:12-15); (4) Further exhortation and prayer. (II:13-17). III. Practical. (III:1-16): (1) Prayer for himself and the Thessalonians, (III:1-5); (2) Instructions to the idle and disorderly (III:6-15), and prayer. (III:10); (3) Conclusion, (III:17, 18).

THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, and Syluves, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians, in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: 2 grace to you, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 3 We ought to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because your faith is growing exceedingly, and the love of each one of you abounds toward one another; 4 so that we ourselves glory in you in the assemblies of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations which ye endure; 5 a proof of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that ye may be accounted worthy of the Kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer; 6 since it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to those who cause you tribulation; 7 and to you who suffer tribulation, relief with us, at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from Heaven with the angels of His power, in flaming fire, 8 awarding vengeance to those who know not God, and to those who obey not the Gospel of our Lord Jesus; 9 who, indeed, shall pay a penalty, eternal destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His might, 10 when He shall come to be glorified in His saints, and to be marveled at in all who believed (because our testimony to you was believed), in that day: 11 To which end we also pray for you always, that our God may account you worthy of your calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of His goodness and work of faith, with power; 12 that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and ye in Him, according to the grace of our God and Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER II.

1 Now we request you, brethren, re-

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

5 A proof; their patience and faith, amid their sore persecutions and tribulations, furnish proof that a righteous judgment would reward them and punish their foes. That ye may be accounted worthy; this is the result of the righteous judgment of God in behalf of all who patiently suffer for Christ's sake.

7 Relief; God will recompense tribulation to those who cause His people tribulation; and He will recompense relief or rest to the persecuted. At the revelation of the Lord Jesus from Heaven; when He comes with His saints and mighty angels, to destroy His enemies, and establish His rule on the earth. This seems to refer to the judgment of the nations during the establishing and continuance of the Millennial reign; but it probably includes, also, the White Throne Judgment in Rev. 20:11-15.

9 Everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord; their destruction is not annihilation, but eternal separation.

regarding the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together to Him,
II. THESSALONIANS

2 that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, as that the day of the Lord has set in. 3 Let no one deceive you in any manner; because that day will not come, unless the falling away come first, and the man of lawlessness be revealed—the son of perdition; 4 he that opposes himself against, and exalts himself above, all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he sits in the temple of God, exhibiting himself as God.

5 Do ye not remember that, when I was yet with you, I was wont to tell you these things? 6 And now ye know what hinders his being revealed in his own season; 7 for the mystery of lawlessness is already working: only He Who hindereth will hinder, until He is taken out of the midst. 8 And then shall be revealed the lawless one, whom the Lord Jesus will shew with the breath of His mouth, and will bring to nought by the manifestation of His presence; 9 him whose coming is according to the working of Satan in all power and signs and lying wonders, and in all deceit of unrighteousness to those who perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. 11 And, for this cause, God sendeth them a working of delusion, that they may believe the lie; 12 that they all may be judged, who believe not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we ought to give thanks to God always for you, brethren, beloved by the Lord; because God, from the beginning, chose you to salvation, in sanctification of the Spirit and belief of truth; 14 unto which He called you through our Gospel, to an obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So, then, brethren, stand fast, and hold the instructions which ye were taught, whether through speech, or through letter of ours.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and God our Father Who loved us and gave us eternal consolation and good hope in grace, 17 comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good work and word.

II. THESSALONIANS

2 By spirit; by any pretended revelation from God.

3 The falling away; an apostasy from the truth, as witnessed in Catholicism—both Roman and Greek. The man of lawlessness; yet to arise; not a system, but a man, summing up in himself all the iniquities of the past, and clothed with the wisdom and power of Satan. (Rev. 13:2-6; 19:12, 20; Dan. 8:23-25; 9:27.) It seems impossible to explain these statements as referring to a system.

6 What hinders; many are the guesses as to what it is that hinders. That hypothesis seems to have the preference, which considers that the Holy Spirit is the hindering agency here referred to. After the rapture (1 Thess. 4:15-18; Rev. 13:5), Satan will be thrust down to the earth (Rev. 12:9), and soon after this, "the man of lawlessness" will be developed; the restraining power of the Holy Spirit being withdrawn after the rapture.

7 The mystery of iniquity; the diabolical spirit that was working in men even in the days of Paul, and has been working ever since.

8 Then; after the rapture and the withdrawal of the restraining power of the Holy Spirit, "the lawless one," the anti Christ, will be revealed shortly after the rapture, as Satan will have opportunity for a little while to display his power on the earth.

9 Signs and lying wonders; Satan has power to work mighty signs and wonders now; but, when the restraining power of the Spirit is withdrawn, he will do vastly more. (Rev. 13:13-15.) working through his two agents, "the beast" and "the false prophet."

10 Because they received not the love of the truth, and it is a refusal to receive the truth in the love of it, that brings upon men eternal ruin.

11 For this cause; because they do not accept the truth.

12 May be judged; and condemned to a just punishment.

13 Chose you to salvation; to sanctification of the Spirit and belief of truth; God chooses his people to salvation, and He chooses the way also—"in sanctification of the Spirit and belief of truth." The Spirit is the Agent Who sanctifies believers, but in connection with their belief of the truth.

14 Unto which; salvation as described above.

15 The instructions; which the apostle had given them in his personal ministry and writing.

we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have the faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, Who will establish you, and guard you from the evil

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

1 Run; without hindrance or opposition. Be glorified; by the display of the divine power in the salvation and edification of believers.

2 Have not the faith; the faith that accepts the Gospel. Many reject it, and oppose those who believe it.

3 The Lord is faithful; He will keep all His promises, and may always be trusted.
one. 4 And we have become confident in the Lord regarding you, that ye both do, and will do, the things which we command. 5 And the Lord guide your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to withdraw yourselves from every brother walking disorderly, and not according to the instruction which ye received from us. 7 For ye yourselves know that ye should imitate us; because we were not disorderly among you; 8 nor did we eat any one's bread, gratuitously: but, in labor and toil, working night and day, that we might not be burdensome to any of you; 9 not because we have not authority, but that we might give ourselves as a model to you, that ye might imitate us. 10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, "If anyone is not willing to work, neither let him eat." 11 For we hear of some who walk among you in a disorderly manner, who work not at all, but are busybodies. 12 Now such we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that, working with quietness, they eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well-doing. 14 And, if anyone obey not our word through this letter, note this one, not to associate with him, that he may be ashamed. 15 And regard him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always, in every way. The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of Paul with my own hand, which is a sign in every letter; so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

6 In a disorderly manner; not according to the teachings of the word, as taught by the apostle and other divinely appointed teachers.

9 Authority; right, or power, according to the Gospel. Amodel; for their imitation, in being ready to work, in any way God might appoint, to supply their personal needs.

10 Neither let him eat; a man who will not work should not live on another's earnings.

11 Busybodies; those who neglect their own business, and concern themselves in the affairs of others.
— THE FIRST —

EPISTLE TO TIMOTHY.

The epistles to Timothy and Titus are known as pastoral epistles, because they treat so fully on the duties of the pastor. It is not known at just what time this epistle was written, though it appears most likely that it was written after his first imprisonment at Rome, in A. D. 61; and about the year A. D. 65, or possibly a little later.

CONTENTS.

I. TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to a command of God our Savior and Christ Jesus our Hope, 2 to Timothy, a true child in faith; grace, mercy, peace, from God our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I exhorted you to continue in Ephesus, when I was journeying into Macedonia, that you might charge certain ones not to teach a different doctrine, 4 nor to give heed to fables and endless genealogies; which, indeed, occasion disputes rather than God’s dispensation, which is in faith, so do I now. 5 But the end of the charge is love out of a pure heart and a good conscience and of faith unfeigned; 6 which some having missed turned aside to vain talk; 7 wishing to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they confidently affirm. 8 But we know that the law is good, if one use it lawfully; 9 knowing this, that law is not enacted for a righteous man, but for lawless and unruly ones, for ungodly and sinful, for unholy and profane, for particides, and matricides, for man-slayers, 10 for fornicators, for sodomites, for male-stallers, for liars, for false swearsers; and whatever else is contrary to healthful teaching; 11 according to the Gospel of the glory of the Blessed God, with which I was entrusted.

12 I have thanks for Him Who empowered me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because He accounted me faithful, putting me into His service, 13 though formerly I was a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious; but I obtained mercy, because I, being ignorant, did it in unbelief; 14 and the grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 15 Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief; 16 but for this

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

2 A true child; Paul was Timothy’s spiritual father, in the sense that he won him to Christ through the Gospel.

3 A different doctrine; different from what Paul had taught.

4 Fables; called “old wives’ fables,” (ch. 4:7); and “Jewish fables,” (Titus 1:14). The apostle had reference to the absurd legends that abounded among the Jews at that time. Endless genealogies; by which he probably meant the Jewish record, or genealogical tables by which they endeavored to show their relationship to Abraham. Which occasion disputes; lead to empty discussions, and profitless wranglings. Rather than God’s dispensation; these endless genealogies did not further the Gospel in any sense, but were a great obstacle in the way of it.

5 The end of the charge; that which it is designed to promote. The word charge, in this connection, alludes to the charge in v. 3, where Timothy was instructed to charge certain ones. The design of this was to promote true godliness in those for whom he was laboring, which is love out of a pure heart.

1 Those who abuse themselves with men.

6 Some having missed; failed to get true Christianity. Vain talk; empty, profitless words.

8 Lawfully; according to the real import of the word.

9 Law is not enacted for a righteous man; such a man is a law to himself; but it is enacted to curtail all grades of wicked-doers, and lead men to see their sins, and turn from them.

10 Contrary to healthful teaching; opposed to the doctrines of the Gospel.

12 Accounted me faithful; and hence worthy, through His grace, to preach the Gospel of salvation.

13 Injurious; hurtful to others, in punishing them for their avowal of the name of Christ, or causing them to deny Jesus.

11 The grace of the Lord; the grace that led so vile a sinner to repentance. With faith and love; faith and love are attendants and fruits of divine grace. Which is in Christ Jesus; both love and faith have Christ as their source, and those who are in vital union with Christ have love and faith.
cause I obtained mercy, that in me, as chief, Christ Jesus might show forth all His longsuffering for an example to those about to believe on Him unto eternal life. 17 Now to the King of the ages, incorruptible, invisible, only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit to you, child Timothy, according to the prophesies gone before; in respect to you, that you may war with these the noble warfare; 19 holding faith, and a good conscience, which some having thrust from them made shipwreck concerning the faith; 20 of whom is Hymenæus and Alexander, whom I delivered up to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER II.

I exhort, therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made for all men; 2 for kings, and all who are in high position, that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and gravity. 3 This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, 4 Who wished all men to be saved, and to come into a full knowledge of truth. 5 For there is one God, one Mediator also between God and men, a Man, Christ Jesus, 6 Who gave Himself a ransom for all, the testimony for its own times. 7 Whereunto I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I speak truth, I lie not), a teacher of gentiles in faith and truth.

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

1 First of all: first in importance.
2 High position: as public officers. That we may lead a tranquil and quiet life; as a result of the good government brought about through their supplications, prayers, etc.
3 For this: this interest in rulers.
4 Who wished all to be saved: by embracing the Gospel; and the godly lives of Christians, connected with their prayers for others, conduces largely to their salvation.
5, 6 For there is one God, and one Mediator: this is given as a reason for the preceding exhortation, and the declaration that He wishes all to be saved. A Mediator: one who represents the interests of two parties. Jesus Christ in His two-fold nature, as God-Man, represents the interests of God and man. And this He is able to do, because He had given Himself a Ransom—His own life—to redeem sinners from under the curse of the law. A testimony for its own times: this doctrine of redemption through the vicarious sufferings of the Messiah had been but dimly foreseen in prophecy and in many of the sacrifices offered by the priests; but now, when the apostle was writing, it was made public in its own time.
8 Without wrath or disputing: which hinder prayer, and are incompatible with holiness.
9 Costly raiment: that nurses pride. All needless adorning and extravagant dress are unbecoming a woman professing godliness.
12 I permit not a woman to teach: this must be taken with many limitations, else it will violate other Scriptures. Some women are called to win souls, and to edify Christians; and this implies teaching and unfolding the word. Nor to have dominion over a man: woman is not to lord it over her husband; but, if she knows the truth, she may teach it to him. Man is the head, and woman is his helpmeet.
14 Adam was not deceived: but he ate with his eyes open; and hence his was the greater sin.
15 She shall be saved through child-bearing: those who appropriate this promise, receive wonderful benefit.
CHAPTER III.

1 Faithful is the saying, "If anyone desires the office of bishop, he covets a noble work." 2 It is needful, therefore, that the bishop be irreproachable, a husband of one wife, temperate, sober-minded, orderly, hospitable, apt to teach, not given to wine, not a striker, but gentle, not contentious, not a lover of money, 4 presiding well over his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity (5 but, if one knows not how to preside over his own house, how will he take care of an assembly of God?); 6 not a novice; lest, being puffed up, he fall into condemnation of the Devil. 7 And it is needful also that he have an honorable testimony from those without, lest he fall into reproach and a snare of the Devil.

8 It is needful that deacons, in like manner, be grave, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy of base gain; 9 holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. 10 But let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, being without reproach.

11 It is needful that their wives, in like manner, be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. 12 Let deacons be husbands of one wife, presiding well over their own children and their own houses. 13 For those serving well as deacons acquire for themselves a noble standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly; 15 but, if I delay, that you may know how you ought to behave yourself in a house of God, which, indeed, is an assembly of the living God, a pillar and basis of the truth, 16 And, confessedly, great is the mystery of godliness; God was manifested in flesh, was justified in the Spirit, was seen by angels, preached among the gentiles, believed on in the world, taken up in glory.

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

1 Or, overseer.

1 A bishop: an overseer or pastor of an assembly.
2 Irreproachable: in his conduct and habits. A husband of one wife; not a bigamist or polygamist.
3 Not a lover of money; not using his office to extort money from people.
4 Presiding well over his own house; having his children all in due subjection, and all his domestic affairs in proper condition.
5 A novice; one recently converted, who had not sufficient time to acquire knowledge necessary to the ministerial office. Fall into condemnation of the Devil: as a result of his pride. The thought seems to be that those who are responsible for putting men into the ministry ought, for the sake of the novice himself, not to put him in the office.
6 An honorable testimony: a good report, resulting from his honorable life and blameless conduct.
7 Grave: dignified and decorous in deportment. Not double-tongued: talking different ways to different parties, or talking one way and acting another.
8 The mystery of the faith; the doctrines of the Gospel, which are addressed to faith, and containing the mystery of the incarnation, vicarious sufferings, and regeneration of the Spirit, etc.
9 Their wives be grave: dignified, and suited as a helpmeet in the work of the deaconship. A wild, unconverted.
10 Proved; tried as to their qualifications and fitness for the office.
11 Some MSS. give "Who."

CHAPTER IV.

1 But the Spirit expressly saith, that in

NOTES ON CHAPTER IV.

1 Fall away from the faith; or apostatize from the truth of the Gospel. Teachings of demons; there are countless.

13 Acquire a noble standing; one who performs well the office of deacon acquires a noble standing, or fine reputation as a Christian. Great boldness in the faith: Stephen and Phillip were fine illustrations of the boldness which a Spirit-filled deacon may display in testifying to the truth, and in setting forth the Gospel.

15 That you may know how you ought to behave; this clause is to be connected back to the words, "I write." This letter was designed to teach Timothy how to manage the interests of the assembly over which he presided; giving special directions as to the character of persons that should be inducted into the office of bishop, and that of deacon. Pillar and basis of the truth; a pillar is that which supports all that rests upon it; and a foundation, is that upon which the structure rests; so a true assembly is the foundation and support of the Gospel of Christ; and such an assembly stands for and supports the whole Gospel in all its provisions for spirit, soul, and body.

16 Mystery of godliness; the mystery of the incarnation of Christ in flesh, with what follows. Manifested in flesh; see John 1:14. Justified in the Spirit; the Spirit rested upon Him in power. Some understand "in spirit" as referring to the spirit of Christ as a man; but the other view seems preferable. Taken up in glory; where He now intercedes for His people. (Heb. 7:25).

later times, some will fall away from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and less demons subordinate to Satan, and these are ready to teach people their false and ruinous doctrines; such as those found now among Theosophists, Spiritualists, Christian Scientists, etc.
to teachings of demons, 2 in hypocrisy of men speaking lies, branded in their own conscience with a hot iron; 3 forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods, which God created for reception with thanksgiving by those who believe and have full knowledge of the truth. 4 Because every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, when it is received with thanksgiving; for it is sanctified through the word of God and intercession.

6 Suggesting these things to the brethren, you will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith and of the good teaching which you have strictly followed; 7 but refuse the profane and old wives' fables, and exercise yourself unto godliness; 8 for bodily exercise is profitable for a little; 1 but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life which is present and that to come. 9 Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptance. 10 For to this end we labor and strive, because we have set our hope on the living God, Who is Savior of all men, especially of believers. 11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no one despise your youth; but become a model for believers, in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity. 13 Until I come, give heed to the reading, to the exhortation, to the teaching. 14 Neglect not the gift that is in you, which was given you through prophecy, with laying on of the hands of the eldership.

15 Attend to these things; give yourself wholly to them; that your progress may be manifest to all. 16 Take heed to yourself, and to the teaching; continue in them; for, doing this, you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

CHAPTER V.

1 Rebuke not an elder, but exhort him as a father; the younger men, as brethren;

NOTES ON CHAPTER V.

1 An elder; meaning here, most likely, an aged Christian man. It may refer to a preacher, who is an elder in the Gospel use of the word.

2 Gr. Be in them.

3 Honor widows; here meaning that such as were widows truly should be enrolled as beneficiaries of the assembly of which they were members.
deed. 4 But, if any widow has children or grand-children, let them learn first to show regard to their own family, and to make returns to their parents; for this is acceptable before God. 5 Now she that is really a widow, and left alone, has set her hope on God, and continues in supplications and prayers, night and day. 6 But she who lives in pleasure, though living, has died. 7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless. 8 But, if any one provides not for his own, and especially for his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 Let a widow be enrolled, when she has become not less than sixty years old, having been a wife of one man, 10 noted for good works; if she nourished children, if she used hospitality, if she washed the saints' feet, if she relieved those in tribulation, if she diligently followed every good work. 11 But younger widows refuse; for, when they grow wanton against Christ, they wish to marry, 12 having condemnation, because they set aside their first faith. 13 And, at the same time, they learn to be idle, going around from house to house, and not only idle, but tattlers also and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

4 Children or grand-children; widows, having children or grand-children able to supply them, should be supported by them, and not be a burden on the assembly. 5 Left alone; without any one to support her. 6 Lives in pleasure; in wantonness and sinful extravagance. Though living, has died; has animal life, but is spiritually dead in sin.

8 If any one provides not for his own; those who leave the dependent members of their own household, to suffer for food and clothing, while it is in their power to prevent it, have denied the faith, and are not to be counted as believers. Worse than an unbeliever; because he has denied the Gospel which enjoins the support of one's family; and, in this respect, he is worse than an unbeliever who lets his family suffer for food and clothing.

9 Washed the saints' feet; to do the lowliest service to God's people. This was a mark of a thoroughly yielded life.

11 Younger widows; who apply for enrollment as beneficiaries on the assembly list. Wanton against Christ; unwilling to submit to proper discipline because of their wantonness and love of pleasure.

13 They; these young widows who have violated their obligation. Having done wrong, they grow worse and worse, being idle, tattlers, busy-bodies, etc.

14 The adversary; the devil, or some enemy of Christianity. Cause of reproach; ground for evil speaking.

15 Some; of the young widows spoken of above, (vs. 11-13). Turned aside after Satan; by yielding to his temptations, and falling into his snares.

14 I desire, therefore, that younger widows marry, bear children, rule a household, give no occasion to the adversary for reproach; 15 for already some turned aside after Satan. 16 If any believing woman has widows, let her relieve them, and let not the assembly be burdened, in order that it may relieve those who are really widows.

17 Let elders who preside well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in word and teaching. 18 For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox while threshing," and "The laborer is worthy of his wages."

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, except on the testimony of two or three witnesses. 20 Those who sin reprove before all, that the rest also may have fear.

21 I solemnly charge you before God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay hands hastily on no one, neither be partaker of other men's sins. Keep yourself pure. 23 Be no longer a drinker of water, but use a little wine because of your stomach and your frequent infirmities.

1 Or, preference.

16 Has widows; a widowed mother or grandmother, or any whom she ought to support. Who are really widows; who are left alone, without support; and are of the required age, etc., (v. 9).

17 Elders; those having the chief direction of the interests of the assembly, and those who preach, and teach. Double honor; those laboring in word and teaching; devoting their whole time and energies to the ministry. These should receive support.

18 The Scripture; Deut. 25:4.

19 Two or three witnesses; Deut. 19:15.

20 Who sin; whose guilt is proved.

21 The elect angels; who have lived in perfect obedience to the will of God, and have been preserved in a state of perfect sinlessness. These are the ministering spirits, who are sent forth to minister to those who shall be heirs of salvation, (Heb. 1:14).

22 Lay hands hastily on no one; in ordination. Ordain no novice, and no one until his doctrines and spirit are understood. Partakers of other men's sins; as he would be, if he ordained unworthy men to the Gospel ministry.

23 Of water; water only. Use a little wine; not as a beverage, but as a blood-tonic, and as an antidote for his weak stomach and frequent infirmities. We do not certainly know whether this was fermented wine, or sweet wine. In either event, it seems strange that Timothy had not learned to take the Lord for all his bodily ailments and weaknesses.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Let as many as are slaves under a yoke account their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the teaching be not blasphemed. 2 And let those having believing masters not despise them, because they are brethren; but let them serve them the more, because they are faithful and beloved, who are partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If anyone teaches otherwise, and consents not to heathenful words, the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the teaching according to godliness, 4 he has become puffed up, knowing nothing, but morbid about questions and word-battles, out of which come envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, 5 wranglings of men corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, supposing godliness to be a source of gain. 6 But godliness with contentment is a great source of gain; 7 for nothing have we brought into the world, neither can we carry anything out; 8 but, having food and raiment, with these we shall be content. 9 But those, purposing to be rich, fall into temptation, and a snare, and many foolish and hurtful desires, which, indeed, sink men into destruction and perdition. 10 For the love of money is a root of all the evils: which some reaching after wandered away from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But do you, O man of God, flee these things; but pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, mildness. 12 Fight the good fight of the faith, lay hold on the eternal life, to which you were called, and confessed a good confession before many witnesses. 13 I charge you before God who preserves alive all things, and Christ Jesus Who before Pontius Pilate testified a good confession, 14 that you keep the commandment, unsullied, irreproachable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 which in His own times the Happy and Only Potentate will show, the King of kings and Lord of lords, 16 Who only hath immortality, inhabiting light unapproachable, Whom no man ever saw or is able to see; to Whom be honor and dominion eternal. Amen. 17 Charge those who are rich in this present age, not to be high-minded, nor to have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, Who giveth us richly all things for

NOTES ON CHAPTER VI.

1 Under a yoke; yoke of bondage or servitude.
2 Believing masters; Christians. Not despise them; but treat them in a kind, obedient, Christian spirit, because they are brethren in Christ.
3 Teach otherwise; in a manner different from the teachings of the apostle on this subject. The words of our Lord Jesus Christ; see Matt. 5:39; 6:12-15; 18:21-35.
4 Supposing godliness to be a source of gain; see the case of Simon the sorcerer, (Acts 8:19-24); the false teachers in Corinth, (II Cor. 11:29; II Tim. 3:5-6). Worldly people attach themselves to some congregation, for the standing it gives them, and for the profit they hope to gain thereby.
5 Godliness, with contentment, is a great source of gain; but not of worldly gain; for the Christian's riches are spiritual. Gain, in the highest sense, comes to the godly person who is contented with his earthly lot, and finds his riches in God.
6 With these; food and raiment. We shall be content; this is all we can really use, and we should be content with it.
7 Purposing to be rich; have their minds set on riches, and are resolved to become rich. A snare; a snare of the Devil. If he can influence a man to set his mind and heart also the works that are good are openly manifest; and those that are otherwise can not be hid.

1 Or, power.
10 The love of money is a root of all the evils; it tempts one to commit all sorts of evils. All evils have a common center in Satan; and he who is tied on to Satan by one evil is liable to become a participant in every species of it.
12 Fight the good fight of faith; the Christian is a warrior, and has the flesh, the world, and the Devil, to combat. Faith to identify one with Christ, faith to grasp the promises, faith to use the sword of the Spirit—faith is indispensable to victory over these enemies. Confessed a good confession; in his baptism and ordination, as also in the sharp persecutions he [Timothy] had endured.
14 Commandment; the whole charge contained in this letter. Unsullied, irreproachable; these descriptives may refer to Timothy or to the commandment; the position of the words would favor their reference to the word “commandment.” Keep the commandment unsullied, irreproachable.
15 Which; the appearing of the Lord. In His own times; in God's own appointed time. Will show; will reveal, or make manifest. King of kings; literally, King of those exercising kingship; and “Lord of those exercising lordship.”
16 Immortality; life in Himself, and undivided, independent, and eternal.

24 Some men's sins are openly manifest, going before to judgment; and some men also they follow after. 25 In like manner

21 Going before to judgment; some men's sins are so open and notorious, that they condemn them in the public mind before the day of trial. Other men they (the sins) follow; their sins are concealed, and must be developed later. Men who have set evil influences in the world, will have to account for all the results hereafter.
I. TIMOTHY

enjoyment; 18 that they do good, that they be rich in good works, free to impart, liberal; 19 treasuring up for themselves a good foundation for the future, that they may lay hold on that which is really life.

19 A good foundation; those who so live as to properly represent Christ in this world have a good foundation for the future. Blessed realizations will be theirs in the eternity to follow. If God's people would live with Heaven in view, how it would lighten their present burdens!

20 O Timothy, guard the deposit; turning away from the profane babblings, and oppositions of that which is falsely called knowledge; 21 which some professing erred concerning the faith. Grace be with you.

20 The deposit; that which was committed to him, or the same as the commandment. (v. 14). Oppositions; contentions and contradictions growing out of that which is falsely called knowledge—that is, false knowledge, or knowledge that is pernicious.
—THE SECOND—

EPISTLE TO TIMOTHY.

This epistle was written from Rome, when Paul was nearing the close of his second imprisonment, and shortly before his execution. (ch. 4:9). Many of his friends, not wishing to imperil their lives by showing their friendship to him as a prisoner, forsook him, (1:15; 4:10). Needing the presence and help of Timothy, he writes, urging him to come at once, and to bring certain articles he had left at Troas. Feeling that his end was near, he improved the opportunity by giving Timothy more valuable instruction, and his final apostolic counsel and encouragement. The epistle was written A. D. 67, or 68.

II. TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, to Timothy, a beloved child: grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, Whom I serve from my fore-fathers, in a pure conscience, that I have an unceasing remembrance of you in my supplications night and day; longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy; having a remembrance of the unfeigned faith which is in you; which, indeed, dwelt first in your grand-mother Lois, and your mother Eunice; and, I have become persuaded, in you also. 6 For which cause, I put you in remembrance that you stir into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of hands. 7 For God did not give us a spirit of timidity, but of power and love and sobriety. 8 Be not ashamed, therefore, of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me His prisoner; but suffer hardship with me for the Gospel, according to the power of God, 9 Who saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose, and grace which was given us in Christ Jesus before eternal ages, 10 but now made manifest through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus; Who abolished death, and brought to light life and incorruption through the Gospel; 11 for which I was appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher. 12 For which cause I am suffering also these things; but I am not ashamed; for I know Whom I have believed, and have become persuaded that He is able to guard my deposit unto that day. 13 Hold the pattern of healthful words which you heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. 14 The good deposit guard come to Rome, and make Paul his companion. But it is better to refer this, perhaps, to all sufferings that were incident to every faithful preacher of the Gospel. According to the power of God: the power to endure sufferings is from God, but He is ready tobestow the power, whenever it is needed. 9 Given us ... before eternal ages; His grace was given us in His eternal purpose. 10 Abolished death: destroyed the dominion of sin and death over believers. Brought to light life and incorruption through the Gospel: revealed more clearly the incorruption, immortality, and, hence, unending life of the true believer. 12 For which cause; on account of his preaching the Gospel. Guard my deposit; himself and all his eternal interests; these he had committed to, or deposited with God, and he was sure that his deposit would be kept securely. 14 The good deposit guard; look well to the ministry which has been committed to you, and fulfill all its obligations.

through the Holy Spirit Who dwellth in us.

15 You know this, that all in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes. 16 The Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus; because he oftentimes refreshed me, and was not ashamed.

15 All in Asia: meaning proconsular Asia, of which Ephesus was the capital. The word "all" is not to be understood as meaning every one, but the vast majority.
12 Onesiphorus: a Christian who lived in Asia, (ch. 4:19).
Refreshed me: by supplying his wants, and giving him

CHAPTER II.

1 Do you, therefore, my child, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. 2 And the things which you heard from me, through many witnesses, these commit to faithful men, who will be competent to teach others also. 3 Suffer hardship with me, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. 4 No one, serving as a soldier, entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier.
5 And, if also one contends in the games, he is not crowned, unless he contends lawfully.
6 The toiling husbandman must first partake of the fruits. 7 Consider what I am saying; for the Lord will give you discernment in all things.

8 Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my Gospel; 9 wherein I am suffering hardship, even to bonds, as a malefactor; but the Word of God has not become bound. 10 Therefore, I suffer all things for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus.

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

3 Suffer hardship with me: such hardships as would fall to the lot of every faithful minister.
4 Entangles himself: the soldier cannot carry on business such as other men manage, while he is a soldier. The man who is called into the ministry will find enough to do, if he has permitted the Lord to prepare him, by His Spirit, for the work.
5 Contends lawfully: according to the laws that controlled in athletic contests.
6 The toiling husbandman ... first partake of the fruits: before partaking of the fruit, the husbandman must first toil. So the preacher must labor in the ministry, before he can enjoy its fruits.
8 Raised from the dead: hence you are serving a living Christ. Who is able to reward you.
9 The truth has not become bound: enemies might bind the apostle, but they could not bind the Gospel.

with eternal glory. 11 Faithful is the saying; for, if we died with Him, we shall also live with Him; 12 if we endure, we shall also reign with Him; if we deny Him, He will also deny us; 13 if we are faithless, He remaineth faithful, for He cannot deny Himself. 14 Of these things put them in remembrance, solemnly charging them before God, that they engage not in word-battles to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear.

15 Give diligence to present yourself approved to God, a workman not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. 16 But shun the profane babblings, for they will proceed to more ungodliness; 17 and their word will spread, as a gangrene; of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; 18 who erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place, and are overthrowing the faith of some. 19 Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God has been standing, having this seal, "The Lord knew those who are His;" and 13 He cannot deny Himself; act contrary to His nature and promises.

15 Rightly dividing the word of truth: giving its true import and application, in a way to supply each with his portion of meat in due season.
16 Profane babblings: all kinds of profitless talk. They will proceed to more ungodliness: these babblings will lead men to more ungodliness. Indulgence in the wrong use of the tongue leads to other fatal excesses.
17 Their word will spread, as a gangrene: the poisonous influence of words upon the spiritual man will spread as a mortifying sore over the body. Such words serve to illustrate both the nature and the contagious character of false teachings.
18 That the resurrection has already taken place: thus making it, probably, spiritual rather than physical.
19 The firm foundation of God: His purpose of human redemption in Christ; Christ being Himself the foundation upon which all the redeemed stand. (1 Cor. 3:10, 11; Eph. 2:19-20). The Lord knew: knew from all eternity, Those who are His; His elect. God saw the end from the "Let every one who names the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness." 20 But, in a great house, there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some, indeed, unto honor and some unto dishonor. 21 If, therefore, one fully purify himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honor, sanctified, serviceable to the Master, prepared for every good work. 22 But flee youthful desires; and pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those calling upon the Lord out of a pure heart. 23 But the foolish and ignorant questionings reject, knowing that they beget strifes; 24 now a servant of the Lord must not engage in strife, but should be gentle towards all, apt in teaching, patient of wrong, 25 in meekness correcting those opposing themselves, if peradventure God should give them repentance to a full knowledge of the truth, 26 and they may return to soberness out of the snare of the Devil, having been taken captive by him in accordance with his will.

CHAPTER III.

1 But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come; 2 for men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, 3 without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, intemperate, fierce, no lovers of good, 4 traitors, reckless, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; 5 holding a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from these also turn away. 6 For of these are those who creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, and led on by manifold desires, 7 always learning, and never able to come to the full knowledge of the truth. 8 And as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so also do these withstand the truth; men utterly corrupted in mind, disordered.

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

1 Or, without self-control.
2-4 The description given in these verses finds many a fulfillment in the men of our times.
5 Holding a form of godliness; being nominally religious, but having none of the life, spirit, and power of Christ. Denying the power thereof; showing by their worldly lives that they are destitute of power. This may include those who deny that miracles can take place now, and thus, in their thought, eliminate the supernatural from Christianity.
6 Of these: men of this type. Creep into houses; go silly into families.
7 Ever learning; from their false teachers. Never able; under such teachers to learn the lesson of salvation through Christ.
8 Jannes and Jambres: traditional names of the magicians who withstood Moses. (Ex. 7:11). These magicians sought to break the force of the miracles wrought by Moses and Aaron, and thus to keep the children of Israel in Egypt. Some false teachers in Paul's age and in our own are trying to undermine the doctrines of Christ, and cripple and ruin Christians.
9 As theirs also became: referring to Jannes and Jambres, whose efforts failed to thwart the mission of Moses.
10 And as: referring to Moses and Aaron, and to the mission of Christ.
13 Every Scripture inspired: not every Scripture, but every Scripture that is inspired of God. Is profitable: for the truth it contains. For reproof: in showing one his sins. For correction: in reclaiming one from error. For instruction in righteousness: teaching what is right to be done toward man and God.
of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness; 17 that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly furnished for every good work.

2 Or unto.

Ch. 2:17 Thoroughly furnished for every good work; a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures will, with the blessing of the Holy Spirit, equip one for every work to which God calls one.

CHAPTER IV.

1 I charge you before God, and Christ Jesus, Who is to judge the living and the dead, and by His appearing and His Kingdom, 2 preach the word; be urgent in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all long-suffering and teaching. 3 For there will be a time when they will not endure the healthful teaching; but, having itching ears, they will for themselves heap up teachers according to their own desires; 4 and will turn away their ears from the truth, and will turn aside to the fables.

5 But be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fully accomplish your ministry. 6 For I am already being offered, and the time of my departure has arrived. 7 I have contended in the noble contest, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith; 8 henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, will recompense to me in that day, and not only to me, but also to all those who have loved His appearing.

9 Give diligence to come to me speedily; 10 for Demas forsook me, having loved this present age, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens, to Galatia; Titus, to Dalmatia. 11 Only Luke is with me. Taking Mark, bring him with you; for he is useful to me for ministering. 12 But Tychicus I sent to Ephesus. 13 The cloak which I left in Trosa with Carpus, when you come, bring, and the books, especially the parchments.

14 Alexander, the coppersmith, showed me much evil; the Lord will reward him according to his works: 15 of whom do you also beware; for greatly did he withstand our words. 16 In my first defense, no one stood by me, but all forsook me. May it not be laid to their account! 17 The Lord stood by me, and strengthened me, that through me the proclamation might be fully announced, and that all the gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of a lion. 18 The Lord race, he would surely have lost the prize—not his soul, but his crown, (Rev. 3:11).

10 The apostle seems to have censured Demas particularly as having forsaken him in his bonds; ascribing his departure from Rome, the place of danger, to his fondness for the world and its enjoyments. He mentions the fact that Crescens and Titus had also left Rome, but he lay's nothing to their charge.

13 Parchments; dressed skins on which the more valuable of ancient books were written. As to what particular parchments these were, we have no means of knowing.

16 In my first defense: his first hearing before the Roman emperor or a court commissioned by him to try Paul. The word first implies a subsequent trial; and from the language of the apostle in vs. 6 and 7, it appears that the trial was over, and that Paul's doom had been declared. Or it may have been that Paul clearly saw what would be his fate even before the final trial, and wrote vs. 6 and 7 under the influence of such conviction.

17 Out of the mouth of the lion; some understand these words literally, to the effect that Paul was made to fight with a lion, and that he escaped death through his good fortune as a fighter; illing or disabling the lion, and saving his own life. Others suppose that he referred to the Roman emperor as a lion.
will deliver me from every evil work, and will bring me safe into His heavenly Kingdom; to Whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen. 19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus abode in Corinth; but Trophimus I left in Miletus sick. 21 Give diligence to come to me before winter. Eubulus salutes you, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren. 22 The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

18 From every evil work; not from persecution or even death which he clearly saw to be his doom, but from spiritual detriment at the hands of evil teachers. Paul seemed to dread the influence of false teachers upon one's spiritual interests far more than death at the hand of a pagan emperor. Man can kill the body; but error, embraced and followed, ruins the soul.

19 Onesiphorus; ch. 1:10.
EPISODE TO TITUS.

Titus was another traveling companion of Paul, and served as an assistant to the apostle. He was of gentle origin, (Gal. 2:3.). He performed some valuable service for Paul, as seen in II Cor. 7:13, 14, 8:6, 16:19, 22-24, about the year A. D. 57. Several years after this, he is found in Crete, having a pastoral charge; and this epistle was addressed to him at Crete. It is not known at what date or from what place this epistle was written; but as it is a pastoral letter, it is supposed that it was written about the time of the epistles to Timothy, or about A. D. 65, or 66.

TITUS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, a slave of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God’s elect, and the full knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness, 2 upon hope of eternal life which God, Who cannot lie, promised before eternal times, but in His own seasons manifested His word in a proclamation with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of God our Savior; 3 to Titus, a true child according to the common faith: grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

5 For this cause I left you in Crete, that you should set in order the things that are lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you; 6 if anyone is blameless, a husband of one wife, having believing children not in accusation of rioting, or unruly. 7 For the bishop must be blameless, as God’s steward; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, not a striker, not greedy of base gain; 8 but hospitable, a lover of good, sober-minded, righteous, pious, temperate; 9 holding fast the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in the healthful doctrine, and to convict those who contradict. 10 For there are many unruly men, vain-talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, 11 whom it is needful to reduce to silence; 12 who, indeed, are overthrowing whole houses, teaching what they ought not, for the sake of base gain. 13 One of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, “Cre-tans are always false, evil beasts, idle gluttons.” 14 This testimony is true. For which cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; 15 not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. 16 To the pure all things are pure; but to the defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience have become defiled. 17 They profess to know God; but by their works they deny Him; being abominable, and disobedient, and for every good work worthless.

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 Not false. 2 Or, overseer.

11 To reduce to silence; literally, to stop their mouths; meaning that they should be silenced by the force of truth. Overthrowing whole houses; subverting the faith of whole households.

12 A prophet of their own: Epimenides, who was one of their poets.

15 To the defiled and unbelieving; those who do not believe on Christ, and hence are defiled with sin. Nothing is pure; but every thing they touch is polluted.

16 By their works they deny Him; their works contradict their profession.

1 Or, healthy.
women, in like manner, be reverent in demeanor, not slanderers, not enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; 4 that they may train the young women to be lovers of their husbands, lovers of their children. 5 to be sober, pure, workers at home, good, submitting themselves to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. 6 The younger men, in like manner, exhort to be sober-minded; 7 in all things showing yourself an example of good works; in teaching, showing incorruptness, gravity, 8 sound speech not to be condemned; that he who is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say concerning us. 9 Exhort servants to be obedient to their own masters, to be well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting, 10 not keeping back anything, but showing forth all good faith; that they may adorn the teaching of our Savior God in all things. 11 For the salvation-imparting grace of God appeared to all men, 12 teaching us, that, denying ungodliness and worldly desires, we should live soberly, and rightously, and godly in the present age; 13 looking for the blissful hope and appearing of the glory of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ; 14 who gave Himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for Himself a special people, zealous of good works. 15 These things speak and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one despise you.

CHAPTER III.

1 Remind them to submit to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work; 2 to speak evil of no one, to be averse to strife, to be mild, showing all meekness to all men. 3 For we also were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving manifold desires and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. 4 But, when the kindness and the benevolence of God our Savior appeared, 5 not by works of righteousness which we did, but according to His mercy, He saved us through a washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit; 6 Whom He poured out upon us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior; 7 that having been justified by His grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. 8 Faithful is the saying, and concerning these things I will that you affirm confidently, that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men. 9 But shun foolish questionings, and genealogies, and strife, and contentions about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. 10 A factious man, after a first and a second admonition, avoid; knowing that such a one has been turned aside, and is sinning, being self-condemned. 11 When I shall send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, give diligence to come to me to Nicopolis; for there I have decided to winter. 12 Diligently send forward Zenas the lawyer and Apollos, that nothing may be lacking to them. 14 And let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary wants, that they may not be unfruitful. 15 All those who are with me salute you. Salute those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all.

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

3 For we also; believers were once like other sinners—foolish, corrupt, vile, etc.
4 When the kindness and benevolence of God appeared: in the gift of Jesus Christ, and the proclamation of the Gospel, and the mighty workings of the Spirit.

1 Or, spending time.

2 Or, as His own possession.

Christ was the blissful hope to the early Christians, and it should be so with Christians now. Christ will begin to display His glory, when He comes with His saints to destroy His enemies, establish His reign on the earth, and judge the nations, (Zech. 14:3-19; Matt. 25:31, 32).

These things: the duties enjoined in the preceding part of the chapter. Let no one despise you; so perform your duty as to merit the respect of all right-thinking people.

EPISTLE TO PHILEMON.

This epistle was sent from Rome to Colosse by Onesimus at the same time the epistle to the Colossians, of which Tycheus was the bearer. (Col. 4:9). It is addressed to Philemon, a prominent Christian at Colosse. The letter is a plea for Onesimus, a servant of Philemon, who had left his master, having probably robbed him of some of his goods, (v. 18); but, having met Paul at Rome, he was converted; and, under the influence of the new life he had received in Christ, he returns to his master to fulfill all his duties as a servant. This epistle has been greatly admired for its courtesy, delicacy, and tact.

PHILEMON.

1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy, our brother, to Philemon, our beloved and fellow-worker, 2 and to Apphia, the sister, and to Archippus, our fellow-soldier, and to the assembly in your house: grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I give thanks to my God always, making mention of you in my prayers, 5 hearing of your love and the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints; 6 that the fellowship of your faith may become effectual, in the knowledge of every good thing in you, 7 For I had much joy and consolation on account of your love, because the tender affections of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

8 Wherefore, though having much boldness in Christ to enjoin upon you that which is becoming, 9 yet for love’s sake I rather exhort, being such a one as Paul an aged man, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus: 10 I beseech you for my child, whom I begat in my bonds, Onesimus, 11 who at one time was unprofitable to you, but now profitable to you and to me; 12 whom I sent back to you, in his own person, that is, my very heart; 13 whom I was disposed to keep with me, that in your stead he might minister to me in the bonds of the Gospel; 14 but, without your consent, I was willing to do nothing; that your beneficence might not be by necessity, but by choice. 15 For, perhaps, he departed for a season for this reason, that you might—

God, we need to yield ourselves wholly to Him, with the view of having Him work His perfect will in us. This would place us in a position to receive the Spirit in fulness; and this gracious experience would lead us to the place where Christ might take up His abode in us. Then, if we crown Him King of our hearts, and put the government of our being wholly on His shoulder, He takes charge of all the malevolent elements in our being, and either crucifies them, or crowds them out of our being, to make room for His own growing nature in us. Now, as His nature grows up in us more and more, we get more of His love; and, becoming more and more like Him every day, His love becomes so dominant in us, that we may answer fairly well to the picture furnished us in 1 Cor. 13:4-8. Such love, indeed, is able to decide all matters of practical concern, and decide them in a way to please the Triune God. God would work wonders through a people who have the love-nature of Jesus perfected in them.

10 Whom I begat in my bonds; whom Paul, while a prisoner in Rome, led to Christ.

12 Receive him, as a Christian brother in the Lord.

13 Whom I was disposed to keep with me; to minister to me in my imprisonment. In your stead, Paul knew that Philemon, if present, would have gladly ministered to his need.

15 Departed for a season; left Philemon for a time. Receive him back forever; as a disciple of Christ and brother in the Lord, with whom he might have blessed fellowship forever.
have him back forever; 16 no longer as a slave, but above a slave, a brother beloved, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord! 17 If, therefore, you hold me as a partner, receive him as myself. 18 But, if he wronged you in anything, or owes you anything, set down this to my account.

19 I Paul wrote it with my own hand, I will repay it; that I say not to you, that you owe me even your own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, I would have joy of you, by your noble treatment of Onesimus.

21 Having confidence in your obedience, I wrote to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say. 22 But, at the same time, prepare also a lodging for me; for I hope that, through your prayers, I shall be given to you. 23 Euphros, my fellow-captive in Christ Jesus, salutes you; 24 as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, Luke, my fellow-workers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

EPISODE TO THE HEBREWS.

The Epistle to the Hebrews has been ascribed to Paul by the great mass of Biblical writers. Some few have ascribed it to Barnabas, and others to Apollos. It is impossible, in the absence of any signature, or any statement showing who its author was, to determine who was God's amanuensis in the production of this wonderfully instructive book. It is thought to have been written between A. D. 67 and 70.

CONTENTS.

I. Christianity superior to Judaism. In the Person of its founder; all previous revelations culminating in Christ. (1:1-9). 1. His superiority to angels. (1:4-10)—hence we should not let His salvation slip. (1:1-10). This superiority not lessened by reason of His temporary humiliation. (2:5-18); which had for its object (a) to deliver men from death, (2:10-15); and (b) to fit Him to be a sympathizing Priest. (2:16-18); 2. Christ is superior to servants like Moses and Joshua: He is a Son, and Moses a servant. (3:1-6) unbelievers of the New dispensation should take warning from those of the Old. (3:7-19). The promised rest still open to believers (4:1-10), who should be careful not to lose it (4:11-13), having a sympathetic High Priest. (4:14-16). II. Christianity superior to Judaism in its High Priesthood; Christ being superior to Aaron and the Aaronic priesthood. 1. Like them He is sympathetic. (5:1-3); 2. Like them He was called to His office. (5:1-6); 3. After the order of Melchizedek. (6:1-10) He became the Author of salvation. (v. 9). The Hebrews should press forward. (VI:1-3). No recovery for the lapsed. (VI:4-5). For those who lapse not the promises are sure. (VI:5-20). 4. The order of Melchizedek greater than that of Aaron; for Abraham paid tithes to Melchizedek. (VII:1-10); and the Aaronic priesthood is superceded by Melchizedek's Successor. (VII:11-19); Who is appointed by an oath, a Perfect and Eternal High Priest. (VII:20-25). III. Christianity is superior to Judaism in the nature of its institutions. 1. Christ is High Priest of the true Sanctuary (VIII:1-5), and of a New and Better Covenant. (VIII:6-10). 2. The Old Covenant in its tabernacle, and ceremonies of atonement, transitory and imperfect. (IX:1-10); 3. Christ the Reality of which these things were types. (IX:11-19); having sealed the New Covenant with His death and blood. (IX:15-22); in everything His atonement being higher. (IX:23-28). 4. The repetition of the old sacrifices showed their want of efficacy. (IX:1-11); Christ's sacrifice being complete and final. (X:9-18). IV. Hortatory inferences: 1. The Hebrews should avail themselves of the access thus offered. (X:19-33); for the penalties of apostasy (X:26-31) are equal to the rewards of fidelity. (X:32-39). 2. Heroes of faith, (XI:1-10). 3. Encouragement to endure (XI:11-12), to avoid Esau's fate. (XI:13-16). The warning voice of Sinai still speaks. (XII:18-20). 4. Various admonitions. (XIII:1-8). The Christian altar privileged above the Jewish. (XIII:9-15). Other admonitions, prayer, and salutation. (XIII:16-25).

HEBREWS.

CHAPTER I.

1 God, having in many parts and many ways spoken, of old, to the fathers in the prophets, 2 at the end of these days spake to us in His Son, Whom He appointed Heir of all things, through Whom also He constituted the ages; 3 Who, being an effulgence of His glory and an exact expression of His substance, and upholding all things by the word of His power, having made a purificiation of sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; 4 having become by so much superior to the angels, as He hath inherited a more excellent name than they. 5

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 In many parts; giving one thing at one time, and another at another; showing incompleteness. In many ways; as, by dreams, visions, voices, etc.

In His Son: God spake, in a complete and full manner, in the Person of His Son. Whom He appointed Heir of all things; the Father hath appointed His Son to be Heir of all things, including the material universe. (Col. 1:16, 17).

3 Being an effulgence of His glory; the Son is the "radiated brightness" of the Father's glory; so that, in the Son, people might see the Father. (John 1:9, etc.). The exact expression of His substance; Jesus Christ is an exact expression of the Father's Person or essence. Upholding all things; Col. 1:17. Having made a purificiation of sins; by sacrificing Himself. (ch. 9:28).

For to whom of the angels said He at any time, "You are My Son; I this day have begotten you"? And again, "I will be to Him a Father; and He shall be to me a Son"? 6 But, when again He introduces the First-born into the inhabited earth, He saith, "And let all the angels of God worship Him." 7 And respecting the angels He saith, "Who maketh His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire"? 8 but respecting the Son, "Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever"; and, "A scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Thy Kingdom; 9 Thou lovesth righteousness, and hatest iniquity; therefore, God, Thy God, anointed Thee with the oil of gladness

4 Better; superior in office, dignity, and nature. A more excellent name; that of "The Son of God." 5 This day have I begotten Thee; referring to the humanity of Jesus; because, as to His Divinity, He had an undervived existence. I will be to Him a Father; referring again to the humanity of Jesus. 6 The First-Begotten; introducing Him to the world through His Incarnation. Let all the angels of God worship Him; quoted from the Greek version of Psa. 97:7. 7 Respecting the angels; Psa. 104:4. 8 Thy throne, O God, is forever and ever; quoted from Psa. 45:6, 7, where Christ appears in the character of Bridegroom. Here we see the Father's estimate of the Son. 9 Above Thy fellows; above them in power and office. (Eph. 1:21; Phil. 2:9, 10; Col. 1:18; Rev. 17:14; 19:16).
above Thy fellows"; 10 and, "Thou, Lord, in the beginning didst lay the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of Thy hands. 11 They shall perish, but Thou continuest; and they will all become old as does a garment; 12 and as a mantle Thou wilt roll them up,

1 Or, didst found the earth.

10 Thou, Lord, in the beginning; Ps. 102:25-27.
13 Sit on My right hand; Ps. 110:1. Christ applied this to Himself in Matt. 22:41-45.

CHAPTER II.

1 For this reason, it is needful that we give the more earnest heed to the things heard, lest at any time we drift past them. 2 For, if the word spoken through angels became steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a righteous recompense, 3 how shall we escape, having neglected so great salvation; which, indeed, having at first been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard; 4 God testifying with them, both with signs and wonders and manifold miracles, and distributions of the Holy Spirit, according to His will?

5 For not to angels did He subject the future inhabited earth, of which we are speaking; 6 but some one, somewhere, fully testified, saying, "What is man, that Thou rememberest him; or a son of man, that Thou visitest him? 7 Thou madest him a little less than angels; Thou crownedst him with glory and honor; and didst

1 Or, gifts. 2 Or, for a little while.

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

1 For this cause; because of the dignity and glory of Him Who speaks. The things heard; the Gospel as delivered by Jesus or by His authorized ministers. Let us drift past them; fail to get them and appropriate them.

2 Spoken by angels; see Acts 7:38, 39; Gal. 3:19. Steadfast; firm, inviolable except with severe punishment.

3 The future inhabited earth; this was an expression used to indicate the expected reign of the Messiah on earth; but the apostle seems to use the expression to include the whole Christian dispensation, especially the triumphant part of it during Christ's millennial reign.

6 Some one, somewhere, fully testified; Ps. 8:4-9.

8 Put all things in subjection under his feet; Gen. 1:28-30. We do not see everything yet subjected to him; man, by his disobedience, forfeited his right to control the earth.

9 But we behold . . . Jesus . . . crowned with glory and honor; the Man, Christ Jesus, as the Head of redeemed man. Is Lord of earth and Heaven; and, in Him, the words of the Psalmist (8:4-9) will find their complete fulfillment; for in Jesus Christ human nature is exalted to universal empire. On account of the suffering of death; His suffering death was indispensable to His being crowned with glory and honor.

10 It was becoming Him; God the Father. To perfect through suffering, the Captain; Jesus Christ assumed the sins of man; and, because He had his sins on Him. It was needful that He should die; and it was through the suffering of death for others that He became perfect in His character of Mediator and Redeemer. In this way, He had all things put under His feet. (Phil. 2:5-11).

11 He Who sanctifieth; Christ. And those who are sanctified; Christians. All of One; of one nature and of one standing in Christ, their living Head.

12 Saying; Ps. 22:22, referring to Christ.

13 I will put my trust in Him; If Sam. 22:3, where David appears as a type of Christ. Behold, I and the children whom God gave me; Isa. 8:18. Here Isaiah speaks as a type of Christ.
partaken of blood and flesh, He Himself also in like manner took part of the same; that, through death, He might bring to nought him who had the power of death, that is, the Devil; 15 and might release all those who, through fear of death, were all their lifetime subject to bondage. 16 For surely He doth not succor angels, but succoreth Abraham’s seed. 17 Wherefore, it behooved Him in all things to be made like His brethren, that He might become a merciful and faithful High Priest in the things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people; 18 for in that He Himself hath suffered, being tempted, He is able to succor those who are tempted.

CHAPTER III.

1 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of a Heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Jesus, 2 Who was faithful to Him Who appointed Him, as also was Moses in all His house. 3 For This One has been accounted worthy of more glory than Moses, by as much as He Who built 1 the house hath more honor than the house; 4 for every house is built 1 by some one, but He Who built all things is God. 5 And Moses, indeed, was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of the things to be afterward spoken; 6 but Christ as a Son over His own house; Whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the glorying of our hope firm to the end.

7 Wherefore, as the Holy Spirit saith, “To-day, if ye hear His voice, 8 harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness, where your fathers tempted Me by provoking Me, and saw My works, forty years. 10 Wherefore, I was displeased with that generation, and said, ‘They do always err in their heart, and they did not know My ways; 11 as I swore in My wrath, they shall not enter into My rest.’” 12 Take heed, brethren, lest at any time there shall be in anyone of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

1 Wherefore: on account of the character and work of Christ as revealed in the foregoing chapter. Heavenly calling: God’s calling to them to be His children and heirs of Heaven.

2 To Him Who appointed Him: to His high office as Redeemer of man. Moses in all His house: In God’s house, or among God’s chosen people, the Israelites, (Num. 12:7).

3 This One: Christ, as the Builder of God’s house under the Christian economy. More glory than Moses: because Christ is the Builder of His house, while Moses only presided over a house constructed by God; the One is Owner, and the other a tenant.

4 He Who built all things is God: God built all things. These words are added to refer the house, of which Christ is the Builder and Owner, to God as its ultimate Author.

Gr. If they shall enter, etc.

Christ is the Builder and Proprietor of the institution of Christianity; but He has done all this as the Son under the appointment of the Father.

5 Faithful in all His house, as a servant: Moses was merely a servant in the Lord’s house, and not proprietor of it. For a testimony: as to the truth to be spoken by him.

6 As a Son: Christ was faithful over the household of faith. Whose house are we: believers constitute the house of Christ, each member being a lively stone in the building. (1 Peter 2:5).

7 Wherefore: since we are the household of Christ. Saith: Psa. 55:7-10. To-day: God’s time is always to-day, now.

11 I swear in My wrath: Num. 14:23. They shall not enter into My rest: the rest of Canaan, (Deut. 12:9, 10): a type of the Christian’s rest in Christ, (ch. 4:1. 3. 9-11).
from the living God; 13 but exhort one another daily, so long as it is called "Today," lest anyone of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin; 14 for we have come partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end: 15 while it is said, "To-day, if ye hear His voice, harden not your hearts as in the provocation." 3

CHAPTER IV.

1 Let us, therefore, fear, lest a promise still being left of entering into His rest, any one of you should seem to have come short of it. 2 For, indeed, we have had the Gospel proclaimed to us, even as also they; but the word which they heard did not profit them, not having been mingled with faith on the part of those who heard. 3 For we who believed do enter into rest, even as He said, "As I swore in My wrath, they shall not enter into My rest; although the works were finished from the founding of a world." 4 For He hath spoken somewhere concerning the seventh day thus:

1 Gr. The word of the hearing.

NOTES ON CHAPTER IV.

1 His rest: God’s rest provided for His people. This is not the rest of Canaan, but the rest of which this was a type. It is the rest that comes to the believer who habitually lives the Spirit-filled life, and through the Spirit has come into unbroken fellowship with Christ and the Father.
(John 1:14; 14:20, 21, 22; Eph. 3:16-19). Come short of it:
many come short of this blessed rest here, and damage despite their eternal interests thereby.

2 As they: the Israelites in the wilderness. The word which they heard; the offer of rest in Canaan with all its accompanying blessings. Did not profit them: because they did not believe God, and refused, at Kadesh-Barnea, to obey Him. (Num. ch. 14).

3 Do enter into rest; the blessed rest provided in the Gospel for all obedient believers. As He said; Ps. 95:11.
They shall not enter into My rest; the Greek reads, "If they shall enter into My rest," but this is a Hebrew form of expression that means, "They shall not enter." etc. The works were finished; the works of creation.

16 For who, after having heard, did provoke? may, did not all who came out of Egypt through Moses? 17 And with whom was He displeased forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness? 18 And to whom did He swear, that they should not enter into His rest, but to those who were disbelieving? 19 And we see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

17 Whose carcasses fell; Num. 26:64, 65.
18 To whom did He swear; Num. 14:12-35.
19 Because of unbelief; it was unbelief, and the active disobedience that grew out of it, that kept the Israelites out of Canaan; and it is unbelief that keeps multitudes of Christians from entering upon that stage of Christian experience, of which Canaan was a type. If the true be-thailer will yield his being and all he has to God, he will then be ready to enter upon a blessed life of union, victory, rest, and peace in Christ; yet so few are willing to surrender all to Him!

"And God rested on the seventh day from all His works;" 5 and, in this place, again: "They shall not enter into My rest." 6

6 Since, therefore, it remains for some to enter into it, and those to whom the Gospel was formerly proclaimed entered not in because of unbelief, 7 again He designateth a certain day, "To-day" (saying in David, after so long a time, as has been before said), "To-day, if ye hear His voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For, had Joshua given them rest, He would not afterward have spoken of another day. 9 Consequently, there remains a sabbath-keeping for the people of God. 10
For He Who entered into His rest, Himself

4 Somewhere; Gen. 2:1-3, proving that there is a rest upon which God entered after he had finished the work of creation.

6 It remains for some to enter into it; that is, it is still a rest reserved for those who accept it on the terms of the Gospel.

7 He designateth a certain day; after the Israelites had failed to enter into the rest offered to them, God appoints another day. Saying in David; speaking through David, (Ps. 95:7). Of course, the rest that David speaks of is not the rest of Canaan, nor the rest of the sabbath (for both these had been already realized), but he referred to the rest of which these were types.

9 Consequently; as a certain conclusion from the facts given above, there remains a sabbath-keeping for the people of God; and the rest of the first-day Sabbath is a type of eternal rest in Heaven.

10 His rest; God’s rest prepared for His people in Heaven. Rested from His works; from his earthly labors.
As God did; from the works of creation—on the first sabb-th.
also rested from his works, as God did from His Own. 11 Let us, therefore, give diligence to enter into that rest, that no one fall after the same example of unbelief. 12 For the word of God is living, and effectual, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to a dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. 13 And there is no creature that is not manifest in His presence: but all things are naked and laid bare to the eyes of Him with Whom is our account.

14 Having, therefore, a great High Priest, Who hath passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast the confession; 15 for we have not a High Priest, unable to sympathize with our infirmities, but One Who hath been tempted in all points like as we, apart from sin. 16 Let us, therefore, come with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and find grace for seasonable help.

CHAPTER V.

1 For every high priest, taken from among men, is appointed in behalf of men in the things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins; 2 able to bear with the ignorant and erring, since he himself also is encompassed with infirmity; 3 and, on account of it, he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to make offering for sins. 4 And no one takes the honor to himself, but, when called by God, as was also Aaron. 5 Thus Christ also glorified not Himself to become a high priest, but He Who spake to Him, “Thou art My Son, this day have I begotten Thee”; 6 as also, in another place, He saith, “Thou art a Priest forever according to the rank of Melchizedek”; 7 Who, in the days of His flesh, having offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears to Him Who was able to save Him from death, and having been heard by reason of His godly fear, 8 though He was a Son, learned obedience from the things which He suffered; 9 and, having been made perfect, He became the Author of eternal life to all who obey Him; 10 having been addressed by God as “High Priest according to the rank of Melchizedek.”

11 Concerning Whom we have much to say and difficult to explain, since ye have become dull of hearing. 12 For even when, on account of the time, ye ought...
CHAPTER VI.

1 Wherefore, leaving the word of the beginning of Christ, let us press on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, 2 of the teaching of immersions, and laying on of hands, of a resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. 3 And this we will do, if indeed, God permit. 4 For as to those who were once enlightened, and tasted of the heavenly gift, and became partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5 and tasted the good word of God and the powers of the coming age, 6 and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance, since they are crucifying to themselves the Son of God afresh, and putting Him to open shame. 7 For the land which drank in the rain that often comes upon it, and brings forth an herb fit for those for whose sake also it is cultivated, receives blessing from God; 8 but, if it bears thorns and thistles, milk is inexperienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a babe; 14 but solid food is for full-grown men, who by practice have their senses trained for the discernment both of good and evil.

13 Inexperienced in the word of righteousness: having very little knowledge of the character and work of Christ, and the way of salvation through Him. There are millions of such "babes" now who need to be helped.

14 Solid food: the higher truths of the Gospel; such as the Spirit-filled life, the enthroned Christ, holiness, or healing of spirit, soul, and body. For the discernment; for distinguishing between good and evil.

It is rejected, and is near to a curse; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we have become persuaded better things concerning you, and things accompanying salvation, even though we thus speak; 10 for God is not unrighteous to forget your work, and the love which ye showed toward His name, in having ministered to the saints, and still ministering. 11 And we desire that each of you show forth the same diligence to the full assurance of the hope to the end; 12 that ye may not become slothful, but imitators of those who, through faith and long-suffering, inherit the promises. 13 For God, when making a promise to Abraham, since He had no one greater by whom to swear, swore by Himself, 14 saying, "Surely, blessing, I will bless you; and multiplying, I will multiply you." 15 And thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. 16 For men swear by the greater; and the oath for confirmation is an end, to them, of every disbelieving.

1 Or. disapproved. 2 Gr. For burning.

6 Fell away: renounced Christianity, and turned away from Christ. Should one do this, he would be lost without remedy. That one who has been truly born of the Spirit should do this. Is, by no means, likely. In view of the words of Jesus: "I give to them eternal life, and they shall never perish." (John 10:28).

7 The illustration in this verse emphasizes the foregoing teaching, by suggesting that such apostates will find their final doom in the fires of perdition. Receive blessing from God; making it more fruitful. (Mark 4:23).

9 Better things: the writer of this epistle was persuaded that those to whom he was especially writing did not belong to the apostate class.

10 God is not unrighteous: He would not fail to reward them for all their kindness to His people. (Matt. 10:41, 42).

11 The same diligence: as that referred to in v. 10. To the full assurance of the hope: this expresses the object or end had in view by our Christian diligence, and which it secures.

12 Imitators of those: ch. 11:32-40.

16 The oath for confirmation: the oath gives confidence, and puts an end to dispute.
Meditated.

17 Wherein; viz., in the matter of ending disputes by an oath.
18 Two immutable facts: God's promise and His oath, impossible; God's veracity and holiness make it impossible for Him to lie. The hope set before us: the hope of Heaven.
19 Entering into the place within the veil; alluding to the

CHAPTER VII.

1 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him, 2 to whom also Abraham apportioned a tenth of all (first, indeed, interpreted as "King of Righteousness," and then also "King of Salem")—which is king of peace; 3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like to the Son of God), abides a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, to whom Abraham the patriarch gave a tenth of the chief spoils. 5 And those, indeed, from among the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, (though having come out of the loins of Abraham); 6 but he whose genealogy is not reckoned from them has taken tithes of Abraham, and has blessed him who had the promises.

NOTES ON CHAPTER VII.

1 Melchizedek; this unique person seems to have been appointed as a most perfect type of Christ in His priestly office. Mel Abraham; Gen. 14:18, 19.
2 King of Righteousness; this is the meaning of the Hebrew word Melchizedek. Salem; peace. Hence, both in his name and in his place of residence. Melchizedek was a suitable type of the "Prince of Peace." (Isa. 9:6; 11:4, 5; 32:1).
3 Without father; so far as the record goes. The inspired writer was led to omit all mention of everything that would identify Melchizedek as a man. This pictures Christ as coming into His priestly office without any predecessor or successor.
4 How great this man was; see vs. 6 and 7 and notes.
5 Commandment to take tithes; Num. 18:21-32.
6 He whose genealogy is not reckoned from them; Melchizedek did not descend from the stock of Abraham. Received tithes of Abraham; Abraham gave him a tenth of the spoils he had captured from the kings; which was an admission that Melchizedek was his superior.

encouragement, who fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before us; 19 which we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and firm, and entering into the place within the veil; 20 where, as Forerunner in our behalf, Jesus entered, having become a High Priest forever, according to the rank of Melchizedek.

Holy of Holies"—which points to Heaven itself. Hope serves to hold the soul steady amid the trials of life, even as an anchor does a ship.

And, without any dispute, the less is blessed by the better. 8 And here, indeed, men who die receive tithes; but there, one received them who receives witness that he lives. 9 And, so to speak, through Abraham even Levi, who takes tithes, has paid tithes; 10 for he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him.

11 If, therefore, there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there, that another Priest should arise according to the rank of Melchizedek, and not be reckoned according to the rank of Aaron? 12 For, the priesthood being changed, there is made, of necessity, a change of law also.

13 For He of Whom these things are spoken hath taken part in a different tribe from which no one gave attendance at the altar. 14 For it is evident that our Lord hath sprung out of Judah, respecting which tribe Moses spake nothing concern-

1 Gr. So to speak a word.

7 Theless; Abraham. The better; Melchizedek.
8 Men that die; the Jewish priests. He lives; Melchizedek's death was not mentioned. The last note made of him was while he was still living; in this circumstance Melchizedek's priesthood was a more exact type of Christ's than that of the Jewish priests. Melchizedek is described in terms that, in the exact sense, were true of Christ only.
9 Even Levi; the Levitical priests, who were descend-ants of Abraham, paid tithes to Melchizedek in Abraham.
11 If there was perfection; If perfection had come through the Levitical priesthood, there would have been need for no other—not even for that of Christ Himself. Upon it; the Mosaic law and the Levitical priesthood stood together, so that, when one was changed or annulled, the other would be also. The priesthood being set aside by the coming of Christ, the Mosaic law, also, must pass away.

13 He; Christ, spoken of in Ps. 110:4. Hath taken part in a different tribe; a tribe other than that of Levi, from which the Jewish priests were taken.
ing priests. 15 And it is yet far more evident; if, according to the likeness of Melchizedek, there arises another Priest, 16 Who hath been made Priest, not according to a law of a carnal commandment, but according to the power of an endless life; 17 for it is testified of Him, “Thou art a Priest forever according to the rank of Melchizedek.” 18 For there is verily an annulling of a previous commandment, on account of its weakness and unprofitableness (19 for the law perfected nothing), and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. 20 And inasmuch as it was not without the taking of an oath (21 for they, indeed, have been made priests without an oath; but He with an oath through Him Who said to Him, “The Lord swore, and will not repent, ‘Thou art a Priest forever’”), 22 by so much also hath

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Now as a main point to the things being spoken, we have such a High Priest, Who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in Heaven, 2 and Minister of the holy things, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man. 3 For every high priest is appointed

NOTES ON CHAPTER VIII.

2 The true tabernacle: the heavenly sanctuary, of which the earthly was only a type, (v. 5).
3 That This One; Christ. Have something He may offer; as every priest had to make an offering, so Jesus must make His offering. He offered Himself, (ch. 9:28).
4 Not a priest; He could not officiate as priest under the Mosaic law, because he was not of the tribe of Levi. But priesthood over the Levitical is seen in the fact that while the latter was often changing, His is perpetual.

Jesus become the Surety of a better covenant. 23 And they, indeed, have been made priests many in number, because by death they are hindered from continuing; 24 but He, because of His abiding forever, hath His priesthood unchangeable. 25 Whence also He is able to save completely those who come to God through Him, since He is ever living to intercede in their behalf. 26 For such a High Priest was befitting us, holy, harmless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; 27 Who hath no necessity daily, as the high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for His own sins, and then for those of the people (for this He did once for all, when He offered up Himself); 28 for the law constitutes men high priests who have infirmity, but the word of the oath, which was after the law, constitutes the Son perfected forever.

25 To save completely; to the uttermost, to the end. Who come to God through Him: He is the only way that leads the sinner to God (John 14:6). And He saves all who come to God in this way.
26 Was becoming us; was needed by us, and such a One alone could meet our needs. Made higher than the heavens; where He now ministers before the Father in the interest of His followers, (see chs. 8:1, 3, 4; 9:24; I John 2:1). Jesus was, as to His entire being—divine and human—always holy, harmless, undefiled, and separated from sinners. Had it been otherwise, He would have needed a Savior.
27 This He did once for all; when He died on the cross because of the sins that He had assumed. His own death was all that was needed to put away sin. (ch. 9:29). Hence it needed no repetition. His one offering was enough for all time. Of course, He did not suffer for Himself, as He had no sin of His own; but His sufferings were entirely vicarious.
28 Perfected forever; perfected as a High Priest, (chs. 2:10; 5:9). to offer both gifts and sacrifices; wherefore, it is necessary that This One also have something which He may offer. 4 If, therefore, He were on earth, He would not be a priest, since there are those offering the gifts according to the law, 5 who, indeed, serve in the copy and shadow of the heavenly things, as Moses has been divinely warned, when having offered Himself as a sacrifice, He ascended to Heaven, where He is still attending to His priestly functions, (ch. 9:12).

5 Serve in a copy and shadow; the priestly ministrations were but a copy or shadow of the things to be carried out by Jesus in Heaven. As Moses; Ex. 23:10. God showed Moses a pattern or model of the tabernacle, and required him to make it according to the model.
about to make the tabernacle; for "See," saith He, "that you make all things according to the pattern which was showed you in the mount"; 6 but now he hath obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much also as He is Mediator of a better covenant, which, indeed, has been enacted on better promises. 7 For, if that first covenant had been faultless, place would not be sought for a second; 8 for, finding fault with them, He saith, "Behold, the days are coming, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Judah; 9 not according to the covenant which I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in My covenant, and I regarded them not.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Verily, therefore, the first covenant used to have ordinances of divine service, and the sanctuary pertaining to the world. 2 For a tabernacle was prepared; the first, in which were both the lamp-stand and the table, and the show-bread, which, indeed, is called "Holy;" 3 and, after the second veil, a tabernacle which is called the "Holy of Holies;" 4 having a golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on every side with gold, in which was a golden pot containing the manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; 5 and over it Cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy-seat; concerning which things we cannot now speak in detail.

6 Now, these things being thus prepared, the priests go continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services; 7 but into the second, the high priest alone, once a year, not without blood, which he offers for himself and for the ignorances of the people; 8 the Holy

7 First covenant: given on Sinai. The second: the Gospel.

8 Finding fault with them: that is, with the Jews who lived under the first covenant. He saith: Jer. 31:33-34.

10 Putting My laws into their mind: a prophecy of what is accomplished in regeneration, when the believer's mind and heart are deeply imbued with the spirit of obedience. (Rom. 8:3, 4).

11 All shall know Me: a promise to be realized more fully in the Millennium, (Isa. 11:9; Hab. 2:14).

12 Merciful: under the Gospel, God displays His mercy in pardoning all the sins of the truly penitent, who base their plea for pardon on the vicarious sufferings of Christ.

13 Is near vanishing away: meaning that the first covenant of works, or of law, having served its purpose, is now ready to disappear.

3 Or, the propitiatory. 4 Or, sins of ignorance.

5 Cherubim; Ex. 25:18, 22.

6 Continually: daily, or habitually. This was called the Holy Place.

7 The second; second apartment, called "the Holy of Holies." Once a year; only on one day in each year. Blood: the blood of the animals offered in sacrifice. One has a beautiful realization of what was typified by "the Holy of Holies," when, after a full surrender of himself to God, he realizes the inletting of the Holy Spirit; and through the inflowing Spirit, comes into conscious union with Christ enthroned within his heart; and, later, is brought into conscious fellowship with the Father also. (I John 1:3; John 11:23); thus living, habitually, what is called the Trinity-filled life. (Eph. 3:16-19).
Spirit signifying this, that the way into the Holy of Holies has not yet been made manifest, while the first tabernacle is yet standing; 9 which, indeed, is a figure for the time present, according to which are offered both gifts and sacrifices, which cannot, as to the conscience, make the worshipper perfect; 10 being only (with meats and drinks and various immersions) ordinances of the flesh, imposed until a time of reformation. 11 But Christ, having come as a High Priest of the good things to come, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made by hand (that is, not of this creation), 12 nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood, entered, once for all, into the Holy of Holies, having obtained eternal redemption. 13 For, if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctifies to the purification of the flesh; 14 how much more shall the blood of Christ, Who through the Eternal Spirit offered Himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? 15 And, for this cause, He is the Mediator of a new covenant, that, death having taken place for redemption from the transgressions against the first covenant, those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. 16 For where there is a testament, there is a necessity that the death of the testator 5 be brought in. 17 For a testament over dead persons is of force; since it is never valid while the testator is living. 18 Wherefore, not even has the first covenant been dedicated without blood; 19 for, when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the law, taking the blood of the calves and of the goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, he sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, 20 saying, ‘This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded in respect to you.” 21 Moreover, both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the service, he sprinkled in like manner with the blood. 22 And nearly all things are cleansed, according to the law, with blood; and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission. 23 There was, therefore, a necessity that the copies of the things in Heaven should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves, with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ entered not into holy places made with hands, patterns of the true; but into Heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God in our behalf; 25 nor yet, that He should many times offer Himself, as the high priest enters into the Holy of Holies every year with blood not His own; 26 else had it been needful for Him oftentimes to suffer since the founding of a world; but now, once for all, at the end of the ages, He hath been manifested for the putting away of 5 Gr. Him who made the covenant.

8 The way into the Holy of Holies: Into God’s presence. God met the priests and communed with them at the mercy seat, between the Cherubim; but a veil shut out the view of Him from the people. This veil was rent when Christ died; and now all true believers are constituted a “royal priesthood,” having admission, through Christ’s blood, into the Holy of Holies. The first tabernacle: made under the direction of Moses, and representing the whole Mosaic dispensation. When the veil of the temple was rent at the death of Christ, the Mosaic dispensation was fulfilled, and passed away.

9 A figure: a type of the good things to come under the Christian dispensation. As to the conscience: the offerings under the law gave ceremonial cleansing, but did not reach the conscience, so as to remove guilt.

10 Reformation: the new order of things under the Gospel.

11 Good things to come: under the Gospel—which things were typified in the Mosaic economy. Greater and more perfect tabernacle: Heaven itself, where Christ now represents His people.

13 Ashes of a heifer: Num. 19. To the purification of the flesh; the removal of ceremonial defilement under the law of Moses.

11 Cleanse your conscience; from all taint of sin, and enable you to worship God in spirit and in truth.

15 For this cause: in view of the superior efficacy of His blood. The new covenant: the words, covenant and testament, are both from the same Greek word. The new covenant of which Christ is Mediator, is also a testament, when we view it as ratified by His expiatory death on the cross. For the redemption from the transgressions: for their forgiveness through the payment of the ransom.

18 The first covenant: that established at Sinai. Without blood: it was ratified by the blood of the sacrifice which typified Christ. Who ratified the second covenant with His own blood.

19 When Moses had spoken: Ex. 24:4-11.

21 Sprinkled . . . all the vessels; Ex. 29:12, 20, 30.

22 Cleansed: Lev. 4:30, 34, 35; 17:11.

23 Copies: patterns of the heavenly. Better sacrifices: meaning the blood of Christ, which cleanses all true believers from sin.

25 Since a founding of a world; the Greek word Katabolos, translated foundation, means, more literally, a casting down; then the casting down of the world, it seems, might refer to the fall of man, or the putting of the earth
CHAPTER X.

1 For the law, having a shadow of the good things to come, not the very likeness of the things, can never, with the same sacrifices, which they offer year by year continually, perfect those who come to them; 2 else would they not have ceased to be offered? because the worshipers, having been cleansed once for all, would have had no more conscience of sins. 3 But in these sacrifices there is a remembrance of sins year by year; 4 for it is impossible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins. 5 Wherefore, coming into the world, He saith, 'Sacrifice and offering Thou didst not wish, but a body didst Thou prepare for Me; 6 in whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin Thou hadst no pleasure. 7 Then said I, 'Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it has been written concerning Me), to do Thy will, O God.'"

8 Saying above, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt-offerings and offerings for sin," Thou didst not wish; neither hadst pleasure therein, which, indeed, are offered according to the law; 9 then hath He said, "Lo, I have come to do Thy will." He taketh away the first, that He may establish the second: 10 in which will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest, indeed, stands daily ministering, and oftentimes offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins; 13 but This Man, having offered one sacrifice for sins forever, saith, 13 from henceforth awaiting until His foes shall be placed as a footstool for His feet. 14 For by one offering He hath perfected forever those who are being sanctified. 15 And the Holy Spirit also testifieth to us; for after He had said, 16 "This is the covenant that I will covenant with them after those days," saith the Lord, "Putting my laws on their hearts, I will also write them upon their mind; 17 and their sins and their iniquities I will in nowise remember any more." 18 But where there

NOTES ON CHAPTER X.

1 The law: the ceremonial law, or Jewish economy. A shadow: an emblem of future blessings. Can never . . . perfect: that is, the sacrifices under the law could never perfect the conscience, by the removal of sin.
2 A remembrance of sins year by year: proving that the guilt of sin was not removed by the offerings.
3 Blood of bulls and goats: this could not take away sin; but, doubtless, all who looked through these offerings to the crucified One, and saw in Him their Sin-bearer, received pardon.
4 He: Jesus Christ. Sacrifice and offering: such as were made under the law. (Ps. 40:6-9): a Psalm which had its highest fulfillment in Christ. A body didst Thou prepare for Me: a body for sacrifice, a body to die on the cross for men.
5 Or, higher up.
6 Or, through His sacrifice.
7 In the volume of the book: in the Scriptures of the Old Testament.
8 Saying above: in v. 5.
9 The first: the sacrifices under the law. The second: Christ offering Himself as a sacrifice to put away sin.
10 In which will: that is, in the will of God as executed in the death of Christ. The death of Christ in behalf of man gives him judicial sanctification.
11 Ofttimes: morning and evening.
12 This One: Christ. On the right hand of God: where Jesus is seated as the believer’s Representative, thus proving that His sacrifice for sin was accepted by the Father.
13 The Holy Spirit also testifieth to us: of the great truths above stated, as in Jer. 31:33, 34; Ezek. 36:26, 27; or it may refer to the direct testimony of the Spirit. (Rom. 8:16).
is remission of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

19 Having, therefore, brethren, boldness for the entrance into the holy places by the blood of Jesus, 20 which He dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is, His flesh; 21 and, having a Great Priest over the house of God; 22 let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having had our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our body washed with pure water, 23 let us hold fast the confession of the hope without wavering (for faithful is He Who promised); 24 and let us consider one another, to incite to love and good works; 25 not forsaking the gathering of ourselves together, as is the custom of some, but exhorting, and so much the more as ye see the day approaching. 26 For, if we sin wilfully after we received the full knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, 27 but a certain fearful expectation of judgment and fierceness of fire about to devour the opposers. 28 Anyone, having set aside Moses' law, dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses; 29 of how much worse punishment, think ye, shall he be accounted worthy, who trampled under foot the Son of God, and ac-accounted the blood of the covenant with which He was sanctified an unholy thing, and treated with contempt the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know Him Who said, "To Me belongs vengeance; I will recompense," saith the Lord; and again, "The Lord will judge His people." 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God!

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were enlightened, ye endured a great conflict of sufferings; 33 partly, indeed, when ye were made a spectacle both with reproaches and tribulations; and partly, when ye became partakers with those who were so used; 34 for ye both sympathized with those in bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your possessions; knowing that ye yourselves have a better possession and an abiding one.

35 Cast not away, therefore, your boldness, which, indeed, has great recompense.

36 For ye have need of patience, that, after having done the will of God, ye may receive the promise. 37 "For yet a little while, how short! how short! The Coming One will come, and will not tarry.

18 No more offering for sin: because no more is needed after sin is put away.
19 Holy places: the real presence of God. By the blood of Jesus: which He has already presented there in our behalf. Beloved, do you know anything personally about dwelling in the Holy of Holies with Christ in the very presence of the Father?
20 A new and living way; this entrance into the Holies is a new way, indeed, being only foreshadowed in the Mosaic economy. It is also the way of life, eternal life, and life abounding: Dedicated for us: Christ instituted and dedicated this new way for us. Through the veil, that is, His flesh: as the earthly Holy of Holies was reached through the veil, so we have access to the very Presence of God through the veil of Christ's flesh offered to put away our sins.
21 The house of God: the true Holy of Holies, where Christ dwells at the right hand of the Father. This house may also refer to, or include, the household of faith.
22 Draw near: to the very throne of grace. Hearts sprinkled: bodies washed: here reference is had to the consecration of Levitical priests by the sprinkling of blood and the washing of water. (Lev. 8:6, 23, 24): possibly also this may refer to the "washing of regeneration." (Titus 3:5; I Pet. 1:2).
24 To incite to love and good works: to stimulate and encourage them to these things.

2 Gr. A common.

25 The gathering of ourselves together: for the public worship of God. The day approaching: the day of Christ's coming to reward His friends.
26 Sin wilfully: by renouncing the Gospel, after once having embraced it. (ch. 6:4-8). No other atonement will ever be made; and, if a person repudiates the one Christ has made, he is left in his sins without any remedy.
27 Died without mercy: (Deut. 13:6-10).
28 Shall be accounted worthy: who, after having accepted Christ, turns away from Him, and treats Him as a vile person, and spurns the influence of the Spirit.
29 To Me belongs vengeance: (Deut. 32:35).
30 It is a fearful thing: to fall into the hands of God out of Christ, (ch. 12:31; Deut. 4:24).
31 A great conflict of sufferings: in the bitter persecutions they had suffered for their loyalty to Christ.
32 Took joyfully the spoiling of your possessions: besides being otherwise cruelly treated, the early Christians were despoiled of their possessions.
33 Boldness: confidence or assurance in the ability and willingness of Christ to deliver, support, and save. Great recompense: in victory in this life, and eternal blessedness in Heaven.
34 Patience: after having done the will of God, we need to endure uncomplainingly all that falls to our lot. The promise: eternal life.
35 The Coming One: Christ.
CHAPTER XI.

1 Now faith is an assurance of things hoped for, a sure persuasion of things not seen; 2 for in this the elders were well reported of. 3 By faith we perceive that the ages have been constituted by the word of God, so that what is seen has not arisen out of things that appear. 4 By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he received witness that he was righteous, God testimony of his gifts; and through it he, being dead, is still speaking. 5 By faith Enoch was translated, so as not to see death; and he was not found, because God translated him; for, it has been witnessed to him that, before his translation, he had been well-pleasing to God. 6 And, apart from faith, it is impossible to please Him; for he that comes to God must believe that He is, and that He becomes a rewarder to those who seek after Him. 7 By faith Noah, being divinely instructed concerning things not yet seen, moved with fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. 8 By faith Abraham, when called, obeyed to go forth into the place which he was about to receive for an inheritance; and he went forth, not knowing whither he was going. 9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as a foreign land, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise; 10 for he was waiting for the city which has the foundations, whose architect and builder is God. 11 By faith Sarah herself also received power to conceive seed, even when past the age of child-bearing, since she accounted Him faithful, Who promised. 12 Wherefore also there sprang from one, and one impotent as to these things, as many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea-shore, innumerable. 13 These all died according to faith, not having obtained the promises, but having seen them from afar, and having greeted them, and having confessed that they were strangers and sojourners on the earth. 14 For those who say such things make it

NOTES ON CHAPTER XI.

1 Assurance: substance or reality. A sure persuasion of things not seen; faith makes invisible things real and inspiring.

2 Well reported of; had a good report made respecting them; as in the many instances following in this chapter.

3 The ages: the word seems here to include the material universe, and the laws controlling it. We are to gather from the other statements in this verse, that God called into existence matter, and then fashioned the universe out of it.

4 More excellent sacrifice: a fuller sacrifice, as containing in itself both a thank-offering and one of expiation also, since it was an animal. God bearing witness to his gifts; Gen. 4:4-7. Still speaking; by his example.

5 Enoch was translated; was removed to Heaven without seeing death. Pleased God; by walking with Him, and obeying Him in all things. All Christians can please God, if they will yield their lives wholly to Him.

6 Without faith; we can do nothing that is pleasing to Him.

7 Being divinely instructed; in a vision or dream. This instruction related to the flood, and how he was to escape.

1 Gr. substance. 2 Gr. proof.

3 Gr. excepting. 4 Gr. For founding a seed.

It. Moved with fear; because he believed God's revelation to him regarding the flood. (Gen. 6:14-22). Through which; through which faith and its fruits. Condemned the world; his example of faith and obedience condemned their unbelief.

8 Not knowing where he was going; Gen. 12:1. This is a foreboding illustration of a Christian when he first yields himself wholly to God, and starts out to follow Him: he has no well-known path, but simply follows where his Guide leads him.

9 As a foreign land; Abraham really owned no land except that which he bought for a burial ground, (Gen. 23rd chapter).

10 The city having the foundations; the home of all the saved, (ch. 12:22-24; Rev. 21:10-27).

12 Impotent as to these things; no longer able, in the nature, to become a father of children.

13 Not having obtained the promises; not having realized them. Strangers and sojourners on the earth; Gen. 23:4. Abraham in Canaan was a type of all true Christians, who are pilgrims, sojourners, and strangers in this world. (Gen. 47:9; 1 Chron. 29:13).
manifest that they are seeking their paternal home. 15 And, if, indeed, they had been mindful of that country from which they went out, they would have had opportunity to return. 16 But now they long for a better country, that is, a heavenly one; wherefore, God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God; for He prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham, when tried, has offered up Isaac; yea, he who gladly received the promises was offering up his only begotten son, 18 to whom it was said, “In Isaac shall your seed be called;” 19 accounting that God is able to raise even from the dead; whence he did also, as in a figure, receive him back. 20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, concerning things about to be.

21 By faith Jacob, when dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph; and he worshiped leaning on the top of his staff. 22 By faith Joseph, when approaching his end, made mention of the departure of the sons of Israel, and gave orders concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses, when born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a comely child; and they were not afraid of the king’s command. 24 By faith Moses, when grown up, refused to be called son of Pharaoh’s daughter, 25 choosing rather to suffer evil with the people of God, than to have an enjoyment of sin for a season; 26 regarding the reproach of the Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he was looking away to the recompense. 27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing Him Who is invisible. 28 By faith he has instituted the passover, and the applying of the blood, lest the destroyer of the first-born should touch them. 29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land, which the Egyptians, making an attempt to do, were swallowed up.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell, having been compassed about for seven days. 31 By faith Rahab the harlot did not perish with those who disbelieved; having received the spies with peace.

32 And what more am I to say? for the time will fail me, if I speak at length concerning Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David also, and of Samuel, and the prophets; 33 who, through faith, subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, became mighty in war, put to flight armies of aliens.
Women received their dead by a resurrection; and others were tortured, not accepting the redemption, that they might obtain a better resurrection. 36 And others had trial of mockings and scourgings, and, moreover, of bonds and imprisonments: 37 they were stoned, they were sawn and, they were tempted, they perished in the slaughter of the sword;

9 Gr. Out of. 10 Or, deliverance.

35 Women received their dead: I Kings 17:17-24; 11 Kings 4:32-37. A better resurrection: a resurrection to eternal life and glory. 36-38 Here we have a condensed picture of the sufferings to which God's faithful people were subjected. 39 Having received a good report through faith: they received this report from God's servants; and here their faith is reported in the word of God as an example for Christians. The promise; referring to the promised Messiah and the blessings of the Gospel. 40 Something better: the fulfillment of the promises respecting the Messiah. Apart from us: those who believed in the Messiah to come, and those who have believed in Him since His coming to put away sin, together complete the holy of the saved.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Therefore, having so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us—having thrown off every encumbrance and the easily besetting sin—let us run with patience the race lying before us; 2 looking away to the Author and Perfecter of our faith, Jesus; Who, in consideration of the joy lying before Him, endured the cross, despising shame, and hath taken a seat at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 For consider Him Who hath endured such contradiction of sinners against Himself, lest ye become weary, fainting in your souls. 4 Not yet did ye resist unto blood, contending against sin; 5 and ye have forgotten the exhortation which, indeed, reasons with you as with sons: "My son, do not lightly regard the chastening of the Lord; neither faint, when reproved by Him; 6 for whom the Lord loveth, He chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom He acknowledge." 7 For chastening endure ye: God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father chastens not? 8 But, if ye are without chastisement, of which all have become partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons. 9 Furthermore, we used to have the fathers of our flesh as chasteners, and we reverenced them: shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of our spirits, and live? 10 For they, indeed, for a few days were chastening us, according to what seemed good to them; but He for our profit, that we may partake of His holiness. 11 All chastening, indeed, for the present seems not to be joyous, but grievous;

NOTES ON CHAPTER XII.

1 So great a cloud of witnesses: alluding to the Grecian games in which the contestants were surrounded by large crowds of spectators to witness their feats. Here the encircling hosts are supposed to be the ancient worthies who have gone on before; having obtained the reward of their faith. Every encumbrance: everything to hinder one's progress in the heavenly race—especially the sin to which one is most addicted.

2 Looking away to Jesus: not only as our Model, and as an Example of one who ran successfully, but as also the One to supply us with wisdom, knowledge, and strength. The joy: arising from the redemption and eternal salvation of countless sinners, who, but for His interposition, would have been eternally lost. Despising shame: the shame of dying on the cross as a malefactor.

3 Consider Him; meditate upon what He endured, and be encouraged by His triumph over all His foes.

4 Resisted unto blood; ye have not yet been called to pour out your life-blood, as did Christ. 5 The exhortation: Prov. 3:11, 12; Rev. 3:19. 7 Chastening: in general, correction; discipline, training; but here, it means trials that are meant to correct one's faults. 8 All; all true believers. Bastards: persons born out of wedlock, hence illegitimates. God does not correct these as He does His true followers. God seems to deal with His people according to their nearness to Him. Those who are content with mere salvation are not chastened as those who are seeking for God's best.

10 That we may partake of His holiness; our Father chastens His true sons, that they may drop everything in their lives and characters, that His Himself does not approve; and, as they yield up every imperfection to Him, He cancels it, and imparts to them His own holiness—which is the holiness and nature of Christ. This is a process.
but afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained thereby. 12 Wherefore, lift up the relaxed hands and the feeble knees, 13 and make straight paths for your feet, that the lame be not turned out of the way, but rather be healed.

14 Pursue peace with all, and the holiness without which no one shall see the Lord; 15 looking carefully, lest there be any one falling short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness, springing up, trouble you, and through it many be defiled; 16 lest there be any fornicator or profane person, as Esau, who, for one meal, yielded up his own birth-right. 17 For ye know that even after that, when wishing to inherit the blessing, he was rejected; for he found no place for repentance, although he earnestly sought it with tears. 18 For ye have not come to a mountain that is touched and burning with fire, and to blackness, and darkness, and tempest, 19 and the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice those who heard entreated that no word more should be added to them; 20 for they could not

21 Peaceful fruit of righteousness: after the chastisement has had its intended effect, the peaceful fruit of righteousness will abound in the life. The chastening may hurt for a time; but, after one has come to see the great benefits arising therefrom, he can count it all joy when he is subjected to all needful trials.

22 Lift up; encourage and animate the faltering and despising, (Isa. 35:3-6).

23 Make straight paths for your feet; choose God’s word to be a “lamp to your feet, and a light to your path.” (Psalm 119:105): not only for your good and the glory of God, but also on account of others, who will be helped or injured by your example.

24 Pursue peace: by getting the Prince of Peace enthroned in your heart, and then walking under His guidance. Holiness: this, too, we are commanded to pursue. Holiness of character, or true Christ-likeness, is the great end of salvation; and people who care nothing for it have no promise of seeing God. As one becomes, more and more, a partaker of the Divine Holiness, and nature (II Pet. 1:4), he can, more and more, see God, and fellowship with Him in this life.

25 Any one; any Christian. Full short of the grace of God: fail to get that holiness of character, and to live such a life, as to glorify God, and bring the best results to others. Root of bitterness: such as envy, jealousy, anger, or other “malevolent affection”; or it may refer also to false doctrines leading to the rejection of truth. (Deut. 29:18).

26 Fornicator . . . profane person: examples of “the root of bitterness.” Esau was a profane person, in that he bartered off a sacred thing for sensual enjoyment, or for one meal. (Gen. 25:28-35).

27 No place of repentance: that is, no place for available repentance, such as would give back the forfeited birth-right. This is true whether we refer the word “repentance” to Esau or to Isaac.

28 A mount; Mount Sinai, and the terrors accompanying the giving of the law. (Ex. 19:9-25; 20:1-22). Sinai here, as in Gal. 4:24, 25, seems to represent the whole Moabite economy.

29 If a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned: much more a man. (Ex. 19:12, 13, 21-26). This statement gave some idea of the great distance between God and man before Christ’s death on the cross.

30 Come to Mount Zion; the spiritual Zion: that is, the true believer, following the Savior, has entered, spiritually, into “the Holy of Holies,” where God and Christ are; and to this Holy Center all angels and saints are finally to be assembled. “Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all,” (Gal. 4:26). And myriads of angels; see Eph. 1:10; Col. 1:16.

31 General festal thron: this expression is, by Rotherham, applied to “angels” just preceding it; and he renders it “Myriads of messengers in high festival.” This construction has this fact to favor it: viz., that it remove, the difficulty of leading one to conjecture who this “general festal thron” is. Assembly of the first-born; that is, either all who are born of the Spirit, or the more distinguished of them; as apostles, prophets, etc. Spirits of just men; who have not yet received their glorified bodies.

32 Blood of sprinkling: meaning the blood of Christ, which cleanses the conscience from all sin, (ch. 9:14; 10:29).

33 Him Who speaketh; God, speaking in His word, Him who spake on earth; Moses. (Deut. 15:9-10).

34 Then; when Moses received the law on the mount. (Ex. 20:1-17). Not only the earth, but also the heaven; Hag. 2:6, 7. Compare also Isa. 13:13; Matt. 21:22.
moval of the things shaken, as of things that have been made, that the things that are not shaken may remain. 28 Wherefore, receiving a kingdom that cannot be

27. The things shaken: everything that is transitory will be removed; such as the Mosaic ritual and every system that is alien to Christ. Cannot be shaken: the Kingdom of Christ and the spiritual blessings connected with it.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Let brotherly love continue. 2 Do not forget to show love 1 for strangers; for thereby some entertained angels unawares. 3 Remember the prisoners, as bound with them; those ill-treated, as being yourselves also in the body. 4 Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled; for fornicators and adulterers God will judge. 5 Let your disposition be without fondness for money; content with the present things; for He Himself hath said, “I will in no-wise leave you, neither will I in any wise forsake you.” 6 So that with good courage we say, “The Lord is my Helper, I will not be afraid; what shall man do to me?”

7 Remember those who are your leaders, who spake to you the word of God; and, considering the issue of whose manner of life, imitate their faith. 8 Jesus Christ is yesterday and to-day the same—and forever. 9 Be not carried away by manifold strange teachings; for it is good that the heart be established with grace, not shaken, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear; 29 for, verily, our God is a consuming fire.

28 Let us have grace: though grace is the gift of God. Christians are responsible for having it; and are consumable, if they have it not.

29 A consuming fire: Deut. 4:24.

with foods, in which those who occupied 3 themselves were not profited.

10 We have an altar, from which those who serve the tabernacle have no right to eat. 11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the holy place through the priest as an offering for sin, are burned without the camp. 12 Wherefore, Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people through His own blood, suffered without the gate. 13 Therefore, let us go forth to Him without the camp, bearing His reproach; 14 For we have not here an abiding city, but we are seeking for the one about to come. 15 Through Him, therefore, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually; that is, the fruit of our lips making confession to His name. 16 But, of well-doing, and contributing, be not forgetful: for with such sacrifices God is well-pleased.

17 Obey those who are your leaders, and submit to them; for they watch in behalf of your souls, as those who are to give an account; that they may do this with joy, and not with sighing; for this would be unprofitable for you.

1 Or, hospitality. 2 Or, the things on hand.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIII.

2 Entertained angels; Gen. 18:3-18; 19:1-3.
3 Remember the prisoners: those in bonds for professing their faith in Christ. As bound with them: make their cause your own.
4 Marriage: marriage should be regarded as a sacred relation, and should be scrupulously guarded from all pollution.
5 Without fondness for money: the love of money is a root of every evil. (I Tim. 6:10): hence the least fondness for it should be checked. Will in no-wise leave you... forsake you: Deut. 31:6; I Chron. 29:20. These specific promises, given to Israel and Solomon, are here generalized, and made applicable to all believers.
6 The issue of whose manner of life: the results of such lives. (Acts 7:59, 60).
7 Jesus Christ is the same: therefore, He will continue to bless, protect, and provide for His people.
8 Food: meaning the Jewish distinctions regarding food, and the whole ceremonial law. It is the grace of God that establishes the heart, and not food, or any ceremonial observance.
9 Gr. Walked.
10 We: true believers in Christ.
11 Whose blood is brought into the holy places: Lev. 16:17. In being burned without the camp, these bodies typified the sacrifice of Christ. Who suffered without the gate of Jerusalem—which city, in this connection, answers to the camp in the wilderness.
12 With His own blood: which Christ, as High Priest, carried into the presence of God in Heaven, (ch. 9:12, 26). Without the gate: John 19:17, 18.
13 Let us go forth to Him without the camp; let us follow Jesus in His shame and suffering, leaving all rites and ceremonies of the past dispensation, and proud, formal religious notions of our times.
14 We have not here an abiding city: our stay here will be brief; so let us be fully identified with Him Who suffered for us without the gate; and we will find, in due time, the city that has foundations. (ch. 11:10; Rev. 21:2).
15 Through Him: Christ, our Great High Priest. The sacrifice of praise: which was shadowed forth in the thank-offering. The fruit of our lips: sacrifices of praise. (Eph. 5:19, 20; I Thess. 5:16, 18).
16 Contributing: sharing blessings of every kind with others, as opportunities offer.
18 Pray for us; for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to deport ourselves honestly in all things. 19 And I the more earnestly exhort you to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now the God of peace, Who brought up from the dead the Great Shepherd of the sheep, in virtue of the blood of an eternal covenant, even our Lord Jesus, make you perfect in every good thing to do His will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to Whom be the glory forever. Amen.

22 But I exhort you, brethren, bear with the word of exhortation; for, indeed, I wrote to you in few words. 23 Know ye that our brother Timothy has been set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all those who are your leaders, and all the saints. Those from Italy salute you.

25 Grace be with you all.

19 Restored to you the sooner; be able to visit you the sooner. This sounds very much like Paul.

20 In virtue of the blood of an eternal covenant; this "eternal covenant" between the Father and the Son required that the Son's blood should be shed for the remission of sins; and it was in virtue of this shed blood that Jesus was raised from the dead, and assigned to the headship of all creation.

21 Well-pleasing in His sight; if one is wholly yielded to God in the spirit of absolute obedience, the Lord will work in him "All the good pleasure of His will," enriching him with all the fruitage of the Spirit, (Gal, 5:22, 23), and equipping him for the most blessed service.
THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

That the person here alluded to, whom Paul calls an apostle, and "the Lord's brother" (Gal. 1:19), and who is confessedly identical with the James mentioned in Acts 12:17; 15:13; 21:18, is the writer of this epistle, has been generally conceded; but whether he is the same with James the son of Alpheus who was one of the twelve, (Matt. 10:3), is a question that has never been fully settled. The chief objection to this view is, that, if he were the son of Alpheus, he could not be "the Lord's brother"; while the argument for his being identical with the son of Alpheus is, that if he was not identical with the son of Alpheus, there were three apostles bearing the name James—which would seem to make thirteen apostles instead of only twelve. Those who contend for the identity of "the Lord's brother" with James the son of Alpheus, make James the son of Alpheus a cousin, instead of a brother, of our Lord. We have no means of determining just how this is, and we leave it. James was a man of prominence among the apostles and brethren. Paul recognized him as one of the "pillars" (Gal. 2:9), being mentioned before Peter and John. The date of the epistle is uncertain, though it was probably written not many years before the destruction of Jerusalem, where it was manifestly written, probably about A. D. 69.

tempted with evils, and He Himself tempteth no one. 14 But each one is tempted, when by his own desire he is drawn away and enticed. 15 Then the desire, having conceived, brings forth sin; and sin, when completed, brings forth death. 16 Be not deceived, my beloved brethren. 17 Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the lights, with Whom there is no variableness or shadow cast by turning. 18 Having willed it, He brought us forth with a word of truth, that we might be a certain first-fruit of His creatures.

19 Ye know this, my beloved brethren; but let every man be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; 20 for man’s wrath works not God’s righteousness. 21 Wherefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive in meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. 22 And become doers of the word, and not hearers only, deluding yourselves. 23 Because, if anyone is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a mirror; 24 for he observed himself, and went away, and straightway he forgot what manner of man he was. 25 But he who looks carefully into a perfect law—that of liberty—and remains by it, becoming not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work—this man shall be happy in his doing. 26 If anyone thinks that he is religious, while he bridles not his own tongue, but deceives his own heart, this man’s religion is vain. 27 A religion, pure and undefiled with our God and Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their tribulation, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

14 By his own desire; his desire for something wrong.
15 The desire; the inward nature that longs for things forbidden is here referred to as the parent of sinful deeds. Sin; sin in the life. Death; eternal death, the legitimate fruit of sin.
16 Be not deceived; in the matters of temptation, sin, etc.
18 Having willed it; having willed that we should become His children. With a word of truth; the word of God is the instrument which the Spirit uses in making one His child. (I Pet. 1:23). First-fruit; the Gospel as preached first to the Jews was followed by results in the conversion of some of them, answering to the first-fruit in Lev. 23:9-14.
19 Ye know this; some texts are altogether different here; giving “wherefore,” instead of “ye know.” Swift to hear; the instruction which God gives. Slow to speak; as a teacher, or to censure others. Slow to wrath; this amounts to a prohibition of wrath; for wrath is sinful. (Col. 3:8).

CHAPTER II.

1 My brethren, hold not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. 2 For, if there come into your synagogue a man with a gold ring, in splendid apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile apparel; 3 and ye show regard to him who is wearing the splendid apparel, and say, “Sit here in a good place”; and say to the poor man, “Stand, or sit under my footstool”; 4 do ye not make a distinction among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts? 5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, did not God choose the poor of the world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him? 6 But ye dishonored the poor man! Do not the rich oppress you, and do they not drag you before the judgment-seats? 7 Do they judges, or judges that think evil thoughts, and make unrighteous distinctions.

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

1 With respect to persons; let not the outward appearance of people be the test of your judgment. “Judge not, according to the appearance.” (John 7:24).
4 Judges with evil thoughts; that is, evil-thinking judges, or judges that think evil thoughts, and make unrighteous distinctions.
5 Did not God choose the poor; to be His disciples, and to be enriched with His boundless grace? “Not many wise men...called.” (I Cor. 1:27).
6 Do not the rich oppress you; why, then, show them such marked attention?
not blaspheme the worthy name by which ye were called? 8 If, however, ye fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, “You shall love your neighbor as yourself,” ye do well; 9 but, if ye show respect to persons, ye commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whosoever keeps the whole law, but stumbles in one point, has become guilty of all. 11 For He Who said, “Do not commit adultery,” said also, “Do not kill.” Now, if you do not commit adultery, but kill, you have become a transgressor of the law. 12 So speak, and so do, as those who are about to be judged by a law of liberty. 13 For the judgment is without mercy to him who showed no mercy: mercy exults over judgment.

14 What profit is it, my brethren, if anyone says he has faith, but has not works; can such faith save him? 15 If a brother or a sister be naked, and in want of daily food, 16 and one of you say to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled,” but ye give them not the things needful for the body, what does it profit? 17 Even if it have not works, is dead in itself.

18 But some one will say, “You have faith, and I have works”: show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works.

19 You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder! 20 But are you willing to know, O vain man, that faith apart from works is worthless? 21 Was not Abraham, our father, justified by works, when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? 22 You see that faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith perfected; 23 and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness”; and he was called “God’s Friend.”

24 Ye see that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 And, in like manner, was not also Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she received the messengers, and sent them out by another way? 26 For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so faith apart from works is dead.

7 The worthy name: the name of Christ.
8 The royal law: the law of love, called royal to show its pre-eminence. (Matt. 22:37, 38).
9 Being convicted by the law: shown by the law to be violators.
10 Stumbles in one point: fails in one point to keep the law. The law is considered as a whole, and he who violates one item of it is liable for all—that is, he has the whole authority of the law against him. This would not mean, however, that the man who violates but one item of the law is as guilty as if he had violated all the items composing the law; else all sinners would be equally guilty.
12 Law of liberty: see note on ch. 1:25.
13 Judgment is without mercy: there will be no mercy mingled with the condemnation of the man who has shown no mercy to others.
14 Can such faith save him: such faith as this, a faith that is accompanied by no works? No.
16 Be ye warned: giving them words only, when clothing should be given; or words only, when food is needed, that could be supplied.
17 Is dead: utterly worthless. In itself: unaccompanied by works. Such a faith is not the kind that saves the soul, purifies the heart, and overcomes the world.

CHAPTER III.

1 My brethren, become not many of you teachers: aspire not, many of you to become teachers or guides in matters of Christianity; an error far too common among those who have a

1 Or, by itself.

19 You do well; in believing that God is one, or that there is one God; but the bare belief of this, unaccompanied by suitable fruit in the life, will do you no more good than such a faith does the demons.
20 Is worthless: empty, void, idle. Such faith as may exist without love has absolutely no value in it; but it may prove, in the end, to have been even worse than absolute ignorance. This is not the kind of faith that Abraham had. He believed God, and was ready to offer up his son Isaac at the command of God.

22 Perfected: shown to be the genuine article by producing the right kind of works.
23 The Scripture was fulfilled: by the works which Abraham did, showing that he believed God in reality. (Heb. 11:17; Gen. 22:2-19).
24 Not by faith only: not by a faith that is unaccompanied by works. Faith is that which unites the penitent with the Christ Who bore his sins in His Own body on the tree, (I Peter 2:21); but, when one has believed this, good works prove that one has truly believed. Christ is the meritorious ground on which one is justified before God; and his good works—works becoming his profession—are the ground of his justification before men.
25 Rahab: Heb. 11:31. Her works proved that she had faith.

you teachers, knowing that we shall receive the greater judgment. 2 For in

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

1 Become not many of you teachers: aspire not, many of you to become teachers or guides in matters of Christianity; an error far too common among those who have a mere intellectual conception, rather than a heart knowledge, of the truth. We: who are called to be teachers. The greater judgment: the greater responsibility rests upon those who teach the word, and the greater condemnation, if they fail to meet the demands.
many things we all stumble. If anyone stumbles not in word, the same is a perfect man, able to restrain also the whole body. 3 Now, if we put the horses' bridles into their mouths, that they may obey us, we turn about their whole body also. 4 Behold also the ships, large as they are, and driven along by fierce winds, are turned about by a very small rudder, wheresoever the impulse of the steersman wills. 5 So also the tongue is a little member, and boasts great things. Behold, how small a fire kindles how great a forest! 6 And the tongue is a fire, the world of iniquity! the tongue is placed among our members, as that which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of life, and is set on fire by Hell. 7 For every nature, both of wild beasts and birds, both of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed, and has been tamed, by mankind; 8 but the tongue no man can tame; a restless evil, full of deadly poison! 9 Therewith we bless the Lord and Father; and therewith we curse men, who have been made after the likeness of God. 10 Out of the same mouth come forth blessing and cursing! My brethren, these things ought not so to be. 11 Does the fountain send forth, from the same opening, the sweet water and the bitter? 12 My brethren, can a fig tree produce olives; or a vine, figs? Neither can salt water yield sweet.

13 Who is wise and intelligent among you? Let him show, by his good conduct, his works in meekness of wisdom. 14 But, if ye have bitter jealousy and contention in your heart, do not boast and lie against the truth. 15 This wisdom is not the wisdom that comes down from above; but is earthly, sensual, and demoniacal! 16 For where there are jealousy and contention, there is confusion and every vile deed. 17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, mild, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, without hypocrisy. 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those making peace.

1 Or. wheel. 2 Gr. Ghesnon. 3 Or. by human nature.

2 In many things we all stumble; imperfections characterize man; and, if all make mistakes and blunders, with what fear and trembling should one enter upon the task of a religious teacher! Stumbles not in word; our great peril is in the right use of the tongue. How few have learned to control it properly! Perfect man, perfect in this respect. Or the thought seems to be, that, if one has learned how to use his tongue perfectly, he has, probably, learned to control everything else as well—hence he is perfect.

3 How small a fire; a single match may set a whole forest on fire.

4 The tongue is a fire; sets a community ablaze. Also, it ignites one's malevolent passions, and sends one forth to mischief and crime. So long as a Christian under severe trials holds his tongue, he remains master of the situation, in large measure at least; but when he turns his tongue loose, all the evil in his nature is called to the front. The course of life; the proper way of living. The one, losing control of his tongue, flies out of his proper orbit, and imperils his own interests, as well as those of others. Set on fire by Hell; or by hellish agents or demons. If these evil spirits can only get control of one's tongue, they will blight his happiness, and possibly that of many others.

5 Bless God . . . curse men; many people profess to love God and to worship Him; but they annul the force of their claim, by their evil talk against man. (I John 4:20).

6 The stream partakes of the nature of the fountain; and the fruit of the tree. The heart that is full of bitterness towards men cannot be full of the love of God; but perfect love casts out all malevolence, and leaves no place for bitterness, wrangling, selfishness. Such love is inseparable from the experience of Christ enthroned within the heart.

7 Or. party spirit. 5 Animal; or sensual. 6 Or. tumult. 7 Or. for.

8 13 Who is wise and intelligent; he is the one who is not pushing himself forward as a teacher, or leader of religious thought; but his good works, coupled with his uniformly gentle, and sweet spirit, declare who he is, and mark him as a man of true wisdom.

9 Boast . . . lie not against the truth; by falsely assuming that people of unbekled tongues and bitter spirits are wise—which is a libel against the truth of God's word.

10 This wisdom; that which is envious, quarrelsome, and partisan. Earthly; earth-born. low grade. Sensual; sensuous:

11 The wisdom from above; divine wisdom, implanted in man, and developed in him by the Holy Spirit. Pure; in nature, and in its influence on others. Peaceable; the person in whom this wisdom is found is always peaceable; never quarrelsome, nor restless. And such a person is mild, compliant [i.e. not self-willed, nor self-pleasing], abounding in deeds of mercy and good fruits; he is impartial in his conduct toward others, and is devoid of all pretense.

12 The fruit of righteousness; the effects of righteousness produced in the life lead peaceable men, in a peaceful spirit, to disseminate such doctrines as tend to establish peace between God and men, and peace among one another. Such are the children of peace. When the penitent believer accepts Christ as his Savior, he has "peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ," (Rom. 5:1); but, when the Prince of Peace yields his scepter over one's whole being, then begins that experience in Phil. 4:7, where the peace of God, that passes all understanding keeps one's mind and heart in Christ Jesus.
CHAPTER IV.

1 Whence are wars, and whence are battles among you? Are they not hence even of your pleasures that war in your members? 2 Ye desire, and have not; ye kill, and envy, and cannot obtain; ye fight, and war; ye have not, because ye ask not. 3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may spend it on your pleasures. 4 Adulteresses! know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever, therefore, purposes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. 5 Or do ye think that the Scripture says in vain, “The spirit that dwells in us has jealous longings”? 6 But He giveth more grace. Wherefore, the Scripture says, “God resistent the proud, but giveth grace to the humble.” 7 Submit yourselves, therefore, to God. But resist the Devil, and he will flee from you. 8 Draw nigh to God, and He will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double-minded. 9 Be wretched.

1 Or. longs unto jealousy.

NOTES ON CHAPTER IV.

[It seems that most of this chapter and some of the next was addressed to that portion of the Jewish Christians who had departed from the faith, and were consorting with the wicked opposers of the Gospel.]

1 Wars; campaigns. Battles; individual fights. The Gospel of Christ was the great interest at stake; and the battles were fought with words, rather than with swords.

2 Ye have not; any really satisfying portion, because ye seek it not in the right way, or with a proper purpose.

4 Friendship of the world ... enmity with God; the spirit that is in harmony with the world is hostile to God. (I John 2:15, 16).

5 The Spirit; meaning, likely, the Holy Spirit, or “the new spirit.” (John 3:5, 6). Has jealous longings; the answer is, “no.” All the bitterness and strife which He is condemning, have their origin in Satan.

6 He giveth more grace; God giveth sufficient grace to His true people to enable them to overcome all their evil nature; but it is to the humble and obedient, not to the proud and contentious. Resist the proud; those who come to Him in a self-righteous spirit.

7 Resist the Devil ... flee from you; when the Devil assails the true believer in any one of his many ways, the thing to do is, to resist him, in the name of Jesus. He and mourn, and weep; let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness! 10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will exalt you.

11 Speak not one against another, brethren. He that speaks against a brother, or judges his brother, speaks against the law, and judges the law; but, if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. 12 One is Law-giver and Judge—He Who is able to save and to destroy; but who are you, that judge your neighbor?

13 Come now, ye who say, “To-day or to-morrow we will go into this city, and spend one year there, and trade, and get gain.” (14 ye who, indeed, know nothing of to-morrow! what is your life? for ye are a vapor that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away); 15 instead of your saying, “If the Lord will, we shall both live, and do this or that.” 16 But now ye are glorying in your boastings! all such glorying is evil. 17 To him, therefore, who knows to do good, and does it not, to him it is sin.

fears the name of Jesus; but He is not afraid of us, except as we have Christ in us. Who is ready to hear our cries.

8 Draw nigh to God; in confession, prayer, and obedience; approaching Him in the name and merit of Jesus. God delights to meet all who approach Him through His Son. Cleanse your hands; let your outward conduct be right. Purify your hearts; let the Holy Spirit come in, and cleanse your heart, and establish the rule of Christ therein.

9 Be wretched, and mourn, and weep; because of your sins, and in view of the terrible judgments awaiting you.

10 Humble yourselves; instead of fighting and contending for fleshly gratifications. God stands ready to exalt every one who accepts His Son, and takes a lowly place at His feet.

11 Judges the law; sits in judgment against the law, and condemns it; whereas, He ought to be obeying the law.

12 One Law-giver; God, and only He. Hence, all should obey Him; and, to do this, they must accept Jesus Christ as their Redeemer and Savior.

13, 14 All our earthly plans should be made in view of the absolute uncertainty of human life. Hence the propriety of the expression, “If the Lord will.”

16 Glorifying in your boasting; about what ye can do; when, in fact, apart from God, ye can do nothing. All such glorying is evil; because it leaves God out of your plans.

CHAPTER V.

1 Come now, ye rich, weep, howling over your miseries that are coming upon you!

NOTES ON CHAPTER V.

1 That are coming upon you; on account of your manifold wickedness, especially in the manner in which they grasped and used riches. The dreadful sufferings that came upon the Jews shortly after this warning, in the siege and destruction of Jerusalem, fully justified the apostle’s plain language.
your garments have become moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and silver are covered with rust, and their rust will be for a witness against you, and will eat your flesh, as fire. Ye laid up treasures in the last days! 4 Behold, the hire of the workmen who mowed down your fields, which is fraudulently kept back by you, is crying out; and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. 5 Ye lived luxuriously on the earth, and rioted in pleasure; ye nourished your hearts in a day of slaughter. 6 Ye condemned, ye killed the righteous one; he does not resist you. 7 Be patient, therefore, brethren, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waits for the precious fruit of the earth; being patient over it, until it receives the early and latter rain. 8 Be ye also patient; establish your hearts, because the coming of the Lord has drawn near.

9 Murmur not against one another, brethren, that ye be not judged: behold, the Judge has taken His stand before the doors!

10 Take, brethren, as an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets, who spake in the name of the Lord. 11 Behold, we pronounce those happy who endured: ye heard of the patience of Job; and ye saw the end of the Lord, that the Lord is full of pity, and merciful.

12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, either by Heaven, or by earth, or by any other oath; but let yours be “the yes, yes,” and “the no, no”; that ye fall not under condemnation.

13 Is anyone among you afflicted? let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? let him sing praise. 14 Is anyone among you sick? let him call for the elders of the assembly; and let them pray over him, having anointed him with oil in the name of the Lord; 15 and the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up; and, if he has committed sins, it shall be forgiven him.

1 Or. to. 2 Or, arrival, presence.

2 Riches, in those days, consisted largely of quantities of grain and clothing, which was liable to become worthless through age.

3 Covered over with rust: from want of use: being hoarded up. Eat your flesh: the same rust that bears witness against them shall be to them as a consuming fire. Ye laid up treasures in the last days: when the judgments of God are ready to be poured out upon you; thus heaping up wrath against the day of wrath.

4 The Lord of Sabaoth: the Lord of hosts—the Almighty.

5 Nourished your hearts: with luxurious living. In a day of slaughter: beasts eat up to the time they are slaughtered, not suspecting any danger near. So these wicked Jews were feasting and rioting as senselessly as animals.

6 Ye killed the righteous one: some take this to refer to Christ the Righteous One; but the words may have a wider application, including Christ’s disciples, who, like their Lord, offered no resistance. Here the apostle passes from the wicked to the devout class of Jews, and seeks to encourage them.

8 Establish your hearts: in the doctrines and practice of the Gospel. The coming of the Lord: for the destruction of His enemies and theirs at Jerusalem—which itself was a type, or an earnest, of the larger destruction at the judgment.

9 The Judge has taken His stand at the door: Christ, the Judge of the world, is soon to come, to punish all wrong-doing.

10 The patience of Job: his endurance of severe trials. The end of the Lord: the merciful sequel to Job’s sufferings, (Job 42:10, 12).

11 Swear not: do not use oaths of confirmation in ordinary conversation.

12, 15 These verses contain specific instructions both to the sick and to the elders, what they are to do, when one is sick, or bedfast. The oil is a symbol of the Holy Spirit; and “the elders” are Spirit-filled Christians in sympathy with the Gospel and its Author, and are called to minister thus. All preachers ought to be “elders” of this class. This Scripture has never been repealed by its Author; and it stands with all the rest of the Scriptures as a part of His word. If he has committed sins: sins that led to the sickness. It shall be forgiven him: that is, he will, on the exercise of faith, receive forgiveness for his sins. The Lord will raise him up: heal him, and raise him up to health. As Christians learn to live the Spirit-filled life, and through the Spirit to come into vital union with Christ enthroned within, they may have “all their diseases healed, (Matt. 8:16, 17; Ps. 103:3-5); receive strength in their bodies, (Isa. 40:31); and become in health even as their souls prosper, (III John 2).

N. B.—Every man who answers to the name of Elder ought, either to respond to the call for anointing and prayer for the healing of the sick, or be able to prove that this portion of Scripture has become obsolete, or else be should question his qualifications for the office of elder. This simple trilemma ought to be fairly considered. An increasing number of elders are coming to see the dilemma into which they are thrown. If they refuse the request of the sick; and they go and anoint them; but those who refuse to anoint the sick as directed, should lose no time in deciding which of the remaining alternatives they will choose to adopt. If they choose the first, viz., that the anointing ordinance has become obsolete, or is not applicable to the people of our time, the next thing required of them will be to furnish adequate proof to sustain this assumption. And, first, one would be expected to define what is adequate proof to justify the setting aside of a portion of the Gospel of Christ. And, in the last analysis of the subject, he will be forced to admit that no authority less than God Himself can set aside or annul any portion of His Gospel; for surely no man nor...
16 Confess, therefore, your sins one to another, and pray for one another, that ye may be healed. A righteous man’s in-wrought supplication avails much.

17 Elijah was a man of like nature with us; and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it rained not on the earth for three years and six months; 18 and again he prayed, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.

19 My brethren, if anyone among you be led astray from the truth, and one convert him; 20 let him know that he who converted a sinner from the error of his way, will save a soul from death, and cover a multitude of sins.

16 Inwrought; by the Holy Spirit. See Rom. 8:26.

set of men can have any power to cancel the least portion of this Gospel. And, if man has no authority in a matter of this sort, where is the proof that God hath set aside the anointing ordinance? Plainly there is no record of such a thing in His Book. God has not set aside this ordinance, but He meets His true elders now, when all the conditions are complied with; and many are being healed. This fact is becoming more and more notorious; and overwhelming proof to this effect can be furnished. What, then? Simply this: that the elder, or elders, who will not anoint the sick, are not duly qualified for their office. Then another question might arise, “Why are they not qualified?” Whose fault is it? It is not God’s; for He is qualifying many for the duties of this sacred office at the present time; and is ready to qualify anyone whom He has called to preach His Gospel, if His conditions are fully met. These conditions may be summed up in these two words; consecration, and faith. Consecration is what such elders need; and then the faith will be given. Consecration opens the way for the Holy Spirit to come in and fill one; and the elder who learns to live the Spirit-filled life will not long be destitute of the faith required of God’s elders. Another question: Is any elder called to preach only a part of God’s word?

17 Elijah; 1 Kings 17:1; 18:42-45. Of like nature with me; he was a man, but a man yielded to God; so that God could do His will through him.

19 Be led astray from the truth; the truth of the Gospel. Convert him; to the truth; acting as an instrument for God.

20 Cover a multitude of sins; by having them, through repentance and faith, put under the blood of Christ, and thus cover them, and put them forever out of sight.

FIRST EPISODE OF PETER.

This epistle is addressed to the "elect sojourners of the Dispersion of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bythynia," provinces of Rome in Asia Minor. The occasion of the epistle seems to have been a "fiery trial" of persecution that was coming upon the Christians in the provinces above named. The exact date of this persecution has not been satisfactorily ascertained, though the majority of commentators ascribe it to the latter years of Nero's reign, which terminated A. D. 68. This epistle has been a source of encouragement and comfort to many of God's people during all the centuries since it was written. It purports to have been written from Babylon, but many suppose that Peter used the word in allusion to Rome, but wished to disguise the locality. This seems scarcely possible to one who knew that he was to lose his life for his devotion, and knew something of the evil of lying.

I. PETER.

CHAPTER I.

1. Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ to the sojourners of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bythynia, 2 elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: grace to you, and peace be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who, according to His abundant mercy, begat us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from among the dead, 4 to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and unfading; kept in Heaven for you, 5 who are being guarded by God's power, through faith unto a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time; 6 in which ye exult, though now, for a little while, if necessary, made sorrowful in manifold temptations; 7 that the proving of your faith—being much more precious than gold that perishes, but is proved through fire—may be found unto praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ; 8 Whom, not having seen, ye love; on Whom, though now not seeing Him, yet believing, ye exult with joy unspeakable and full of glory; 9 receiving the end of your faith, the salvation of souls; 10 concerning which salvation the prophets earnestly sought and diligently searched, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you; 11 searching as to what time or what manner of time, the Spirit of Christ Who was in them was pointing to, when testifying beforehand the sufferings destined for Christ, and the subsequent glories; 12 to whom it was revealed that, not to themselves, infinitely blessed. Christians should lay up their treasure there.

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 Pontus, Galatia, etc.; Roman provinces in Asia Minor in which Jewish Christians were dispersed by persecution.

2 Foreknowledge; God always knew all that would ever occur in the world. God's election, or choosing, of people to salvation was according to His foreknowledge; and, accompanying that election, is the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit; Who puts a spirit of obedience in the believer, who is cleansed through the blood of Christ. God never purposes to save people in their sins, but from their sins.

3 A living hope; a living principle, sustaining one's spiritual life. By the resurrection; the risen Christ is the foundation of our hope, and this gives the Spirit opportunity to exercise His regenerating power.

4 Inheritance; our Heavenly Inheritance is eternal and but to you they were ministering them; which things now were reported to you through those who proclaimed the Gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent forth from Heaven; into which things angels desire to look carefully.

12 Wherefore, having girded up the loins of your mind, being sober, hope perfectly for the grace to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; 13 as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves to the former desires in your ignorance; 14 but, according as He Who called you is holy, do ye yourselves become holy in all your conduct: because it has been written, “Ye shall be holy, because I am Holy.” 15 And, if ye call on Him as Father, Who, without respect of persons, judgeth according to each one’s work, pass the time of your sojourn in fear; 16 knowing that, not with perishable things, with silver or gold, were ye redeemed from your vain course of life handed down from your fathers; 17 but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot; 18 foreknown, indeed, from a founding of a world, but manifested in the end of the times for you, 19 who through Him believe in God, Who raised Him from the dead, and gave Him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Having purified your souls in your obedience to the truth unto unfeigned brotherly love, love one another from the heart earnestly; 23 having been begotten again, not of corruptible seed, but incorruptible, through the word of God, that lives and abides. 24 Because “All flesh is as grass, and all its glory as the flower of grass: the grass withered, and the flower fell off; but the word of the Lord abides forever.”

25 And this is the word of the good news which was proclaimed to you.

CHAPTER II.

1 Having, therefore, put away all wickedness, and all guile, and hypocrisy, and envies, and all evil speakings, 2 as newborn babes, long ye for the spiritual, unadulterated milk, that thereby ye may grow unto salvation, 3 if ye tasted that the Lord is gracious; 4 to Whom com-

shame." 7 To you, therefore, who believe is the preciousness; but to those who disbelieve, "A stone which the builders rejected, this was made into a head of a corner;" 8 and "a stone of stumbling, and rock of offense;" who stumble, being disobedient to the word, to which also they were appointed. 9 But ye are "an elect race, a kingly priesthood, a holy nation," a people for a possession, that ye may show forth the excellencies of Him Who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light; 10 who once were not a people, but are now God's people; who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Beloved, I beseech you as sojourners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly desires, which, indeed, war against the soul; 12 having your conduct seemly among the gentiles; that, wherein they speak against you as evil-doers, they may, from your good works which they behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. 13 Submit yourself to every human ordinance, 3 for the Lord's sake; whether to a king as supreme; 14 or to governors, as sent through him for the punishment of evil-doers, and for praise to those who do well; 15 for so is the will of God, that by well-doing ye should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men; 16 as free, and not holding your freedom as a cloak for wickedness, but as servants of God. 17 Honor all men; love the brotherhood; fear God; honor the king.

18 Servants; 3 be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the perverse. 19 For this is acceptable, if, for conscience toward God, one endures griefs, suffering wrongfully. 20 For what glory is it, if, when sinning and being beaten, ye endure it? but, if, when doing well and suffering for it, ye endure it, this is acceptable 4 with God. 21 For to this were ye called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that ye should follow His steps; 22 Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth; 23 Who, when reviled, reviled not again; when suffering, was not threatening, but committed Himself to Him Who judgeth righteously; 24 Who Himself bore our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by Whose bruise ye were healed. 25 For, as sheep, ye were going astray; but now ye returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

NOTES ON CHAPTER III.

wives, 2 having beheld your chaste conduct mingled with fear: 3 whose adorning, let it not be the outward one of braiding of hair and of wearing of golden ornaments, or of putting on apparel; 4 but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible apparel of a meek and quiet spirit, which in the sight of God is of great price. 5 For thus, in former times, the holy women also, who hoped in God, were wont to adorn themselves, submitting themselves to their own husbands; 6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, of whom ye became children; if ye do good, and fear no alarm.

7 Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with them according to knowledge, assigning honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.

8 And, finally, be ye all of one mind, compassionate, loving as brethren, tender-hearted, humble-minded; 9 not returning evil for evil, or reviling for revilings; but, on the contrary, blessing; because to this end ye were called, that ye might inherit a blessing. 10 For, “He who wishes to love life, and to see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking guile; 11 and let him turn away from evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and pursue it; 12 because the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and His ears are toward their supplication; but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.”

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye become zealous for that which is good? 14 But, if ye should even suffer for righteousness’ sake, happy are ye. But fear not their fear, neither be troubled; 15 for sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts; ready always for an answer to everyone who asks of you an account concerning the hope that is in you, yet with meekness and fear; 16 having a good conscience; that, in whatever ye are spoken against, those who revile your good conduct may be put to shame. 17 For it is better, if the will of God should will it, that ye suffer for well-doing, than for evil-doing; 18 because Christ also suffered for sins once, a Righteous One in behalf of the unrighteous, that He might bring us to God, being put to death in flesh, but made alive in the Spirit,

19 In Whom, also, going, He preached to the spirits in prison, 20 who were once disobedient, when the long-suffering of God was waiting in the days of Noah, while an ark was being prepared, entering into which, a few, that is, eight, souls were saved through water; 21 which, in its anti-type, immersion, now saves you also not a putting away of the filth of flesh, cleansed from all guilt through the blood of Christ, whose decisions are according to the word of God.

18 Suffered for sins once: when He hung on the cross. The sins of the world were laid on Him, and this was the occasion of His suffering, (Isa. 53:5, 6). Bring us to God; the purpose of Christ in dying for sinners was to bring them to God. He delights to wash sinners in His own blood, cleanse, and purify them, and then bring His Father in, and the two take up Their abode with him, (John 14: 23). What infinite grace!

19 In Whom: in the Spirit; the Holy Spirit, Preached; through Noah, who preached while building the ark. To the spirits now in prison: when Peter was writing, they were shut up in the prison house of Hades, but it does not appear that Jesus preached to the lost. He had preached to them when they were on earth, and through Noah, “After death, the judgment,” not after death another probation!

20 Were saved: Gen. 7:7. Were saved: Gen. 7:7. 21 Which: referring to salvation through water, but in a different sense: In anti-type, which is immersion; immersion being the anti-type of the experience which came to Noah and His family through means of the ark, that bore them safely through the waters of the flood. As that experience gave them deliverance from physical death; so the reality, of which immersion is the outward symbol, saves from eternal death. Not a putting away of the filth of flesh; it is not the cleansing of the body in the waters of immersion that brings salvation, but the removal of guilt through faith in the blood of Christ. But the requirement of a good conscience toward God; as immersion becomes a duty of every true believer, a good conscience, when duly enlightened by the Holy Spirit, demands nothing less than submission to this ordinance; and when, for Christ's sake, one has submitted to be buried with Him by immersion into death, his conscience is forever at rest on that subject.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ, therefore, having suffered in flesh, do ye also arm yourselves with the same mind; because he who suffered in flesh has ceased from sin; 2 that ye no longer live the rest of your time in the flesh to the desires of men, but to the will of God. 3 For the time past is sufficient to have wrought the will of the gentiles, having walked in wantonness, lusts, winebibblings, revelings, carousings, and impious idolatries; 4 at which they are surprised, since ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you; 5 who shall render an account to Him Who is ready to judge the living and the dead. 6 For to this end was the Gospel proclaimed even to the dead, that they might, indeed, be judged according to men in flesh, but live according to God in spirit.

7 But the end of all things has drawn near; be ye, therefore, of sound mind, and be sober unto prayers; 8 above all things, having fervent love among yourselves, because love covers a multitude of sins; 9 being hospitable to one another, without murmuring; 10 according as each one received a gift, ministering it among yourselves, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God; 11 if anyone speaks, as uttering the oracles of God; if anyone ministers, ministering as of the strength which God supplies; that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ; to Whom is the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, be not surprised at the fiery-test taking place among you to prove you, as though a strange thing happened to you; 13 but, in so far as ye share in Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of His glory also ye may rejoice with exceeding joy. 14 If ye are reproached in Christ's name, happy are ye, because the Spirit of glory and that of God

Where shall the ungodly . . . appear?—

NOTES ON CHAPTER V.

1. Elders: men commissioned to have the care of assemblies; these elders were pastors and teachers. The term elder included pastors, evangelists, and apostles. It seems to be the genus of which pastor, or overseer, and evangelist, are species. A fellow-elder: Peter, though an apostle, was also an elder; and he here gives his advice to others, as being on a common plane with them.

2. Feed: pasture, tend. (John 21:16). Base gain: money unworthily obtained. It seems here that the apostle meant to teach, that to put a price on the Gospel, would be to get such gain. It is far better for the pastor or evangelist to set no price on his ministry, but to preach as unto the Lord, and let the Lord support him through His people, or in any way He may please. The preacher who must have an adequate salary as a condition of his preaching at all, is probably a total stranger to the Pauline type of ministerial call, and has never, very likely, felt, “Woe is me if I preach not the Gospel!” A call of this nature puts the matter of salary aside, and drives one into the field to preach, and gather in souls, regardless of money. Many a high-salaried essay reader or declamer will have a solemn time, when he appears before God in the judgment, and is confronted with such questions as, “Who hath required it at your hands?” or “Why did you put a price on the Gospel, that I meant to be free?” Many preachers also will be dumbfounded, when they are asked, “How much of My Gospel did you preach?” “Why did you fail to preach the doctrines of the Spirit-filled life, holiness, healing, and My second coming—doctrines that make up so large a portion of the Gospel?”

3. Lording it over the allotted charges: exercising undue authority over the assembly under one’s care. Examples: of piety, meekness, humility, and liberal giving.

4. The Chief Shepherd: Jesus Christ.

5. Be subject one to another; pay due deference to every one, and let no one think himself better than, or above, others. Pastors, of course, have authority under the Lord, to instruct, admonish, reprove, and rebuke; but out of the Lord, they are only men, and should seek no preferment. Resist the proud: Prov. 3:34; James 4:6.

6. Be ye humble; this is a voluntary humiliation, and hence the word may be rendered with sufficient accuracy. “Humble yourselves.”

7. Having cast all your anxiety upon Him; the Greek tense here indicates a mandatory and complete casting of one’s anxiety, once for all, upon God. This, in a sense, is done, when one makes a complete surrender of himself and his all to God for Him to manage at His will. When one puts the whole management of his life in God’s hands, he may reach the place where all anxiety leaves him, regardless of the outward testings that may fall to his lot. (Ps. 55:22). Instead of casting one’s burden on the Lord, and letting it remain with Him, many Christians go to the Lord in prayer, and get some temporary relief; and then go away, and soon find themselves under the same old burden. Christians of this type have never experienced the crucifixion fully, (Gal. 2:20; 5:21); but after this crucifixion has been well passed through, one may live without any anxious care; nothing disturbing the deep peace of the soul. But no one can reach this blissful state of mind and heart, until he first surrenders his whole being to God, receives the Holy Spirit to dwell within him, and Christ becomes real to his heart, as Ruler of that realm.
whom resist, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same kinds of sufferings are being accomplished in your brethren who are in the world. 10 And the God of all grace, Who called you into His everlasting glory in Christ, after ye have suffered a little while, will Himself perfect, confirm, strengthen, settle you.

To Him be the dominion forever and ever.

Amen. 12 Through Sylvanus, our faithful brother, as I consider him, I wrote to you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God; within which stand ye. 13 The assembly in Babylon, elected with you, and Mark my son, salute you. 14 Salute ye one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to you all who are in Christ.

all these things for Jesus and in sympathy with Him in His mighty work, he drops off the self-life, and puts on more and more of the life of Christ, and approaches the perfect Ideal—Christ—more nearly, while He becomes confirmed, strengthened, and settled in Christ.

SECOND EPISTLE OF PETER.

From ch. 1:14, we learn that this epistle was written but a short time before the close of the apostle's life; and the contents of the letter agree with this thought. It is an earnest warning against the many errors in doctrine and morals that had crept into the assemblies thus early. A portion of ch. 2 has a striking resemblance to a part of Jude's epistle. As the most prominent feature of the first epistle is, "Patience and steadfastness in the endurance of suffering for Christ's sake"; so that of the second is a solemn warning, "Not to be led astray by the error of the wicked." This epistle was probably written about A. D. 66.

II. PETER.

CHAPTER I. 1

1 Simon Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who obtained an equally precious faith with us, in the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ: 2 grace to you, and peace be multiplied in a full knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord; 3 since His divine power has been given to us all things pertaining to life and godliness, through the full knowledge of Him Who called us through His glory and virtue; 4 through which have been given to us very great and precious promises, that through these ye may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world in lust: 5 and, even for this very reason, adding all diligence, in your faith supply virtue; 6 and in virtue, knowledge; 7 and in knowledge, temperance; 8 and in temperance, patience; 9 and in patience, godliness; 10 and in godliness, brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. 8 For these things, belonging to you and abounding, make ye neither idle nor unfruitful regarding the full knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ; 9 for he to whom these things are lacking is blind, seeing dimly, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. 10 Wherefore, brethren, give the more diligence to make your calling and election sure; for, if ye do these things, ye shall in nowise ever stumble; 11 for thus shall there be richly supplied to you the entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

NOTES ON CHAPTER I. 1

1 Equally precious faith; precious in its cost, Christ's blood, and its severe testings, and in its results in the salvation and sanctification of believers. With us, the apostle includes the whole circle of true believers with himself in the possession of this faith.

3 Life and godliness; the new life in Christ, and godliness as the outward expression of that life. Through His glory and virtue; as representing the sum of His divine attributes. It was His glory and virtue that were back of His call, and that prompted Him to call us.

4 Through which; through which glory and virtue, as at once the cause and source of the rich provisions of mercy in Christ Jesus. Very great and precious promises; such as the gift of the Holy Spirit, the revelation of Christ to and in the believer's heart, and fellowship with the Father and Son. (John 4:14; 11:20, 21, 23). Partakers of the divine nature; share the nature of Christ, our divine Model. (1 John 3:3, 9, 21; Eph. 4:13-15; Heb. 12:10).

5 For this very reason; because ye are to be partakers of the divine nature. The divine grace, so to speak, is planted in one in regeneration; and, if this life is fostered by the Spirit Who comes within to reveal Christ, and ena-

10 Make your calling and election sure; by strict obedience to all the requirements of the Gospel, and by appropriating its gracious promises. Such a life will confirm both your calling and election.
12 Wherefore, I shall be always ready to remind you of these things, though ye know them, and have become confirmed in the present truth. 13 And I think it right, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by reminding you; 14 knowing that speedy is the putting off of my tabernacle, as also our Lord Jesus Christ signified to me. 15 And I will also give diligence that at all times ye may be able, after my departure, to perpetuate the remembrance of these things.

16 For, not as having followed after cunningly-devised stories, did we make known to you the power and presence of our Lord Jesus Christ, but as having been made spectators of His majesty. 17 For He received from God the Father honor and glory, when such a voice was borne to Him from the Excellent Glory, "This is My Son, the Beloved, in Whom I took delight;" 18 and this voice we heard borne from Heaven, when we were with Him in the holy mount. 19 And we have the more sure prophetic word, to which ye do well to take heed, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the Morning Star arise in your hearts; 20 knowing this, first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of one's own interpretation; 21 for prophecy was never brought by the will of man, but men spake from God, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER II.

1 But there arose false prophets also among the people, as among you also there will be false teachers, who, indeed, will stealthily bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master Who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction; 2 and many will follow their lascivious doings; by reason of whom the way of the truth will be defamed; 3 and, in covetousness, will they, with feigned words, make merchandise of you; for whom the judgment from of old lingers not, and their destruction slumbers not.

4 For, if God spared not angels that sinned, but, hurling them down to Hell, delivered them up to pits of darkness, kept for judgment; 5 and spared not the old world; but preserved Noah, an eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing a flood upon a world of ungodly people; 6 and, turning to ashes the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, condemned them by an overthrow, having made them an example to those who would live ungodly; 7 and delivered righteous Lot, distressed by the conduct of those who were impious in lasciviousness, (8 for this righteous man, dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, was torturing his righteous soul from day to day with their lawless deeds); 9 the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

1 False prophets; the Devil has his prophets of different orders, all the way from the bold, blatant infidel, to "the angel of light," who comes to certain people with "enticing words." Heresies of perdition; ruinous teachings, that form around them parties or sects to advocate and propagate them. There are many of these in the world now. Denying even the Master Who bought them; denying the vicarious sufferings of Christ, and setting at nought His atoning blood.

2 With feigned words; concealing their real purpose with out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous enduring punishment unto the day of judgment; 10 but especially those who walk after the flesh in a desire for pollution, and despise dominion; daring, self-willed, they tremble not, when railing at dignities; 11 whereas angels, though greater in might and power, bring not a railing judgment against them before the Lord. 12 But these, as irrational creatures, born naturally for capture and destruction, railing in matters of which they are ignorant, shall in their destruction be also destroyed, 13 suffering evils as wages of unrighteousness; accounting revelry in the day-time a pleasure; spots and blemishes; reveling in their deceivings, while feasting with you; 14 having eyes full of lustfulness, and that cannot cease from sin; enticing unstable souls; having a heart exercised in covetousness; children of a curse; 15 leaving the right way, they were led astray, having followed the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness, 16 but had a rebuke for his own transgression; a dumb beast-of-burden, speaking in man's voice, forbad the prophet's madness.

17 These are fountains without water, and mists driven by a storm, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved. 18 For, uttering great swelling words of vanity, they entice, in desires of the flesh, by their lasciviousness, those just escaping from those who live in error; 19 promising them liberty, while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for by what one is overcome by this he has become enslaved. 20 For if, after having escaped the defilements of the world in a full knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, but, having again become entangled with these, they are overcome, the last state has become worse with them than the first. 21 For it were better for them not to have fully known the way of righteousness, than, having known it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. 22 It has happened to them according to the true proverb, "A dog having returned to his own vomit"; and "A sow that was washed, to her wallowing in mire."

CHAPTER III.

1 This, a second letter, beloved, I now write to you, in both which I stir up your sincere mind by way of remembrance; 2 that ye remember the words spoken before by holy prophets, and the commandments of the Lord and Savior by your apostles.

11 Angels ... bring not railing judgment against them; against the dignities that oppose them in their execution of God's commands. (Jude 9).

13 Suffering evil as wages of unrighteousness; wrong-doing is sure to bring suffering, sooner or later. The people of the old world, and of Sodom and Gomorrah, were all destroyed as "wages of unrighteousness." Revelry in the day-time; shamelessly, while ordinary sinners are content to riot in the night. (Rom. 13:12).

14 Cannot cease from sin; being so under the power of sinful lusts.

Clouds; that promise rain, but bring only wind. The blackness of darkness; the densest darkness is reserved for these sinful, blustering hypocrites.

18 Great swelling words of vanity; making boastful professions of their light and knowledge, with large promises of good to others. Those just escaping; those who had but recently left the walks of sin, and entered upon the Christian life. These boastful teachers entice there young believers, and often ensnare them.

19 Promising them liberty; false liberty, which amounts to license for all fleshly indulgences. (Gal. 5:13; I Peter 2:16; Jude 4).

20 The last state; those who renounce Christianity, or nominally hold to it, while their lives are full of corruption, are in a worse state than they were before they professed their faith in Christ.

Knowing this first, that there will come in the last days scoffers with scoffing, walking after their own desires, and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? for, from the day the fathers fell asleep, all things remain as they were from the beginning of the creation." 5 For this es-

II. PETER

The heavens of old, and an earth set together out of water, and through water, by the word of God: 6 through which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished; 7 but the present heavens and the earth, by the same word, have been stored up for fire, being kept unto the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, let not this one thing escape you, that one day with the Lord is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. 9 The Lord is not slow respecting the promise, as some account slowness; but He is long-suffering toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a rushing noise, and the elements, being intensely hot, shall be dissolved, and the earth and the works therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing, therefore, that all these things are thus to be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conduct and godliness, looking for, and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens, being on fire, will be dissolved; and the elements, being intensely hot, shall melt! 12 But, according to His promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwells righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, since ye are looking for these things, give diligence that ye be found in peace, without spot and blameless in His sight. 15 And account the long-suffering of our Lord salvation; as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given him, wrote to you; 16 as also in all His letters, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which the ignorant and unstable wrest, as they do also the other Scriptures, to their own destruction. 17 Ye, therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, be on your guard, lest, being carried away with error of the wicked, ye fall from your own steadfastness. 18 But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory both now and forever.

3 Gr. Willing. 4 Or, with fire. 5 Gr. tardy. 6 Some ancient Mss. read, discovered.

5 An earth set together out of water; alluding to the account in Gen. 1:2. At the command of God, the earth rose out of its watery environments, and became dry land.

6 The world perished; it perished by water once, but will perish by fire next time.

7 By the same word; the word of God by which the worlds were made. (v. 5; Gen. 1:1-10).

8 A thousand years as one day; "with God it is an eternal now." God's promises stand sure, regardless of the time when they are to be fulfilled. His remotest promise is as sure to be fulfilled as the one which is nearest its fulfillment. (Ps. 90:4).

9 Not slow respecting the promise; the promise relating to His second coming, to reward His saints, and to punish His enemies. Long-suffering: God's long-suffering is a proof that He wishes men to have the fullest opportunity to repent and be saved.

10 The day of the Lord: when He will come to judge the world.

12 Hastening the coming of the day of the Lord; it is the duty of Christians to evangelize the world, (Matt. 28:19, 20); and, when this is fully done by gathering out of the gentiles a people for His name (Acts 15:14), and by preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom as a witness to the nations (Matt. 24:14), the Bridegroom will then come for His bride; and, after the great tribulation, the Millennial dispensation will begin. It seems to be clearly in the power of Christians to hasten, in this sense, the coming of the day of God.

13 According to His promise; Isa. 66:22; Rev. 21:1. The new heavens and the new earth emerge from the dissolving fires, and become the abodes of righteousness.

15 Wrote to you; Paul wrote to believers. and he often refers to the second coming of Christ. (1 Cor. 5:1, 22; 1 Thess. 4:14-18; 2 Thess. 1:5-10).

16 These things: Christ's second coming and the events connected with it. Ignorant and unstable; ignorant persons who have no fixed principles, and do not love the truth. Wrist; pervert, misunderstand, or misapply.

18 Grow in grace and knowledge; increase your knowledge of Him, become more like Him, and thus "grow up into Him in all things." (Eph. 4:15).
FIRST EPISTLE OF JOHN.

The three epistles of John were early received as canonical. This epistle is supposed to have been written about A.D. 85-90, at Ephesus, and forms a sort of "Companion to the Gospel." It is wonderfully helpful to the honest Christian who seeks to be assured of his salvation, and to live on high Christian ground.

CONTENTS.

Chs. I. II. Firm historical foundation of the Gospel, (1:1-4): walking in the light of fellowship with God brings forgiveness and freedom from sin, (1:5—1:11); while it separates from the world, (1:12-17); and from anti-Christian doctrine, (1:18-28); the Holy Spirit being the Infallible Teacher. Chs. III. IV. The exalted prospect of the Christian pledges him to a life of righteousness and love (III:1-18); and to unshaken faith in Christ (III:19-IV:1-6), of which faith and love for the brethren are the practical expressions, (IV:5-21). Ch. V. Faith, obedience, and love to God and man are inseparable, (vs. 1-11); the three-fold witness, (vs. 5-12); Christian confidence, (vs. 13-21).

I. JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

1 That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we gazed upon, and our hands handled, concerning the Word of Life (2 and the Life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare to you The Eternal Life; Who, indeed, was with the Father, and was manifested to us); that which we have seen and heard we declare to you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship also is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ. 4 And these things we write, that your joy may be made full.

1 Many Mss. have our.

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 That which was from the beginning; and in the beginning, and existed from the beginning, (John 1:1). Have heard: when listening to the voice of Jesus. Our hands handled; Luke 21:39. The Word of Life: the Word, as here used, as also in John 1:1.4, represents Christ's divine and eternal personality. He is called the Word of Life, because He is the Author of natural and spiritual life.

2 The life was manifested; by taking upon a human body, (John 1:14). Was with the Father: dwelt with Him from eternity as an essential element in the God-head, (John 1:18; 16:28; 17:5, 31).

3 Fellowship with us; in our union and communion with the Father and Son, (John 14:23; 17:21, 23).

4 That your joy may be made full; by your acceptance of the truth, and your union with Christ and the Father. God's people should be full of joy and gladness—so full, in fact, that no gloom, sadness, or melancholy, can ever have any more place in them; and the way to have it is so, to yield the life wholly to God, and learn to walk in the light with God every day, having unbroken fellowship with the Father and with His Son. Such a life is possible.

5 God is Light: His nature is perfectly pure, and He is the very source of light, as well as the light itself.

6 If we say we have fellowship with Him; persons claiming to have fellowship with God must walk in the light with Him. One's walking in darkness is proof that he is not walking with God.

7 Walking in the light with God, we and God have fellowship; and, in that event, the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin.

8 If we say, "We have no sin": no sin to be cleansed away. Of course, if one is in the place where he is cleansed from all sin, he does not then need any further cleansing from it. Sin is used to denote the sin-principle, or depraved nature; and this can be handled successfully only by Christ, when He is enthroned in the heart, and the government is all put upon His shoulder.

9 If we confess our sins; our transgressions, acts of disobedience, or failure in any duty. Sins result from the sin-principle, which is the prolific mother of all sins. Confession of sins implies repentance and sorrow because of their commission. He, the Father. Is faithful and righteous; in His dealings with His Son, Who has borne our sins for us. The Father would violate His agreement with His Son, if He refused to forgive the sins of the penitent, when he truly confesses them. Cleanse us; from the guilt and defilement of the sins confessed. This should be the golden text of every child of God, as it is God's recipe to us for getting forgiveness and cleansing. Of course, the one who confesses should believe that God does just what He promises—viz., forgive, and cleanse.

10 Make Him a liar: treat Him as if He were a liar, by disbelieving His word, which declares that "all have sinned," (Rom. 3:23; 5:12).
CHAPTER II.

1 My little children, these things I write to you, that ye may not sin. And, if any one sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, the Righteous. 2 And He is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. 3 And in this we know that we have known Him, if we keep His commandments. 4 He who says, "I have known Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps His word, truly in him the love of God has been perfected; in this we know that we are in Him. 6 He who says that he is abiding in Him ought himself also to walk even as He walked.

7 Beloved, I write no new commandment to you, but and old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye heard. 8 Again, a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in Him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining. 9 He who says that he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in the darkness even until now. 10 He that loves his brother abides in the light, and there is no occasion of stumbling in him. 11 But he that hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and knows not where he is going, because the darkness blinded his eyes. 12 I write to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven you for His name's sake. 13 I write to you, fathers, because ye have known Him Who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because ye have conquered the evil one. I wrote to you, little children, because ye have known the Father. 14 I wrote to you, fathers, because ye have known Him Who is from the beginning. I wrote to you, young men, because ye are strong; and the word of God abides in you, and ye have conquered the evil one.

15 Love not the world, nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him; 16 because all that is in the world—the desire

NOTES ON CHAPTER II.

1 My little children; the true children of God, whom the apostle calls his own. These things; the things referring to God's willingness to forgive sins. (ch. 1:7,9).

2 Propitiation for our sins... also for the whole world; in putting away sins by the sacrifice of Himself (Heb. 9:26).

3 We know; to know God truly is to have an experimental knowledge of Him as our Savior, Father, and Friend. Whole-hearted obedience is the door-way to such knowledge.

5 Love of God... perfected; by bringing forth the proper fruit, and thereby proving its genuineness. In this; in keeping His commandments.

6 He who says that he abides in Him; the one who claims that he is living in union with Christought to walk as Christ walked. It is his walk that tells his relation to Christ, rather than his words.

7 Not a new commandment; no commandment revealed to them now for the first time. From the beginning; from the time when the Gospel was first preached to them. He refers to the commandment bearing on love.

8 Again, a new commandment; the one seen in a new sense. Which thing is true; it is true that it is a new commandment. In Him and in you; in the case of Christ Who gave it, and in the case of you who received it. The darkness is passing away; the darkness that preceded the coming of the Gospel—which darkness is now passing away in the light which Christ is shedding upon the world. The true light; John 8:12; 9:5; 12:35, 36. This darkness is practically dispelled in those Christians whose lives are all radiant with divine love.

9 Is in the darkness; whoever hates his brother is in gross darkness; because hatred is the essence of spiritual darkness.

10 No occasion of stumbling in him; because his whole being is lighted up with heavenly love and light, and there is no reason for stumbling in such a person.

11 The darkness blinded his eyes; blinded by hatred, he propels his way in darkness, and stumbles and falls into perdition.

12-14 The apostle here addresses three classes of Christians; "little children," "young men," and "fathers." He probably formed these classifications, not so much on the relative ages of the parties, as the different stages in their Christian experience. He appeals to the fact of their experience in each case; the little children have had their sins forgiven (v. 10), and they know the Father (v. 14); the young men have overcome the evil one (v. 13) and are strong and have the word of God abiding in them (v. 14); and the fathers know Him Who was from the beginning (v. 13). The different tenses, "I write," and "I wrote," relate, probably, to the present epistle. Some think that the apostle included all under "little children," and gave "fathers" and "young men" as divisions of the general class.

12 Your sins have been forgiven; this is the beginning of the Christian life. His name's sake; because of what Christ has done in putting away sin.

13 Him Who is from the beginning; Christ. (John 1:1). Love not the world; its treasures, pleasures, and honors. (Matt. 6:19-21).

16 The desire of the flesh; the evils connected with our physical being—eating, drinking, etc. The desire of the eyes; the sensual evils that oppose the will of God—as dress, parade, show, etc. The vain-glory of life; the pride that leads one to seek honor, popularity, glory, etc. These three sources of evil embrace all in man that antagonizes the new man. The Devil dropped his poison into our first parents (Gen. 3:1-9), and it has vitiated man's spirit, soul, and body. of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, and the vain-glory of life—is not of the Father, but is of the world. 17 And the world is passing away, and the desire thereof; but he that does the will of God abides forever.

18 Little children, it is the last hour; and, as ye heard that Anti-Christ is coming, even now many anti-christs have arisen; whence we know that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from among us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that they might be made manifest, that they are not all of us. 20 And ye have an anointing from the Holy One, and ye all know Him.

21 I did not write to you because ye know not the truth; but because ye know it, and because no falsehood is of the truth.

22 Who is the liar, but he that denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the Anti-Christ, he that denies the Father and the Son. 23 Every one who denies the Son has not the Father either; he who confesses the Son has the Father also. 24 As for you, let that which ye heard from the beginning abide in you. If that which ye heard from the beginning abide in you, ye also shall abide in the Son and in the Father. 25 And this is the promise which He Himself promised us, the eternal life.

26 These things I wrote to you concerning those who would deceive you. 27 And the Anointing which ye received from Him abideth in you, and ye have no need that anyone teach you; but as His Anointing teacheth you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as He taught you, ye abide in Him. 28 And now, little children, abide in Him; that, if He shall be manifested, we may have confidence, and not be put away from Him with shame at His coming. 29 If ye know that He is righteous, ye know that every one that does righteousness has been begotten of Him.

CHAPTER III.

1 Behold what manner of love the Father hath given to us, that we should be called children of God; and such we are. For this cause the world knows us not, because it knew Him not. 2 Beloved, now are we children of God, and never yet was it manifested what we shall like Him; at His coming, the saints will receive their resurrection bodies, or the equivalent of them, (in the case of those who experience the rapture); and in this respect they will be like Him. In the case of those who, like John, were drawing their life, health, and strength, from Christ, and were being rapidly transformed into His image, the little that might be lacking would be supplied, as they might be permitted to gaze into His blessed face!
be. We know that, if He shall be manifested, we shall be like Him, because we shall see Him as He is. 3 And every one that has this hope on Him purifies himself, even as He is pure.

4 Every one who commits sin commits lawlessness also; and sin is lawlessness. 5 And ye know that He was manifested, that He might take away sins; and in Him is no sin. 6 Every one that is abiding in Him sins not; whosoever sins has not seen Him nor known Him.

7 Little children, let no one deceive you: he that does righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous. 8 He that commits sin is of the Devil; because the Devil sins from the beginning. To this end was the Son of God manifested, that He might destroy the works of the Devil. 9 Whosoever has been begotten of God sins not; because His seed abides in him, and he cannot sin because he has been begotten of God. 10 In this are manifest the children of God and the children of the Devil: every one that does not righteousness is not of God, neither he that does not love his brother; 11 because this is the message which ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; 12 not as Cain who was of the evil one, and slew his brother. And wherfore did he slay him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, brethren, if the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He that loves not abides in death. 15 Every one that hates his brother is a murderer; 2 and ye know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. 16 In this we have known the love, that He laid down His soul 4 in our behalf; and we ought to lay down our souls in behalf of the brethren. 17 But whosoever possesses the goods of the world, and beholds his brother having need, and shuts up his compassion from him, how does the love of God abide in him?

18 Little children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue; but in deed and in truth. 19 Hereby we shall know that we are of the truth, and we shall assure our heart before Him; 20 because,

14 Have passed out of death into life; out of the state of spiritual death into spiritual, or eternal, life. Because we love the brethren; true love for the brethren is inseparably connected with the love of God; and love is the essence of the new life, or an essential element in it. This is a love for Christians as such, and not because they happen to belong to our particular congregation.

15 Every one who hates his brother; is a murderer, because he cherishes the feelings that lead to the outer act. (Matt. 5:21-28).

17 How is the love of God abiding in him; if he sees a brother's need, and could supply it, but fails to do it, the love of God does not dwell in his heart. Here we have opportunities to test ourselves frequently.

19 In this; in showing that our love is genuine, because it leads us to contribute to the needs of the brethren. Assurance our hearts; relieving the needs of the brethren for love's sakes will be followed by a sweet assurance of our acceptance with God.
I. JOHN

if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. 21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, we have confidence toward God; 22 and whatsoever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments, and do the things that are pleasing before Him. 23 And this is the commandment, that we should believe in the name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as He gave us commandment. 24 And he that keeps His commandments abides in Him, and He in him; and in this we know that He abideth in us, by the Spirit Whom He gave to us.

6 Or, Boldness.

20 God is greater than our hearts; He is greater and knows all the facts, and will bring in severer condemnation, than one will against himself.

22 Perfect filial obedience puts one in a position to have the Spirit awakened in one just the petition, or petitions, the

CHAPTER IV.

1 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone forth into the world. 2 In this ye know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ hath come in flesh is of God; 3 and every spirit that confesses not Jesus is not of God; and this is the spirit of the Anti-Christ, of which ye have heard that it is coming, and now it is in the world already.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is He Who is in you, than he that is in the world. 5 They are of the world; for this cause they speak of the world, and the world hears them. 6 We are of God; he that knows God hears us; he that is not of God hears us not: from this we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another; be-

NOTES ON CHAPTER IV.

1 Every spirit; that speaks through any false prophet. Try the spirits; try them by the word; try them, also, by the Holy Spirit, Who imparts spiritual discernment of discerning spirits. (1 Cor. 13:10).

2 That Jesus Christ hath come in flesh; alluding, as is generally supposed, to Christ’s incarnation; but we know that evil spirits readily recognized Christ when He was here on the earth. May it not have reference to His coming into human hearts to live? Such a denial would strike at the very vitals of Christianity. (2 Cor. 13:3; Col. 1:27; John 6:50).

4 Have overcome them; the false teachers and false prophets. He Who is in you; Christ. Than he that is in the world; Satan.

5 The worldly teachers speak worldly things, and a worldly people hear and appreciate them.

6 We are of God; the apostles and all Spirit-filled teachers proclaimed the truth of God; and they showed this by the miracles they wrought. He that knows God

Father wishes to grant to His children; and along with the petition comes the faith to receive the answer.

21 There is no pleasing of God, unless we obey Him. In this, viz., in the fact that He has given us the Holy Spirit. The Spirit abiding in us, giveth us the witness and the knowledge of Christ’s indwelling also. (John 14:17-20).

7 Or, in our case.

10 A propitiation; Christ satisfied divine justice by His vicarious sacrifice in behalf of man; and He is the satisfaction, or that which satisfies divine justice, and placates an offended God.

12 His love is perfected in us; as we exercise love for the brethren.

13 The indwelling and infilling of the Spirit is proof that God the Father and the Son are abiding within.

14 We have seen; John 1:11.

15 Confess that Jesus Christ is the Son of God; whoever truly, sincerely, and heartily confesses this, and receives Christ as His Saviour and Life, has God dwelling in him.
which God hath in us. God is love, and he that abides in love abides in God, and God abideth in him.

17 In this has love been made perfect with us, that we may have confidence in the day of judgment; because as He is, even so are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment; and he who fears is not made perfect in love.

19 We love, because He first loved us. 20 If anyone says, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he that loves not his brother whom has he seen, cannot love God Whom he has not seen. 21 And this commandment we have from Him, that he who loves God loves his brother also.

CHAPTER V.

1 Every one who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten of God; and every one who loves Him Who loves loves him also that has been begotten of Him.

2 In this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and do His commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome; 4 because all that has been begotten of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. 5 And who is he that overcomes the world, but he that believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is He Who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ; not in the water only, but in the water and in the blood. 7 And the Spirit is He Who bareth witness, because the Spirit is the Truth: 8 because there are Three Who bear witness; the Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and the Three agree in one. 9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; because this is the testimony of God, that He hath testified concerning His Son.

10 He that believes on the Son of God has the witness in himself; he that believes not God has made Him a liar; because he has not believed in the testimony that God testified concerning His Son. 11 And this is the testimony, that God gave to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. 12 He that has the Son has the life; he that has not the Son of God has not the life.

NOTES ON CHAPTER V.

1 Believes that Jesus is the Christ; believes it with his heart, so as really to accept Christ as his sin-offering and his life. Him Who begat... him who has been begotten; every one who truly loves God loves the children of God also.

2 In this we know; obedience is the proof that one loves God; and one who loves God loves His children also. (ch. 3:17: 4:20, 21).

3 His commandments are not burdensome; Matt. 11:30.

4 All that has been begotten of God overcomes the world; the new life begotten in the believer, if given any chance, will overcome all worldly pleasures, and put all opposition under foot. But, to do this, Christ must be enshrined in the heart. Our faith; a faith that unites and identifies one with Jesus Christ, is that which overcomes the world, the flesh, and the Devil.

5 Through water; referring to His baptism, where He, by the testimony of the Father, and the gift of the Holy Spirit, was proclaimed the Messiah. Through blood; His blood shed on the cross for the putting away of sin. This typical cleansing through the water, and the removal of sin through the blood, are fundamental truths of the Gospel. The Spirit... beareth witness; not only to the Messiahship of Jesus, but to the nature of His work as Messiah. (v. 10: John 16:14; Rom. 8:16, 17).

8 The Spirit, the water, and the blood... the three agree in one; viz., for the establishing of the character and office of Jesus Christ as the Savior and the life of those who believe on Him.

9 The witness of God is greater; more convincing than that of men.

10 Has the witness in himself; has the proof of the truthfulness of God’s testimony to Jesus Christ, in the effects of the Holy Spirit’s workings in his own heart and life. The witness that God witnessed concerning His Son; in the ways mentioned above.

11, 12 God gave us eternal life; when we accepted Christ as our Savior; putting His Son’s very life in us, and making us children of God. This life is in His Son; the resurrection life of Jesus is the life which is given to the penitent believer, when he is born from above. This life is all stored up in Christ; and to get the life, we must get Him.
13 These things I wrote to you who believe on the name of the Son of God, that ye may know that ye have eternal life.

14 And this is the confidence which we have toward Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He heareth us; and, if we know that He heareth us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we asked of Him.

16 If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not to death. There is a sin to death: I do not say that he shall make request concerning this. 17 All unrighteousness is sin; and there is a sin not to death. 18 We know that every one who has been begotten of God sins not; but he who was begotten of God keeps himself, and the evil one touches him not.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world is lying in the evil one. 20 And we know that the Son of God hath come, and hath given us understanding, that we may know the True One: and we are in the True One—in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the True God, and eternal life. 21 Little children, guard yourselves from idols.

13 Know that ye have eternal life; this knowledge may be inferential (ch. 3:14), or through the testimony of the Spirit (Rom. 8:16), or it may arise from one's own spiritual intuitions.

15 We know that we have the petitions; this knowledge is an inference from faith, when she has complied with the conditions upon which God promises to bestow something.

16 See his brother sinning a sin not to death; this probably refers to the body; since, in John's view (ch. 3:3; John 10:28, 29) a brother, or one begotten of God, would not commit the unpardonable sin against his soul. It is likely that many persons commit an unpardonable sin against their body, and die prematurely in consequence thereof. Moses seems to have committed such a sin, in striking the rock instead of speaking to it. (Num. 20:7-11; I Cor. 11:30).

18 Sin not; that is, the part that is born of God sins not. It is "the old man," or "the flesh," that sins; and, until this is crucified (Rom. 8:10; II Cor. 4:10. 11; Gal. 2:20; 5:24), it will often overshadow "the new man" with sin. The evil one; the Devil. Touches him not; because Christ has become enthroned in him, and Satan's rights have been abrogated.

19 In the evil one; all except those who have been born of God are under the rule of Satan, and belong to his kingdom.

20 The True One; God the Father. We are in the True One; we are in the Father by virtue of the fact that we are in His Son. (John 17:21, 23). The Son fills the Spirit-filled believer for fellowship with the Father, and then the Father and Son come in and abide with him. (John 14: 20, 21, 23).

SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

Whether this letter was addressed to a lady and her children, or to an assembly, has never been determined. This, however, does not affect the teachings of the letter itself. The apostle enjoins a discriminating love, that distinguishes sharply between truth and error, and does not permit itself to aid and abet error by misplaced kindnesses towards its teachers. Loyalty to God, love of truth, and consistent opposition to error, are the main points in the letter. There is no means of knowing when the letter was written.

II. JOHN.

1 The elder to an elect lady and her children whom I love in truth—and not I only, but also all who know the truth—2 for the truth's sake which abides in us, and will be with us forever: 3 Grace, mercy, peace, shall be with us from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced exceedingly, because I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we received commandment from the Father. 5 And now I beseech you, lady, not as writing a new commandment to you, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. 6 And this is love, that we walk according to His commandment. This is the commandment, even as ye heard from the beginning, that ye should walk in it. 7 Because many deceivers went out into the world, who confess not Jesus Christ as coming in flesh. This is the deceiver and the Anti-Christ. 8 Take heed to yourselves, that ye lose not the things which we wrought, but that ye receive a full reward.

9 Every one who leads forward, and abides not in the teaching of Christ, has not God. He that abides in the teaching, the same has both the Father and the Son.

10 If anyone comes to you, and brings not this teaching, receive him not into your house, and say not to him, "Greeting," 11 for he that says to him, "Greeting," partakes in his evil works.

12 Having many things to write to you, I was not willing to write them with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you, and speak mouth to mouth, that your joy may be made full.

13 The children of your elect sister salute you.

NOTES.

1 The elder; John, the writer of this letter, (1 Peter 5:1). An elect lady; one chosen by God, and prominent as a Christian.

2 For the truth's sake; some of the children of this lady were loved because of their devotion to the Gospel of Christ, and their fidelity to its requirements.

5 Not as writing a new commandment; I John 2:7.

6 This is love...that we walk; obedience to God's commandments is the proper expression of love, and the essential proof of its existence. (1 John 5:2, 3).

7 Who confess not Jesus Christ as coming in flesh; they deny that He comes to dwell in people, and thereby to transform them into His own image. See note on I John 4:2.

8 That ye lose not; through the influence of false teachers they were liable to be led away from the truth, and thus lose. If not their souls, their crowns, (Rev. 3:11). This admonition of the apostle is especially applicable to our times, when so many are being led astray with the delusions of "soul-sleeping," "annihilation," "universal salvation," "a second probation," or through "Christian Science," "Spiritism," "Theosophy," etc.

9 Leads forward; beyond the limits of the word. The teaching of Christ; that taught by Him and His apostles—especially, His incarnation, vicarious sufferings, His stoning death, and His resurrection. One who denies these fundamental teachings has not God. God is not with him, nor is he God's servant.

10 This teaching; of Christ. Receive him not into your house; don't receive him into your home, to disseminate his poison among your children; nor, in its wider application, should he be admitted into an assembly of God's children, to poison their minds and hearts. Say not to him, "Greeting"; do not pronounce any blessing upon him, or treat him in any such way as to help forward his destructive work of deceiving the people. Partakes in his evil works; if we do anything, by word or deed, to aid a false teacher, we share in his evil works.
The apostle writes to Gaius, commending to him certain brethren who were strangers in the place where he lived. It appears that these brethren were trying to preach the Gospel to the gentiles without charge. (which was the universal practice with God's ministers during the early age of Christianity); but they seem to have received ill-treatment at the hands of Diotrephes, who also opposed those in the assembly who favored the reception of these evangelists, though they had been commended by the apostle himself.

III. JOHN.

1 The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth. 2 Beloved, I pray that, in all things, you may be prosperous, and be in health, even as your soul prospers. 3 For I rejoiced exceedingly, when brethren came and testified to your truth, even as you walk in truth. 4 I have no greater joy than this, to hear of my children walking in the truth.

5 Beloved, you do a faithful work, in whatsoever you do to the brethren, and that to strangers. 6 Who testified to your love before the assembly; whom sending forward worthily of God, you will do well; 7 for on behalf of His name they went forth, taking nothing to your truth. 8 We ought, therefore, to welcome such persons, that we may become fellow-workers for the truth. 9 I wrote to the assembly.

1 Or, to; or, with.

NOTES.

1 Gaius; a pious and benevolent Christian whom the apostle highly prized. Possibly he is the same as the Gaius at Corinth, (I Cor. 1:14; Rom. 16:23). 2 And be in health, even as your soul prospers; it is possible for one's bodily health to keep pace with that of his soul and spirit. As Christ's life is more and more manifested in our mortal bodies (II Cor. 4:10, 11), and as our mortal bodies receive quickening from His Spirit (Rom. 8:11), we should be well, strong and vigorous, regardless of age, (see Moses, Joshua, and Caleb). 5 And that to strangers; Gaius was fond of looking after strange brethren, when they came to him, or to the assembly of which he was a member. And this the apostle especially commends.

6 Worthily of God; God is pleased when His ministers but Diotrephes, who loves to have preeminence among them, receives us not. 10 On this account, if I come, I will remember his works which he is doing, praying against us with evil words; and not content with these things, he neither himself receives the brethren, and those wishing to do so he forbids, and casts them out of the assembly.

11 Beloved, do not imitate the evil, but the good. He that does good is of God; the evil-doer has not seen God.

12 To Demetrius testimony has been borne by all, and by the truth itself; and we also bear testimony, and you know that our testimony is true.

13 Many things I had to write to you; but I wish not to write to you with ink and pen; 14 but I hope shortly to see you, and we will speak mouth to mouth. Peace be to you. The friends salute you. Salute the friends by name.

are properly cared for, and sent forward on their journey. 7 On behalf of His name; from love to Christ. Went forth; to preach the Gospel. Taking nothing; receiving nothing for their support.

8 Fellow-workers; with those whom they assisted, and both contributing to help forward the truth.

9 I wrote to the assembly; requesting the brethren to assist the strange brethren. Diotrephes; who opposed the apostle, and influenced the assembly, to disregard John's request.

10 The brethren; whom John commended to their hospitality and aid.

11 The evil; as exemplified in the conduct of Diotrephes.

12 To Demetrius testimony has been borne by all; all testified to the goodness and hospitality of Demetrius who stands in bold contrast with Diotrephes.

EPISODE OF JUDE.

Jude styles himself "the brother of James," by whom we understand that James who held so high a position in the assembly at Jerusalem, and was the author of the letter bearing his name. See introductory remarks to that epistle. In the third verse Jude states the design of this epistle: viz., to stimulate them to "contend earnestly for the faith once for all delivered to the saints."

CONTENTS.

Salutation, (vs. 1, 2); warning against false teachers, (vs. 3, 4); their doom foreshadowed in the destruction of the Israelites (v. 5), in the fate of the fallen angels (v. 6), also of Sodom and Gomorrah, (vs. 7-10); their prototypes in Cain, Balaam, and Korah, (v. 11); doomed to destruction, as Enoch prophesied, (vs. 13-16); false teachers foretold by all the apostles, (vs. 17-19); his readers admonished to stand firm in the faith (vs. 20, 21), treating the schismatics with discriminating wisdom and tenderness, (vs. 22, 23); doxology, (vs. 24, 25).

JUDE.

1 Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to the called, beloved in God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ: 2 mercy, and peace, and love, be multiplied to you.

3 Beloved, while giving all diligence to write to you of the common salvation, I was constrained to write to you, exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith once for all delivered to the saints. For there crept in stealthily certain men, who of old were set forth for this condemnation, ungodly men, changing the grace of our God into lasciviousness; and denying the only Master and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 Now I wish to put you in remembrance, though ye know all things once for all, that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who believed not.

1 Or by. 2 Gr. Had necessity. 3 Some MSS. read, Jesus.

NOTES.

3 I was constrained to write to you; because of your great peril from false teachers.

4 Who, of old, were set forth; by the ancient prophets, and also by Jesus Christ and His apostles. Changing the grace of God into lasciviousness; so perverting the doctrines of grace as to make it an excuse for living lives of licentiousness. Denying the only Master; by their vile practices, showing that they cared nothing for Him or His teachings.

5 Destroyed those who believed not; by letting them die of divers ailments and judgments in the wilderness, instead of going into Canaan, as they might have done. (Num. 13, 14, 15). Many Christians now spend their lives in the wilderness of doubt and sin; when, if they were obedient, they might spend their days in that blissful state of which Canaan was a type.

6 Kept not their own principality; but forfeited it by disobedience. Here we see the origin of Satan and all his evil associates. They were blissful angels, but they left their own habitation, and provoked the wrath of the Almighty, (II Peter 2:4).

6 And angels who kept not their own principality, but left their proper habitation. He hath kept in everlasting bonds, under darkness, for the judgment of the great day. 7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication, and going away after other flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. 8 Yet, in like manner, these also, indulging in dreams, defile, indeed, the flesh, and set at nought dominion, and rail at dignities. 9 But Michael, the arch-angel, when contending with the Devil he was disputing about the body of Moses, did not dare to bring against him a railing judgment, but said, "The Lord rebuke you." 10 But these rail at such things as they know not; and what they understand naturally, as the irrational animals, in these things they are corrupted. 11 Woe to them, because they went in the way of 4 Gr. Glories. 5 Or, destroyed.

7 As an example: of the dire destruction that awaits the ungodly. As these cities were destroyed by fire; so the wicked will be cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, (Rev. 19:20; 20:10, 15).

8 Set at nought dominion: disregard the law, human and divine. Dignities: public officers who ought to be respected, (II Pet. 2:10).

9 Michael, the arch-angel; Michael: "one who is like God." Arch-angel signifies a chief, or ruler, of angels. Disputed about the body of Moses: the point in this dispute we may or may not certainly know; but it seems possible that Satan claimed the right to end Moses' life by disease, and to take charge of his body; which, on this supposition, Michael opposed and resisted. Moses was seen on the mount with Elijah at the Saviour's transfiguration, (Matt. 17:1-5); and this would seem to imply his resurrection. Did not dare: not because he feared the Devil, but because he feared God, and wished to avoid sin by using improper language even to the Devil. 10 But these: the false, corrupt teachers. Understand naturally, as the irrational animals: by instinct, as in the indulgence of animal passions and appetites.
Cain, and rushed on in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in the gainsaying of Korah! 12 These are the hidden rocks in your love-feasts, feasting sumptuously together, feeding themselves without fear; clouds without water, borne along by winds; autumnal trees, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; 13 wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own ignominies; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of the darkness has been reserved forever. 14 And to these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, “Behold, the Lord came with His holy myriads, 15 to execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness, which in ungodliness they committed, and of all the hard things which, as ungodly sinners, they spake against Him.” 16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking according to their own desires, and their mouth speaks great swelling words; admiring men’s persons, for the sake of profit.

17 But do ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, 18 keeping yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. 22 And on some have compassion, while contending with you; 23 and others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire, hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now to Him Who is able to guard you from stumbling, and to set you without blemish, in gladness, before the presence of His glory, 25 to the only God our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time, and now, and forever and ever. Amen.

11 The way of Cain; who relied on his own wisdom and goodness, rather than on the wisdom and grace of God; hating and destroying his brother, who was far better than himself. (Gen. 4:4-6). Error of Balaam; who loved and coveted money. (Num. 22:7-21; 11 Peter 2:15). Korah; Num. 16:33.

12 Hidden rocks; hence perils to voyagers. In your love-feasts; where purity ought to have characterized everybody. Clouds . . . trees . . . waves . . . wandering stars; these false teachers were, in some respects, like these things; disappointing all just expectations, corrupting and destroying all who would come under their influence, while dire destruction was awaiting them.

16 Admiring men’s persons; flattering the rich and corrupt to further their own selfish ends.

19 Separations; by withdrawing themselves and others from the pure Gospel, and from those who practice the truth. Sensual; soulish, ruled by passion.

20 Building up yourselves; by continuous and prompt obedience to all the commands of Christ, and by a growing knowledge of Christ in His provisions for all our wants of spirit, soul, and body. Praying in the Holy Spirit; under His influence and inspiration.

21 Keep yourselves in the love of God; by a holy, humble, obedient walk before the Lord. Looking for the mercy; desiring and hoping for salvation through the boundless grace of God.

22 This verse has various readings: as, “Some convince, while they discuss with you; ‘Have compassion on some, making a difference,’ etc.

23 Others save, with fear, pulling them out of the fire; use alarming methods to arouse them from their slumber; as you would were they asleep in a burning house. Hating even the garment; abhorring everything that looks towards lewdness, or that reminds of that brutal sin.

21 Able to guard you from stumbling; God is able to keep His obedient, trusting children from stumbling over any of the obstructions that Satan and his allies may place in their way; but, to insure this result, they must stick to His word, and let the Holy Spirit teach them; nor should they ever daily with error, or have any fellowship with errorists.
THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST TO THE APOSTLE JOHN.

The author of this book is named John, (ch. 1:1, 4, 9;) who, beyond doubt, is the apostle John, the author of the Gospel and the three epistles bearing his name. The date at which it was written is not known, but it was probably between the years 85 and 95. A. D., as that covers the major part of the reign of Domitian, under whom it is generally agreed. John was banished to the isle of Patmos. The interpretation of the book has been acknowledged to be a very difficult task; and many have been the schemes of interpretation sought to be applied. That combination which makes it historical to the close of chapter III, and future from ch. VI and on, seems most satisfactory.

REVELATION.

CHAPTER I.

1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him, to show to His servants the things which must shortly come to pass; and, having sent, He signified them through His angel to His servant John; 2 who testified of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, whatsoever things he saw. 3 Happy is he that reads, and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things written therein; for the time is near.

4 John to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: Grace to you, and peace, from Him who is, and who was, and who is coming; and from the seven Spirits Who are before His throne; 5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful Witness, the First-born of the dead, and the Ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him Who loved, and loosed us from our sins in His own blood, 6 and made us a kingdom, and priests to God and His Father; to Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen. 7 Behold, He cometh with the clouds; and every eye shall see Him, and those who pierced Him; and all the tribes of the earth shall lament over Him! Even so. Amen.

8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega," saith the Lord God, Who is, and Who was, and Who is coming, the Almighty.

9 I, John, your brother, and fellow-sharer in the tribulation, and kingdom, and patience in Jesus, was in the island called Patmos, because of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. 10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day; and I heard

NOTES ON CHAPTER I.

1 The revelation of Jesus Christ; that made by Christ. Which God gave to Him; Jesus Christ executes the commission the Father gave to Him, and this is His part in the whole scheme of redemption. (John 5:39; 7:16; 10:12-16; 12:49, etc.)

2 The word of God; the word made known to John in this vision. Testimony of Jesus Christ; the testimony borne to the truth of Jesus Christ.

3 There is a blessing pronounced upon him who reads, and upon those who hear and keep the teachings of this book.

4 To the seven assemblies in Asia; in what is known as "Proconsular Asia," comprising the provinces of Mysia, Lydia, Caria, and Phrygia." Seven is called a number of "perfection." There were probably many other local assemblies within the limits of these seven; but these seven, in a sense, represented all the rest; and it seems that these seven were used to represent the varying phases of Christianity from the time John received this revelation up to the time of the rapture.

5 The First-born of the dead; Christ, the First, Who rose from the dead to die no more; who is the resurrection, and in Whose life Christians will be raised.

6 Made us a kingdom; or made us to be kings in His kingdom. Priests; to offer to God spiritual sacrifices through Christ. (I Peter 2:5.)

7 He cometh; to put all His enemies out of the way (Zech. 14:1-12; ch. 19:10-21), and to establish His Millennial reign, (ch. 20:4-6.) And those who pierced Him; Zech. 12:10-14—a prophecy yet future.

8 The Alpha and the Omega; these are the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet; and, in applying them thus to Himself, Christ shows that He is the cause and the end of all things, or essential Deity, (Isa. 4:4.)

9 Patmos; a barren island in the Egean sea. John was banished to this island because of his devotion to Christ and to His cause.

10 In the Spirit; under the power of the Spirit, and in a behind me a great voice as of a trumpet, 11 saying, "What you see, write in a book, and send it to the seven assemblies; to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamum, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.” 12 And I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me; and, having turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; 13 and in the midst of the candlesticks, One like the Son of Man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girded at the breasts with a golden girdle. 14 And His head and hair were white as white wool, as snow; and His eyes were as a flame of fire; 15 and His feet like burned brass, as if glowing in a furnace; and His voice as the voice of many waters; 16 and having in His right hand seven stars; and a sharp, two-edged sword proceeding out of His mouth; and His countenance was as the sun shining in his power. 17 And, when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead! And He laid His right hand on me, saying, 18 "Fear not; I am the First and the Last, 19 and the Living One; and I was dead; and, behold, I am alive forevermore; and I have the keys of death and of Hades. 20 Write, therefore, the things which you saw, and the things which are, and the things which are about to take place after these; 21 the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of seven assemblies; and the seven candlesticks are seven assemblies.

CHAPTER II.

1 "To the angel of the assembly in Ephesus write these things," saith He Who holdeth the seven stars in His right hand, He Who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks: 2 "I know your works and your toil, and your patience, and that you cannot bear evil men; and you tried those who call themselves apostles, and are not, and found them false; 3 and you have patience, and did bear for My name’s sake, and have not grown weary. 4 But I have it against you, that you left your first love. 5 Remember, therefore, whence you have fallen, and repent, and do your first works; or else I am coming to you, and will remove yournotes on chapter II.

If it is true that these seven assemblies were meant to give a brief outline of Christianity from the time the apostle wrote to the close of the dispensation, or to the rapture, it would seem likely that there might be—if we knew the facts in the case—seven of the time of the whole period from the date of the book to the rapture, appointed to the different assemblies in the order of their names. This, however, will not be attempted in these brief notes. There is great solemnity connected with each of these messages; and we may suppose that all the rewards, offered to the different classes of overcomers, may, in effect, belong to each one that overcomes.

1 Holdeth the seven stars in His right hand; this shows the supreme authority of Jesus Christ over all pastors, teachers, and servants, of the assemblies of God’s people. They get their work and authority from Him, and He furnishes them with the grace and strength to do their work. It is well to heed and respect the authority of those who have received the grace, and are in charge of the work of God.

2 Evil men: corrupts in faith and practice. (II Cor. 11:13; Acts 20:29, 30).

3 Left your first love: the love which you received when you first believed on Christ. Nonamount of work can compensate for the loss of love.

4 Do your first works: be as earnest and zealous for My candlestick out of its place, if you do not repent. 6 But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the assemblies. To him that overcomes, to him will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of God.

8 "And to the angel of the assembly in Smyrna write these things," saith the First and the Last, Who became dead, and lived: 9 "I know your tribulation, and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. 10 Fear not the things which you are about to suffer. Behold, the Devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. 11 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the assemblies. He that overcomes shall in no wise be hurt by the second death.

12 "And to the angel of the assembly in Pergamum write these things," saith He that has the sharp, two-edged sword: 13 "I know where you dwell, where Satan's throne is; and you hold fast My name, and did not deny My faith, even in the days of Antipas, My witness, My faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. 14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there those holding the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the sons of Israel, to eat idol-sacrifices, and to commit fornication. 15 So you have also those holding the teaching of the Nicolaitans, in like manner. 16 Repent, therefore, or else I am coming to you quickly, and will make war with them with the sword of My mouth. 17 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the assemblies. To him that overcomes, to him will I give of the Hidden Manna; and I will give him a white stone, and upon the stone a new name written, which no one knows, but he that receives it.

18 "And to the angel of the assembly in Thyatira write these things," saith the Son of God, Who hath His eyes as a flame of fire, and His feet like burnished brass: 19 "I know your works, and your love, and faith, and ministry, and your patience; and your last works to be more than the first. 20 But I have it against you, that you suffer the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess; and she teaches and seduces My servants to commit fornication, and to eat idol-sacrifices. 21 And I gave her time, that she might repent; and she is not willing to repent of her fornication. 22 Behold, I cast her into a bed, and those committing adultery with her, into great tribulation, if they repent not of their works. 23 And her children I will slay with death; and all the assemblies shall know that I am He Who searcheth the reins and hearts; and I will give to you, each one, according to your works.

24 But to you I say, to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as have not this teaching, who knew not 'the deep things of Satan,' as they say, I cast on you no other burden; 25 nevertheless, that which thy have, hold fast till I come. 26 And he that overcomes, and he that keeps My works until the end, to him will I give authority over the nations; 27 and he shall rule them with a rod of iron, as the vessels of earthenware are broken in pieces, as I also have received from My Father; 28 and I will give him the morning star.

29 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the assemblies.

CHAPTER III.

1 "And to the angel of the assembly in Sardis write these things," saith He Who hath the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: "I know your works, that you have a name that you are living, and you are dead. 2 Become watchful, and strengthen the things that remain, which were about to die; for I have not found your works complete before My God. 3 Remember, therefore, how you have received, and did hear: and keep it, and repent. If, therefore, you do not watch, I will come as a thief, and you shall not know at what hour I will come upon you. 4 But you have a few names in Sardis, who did not defile their garments; and they shall walk with Me in white, because they are worthy. 5 He that overcomes shall thus be clothed in white garments; and I will in nowise blot out his name out of the book of life, and I will 23 Her children: meaning, probably, her dupes, or those whom she ensnared.

21 The deep things of Satan: it is thought that this Jezabel and her followers were wont to refer to "the depths of their knowledge," and that here the Holy Speaker applies the expression "deep things" in its real sense, which is "the deep things of Satan." Spiritism, or demon-worship, confront his name before My Father and before His angels. 6 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the assemblies.

7 "And to the angel of the assembly in Philadelphia write these things," saith He Who is holy, He Who is true, He Who hath the key of David, He Who openeth, and no one shall shut; and shutteth, and no one opens: 8 "I know your works. Behold, I have set before you a door opened, which no one can shut; because you have a little power, and kept My word, and did not deny My name. 9 Behold, I give those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie—behold, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I loved you. 10 Because you kept the word of My patience, I also will keep you from the hour of trial, which is about to come upon the whole inhabited earth, to try those 9 Synagogue of Satan: as God inhabits His true people, filling them with His fulness, (Eph. 3:16-19); so Satan possesses and fills those who yield to him, and thus they become a synagogue, or sanctuary, of Satan. Worship before your feet: humble yourselves before you.

10 I will keep you from the hour of trial: this seems to allude to the great tribulation, because it is a world-wide trial; and the keeping of them from this hour of trial seems equivalent to the rapture. Whether this verse refers to the rapture and the tribulation to follow it, or not, it forcibly reminds us of Luke 21:36.
who dwell upon the earth. 11 I am coming speedily; hold fast that which you have, that no one take your crown. 12 He that overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God; and he shall in nowise go out any more: and I will write on him the name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of Heaven from My God, and My own New Name. 13 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the assemblies.

14 “And to the angel of the assembly in Laodicea write these things,” saith the Amen, the Faithful and the True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God: 15 “I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I would you were cold or hot. 16 So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I am about to spew you out of My mouth. 17 Because you say, ‘I am rich, and have gotten riches,’ and have need of nothing; and do not know that you are the wretched one, and pitiable, and poor, and blind, and naked! 18 I counsel you to buy of Me gold refined by fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be made manifest; and eye-salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see! 19 As many as I love, I reprove and chasten. Be zealous, therefore, and repent.

knock for admission into the heart. If anyone hear My voice; suggestive of the fact that many may not, after all His interest in them, hear His voice, being so taken up with the business and anxieties of life. And open the door; Jesus will not force the door open, in order that He may gain admittance; His followers, if they will hear, and open the door, will have Him, not as a Visitor, but as a permanent Guest, Who will supply the rich viands for the feasts that will follow. To open the door, is to surrender the will to Christ, with an invitation to Him to come in. This is the wisest thing the believer can possibly do; for it is through the power of Christ ruling in the heart and controlling the life, that one may become an overcomer—overcoming sin, self, the world, and the Devil; and, besides, growing up into Him in all things, and reaching the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ. (Eph. 4:13.)

21 He that overcomes; he that overcomes all the enemies that stand in the way of his reaching God’s highest and best. And who is it that thus overcomes? None but the believer who opens the door of his heart, and lets the Savior in; and then puts the government of his whole being upon His shoulder. The experience of the fully enthroned Christ brings one, and nothing else can, to the place of the full overcomer. To sit down with Me in My throne; Christ desires to lift to His throne every believer who will yield his all absolutely to Him, and follow Him in all things; thus dropping his own life to get the perfect life of Christ developed in him. In this way the ruling portion of God’s children are developed, till they are completely transformed into Christ’s image, (II Cor. 3:18); “grow up into Him in all things.” (Eph. 4:13); and reach the fullness of His stature, (Eph. 4:13). Have you opened the door of your heart to Him?

a door opened in Heaven; and the first voice which I heard was as a voice of a trumpet speaking with me, saying, “Come these; the things that will follow the close of the present dispensation, or the rapture. This chapter and the next, being a vision of things in Heaven, are not the things that 2 Straightway I was in the Spirit, and behold, there was a throne set in Heaven, and One sitting upon the throne; and He Who was sitting was, in appearance, like a jasper stone and a sardius; there was a rainbow round about the throne, in appearance, like an emerald; 4 and around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones twenty-four elders sitting, arrayed in white garments, and on their heads crowns of gold. 5 And out of the throne proceed lightnings and voices and thunderings; and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God; 6 and before the throne, as it were a glassy sea like crystal; and, in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. 7 And the first living creature was like a lion; and the second living creature like a calf; and the third living creature having a face as of a man; and the fourth living creature was like an eagle flying. 8 And the four living creatures, having each one of them six wings, are full of eyes around and within; and they have no rest, day and night, saying, “Holy! Holy! Holy! the Lord God, the Almighty, Who was, and Who is, and Who is coming!” 9 And, when the living creatures shall give glory and honor and thanksgiving to Him Who sitteth on the throne—to Him Who liveth forever and ever, 10 the twenty-four elders will fall down before Him Who sitteth on the throne, and will worship Him Who liveth forever and ever, and will cast their crowns before the throne, saying, 11 “Worthy art Thou, our Lord and our God, to receive the glory and the honor and the power; because Thou didst create all things; and, because of Thy will, they were, and were created.”

CHAPTER V.

1 And I saw, in the right hand of Him Who was sitting on the throne, a book written within and on the back, sealed up with seven seals. 2 And I saw a strong angel, proclaiming with a great voice,

10. These living creatures seem to be nearest the throne, and to give out the mind of God to the twenty-four elders. Full of eyes; indicating their great intelligence, as also their readiness and capability to discern the will of God. None of God’s creatures are omniscient; but they are directed by His omnipresent, omniscient Spirit. The four living creatures seem to represent the angelic forces that administer the providence of God.

7 Like a lion; denoting power, majesty, and dominion. A calf; or young bullock, ready for service or sacrifice. Face as a man; indicative of reason, intelligence, humanity. A flying eagle; denoting swiftness, far-sightedness, and elevation.

8 Seven; indicating great swiftness and readiness in executing the will of God. Have no rest; they never cease crying. “Holy! Holy! Holy!” though they never tire of such service.

9, 10 When the living creatures; these, being nearest the throne of God, seem to catch His mind first, and give it forth to the others, in volumes of praise and worship. Then the others—the twenty-four elders, who probably represent the ruling power under Jesus, (ch. 3:21)—take up the strain, and worship Him.

“Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose its seals?”

1 And no one in Heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book or to look upon it. 4 And I was weeping much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look upon it; 5 and one of the elders says to me, denote the security of its subject matter. (Ezek. 2:9, 10).

2 Loose the seals; so as to be able to read the book, and learn its contents.

4 Look on it; so as to gain any idea as to its contents.
"Weep not; behold, the Lion Who is of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, prevailed to open the book, and its seven seals.

6 And I saw, in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as if slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth.

7 And He came, and hath taken it out of the right hand of Him Who sitteth upon the throne.

8 And, when He took the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, having, each, a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.

9 And they sang a new song, saying, "Worthy art Thou to take the book, and to open its seals; because Thou wast slain, and didst redeem to God, by Thy blood, some of every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation; 10 and didst make them, to our God, a Kingdom and priests, and they reign on the earth.

11 And I saw, and heard the voice of many angels round about the throne, and of the living creatures, and of the elders, (and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands); 12 saying with a great voice, "Worthy is the Lamb Who hath been slain, to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and honor, and glory, and blessing!"

13 And every created thing which is in Heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying, "To Him Who sitteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb, be the blessing, and the honor, and the glory, and the might, forever and ever!"

14 And the four living creatures said, "Amen." And the elders fell down and worshiped.

CHAPTER VI.

1 And I saw, when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, "Come." 2 And I saw, of the saints; the golden bowls of incense represent the prayers of the saints; the expression shows the great acceptance, on the part of God, of our humble, believing, affectionate, and fervent prayers.

5 The Lion Who is of the tribe of Judah; Christ. Who has the properties of a lamb and of a lion. The root of David; a descendant of David on the human side of His being. Prevailed to open the book; literally, "conquered"; that is, He conquered death and Hell, and ascended to the right hand of the Father, where He received all power in Heaven and earth, and, among all the rest, He received power to open the book, and seal the decrees of Almighty God. The book, suppositively, contains the summarized history and results of the redemption wrought out by Jesus Christ.

6 Seven horns; the symbol of perfect authority and power. Seven eyes; the symbol of perfect vision, or knowledge; explained to be the same as the seven spirits, which denote the perfect working of the Spirit in the character and life of the believer, (John 14:26; 15:26; 16:8; Acts 2:28).

7 The four living creatures and twenty-four elders; here, as in v. 14, and in ch. 4:3-10, the four living creatures begin the praise and adoration of God, and then the elders follow it up. Golden bowls full of incense... the prayers of the saints; the golden bowls of incense represent the prayers of the saints; the expression shows the great acceptance, on the part of God, of our humble, believing, affectionate, and fervent prayers.

8 The four living creatures and twenty-four elders; here, as in v. 14, and in ch. 4:3-10, the four living creatures begin the praise and adoration of God, and then the elders follow it up. Golden bowls full of incense... the prayers of the saints; the golden bowls of incense represent the prayers of the saints; the expression shows the great acceptance, on the part of God, of our humble, believing, affectionate, and fervent prayers.

9 A new song; the song of redeeming love through the atonement and righteousness of Christ.

10 Didst make them, to our God, a Kingdom and priests; God's Kingdom has the saints as the elements composing the Kingdom, and He makes them priests to minister to Christ. This Kingdom will extend over all the earth.

11-13 All will, at last, acknowledge the worthiness of Jesus Christ, to receive the praise and adoration of men and angels; but this does not signify that all will enter into His service, (Rev. 20:10-15).

N. B.—Different MSS. give different readings on verses 9 and 10; one set of them would make the four living creatures as well as the twenty-four elders a part of the redeemed host; whereas, the other set of MSS. exclude the living creatures from the number of the redeemed, and gave them to be classed with the highest angelic forces, that have been active in the work of redemption.

NOTES ON CHAPTER VI.

N. B.—If we understand the seven seals to follow the rapture, we avoid the endless difficulty and confusion that attend the system of interpretation that seeks to find events in past history answering to the different seals. To the Laodicean church closes church history up to the rapture, then it is easy to see that the seven seals, the seven trumpets, and the seven bowls of wrath, mark different events that occur between the rapture and the coming of Christ with His saints, to destroy the armies of the beast (Zech. 14:4-12; Rev. 19:11-21), and to open the way for the establishment of His Millennial reign. Daniel's year-day prophecy covers the historical outline of events up to the coming of Christ to take His bride from the earth; and Revelation, besides giving a historical outline of Christianity in the messages to the seven assemblies of Asia, particularly the events that follow the rapture, up to the New Heavens and the New Earth.

1 One of the four living creatures; these appear to be the angelic forces that have a part in the execution of the providential events connected with the redemptive work of Jesus Christ. If we regard, with some, the living Creatures as belonging to the redeemed, they would represent the highest class of overcomers.
and, behold, a white horse, and He Who sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given to him; and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And, when He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come." 4 And there went forth another horse, a red one; and to him who was sitting thereon it was given to take peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another; and there was given to him a great sword.

5 And, when He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come." And I saw, and, behold, a black horse; and he who sat on him had a balance in his hand. 6 And I heard as if a voice in the midst of the four living creatures, saying, "A measure of wheat for a denary, and three measures of barley for a denary; and the oil and the wine do not hurt."

7 And, when He opened the fourth seal, I heard a voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come." 8 And I saw, and behold, a pale horse; and he that sat on him, his name was Death; and Hades was following with him. And there was given to them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with famine, and with death, and by the wild beasts of the earth.

2 A white horse: an emblem of victory. The rider seems to represent Christ Himself. If so, it would seem that He goes forth to strengthen and encourage His servants who were not ready for the rapture, but who will speedily have an opportunity to prove their love and loyalty to Him by martyrdom during the tribulation period. "Come;" this may be translated "Go."

4 Red: a symbol of war and bloodshed.

6 A measure: something less than a quart, and about enough to sustain a man for a day. Denary: the price of a day's labor. Hence, at the high price of food, one could barely subsist. Wheat should be about five dollars per bushel. The oil and the wine: these would be needed to keep people from starving.

8 A pale horse: a symbol of ghastly death, indicating death from many causes; as by famine and pestilence. Hades followed with him; Hades [the house of the dead] follows Death with the view of gathering up all his victims. Authority over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword... hanger... death... and wild beasts of the earth; here we find four destructive agencies to kill the fourth part of men. Compare Ezek. 14:21; also Jer. 15:3.

9 The souls of those who had been slain: the souls of those who had suffered martyrdom for Jesus' sake, (ch. 13:7, where the slaughter pictured in ch. 6:9, really takes place).

9 And, when He opened the fifth seal, I saw, underneath the altar, the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God, and because of the testimony which they were holding. 10 And they cried with a great voice, saying, "How long, O Master, the Holy, and the True, dost Thou not judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell upon the earth?" 11 And a white robe was given to each one of them; and it was said to them, that they should rest yet a little time, until their fellow-servants and their brethren, who were about to be slain, as they also had been, should fulfill their course. 12 And I saw, when He opened the sixth seal, a great earthquake took place; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the whole moon became as blood; 13 and the stars of the heaven fell to the earth, as a fig-tree casts her unripe figs, when shaken by a great wind; 14 And the heaven was removed, as a scroll rolled up; and every mountain and island were removed out of their places. 15 And the kings of the earth, and the magnates, and the commanders of thousands, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman and freeman, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains; 16 and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us, and

2 Or, should be completed in number.

11 A white robe: expressive of victory, purity, and peace. Should rest yet for a little time: intimating that the time for avenging their blood had not yet come; but more martyrs must still be added to their numbers. These seem to have been the first tribulation martyrs; and others were to follow in their steps, as the tribulation would progress.

12-14 When He opened the sixth seal; the opening of the sixth seal seems to bring us very near to the consummation. Some of the events described in this and the following verses seem to indicate that the actual end is very near at hand. Yet the seventh seal and a number of other events follow it, but, as it seems, in very rapid succession.

15 Hid themselves: or sought to hide themselves from avenging justice that was now ready to destroy them because of their wickedness, and cruelty to the followers of Jesus, whom they murdered.

16 Fall on us, and hide us: indicating their great consternation, when Christ should appear—as they were now momentarily expecting Him—to avenge the martyred servants, and settle accounts with them on all scores. The time is coming, when all the enemies of Christ, and the abusers and murderers of His disciples, will be put to utter shame and confusion, and will seek to escape from His presence; but it will be all in vain. They must face their Judge, and account to Him for all their mistreatment of His disciples, which He will regard as having been done to Himself; and then they will receive their sentence, and enter upon the punishment which their conduct merited.
hide us from the face of Him Who is sitting on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; 17 because the great day of their wrath came, and who is able to stand?"

CHAPTER VII.

1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that no wind should blow on the earth, or on the sea, or upon any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having a seal of the living God; and he cried with a great voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea.

3 Saying, "Hurt not the earth, nor the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads."

4 And I heard the number of the sealed, a hundred and forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed;

6 Of the tribe of Reuben, twelve thousand;

7 Of the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand;

8 Of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve thousand;

9 Of the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand;

10 Of the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

11 And all the angels stood around the throne, and around the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshiped God.

12 Saying, "Amen. The blessing, and the glory, and the wisdom, and the thanksgiving, and the honor, and the power, and the strength, be to our God forever and ever. Amen!"

13 And one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are clothed in white robes, who are they, and whence did they come?"

14 And I have said to him, "My lord, you know." And he said to me, "These are those who come out of the great tribulation; out of each of the tribes named, preparatory to the Millennial reign. If this is the correct view, then, during the progress of the tribulation, we may expect the lost tribes of Israel to be brought to light. God knoweth where these tribes are; and it will be an easy matter for Him to bring them to light.

NOTES ON CHAPTER VII.

1 After these things; after the events of the sixth seal. The four corners of the earth; east, west, north, and south. Holding the four winds; probably, restraining human passions and wrath, and causing a period of calm and quiet.

2 Ascending from the rising of the sun; from the east. Having a seal; with which to mark the servants of God, so as to distinguish them from others.

3 Hurt not the earth; let no disturbance come upon the earth, till we have sealed God's people.

4 A hundred and forty-four thousand; this is by some supposed to be a definite for an indefinite, but very large number of believers, both Jews and gentiles, who constitute the true Israel of God. Others take it literally, as referring to the ancient tribes of Israel, after they shall be restored to the home of their ancestors. And, as the twelve apostles are, under Christ, to rule over the twelve tribes of the children of Israel during the Millennium, it would seem that this prophecy refers to a literal gathering of so many...

press their way over all obstacles, are included in this number. Made them white in the blood of the Lamb; were cleansed and made pure through faith in the atoning blood of Christ.

¹ For this reason; because of their faith in Christ and cleansing through His blood.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 And, when He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in Heaven about half an hour. 2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and there were given to them seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came, and stood over the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given to him much incense, that he might add² ³ it to the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God out of the hand of the angel.

5 And the angel has taken the censer; and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it to the earth; and there followed thunders, and voices, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels, who had the seven trumpets, prepared themselves to sound.

7 And the first sounded; and there followed hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast to the earth; and the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea; and the third part of the sea became blood; 9 and the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, that had souls,² died; and the third part of the ships was destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded; and there fell out of the heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell on the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of the waters. 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood. And the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many of the men died in consequence of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded; and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars, that the third part of where God’s judgments were to be executed. Thunders ... earthquake; all symbols of the impending wrath soon to be poured out on God’s enemies.

6 The seven trumpets; these appear to be used in connection with the tribulation woes, and are intermingled with the seals, or come close after them; the seventh seal ending nearly co-terminously, it is believed, with the sounding of the seventh trumpet.

7 Hail ... fire ... blood; symbols of ruin and slaughter.

9 The third part ... died; third part of ships was destroyed; indicating great loss of life and destruction of property.

11 Wormwood; probably indicating the bitter trials which would come upon men, resulting in great loss of life.

12 Third part of the sun ... moon ... stars; this would seem to be associated with the opening of the sixth seal, (ch. 6:12-15; Matt. 24:29).
them might be darkened, and that the day might not shine for the third part of it, and the night in like manner.

13 And I saw, and heard an\(^3\) eagle flying in mid-heaven, saying with a great voice, “Woe, woe, woe, to those who dwell on the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!”

CHAPTER IX.

1 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fallen out of the heaven to\(^1\) the earth, and there was given to him the key of the pit of the abyss. 2 And he opened the pit of the abyss; and there went up a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. 3 And out of the smoke came forth locusts upon the earth; and authority was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have authority. 4 And it was said to them, that they should not injure the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but only such men as have not the seal of God upon their foreheads. 5 And it was given to them, that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months. And their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a man. 6 And in those days will men seek death, and shall in no wise find it; and they will desire to die, and death flees from them. 7 And the shapes\(^2\) of the locusts were like horses prepared for battle; and on their heads as it were crowns like gold; and their faces were as the faces of men. 8 And they had hair as the hair of women; and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. 9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron;

1 Gr. Into.  2 Or. figures.

NOTES ON CHAPTER IX.

1 The pit of the abyss; this seems to be the abode of evil spirits, or demons, near which the lake of fire and brimstone is located. Whatever fulfilment, on the year-day principle, any of these woes may have had in the past, we believe they are to have another fulfilment during the tribulation period, and on a day-day principle.

2 Who have not the seal of God on their foreheads; these “locusts” were sent to torture the wicked only, but had no right to touch those who were true followers of Christ—a plague that seems manifestly future, since, hitherto, there has been no general scourge upon the earth that did not extend to Christians as well as to sinners.

3 Five months; if this is a tribulation woe, this five months should be taken literally.

6 Seek death . . . and in no wise find it; the woe will bring such suffering that the sufferers would prefer death, but are not permitted to die during the five months.

11 Abaddon . . . Apollyon; both words mean destroyer; and applies, either to Satan, or to one of his princes.

12 Loose the four angels that are bound in the great river Euphrates; this possibly refers to the great destruction that is to come upon the Ottoman empire, when the angels of God’s wrath are turned loose upon that godless people.

15 An hour, a day, a month, a year; amounting to 391 days; as a tribulation event, this would last more than a fourth of the last half of the seven years.

16 These vast hordes appear to be the agencies that are to desolate Turkey, and put the Turks out of the way of the Messianic Kingdom soon thereafter to be set up.
For the power of the horses is in their mouth and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents, having heads, and with them they hurt.

20 And the rest of the men, who were not killed with these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship the demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk; 21 and they repented not of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornications, nor of their thefts.

20 The rest of the men; those who survived these desolations. Repented not; these terrible judgments had no tendency to lead them to repentance; these beings having, as it appears, committed the sin, or a sin, against the Holy Spirit. The demons, that they had worshiped so long, seemed to have them completely under their control. Repentance can come to none in this life, who have passed the limits of divine Grace.

CHAPTER X.

1 And I saw another strong angel, descending out of Heaven, clothed with a cloud, and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire. 2 And he had in his hand a little book opened; and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left on the land; 3 and he cried with a great voice, as a lion roars; and, when he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. And, when the seven thunders spake, I was about to write; and I heard a voice out of Heaven, saying, “Seal up the things which the seven thunders spake, and write them not.”

5 And the angel, whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land, lifted up his right hand to Heaven, 6 and swore by Him Who liveth forever and ever, Who created the heaven and the things therein, and the earth and the things therein, and the sea and the things therein, that there shall be delay no longer; 7 but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, the mystery of God was also finished, according to the good news He proclaimed to His servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from Heaven, I heard again, talking with me, and saying, “Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel, who is standing upon the sea and upon the land.” 9 And I went to the angel, saying to him, that he should give me the little book. And he says to me, “Take, and eat it up; and it will make your belly bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey.” 10 And I took the little book out of the hand of the angel, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth as sweet as honey; and, when I ate it, my belly was made bitter. 11 And he says to me, “You must prophesy again concerning many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.”

NOTES ON CHAPTER X.

1 Another strong angel; very much resembling Jesus Christ, or an emblematical representation of His glory. Compare ch. 1:13-16; 14:14. Clothed with a cloud; ch. 17; 11:14; Matt. 24:30.

2 A little book; containing this chapter and the 11th to v. 15, or to the sounding of the seventh trumpet. Upon the sea and upon the land; denoting supreme control over both.

3 Seven thunders uttered their voices; each giving a token of some impending evil.

4 Write them not; hence we know not what they are, unless they are the same as the seven last plagues.

5 There shall be delay no longer; probably meaning that there would be no further delay in bringing the impending things to a consummation; that is, no delay after the sounding of the seventh trumpet.

7 The mystery of God; the glorious plan for overthrowing Satan’s rule and bringing in the Kingdom of Christ—which is the great theme of the book of Revelation.

9 Eat it up; a symbol for earnestly reading, thoroughly understanding, and diligently considering, the prophecies contained in the little book.

10 Sweet . . . bitter; the receiving of the revelation was pleasant, but the contents filled him with distress, (Ezek. 3:1-3).

11 Concerning many peoples; John’s prophecy would extend to many peoples besides those who would live to the close of the assembly period, (chs. 20, 21, 22).

CHAPTER XI.

1 And there was given me a reed, like a staff, one saying, “Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and those worshiping therein. 2 And the court which is without the temple leave without, and measure it not; because it was given to the gentiles, and they will tread down the holy city forty-two months. 3 And I will give to My two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.”

4 These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks, that stand before the Lord of the earth. 5 And, if anyone wishes to injure them, fire issues out of their mouth, and devours their enemies; and, if anyone wishes to injure them, he must in this manner be slain. 6 These have authority to shut the heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy; and they have authority over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they may wish. 7 And when they finish their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. 8 And their corpses will lie on the street of the great city, which, spiritually, is called Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord also was crucified. 9 And some of the peoples, and tribes, and tongues, and nations, look upon their corpses three days and a half; and they suffer not their corpses to be put into a tomb. 10 And those who dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and make merry, because these two prophets tormented those dwelling on the earth. 11 And, after the three days and a half, the spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell on those who beheld them. 12 And they heard a great voice out of Heaven, saying to them, “Come up hither.” And they went up into Heaven, in the cloud; and their enemies beheld them. 13 And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell; and there were killed in the earthquake seven thousand persons; and the rest became terrified, and gave glory to the God of Heaven.

14 The second woe departed; behold, the third woe comes quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there followed great voices in Heaven, saying, “The kingdom of the world became our Lord’s and His Christ’s; and He will reign forever and ever.” 16 And the twenty-four elders who sit before God on their thrones fell on their faces, and worshiped God, 17 saying, “We give thanks to Thee, O Lord God, the Almighty, Who art, and Who wast; because Thou hast taken Thy great power, and didst reign. 18 And the nations were angered, and Thy anger came, and the time of the dead to be judged, and to give the reward to Thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to those who fear Thy name, the small and the great; and to destroy of the two witnesses, (as he never died); and his testimony, as that of the other (be he Moses, or Enoch, or some other), will, it appears, serve to embolden the Jews to hold out against the mighty forces under the beast, and not yield to his demands; this being ”the time of Jacob’s trouble.” (Jer. 30:7).

5. 6 These verses indicate that these witnesses were clothed with mighty power, even to take life, and to withhold the rain. This latter reminds us of Elijah in the days of King Ahab, (I Kings 17:1); and the former, of Moses in Egypt.

7-13 And when they finish their testimony; the beast, or Satan’s mighty captain (13th ch.; also 19:20) will kill them and, at the end of three and a half literal days, they will be raised from the dead, and will ascend to meet the descending hosts of Jesus Christ, as He returns to destroy his enemies, and establish His own blissful reign.

11 The third woe comes quickly: the third woe, which accompanies the seventh trumpet, follows quickly after the ascension of the two witnesses.

15-19 And the seventh angel sounded; at the sounding of this trumpet the Lord Jesus Christ descents, with His saints and mighty angels, to end the tribulation period (Zech. 14:1-12; Rev. 19:11-21), bind Satan (ch. 20:1-3), and to inaugurate His Millennial reign. (ch. 20:4-6). With the seventh trumpet the dispensation closes.
those who destroy the earth." 19 And the Temple of God that is in Heaven was opened, and the ark of His covenant was seen in His Temple; and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and great hail.

Y. R.—The writer does not claim infallibility for all these views; but they are the best he has at this time. Surely no one can know that he understands these great mysteries correctly, unless he certainly knows that God has taught him their true meaning. Dogmatism, in such mysteries as these, is altogether out of place.

CHAPTER XII.

1 And a great sign was seen in the heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars; 2 and, being with child, she cries out, travelling in birth, and being in pain to bring forth.

3 And another sign was seen in the heaven; and, behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his heads seven diadems. 4 And his tail drags the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth. And the dragon has taken his stand before the woman who is about to bring forth; in order that, when she brings forth, he may devour her child. 5 And she brought forth a man-child, who is about to rule all the nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up to God and to His throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that they may nourish her there a thousand two-hundred and sixty days.

7 And there was war in the heaven; Michael and his angels went forth to war with the dragon. And the dragon made war, and his angels; 8 and they prevailed not, nor was their place found any more in the heaven. 9 And the great dragon was cast down, the old serpent, he that is called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole habitable earth; he was cast down to the earth, and his angels were cast down with him.

10 And I heard a great voice in Heaven, saying, "Now came the salvation, and the power, and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of His Christ; because the accuser of our brethren was cast down, he who accused them before our God day and night; 11 and they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony, and they loved not their soul," even to death. 12 On this account, rejoice, ye Heavens, and ye who dwell in them! Woe to the earth, and to the sea!因为这魔鬼往下去，带著大能，知道他有不多时．

NOTES ON CHAPTER XII.

We understand the woman in this chapter to represent Christendom, and the man-child to represent the overcoming portion of the raptured saints. This chapter, chronologically, seems to fit on to the close of the third chapter. Chapters 4 and 5 present a heavenly vision; chs. 6-11 set forth in symbol the woes that are to follow the rapture; and chs. 13-19 execute these foretold woes.

1. 2 Clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet; this indicates the great honor and dignity that attach to the woman. Travelling in birth, and being in pain to bring forth; this seems to represent the great labor and pain of Christendom, in bringing forth the full overcomer, who is, with Jesus, to rule the world with a rod of iron. (ch. 2:21.)

3. 4 These verses seem to represent Satan who is striving to thwart the purpose of God to elevate to the throne a portion of the seed of Christ.

5 She brought forth a man-child; not Jesus Christ, as we understand it, but some believers of the overcoming type (Eph. 4:13, 15), who are fit to reign with Jesus by reason of His fully developed life in them. To make this man-child refer to Jesus Christ, is to violate a universal principle in language, which forbids, in the very nature of things, the symbolizing of a past historical event! Christ had been born not far from ninety years, when John wrote the book of Revelation; but, if we understand this man-child as representing one of a class of full-overcomers, who are to reign with Jesus, then there seems to be no violence done to the language.

6 Fled into the wilderness; after giving birth to the overcomers, who are caught up to the throne of God, Christendom at large, being unprepared for the rapture, will be left behind to confront the evils of the tribulation period. A thousand two hundred and sixty; this period would answer to the first half of Daniel's "Seventieth week." (Dan. 9:24-27; or it would be three and a half years. During this time, after the rapture, Satan will probably be too busy in organizing the world under one government, to persecute Christians with the greatest vigor.

7-10 War in the heaven; Satan and his hosts strive to intercept, and scatter, the saints while in transit from the earth to meet Jesus. This calls forth Michael and his hosts, and they secure a safe passage to the saints, and thrust Satan and his aids down to the earth. Satan now proceeds to war against the woman; and, after three years and a half, he gets ready for his bloody work. (ch. 12:1-7.)

11 And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of their testimony; the vicarious suffering of Christ was the great fact that overcame Satan, judicially; and the experience and testimony of believers give them personal victory over Satan.

12 Knowing that he has but a little time; after the rapture and the casting of Satan down to the earth, the evil one knows that his time is brief; hence, he makes the most of his opportunity.
13 And, when the dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man-child. 14 And there were given to the woman the two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. 15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth, after the woman, water as a river, that he might cause her to be borne away by the river. 16 And the earth helped the woman; and the earth opened her mouth, and drank down the river which the dragon cast out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon was angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, who keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus; 18 and he stood upon the sand of the sea.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns ten diadems, and upon his heads names of blasphemy. 2 And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet as of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion; and the dragon gave him his power, and his throne, and great authority; 3 and I saw one of his heads, as if smitten to death. And his death-stroke was healed; and all the earth wondered after the beast. 4 And they worshiped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, “Who is like the beast, and who is able to make war with him?”

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIII.

1 A beast: the symbol of a cruel, murderous man, the leader, under Satan, of the mighty hosts that destroy the saints, and desolate the earth, during the great tribulation. That the beast is a man, and not a system, or an army, may be seen from ch. 19:10, 20:29:10; where the beast and false prophet are captured, and are dealt with as individuals, apart from their armies. In the year-day prophecy of Daniel, we have, as it appears, the prototype of this destructive agent, (Dan. 7:24, 25). The ten horns and seven heads probably refer to the political powers that support the beast.

2 Or, wild beast. 2 Gr. Satan.

3 Some Mss. read, I stood, and connect it with v. 1 of ch. 13.

4 And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and authority was given him to work forty-two months. 5 And he opened his mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme His name, and His Tabernacle, even those dwelling in Heaven. 7 And it was given him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them; and there was given him authority over every tribe, and people, and tongue, and nation. 8 And all who dwell on the earth will worship him, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the Lamb slain from the founding of a world. 9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear. 10 If anyone is for captivity, into captivity he goes; if anyone shall kill with a sword, to Christ and His followers, will exhibit great knowledge, tact, and great personal magnetism, attracting multitudes and even nations to himself.

5 Speaking great things and blasphemies: Dan. 7:25; II Thess. 2:3-10. Forty-two months same as 1260 days (ch. 11:3), or “Time, times, and half a time” (ch. 12:10). These dates, used in a year-day sense, apply with much force to the papacy or Mohammedanism, during a period of 1260 years, when they persecuted and destroyed millions of God’s saints; but much more literally we may expect a day-day fulfillment of this prophecy during the last 42 months of the tribulation.

7.8 The woman, who had been protected during the first 1290 days of the tribulation, is given up to death during the last 1260 days, or 42 months, of the tribulation. The universality of the beast’s dominion is here plainly declared.

10 This verse seems to mean that the desolating leader (the beast) and his armies have soon to face the same sad conditions that they have forced upon others.
with a sword he must be killed. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints. 11 And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth: and he had two horns like a lamb, and he was speaking as a dragon. 12 And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his sight. And he makes the earth and those dwelling therein, to worship the first beast, whose death-stroke was healed. 13 And he does great signs, that he should even make fire to come down out of the heaven to the earth, in the sight of men. 14 And he deceives those who dwell on the earth by reason of the signs which it was given him to do in the sight of the beast; saying to those dwelling on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, who has the stroke of the sword, and lived. 15 And it was given to him to give spirit to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as worship not the image of the beast should be killed. 16 And he causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given them a mark on their right hand, or on their forehead; 17 and that no one should be able to buy or sell, except him who has the mark, the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. He that has understanding, let him count the number of the beast; for it is a number of a man; and his number is six hundred and sixty-six.

11 Another beast; probably some "ecclesiastical satelite" who will act as aid to the beast. Like a lamb; pretending to be very meek and humble.

12 Exercises all the power of the first beast; it was the power of Satan in either case, that found a pliable instrument in both the beast and the false prophet.

13 Does great signs; performs great miracles, in bringing down fire from the heavens; winning many to support his cause in this way, and intimidating his enemies by the same wonderful miracle.

14, 15 That they should make an image of the beast; the second beast has an image of the first beast made; and he gives spirit, or life, to the image, and causes it to speak. These are wonderful miracles, and there is much need of the testimony of the two witnesses (ch. 11), to hold the Jews steady, or prevent them from following the beast fully.

16, 17 A mark on their right hand, or on their forehead; this mark of the beast is probably to be branded upon the hands or upon the foreheads of all who give in their lot with the beast and false prophet. By this mark, which will consist either of "the name of the beast," or "the number of his name," his subjects will be readily distinguished from others. No one is to buy or sell anything; i.e., he can have no trade permit, unless he has the mark of the beast upon his right hand or forehead. All are to be exposed to death, at the will of the beast, unless they have this mark impressed upon them. This abominable image, with the cruel order enforcing the death of the unyielding, may well be styled "the abomination of desolation."

18 His number is six hundred and sixty-six; the numerical value of the letters in his name will give the sum of 666. The numerical value of many names is 666; and, to make no mistake, one should see that all the events associated with such a name have their fulfillment also.

IV. B.—Many things go to prove that the Turks will soon have to let go their possessions; because, at the most their dominion is not likely to last beyond A. D. 1913; the gentle domination beginning in the year 604 B. C., and having 2320 years to run (or "seven times"), would end in 1913 A. D. Then "the beast," or personal Anti-Christ, may be expected to capture Jerusalem in the midst of the 70th week of Daniel, and trample it under foot for 42 months, thus giving the prophecy a day-day fulfillment—what is future as yet. We are living in one of the most momentous periods of the world’s history, and large events may be expected to be crowded together during these closing years of the present dispensation.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 And I saw, and, behold, the Lamb, standing on the mount Zion, and with Him a hundred and forty-four thousand, having His name, and the name of His Father, written on their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice out of Heaven, as a voice of many waters, and as a voice of great thunder; and the voice which I heard was as that of harpers, harping with their harps. 3 And they sang as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one was able to learn the song, except the hundred and forty-four thousand, who had been purchased out of the earth. 4 These

NOTES ON CHAPTER XIV.

1 This 144,000 we understand to represent the number of the full overcomers, who are to share with Jesus in ruling the world. Note the high character assigned them in vs. 3-5, the fact that they are to follow the Lamb wherever it goeth, and that they are "a first fruit to God and the Lamb." The first fruit points to the harvest to follow it; and in this case it seems to point to the harvest in vs. 13, 16; which, in turn, is followed by the vintage in vs. 14, 20. Thus the pre-tribulation rapture, or "first fruit;" the main harvest, when Jesus descends (the harvest, or 15:3, 16:1; 1 Thess. 4:15-17; and the destruction of the wicked as in Rev. 19:19-21. Surely this description given of the individuals making up this group classes them as a very high order, and would answer well to the full overcomers, who are to take part with Jesus in the government of the earth, (ch. 3:21). Written on their foreheads: these had both the name of the Father and of the Son on their foreheads, in contrast with the worshippers of the beast.

1 A new song: the song of redemption through the Lamb.
are those who were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb whithersoever He goeth. These were redeemed from among men, a first fruit to God and to the Lamb. 5 And in their mouth was found no falsehood. They are without blemish.

6 And I saw another angel flying in midheaven, having the eternal Gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and tribe, and tongue, and people; 7 saying with a great voice, "Fear God, and give glory to Him, because the hour of His judgment came; and worship Him Who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and fountains of waters."

8 And another, a second angel, followed, saying, "It fell, it fell, Babylon the Great, that has made all the nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication!"

9 And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and whosoever receives the mark of his name.

10 Here is the patience of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

11 And I heard a voice from Heaven, saying, "Write: Happy are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth! Yea," saith the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them."

12 And I saw, and, behold, a white cloud; and upon the cloud, One sitting, like the Son of Man, having on His head a golden crown; and, in His hand, a sharp sickle.

13 And another angel came forth out of the Temple, crying with a great voice to Him Who was sitting upon the cloud, "Send forth Thy sickle, and reap; because the hour to reap came, because the harvest of the earth was fully dried." 16 And He Who was sitting upon the cloud sent forth His sickle, and the earth was reaped.

14 And another angel came forth out of the Temple which is in Heaven, himself also having a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came forth out of the altar, he that has authority over the fire; and he called with a great voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send forth your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; because her grapes were ripe." 19 And the angel thrust his sable into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the wrath of 19 The wine-press of the wrath of God: the treading of the grapes caused the grape-juice to flow out freely, expressive of the flow of blood, when Christ shall tread upon His enemies.

goat holy; because all the nations shall come, and worship before Thee; because Thy righteous acts were made manifest." 5 And after these things I saw, and the Temple of the Tabernacle of the testimony in Heaven was opened; 6 and there came out of the Temple the seven angels that had the seven plagues, clothed with linen pure and white, and girded about the breasts with golden girdles. 7 And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls, full of the wrath of God, who liveth forever and ever. 8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from His power. And no one was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

CHAPTER XV.

1 And I saw another sign in Heaven, great and marvelous, seven angels having seven plagues, the last, because in them was finished the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a glassy sea mingled with fire; and those who were victorious over the beast, and over his image, and over the number of his name, standing by the glassy sea, having harps of God. 3 And they sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are Thy works, O Lord God, the Almighty; righteous and true are Thy ways, Thou King of the ages." 4 Who will not fear, O Lord, and glorify Thy name? because Thou only

NOTES ON CHAPTER XV.

1 Seven plagues, the last: we cannot surely tell whether these plagues are a more detailed account of the woes that preceded them, or whether they are separate from them, and follow them in order of time; but, at any rate, these plagues complete the earthly woes that come upon the enemies of Christ.

2 A glassy sea mingled with fire: a transparent pavement clear as crystal, with fiery colors intermixed, (ch. 4:6). And those who were victorious over the beast: here we have another vision of the redeemed in Heaven.

3 The song of Moses . . . and of the Lamb: praising God for the deliverance of His people from Egypt bondage through Moses, and the deliverance of His people from sin through Christ, and for His victories over all His foes.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 And I heard a great voice out of the Temple, saying to the seven angels, "Go, and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God into the earth."

2 And the first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth; and there came a baneful and painful sore upon the men who had

NOTES ON CHAPTER XVI.

1 Out of the Temple: coming from God's dwelling place. Pour out the bowls of the wrath of God: chronologically, these seven plagues are to be referred to the time of the seventh trumpet. Into the earth: upon the earth.

2 This plague brings sore calamities upon the worshipers of the beast.

3 Upon the sea: the oceans and seas are visited with wrath, as well as the earth; and people on the sea are made to share the wrath of God.
4 And the third poured out his bowl into the rivers and fountains of waters; and it became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters, saying, “Righteous art Thou, Who art, and Who wast, the Holy One, because Thou didst thus judge; 6 because they poured out the blood of saints and of prophets, and Thou hast given them blood to drink: they are worthy!”

7 And I heard another out of the altar, saying, “Yea, O Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are Thy judgments.”

8 And the fourth poured out his bowl upon the sun; and it was given to it to scorch the men with fire. 9 And the men were scorched with great heat; and they blasphemed the name of God, Who hath the power over these plagues; and they repented not, to give Him glory.

10 And the fifth poured out his bowl upon the throne of the beast; and his kingdom became darkened; and they were gnawing their tongues because of the pain; 11 and they blasphemed the God of Heaven because of their pains and their sores; and they repented not of their works.

12 And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the great river, the Euphrates; and its water was dried up, that the way of the kings who come from the rising of the sun might be prepared. 13 And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits like frogs; 14 for they are spirits of demons, working signs; which go forth unto the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together to the war of the great day of God, the Almighty.

15 “Behold, I come as a thief! Happy is he that is watching, and keeping his garments, that he walk not naked, and they see his shame.”

16 And they gathered them into the place which is called in Hebrew Harmagedon.

17 And the seventh poured out his bowl into the air; and there came forth a great voice out of the Temple, from the throne, saying, “It has come to pass!” 18 And there were lightnings and voices and thunders; and there was an earthquake, a great one, such as was not since there were men on the earth, so mighty an earthquake, so great. 19 And the great city was divided into three parts; and the cities of the nations fell; and Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath. 20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And great hail, as of a talent's weight, comes down out of the heaven upon the men; and the men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; because the plague thereof is exceedingly great!

2 Gr. these things. 3 Most MSS. read, I heard the altar. 4 Or, him.
CHAPTER XVII.

1 And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, and spake with me, saying, "Come hither! I will show you the judgment of the great harlot, that sits on many waters; 2 with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and those who dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her fornication."

3 And he carried me away into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet-colored beast, full of the names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. 4 And the woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and was gilded with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup, full of abominations, even the impurities of her fornication, and upon her forehead a name written, "MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH."

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. And, seeing her, I wondered with great wonder. 7 And the angel said to me, "Why did you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. 8 The beast which you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss, and to go into perdition. And those who dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names have not been written in the book of life from the founding of the world, when they behold the beast, that he was, and is not, and shall come. 9 Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits. 10 And there are seven kings; the five fell, and the one is, the other did not yet come. And, when he comes, he must remain a little time. 11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is an eighth, and is of the seven, and goes into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, who, indeed, received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings, one hour with the beast. 13 These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. 14 These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them; because He is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and those with Him are called and chosen and faithful."

15 And he says to me, "The waters which you saw, where the harlot sits, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. 16 And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the harlot, and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh, and burn her up with fire. 17 For God gave it into their

NOTES ON CHAPTER XVII.

1 The great harlot; the great persecuting power. This probably refers to Catholicism in league with the beast of ch. 13:1. In the year-day interpretation of this mystery, we see the union of the Roman church and the civil power—which union resulted in the slaughter of many of the saints of God. In the day-day interpretation—which seems to be necessary in the interpretation of this portion of Revelation—the beast appears as the visible head of Satan’s forces, and this woman is, probably, the apostate Roman church, lifted to temporary power under the beast.

2 Committed fornication; the kings of the earth were, many of them, subject to Romanism for many years, and committed fornication with this power. Drunken with the wine of her fornication; alluding to the wine-cup with which harlots debauch their foolish votaries.

3 A woman sitting upon a scarlet-colored beast; see note above. This interpretation requires a reorganization of the ten kingdoms.

6 Drunken with the blood of the saints; this, as a tribulation picture, indicates that many of the saints were slaughtered. I wondered: at the great corruption and shameless wickedness of the woman.

8 About to come up out of the abyss; the beast seems to have been raised up from the dead.

9 Hath wisdom; to understand the meaning of this description; seven mountains; on which Rome was built; thus identifying Rome as the seat of the great enemy of Jesus Christ.

10, 11 The beast seems to be a resuscitated head of the revived Roman government, which is to figure again, for a brief period, under the leadership of the Devil.

12 The ten horns . . . are ten kings; these are to receive brief power under the beast, under the revived ten heads, or governments.

13 These confederated kings fight under the beast, and venture to make war with Christ and His hosts, with fatal results to themselves, (ch. 19:19-21).

hearts to do His will, even to execute one purpose, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God shall be accomplished. 18 And the woman whom you saw is the great city which has a kingdom over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 After these things I saw another angel coming down out of Heaven, having great authority; and the earth was illuminated with his glory. 2 And he cried with a mighty voice, saying, "Babylon the great fell, fell, and became a habitation of demons, and a hold of every unclean spirit, and a hold of every unclean and hateful bird; 3 because, in consequence of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, have all the nations fallen; and the kings of the earth committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth became rich by the power of her luxury."

4 And I heard another voice out of Heaven saying, "Come forth out of her, my people, that ye have no fellowship with her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues; 5 because her sins were joined together even to Heaven, and God remembered her iniquities. 6 Render to her, as she also rendered; and double the double according to her works; in the cup which she mixed, mix ye to her double. 7 As much as she glorified herself, and lived luxuriously, so much torment and mourning give her; because she says in her heart, 'I sit a queen, and am not a widow, and shall in nowise see mourning.' 8 Therefore, in one day shall come her

NOTES ON CHAPTER XVIII.

This chapter gives a vision of the fall of mystic Babylon, which is not fully realized till we reach the close of ch. 20:3; when, after the capture of the beast and false prophet and the destruction of their armies (Rev. 19:19-21). Satan, the author of all the sin in the world, is imprisoned in the abyss for a thousand years.

1 Another angel: who comes to herald the fall of Babylon.

2 Habitation of demons . . . hateful bird: this means that, as ancient Babylon was destroyed and became the abode of wild beasts, doleful creatures, and dragons, so mystic Babylon shall become desolate, except as inhabited by demons, foul spirits, etc.

N. B.--Some think that there is to be a new Babylon built near the site of the ancient Babylon, and that it is to become the principal commercial city of the eastern hemisphere; and this seems the more probable, since the city of Rome has little importance as a commercial center.

3 Have all the nations fallen: Babylon is represented as a rich and luxurious harlot, enriching the nations by their commerce with her; while, through her corruptions, they have all come to destruction. (Compare Isa. 47.)

4 Come out of her, my people: have no fellowship with her, but separate yourselves from her. Some of God's people will linger in the domain of mystic Babylon, till just before her overthrow; and the warning voice of God to them is, "Come out of her."

This may have some application to the Laodicean churches of our day, that will not tolerate the doctrines of the full Gospel. In fact, it has always been the duty of true Christians to separate themselves from incurable corruption and error wherever found. (Compare Jer. 51:8, 45.)

5 Her sins were joined together even unto Heaven: they are so numerous that, piled or tied together, they extend even to Heaven. (Jer. 51:29.)

6 Render to her, as she also rendered: compare Ps. 137:8; Jer. 50:15, 20; Isa. 47:8, 9.

7 Burned up with fire: expressive of the complete destruction of this mystic city.

8-19 The articles of merchandise in which Babylon is represented as trafficking with the nations, and the lamentation of the kings over her fall, resemble the overthrow of Tyre. (Ezek. chs. 26 and 27.)

10 Woe, woe, the great city: indicating the deep interest which the votaries of wealth, fashion, and pleasure, had in her continuance; and their despair at her destruction.
shall men find them any more. 15 The merchants of these things, who became rich by her, shall stand afar off because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, 16 saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, which was attired in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and was gilded with gold, and precious stone, and pearl; 17 because in one hour so great wealth was made desolate! And every ship-master, and every one sailing to any place, and mariners, and as many as do business at sea, stood afar off; 18 and they cried out, when beholding the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like the great city? 19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, wherein all who have ships in the sea became rich by reason of her costliness! because in one hour she was made desolate. 20 Rejoice over her, O

CHAPTER XIX.

1 After these things I heard as it were a great voice of a great multitude in Heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! the salvation, and the glory, and the power, are our God's; 2 because true and righteous are His judgments; because He judged the great harlot; who, indeed, corrupted the earth with her fornication, and He avenged the blood of His servants at her hand." 3 And a second time they say, "Hallelujah!" And her smoke ascends forever and ever. 4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down, and

3 Or, gain a living.

22 The sound of a millstone: Jer. 25:10. The people in the East, many of them now, grind their meal daily with hand-mills. The cessation of the sound of these mills would indicate utter desolation.

22 And the voice of harpers and musicians, and flute-players and trumpeters shall in nowise be heard in you any more. And no craftsman of whatever craft shall in any wise be found in you any more; and no sound of a millstone shall ever be heard in you any more; 23 and the light of a lamp shall in nowise shine in you any more; and the voice of bridegroom and of bride shall be heard in you no more; because your merchants were the princes of the earth; because by your sorcery were all the nations deceived. 24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth.

worshiped God, Who sitteth on the throne, saying, "Amen! Hallelujah!"

5 And a voice came forth from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all ye His servants, ye who fear Him, the small and the great." 6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunders, saying, "Hallelujah! because the Lord our God, the Almighty, became King! 7 Let us rejoice, and exult, and give the glory to Him; because the marriage of the Lamb came, and His wife made herself ready."
8 And it was given to her that she should clothe herself in fine linen, bright, pure; for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. 9 And he says to me, "Write, Happy are those who have been called to the marriage supper of the Lamb." And he says to me, "These are true words of God."

10 And I fell down before his feet to worship him. And he says to me, "See that you do it not: I am a fellow-servant of you and of your brethren who hold the testimony of Jesus; worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

11 And I saw Heaven opened; and, behold, a white horse, and He Who sat on him, called 1 Faithful and True; and in righteousness doth He judge and make war. 12 And His eyes are as a flame of fire; and on His head are many diadems; having a name written which no one knows but Himself; 13 and He is clothed with a garment sprinkled 2 with blood; and His name is called "THE WORD OF GOD." 14 And the armies in Heaven were following Him on white horses, clothed in fine linen, white, pure.

1 Some Mss. omit called. 2 Some Mss. read. dipped.

8 The fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints: the righteous deeds of Spirit-filled Christians seem to form a sort of garment by which they are to be distinguished. Those who build on the Christ-life with indestructible material, or works performed in the power of the Holy Spirit, will have an enduring structure, while those who build with carnal works will have all but the foundation destroyed, and they will suffer loss. (I Cor. 3:14, 15).

9 Happy are those who have been called to the marriage supper of the Lamb: most marriages, besides the bridegroom and the bride, have attendants or honored guests. (See again Ps. 45:14, 15); the king's daughter (Ps. 45:10, 11, 14, 15) being regarded as the bride.

10 See that you do it not: no man, angel, or any created being, is to be worshipped. A fellow-servant of you and of your brethren; this angel was one of the ministering angels whose business it was, in part at least, to minister to the saints of God. (Heb. 1:14). The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy; the great end of the spirit of prophecy is to bear witness concerning Jesus; and both John and the angel were endued with this spirit of testimony concerning Jesus; hence they were, in this respect, fellow-servants, and should not think of worshipping one another.

11 Heaven opened; indicating that further communications were yet to be made. The conflict, described in the remnant of this chapter, is identical with that described in ch. 16:14, 16. Faithful and True; this is Jesus Christ. (ch. 3:14). He doth judge and make war; Isa. 11:3, 4.

12 Having a name ... which no one knew but Himself; if this was not "THE WORD OF GOD" (v. 10), we have no means of knowing what it was.

15 And out of His mouth proceeds a sharp sword, that with it He may smite the nations, and He will govern them with a rod of iron; and He treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. 16 And He hath on His garment, and on His thigh, a name written, "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

17 And I saw one angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a great voice saying to all the birds that fly in mid-heaven, "Come, gather yourselves together to the great supper of God; 18 that ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains of thousands, and flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of those sitting on them, and the flesh of all, both of free and bond, and of small and great."

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war with Him Who was sitting on the horse, and with His army. 20 And the beast was seized, and with him the false prophet that wrought the signs in his presence, with which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast,

3 Gr. Shepherd.

13 Clothed with a garment sprinkled with blood; compare Isa. 63:1-3. This blood probably refers to the blood He had shed for the redemption of His people, whose enemies He is now about to punish with a signal overthrow. Or it may refer to blood scattered upon Him in battle, prophetic of the battle soon to be fought.

14 The armies in Heaven; the multitudes of His redeemed followers, and possibly also some of the angels. (Matt. 24:31; 13:41).

15 He treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness of the wrath of God; expressive of the great slaughter of His enemies, when their blood should flow freely.

16 King of kings, and Lord of lords; indicating His universal dominion.

17 The great supper of God; the supper, or feast, that God was preparing for them; representing the vast slaughter of His enemies, on whose flesh the fowls of the heaven were invited to feed, (compare Ezek. 39:17-20).

19 The beast; the same as the beast in ch. 13:1. The king of the earth; confederated under the beast, and servant to his will. These vast armies, led on by Satan, ventured to fight against Christ and His army. This beast is the same as "the man of sin"—"the son of perdition," who exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped. (II Thess. 2:3-4). This is also the Anti-Christ, who will deny the Father and the Son. (I John 2:22; 4:3; II John 7).

20 The false prophet; the same as the second beast. (ch. 13:11). These beasts were both captured, and cast alive into the lake of fire; showing that they were men, and not systems.
and who worshiped his image. The two were cast alive into the lake of fire that burns with brimstone.

21 And the rest were killed with the sword of Him Who was sitting on the horse, the sword that went forth out of His mouth; and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

CHAPTER XX.

1 And I saw an angel coming down out of Heaven, having the key of the abyss, and a great chain upon his hand. 2 And he seized the dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, 3 and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years should be finished; after these things he must be loosed for a little time.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them; and judgment was given to them; and I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of the testimony of Jesus, and because of the word of God; and such as worshiped not the beast, neither his image, and received not the mark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they lived, and reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 The rest of the dead lived not until the thousand years should be finished. This is the first resurrection. 6 Happy and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection; over these the second death has no authority; but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.

7 And, when the thousand years are finished, Satan will be loosed out of his prison, and will come forth to deceive the nations that are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war, the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. 9 And they went up over the breadth of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city; and fire came down out of the heaven, and devoured them. 10 And the Devil who deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where also the beast and the false prophet were cast; and they shall be tormented, day and night, forever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and Him Who was sitting thereon, from Whose face the earth and the heavens fled away; and no place was found for them. 12 And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne; and books

NOTES ON CHAPTER XX.

1-3 After the beast and false prophet are captured and cast into the lake of fire, and their vast armies are destroyed, Satan, the commander of them all, is captured, and cast into the abyss, where he is forced to remain one thousand years. In this state of confinement, he is unable to deceive the human family; but, after his release, he deceives multitudes of them, and leads them to ruin.

4 Thrones, and they sat upon them: indicating the great honor to be bestowed upon those who are fit for the position (ch. 3:21). The souls of those who had been beheaded: the context shows that these are tribulation martyrs. These have part in the Millennial reign.

5 The rest of the dead: those who had not already been raised at the rapture, or at some time subsequent to the rapture; certainly including the wicked dead.

6 The first resurrection: this includes all who are ready to meet the Bridegroom. It seems possible, if not probable, that many Christians who were not ready to meet the Bridegroom, and had never cut themselves loose from the world, will not be raised until the white throne judgment, (vs. 11-15); the proof of this is not decisive, since believers who die during the Millennial reign may appear at that judgment, (v. 12). The word Millennium signifies a period of a thousand years.

7 Loosed out of his prison: is permitted to ascend out of the abyss. When set at liberty, he goes to work at once to deceive men, and lead them to rebel against Christ.

8-9 Gog and Magog: see Ezek. chs. 38, 39. Gog is called "the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal," and Magog appears to be the land over which he reigned. He dwells in the north part—probably in the region covered by Russia, and he comes with a vast horde to aid in the insurrection against Christ. And fire come down out of the heaven, and devoured them: this vast army is miraculously destroyed by fire. May this not be the same as the prophecy of Peter, in his second epistle, 3:10, when "the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up?" From this great fire "the new heavens and the new earth," we suppose, will emerge.

10 They shall be tormented, day and night, forever and ever: the beast and false prophet have been in the lake of fire and brimstone for a thousand years and "a little time"; and now these two men and Satan enter upon a period of suffering that appears to have no end.

11 The earth and the heaven fled away: expressive of the infinite dignity and majesty of Jesus Christ, when He comes to the final judgment of the human race; the raptured saints having been judged during the tribulation, and before the Savior's descent to earth with His saints.
were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged out of the things that were written in the books, according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them; and they were judged, every one, according to their works. 14 And Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death, even the lake of fire. 15 And, if anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER XXI.
1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth passed away, and the sea is no more. 2 And I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a great voice out of the throne, saying, “Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they will be His peoples, and God Himself will be with them, as their God.” 4 And He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. And death shall be no more; neither mourning, nor crying, nor pain, shall be any more; because the first things passed away.” 5 And He Who sits upon the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new.”

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXI.

This chapter gives us a glowing and thrilling description of the new heaven and new earth, and especially of the New Jerusalem, the abode of the blessed. This is another dispensation that follows the final, or white throne, judgment, (Rev. 20:11-15).

1 A new heaven and a new earth; Isa. 65:17-19; II Pet. 3:13. This shows a wonderful improvement in the environments of the saints. The sea is no more; this language seems to be literal; and, if it is, the vast expanse of waters that now covers so much of the earth’s surface will be dried up—to make room, likely, for the teeming billions that are to inhabit it.

2 The holy city, the New Jerusalem; this magnificent structure is the abode of the Almighty, and the headquarters of the redeemed, (v. 3).

3 God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; this verse affords great comfort to God’s persecuted, tempted, and suffering people, as it declares that these things shall annoy them no more.

4 Or, they have come to pass.

6 He said; Christ is the speaker. It has come to pass; it has been accomplished; the great work of man’s redemption is an accomplished fact. The righteous are gathered into the New Jerusalem and the wicked into the lake of fire. John in his vision had passed on to the end, and now looks back upon all things relating to man’s destiny as fully accomplished. I am the Alpha and the Omega; see note on ch. 1:8. Of the fountain of the water of life; see ch. 22:1, 2; John 4:14; 7:38.

7 He that overcometh; all his enemies; the world, the flesh, and the Devil; and gets the full life of Christ developed in him, (Eph. 4:13). Shall inherit these things; shall inherit a place in the New Jerusalem with right to the water of life and all else pertaining to that glorified state.

8 The fearful; those who fear men; and, to avoid their opposition, did not follow Christ. The second death; eternal separation from God and happiness, with all the horrors that belong to existence in the lake of fire, (ch. 20:10, 15; Matt. 25:41, 46).

9 The seven bowls; ch. 15:7. The bride; the glorified saints, or “Assembly of the first born,” (Heb. 12:23).
10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the city, the holy Jerusalem, coming down out of the heaven from God, having the glory of God; her radiance was like that of a stone most precious, as a jasper clear as crystal: 12 having a wall great and high; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names inscribed, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel; 13 on the east were three gates, and on the north three gates, and on the south three gates, and on the west three gates; 14 and the wall of the city, having twelve foundations; on them, twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. 15 And he who was talking with me had as a measure a golden reed, that he might measure the city, its gate, and its wall. 16 And the city lies four-square, and its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs; and the length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. 17 And he measured its wall a hundred and forty-four cubits, a man's measure, that is, an angel's. 19 And the material of its wall was jasper; and the city was pure gold, like pure glass. 19 The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every manner of precious stone. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; 20 the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, hyacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each one of the gates, severally, was of one pearl; and the street of the city was pure gold, as transparent glass. 22 And I saw no temple in it; for the Lord God, the Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple thereof. 23 And the city has no need of the sun, nor of the moon, to shine upon it; for the glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb. 24 And the nations will walk by its light; and the kings of the earth bring their glory into it. 25 And its gates shall be shut by day (for there will be no night there); 26 and they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it. 27 And there shall in nowise enter into it anything unclean, or he that works abomination and a lie; but only those written in the Lamb's book of life. 17 He measured its wall; the wall of the city which seems to have been separate from the city. It was twelve times twelve cubits high, or from two hundred and sixteen to two hundred and forty feet in height according to the different estimates for the length of a cubit. 18-21 Jasper, gold, every manner of precious stone; this shows the beauty, splendor, and glory of the city. 22 No temple; no particular place will be needed for the saints to assemble, but every place will be luminous with the divine presence and glory, being filled with the presence of God and the Lamb. 23 No need of the sun; the presence of God and the Lamb makes perfect day. (ch. 11:19). 24-26 Walk by its light; the light of this God-illuminated city will be all the light that is needed. All portions of the redeemed creation will contribute their part to the glory and bliss of Heaven. 27 But only those written in the Lamb's book of life; there is a perfect record kept of all the saved; and their names are written in the Lamb's book of life. They have, each, been purchased by, and cleansed with, His precious blood. In view of the endless and boundless bliss and glory of an abode in this Blessed City, why should Christians worry themselves about the trifles of this world? Beyond food and raiment, what more do we need? X. R.—If, after all of God's expenditures of Divine Resources to purchase salvation for man, any one deliberately decides that he will not accept Jesus Christ as his Savior, who can calculate the extent of his self-inflicted calamity!
CHAPTER XXII

1 And he showed me a river of water of life, bright as crystal, issuing forth out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, 2 in the midst of its street. And on either side of the river, was a tree of life, producing twelve fruits, yielding its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. 3 And there shall be no more curse. And the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it; and His servants will serve Him; 4 and they will see His face, and His name shall be on their foreheads.

5 And there will be night no more; and they need no lamp-light, nor light of the sun; because the Lord God will illuminate them, and they shall reign forever and ever.

6 And he said to me, “These words are faithful and true; and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent His angel to show to His servants the things which must shortly come to pass. 7 And, behold, I come quickly! Happy is he that keeps the words of the prophecy of this book.”

8 And I, John, am he who heard and saw these things. And, when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things. 9 And he says, “See that you do not. I am a fellow-servant with you and with your brethren the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book: worship God.”

10 And he says to me, “Seal not up the words of the prophecy of this book; for the time is at hand. 11 He that is unrighteous, let him do unrighteousness still; and he that is filthy, let him be made filthy still; and he that is righteous, let him do righteousness still; and he that is holy, let him be made holy still.

12 “Behold, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to render to each one according as his work is. 13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. 14 Happy are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter by the gates into the city. 15 Without are the dogs, and the sorcerers, and the fornicators, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and every one loving and acting a lie.

16 “I, Jesus, sent My angel to testify to you these things to the assemblies. I am the root and offshoot of David, the Bright and Morning Star.

NOTES ON CHAPTER XXII.

1 A river of water of life: very much like the river in Ezek. 47:1-12. Out of the throne of God, and of the Lamb: indicating that all these infinite and eternal blessings come from God and Christ.

2 Twelve fruits: that is, twelve harvests each year: representing the constant and abundant blessings that are provided for those who enter that blissful abode. The leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations: indicating that there will be perfect health in that blissful clime.

4 Will see His face: it seems uncertain whose face it is that is here referred to, whether that of the Son or of the Father. But it is pleasing to believe that we will see both. When all sin and its consequences are removed, and the Christ-life in God’s people is unaloayed with evil of any kind, it seems that those, particularly, who have put on the life of Christ, will be able to see the Father as Jesus does.

5 No night... no lamp-light, nor light of the sun: because God, Who is light, will dispel all darkness from His abode, and will shed His light upon His people.

6 These words: what he had declared to John, and what John had written for the instruction of all believers that should live up to the close of the dispensation.

7 I come quickly: this is not to be confounded with the coming of Christ to dwell in the heart of the fully surrendered believer; nor yet, his coming to the believer at death; but it is His coming to close up this dispensation; for, though chs. 21 and 22 disclose visions that follow the Millennium, yet from v. 6 of this chapter, the narrative connects back to the former part of the prophecy.

8 I fell down to worship: the dignity and glory of the angel made the apostle disposed to worship him; but here, as elsewhere, the angel refuses all divine worship; as also all good men do. (Acts 10:25). The uncreated God, the Author of all existence, is the only One for His creatures to worship.

10 Seal not up the words of the prophecy: but publish them for the present benefit of all God’s people.

11, 12. He that is unrighteous, let him do unrighteousness still: as much as to say, if after all these solemn admonitions and warnings, anyone will still persevere in his evil ways, let him do so: there is no remedy for him. But let the righteous persevere in well-doing; for the day of reward, as well as of vengeance, will soon come, and every one shall receive according to his doings.

14 May enter by the gates: anyone of the twelve gates, as he may have need. Into the city: the New Jerusalem, the home of the saints.

15 Dogs, sorcerers, etc.: different classes of sinners, none of whom have any place in the city. This seems to precede the White Throne judgment; since, as the result of that judgment, all the wicked are to be cast into the lake of fire. (ch. 20:15).

16 The root and the offshoot of David: In His divine nature Christ was the Creator and Source of David’s being; and, as to His humanity, He was David’s offshoot. Compare Matt. 22:42-45. Others think that “the root and off-17 "And the Spirit and the bride say, 'Come'; and let him that hears say, 'Come'; and let him that thirsts say, 'Come'; he that will let him take the water of life freely.

18 "I testify to every one who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone shall add to them, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this spring of David," simply means that Jesus was the true progeny of David according to the Scriptures, (Isa. 11:1). The Morning Star; as the morning star ushers in the day, so Jesus Christ is to bring in eternal day.

17 The bride; true Christians, or those who are Spirit-filled. Come; come to Christ, and receive the blessings accompanying eternal life, (Matt. 11:28-30).

18 If anyone shall add to these things; to the words of this prophecy. And, no doubt, the same principle applies to every other inspired book, making up the Bible. It is a dreadful thing to make such addition; and equally dreadful to take any thing away from it. Those who have either added to, or taken from, God's word, will meet a dreadful doom in consequence of their rashness.

20 He Who testifieth; meaning Christ. I come quickly; to call each one to give an account of his stewardship, and to reward or punish each according to his works.

21 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you; the apostle's prayer for every one for whom he wrote the book of Revelation.

APPENDIX B

HOW TO USE THE BIBLE.

[Be sure that you have a saving knowledge of Christ yourself, and that, through the Holy Spirit as your Teacher, you have come to know Christ as your indwelling Savior, (John 14:17-20; Eph. 3:16, 17).]

1. If you are dealing with a bold sinner, tell him what God saith about the awful doom of the impenitent, (Gal. 6:7, 8; Psa. 9:17; Matt. 25:46; Rev. 20:15).

2. If you are dealing with a self-righteous man, read the following Scriptures to him; that, under the Holy Spirit, may serve to convict him of sin, (Rom. 3:22; 1 John 1:8; Jer. 17:9; Eccle. 7:20; Isa. 66:6; Eph. 4:18; Matt. 15:19; Isa. 1:6).

3. If you find a penitent sinner, point him to Jesus Christ as the One who died to save him (Acts 16:31; 19:10; John 4:10; 7:37; Matt. 11:28-30; John 3:16, 36; Rom. 5:1), and urge him to accept Him by faith.

4. If it becomes your privilege to deal with a professed Christian who is not assured of his salvation, show him from the Word the characteristics of a saved person; as, for example, that the true believer is dead to sin, (Rom. 6:2; 7:4); hates it, and loves purity and holiness; loves the brethren, (1 John 3:14); loves the Savior, and desires to please Him, (Heb. 11:5, 6); and ought to have the witness of the Spirit bearing witness with his spirit that he is a child of God, (Rom. 8:16).

5. If you find a backslider, point him to John 1:9; show him that the Savior is ever now interceding for him (1 John 2:1); and that the Father is ready to forgive and cleanse him as soon as he repents, confesses his sins and believes.

6. If you meet a Christian who is hungering and thirsting after righteousness, show him how, by consecration, prayer and faith, he may have the well of living water opened up within, (John 4:14; Lu. 11:13; John 14:15-17).

7. If you meet a believer who is deeply sighing for heart-union with Jesus, read to him Rev. 2:20; John 14:15-21, and tell him that, after he has complied with all other conditions, he must then accept His incoming and indwelling by faith, (Eph. 3:17); and that, if he desires His manifested presence, he must persistently obey, (John 14:21).

8. If it falls to your lot to deal with those desiring a holy character, show them how this may be realized through a life of unreserved heart-union with Christ enthroned within, through whose power working through the Holy Spirit, he will be enabled to "put off the old man" (Eph. 4:22), and "put on the new man" (v. 24), which is the holiness God wishes us to have; holiness of character being the life of Christ reproduced in us by the mighty inworking of the Holy Trinity.

9. If you find a sick Christian, who desires to be healed, point him to James 5:14, 15, and other kindred Scriptures that show God's provision for the body.

10. If it falls to your lot to teach one who is desiring complete victory on all lines, and to get God's best, show him that, as a believer in Christ, he must give himself wholly to the Lord, learn to live the Spirit-filled life; to make Christ the King of his heart; live the crucified life (Gal. 2:20; 2 Cor. 4:10, 11), until he is conformed to the death of Christ, (Phil. 3:10); and thus have every element in his nature that is opposed to God entirely removed from him, so that he may be habitually "filled unto all the fulness of God," (Eph. 3:19). This sort of life, perpetuated to its close, will lead one to grow up into Christ in all things, (Eph. 4:15), and reach the measure of the stature of His fulness, (v. 13).
APPENDIX C

OUTLINE OF THE FAITH OF A TRUE ASSEMBLY OF GOD.

We believe the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, and the only, but an all-sufficient, rule of faith and practice, (2 Tim. 3:16; 2 Pet. 1:21; John 17:17; Psa. 119:105).

Now, because we believe this, we believe: 1. That there is only one true and living God, revealed to us in the Scriptures under the tri-personality of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, (Deut. 6:4; Matt. 28:19; John 14:15-21, etc.); the Father being represented as the Supreme Ruler of the Universe; the Son as the God-Man, the Sin-bearer, (1 Pet. 2:24; Isa. 53:5, 6), and the Savior of sinners, and the Holy Spirit, the Executive of God-head, as securing to penitent believers all that is provided for them in Christ, (John 16:8; 3:5, 6, 8; 2 Cor. 3:18; Gal. 5:22, 23).

2. We believe that man, though created up-right, did, by voluntary transgression (Gen. 3:1-24), fall from his gracious state; and that, through his fall, all his descendants have been born with depraved natures (Rom. 5:12, 17:19; Psa. 51:5; Eph. 2:3; Eccle. 7:20; Rom. 3:23; 1 John 1:8, etc., etc.), and have become actual sinners soon after reaching the years of accountability.

3. We believe that Jesus Christ, the Incarnate Son of God (Isa. 9:6), and the Son of Mary (Matt. 1:18-25)—being thus the God-Man—did, in His twofold character, make full atonement for sin by His vicarious suffering and death in behalf of our race, (Isa. 53:4-10; 12; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3:18; Gal. 3:13; John 10:11; Matt. 20:28; 1 Cor. 15:3; Rom. 4:25; 2 Cor. 5:14, 21; Heb. 2:9; 9:26, etc.); and that, because of His death in behalf of our race, ample provision is made for the salvation of all.

4. We believe that every one who genuinely repents of his sins, and accepts Jesus Christ as his personal Savior, is pardoned, regenerated, justified, and saved, (see Acts 3:19; 17:30; 16:31; John 3:16, 36; 10:10, etc.).

NOTES.

(a) Every New Testament assembly is an independent body (under Christ), having fellowship with every other kindred assembly, but no organic union with any; having the inherent right, under the Holy Spirit, to send out its own missionaries, (Acts 13:2-4).

(b) There is no such thing as an ecclesiasticism or organized denomination of Christians, known to the New Testament Scriptures, (see the New Testament everywhere).

(c) Different assemblies may co-operate, under the guidance of the Spirit, in furtherance of Christian work (see 2 Cor. 8:1-4; 1 Cor. 16:1-3), but they dare not lose their own individuality in any such co-operation.

(d) A true Gospel assembly may hold its meetings in the home of one of its members, (see Rom. 16:5; 1 Cor. 16:19; Col. 4:15).

(e) The proper designation of a company of believers, answering to the New Testament ideal, is "The assembly of God," or "The assembly of Christ," at such and such a place, (1 Cor. 1:2; 2 Cor. 1:2; Rom. 16:16).

(f) The word assembly is sometimes used in its larger sense to denote all the saved, (Eph. 1:22; 5:23; Col. 1:24; Heo. 12:28); but this assembly does not hold its meetings on word, that he may grow thereby" (1 Pet. 2:2); this new life being the basal element of the character thereafter, possibly, to be evolved.

(c) Justification, or that act of sovereign grace whereby the penitent believer is accounted righteous, is based entirely upon the righteousness of Jesus Christ, who bore his sins and put them away, and now becomes surety for him, (1 Cor. 1:30; Rom. 7:4; 10:4).

5. We believe that it is the duty (where it is practicable) for every Spirit-born person to be immersed in water into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, (Matt. 28:19); thus, in outward symbol, identifying himself, by his own voluntary act, with the crucified, buried, and risen Christ, (Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12).

6. We believe that a true and orderly Gospel assembly is a company, congregation, or body, of Spirit-born, immersed believers, drawn together by the Holy Spirit; having the whole Bible (rightly divided) as their creed, the Holy Spirit as their Teacher and Revealer of the Word, (John 14:26; 16:13, 14); and Christ as their Head, (Eph. 4:15); meeting together in the name of Christ for worship, for instruction in the word, for the edification of the members, and for the observance of the Lord's Supper; having, as one of its main objects, the proclamation and dissemination of the Gospel throughout the whole earth.

NOTES.

(a) Repentance follows conviction for sin by the Holy Spirit (John 16:8), if one yields to the Spirit; and saving faith becomes possible to those only who feel their lost condition and are willing to give up sin. "Conviction for sin, repentance, and faith," is the divine order.

(b) In connection with true repentance and faith, the Holy Spirit imparts a new nature, or the Christ-life, or "eternal life," thus making one a "babe in Christ" (1 Cor. 3:1), that needs, for a time, "the sincere milk of the earth."
(g) An assembly always implies individual members; and a real assembly must be composed of real members. Now, since all believers, from the nature of the case, can not be members of the same local assembly, it would seem necessary that those who wish to be members of any particular assembly should make application for membership, and be received in some regular manner, and then act as members, and be considered as such; and, for convenience of the body, there should be a record of the names of the members.

7. We believe that the recognized officers, or servants, of a local assembly are elders and deacons, (Phil. 1:1).

NOTES.

(a) The term “elder” includes bishops [overseers or pastors] and evangelists; this last class having distinct recognition in Eph. 4:11; Acts 21:8; Tim. 4:5.

(b) The apostolic assemblies had both apostles and prophets, but it appears that one element in each of these offices ceased with the death of John: viz., in the former, writing by inspiration so as to add to the Word of God; and, in the latter, the foretelling of future events, so as to add to the volume of the inspired prophetic Scriptures. God, however, still calls men and sends them forth to work for Him; and He may also give visions of coming events; but in neither case do we have the old-time apostles and prophets. Revelation being complete, Spirit-filled men are needed to preach and unfold the meaning of the word, to the end that Christians may see and appropriate all that is provided for them in Christ.

(c) God calleth His servants—whom He will—unto the work of preaching the Gospel, (Matt. 10:1, 5-10; Lu. 10:1, 9); ending them with power to do His work, (Lu. 24:49; Acts 1:8; Gal. 1:16); the Holy Spirit appointing every pastor over every assembly, in which He hath full right of way, (Acts 20:28).

(d) The special work of the pastor, or overseer, is to feed the lambs, or babes, of His flock, “on the sincere milk of the Word,” (1 Pet. 2:2); and the older members on meat, (Heb. 5:14); giving to each his portion of food in due season, (Lu. 12:42; see also John 21:15-17).

(e) Under God, the pastor has authority to rebuke, reprove, and admonish, (Tit. 2:15; 2 Tim. 4:2); but yet in such a way as “not to lord it over God’s heritage,” (1 Pet. 5:13); not serving for filthy lucre, (v. 2).

8. We believe that the Lord’s Supper is an ordinance to be observed by a Gospel assembly, till He shall come, (Matt. 26:26-28; Mk. 14:22; 24; Lu. 22:19, 20; 1 Cor. 11:23-26).

NOTES.

(a) The Supper is both a memorial of the Savior’s death (1 Cor. 11:24), and a symbol of the food and drink on which the spiritual life is nourished, (John 6:48-58; 1 Cor. 11:29, 30).

(b) The elements should be withheld from certain characters, (see 1 Cor. 5:11; Rom. 16:17; 2 Thess. 3:6, 14); this clearly implying the right and duty to purge an assembly from those who, by their walk, disgrace the name of Christ.

9. We believe that every Spirit-born person should yield his whole being, with all he possesses, to God, to be His forever, without condition, (see Matt. 10:24; Rom. 6:13, 19; 12:1, 2; 2 Cor. 6:17, 18; 8:5, etc.).

NOTES.

(a) A failure to do this necessitates a failure in one’s Christian life, and in the development of a Christly character, as well as in his work for Christ.

(b) Here we find the reason why the lives of the great majority of profession Christians are so unsatisfactory to themselves, and of so little value to the cause of Christ.

10. We believe that the normal Christian is one that has yielded himself wholly to God, and is habitually filled with the Holy Spirit, (John 4:14; Lu. 11:13; Acts 6:3; Eph. 5:18, etc.); being taught by the Spirit (John 14:26), guided into all truth by the Spirit (16:13, 14), and being led by the Spirit, (Rom. 8:14).

11. We believe that it is the privilege of every consecrated believer to come to know that Christ is in him, (John 14:20); to have Christ manifest Himself to him, (v. 21); to enter upon the crucified life in union with Him, (Gal. 2:20; 2 Cor. 4:10, 11); to abide in Christ and have Christ abide in him, (John 15:4, 5); to feed on Christ, the Living Bread, (6:56); and to have the Father and Son make their abode with him, (John 14:23; Eph. 3:16-19; 1 John 3); thus being filled, habitually, unto all the fulness of God.

12. We believe that it is the duty of every Spirit-born person to have a holy character, and to live a holy life, (see 1 Pet. 1:16; Rom. 6:19, 22; 2 Cor. 7:1; 1 Thess. 3:13; 5:23; Heb. 12:10, 14, etc., etc.).

NOTES.

(a) A holy life-principle is given to the believer in regeneration, (John 3:5, 6); spoken of as “the inner man,” (Rom. 7:22; Eph. 3:16); “the new man . . . that was created in righteousness and holiness of the truth,” (Eph. 4:22); giving one the title of “a babe in Christ,” (1 Cor. 3:1).

(b) This life must be strengthened by the Holy Spirit (Eph. 3:16), as a preparation for the incoming and enthronement of Christ in the heart, (v. 17); but this implies consecration and the reception of the Holy Spirit.

(c) With Christ enthroned in the heart, one enters upon the crucified life, (Gal. 2:20); and, if he will, he may live this sort of life, till he is conformed to the death of Christ, (Phil. 3:10); and this will make it possible for him to get the full resurrection life of Jesus built up in him, (2 Cor. 5:18; Eph. 4:13, 15, 24; Phil. 3:3) [wherein he wins Christ], 14; 1 Pet. 5:10).

This is God's highest ideal for His people, and he who gets it will have a holy, or Christly character; and will be a full overcomer, (see Rev. 3:21; 21:7).

(d) In building up such a character in the believer, each Person in the God-head hath a part to perform; the Son furnishing the model and material, so to speak; the Spirit being the Architect, (Gal. 5:22, 23; 2 Cor. 3:18); while the Father is the Pruner (John 15:2), and the Chastener, (Heb. 12:6-10).

13. We believe that provision is made in the Gospel for the healing and health of the bodies of God's people.

NOTES.

(a) Healing is provided in the atonement of Christ, (see Isa. 53:4; Matt. 8:17; Gal. 3:13).

(b) Four ways of getting healing: by prayer for one's self, (John 14:13, 14); by agreement with another, (Matt. 18:19); by laying on of hands, (Mk. 16:18; Acts 9:17; 28:8); and by anointing and prayer, (Jas. 5:14, 15).

(c) Healing is a part of the Gospel, as seen in the following facts: The "twelve" and the "seventy" had healing as a part of their work, (Lu. 9:1, 2; 10:1, 9); it is in the Lord's great commission, (Matt. 28:18, 20 [compare with Matt. 10:1], and Mk. 16:15-18); and the anointing ordinance fixes it as a part of the word.

(d) It is only the normal, or Spirit-filled, Christian that has any right to expect healing.

14. We believe in the pre-millennial coming of Christ; first into the mid-heavens for those who will be ready for the rapture, (1 Cor. 15:51, 52; 1 Thess. 4:15-18; Matt. 25:10); and later, with His saints. (Zech. 14:4; Jude 14).

NOTES.

(a) The beast and his army will be put out of the way when Christ returns to the earth with His saints, (Rev. 19:19-21; see also Zech. 14:12-15); and, after this, Satan is shut up in the abyss and the millennium is inaugurated, (Rev. 20:1-4).

(b) "The great tribulation" comes between the rapture and the coming of Christ with His saints.

15. We believe that there will be a resurrection of all the dead, (John 5:29; Acts 24:15; Dan. 12:2; 1 Cor. 15:42-44).

NOTES.

(a) There will be a thousand years between the resurrection of the righteous and of the wicked, (Rev. 20:5).

(b) Paul speaks of an out-resurrection, which probably has reference to a special resurrection granted to those who make the highest spiritual attainments, (Phil. 3:10, 11).

16. We believe that marriage is an institution of divine appointment, (Gen. 2:24; Mark 10:7, 8); that among the people of God marriage should be "only in the Lord" (1 Cor. 7:39; see also 2 Cor. 6:14, 15); and that adultery, fornication, is the only Scripture ground for divorce, with the right to marry again, (see Matt. 19:9 [this is the only Scripture that tolerates a second marriage on such condition]).

Note: Separation may take place for other reasons, but neither of the parties is permitted to marry while the other is living.

17. We believe that the first day of the week, or Sunday, is the proper day for the members of a Gospel assembly to meet together for public worship, and for the observance of the Lord's Supper, (Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2; Rev. 1:10).

Note: Christ arose on the first day of the week; also Pentecost occurred on the same day. We hold that Gentile Christians assembled for worship, under apostolic approval, on the first day. Hence this is the proper day for Christians to observe.

18. We believe that it should be the fixed purpose of every Spirit-born person to appropriate, to the fullest possible extent, every provision of the Gospel for spirit, soul and body; that every assembly of God should make it a matter of chief concern to embody, in the lives of her members, the full Gospel of Christ, omitting nothing, adding nothing; and that pastor, deacons, and all members, should seek, both as individuals, and as an assembly, to answer to God's highest ideals along these lines, both as to character-development and to work for Him, (see Phil. 3:7-14; Eph. 4:13, 15; Col. 1:27, 29; Rev. 3:8-12).

19. We believe that there will be a judgment of rewards for the raptured saints before Christ descends to the earth; that Christians who go into the tribulation, and all believers who died without preparation for the special resurrection will be judged, either during the millennium (when the judgment of the nations will take place, see Matt. 25:31-46); or after the millennium, when the wicked will be judged, (Rev. 20:12); and that a final separation will take place, when the righteous enter the realms of glory (Rev. 21:23-27; 22:1-5), and the wicked will be cast into the lake of fire, (Rev. 20:15).

GENERAL REMARKS.

1. It is obvious to every normal Christian that the great mass of professed believers have little more than a name to live, while, practically, they seem to be almost dead; to all such the alarm should be sounded forth in thunder tones, "Awake, ye sleepers, and get ready for the great events that are soon to follow!"

2. There are many local congregations of Christians that have some truth; but, for want of consecration, they are not filled with the Spirit, and hence they are living to very little purpose. If these will get right with God through repentance, confession and faith, and will become normal Christians, they may convert their “dead churches” into assemblies of God, and perform valuable service for Him in the closing years of this dispensation.

3. Let it be the purpose of every Christian to do the best he possibly can in the way of becoming all that God wishes him to be, and to be at his best for God along all lines; and let it be his purpose also to elevate the “church” of which he is a member to the plane of a Scriptural assembly, that stands for, and truly represents, every doctrine, precept, and ordinance pertaining to the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.

APPENDIX D

A collection of the principal doctrines of the New Testament Scriptures, with other kindred texts, that serve to illustrate their meaning, are given in alphabetical order, and will be convenient both for study and for Bible readings.

A. Abide; dwell, remain, continue. Spoken of the Spirit, (John 14:16); spoken of Christ as abiding in the believer and the believer in Christ, (John 15:4, 5); much fruit is the result of this mutual abiding, (same); this mutual abiding is essential to a bountiful partaking of the Living Bread, (John 6:50); the crucified life a consequence of Christ’s abiding in the believer, (Gal. 2:20; 2 Cor. 4:10, 11); the Father and the Son will make their abode with the persistently obedient child of God, (John 14:23; see also 1 John 1:3, and Eph. 3:16-19). Any true believer may be thus indwelt by the Holy Trinity, if he will yield himself wholly to God in absolute obedience, (John 14:15, 21, 23).

Abomination of desolation, (Matt. 24:15; Mk. 13:14; Dan. 11:31; 12:11). Some think that this has its fulfilment when Antiochus Epiphanes offered swine’s flesh as a sacrifice in the temple at Jerusalem; but it is believed that it will have its final and principal fulfilment in the last half of the great tribulation, when the Jews will be required to worship the image of the beast, or forfeit the right to buy and sell, (see Rev. 13:14-17).

Admonish; caution, warn, advise, (see Matt. 18:15; Lu. 17:3; Rom. 15:14; Eph. 5:11; 1 Thess. 5:12-14; 2 Thess. 3:15). To admonish truly is to have the Spirit of Christ.

Adoption; receiving one into a place he did not occupy before. The spirit of adoption, (Rom. 8:15); waiting for the adoption, or redemption of the body, (v. 23); ye might receive the adoption of sons, (Gal. 4:5). See a description of those who are adopted into the family of God in John 1:12, 13; 3:3, 5, 6. Paul seems to make a distinction between a babe in Christ and a son; the former is carnal, and the latter is led habitually by the Spirit of God, (see, in order, 1 Cor. 3:1-3; Rom. 8:14). Romans 7:15-24 seems to present the picture of a babe struggling for its rights; and Rom. 8 pictures a son or young man who has conquered Satan, (see 1 John 2:14). Great honors await the fully developed sons of God, (Rev. 3:21; 21:7).

Adultery; illicit sexual intercourse. Forbidden in Ex. 20:14; Lev. 20:10; Deut. 13:18; Mt. 5:27, etc., etc. Adultery may be committed in the heart without the act, (Matt. 5:28). According to Matt. 5:32; Mk. 10:11, 12; Lu. 16:18; Rom. 7:4; 1 Cor. 7:10, 11, many men and women are living in manifest adultery. Fornication, or adultery, is the only reason to warrant the disruption of the nuptial tie, with any right to marry another, (see Matt. 19:9).

Advocate; attendant, counsellor, pleader. Jesus Christ is our Advocate with the Father, (1 John 2:1); and the Holy Spirit is the true believer’s Advocate on earth, (John 14:16).

Affection; love, or eager desire. Set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth, (Col. 3:2). God is the object of our supreme affection, (Matt. 10:37; 22:37; Lu. 10:27). Carnal affections should be mortified, (Rom. 8:13; Col. 3:5; 1 Cor. 9:27). This can be done effectually, only as we let Christ rule in our hearts.

Afflicted; distressed, oppressed, persecuted; having no reference to ordinary sicknesses. Our duty toward the afflicted, (Acts 12:5; 2 Cor. 1:14; Gal. 6:2; Heb. 13:3; see also Psa. 82:3; Job 29:25). Filled with the Holy Trinity, one can endure all such afflictions, and triumph always in the Lord, (2 Cor. 2:14).

Alien; foreign, having no right to partake of, (Heb. 11:34; Eph. 2:12; 4:18; Col. 1:21). Before conversion, all are aliens from God; and it is only through faith in Christ that one comes to have rights in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Almighty, The; meaning God; Gen. 17:1; applied to Christ in Rev. 1:8, etc., etc.
Altar; the places where sacrifices under the law were burned (see Gen. 8:20; Ex. 17:15), in the Temple, (2 Chron. 4:1); in Heaven, Rev. 8:3; 9:13, etc.

Ambassador; a person sent by one government to another to represent the interests of the former. True ministers of the Gospel are Christ's ambassadors sent into this wicked world to represent His interests, and to induce sinners to accept the Gospel, (see 2 Cor. 5:20; Eph. 6:20).

Amen; this word has various meanings and applications, as "truth," or "verily," in its general use at the end of a prayer, it has the meaning of, "Be it so." It is one of the names of Jesus, (Rev. 3:14).

Angel; a messenger: the angels of God are His messengers, sent to execute His will on earth, or in the heavens, (Gen. 24:7; Ex. 23:23; Dan. 3:28; 6:22, etc.). Not to be worshipped, (Col. 2:18; Rev. 19:10, etc.). And the same word, translated "angel," is also translated "messenger," when it refers to man.

Anointed; The: The Christ, or the Messiah, (Isa. 61:1; Lu. 4:18; Acts 10:38). See Messiah.

Anointing with oil; see James 5:14. The oil used at present is olive oil; the oil being a symbol of the Spirit; see note on James 5:14, 15.

Anointing; "Ye have an anointing," meaning the gift of the Holy Spirit, (see 1 John 2:27).

Anti-Christ; a fearfully wicked man, the impersonation and representative of Satan, who is yet to appear as the world's greatest scourge, but will be captured and cast alive into the lake of fire, when Christ comes to the earth with His saints, (Rev. 19:19-20; Rev. 13:1 [the beast]; 2 Thess. 2:3-10 [the man of sin]; Dan. 7:20-22; 8:9-12; 22:25 [little horn]).

There are many anti-Christians, but this terrible monster is to be the anti-Christ, who will be Satan's chief agent in ministering the "great tribulation."

Apostle; one sent forth by Christ to preach the Gospel. The apostles were inspired to preach and teach the Gospel, to establish assemblies of believers, and to perfect the Scripture teachings for the Gospel dispensation. Called, (Matt. 10:1-15). Paul was the apostle to the Gentiles, (Rom. 11:13; 9:15, etc.). It appears that the apostolic office in the sense of one inspired to write the Scriptures ceased with the death of the apostle John. God calls and sends forth all His true ministers now; but it is no part of their duty to add to the Scriptures, but to expound, teach and preach them.

Apparel; instructions regarding, (1 Tim. 2:9; 1 Pet. 3:3).

Ark; Noah's described, (Gen. 6:14-16; Heb. 11:7; 1 Pet. 3:20).

Ark of God; (Ex. 25:10, 11; 37:1); carried into Canaan, (Josh. 3:15); captured by the Philistines, (1 Sam. 4:11); carried to Jerusalem, (2 Sam. 6:15, 24); brought into the temple, (1 Kings 8:3-6); ark in Heaven, (Rev. 11:19).

Armor of God; the Christian's panoply, (Eph. 6:13, 17; Rom. 13:12; 2 Cor. 10:4; 1 Thess. 5:8).

Ascension of Christ; prophesied of, (Psa. 68:18; John 6:62; 7:33; 14:2, 8; 16:5; 20:17); fulfilled, (Acts 1:9-11; Lu. 24:51).

Assembly; an orderly company of obedient believers who meet together stately for the worship of God, and the observance of the Lord's Supper; having the word of God rightly divided as their creed, the Holy Spirit as their Teacher, and Christ as their Living Head; having it in view to hold forth, in their midst, the Gospel ordinances, and the full Gospel of Christ for spirit, soul, and body, to the end that all the members may be established in the faith, built up in love, and made worthy members; and having it also, as a chief end in view, to carry, or send, the Gospel, as far as practicable, to all parts of the world. This is an ideal definition of an assembly of God, or an assembly of Christ.

The word assembly, being a translation of the Greek, Ekklesia, is used in at least two senses: viz., to denote all the saved, (see Eph. 1:22; Col. 1:18; Eph. 3:10; 5:24-29); and to denote a local, independent congregation of orderly believers, (see 1 Cor. 1:2; Acts 14:23; Phil. 4:15; Acts 13:1, etc.).

The plural (assemblies) is used, but in a manner to show that each local assembly was independent under God, and was entrusted with self-government, (see 2 Cor. 8:1; Rev. 11:1, etc.). An assembly in private homes, (Rom. 16:5; 2 Cor. 16:19; Col. 4:15; Phil. 2). The idea of a consolidated ecclesiasticism is nowhere found in the New Testament Scriptures.

Assurance; quiet confidence. Assurance of salvation is an unwavering confidence that one is saved. Effect of righteousness, (Isa. 32:17); riches of, (Col. 2:3); connected with hope and faith, (Heb. 6:11; 10:22).

Atonement; a covering; at-one-ment; God and the sinner put in agreement through the vicarious death of Jesus Christ; satisfaction for sin. Under the law (Ex. 29:36; Lev. 1:14), this was typical of the offering made by Christ.

Atonement made by Christ, (Rom. 3:24: 5:6; 2 Cor. 5:18, 21; Gal. 1:4; 3:13; Tit. 2:14; Heb. 9:26, 28; 1 Pet. 1:19; 2:24; 3:18; 1 John 2:2; Rev. 1:5, etc.). Prophesied of, (Isa. 53:4-10; Dan. 9:24; Zech. 13:1, 7; John 11:50, etc.).

Christ died for all, (2 Cor. 5:14; Heb. 2:9).

But no actual sinner is saved, unless he repents, and believes in Christ, (Acts 3:19; 16:31).

B.

Backbiting; speaking disparagingly of one in his absence. Forbidden, (Lev. 19:16; Psa. 15:2; Prov. 25:23; 2 Cor. 12:20). The "unruly member" can be under perfect control, only as God fills the heart and has control of the life.

Bore, or bare; referring to what Christ bore for man, (see Isa. 53:4, 11, 12; Matt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24; Heb. 9:28).

Believe; this verb helps to supply the defective family of the English words, faith, faithful, faithfully, there being no verb in the family. To believe is to exercise faith. Note the following uses of the word: Salvation with eternal life through believing, (Acts 16:31; John 3:16, 36; 6:47; 1 John 5:10); the ideal worker believes on (into) Christ, (John 7:38; 14:12); by believing we receive what we desire when we pray, (Mk. 11:24; 23); by believing one connects himself with the power of God, (Rom. 1:16); Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to him who believes, (Rom. 10:4).

Blameless; without any ground for censure. God wishes his people to be blameless in holiness, (1 Thess. 3:13); blameless and harmless, (Phil. 2:15; see also 1 Thess. 5:23). The more the life of Christ dominates our being, the less the blame that will attach to us.

Blemish, without; required in animals that were sacrificed, (Ex. 12:5; 29:1). Children without blemish, (Dan. 1:4). Jesus, who made the great sin-offering, was without blemish, (1 Pet. 1:19; see also Heb. 7:26). God purposed to have a grand assembly of all the redeemed without blemish, (Eph. 5:27).

Blood (of Christ). Its great value; without the shedding of blood no remission, (Heb. 9:22); cleansed through the blood, (1 John 1:7; Rev. 1:5); purchased with His blood, (Acts 20:28); propitiation through faith in His blood, (Rom. 3:25); justified through His blood, (5:9); redemption through His blood, (Col. 1:14; Eph. 1:7; 1 Pet. 1:18, 19); sanctified through His blood, (Heb. 13:12); peace through His blood, (Col. 1:20); believers overcome through the blood, (Rev. 12:11); made white in the blood, (Rev. 7:14).

Body (of the believer) to be presented a living sacrifice, holy . . . to the Lord, (Rom. 12:1); for the Lord, (1 Cor. 6:13); a temple of the Holy Spirit, (1 Cor. 6:19); to be kept pure, (1 Thess. 4:4); to be raised from the dead, (1 Cor. 15:12; Phil. 3:21); believers in the aggregate, the body of Christ, (Rom. 12:5; 1 Cor. 10:17; 12:12; Eph. 1:22, 23; Col. 1:18; 3:15).

Boldness; confidence, assurance. Peter and John examples of, (Acts 4:8-12, 19, 20); the three Hebrew children, (Dan. 3:15-25); Daniel himself, (ch. 6:10-22); Esther, (Esth. 5:1-3); Paul, (Acts 9:27); boldness to enter into "the holy place" by His blood, (Heb. 10:19). When God fills a man with Himself, all cowardice and timidity are removed, and such a man becomes as bold as a lion.

Born (of the Spirit); the new birth, (John 1:13; 2:3, 5, 6, 8; 1 John 2:9; 4:7; 5:1, 14, 18). In the new birth, a new spirit is put in the believer, (Ez. 36:26); one receives new life, (John 3:16; 10:10); this is the Christ-life, (John 14:6; Col. 3:4; 1 John 5:11, 12); this new life is called "the inner man," (Rom. 7:22; Eph. 3:16); it is this birth that makes one a "babe in Christ," (1 Cor. 3:1; Heb. 5:12). This is altogether supernatural.

Bought; the redeemed were bought with a price, (1 Cor. 6:20; 7:23; 1 Pet. 1:18). If we regard the Father as paying the ransom, He gave His Son as the ransom price; if we regard Christ as making the purchase, He gave His own life for the sheep, pouring out His blood for us. In either view, it was a price paid, not to Satan, but to satisfy the demands of God's broken law. Through the vicarious sufferings of Christ, the law was satisfied, and even magnified.

Bread; Christ is the bread of life, (John 6:32, 33, 35, 48, 50, 51, 55, 54-58). The manna, on which God fed the Israelites in the wilderness, was a type of Christ, "the Living Bread." Also, the bread, in connection with the wine used in the observance of the Lord's Supper, points to Christ as the nutrition of the new man, (see 1 Cor. 11:23-30, last verse especially).

Brethren; true believers in Christ. Their duty to one another to love, (John 13:34; 15:12, 17; Eph. 5:2; 1 Thess. 4:9; 1 Pet. 1:22; Rom. 13:8, etc.); love a proof of discipleship, (John 13:35; 1 John 4:20); not to speak evil of, (Jas. 4:11); in honor preferring one another, (Rom. 12:10); distributing to their necessities, (Rom. 12:13; Jas. 2:15, 16); laying down our lives for the brethren, (1 John 3:16). The brethren, who are fully yielded to God, and are filled with the Spirit, indwelt by Christ, and have fellowship with the Father, constitute the highest order of brotherhood on the earth.

Bride; the bride of Christ, (Isa. 61:10; John 3:29; Rev. 21:2; 22:17). Some Scriptures seem to indicate that all the saved constitute the bride of Christ; while others seem to imply that the bride of Christ will, in a special sense, include only the full overcomers, who grow up into Him in all things, and reach unto the measure of the stature of His fulness, (Eph. 4:15, 13). The King's daughter (Psa. 45:10, 11, 13, 14), seems evidently to represent the bride of Christ; while "the virgins, her companions," though manifestly not the bride, have an honorable place in connection with her, (vs. 14, 15). A kindred thought is presented in "the wise virgins" (Matt. 25:1-10), who, though not the bride, were admitted into the marriage chamber.

Bridal; Christ is the coming Bridegroom, who will catch up his waiting, waiting and ready ones, to meet Him in the air, (Matt. 25:1-10; 1 Thess. 4:15-17; Rev. 12:5). Many believe that the Bridegroom is coming soon; and there are many signs that point that way; but it is well not to fix a date. It becomes all His true followers to be ready. to meet Him; but we should occupy till He cometh, (Lu. 19:13).

Chasten; "to train up a child," to discipline, to instruct. Every wise father seeks to bring up his son right; by teaching, training, disciplines, correcting, and even scourging him when necessary. So with our Heavenly Father. Love leads to chastening, (Prov. 3:12; 13:24; Heb. 12:6); the motive, or purpose, (Heb. 12:10). Hence all trials, persecutions, tribulations, adversities, and necessities, are so many ways of chastening, correcting and disciplining one in a holy life and, back of that, a holy character, (Rom. 8:28; 2 Cor. 6:4-10; 11:24-23). Chastening not pleasant for the present, (Heb. 12:11). Necessary, (v. 10). Hence we should cheer up, (vs. 12-15; Rom. 5:3-5; Jas. 1:1-4). The degree of chastening determined by what one chooses to be made; if one seeks God's highest and best, his chastening must be complete, and accomplish its fullest results, (v. 10; Jas. 1:1-4).

Christ, The; the anointed. One, the Messiah prophesied of, (Dan. 9:25, 26). Jesus was anointed with the Holy Spirit, (Acts 10:38; Lu. 4:18); and hence He was called "Jesus the Christ," or "Jesus the Anointed One." Or He is sometimes called "Christ Jesus," meaning the "Anointed Jesus." Moses spoke of the promised Messiah as a Prophet (Deut. 18:18), who was to be invested with great authority, (see v. 19; also Acts 3:22, 23; and 7:37). He is prophesied of as "the Messenger of the Covenant," (Mal. 3:1-4). The name, "Christ," is very often used alone, especially in the Pauline epistles.

Circumcision; instituted, (Gen. 17:9-14); observed, (Gen. 34:14-24); renewed before entering Canaan, (Josh. 5:2-7); the deeper import brought out, (Deut. 10:16; 30:6), being a type of the circumcision, or renewal, of the heart, (Rom. 2:29); nothing, if depended on, for salvation, (Gal. 5:6; 6:15; 1 Cor. 7:19); abolished, (Acts 15; Gal. 5:2). It was never designed that Gentile believers should observe the Jewish rite of circumcision. The observance of the rite by the Jews has, with other things, kept them from race extinction.

Care (amounting to fretting or anxiety) forbidden, (Psa. 37:1; 39:6; 55:22; Matt. 6:25-33; 12:22; Lu. 10:41, 42; 1 Cor. 7:32; Phil. 4:6; 1 Tim. 6:8; 2 Tim. 2:4, etc.); how to get rid of anxiety, (1 Pet. 5:7; Phil. 4:7; Eph. 5:18).

Collections; time, (1 Cor. 16:1); motive, (2 Cor. 8:9); manner, (Rom. 12:8; 2 Cor. 8:7); specific object, (Rom. 15:26, 27); Acts 11:29). The law required a tithe: the Gospel assumes that all things belong to God, and the true Christian is God's steward, or disbursing agent, distributing the Master's goods at the Master's bidding, (Lu. 12:42; 16:2).

Commandments (the ten); delivered orally, (Ex. 20); on stones, (Ex. 31:18; stones broken, (Ex. 32:19); other stones given, (Ex. 34; Deut. 10); fulfilled by Christ, (Matt. 5:17); the commandments not given to procure life, but to show the need of Christ, (Rom. 7:4-13).

2 Cor. 3:7-11; Gal. 3:24). Christ fulfilled the commandments as conditions of life; but the commandments (except the fourth, which was a positive, and not a moral law) remain as rules of Christian conduct, and should now be observed in the power of the new life, (Rom. 8:2-4). Neither the moral nor the ceremonial law could secure life for the sinner, (Acts 13:39; Rom. 3:28; 7:7; Gal. 2:16, etc.); but whoever violates the decalogue, or that portion of it that is brought over into the Gospel, can not live a Christian life; for, if one be a thief, a murderer, an adulterer, etc., he can not be a Christian, unless he gives up these things, and lets the spirit of Christ control his life, (Rom. 8:9). But, if it is a sin to commit murder, theft, adultery, etc., it is because the Christian is under obligation to observe the commandments that forbid these things; and those who violate the commandments under their feet forfeit thereby their right to hold to the name of Christian, (1 Cor. 6:9, 10; Gal. 5:19-21).

Confess; to own, to acknowledge; to confess Christ is to own Him as one's Savior, (Matt. 10:32; Lu. 12:8; Rom. 10:9); we should confess our sins to God, (1 John 1:9); confess our faults to one another, (Jas. 5:16); Christ will confess those who confess and honor Him, (Matt. 10:32; Lu. 12:8; Rev. 3:5, etc.).

N. B. While the Christian should confess all his sins to God, and confess his faults to his Christian companions—especially when his faults or sins affect another—yet there is no Scripture to support any such thing as the Catholic "Confessional."

Confidence; boldness, assurance; preaching with all confidence, (Acts 28:31); access with confidence, (Eph. 3:12); no confidence in the flesh, (Phil. 3:5); holding fast the confidence, (Heb. 3:6); cast not away your confidence, (Heb. 10:35); confidence toward God, (1 John 3:21; 2:28; 5:14); in quiet and confidence is our strength, (Isa. 30:15). An unwavering confidence in God will cause the Christian to ride the wildest storms and roughest waves, unperturbed.

Conscience; the moral sense that impels one to do what he believes to be right, and to refrain from doing what he believes to be wrong; also, it rewards one for doing what he deems to be right, and punishes him with remorse for doing what he regards as wrong. If one has been wrongly taught, his conscience will be wrong, and its action will be perverted. Paul was very conscientious in persecuting Christians, until his judgment was corrected, and his conscience set right. Convicted by conscience, (John 8:9; 1 Cor. 3:7); conscience void of offense, (Acts 24:16); conscience bearing witness, (Rom. 2:15; 9:1; 13:5; 1 Cor. 10:28, 29; 2 Cor. 1:12); a pure conscience, (1 Tim. 3:9; 2 Tim. 1:3); seared, (2 Tim. 4:2); unfeigned, (Tit. 1:15); purge, or cleanse, (Heb. 9:14; 10:2); defiled, (1 Cor. 8:7); sprinkled from an evil conscience, (Heb. 10:22); a good conscience, (Acts 23:1; 1 Tim. 1:5, 19; Heb.
13:18; 1 Pet. 3:21). When the Holy Spirit is permitted to fill the believer, He purifies the conscience, and makes its action normal in grace. The conscience, the reason, and the will, are all subordinated to the rule of Christ, when He is enthroned in the heart. But the Word of God, being the rule of Christian duty, if the conscience is to be right at all times, one must be in harmony with the Word. It is one of the gracious offices of the Holy Spirit to convict the believer of duty, when one has been wrongly taught in the past, but is now yielded to Him.

Consolation; comfort under trials, (Matt. 11:28-30; Lu. 4:18; John 14:15, 16; 1 Cor. 14:3; 2 Cor. 1:5, 6); Christ, the true consolation, (Lu. 2:25); consolation abounds by Christ, (2 Cor. 1:5; Phil. 2:1; 2 Thess. 2:16; see also Heb. 6:18), To have perfect consolation, one must let Christ have the perfect management of his heart and life.

Contentment; satisfaction with one's present lot and allotments; godliness with contentment is great gain, (1 Tim. 6:6; Psa. 37:16; Prov. 30:8); exhortations to, (Psa. 37:1; Lu. 3:14; 1 Cor. 7:20; 1 Tim. 6:8; Phil. 4:11; Heb. 13:5). Contentment is a blessed state, because it shows that one is in harmony with God. We should be content with our earthly possessions (Phil. 4:11), but not with our spiritual attainments. (See Phil. 3:7-18).

Conversion; a turning back, or turning around; in conversion the heart is turned away from sin to righteousness and holiness, or from Satan to God, from darkness to light—this is inward conversion; and, where the outward life follows the inward change that has been wrought, the person is outwardly converted. Conversion follows repentance, (Acts 3:19; 26:11); and is, logically, preceded also by faith—a faith that receives Christ as one's sin-bearer and Savior; true conversion makes one a little child, (Matt. 18:3; 2 Cor. 5:17; 1 Cor. 14:20); a call to, (Matt. 3:2; 4:17).

Results of the Holy Spirit working in him, (John 3:5, 6); but the one who would be converted must give up sin, and ally himself to Christ by faith.

Convince, or convict; to make one realize his sins; to awaken one to a sense of his guilt, need and peril. This is one of the works of the Holy Spirit, (John 16:5; 1 Cor. 14:24); the law, or the Word of God, the means of conviction, (Jas. 2:9). The Word is the sword of the Spirit, (Eph. 6:17); and with this the Spirit smites the sinner, convicts him of his sin; and, if he will yield, the Spirit will work repentance in him, and thus open the way for him to believe, and be saved. To resist conviction is to close the gate of Heaven against one's soul, and to make one's home in Hell.

Covenant; a will, testament, or an agreement between parties, wherein certain conditions are to be complied with; the law was a covenant of works; the Gospel contains the covenant of grace. This latter covenant was ratified in the crucifixion of Christ, who was the executive of the divine will and purpose, and the Messenger who came to execute the covenant of redemption; prophesied of, (Jer. 31:31-34; Heb. 8:8-13); fulfilled and ratified in the vicarious death of Jesus Christ, (Matt. 26:28; 20:28; Rom. 5:15; Heb. 9:26; 2 Cor. 5:21, etc.).

N. B. The Jews, as a nation, rejected this covenant; but they will accept it, when Christ shall return to establish His millennial reign on the earth, (Zech. 12:10; Jer. 31:9; 50:4, 5; Ez. 39:23-29; Rom. 11:25, 26, etc.).

Create; created in Christ Jesus for good works, (Eph. 2:10); all things created by Christ Jesus, (Eph. 2:9; Col. 1:16, 17); created in righteousness, (Eph. 4:24); after the image of Him who created him, (Col. 3:10); a new creature in Christ Jesus, (2 Cor. 5:17). Jesus Christ, by whom all world's were made, came to give man a new life, and to make him a new creature. This creative process began in regeneration, and it progresses as the life of Christ more and more dominates one's whole being.

Covetousness; a disposition to have more; greed for gain. Described, (Psa. 10:3; 39:6; Prov. 21:26; Eccl. 4:8; 5:10; Ez. 33:31); has bad company, (Mk. 7:22; Eph. 5:5; Col. 3:5; 2 Pet. 2:14); forbidden, (Ex. 20:17; Lu. 12:15, 16; Rom. 12:9); evil consequences, (Josh. 7:21; 2 Krs. 5:21-27; 1 Tim. 6:9, 10); examples: Laban, (Gen. 34:41); Rachel, (Gen. 31:19); Balaam, (Num. 22; 2 Pet. 2:15; Jude 11); Achan, (Josh. 7:21; 1 Sam. 15:9); Ahah, (1 Kgs. 21); Saul, (1 Sam. 15:9); Gehazi, (2 Kgs. 5:20); Judas, (Matt. 26:15); Ananias and Saphira, (Acts 5); Felix, (Acts 24:26). It is right to covet the best gifts of the Spirit, (1 Cor. 12:31); but such gifts can not be wisely sought, until one has crucified the flesh (Gal. 5:24), and has a character so developed in Christ as to insure the proper use of them.

Cross, the; the instrument to which Christ was nailed, and upon which He died, (John 19:17-31; see also Matt. 27:35-54; Mk. 15:24-38; Lu. 23:38-49); the cross of Christ used figuratively to denote the doctrines of His vicarious sufferings on the cross, (1 Cor. 1:17, 18; Gal. 5:11; 6:12); obedient to the death of cross, (Phil. 2:8); peace through the blood of the cross, (Col. 1:19; 2:14); for joy, endured the cross, (Heb. 12:2); The assumption of the sins of man (Isa. 53:6) made it necessary that Christ should die, according to the plan of redemption agreed upon by the Father and the Son, (Rev. 13:8; 17:8). By His vicarious death, He expiated human guilt, wrought out the atonement, and propitiated the favor of God.

THE CROSS FOR THE TRUE DISCIPLE.

Not a literal cross, but such a relationship to Christ as to work death to self, or self-death, (Matt. 10:38; 16:24; Lu. 9:23; 14:27; Gal. 2:20; 5:21); enemies of the cross, or believers... who do not wish the self-life to die, (Phil. 3:18).

Crown; there are many kinds of crowns promised, but all are to be bestowed for some work, service, attainment, fidelity, endurance, etc. The crown of righteousness is for those who love His appearing, (2 Tim. 4:8); the crown of glory for the faithful pastor, (1 Pet. 5:4); the crown of rejoicing for those who win souls, (1 Thess. 2:19). An incorruptible crown was promised to Adam, (1 Cor. 15:25); the crown of life is for those who endure, (Jas. 1:12; Rev. 2:10); the regal crown is for him who fully overcomes, (Rev. 3:21); the crown possible to us may be forfeited by negligence, indolence, or half-hearted effort, (Rev. 3:11).

Crucifixion; killing by nailing to the cross. The etymology of the word indicates that one is made into a cross; the person who is nailed to a cross being made to assume the shape of a cross.

Christ's crucifixion predicted, (Matt. 20:19); executed, (Matt. 27:35; Mk. 15:24; Lu. 23:33; John 19:18). He was crucified, or died, for all, (2 Cor. 5:14, 15, 21; Heb. 2:9); and, hence, all, in a judicial and representative sense, died in Him; the believer's experimental crucifixion, (Gal. 2:20; 2 Cor. 4:10, 11; Rom. 8:10); its instantaneous phases, (Gal. 5:24; Col. 2:5, 8; Eph. 4:22); when complete, (Phil. 3:10); the design to annul the body of sin (Rom. 6:6), and perfect the Christ-life, (2 Cor. 4:10, 11; Gal. 2:20); the experimental order, regeneration, consecration. Spirit-filled life, Christ enthroned in the heart, the crucified life, the perfected Christ-life, (as an ideal ahead).

D.

Deacon; an officer to look after the temporal interests of an assembly of God, (Acts 6:1-6); recognized as an officer, (Phil. 1:1); moral qualifications, (1 Tim. 3:8-12); spiritual qualifications, (Acts 6:3); the office compatible with spiritual development, (1 Tim. 3:13).

Death; physical; a consequence of Adam's sin, (Gen. 2:17; 3:19; Rom. 5:12; 6:23, etc.); spiritual, (Isa. 9:2; Matt. 4:16; 8:22; Rom. 6:13; 8:6; Eph. 2:1; Col. 2:13, etc.); the second death, (Rev. 20:6, 14; 21:8—which seems to be unending suffering in Hell, or the lake of fire burning with brimstone); death abolished through Christ, (John 5:24; Rom. 6:11; Eph. 2:5, 6; 1 John 5:11, 12, etc.).

Demon; an evil spirit that is subordinate to the Devil, or Satan. Demons are very numerous; but there is but one Devil; and, therefore, wherever the word devils occurs in the common version, it should have been translated demons. A demon, one or more, seems to occupy every adult, holding him or her as its own possession, till Christ comes and casts it out, (Matt. 12:29; Lu. 11:21, 22). They are agents of disease, (Lu. 13:16; Acts 10:38); agents of deafness and dumbness, (Matt. 9:33; 12:22; Mk. 9:25). Demoniacs are demon-possessed persons whose reason has been underminded. Lunatic asylums are full of demon-possessed people. During the millennium, demons will lose all their power over human beings; and, finally, like the Devil, they will be cast into Hell, (Matt. 25:41; 2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6).

Disease; all kinds of bodily ailments. Sicknesses of all kinds have come to men as results of sin. Jesus bore our sicknesses, (Isa. 53:4; Matt. 8:16); healing of diseases was a part of the work of the apostles and of the seventy, (Lu. 9:1; 10:1, 9). Those who get all that Christ has provided for their bodies will have all their diseases healed (Psa. 103:3), their bodies quickened (Rom. 8:11), their strength renewed, (Isa. 40:31); renewed like the eagles, (Psa. 103:5); and will have health, (3 John 2).

Devil; called the Accuser, (Rev. 12:10); Satan, (1 Chron. 21:1; Job 1:6, 7, 8, etc.); Abaddon or Apollyon, (Rev. 9:11); Beelzebub, (Matt. 12:24); Belial, (2 Cor. 6:15); dragon, (Rev. 12:3; 20:2); enemy, (Matt. 13:39); father of lies, (John 8:44); God of this world, (2 Cor. 4:4); Leviathan, (Isa. 27:1); murderer, (John 8:41); power of darkness, (Col. 1:13); prince of this world, (John 14:30; Eph. 6:12); prince of the demons, (Matt. 12:24); prince of the power of the air, (Eph. 2:2); serpent, (Gen. 3:1); 2 Cor. 11:3; Rev. 12:9, etc.; tempter, (Matt. 4:3; 1 Thess. 3:5); evil one, (Matt. 13:19, 38). The Devil appears, to be a fallen angel, (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6); the one who introduced sin, sickness, and death into our world, (Gen. 3:1-16); has countless demons under him, (Matt. 12:24); is to be chained a thousand years, (Rev. 20:1-5); after the millennium will be loosed "a little season," (v. 7-9); will finally be cast into the lake of fire and brimstone (v. 10), where he is to be tormented day and night forever and ever, or into the ages of the ages.

Drink; strong; including all intoxicating liquors. Forbidden, (Lev. 10:9; Numb. 6:3; Judg. 13:4; Lu. 1:15).

Drunkenness; censured, (Prov. 20:1; Isa. 5:11; Lu. 21:34; Rom. 13:13; 1 Cor. 5:11; Gal. 5:21; Eph. 5:18; 1 Thess. 5:7; 1 Pet. 4:3); for the drunkard's doom, see 1 Cor. 6:10; Gal. 5:21.

E.

Edification; building up, strengthening; applied either to an individual or assembly. Exhortations thereto, (Rom. 14:19; 15:2); love edifies, (1 Cor. 8:1); seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the assembly, (14:12, 3, 36; 2 Cor. 10:8; 12:10; Eph. 4:12, 16, 29; 1 Thess. 5:11). Next to the saving of souls comes the work of edification.

Elder; an assembly official, (Acts 14:28; 15:23; 20:17); apostles were elders, (1 Pet. 5:1); pastors were elders, (Tit. 1:5); moral qualifications of elders, (1 Tim. 3:1-7; Tit. 1:6-9); spiritual, (Lu. 24:49; Acts 1:8); duties, (1 Pet. 5:2; John 21:15, 16, 17; Acts 20:28; Jas. 5:14; 1 Tim. 5:17; Matt. 28:19, 20; Mk.

16:15-18; Tit. 2:5). It is not meant that every elder should perform all these duties; for pastors and evangelists do not have identically the same work.

N. B. The Gospel of Jesus Christ knows nothing of such titles as Rev. and D. D., as applied to preachers.

Election; God’s choice of men based upon His foreknowledge, (Rom. 8:29; 11:2; 1 Pet. 1:2); God knoweth His own elect, (2 Tim. 2:19); John 10:14; Eph. 1:4, 5; Matt. 24:22; Rom. 8:33; Col. 3:12; 2 Tim. 2:10, etc.). God foreknew all who would accept the Gospel; hence all who embrace the Gospel are His elect. Election, rightly understood, does not interfere in the least with man’s moral responsibility.

Establish, or establish; to confirm, to render one capable of standing; established in the faith, (Acts 16:5; Col. 2:7); establish with grace, (Heb. 13:9); establish in present truth, (2 Pet. 1:12); a principal end in preaching and exhortation, (Rom. 1:11; 1 Thess. 3:12, 13; 2 Thess. 2:17; 1 Pet. 5:10). The more one’s whole being is yielded to God in obedience and trust, the more will he become established along all these lines.

Eternal; everlasting, endless, age-lasting. Eternal life Christ’s gift, (John 3:15; 5:39; 6:54, 68; 10:28; 17:2, 3); ordained to eternal life, (Acts 13:48; 2:47); the gift of God, (Rom. 6:23; 2:7; 5:21); eternal punishment, (Matt. 25:46; Dan. 12:2; Rev. 20:10). There is the same reason for believing that the torment of the wicked will be eternal, everlasting, or endless, as there is for believing that the bliss of the saved in Heaven will be eternal. Some claim that such expressions as the everlasting hills, everlasting possessions, everlasting priesthood, etc., can indicate only limited duration; and they infer, hence, that punishment must be limited. This is purely gratuitous; and whoever risks his eternal interests on such an inference will, doubtless, find himself an eternal loser.

Exalt; to lift high, to honor. He that humblest himself shall be exalted, (Matt. 23:12; Lu. 14:11; 18:14; Jas. 4:6; 1 Pet. 5:5; Job 22:29; Prov. 15:33; 29:23). As the child of God surrenders his self-life to death, the life of Christ grows up in him more and more, and it is the degree to which the Christ-life is developed in one, that will determine the measure of his humility, and, hence, of his exaltation.

Exhort; earnestly entreat, admonish. Sinners exhorted to repent and accept Christ, (Acts 2:40; 27:22; 11:23); Christians exhorted, (Acts 15:32; 14:22; 2 Cor. 9:5; 1 Thess. 2:11, 12; 4:1; 5:14; 1 Tim. 2:1; 2 Tim. 4:2; Tit. 1:9; 2:6, 9, 15; 1 Pet. 5:12; Jude 3; Heb. 3:13; 10:25; Rom. 12:8; 1 Cor. 14:3, etc.). Exhortation, when inspired by the Holy Spirit, is a potent agency in the enforcement of truth, and in leading one to a decision.

F. Faith; the assurance of things hoped for, the sure conviction of things not seen, (Heb. 11:1); saving faith preceded and accompanied by genuine repentance for sin, (Mk. 1:15; Acts 10:31); justified by faith, (Rom. 3:28, 30; 5:1; 10:4; Acts 13:38, 39); Jesus Christ as the sin-offering who put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself, the object of faith, (John 3:16; Acts 16:31; John 6:47; 1 John 5:10); children of God by faith in Jesus Christ, (Gal. 3:26); the just live by faith, (Rom. 1:17); saved through faith, (Eph. 2:8); receive the Holy Spirit by faith, (Gal. 3:2; 14); we walk by faith, (2 Cor. 5:7); stand by faith, (2 Cor. 1:24); kept through faith, (1 Pet. 1:5); enter into rest by faith, (Heb. 4:3, 10); fight our battles by faith, (1 Tim. 6:12); protected by the shield of faith, (Eph. 6:16); all things possible to him that has faith, (Mk. 9:23); we enthrone Christ in our hearts by faith, (Eph. 3:17); reckon ourselves dead to sin by faith, (Rom. 6:11, or we put off the old man by faith); faith deals with God’s promises and with God Himself—especially with the Son, (John 17:3; 2 Pet. 1:4); faith the gift of God, (Rom. 12:3; 1 Cor. 12:9); faith an element in the fruit of the Spirit, (Gal. 5:23). Faith is the receptive power of our spiritual being, that takes what God offers us in His Word; and the reposing power that brings rest and quiet in times of peril. See marked examples of faith in Heb. 11th chapter.

Faithful; meeting all one’s obligations to God and man; faithful as a servant, (Matt. 25:21, 23; Lu. 19:17); faithful as a steward, (Matt. 12:42; 24:45; 1 Cor. 4:2); faithful as a minister, (Eph. 6:21; Col. 1:7; 4:7, 8); faithful in all things, (Lu. 16:10); faithful unto death, (Rev. 2:10). True faithfulness comes from a life of union with Christ.

Fast, or fasting; abstaining from food and drink for a longer or shorter period. Jesus fasted forty days and nights, (Matt. 4:2; Lu. 4:2). Christians may properly fast, when the Savior is felt to be absent from them, (Matt. 9:15; Mk. 2:20); its utility recognized, (Acts 13:2, 3; 14:23); Paul fasted, (2 Cor. 6:5; 11:27). In the deeper crucifixions, fasting may prove helpful as an aid to faith and to a life of real intercession.

Familiar spirits; evil spirits, or demons. All intercourse with such spirits forbidden, (Lev. 19:31; 26:6, 27; Isa. 8:19); death the penalty (under the law) for having anything to do with such spirits, (Ex. 22:18; Deut. 18:10-12; 1 Sam. 28:7-20; 1 Chron. 10:13). Evil spirits work now through spiritism, theosophy, and various other isms, that are averse to the doctrine of the vicarious sufferings of Christ.
Christians should stand aloof from all these destructive agencies.

Father, the; the First Person in the Godhead, Whom the Scriptures represent as presiding over the universe, and working everything after the counsel of His own will. The Scriptures represent Him as the Father of Jesus Christ, (2 Cor. 1:3; Eph. 1:3; 1 Pet. 1:3); as sending the Son into the world, (John 3:17; 10:36; 5:37, etc.); as making the Son to become sin for us, (2 Cor. 5:21); as giving His Son to be a ransom, (John 3:16); as a propitiation, (Rom. 3:25); as accepting the sacrifice of His Son, (Rom. 3:26; Eph. 1:7; Col. 1:14); as also the Giver of the Holy Spirit, (Lu. 11:13; 24:49; John 14:16, 17, etc.). In the ordinance of immersion, the names of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit all appear (Matt. 28:19), yet there is but one God—who is revealed to us in His Word as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Feed; to provide with suitable spiritual food. Feed the assembly of God, (Acts 20:28; John 21:15, 16 [both lambs and sheep]); babes to be fed on “milk,” (1 Cor. 3:2; 1 Pet. 2:2; Heb. 5:12, 13). [“Milk” may be taken as the simpler principles of the Gospel; as, confession, cleansing in the blood; or, it may be regarded as “digested food,” the Word of God made simple to the babes in Christ.] It is the duty of pastors and teachers to give to Christians of all grades such spiritual food from the word as each needs. Christ is the Bread of Life; and His people must feed on Him, if they would grow, (John 6:35, 55, 48, 56, 58).

Fill, filled; God fill you with all joy, (Rom. 15:13); filled with the Holy Spirit, (Acts 2:4; 4:8, 31; 9:17; 13:9, 52; Eph. 5:18); filled unto all the fullness of God, (Eph. 3:19); filled with all knowledge, (Rom. 15:14); filled with consolation, (2 Cor. 7:4); filled with the fruits of righteousness, (Phil. 1:11); filled with the knowledge of His will, (Col. 1:9). These are unsurprisingly delightful fillings, resulting in Gal. 5:22, 23; Eph. 4:13, 15 and Phil. 3:14. To be filled thus, one must consent to be emptied.

Find; encouragement to the seeker, (Jer. 6:16; 29:13; Matt. 7:7; Lu. 11:9; Matt. 11:29); losing the self-life, to find the Christ-life, (Matt. 16:25; Lu. 17:33); grace to help in time of need, (Heb. 4:16). We first find Christ as our Savior, (Acts 16:31); then we find the Spirit as the Father’s gift, (Lu. 11:13; John 14:15-17); then we find the Son, (John 14:20, 21; Eph. 3:17); and, later, the Father, (John 14:23; Eph. 3:19).

Flesh, the; often, in Paul’s writings, “the flesh” is used to denote the sinful nature, or carnality; and it means much the same as “the old man,” “the carnal mind,” or the self-life. Those who are in the flesh cannot please God, (Rom. 8:8); those in the flesh not children of God, (Rom. 9:8); the flesh to be crucified, (Gal. 5:24); the works of the flesh, (Gal. 5:19-21). Ishmael represents the flesh, and Isaac represents “the new man,” (Gal. 4:22-30).

Foreknowledge of God; God knows the end from the beginning, (Rom. 8:29; 11:2; Acts 2:23; Gal. 3:8; 1 Pet. 1:2). Omnipotence, or knowing all things, is an attribute of Deity.

Forgive; to pardon, excuse, remit, etc. We must forgive, if we would be forgiven, (Matt. 6:12, 15; 18:35; Jas. 2:13; Lu. 6:37); forgiveness is based upon repentance and confession in the last examples above. A Christian dare not cherish anger, hatred, or malice, towards any one, however much he has wronged him. In his heart he must forgive, whether the other confesses his wrong or not; but he need not tell the wrongdoer that he forgives him until he confesses his wrong. The Father forgives us our sins on confession (1 John 1:9), for Christ’s sake; Christ having borne our sins for us. Many professors of Christians fail to realize forgiveness, because they do not forgive others.

Fruit; a good tree produces good fruit, (Matt. 7:17-19; 12:33); fruit unto eternal life, John 4:50; fruit necessary to the continuance of the branch, (John 15:2); fruit unto holiness, (Rom. 6:22); fruit unto God, (Rom. 7:4); the fruit of the Spirit, (Gal. 5:22, 23; Eph. 5:9); fruit that may abound, (Phil. 4:17); peaceable fruit of righteousness, (Heb. 12:11); fruit of the lips, (Heb. 13:15); more fruit, (John 15:2); much fruit, (v. 5); fruit that abides, (v. 16); much fruit glorifies the Father, (v. 8). Conditions of much fruitage may be seen in verses 4, 5; but this presupposes (ch. 14:17, 20, 21). The vine and the branch exist with reference to fruit. The fruit that we bear is for the benefit of others, and for the glory of God.

Gift; the gift of God, (John 4:10; Rom. 6:23; 2 Tim. 1:6); the Father gives the Holy Spirit, (Lu. 11:13; 24:49; Acts 2:38); Christ giveth eternal life, (10:28); more blessed to give than to receive, (Acts 20:35); gifts of the Spirit, (1 Cor. 12:3-11); God gave the increase, (1 Cor. 3:6); first gave their own selves to the Lord, (2 Cor. 8:5); God gave His only begotten Son, (John 3:16); Christ gave Himself for our sins, (Gal. 1:4); gave Himself for me, (Gal. 2:20); gave Himself a ransom for all, (1 Tim. 2:6); Christ has given the true believer His glory, (John 17:22). Christ will give the overcomers a seat with Himself in His throne, (Rev. 3:21).

Glory; praise, honor, majesty, etc. Shall come in His glory, (Matt. 16:27); glory to God in the highest, (Lu. 2:14); the glory of Thy people, (Lu. 2:32); the glory which Thou gavest Me I have given them, (John 17:22); to God be the glory through Christ, (Rom. 16:27); man is the glory of God, woman is the glory of man, (1 Cor. 11:7); raised in glory, (1 Cor. 15:43); changed from glory to glory, (1 Cor. 3:18); eternal weight of glory, (2 Cor.
APPENDIX D

4:17); praise of the glory of His grace, (Eph. 1:6); to Him be glory in the assembly, (Eph. 3:21); faint not at my tribulation for you which is your hope of glory, (Col. 1:13); Christ in you the hope of glory, (Col. 1:27); appear with Him in glory, (Col. 3:4); called you to glory, (1 Thess. 2:12); ye are our glory, (v. 20); received up into glory [or Heaven], (1 Tim. 3:16); full of glory, (1 Pet. 1:8); partaker of the glory of the God to be revealed, (1 Pet. 5:1); shall receive a crown of glory, (v. 4); called us into His eternal glory by Christ, (v. 10).

Glorify; to worship, praise, exalt, magnify, when God is the object worshipped; to be honored; to be supremely blessed, when it is applied to redeemed man, (Rom. 8:17, 30).

God; the uncreated Cause of all things, the Source of all being. God is revealed to us in the New Testament Scriptures in the Tri-personality of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. These together constitute the only One True and Living God. Either Person in the God-head, considered with the others, is God; but we can never consider them apart. The Father is the Supreme Ruler of the Universe; the Son is the Redeemer and Savior of sinful man; and the Spirit is the Executive of the God-head in the practical application of redemption to man. The three always think, will, and act in harmony.

Gospel; good news, glad tidings, joyful proclamation. The essence of the good news is, that, whereas, Jesus Christ hath put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself (Heb. 9:26), and hath redeemed man from the curse of the law, (Gal. 3:13); therefore, God the Father proclaims free pardon and full forgiveness of sins to every true penitent who believes on His Son, with the additional benefits of eternal life in His Son, and an eternal home in Heaven, It is variously designated the Gospel of the Kingdom, (Matt. 4:23; 24:14; Mk. 1:14); the Gospel of the grace of God, (Acts 20:24); the Gospel of God, (Rom. 1:1; 15:19); Gospel to be preached, (Mk. 16:15; 1 Cor. 1:17); the Gospel, the power of God, (Rom. 1:16); be gotten through the Gospel (as instrument), (1 Cor. 1:15); live by the Gospel, (1 Cor. 1:9); the light of the Gospel of the glory of Christ, (2 Cor. 4:4); the Gospel of your salvation, (Eph. 1:13); the word of the truth of the Gospel, (Col. 1:5; 2:5); our Gospel came in power, (1 Thess. 1:5). Chief qualifications for preaching the Gospel, (Acts 1:8; Gal. 1:16).

Grace; God’s grace to man is seen in the bestowment of His Son to redeem him from sin, death, and Hell (John 3:16), and the bestowment with Him also of every other blessing needful to this great end, (Rom. 8:32). Grace and truth came through Jesus Christ, (John 1:17); justified freely by His grace, (Rom. 3:24); grace did much more abound, (Rom. 5:20); grace reigned to eternal life, (v. 21); not under law, but under grace, (Rom. 6:14); the election of grace, (Rom. 11:5, 6); My grace is sufficient for you, (2 Cor. 12:9); by grace ye are saved, (Rom. 1:5); riches of grace, (Eph. 2:7). The word is sometimes used to denote the effect of the Gospel upon the characters of those who receive it; this grace also (the grace of liberal giving), (2 Cor. 8:6); give grace to the hearers, (Eph. 4:29); justified by His grace, (Tit. 3:7); come boldly to the throne of grace, (Heb. 4:16); heart established by grace, (Heb. 13:9). Salvation is by grace from first to last.

Grow; increase in stature—especially in a spiritual sense. Grow into a holy temple, (Eph. 2:21); grow up into Him, (Eph. 4:15); milk of the Word, that they may grow, (1 Pet. 2:2); grow in grace, (2 Pet. 3:18). Conditions of growth: Obedience, prayer, faith—leading one to the Spirit-filled life with Christ enthroned within, (John 14:15, 21, 23; 15:4, 10).

Guide; God is the guide of His people, (Psa. 31:3; 32:8; 48:14; 73:24; Isa. 58:11; Lu. 1:79; 1 Thess. 3:11). The Holy Spirit guideth the fully yielded and obedient Christian into all truth, (John 16:13). Guidance comes through the word, (Psa. 119:105); through the Spirit, (John 16:13); and through His providence, opening or closing doors before His people.

II.

Happy; a joyful and peaceful state of mind growing out of one’s right relationship to God and man. Who are the happy, (Matt. 5:3-11; John 13:17; Rom. 14:22; Jas. 5:11; 1 Pet. 3:14; Prov. 3:11, etc.). The more one’s life is yielded to God, the happier he will become; because, in this event, all the elements leading to unrest will be canceled from one’s being, and the Prince of Peace will rule in him.

Hate. The things we ought to hate; evil, (Psa. 17:10); every false way, (Psa. 119:104); vain thoughts, (v. 113); we are to hate the sin in ourselves and in all others, (Lu. 14:26). The world hates Christians, (John 15:18, 19; 1 John 3:13; John 17:14). He that hates his brother is a murderer (1 John 3:15), and walks in darkness, (1 John 2:11). Hatred comes from Satan; and love comes from God. If we would get all hatred out of our being, we must let the God of love abide in us.

Heal, Healing, Divine Healing. Sin brought sickness and all the sorrows of earth, (Gen. 3); Satan, the agent that introduced sin, (vs. 3, 4); Satan, through his demonic hosts, ministers disease to people, (Lu. 13:16; Acts 10:38). Healing, provided in the atonement of Christ, (Isa. 53:3-5; Matt. 8:17; 1 Pet. 2:24). Healing a part of the Gospel itself: 1. The twelve had power to heal the sick, (Matt. 10:1; Lu. 9:1); 2. The seventy had the same gift, (Lu. 10:1, 9); 3. Healing in the great commission of our Lord, (Matt. 28:19, 20; Mk. 16:15-18); 4. The anointing service with prayer, (Jas. 5:14, 15). Those who get God’s best for their bodies will realize healing of all their diseases, (Psa. 103:3); rejuvenation, (v. 5); quickening by the Spirit, (Rom. 8:11); strength, (Isa. 40:31); health, (3 John 2). How to realize healing: 1. Yield yourself wholly to God to do His perfect will, (Rom. 6:13, 19; 12:1; Matt. 16:24; 2 Cor. 8:5); 2. Learn to live the Spirit-filled life; 3. Come into permanent heart-union with Christ; 4. Abide in Him, He in you; and draw your life from Him daily.

Heart; the seat of life, motive, character, will. God prizes a broken and contrite heart, (Psa. 3:18; 51:8, 17; Isa. 57:15; 66:2); heart deceitful, (Jer. 17:9); stony, (Ezek. 11:19); a heart of flesh, (same); a new heart, (Ezek. 36:26); keep thy heart, (Prov. 4:23); one's heart is with his treasure, (Matt. 6:21); did not our heart burn, (Lu. 24:32); heart troubled, (John 14:1); pure in heart, (Matt. 5:8); with purpose of heart, (Acts 11:23); believe with the heart, (Rom. 10:10); the hidden man of the heart, (1 Pet. 3:4); Christ dwelling in the heart, (Eph. 3:17).

Heaven; the New Jerusalem, (Rev. 21:1-4, 10-27; Rev. 22:1-5), Inheritance... reserved in Heaven, (1 Pet. 1:4); who will enter Heaven, (see John 3:3, 5; 1 Pet. 1:5; Rev. 7:14; 14:13, 22:14); who shall not enter, (Psa. 9:17; Rev. 22:15; 20:15; 21:8); John 3:36 [later clause]); "the occupation and blessedness of the inhabitants, (Rev. 22:3-6). Are you ready to enter this Blessed Abode?

Hell; the place of the wicked after the judgment, (Matt. 5:29, 30; 10:28; 23:15, 23; Mt. 9:43, 45; Lu. 12:5). "The Gehenna of the fire" (Matt. 5:22) or "the Hell of fire," seems to be the same as "the lake of fire" into which the beast and false prophet are to be cast, (Rev. 19:20), where also Satan (Rev. 20:10), and all whose names are not found in the Lamb's Book of Life will be cast, (v. 15). There is no hint that those who are cast into this lake will ever be taken out.

Holiness; purity, Christliness. [Holiness and sanctification, being translations of the same Greek words, are identical in meaning.] Holiness, or sanctification, is the Christ-life, or "new man," in the believer, built up upon the ruins of the old man, (Eph. 4:22, 24; Gal. 2:20; 2:14; 3:14; 5:1); holiness of character is the grand ideal towards which the Spirit-filled, Christ-indwelt should press, (Heb. 12:14; 2 Cor. 7:1; 1 Thess. 3:13; 5:23, etc.); and the ideal toward which the Father is concerned to bring us, (Heb. 12:10; John 15:2). The Spirit's agency in building up a holy character is seen in 2 Thess. 2:13; 2 Cor. 3:18; Gal. 5:22, 23, 1 Pet. 1:2; the truth, or word of God, the instrument, (John 17:17, also 2 Thess. 2:13). The Son supplies the ideal (2 Cor. 3:18), and the material, so to speak (John 6:56), out of which the believer is built up. The believer's part in this great work is, whole-hearted obedience, prayer, faith, study of the Word, living for the glory of God, dying to live, and feeding on the Living Bread.

Holy; this word is the basis of the noun holiness. The word holy is used many times in the New Testament Scriptures; and is applied to the Father, (John 17:11); to the Son, (Acts 3:14); and to the Spirit, (Matt. 28:19); it is applied to each true believer, (Phil. 4:21); and to believers in general, and translated saints, (see 1 Cor. 1:2, Matt. 27:52; Acts 9:13, 32, 41, etc.). Believers are commanded to be holy, (1 Pet. 1:5). One obeys this command as he wholly yields to Christ in perfect obedience and trust, living the Spirit-filled life. The verb to sanctify, or make holy, is used in the verbal and participial form about twenty-four times; and it has in the New Testament Scriptures no less than three distinct usages: viz.: 1. As applied to Christ, and used in the Old Testament sense of to devote or to separate, (see John 10:36; 17:19); 2. To denote the judicial standing of the believer viewed in Christ, (1 Cor. 1:2, 30; 6:11); and, 3. To denote Christ-likeness, as seen in the noun holiness, or sanctification. This is the highest use of the word, and the one about which we should be intensely concerned, (2 Cor. 7:1; 1 Thess. 3:13; 5:23; Eph. 4:24; Heb. 13:10, 14, etc., etc.).

Hospitability; kindness to strangers, including their entertainment. Commanded, (Rom. 12:13; Heb. 13:2); given to hospitality, (Tit. 1:8; 1 Tim. 3:2); using hospitality one to another, (1 Pet. 4:9). Unstinted and unpretentious hospitality is an excellent Christian grace, that should be cultivated. Nor should it be withheld from the poor, (see Isa. 58:7-10).

Humble; lowly, lowliness before God, meekness. Jesus was "lowly in heart," (Matt. 11:29); brother of low degree, (Jas. 1:9); gives grace to the humble, (Jas. 4:6); gird yourselves with a lowly spirit, (1 Pet. 5:5); see also 2 Cor. 10:1; 7:6); lowliness of mind, (Phil. 2:3).

Hunger; used both physically and spiritually. They shall not hunger nor thirst, (Isa. 49:10; 58:7, 11); happy are those who hunger and thirst, (Matt. 5:6; see also Lu. 6:21, 25); shall never thirst, (6:35; 4:14); if he hunger, feed him, (Rom. 12:20); He will fill the hungry, (Psa. 107:9); God give food to the hungry, (Psa. 146:7); how to be full and how to be hungry, (Phil. 4:12); they shall hunger.
APPENDIX D

no more, (Rev. 7:16). When we reach our Heavenly Home, we will hunger and thirst no more forever.

I.

Immerse, immersion; the ordinance in which the penitent believer publicly puts on Christ as his Savior and Lord. He that believes and is immersed, (Mk. 16:16); immersing them, (Matt. 23:19); repent and be immersed, (Acts 2:38). See notes on Matt. 3:11; Mk. 1:8; Lu. 3:16; Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12.

Inherit; to possess as an heir, or in line of descent. The meek shall inherit the earth, (Ps. 37:11; Matt. 5:5); shall inherit eternal life, (Matt. 19:29); inherit the kingdom prepared for you, (Matt. 25:34); what shall I do to inherit eternal life, (Mk. 10:17); flesh and blood shall not inherit, (1 Cor. 15:50; Gal. 5:21); through faith inherit the promises, (Heb. 6:12); inherit a blessing, (1 Pet. 3:9); inherit all things, (Rev. 21:7).

Inheritance; the portion possessed. The Lord is the portion of my inheritance, (Ps. 16:5); the Lord shall choose our inheritance, (Ps. 47:4); wisdom is good with an inheritance, (Ecc. 7:11); earnest of our inheritance, (Eph. 1:11); inheritance in the Kingdom of Christ, (Eph. 5:5); inheritance of the saints, (Col. 1:12); reward of the inheritance, (Col. 3:24); eternal inheritance, (Heb. 9:15; 1 Pet. 1:4).

Intercession; a species of prayer in which one party intercedes for another. Jesus made intercession for transgressors, (Isa. 53:12); Christ now maketh intercession for His people, (Heb. 7:25; Rom. 8:34); the Holy Spirit maketh intercession for God's children, (Rom. 8:26); prayer . . . intercession to be made for all men, (1 Tim. 2:1). God needs real intercessors, that can cooperate mightily with Christ in furtherance of His Kingdom.

J.

Jesus; the God-Man, (Isa. 9:6); existed before he put on humanity, (2 Cor. 8:9; John 1:1, 2); all things were made through Him, (John 1:3; Col. 1:16, 17); His incarnation, (John 1:14; Matt. 1:18-21; Lu. 1:35); He was as the Lamb slain in the plan of God, (Rev. 13:8; see also ch. 17:8); He was the ransom provided, (Matt. 20:28; 1 Tim. 2:6); the vicarious Sufferer, (Isa. 53:4, 6; 2 Cor. 5:14, 21; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3:18); He is our life, (John 14:6; 11:25; Col. 3:4).

Jesus Christ; is Jesus the Anointed, or Jesus filled with the Holy Spirit.

Joy; the joy of the Lord your strength, (Neh. 8:10); fulness of joy, (Ps. 16:11); joy cometh in the morning, (Psa. 30:5); God, my exceeding joy, (Psa. 43:4); rejoiced with great joy, (Matt. 2:10); enter into the joy, (Matt. 25:21); joy over one sinner that repents, (Lu. 15:7); your joy may be made full, (John 15:11; also 16:24); sorrow turned into joy, (John 16:20); your joy no one takes from you, (16:22); My joy fulfilled in themselves, (17:13); joy in the Holy Spirit, (Rom. 14:17); helpers of your joy, (2 Cor. 1:24); joy an element in the fruit of the Spirit, (Gal. 5:22, 23). To have fulness of joy all the time, we must be full of the Holy Spirit, and have Christ enthroned in our hearts.

Judge, the; Jesus Christ is made the judge of all things, (John 5:22; Matt. 11:27; 28:18; 3:35; 17:2; Acts 17:31; 1 Pet. 4:5; 2 Tim. 4:1; Acts 10:42, etc.).

Judgments; 1. In a representative sense, we were judged, condemned, and executed in the person of our Substitute, when Christ died for us on the cross, (Isa. 53:4, 5, 6; Rom. 6:6; 3:25; 4:25; 5:6; 8:32; 2 Cor. 5:14, 21; Gal. 1:4; 1 Pet. 2:24; 3:18).

2. When the sinner, awakened to a sense of his great guilt and peril, takes refuge in Christ by faith, he is judged, and assigned to Christ, (Rom. 8:1; 7:4; 10:4).

3. The Christian in the spirit of deep consecration, judges and condemns himself, (Matt. 16:24; Lu. 14:26, 27; 1 Cor. 11:31); and is ready to execute "the old man," or self-life, ever after this, (2 Cor. 4:10, 11; Gal. 2:20; 5:24).

4. The judgment of rewards for the saints, (Acts 17:51; Rom. 2:16; 2 Cor. 5:10; Heb. 9:27).

5. The judgment of the nations during the millennium, (Matt. 25:31-46; 16:27; 19:28; Zech. 14:5; Jude 14:15; 2 Thess. 1:7-10; Rev. 1:17, etc.).

N. B. Judgments 2 and 3 are individual; while 1, 4, 5 and 6 are for classes as well as for individuals. Class 4 seems to be for the raptured and other saints who constitute a part of the bride; and it comes soon after the rapture. Class 5 comes during the millennium; and class 6 comes after the millennium.

Justification; the state of being accounted just. Justification is a sovereign act of God the Father whereby He accounts righteous the penitent believer who trusts in Christ as his Savior.

The ground of justification is the vicarious sufferings of Christ, (1 Cor. 15:3; Rom. 5:9; Heb. 9:26). Hence it is not of works, (Acts 13:39; Rom. 3:20, 23; Gal. 2:16; 3:11; Eph. 2:8, 9); but by faith fa faith that identifies the penitent with the Christ who died on the cross to put away sin, (Rom. 5:1; 3:28, 30; Rom. 1:17; Gal. 3:13, 14, etc.); justification as related to Christ's resurrection, (Rom. 4:25); justification as related to works, (Jas. 2:24-26).

K.

Kindness; gentleness of manner with deeds corresponding. The Greek word is suggestive of utility and goodness. It appears as the fifth element in "the fruit of the Spirit," (Gal. 5:22, 23). God . . . is of great kindness, (Neh. 9:17; Joel 2:13); law of kindness, (Prov.
Kind; Jesus Christ offered Himself to be the King of the Jews, (Zech. 9:9; Matt. 21:5; John 12:15); but He was rejected, and crucified. He is now King in the hearts of some of His people, (Eph. 3:17; Col. 1:27); He is also King of the spiritual realm, dispensing life to all who trust Him; and is to be "King of Kings and Lord of lords," (1 Tim. 6:15; Rev. 17:14; Zech. 14:9). He will reign for 1,000 years on the earth, (Rev. 20:4).

Kingdom; Christ is King of the spiritual Kingdom; and people enter this Kingdom through the new birth, (John 1:13; 3:3, 5, 6). He now rules as King in the hearts of Spirit-filled believers; and, together with the Father and the Holy Spirit, He is building up characters to rule with Him in the Millennial Kingdom.

Know; Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free, (John 8:32); this is life eternal, that they may know Thee...

. and Jesus Christ whom Thou hast sent, (17:3); that I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection, (Phil. 3:16); we know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren, (1 John 3:14); then shall we know, if we follow on to know the Lord, (Hosea 6:3). Through thorough obedience, earnest prayer, and unwavering faith, the Christian may come to realize the indwelling Spirit (John 14:15-17), and come to know that Christ is in him, (v. 20); see also Eph. 3:16, 17); then, through persistent obedience, he comes to realize the manifested Christ, (v. 21); and, later, he can realize the presence of the Father also. It is unspeakably blessed to know that one is living in harmony and fellowship with the Holy Trinity!

Law; God's law given to Adam, (Gen. 2:16, 17); to Noah, (Gen. 9:3-6); given through Moses, (Ex. 19:20; Deut. chs. 5, 6); the law required perfect obedience, (Deut. 27:26; Gal. 3:1); all condemned by, (3:10-20); fulfilled by Christ, (Matt. 5:17; Rom. 5:18); Christians redeemed from, (John 1:17; Acts 13:39; Rom. 10:4; Gal. 3:13). His life is given to the penitent believer in regeneration; and it grows and matures in one, as he follows the Lord fully, lives the Spirit-filled life, enthrones Christ in his heart, and follows Him through the crucifixion, (2 Cor. 4:10, 11; Gal. 2:20; Phil. 3:10).

Light; Jesus is the light of the world, (John 8:12; Ch. 1:4, 5, 9; also 9:5; 12:35, 36, 46; 14:6); ye are the light of the world, (Matt. 5:14; also Phil. 2:15). [True Christians reflect the light of Jesus before the world; and this light becomes the more brilliant, as the Christ-life in them becomes more developed]; let your light so shine, (Matt. 5:16); turn them from darkness to light, (Acts 26:18); put on the armor of light, (Rom. 13:12); walk as children of light, (Eph. 5:8); ye are sons of light, (1 Thess. 5:5); the Lamb is the light thereof, (Rev. 21:23). The light begins in the believer in regeneration, (John 1:13; 3:3, 5, 6); is strengthened and intensified through the infilling Spirit, the indwelling Christ, and the fostering care of the Father, (John 14:17-23; Eph. 3:16-19).

Live; Hear, and your soul shall live, (Isa. 55:3); to hear is to repent, (Acts 3:19), and believe, (Acts 16:19); the just shall live by faith, (Rom. 1:17); not live by bread alone, (Matt. 4:4); because I live, ye shall live also,

A person of this type will be most likely to have every other element entering into God's ideal for His people.

The meek shall be satisfied, (Psa. 22:26); the meek will He guide in judgment, (Psa. 25:9); the Lord lifteth up the meek, (Psa. 147:6); beautify the meek with salvation, (Psa. 140:4); meek shall increase their joy, (Isa. 51:1); meek shall inherit the earth, (Matt. 5:5); thy King cometh, meek, (Matt. 21:5); I am meek and lowly in heart, (Matt. 11:29); ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, (1 Pet. 3:4).

It is the prerogative of the Holy Spirit to unfold the mysteries of the incarnation, vicarious death, the atoning sacrifice of Christ, the new birth, the indwelling Christ, the doctrines and provisions of the Gospel, the rapture, and the wiles of Satan. Human learning is unable to grasp these mysteries; hence, the necessity, if one would be a real teacher of the Gospel, of being filled, guided and taught by the Spirit.

Not bear false witness against, (Ex. 20:16); do not defraud your neighbor, (Levit. 19:13); shall rebuke your neighbor, (Levit. 19:17); shall love your neighbor as yourself, (Matt. 19:19; 22:29; Rom. 13:9; Gal. 5:14; Jas. 2:8); who is my neighbor, (Lu. 10:29-36); works no ill to his neighbor, (Rom. 13:10); please his neighbor, (Rom. 15:2). When Christ rules in our hearts, we will love our neighbor as ourselves.

O.

Obey. Disobedience to the command of God in Gen. 3:3 brought sin and death to our race. (Gen., 5d ch.; see also Rom. 5:12-21). Under the Gospel, obedience has a most important place. Repent and be converted, (Acts 3:19); believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, (Acts 16:31); present your bodies a living sacrifice, (Rom. 12:1, 2); be filled with the Spirit, (Eph. 5:18); abide in Me, and I in you, (John 15:4, 5); put off the old man, (Eph. 4:22); put on the new man, (Eph. 4:24); make dead your members, (Col. 3:5); put away all these, (Col. 3:8). These are examples of obedience, in which the Word itself does not appear. Note these, where it does appear: Acts 5:29; Rom. 6:16; Eph. 6:1; Col. 3:21; Tit. 3:1; Heb. 5:9; 13:17; 1 Pet. 3:1; 4:17; Rom. 5:16; 1 Pet. 1:2.

Overcome; to conquer, to subdue, to triumph over. One's enemies are the flesh (including self), the world and the Devil. To overcome these constitutes the great task of the Christian. Jesus says, "I have overcome the world," (John 16:33); be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good, (Rom. 12:21); ye have overcome the evil one, (1 John 2:13, 14); he that overcomes, (Rev. 2:7, 11, 26; Rev. 3:5, 12, 21; 21:7). How to overcome: One must open the door of his heart, and let the Savior in, (Rev. 3:20); live the crucified life with Jesus, (2 Cor. 4:10, 11; Gal. 2:20; 5:24; Eph. 4:4); Phil. 3:10); put on the new man (Eph. 4:24), and let the Spirit produce His fruit within, (Gal. 5:22, 23).

P.

Parable; in general, the illustration of some spiritual truth by an assumed, familiar fact or custom; the object being to teach spiritual truth by illustration. When the Jews rejected Christ's teachings, He taught in parables; and explained their meaning to His disciples privately: Tares [from a boat] (L. of Galilee), (Matt. 13:21-23); hidden treasure (L. of Galilee), (Matt. 13:44); pearl of great price (L. of Galilee), (Matt. 13:45, 46); drag net (L. of Galilee), (Matt. 13:47); unmerciful servant (Capernaum), (Matt. 18:23); laborers in vineyard (in Temple), (Matt. 20:1-17); father and two sons (in Temple), (Matt. 21:28-32); king's sons marriage (in Temple), (Matt. 22:1-15); ten virgins (Mt. of Olives), (Matt. 25:1-13); talents (Mt. of Olives), (Matt. 25:14-30); sheep and goats (Mt. of Olives), (Matt. 25:31-46); growth of seed (L. of Galilee), (Mk. 4:26-30); household watching (Mt. of Olives), (Mk. 13:34, 35); two debtors (Galilee), (Lu. 7:37-50); good Samaritan (in Temple), (Lu. 10:25-37); friend at midnight (near Jerusalem), (Lu. 11:5-8); rich fool (Galilee), (Lu. 12:16-21); servants watching (Galilee), (Lu. 12:35-40); steward on trial (Galilee), (Lu. 12:42-48); barren fig-tree (Galilee), (Lu. 13:6-9); great supper (Perea), (Lu. 14:16-24); tower and warring king (Perea), (Lu. 14:28-33); lost piece of money (Perea), (Lu. 15:8-10); prodigal son (Perea), (Lu. 15:11-32); dishonest steward (Perea), (Lu. 16:1-13); rich man and Lazarus (Perea), (Lu. 16:19-31); master and servant (Perea), (Lu. 17:7-10); impertunate widow (Perea), (Lu. 18:1-8); Pharisee and publican (Perea), (Lu. 19:8-10);

Passover; a Jewish feast used as a type of Christ. Instituted, (Ex. 12:13); laws concerning, (Lev. 23:4; 5; Deut. 16:2); Christ our passover, (1 Cor. 5:7). As the blood of the paschal lamb protected the children of Israel from the destroying angel, so the blood of Christ protects the believer from the curse of the law; and, as the flesh of the lamb was to be eaten by those who celebrated the passover, so the true believer, in a spiritual sense, eats the body of Christ, (John 6:53-56).

Patience; endurance, steadfastness. Exhortations to patience, (Lu. 21:19; Rom. 12:12; 1 Thess. 5:14; 2 Thess. 3:5; 1 Tim. 3:3; 6:11; Jas. 1:3; 5:7; Heb. 12:1; 1 Pet. 2:20; 2 Pet. 1:6); blessings resulting from patience, (Rom. 5:3; 15:4; Heb. 6:12; Rev. 2:2; 3:10). The patience of Christ grows in the believer, as the self-life expires.

Peace; tranquility of spirit, deep rest of soul, growing out of conscious reconciliation to God through Jesus Christ. Have peace one with another, (Mt. 5:22); way of peace, (Lu. 1:79); on earth peace, (2:14); peace I leave with you, (John 14:27); in Me ye have peace, (John 16:32); we have peace with God through Jesus Christ, (Rom. 5:1); fill you with peace, (Rom. 15:13); God hath called us to peace, (1 Cor. 7:15); live in peace, (2 Cor. 13:11); peace is an element in the fruit of the Spirit, (Gal. 5:22, 23; He is our peace, (Eph. 2:14); peace of God, (Phil. 4:7); peace of God rule in your heart, (Col. 3:15); follow peace, (Heb. 12:14); let him seek peace, (1 Pet. 3:11). The way to get peace and retain it, is to let Christ rule in your heart.

Perfect; wanting nothing, answering to God's ideal for His people, (Matt. 5:48); among those who are perfect, (1 Cor. 2:6); strength perfect in weakness, (2 Cor. 12:9); be perfect, (2 Cor. 13:11); a perfect man, (Eph. 4:13)—this is the standard of perfection; not . . . already perfect, (Phil. 3:12); as many as be perfect, (v. 15); present every man perfect in Christ, (Col. 1:28); perfect . . . in all the will of God, (4:12); man of God may be perfect, (2 Tim. 3:17); make you perfect in every good work, (Heb. 13:21); let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect, (Jas. 1:4). One approximates perfection, as the life of Christ is being developed in him more and more.

Persecute; blessed are ye when they persecute you, (6 Matt. 5:11, 44); when they persecute you, (Matt. 10:22); bless those who persecute you, (Rom. 12:14); if they persecute Me, they will persecute you, (John 15:20); why do you persecute Me, (Acts 9:4); I persecuted this way to death, (Acts 22:4); I persecuted them to strange cities, (Acts 26:11); being persecuted, we suffer it, (1 Cor. 4:12); because I persecuted the assembly of God, (1 Cor. 15:9); persecuted, but not forsaken, (2 Cor. 4:9); persecuted him that was born of the Spirit, (4:20); have persecuted us, (1 Thess. 2:15); who was a persecutor, (1 Tim. 1:13); all who live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution, (2 Tim. 3:12).

To please and glorify God are the great ends of the true Christian's life.

Power; power on earth to forgive sins, (Matt. 9:6); all power is given to Me, (Matt. 28:18); His word was with power, (Lu. 4:32); power of the Lord to heal them, (5:17); till ye be endued with power, (24:49); power (or right) to become the sons of God, (John 1:12); power over all flesh, (17:2); ye shall receive power, (Acts 1:8); power of God unto salvation, (Rom. 1:16); to make His power known, (9:22); no power but of God, (13:1); Christ the power of God, (1 Cor. 1:24); demonstration of the Spirit and power, (2:4); that your faith may stand . . . in the power of God, (v. 5); gathered together with the power of the Lord, (5:4); excellency of the power may be, (2 Cor. 4:7); Gospel came to you not in word, but in power, (1 Thess. 1:5); the work of faith with power, (2 Thess. 2:11); spirit of power and of love, (2 Tim. 1:7); kept by the power of God, (1 Pet. 1:5); divine power, (2 Pet. 1:3); power over the nations, (Rev.

Preacher; a Gospel herald, who may be a pastor or an evangelist. A Gospel preacher should be called by God to preach; then he should be qualified for his work, (Lu. 24:49; Acts 1:8; Gal. 1:16); ordained, (1 Tim. 2:7); should have certain other qualifications, (3:1-7). There is no higher calling on earth.

Price; Jesus Christ was the price paid for human redemption, (1 Cor. 6:20; 1 Pet. 1:18, 19).

Pride; when pride comes, then comes shame, (Prov. 11:2); by pride comes contention, (12:10); pride goes before destruction, (16:18); man's pride shall bring him low, (29:23); blasphemy, pride, foolishness, (Mk. 7:21, 22); lifted up with pride, he shall fall, (1 Tim. 3:6); pride of life, (1 John 2:16). Pride is, in a large sense, the essence of depravity.

Prince; as a prince you have power with God and with men, (Gen. 32:28); Prince of Peace, (Isa. 9:6); Michael your prince, (Dan. 10:21); prince of this world, (John 12:31); prince of the world comes, (14:30); prince of this world is judged, (16:11); Prince of life, (Acts 3:15); to be a Prince and a Savior, (5:31); prince of the power of the air, (Eph. 2:2); Prince of the kings of the earth, (Rev. 1:5).

The promise of the Father, (Lu. 24:49; also 11:13); promise of the Father, (Acts 1:4); promise is to you and to your children, (Acts 2:29); that the promise might be sure, (Rom. 4:16); children of the promise are counted for the seed, (Rom. 9:8); we . . . are the children of the promise, (Gal. 4:28); having promise of the life that now is, (4:8); lest a promise being left us, (Heb. 4:1); inherit the promise, (Heb. 6:12); having these promises, (2 Cor. 7:1); exceeding great and precious promises, (2 Pet. 1:4); see also John 4:14; 14:20, 21, 23; Eph. 3:16-19.

Repentance and faith in Christ are the conditions of pardon and salvation; consecration, prayer, and faith, the conditions of entering upon the Spirit-filled life; opening the door to Jesus, the condition upon which He cometh within to abide, (Rev. 3:20); whole-hearted obedience is the condition of the Savior's manifestation to the believer, and of the incoming and abiding of the Father, (John 14:21, 23).

Propitiation; that which satisfies divine justice, and secures God's favor. Whom God hath set forth as a propitiation through faith in His [Christ's] blood, (Rom. 3:25); He [Christ] is the propitiation for our sins, (1 John 2:2); sent His Son as a propitiation for our sins, (1 John 4:10).

N. B. Christ hath removed the cause of the divine displeasure against man, and hath also procured God's favor, through His own vicarious death in which He put away sin, (Heb. 9:26).

Prove; test, demonstrate, come to know. Prove what is the good, acceptable, and perfect will of God, (Rom. 12:2); prove the sincerity of your love, (2 Cor. 8:8); prove your own selves, (2 Cor. 13:5); let every man prove his own work, (Gal. 6:4); prove all things, hold fast that which is good, (1 Thess. 5:21); proving, (Eph. 5:10; Acts 9:22).

R.

Ransom; the price paid in redemption. Christ is the ransom for His people, (Matt. 20:28; Isa. 53:10, 11; Dan. 9:24, 26; 1 Tim. 2:6;Tit. 2:14; 1 Pet. 1:18, 19).

Reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, (Eph. 2:16); reconcile all things to Himself, (Col. 1:20); reconciling the world to Himself, (2 Cor. 5:19); when enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son, (Rom. 5:19); be ye reconciled to God, (2 Cor. 5:20); ministry of reconciliation, (2 Cor. 5:18). Christ gave Himself a ransom for sinners with the view to reconciling the world to Himself. The acceptance of the sufferings of Christ by the Father shows the great value of the Son’s sacrifice.

Redeem; to buy back, to purchase. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, (Gal. 3:13); redeemed with His precious blood, (1 Pet. 1:18); redeemed us to God by His blood, (Rev. 3:9); redeemed from among men, (Rev. 14:4); redemption in Christ Jesus, (Rom. 3:24); waiting for the redemption of the body, (Rom. 3:24); Christ is made redemption to us, (1 Cor. 1:30); obtained eternal redemption for us, (Heb. 9:12). Redemption, as coming from the Father, was the result of the gift of His Son, (John 3:16); as coming from the Son, redemption is the result of His voluntary sacrifice for sinners, (Heb. 9:26).

Reign; to rule as King. Reign in life by One, Jesus Christ, (Rom. 5:17); if we suffer with Him, we shall also reign with Him, (2 Tim. 2:12; see also Rom. 8:17); we shall reign on the earth, (Rev. 5:10); they shall reign with Christ a thousand years, (Rev. 20:4)—[this thousand years is the millennium]. The full overcomers are the ones who will sit with Jesus in His throne, and reign with Him, (Rev. 3:21). Suffering with Jesus in the present life is an essential condition of reigning with Him in the life to come. We must suffer the crucifixion with Him (2 Cor. 4:10, 11; Gal. 2:20), and suffer reproach for Him, (Heb. 11:25, 26).

Rejoice. Rejoice that your names have been written in Heaven, (Lu. 10:20); rejoice in hope of the glory of God, (Rom. 5:2); rejoice with those who rejoice, (Rom. 12:15); rejoice in Christ Jesus, (Phil. 3:3); rejoice in the Lord, (Phil. 4:4); rejoice evermore, (1 Thess. 5:16); rejoice with joy unspeakable, (1 Pet. 1:8); rejoiced because they were accounted worthy to suffer for His name, (Acts 5:41); rejoiced in hope, (Rom. 12:12). When Christ is reigning in our hearts, we can rejoice evermore.

Repent, repentance; to change one’s mind, to give up sin and turn from it, after-thought. Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand, (Matt. 3:2); repent and believe the Gospel, (Mk. 1:15); preached, that men should repent, (Mk. 6:12); except ye repent, (Lu. 12:3); if he repent, forgive him, (Lu. 17:3); repent, and be immersed, (Acts 2:38); repent, and be converted, (3:19); repent of this your wickedness, (Acts 8:22); now commandeth all men to repent, (17:30); that they should repent and turn to God, (26:20); fruits meet for repentance, (Matt. 3:8); immersion of repentance, (Mk. 1:4); that repentance and remission of sins be preached, (Lu. 24:47); God to the Gentiles hath granted repentance, (Acts 11:18); testifying repentance toward God, (20:21); goodness of God leads to repentance, (Rom. 2:4); gifts of God are without repentance, (11:29); Godly sorrow works repentance, (2 Cor. 7:10); found no place for repentance, (Heb. 12:17). Repentance follows conviction of sin, if one yields to conviction; and repentance opens the way for saving faith.

Rest. Come to Me . . . and I will give you rest, . . . ye shall find rest, (Matt. 11:28, 29); we who have believed do enter into rest, (Heb. 4:3; see also vs. 9, 10, 11); the dead in the Lord rest from their labors, (Rev. 14:13); Spirit of God rest upon you, (1 Pet. 4:14).

Great is your reward in Heaven, (Matt. 5:12); they have their reward, (Matt. 6:2); reward is not reckoned of grace, (Rom. 4:4); every man shall receive his own reward, (1 Cor. 3:8); if a man’s work abide, . . . he shall receive a reward, (v. 14); let no man beguile you of your reward, (Col. 2:18); receive the reward of the inheritance, (3:24); laborer is worthy of reward, (1 Tim. 5:18); the Lord reward him according, (2 Tim. 4:14); just recompense of reward, (Heb. 2:2); had respect to the recompense of reward, (Heb. 11:26); may receive a full reward, (2 John 8); My reward is with Me, (Rev. 22:12); Rewarder of those who diligently seek Him, (Heb. 11:6).

Rich; riches constitute a great difficulty in the way of salvation, (Matt. 19:23, 24; 13:22; Mk. 10:23-25; 1 Tim. 6:9, 10; Lu. 6:24; 16:1); rich in good works, (1 Tim. 6:18); rich in faith, (Jas. 2:5); I know your poverty, but you are rich, (Rev. 2:9); Jesus was rich, but became poor, that ye . . . may be rich, (2 Cor. 8:9). The dutiful believer may be enriched with the fellowship of each Person in the God-head, (John 17:23; Eph. 3:16-19); with “the fruit of the Spirit,” Gal. 5:22, 23; with the gifts of the Spirit, (1 Cor. 12:8-11); with regal honors, (Rev. 3:21); with all things, (Rev. 21:7).

Righteousness; a state of rightness resulting from perfect conformity to the requirements of law, (Deut. 6:25). Happy are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness, (Matt. 5:6); in holiness and righteousness, (Lu. 1:75); Christ is the end of the law for righteousness, (Rom. 10:4); Christ is our righteousness, (1 Cor. 1:30; 2 Cor. 5:21; Phil. 3:9; Rom. 3:22); yield your members as instruments of righteousness, (6:13); servants of righteousness, (vs. 18, 19); righteousness which is of faith, (Rom. 10:6, 10); righteousness of the law fulfilled in us through the life of Jesus in us, (Rom. 8:4). Christ’s righteousness is imputed to us in justification, and imparted to us in sanctification.
S.

Saints, holy ones; frequently applied to Christians who are carnal; as, 1 Cor. 1:2; Eph. 1:1, etc., as compared with 1 Cor. 3:1-3; Eph. 3:16, 17. Called saints, (Rom. 1:7; 1 Cor. 1:2; 2 Cor. 1:1; Eph. 1:1; Col. 1:2, etc.). Christians were called saints, not called to be saints. Salvation is by grace through faith, (Eph. 2:15).

Sanctify. (See holiness.)

Satan; the Devil, Serpent, Beelzebub. Satan appears to be a fallen angel, (2 Pet. 2:4; Jude 6). The Scriptures represent Satan as the god of this world, (John 14:30); as prince of the demons, (Matt. 12:24); he performed the serpent's work in Eden, (Gen. 3:1-5); tempted the Savior, (Matt. 4:1-11); the agent that ministers disease to people, (Lu. 13:16); Acts 10:28; the accuser of the brethren, (Rev. 12:10); to be cast down from the heavens, (Rev. 12:9); gives his power to the beast, or Anti-Christ, (Rev. 13:2); is cast into the abyss, and kept there for a thousand years, (Rev. 20:1-3); is released again, (Rev. 20:7); stirs up a revolt among the people, (vs. 8, 9); is to be cast into the lake of fire, and tormented forever, (v. 10).

His people from their sins, (Matt. 1:21); who will save his life shall lose it, (Matt. 16:25); to save that which was lost, (Matt. 18:11); not to judge the world, but to save the world, (John 12:47); save yourselves from this untoward generation, (Acts 2:40); by the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe, (1 Cor. 1:21); to save sinners, (1 Tim. 1:15); to save to the uttermost, (Heb. 7:25); prayer of faith shall save the sick, (Jas. 5:14, 15); converts a sinner shall save a soul, (Jas. 5:20); your faith has saved you, (Lu. 7:50); are there few that are saved? Lambs, when young, are very helpless; it is only when they become sheep that they are skillful in distinguishing voices. This is as true of believers as of lambs and sheep.

Shepherd; this term is often applied to pastors of assemblies, also to Christ. The Lord is my Shepherd, (Psa. 23:1); see Ezek. 34:2-23; awake, O sword, against My Shepherd, (Zech. 13:7); the good Shepherd giveth His life for the sheep, (John 10:11); there shall be one fold, and one Shepherd, (v. 16); the Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, (Heb. 13:20); returned to the Shepherd and overseer of your souls, (1 Pet. 2:25); when the chief Shepherd shall appear, (1 Pet. 5:4).

REMARKS.

1. The word soul in several of the examples above seems to stand for the whole of man's immaterial existence.

2. Soul and spirit are plainly distinguished in 1 Thess. 5:23, and Heb. 4:12.

3. The body allies man to the animal creation; the soul, to the intellectual; and the spirit, to the moral. The soul appears to be the connecting link between the spirit and body.

4. The wreckage, done in the fall to the spirit and soul, resulted in abnormal self-hood, or a being whose original powers were diverted from God, and centered in self; thus constituting him a self-serving, self-interested, and selfish being. Hence the salvation of the soul necessitates the annulment of self-hood, and the impartation of a new spirit (John 3:6), involving a new life in Christ. The cross, which we are to bear, is to be applied to self, and its work will not be done, until self is annulled, and the soul is free.

Sow; used figuratively to denote one's manner of life, or course of conduct. Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy, (Psa. 126:5); blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, (Isa. 32:20); sower went forth to sow, (Matt. 13:3); sow the wind, reap the whirlwind, (Hos. 8:7); if we have sown to you spiritual things, (1 Cor. 9:11); sown in corruption, ... sown in dishonor, ... sown a natural body, (1 Cor. 15:42, 43, 44); multiply your seed sown, 2 Cor. 9:10; one sows and another reaps, (John 4:37); sow sparingly, ... sow bountifully, (2 Cor. 9:6); what a man soweth, that shall he also reap, (Gal. 6:7); soweth to his flesh shall reap corruption, (v. 8).

Spirit; Holy Spirit, the Third Person in the God-head. The Spirit, the Author of the Bible, (1 Tim. 3:16); the Agent who convicts the sinner, (John 16:8); the Agent of regeneration, (John 3:5, 6, 8); the Bestower of His gifts, (1 Cor. 12:8-11); the Revealer of Christ in the Spirit-filled believer, (John 14:17-20); the Guide into all truth, (John 16:13); the Revealer of the things of Christ, (v. 14); the Revealer of things to come, (v. 13).

N. B. Let no one suppose that either Person in the Holy Trinity worketh apart from the other Persons in the God-head; what each One doeth, He doeth in co-operation with the Others. It is the Triune God that worketh redemption.

Stand; to occupy a firm position, to maintain a Christian walk, etc. A house divided against itself can not stand, (Matt. 12:25); this grace wherein ye stand, (Rom. 5:3); God is able to make him stand, (Rom. 14:4); by faith ye stand, (2 Cor. 1:24); having done all, to stand, (Eph. 6:13); grace of God wherein ye stand, (1 Pet. 5:12); I stand at the door, (Rev. 3:20); stand fast in the faith, (1 Cor. 16:13); stand fast in the liberty, (Gal. 5:1); stand fast in one spirit, (Phil. 1:27); stand fast in the Lord, (Phil. 4:1); we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord, (1 Thess. 3:8); to his own master he stands or falls, (Rom. 14:3); let him that thinks he stands, take heed lest he fall, (1 Cor. 10:12); the foundation of God stands sure, (2 Tim. 2:12); the Judge stands at the door, (Jas. 5:9). To stand securely, the believer must recognize his standing in Christ, and admit Christ to rule in his heart.

Steward; one who conducts business for another. A true servant of God is only a steward, recognizing that all under his control belongs to the Lord; and he manages the business for the Lord. (See Lu. 12:42; 16:2; 1 Cor. 4:1; Tit. 1:7; 1 Pet. 4:10). God wisheth stewards, and not proprietors, to manage His business. If all professed Christians were God's honest stewards, the world would speedily be evangelized.

Strength; God girdeth me with strength, (Psa. 18:32); the Lord is the strength of my life, (27:1); the Lord will give strength to His people, (29:11); God is our refuge and our strength, (46:1); God is the strength of my heart, (73:26); blessed is the man whose strength is in Thee, (84:5); shall renew their strength, (Isa. 40:31); strength of sin is the law, (1 Cor. 15:56); strengthen with might by Thy Spirit, (Eph. 3:16); God of grace establish and strengthen you, (1 Pet. 5:10); strengthen the things that remain, (Rev. 3:2); the Lord stood with me and strengthened me, (2 Tim. 4:17); I can do all things through Christ, Who strengtheneth me, (Phil. 4:13).

As we abide in Christ and He abideth in us, He imparts strength to our spirits, souls, and bodies, for His own glory.

Strong; strong in faith, (Rom. 4:20); we who are strong should bear the infirmities of the weak, (Rom. 15:1); when I am weak, then am I strong, (2 Cor. 12:10); out of weakness were made strong, (Heb. 11:34); because ye are strong, (1 John 2:14); be strong, (1 Cor. 16:13). The way to be strong is to abide wholeheartedly in Jesus, and let Him have His own way in us; ever recognizing the fact that, in ourselves, we are but weakness itself.

Suffer; those who would be overcomers must suffer with Jesus—they must suffer the crucifixion with Him, (Gal. 2:20; 2 Cor. 4:10, 11); suffer reproach for His sake, (Heb. 11:25, 26); and have fellowship suffering with Him, (Gal. 2:3, 15, 4:10; Col. 1:24; Phil. 3:8, 10); if we suffer, we shall also reign with Him, (12:2, 13); if we suffer with Him, we shall be glorified with Him, (Rom. 8:17); Christ suffered for us, leaving us an example, (1 Pet. 2:21); after ye have suffered awhile, (1 Pet. 5:10). Christ was made perfect through suffering, and we must travel the same road, if we would be made perfect, and thus be fitted to be glorified with Him, and reign with Him.

Sufficient; sufficiency; adequate, ample supply. Who is sufficient for these things, (2 Cor. 2:10); not that we are sufficient of ourselves, (3:5); my grace is sufficient for you, (12:9); our sufficiency is of God, (3:5). In ourselves we are insufficient; in Christ we are sufficient; and in His power we become efficient.

Supply; satisfy, give enough. My God shall supply all your need, (Phil. 4:19; see also Psa. 23:1; 2 Cor. 9:10, 12). In Christ is stored up all we need for our souls and spirits, and for our bodies as well. With Christ directing our lives, we shall want no good thing.

APPENDIX D

Tabernacle; plan for its construction, (Exchs. 25-31); an account of its building, (36-38). The tabernacle was 45 feet in length by 15 in width and 15 in height. It was divided into two rooms (that were separated by costly curtains called the veil); the smaller room being called "the holy of holies," and in its dimensions it was 15 feet square; while the other room was 30x15 feet.

This structure was a type of Christ; showing, by a sort of object lesson, how Christ deals with sin; and, cleansing the sinner in His own precious blood, introduces him, finally, into the most holy place, where God in His Tripersonality abides with him. [The student is advised to study some spiritual writer who has studied this subject; and no better work is known to the writer than that of C. M. McIntosh.]

Temperance; moderation in the pursuit or use of good things; as to things wrong in themselves, the language is, "Touch not, taste, not, handle not." As he reasoned of . . . temperance, (Acts 24:25); temperance is an element in the fruit of the Spirit, (Gal. 5:22, 23; see also 2 Pet. 1:6); temperate in all things, (1 Cor. 9:25; see also Tit. 1:8; 2:2).

Tempt; test, try. You shall not tempt the Lord, (Matt. 4:7); have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord, (Acts 5:9); why tempt God to put a yoke on the neck of the disciples, (15:10); that Satan tempt you not, (1 Cor. 7:5); neither let us tempt Christ, our 0:2); Jesus was tempted in the wilderness by Satan, (Matt. 4:1); will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able, (1 Cor. 10:12); lest you also be tempted, (Gal. 6:1); lest the tempter have tempted you, (1 Thess. 3:5); in the day of temptation in the wilderness, (Heb. 3:8); rich fall into temptation, (1 Tim. 6:9); blessed is the man who endures temptation, (Jam. 1:12); keep you from the hour of temptation, (Rev. 3:10).

Note: Temptation does not, of necessity, imply that the party tempted has anything in him responsive to the temptation; for Jesus was tempted—I, e., tested or tried—by Satan, but He had no nature responsive to the tempter's lies.

Talent; a talent of gold, about $24,000. The talent varied much in value. The old Hebrew talent was worth about $29,100; while the Roman talent, the one in use during the time Savior was on earth, was worth about $24,000.

Torment; pain, agony, intense suffering. Lost they come to this place of torment, (Lu. 16:28); I am tormented in this flame, (v. 24); so much torment have they, (Rev. 18:7); the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever, (Rev. 14:11); he is comforted, but you are tormented, (Lu. 16:25); they—the beast, the false prophet, and Satan—shall be tormented day and night forever and ever, (Rev. 20:10). The torment appears to be soul-anguish because of sin. The place of torment will, no doubt, add much to the sufferings of the lost.

Trust; to rely upon, to believe in, etc. Trust in the Lord, (Psa. 37:3); blessed is the man that makes the Lord his trust, (Psa. 40:4); Thou art my trust from my youth, (71:5); I will trust in Him at all times, (62:8); Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed upon Thee, because he trusts in Thee, (Isa. 26:3); how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter the Kingdom of Heaven, (Mk. 10:24); should not trust in ourselves, (2 Cor. 1:9); who first trusted in Christ, (Eph. 1:12). Trust is a heart term.

Truth; reality, or conformity to fact. God of truth, (Deut. 32:4); speaks the truth in his heart, (Psa. 15:2); Thou desirest truth in the inward parts, (51:6); the truth of the Lord endures forever, (117:2); full of grace and truth, (John 1:14); I am the way, the truth, and the life, (14:6); guide you into all truth, (16:13, 14); if the truth shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed, (John 8:32); sanctify them in Thy truth: Thy word is truth, (John 17:17); speaking the truth in love, may grow up into Him in all things, (Eph. 4:15); taught by Him, as truth is in Jesus, (4:21); pillar and ground of the truth, (1 Tim. 3:15); having your loins girt about with truth, (Eph. 6:14); purified their hearts in obeying the truth, (1 Pet. 1:22).

U.

Understanding; the faculty of the mind with which we comprehend the truth. Who can understand his errors, (Psa. 19:12); have asked for yourself understanding, (1 Kings 3:18); astonished at His understanding, (Lu. 2:47); He opened their understanding, (24:45); pray with the understanding, (1 Cor. 14:15); eyes of understanding being enlightened, (Eph. 1:18); peace of God which passes understanding, (Phil. 4:7); filled with all spiritual understanding, (Col. 1:9); riches of full assurance of understanding, (2:2); give you understanding in all things, (2 Tim. 2:7); hath given us an understanding, that we may know Him who is true, (1 John 5:20).

V.

Vengeance. To Me belongs vengeance, (Deut. 32:35; Psa. 84:1); avenge not yourselves, ... vengeance is Mine, I will repay, saith the Lord, (Rom. 12:19; see also Ho. 10:29); the day of the Lord’s vengeance, (Isa. 34:8); these are the days of vengeance, (Lu. 21:22; see also 2 Thess. 1:8; Jude 7; Rev. 6:17).

Victory; He will swallow up death in victory, (Isa. 25:8); till He send forth judgment unto victory, (Matt. 12:20); death is swallowed up in victory, (1 Cor. 15:54); O grave, where is your victory, (v. 55); thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory, (v. 57); this is the victory that overcomes the world, (1 John 5:4). To get full victory over the flesh, self, sin, the world, and the Devil, we must let the Holy Trinity rule in our hearts.

W.

Walk; manner of life, live, conduct. Ye shall walk after the Lord, (Deut. 13:4); though I walk through the valley, (Psa. 23:4); no good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly, (34:11); this is the way, walk ye in it, (Isa. 30:21); walk humbly with your God, (Mic. 6:8); how can two walk together, except they be agreed, (Amos 3:3); shall not walk in darkness, (John 8:12); walk in the day, he stumbles not, (11:9); walk in newness of life, (Rom. 6:4); walk not after the flesh, (Rom. 8:4); we walk by faith, not by sight, (2 Cor. 5:7); walk worthy of the vocation, (Eph. 4:1); walk circumspectly, (5:15); if we walk in the light, (1 John 1:7); Enoch walked with God, (Heb. 11:5). To walk with God in unbroken fellowship, we must learn to live the Spirit-filled life, to have heart-union with Jesus, and have the Father make His abode with us, (John 14:17-25; Eph. 3:16-19).

Wisdom; knowledge rightly used. God gave Solomon wisdom, (1 Kgs. 4:29); wisdom is the principal thing—get wisdom, (Prov. 4:7); happy is the man that finds wisdom, (Prov. 3:13-18); wisdom better than gold, (16:16); Christ the ... wisdom of God, (1 Cor. 1:24); Christ made wisdom to us, (v. 30); wisdom of the world is foolishness, (3:19); fleshly wisdom, (2 Cor. 1:12); filled with all wisdom, (Col. 1:9); walk in wisdom, (4:5); if any man lack wisdom, (Jas. 1:5); wisdom from above is pure, (3:17). As the life and nature of Jesus are built up in the believer more and more, he will increase in wisdom.

NOTE TO READERS, STUDENTS, AND BIBLE TEACHERS.

In studying the different subjects given in this appendix, study the notes on all the Scriptures referred to in the New Testament, and seek to get the true meaning of the word in every passage; praying much that the Holy Spirit Himself may show you the true meaning; and then seek to get a comprehensive meaning of the word as illuminated by all the texts. And may the Lord greatly bless every one who shall study these lessons.
